SELLING COTTON AHEAD.

For several years some farmers have been selling their cotton in winter or spring for fall delivery. Many who would not gamble in cotton futures would sell their cotton ahead and thus help the gamblers. In some way they figure every year that an enormous crop is going to be made and that the price of cotton will go down to five or six cents and that by selling at about ten cents they will get ahead of their neighbors. Ten cents is the price usually paid for cotton sold this way. It is true that some of this cotton has been delivered when the price was under ten cents and then the farmer feels good about his trade but for the past few years the average price has been above ten cents, so that selling ahead is a losing business. If cotton did not range most of the time above ten cents the mill men and merchants would not engage cotton ahead at that price. The speculator, the cotton mill men and the merchant plan the game from carefully prepared statistics and the farmer bets on their game. A safe rule to follow all through life is never to bet on anybody else's game. Another good rule to make is not to sell anything which you do not possess and do not know that you ever will have as yours. The farmer who sells cotton in winter or spring to be grown that year does not know and cannot know just what he is doing. More cotton was engaged from this crop than any crop in the past. In our opinion this was one of the reasons why it went so low in September. Hundreds of thousands of bales were delivered on contracts by men able to hold their cotton and who would have held it but for the fact they had it sold and wanted to fill contracts. This cotton coming on the market at that time lowered the price. It was figured that enough cotton had to be delivered under contracts to run the mills and therefore it was not important to put the price up. We think that but for the storms in the south and the wet weather here which greatly decreased the number of bales of good cotton the price would have remained low largely on account of the contracted cotton. There may be much trouble ahead yet for the farmers who have not completed their deliveries of cotton they sold the early part of the year. They sold good white cotton and some of them may have to go or send to the states south of here to get it.

Getting cotton hundreds of miles away to fill contracts made here would be a new business to farmers. It is to be hoped that the future farmers will make and house and gin their cotton before they sell it. That is always soon enough to sell and sometimes too soon.—Smithfield Herald.

Do your Shopping Early.

The merchants are telling you what they have for Christmas, and you can save yourself the disadvantage of buying in a rush if you go early to do your Christmas shopping. Read all the advertisements in this paper and it will aid you in deciding what to buy.

Weather.

Fair and not so cold tonight and Thursday.

Even if the morning was bitter cold, this has been a fine day.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Notes from Our Hustling Neighbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Cutler, of Washington, spent several days here with relatives.

J. E. Green attended service at Red Banks Sunday.

There is a great demand for houses here onw. There are several applications from families that wish to come and no houses available. An investment along this line would be of two-fold benefit. The money would yield a good dividend and also induce citizens to come.

Miss Minnie Cox spent Sunday with Miss Daisy Mumford at Ayden and returned Sunday afternoon.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry conducted service for Rev. I. N. Mercer at the Baptist church in Washington, Sunday morning, and filled Rev. T. H. King's appointment Sunday night.

Mrs. Nash Hardee, of Oakley, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Pattie Sutton.

Leslie Smith, of Falkland, was a pleasant visitor here Monday.

R. H. Hunsucker went to Greenville Tuesday.

There was regular preaching service at the Free Will Baptist church Sunday morning and night. Rev. Mr. Pittman, of the Seminary at Ayden, did the preaching.

Rev. Mr. Williams, of New Bern, filled Rev. W. E. Cox's pulpit here at the Episcopal church Monday night, preaching an excellent sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Tucker were here shopping Monday.

Heber Mumford was here Sunday visiting relatives.

Abner McKeel, of Speight's Bridge, was here Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Agnes Blount and Miss Nanette Nichols were here shopping Monday.

BLACK JACK ITEMS.

Black Jack, N. C., Dec. 12, 1906.

E. L. Clark, of Greenville, spent Sunday here with relatives and friends.

W. H. Wynne and wife, who have been visiting relatives here left for their home Sunday near Grindool.

Miss Alice Hudson, who is teaching near here went home Friday and returned Sunday.

Calvin Mills and W. A. Venters went to Greenville Saturday. Miss Maggie Smith spent Friday night with Miss Hudson, near Grimesland.

S. C. Mills and James Mills returned Sunday from near House, where they have been visiting.

W. Clark and his son, John, and others from here went to Greenville yesterday.

W. O. Cox and wife, of Ayden, spent Saturday and Sunday near here visiting relatives.

Miss May E. Midgett attended the teachers' meeting at Greenville Saturday and says she enjoyed it fine.

There will be quarterly meeting here Saturday and Sunday. There will also be services here Friday night fore.

