Is Not a Marriage License Sometimes in the Nature of a Chattel Mortgage?

Last Sunday a gentleman who had made arrangements to get married and who wanted the ceremony performed that evening located Deputy Register of Deeds Armfield, who went to the court house and issued the papers. When filled out the license was put in an envelope and laid on the table. After paying for the license the gentleman picked up the envelope and went his way, but by mistake he carried away a chattel mortgage instead of the marriage license, and the mistake was not discovered until Rev. C. A. Jenkins, who was to perform the ceremony, glanced at the paper to see if it was all right, and found a chattel mortgage instead of a marriage permit. Realizing that a mistake had been made, the applicant again looked up Mr. Armfield and procured the proper instrument and the ceremony was performed.—Statesville Landmark.

The local passenger trains must have turned over a new leaf for the new year, as they came in pretty near on time on the first. They could not please the public better than to keep it up.

The holidays are over with the little folks and they are in school again.

CHRISTMAS DANCE BIG SUCCESS.

Given In Honor of Durward S. Wilson of the United States Military Academy, West Point., N. Y.

There was a very enjoyable dance given Christmas eve night in order that Durward S. Wilson could attend who was on a four days leave from the Military Academy at West Point N. Y. The hall was decorated very elaborately with Japanese lanterns and American flags. From the ceiling hung many Japanese parasols with the lanterns hanging from them and made a most beautiful scene.

The German began at eleven o'clock and was strictly a card dance with the leads followed by the figures led by Miss Nina James and Walter Wilson, Jr.

After the dance the couples adjourned to the Carolina Club rooms where an elegant luncheon was served. The club decorations were very beautiful consisting of the Christmas bells festooned from the ceiling, the walls covered with holly and mistletoe and also the national colors. The following couples participated:

Conversational Niceties.

The requirements of polite conversation occasionally puzzle the student of the English language, but one who has a governess will soon acquire them all.

Thus a young French woman who was learning English while on tour with an Anglican attendant, exclaimed, "O my, I am all of a sweat!"

"Miss Morceau," exclaimed her attendant, "never use that word again! Horses sweat, men perspire, ladies merely glow"—Youth's companion.

January is leading off well in weather.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party went to the groom's mother, Mrs. Lowvinia Jackson, where a sumptuous dinner was served. They are both of excellent families and we wish them a happy and successful life.

EXHIBIT AT JAMESTOWN.

Greenville Getting Interested in the Matter.

Mr. J. Lyman, Babcock, of Norfolk, who has charge of the exhibits to be made by the Norfolk & Southern railway at the Jamestown exposition of the resources of the section traversed by this railroad, was in Greenville today and met with the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce with a view of getting exhibits from this section. After talking over the matter the committee invited Mr. Babcock to return to Greenville on the 9th and address the Chamber of Commerce at the banquet to be held that date. The invitation was accepted and every member of the organization should be present. This section should be well represented at the exposition, and the plans presented by Mr. Babcock offer an opportunity that should be embraced.

THE WONDERFUL PASSING OF THE OLD YEAR.

Editor Reflector;

What a solemn—sad, beautiful passing of the old year at 12 o'clock Dec. 31st. The silver moon had bedecked herself in a misty haze of sorrowful-gladdness. Directly over head at 12, midnight, she stood still, seemingly, and looked down on the most silent world, waving an adieu to the old, and throwing a luster like kiss to the new year. Indeed it was a beautiful, grand sight to the thinking mind to see the pale moon standing as it were in the very dividing line between the old and the new years. It was a sight that was soul inspiring. Such a scene has possibly never been looked upon before. Upon examination of the chronology the moon has not stood as it did that night in half century. What does it omen? It must be something good. Such an occurrence is not luck. There was a great power behind the silent utterances of the moon. X.

WHISKEY STILL SEIZED.

Pitt Getting Bad Reputation.

U. S. Deputy Collector R. J. Lewis with Sheriff L. W. Tucker and his deputies, seized a sixty gallon moonshine still Tuesday about 8 miles from town. It had not been in operation for several days, owing to the cold weather. No one was at or about the still. No doubt this is one of the smallest of the many in the county. It is said the woods are full of them.

We are sorry that Pitt county is getting into disrepute on this line. A gentleman remarked the other day, that Wilkes in the West and Piti in the East, were the worst counties in the State.

Parker-Flanagan.

On Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Neta Whichard, on Pitt street, Mr. Watt Parker, of Greenville and Miss Marietta Flanagan, of Farmville, were married by H. Harding, Esq. A sumptuous wedding supper was served after the ceremony.

Rich and Poor.

"When I was rich," said a Georgia philosopher, "the least little thing annoyed me; when I was poor I had to devote so much time to just being poor I didn't have a minute to spare for the little things. Which means that a man in the poverty business is compelled to devote his entire time to it."—Atlanta Constitution.

WEDNESDAY, 2 JANUARY.

Are your resolutions holding water?

The big event for 1907 is the Jamestown exposition.

It is hard to get accustomed to the 1907 date, and slips a year back are yet frequent.

Do you think enough of Greenville to keep out of other people's way if you don't want to do anything yourself to help the town grow?

The number of fatalities from the wreck on the Baltimore and Ohio road near Washington City, Sunday evening, has increased to fifty-two.

A Seattle woman tried to free herself from a husband who mistreated her, by attempting suicide, but failing in that she tried a divorce court and won out.

Governor Glenn has given the falsehood to Blackburn's charges. That was to be expected, as no one knows better that they are false than Blackburn himself.

Marion Butler says he expects to be in the United States senate again in less than ten years. He will have to change his residence from North Carolina if he does.

Looks like the country is drifting back to pioneer days in the West. Right close to Richmond Monday a Seaboard Air Line train was held up by two men who robbed the passengers of $800 and shot the Pullman conductor.

SECRETARY SHAW'S WARNING.

While careful to avoid the use of any language which might be quoted with grave effect, Secretary Shaw, in his annual report, permits it to be seen that he regards the present financial condition of the country as containing a large element of danger. All will be well, he intimates, if the country is wise in time, but otherwise he will not be responsible for the consequences. Speculative fever cannot rage indefinitely without a disastrous reaction, and already money stringency is world wide. As Mr. Shaw stated the other day in reply to the stupid charge that stock gambling is responsible for tight money, people are gambling not only in stocks and bonds but in cotton, grain, pork, land—everything that has a market value—and this at a time when the world needs all its money and other facilities for the unprecedented volume of legitimate business. In short, he believes that the boom will burst if much further inflation occurs. To re-enforce his warnings he does not hesitate to point to the possibility of such things as closed factories and stopped pay rolls. It should be said that Mr. Shaw is far from being alone in his fears; the financial journals have been sounding the same note. All agree that if the country can only be made to listen to reason the danger will pass. This is the financial situation today, in the opinion of so eminent and so responsible an authority as Secretary Shaw, and The Observer commends his warnings to its readers as worthy of their thoughtful consideration.—Charlotte Observer.

FARM LIFE.

The more pleasing and pleasant our government can make farm life, the better it is for the government. Our cities are overcrowded with worthless loafers who might be honorable and respectable farmers. The rural route is one of the things that has been provided to make farm life more desirable and attractive, and as we all have to live off the farmers, nothing should be left undone that could be done to make the farm inviting.

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Possibly, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—supply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves. This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, painful, suffering heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine, successful heart relief. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

Into each life; some sorrow must fall;
Wise people don't sit down and bawl;
Only fools suicide or take to flight;
Smart people take Rocky Mountain Tea at Wooten's Drug Store.

Many a widow's heart has been wormed over by an old flame.

To stop a cold with "preventics" is safer than to let it run and cure it afterwards. Taken at the "sneeze stage" Preventics will head off all colds and Grippe and perhaps save you from Pneumonia or Bronchitis. Preventics are little toothsome cold cure tablets selling in 5 cent and 25 cent boxes. If you are chilly, if you begin to sneeze, try Preventics. They will surely check the cold, and please you. Sold by Bryan's Drug Store.

Villains invariably get what is coming to them on the stage.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of opium, chloroform or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in cough remidier. Dr. Shoop, it seems has welcomed the Pure Food Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines for many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by Bryan's Drug Store.

The more dignity a man has the less use the world has for him.

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet pleasant and safe Syrup called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure is for croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for croup, that's all. Sold by Bryan's Drug Store.

A woman has but little use for a man who thinks he is the whole thing.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. Health Coffee is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real coffee, remember in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet it's flavor matches closely old Java add Mocha coffee. If your stomach heart or kidneys can't stand coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing and satisfying. It's safe even for the smallest child. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co.

Have you indigestion, constipation, headache, backache, kidney trouble? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well. If it fails, get your money back. That's fair. Tea or Tablets form. 35 cents at Wooten's Drug Store.
