AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes from a Hustling Town.
Ayden, N. C., Jan. 22, 1907.

Eight persons were baptized in Frizzelle's mill pond last Sunday and united with the Free Will Baptist church at this place.

G. W. Prescott, the newly appointed postmaster at this place has taken charge of his office.

W. H. Phillips, from near here, and Miss Jennie Lupton, of Pamlico county, were married last Wednesday. Miss Lupton was a former pupil of the seminary here.

There was a large number from here to attend the burial of E. A. Coward, near Ormondville Sunday. The funeral services were conducted under the auspices of the Red Men lodges from Ormondville and Greenville.

W. W. Ormond, of Ormondville, spent yesterday here with H. C. Ormond.

J. H. Tripp has taken in Ira J. Frizzelle and Heber Hart as partners in his mercantile business.

Miss Ruby Whitaker, of Enfield, has accepted a position as one of the teachers in the graded school. She entered upon her duties yesterday. This makes eight teachers now engaged in the conduct of this school.

Harry Lindley theatrical at the opera house Monday and Tuesday evening, 23th and 29th inst. This excellent company played three nights in Greenville last week. From information of a reliable source we are informed that they are fine and all who attended their entertainments pronounce them of a high order. This is a rare opportunity for the citizens of Ayden to enjoy something nice. Don't fail to attend. Tickets at popular prices of 35, 25 and 15 cents, on sale at M. M. Sauls' drug store.

C. L. Cannon has gone to Morehead City to accept a position as pharmacist in a drug store. Lil is a clever fellow and we shall all miss him.

Don't forget magistrates and overseers meet in Ayden, first Saturday in February 1907.

Miss Anna Bette Kittrell spent from Friday until Monday in Grifton.

Joe Tripp is a tripping on a high level. He has a fine young lady at his home. She came on a trip but has concluded to make the trip permanent; at least she will stay awhile.

Two of Mr. John Suggs' children left for the asylum at Goldsboro last week. They were accompanied by E. G. and R. L. Cox.

Mrs. William Worthington died at the home of her husband near here last Friday night. She was a member of the Free Will Baptist church and was highly appreciated for her many lovable traits of character. She leaves a husband, six small children and a host of relatives to mourn her death.

Last Saturday evening a son of Mr. Biggs Cox came to Ayden with a wagon load of wood. While driving in town the horses became frightened and ran away turning the wagon over, scattering the wood over about seven acres of land, demolishing the wagon and skinning the young man almost from head to foot, who upon investigation by the doctor was found to have received no serious hurt. A little excitement a big crowd and the circus was over.

J. W. Taylor, an old and highly esteemed citizen of Ayden, who has been in the jewelry business here for a number of

WILLIAMS COMEDY COMPANY

Pleases Large Audience in Opera House.

The largest audience of the season greeted the Williams Comedy Company at the opening of their weeks' engagement in Masonic Temple opera house Monday night. The bill was "Trapped by Treachery" a strong and interesting play that was well received by the company. There were good specialties between the acts. Little Miss May Blossom was a general favorite with the audience, and in her specialty was fine. Master Johnnie Williams' dancing and singing was far above the average, and pleased every one. But that Irishman, Mr. Taylor, kept everything laughing and was exceedingly clever and in his specialty was great. Mr. Hill, the electrician, made fine effect with the flashing of lightning in the third act. The company is as well balanced as any troupe ever in our midst.

Tonight they present the 5-act comedy-drama, "The Girl I Love." Seats now selling.

To The Normal Girls of Pitt County.

Greenville, N. C., Jan. 21, 1907.

On Saturday afternoon of January twelfth, the Normal girls of Pitt county held a meeting in the auditorium of the graded school building in Greenville.

The object of this meeting was to establish a memorial to Dr. Chas. D. McIver, a McIver loan and scholarship fund with the understanding that this fund is to enable some worthy girl of Pitt county to attend the normal and industrial college at Greensboro. There was a general discussion concerning the amount each should pay in order to raise the fund.

A motion made by Miss Waldrop was agreed upon, that is, each should pay one dollar. If any wish to pay more it will be gladly accepted. As this organization wants to send some girl to school in the fall of 1907, we wish to raise the fund as early as possible. Please send your remittance to myself or our president, Miss Bessie Harding.

Feeling that each of you will be deeply interested in this work and will be glad to help establish this fund.

I am very respectfully,
Lela Brown, Sec.

January Superior court adjourned for the term Monday afternoon and Judge Neal left this morning for his home in Laurinburg.

years, with his family has gone to Greensboro to live. Ayden can ill afford to lose such people and it is with sincere regret that we see them leave. Their influence and presence will be felt and appreciated wherever they go. We wish them happiness and success in their new home.

