Bishop Strange Tonight.

Bishop Robert Strange will conduct services and preach tonight at the Episcopal church at 7 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

The police officers are distributing copies of the law town ordinances for Christmas presents.

AYDEN NOTES.

Ayden, N. C. Dec. 19th.

Rev. R. Jones filed his regular appointment here third Sunday.

Aunt Patsy Davis, wife of Rev J. T. Davis, who has been very feeble for quite a while, is able to be up again.

Misses Tiny and Lila McLawhorn, of Winterville, spent Sunday with relatives here.

There will be several Christmas trees here by the different Sunday schools.

We are glad that we are to have Rev Mr. Stanfield with us next year. He is very popular with our people.

W. S. May and sister, Miss Ella, of Winterville, spent Sunday in town.

C. E. Spear has bought J. W. Taylor's jewelry and repair business and will continue business at same stand.

Bishop Strange arrived here Tuesday evening and on Wednesday, E. Cox, and held services at the Episcopal church last night. He is an able man and our people always hear him gladly.

There are several light cases of pneumonia in Ayden.

Mrs. Dr. Blount, of Rountree, is moving here.

Lewis Ellis colored, the night watchman for Ayden Lumber Co. shot another negro Saturday night who was prowling around there during the night.

There is an opening here for a good dentist. The patronage here is sufficient to support one.

WINTERTILLE ITEMS.

Winterville, N. C. Dec. 19th.

Rev. B. E. Stanfield filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

Miss Elise Vincent has been spending sometime with Miss Olivia Cox.

Misses Effie Barker and Elizabeth Boushall went to Greenville Monday evening shopping.

Rev J E Ayscue, pastor of memorial Baptist church of Greenville, will deliver an address to the students of Winterville High school Thursday night, Dec. 20th. There will also be a Christmas tree exclusively for the school. All are cordially invited to be present and enjoy the occasion.

Bishop Robt. Strange of the eastern diocese conducted communion service at the Episcopal church Monday at 3 p. m. He also preached at night and confirmed J. R. Johnson and Miss Venetia Cox. Rev. W. E. Cox, rector, assisted in the services.

Roy T. Cox went to Greenville Monday afternoon.

Rev. W. Lupton, pastor of Free Will Baptist church here, was making pastoral calls here Tuesday.

R. H. Hunsucker went up the road on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah Taylor went to Greenville Monday.

Miss Olivia Cox and mother, Mrs. E. E. Cox, went to Greenville today.

Newbern & Washington Division Completed.

Newbern, Dec. 15—The Newbern & Washington division of the Raleigh & Pamlico Sound Railway is nearly completed. The rails are laid to the village of Vanceboro, half way to Washington, and it is being laid at the rate of a mile per day by means of a track machine. The road will be completed on contract time by February.

OAKLEY ITEMS.

Oakley, N. C., Dec. 18, 1906.

Geo. Mixon, of Washington and Bernard Greene, of Greenville, made business calls here last week.

Mrs Bettie Belcher returned from Goldsboro and Wilson after spending a few days with relatives.

Nash Hardy and family have moved to Winterville. Their many friends regret their leaving.

The social dance Friday night at the C. B. H. hall was very much enjoyed by all.

Marion Johason of Texas, was here visiting friends last week.

J. H. Rawls, of Hassell, was a welcome visitor in our town last week. He is one Martin's best farmers.

Miss Bessie Barnhill, of Greenville, is visiting the Misses Carson, just north of the city line.

O. R. Roberson and family, of Winston-Salem, are visiting here.

Eli Mizell, of Williamston, spent Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gray and little son, Garland, spent Sunday in the country.

J. K. Barnhill, of Raleigh, came in Saturday to spend Sunday with his best girl.

Mr and Mrs T. F. Nelson gave an oyster supper Monday night complimentary to the young people of the neighborhood. It was a delightful occasion.

S. G. Williams and family spent Sunday at Everetts.

Geo. Belcher and L. B. Williams went to Ayden Saturday.

Mrs Piney Highsmith and daughter, Miss Linda, spent last Thursday in town.