Mrs. J. S. Smith and Miss Maud Manker returned Sunday from near Chocowinity where they have been visiting relatives.

Evening Shoppers.

The number of shoppers around the stores evenings is getting larger now. It is a good time for the ladies to go out and see the Christmas goods. The stores are well lighted and comfortable.

SCHOOL FUND.

Arranging for Apportionment of Second Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Superintendent J. Y. Joyner is sending out blank applications to the various county superintendents for aid from the second hundred thousand dollars of the school fund with the request that they gather all of the information necessary and be ready to send in the blanks immediately after the meeting of the county board of education on the first Monday in January.

The average monthly salary for the white teachers in 1906 is $30.74 and for the colored teachers $22.07. The only expense allowed other than salary of teachers is for incidental expenses, and can never exceed for one school more than $25 for the four-months term.

No white school district with one teacher that has received or will receive from all sources during the school year ending June 30, 1907, $122,996 plus the actual current expenses, not exceeding in any case $25, will be entitled to any part of the second hundred thousand dollars. No colored school district with one teacher that has received or will receive from all sources during the school year ending June 30, 1907, $88.28 plus the actual current expenses, not exceeding in any case $25, will be entitled to any part of the second thousand dollars. The same rule will apply to white and colored districts entitled under the law to more than one teacher, and the amount may be ascertained by multiplying teacher's salary allowed by the number of teachers allowed.

State Auditor Dixon Makes His Report.

State Auditor Dixon has nearly completed his letter to the Governor transmitting his report for the year ended November 30th. The balance on hand of the general fund a year ago was $282,714, the receipts from all sources during the year $2,223,478. The disbursements were $2,173,109, leaving the balance $3308,082. The balance of the educational fund on hand is $56,525, the disbursements during the year having been $80,685 and the receipts $125,951. The State debt, 4 per cent, is $4,131,450; 6 per cent, $2,720,000. There are yet outstanding of old North Carolina railway construction bonds 6 per cent, unredeemed, $220,000. The total debt is therefore $6,873,450. The State owns 30,000 shares of North Carolina railway stock, $3,000,200; 16,666 shares Atlantic and North Carolina railway stock, $1,360,000; Alexander county bonds, 2,750; 5,400 shares Wilkesboro and Jefferson Turnpike Co., $54,000; total investments, $4,223,550.

Seven-Year Old Girl Burned to Death.

The seven-year-old daughter of Mr. C. A. Potter, who lives in Woodington township, was horribly burned Friday and died that night as a result of her injuries. She was kept home from school on Friday, by her mother, who had some special work to do and wanted her daughter to attend to the baby, and while around the fire her clothing caught and the young girl was horribly burned before help could reach her.—Kinston Free Press.

The board of aldermen met for their adjourned meeting last night, but continued it until next Monday night.

Rules for Success.

"Start right."

"Aim right."

"Keep pegging away."

Any one who observes these three rules is assured of success, according to President Edward A. Poteat, of Furman University, who addressed the men of the junior college at the University of Chicago today.

"If you start wrong you are sure to go wrong," he declared.

"If you aim at nothing you will hit nothing. Do not aim at riches; aim at a complete manhood."

"Above all, strive for patience. As between the patient man and the brilliant man give me the patient man every time."—Chicago Special to the New York World.

Pitt Boys in Debate.

The annual senior debate of Athenian Literary Society of Whitsett Institute, will be held Saturday evening, December 15th. The query will be "Resolved: That North Carolina should have a compulsory system of education."

From a program received we see that two Pitt county boys are among those who will take part in this debate, Walter Dixon for the affirmative and J. C. Parker for the negative.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 11

Marion Butler is making himself heard from again. He has had the confirmation of the postmaster at Concord held up.

The Government has estimated a twelve-and-a-half million bale crop, but we do not believe this season is going to show that much cotton by a half million bales.

The negroes of High Point seem to have set about to exterminate each other. Two or three have recently been killed there by others of their race.

News is sent out from Washington that cash is too scarce and the treasury will undertake to relieve the situation. It is too scarce with some individuals down this way, too, who would not object to having relief.

At last Wilmington officials have gone to curtailing the environments of saloons by cutting out music and other side features used to attract customers. Possibly this is the beginning of a fight that will end in putting saloons out of the city. That ought to be the size of it.

What to do with our ex-presidents seems to be troubling the minds of some people. It strikes us that after they have been put in this high office and served out their stime there, they might be allowed to retire and lookout for themselves just like other officials have to do. When a man comes out of the president's chair after four or eight years' term, he is not likely to be poor enough to need being placed on the pension list. The idea advanced in a pamphlet by John Bigelow, of New York, that the constitution be amended so as to give retiring presidents seats in the United States senate as "senators-at-large" without the necessity of election by any State, is hardly worthy of consideration. The best example the country has had of an ex-presidents' ability to lookout for himself and wear his honors gracefully in private life is given in former President Grover Cleveland.