FAME AWAITING VELMA T. RAWLS

Has Honor of Being the Fourth Person in 41 Years to Win a Diploma for Piano and Composition—Began Playing at Four Years.

Miss Velma Tyson Rawls was the pianist at the twenty-fifth Peabody diploma recital, given at the Peabody Institute and Conservatory of music last evening. Miss Rawls is one of the youngest pupils ever graduated from the Peabody, and the fourth that has received a diploma for piano and composition in 41 years. She was born in Greenville, N. C., and is just out of her teens. She is extremely pretty and unassuming, with a most charming personality. She spoke modestly but enthusiastically of her love for music when seen at her home on Park avenue last evening.

Miss Rawls showed talent at the age of four and played in public at seven, when she was so small that a foot stool had to be provided for her. She entered the Peabody Conservatory of Music in 1897 as a student in piano and theory, being then the youngest pupil at that institution. Her teachers have been; In piano, Emmanuel Wad, and in harmony and composition, Henry A. Allen and Howard Brockway. Her examinations before the faculty, which were concluded on Monday, December 17th, 1906, covered the history of music, harmony, counterpoint, fugue, form and instrument, in addition to the practical tests in playing, reading at sight and modulation. The faculty passed her, and the Peabody diploma for piano and composition will be officially conferred upon her in May, 1907, by the president of the board of trustees, in the name of George Peabody.

Miss Rawls has given private recitals for charity, the largest being at the Belvedere two years ago for the benefit of the Consumptives Hospital, when she was assisted by Prof. J. C. Van Hulsteyn. The rendition of her program showed great ability and won for her much well deserved praise. She has composed a sonata in D major, besides a number of other selections and songs.

Music has undoubtedly been the passion of Miss Rawls' life. Beginning at the tender age of four, she has given the best of her time to the piano, practicing from twilight until midnight. She expects to finish her musical education abroad. Miss Rawls has given sometime, however, to the study of languages, and is well read.

The program she selected was worthy of any master of the great modern instrument of music expression. She fixed the attention of her audience with an excellent rendition of the Beethoven Sonata, and gave them five wellchosen Chopin selections, which tested her ability as an interpreter of the great Polish composer, whose existence was almost confined to musical expression. Her own composition had a dangerous place on the program, coming directly after those of Chopin.—Baltimore American, 17th.

Weather.

Fair tonight and Wednesday.

As court is over and the farmers at work there will be fewer people in town.

There will be a meeting of The Kings daughters tonight at the residence of Mrs. A. L. Blow at half past 7 o'clock.

THE LEGISLATURE

What the Law Makers are Doing.

As there was no session on Saturday, it being a holiday in observance of the anniversary of Gen R. E. Lee's birthday, many members went to their homes to spend Saturday and Sunday, hence Monday's session was a quiet and short one.

In the senate was a bill to prohibit public drinking on first class passenger coaches, and a number of bills of a local nature.

In the house a resolution was presented endorsing President Roosevelt's position in discharging the negro troops at Brownsville.

Representative Jones, of Pitt, introduced a bill to prevent mischievous stock from running at large. There was also a bill providing that savings deposited in banks by a minor must be paid to such minor on request.

SUPERIOR COURT.

These Cases Have Been Disposed of

Alonzo Harris, simple assault, guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

John Ellis, retailing without license not guilty.

Henry Duncan and Frank Duncan, removing crops, not guilty.

Lossie Locus, abandonment, guilty, sentenced six months to be assigned to roads with leave to hire out after three months.

Nelson Hopkins retailing without license, not guilty.

The criminal docket was finished Monday afternoon and court adjourned for the term.

North Carolina Third.

Recently the census bureau of the department of commerce and labor issued a bulletin on cotton. It contains some interesting figures on the consumption in regard to locality of the mills for the year ended August 31st, last. Massachusetts has more spindles than any other State 8,904,725 or 24.5 per cent. of the entire of the entire country. South Carolina comes next, with 3,367,204 or 13 per cent. North Carolina ranks third with 3,067,030 or 9.3 per cent. Rhode Island is fourth and Georgia fifth. The Massachusetts mills consumed 1,334,182 bales of 2.1 per cent. of the total cotton consumed by the mills of the whole country and the two Carolinas 1,349,920 bales, or 27.50 per cent. The number of idle spindles during the year was 561,585 and the number of new ones, not including renewals, was 677,221.

His Scale of Charges.

A western editor has come to the conclusion that those desiring "puffs" in his paper must pay for them, and has established the following schedule of prices. For telling the public that a man is a "successful citizen when everybody knows he is as lazy as a government mule, $2.70; referring to a deceased citizen as one who is mourned by the entire community, when we know he is only missed by a poker circle, $10.13; referring to some galavanting female as an estimable lady whom it is pleasure to meet, when every business man in town would rather see the devil coming, $2.10; calling an ordinary pulpit pounder an eminent divine, 60 cents; sending a doughty sinner to heaven, $500.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Reported for Reflector.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church met with Mrs. H. L. Coward Monday evening at 3 o'clock. At the appointed hour, Mrs. T. E. Hooker took her place at the piano and all present joined in singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name." Then followed scripture reading, and prayer by the pastor, Mr. Arnold.