Miss Pearl Jenkins gave a quilting party last Tuesday night in honor of her guest. There was a large crowd of pretty girls and handsome young gentlemen. Miss Pearl makes it pleasant for all.

More Blood Hounds.

Mr. W. C. Hines, who some weeks ago sold his two best blood hounds to officials at Wilmington, recently made a trip to Mississippi to get others, preferring to personally select them before buying. His new dogs arrived a few days ago, and appear to be good ones. He had a call to LaGrange today to run persons committing a robbery there last night, and left with his dogs on the forenoon train for that point. Mr. Hines' dogs have made good on several chases after criminals.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Memorial Baptist church desire to return sincere thanks to all who aided in making the recent bazaar a success. They feel especially thankful to the Home Telephone and Telegraph Co., for telephone service, to the city Water and Light Commission for electric light; to Mr. G. G. Fineman, representative of Chas. M. Stieff, for use of a piano, and to all others who in any way rendered any assistance whatever. Every kindness shown and every donation made, as well as the liberal patronage of the public, is fully appreciated.

The Society.

Weather.

Partly cloudy and continued cold tonight. Thursday fair, warmer.

BLAK JACK ITEMS

Black Jack, N. C., Dec. 19, 1906.

Miss Fronnie Whichard, who is attending the Winterville high school, came home with Miss Studie Edwards and spent Saturday and Sunday.

"The Race Question and Southern Symposium" has made its initial appearance from Atlanta, Ga. This unique monthly magazine is devoted exclusively to the negro problem from the view point of white Southern opinion. It contains a remarkable editorial article on "What the 'Problem' Really is," discussing the negro's "crime of crimes."

Will Close for Holiday.

The Greenville tobacco market will close for the holidays after tomorrow's sale and open again on January 7th. Many of the tobacco men will go away to spend Christmas and New Year in advance. The Reflector wishes them a merry time.

North Carolina's population passed the two-million mark in 1904, according to the bulletin just issued by the census bureau. The total valuation of property increased to $842,092,212 from $681,981,120 in 1900. And the Old North State is still humping herself.—Charlotte Observer.

Town Matters.

The board of aldermen held an adjourned meeting Monday night to finish up the business of the last regular meeting. The principle work was passing on reports of the officers.

It was decided to remove the bodies from the old graveyard on the east limits of the town between Reade street and the branch and sell the property.

A Card of Thanks.

Mr and Mrs J. E. Aysue wish to express their hearty thanks for the generous Christmas "pounding" they received Tuesday evening. It was a complete surprise, and this only added to the pleasure of having so many cheerful visitors, each one loaded down like a real Santa Claus. Every gift was greatly appreciated, and was received with best Christmas wishes for all those who came and for those who sent gifts.

HOME COMERS

Dr. Zeno Brown went to Norfolk today.

Jesse Speight went to Kinston Tuesday evening.

C. C. Cobb, of Norfolk, came in Tuesday evening.

Tom Dupree came home Tuesday evening from school at Mebane.

Miss Vernessa Smith came home Tuesday evening from school at Winston-Salem.

Rev. M. T. Plyler left this morning for Gates to spend Christmas.

Bishop Robert Strange came in this morning and held services today in the Episcopal church.

Christmas Dance.

The young men will give a dance here Christmas eve night and as the Italians are going to be with them, it will be an enjoyable dance. Everyone is invited and requested to be there at nine-thirty, as it will be strictly a card dance.

All the married ladies are invited to attend and take part. The Italians are engaged for every night next week, so it was necessary to have the dance Christmas eve night or wait till week after next.

If it don't snow it is going to miss a good chance.

Several loads of turkeys were in market today.

This is Christmas weather with a vim.

Holiday rates on the railroads begin tomorrow.

If this don't run you into thick clothes we do not know what will.

Prayer meeting in the different churches to night.

It is worth having this brisk weather just to see people move around lively. They are sluggish when it is warm.

If you wait until the last rush Christmas shopping will be harder.

The boys and girls are getting home from school for the holidays.

Polk Miller in January.

Our people are looking forward with much pleasure to the coming of Polk Miller, who will give an entertainment in Masonic temple opera house on Jan. 10th. He is the prince of entertainers and a large audience will greet him.