A Man Worth Knowing.

I should like to know a man who just minded his duty and troubled about nothing; who did his own work and did not interfere with God's. How nobly he would work—working not for reward, but because it was the will of God! How happily he would receive his food and clothing, receiving them as the gifts God! What peace would be his! What a sober gayety! What a friend he would be! How sweet his sympathy! And his mind would be so clear he would understand everything. His eye being single, his whole body would be full of light. No fear of his ever doing a mean thing. It is the fear of want that makes men do mean things.—George Macdonald.

Melver Dr. O'Leary

The Greenville school will on Friday, Dec. 14th, at 8 o'clock, observe Melver day with appropriate exercises. The public is cordially invited. The pupils of the school will contribute a penny each to the fund for erecting a monument to Dr. Melver.

If Santa Travels by Train.

The children of Columbia are hoping that Santa Claus will not travel by railroad on Christmas eve, for if he does they feel certain that he will arrive in the city several hours behind time and perhaps not reach here at all. The other day a little boy at the Washington street graded school asked his teacher where Santa Claus lived, and upon being told that he lived in the North, the youngster replied that he hoped he wouldn't travel by the Southern or Seaboard trains, as they are always behind.—Columbia Record.

It gets dark soon now.

For chapped and cracked hands nothing is quite as good as an application of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Put it on before going to bed, use an old pair of gloves and see what a difference the morning will bring. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The fellow who courts trouble generally ends by marring it.

It is a mistake to use a violent cathartic to open the bowels. A gentle movement will accomplish the same results without causing distress or serious consequences later. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are recommended. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

A woman has less logic than a man but more instinct.

I pay no tax—I pay no rent,
Often busted—without a cent;
But a king among men—from disease I'm free,
Since taking Rocky Mountain Tea,
Wooten's Drug Store.

My heart and hand another claimed,
His plea had come too late,
It's ever thus with people without pluck and vim,
Take Rocky Mountain Tea, don't get left again.
Wooten's Drug Store.

Open the bowels and get the cold out of your system. Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar opens the bowels and at the same time allays the inflammation of the mucous membranes. Drives out the cold and stops the cough. Absolutely free from any opiates. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Pleasant to take. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

It is the best safeguard against indigestion, biliousness and dyspepsia, known to mankind. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea or Tablets, 85 cents. W. S. Wooten's Drug Store.

It is noticeable a cold seldom comes on when the bowels are freely open. Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Taste as pleasant as maple sugar. Free from all opiates. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Any thin or undeveloped girl or woman will be benefited by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It is one of the greatest known remedies for people strong, healthy and well. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.
Wooten's Drug Store.

A man with a sprained ankle will use a crutch, rest the ankle and let it get well. A man or woman with an overworked stomach can't use a crutch, but the stomach must have rest just the same. It can be rested too without starvation. Kodol will do it. Kodol performs the digestive work of the tired stomach and corrects the digestive apparatus. Kodol fully conforms to the provisions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Recommended and sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, regulates the bowels, aids the kidneys, cures stomach troubles, builds up the nervous force and repairs the ill effects of over eating. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.
Wooten's Drug Store.

A TEXAS WONDER.
There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 9 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctor gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure cure and cold cure. Guaranteed by Jno. L. Wooten Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, at whose laboratory Kodol is prepared, assure us that this remarkable digestant and corrective for the stomach conforms fully to all provisions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law. The Kodol laboratory is a very large one, but if all the sufferers from indigestions and stomach troubles could know the virtues of Kodol it would be impossible for the manufacturers to keep up with the demand. Kodol is sold here by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

NOTICE: Our line of Christmas goods is the largest we have ever had. Our china display is, to say the least, very pretty and complete.

Our line of books shows a considerable increase over last years, and our stock of fisher and christy drawings which we have are this years' work. No old drawing in stock.

Our calendar display is also larger and more complete. We have perhaps the largest line of Bibles ever before displayed in Greenville.

We have also toys and fancy goods of many designs and patterns. Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen makes an ideal gift. Evans' Book Store.

Just received a case of ladies and gentlemen's holeproof hosiery guaranteed to wear six months or a new pair will be given in exchange. Frank Wilson.

This morning was the sharpest of the winter so far.

Newest novelties in bath robes. Select one for his Christmas gift. Frank Wilson.