The regular program was rendered in the usual order, after which there were renditions of instrumental music by different ones which were enjoyed by all present. Refreshments were then served, and to say this part of the program was highly enjoyed is only putting it in a mild way.

Mrs. Coward proved herself to be one who is capable of making one feel at home around her. Her splendid home was a place of beauty, and showed the adequate taste of a genial hostess. All expressed themselves as being indebted to her for the pleasure of the hour. The offering was quite a liberal one. Many of the friends of the members of the society were there, all of which we were glad to meet, and ask them to come again.

LOSS A MILLION

Damage to Shipping on Lake Erie Very Heavy

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 21.—The hurricane which swept the Niagara frontier yesterday has subsided and a more extended examination of damage to shipping lowers the original estimate. In the port of Buffalo alone, however, it will be about $1,000,000.

The high waters of Lake Erie receded today leaving some of the stranded lake liners high and dry on the sandy beaches. None of them appears to be seriously damaged, but the expense of getting them afloat again will be very heavy.

The death list totals four. Three persons were killed in the collapse of buildings and another was drowned.

Lines of transportation and communication were restored to a normal basis today. Niagara Falls power is again running the city.

The United States government sustains a loss of from $100,000 to $200,000 from destruction of breakwaters.

Kinston Fire Was Small.

The fire at Kinston Monday did not do much damage, but gave the business portion of the town a close call. The fire was in the building over Denmark's jewelry store and his stock had to be moved.

Charlotte Lawyer Thinks North Carolina Should Try the Alabama Plan.

"I am in favor of adopting the new Alabama law in North Carolina which provides for holding a session of the Legislature every four years," said one of the leading members of the Charlotte bar yesterday. "We are making too many laws. We are too much governed. Every little two by four member, serving his first term, thinks he has got to pass something or he will not be thought by his constituents to be doing his duty. The result is we are gormed up with useless laws and in some cases positively hurtful laws. The Alabama people are experimenting with their new law but I believe it is going to work well. If there should be any crying necessity for legislative action, the governor would be empowered to call a special session.—Charlotte News.

TUESDAY JANUARY 22 1907.

It is half past the winter, but there is room for the last half to be worse than the first.

Speaker Cannon expresses no pride in being a native of North Carolina. Same way down here.

If the congressmen fail to get more pay it will not be because they do not want it and are not after it.

If Greenville would like to have a union depot something should be done about it before work starts on the one for the Raleigh & Pamlico Sound railroad.

Naturally the other towns want it, but Greenville is the place for it if the legislature establishes the Eastern normal and industrial college.

Blackburn seems to have covered up his trail even to his own crowd. They can't find him when they want to learn how came those Tar Heel Publishing Co. bills are not paid.

This is not a time that Greenville should stand still. The town must either go forward or it will go backward. There is plenty to do in pushing the town if we will all push. And the man who will not push should not get in the way and hinder others.

This is the time when somebody who wants to make a good investment, and at the same time provide a great comfort for the people, should be thinking about building a pavilion and bath houses on the river front. Do not wait until summer comes, but get them ready before hand.

The United States government tendered its kind offices to help relieve the suffering incident to the earthquake and fire at Kingston, only to get snubbed by the governor of Jamaica. The governor thanked them with the information that his country could take care of itself and asked the Americans to please sail away. And they sailed.

An Opossum Steals Nine Pigs.

The festive opossum is a queer marsupial with a prehensile tail, but last week he was in a new role and was caught stealing pigs from K. Kendall's sow in Shelby. The sow had a dozen piggs, but the number one by one diminished every night mysteriously. One morning Mr. Kendall, who lives in the main part of Shelby, found one pig partly devoured, but he could not at first solve the mystery. One morning one pig was in the stable apart from its mother, then he searched diligently and found under a log in the stable the thief, a big opossum, which had devoured nine piggs. The opossum was killed and he had "opossum and taters."

Moved Across Street.

J. F. Davenport has moved across the street to the store formerly occupied by Paramore & Ricks. The store has been newly fitted up and the front painted white. He will put in a larger stock at the new stand.

Kind words are helpful in that they make a man feel that his efforts are appreciated. What has been spoken to us recently of the helpfulness of The Reflector in advancing Greenville gives assurance that our labors are not in vain. There is no spot on earth we love so well as Greenville, and it is a labor of love to work for the advancement of the town. There is no selfish motive about it other than we want to see it the best town its size in North Carolina.