At Cost.

We will sell our entire stock of fancy can goods and cereals at cost for the next 10 days to make room for our new stock of dry goods to come in the first of January 1907.

A WORD TO CHRISTMAS SHOPPERS

Probably the most fretful thing about the holiday preparations is the selecting of gifts for your friends and loved ones. Let us assist you to make the selections without so much worry and fretting. With the things which we have, surely you can make a good selection, one that will give you satisfaction, without any great degree of trouble.

Of all the things given at the Christmas tide, surely none so nearly reach a state of being appropriate for every one as those dainty and artistic creations carried by book stores throughout the country.

We have the most complete line of this kind that we have ever had. Calendars, Christmas cards, holiday books, fancy China pictures, games and toys are with us in great profusion. Come early. The rush will soon begin. Evans' Book Store.

PLANTATION LIFE

The December Christmas number of Plantation Life is just from the press and is being mailed to subscribers...

Upon the whole it is a splendid number, and this one issue is well worth the price of a year's subscription...

Buying patent rights may be all right, but the experiences of the past is that they usually leave a lot of people right sick over their deal.

The president is out with another long message to congress this being a report of his trip to Panama and the progress of work on the canal.

This is the time of year when thieves and robbers are around and from different quarters come reports of houses being broken into...

Speaker Cannon took advantage of his position to give North Carolina a slap in the face by refusing to appoint Congressman Small to the vacancy on the Rivers and Harbors committee...

We notice that the merchants in some towns are signing agreements, and publishing the same, that their stores will be closed on Christmas day...

Book 2

In addition to the blizzard, the newspaper has been a strong factor in the rebuilding and progress of Greenville and Pitt...

The Daily Reflector's congregation here had their pastor, Rev. J. E. Ayscue, and his excellent wife a generous Christmas pouncing Tuesday night...

Dor chopped and cracked hands nothing. Wooten's Drug Store.

Men would probably like castor oil if they had to sneak in a side door on Sunday to get it.

It is a mistake to use a violent cathartic to open the bowels. A gentle movement will accomplish the same results without causing distress or serious consequences later. EeWitt's Little Early Risers are recommended. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

More bad men seem to go to the legislature than to jail.

My heart and hand another claimed.

His plea had come too late, It's ever thus with people without pluck and vim, Take Rocky Mountain Tea, don't get left again. Wooten's Drug Store.

Open the bowels and get the cold out of your system. Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar opens the bowels and at the same time allays the inflammation of the mucous membranes. Drives out the cold and stops the cough. Absolutely free from any opiates. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Pleasant to take. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

It is the best safeguard against indigestion, biliousness and dyspepsia, known to mankind. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea or Tablets, 85 cents. W. S. Wooten's Drug Store.

If you don't want to scale a question, argue about it.

It is noticeable a cold seldom comes on when the bowels are freely open. Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Taste as pleasant as maple sugar. Free from all opiates. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jno. J. Wooten's Drug Store.

Any thin or undeveloped girl or woman will be benefited by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It is one of the greatest known remedies for people strong, healthy and well. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. Wooten's Drug Store.

A man with a sprained ankle will use a crutch, rest the ankle and let it get well. A man or woman with an over-worked stomach can't use a crutch, but the stomach must have rest just the same. It can be rested too without starvation. Kodol will do it. Kodol performs the digestive work of the tired stomach and corrects the digestive apparatus. Kodol fully conforms to the provisions of the National Pure Food and Drug Laws. Recommended and sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, regulates the bowels, aids the kidneys, cures stomach troubles, builds up the nervous force and repairs the ill effects of over eating. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. Wooten's Drug Store.

A TEXAS WONDER.

There's a Bill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctor gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Guaranteed by Jno. L. Wooten Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, at whose laboratory Kodol is prepared, assure us that this remarkable digestant and corrective for the stomach conforms fully to all provisions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law. The Kodol laboratory is a very large one, but if all the sufferers from indigestions and stomach troubles could know the virtues of Kodol it would be impossible for the manufacturers to keep up with the demand. Kodol is sold here by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.
