THE LEGISLATURE

What the Law Makers Are Doing.

At Saturday's session Senator Turner introduced a bill to fine judges $50 for failure to be present to begin court on Monday morning, unless they can show by certificate of physician that they were detained by sickness. After some discussion the bill was tabled.

Senator Drewry offered a bill proposing the issuing of $500,000 four percent thirty year bonds to enlarge the State capitol and to build a library.

Most of the other new bills introduced were only of a local nature.

In the house the bill to pay solicitors a salary of $2,500 a year passed third reading. It was amended so as to provide that in districts where the fees collected fall short of the salary the solicitor is to get only the amount of the fees.

Among the new bills introduced were: To amend the law relative to punishment for burglars; to put the State on an equality in criminal violations with defendants in the selection of jurors; to regulate the hours of labor in factories and prevent child labor at night; to provide instruction in public schools as to effects of alcoholic drinks and narcotics; to provide for the punishment of pools, trusts and conspiracies.

Getting the Jury.

New York, Jan. 25.—Fifty-one talesmen were examined in rapid fire order today in the effort to complete the jury which is to try Harry K. Thaw for the killing of Stanford White, and at the end of the day's session two names had been added to the jury roll, making seven in all. One hundred and one talesmen have thus far been examined.

That there is an increasing difficulty in finding men who are willing or competent to serve was evidenced by the fact that on the first day of the trial three jurors were sworn from among nineteen talesmen, one of them being excused subsequently by the court. On the second day three jurors were secured from among thirty-one talesmen, while today it required the winnowing of more than one-fourth of the entire special panel of two hundred men to secure two members of the necessary twelve.

A perfect town is that in which you see the farmer patronizing the home merchants, the laborers spending the money they earn with their own tradesmen, and all animated by a spirit that will not purchase articles abroad if they can be bought at home. The spirit of reciprocity between man and the mechanic, tradesman and laborer, farmer and manufacturer, results every time in making the town a perfect one to do business in. "Perfection" should always be desired, even where attainment is barely possible, we presume, but a perfect town must be denominated a great rarity until we reach a more advanced stage toward the millennium than has yet been gained.—Louisburg Times.

Weather.

Fair, continued cold tonight and Tuesday.

Mr. B. E. Patrick is placing lumber on his lot on Green street preparatory to building a residence.

RICHARDSON TRIO.

Will Appear Here March 25th.

Beginning March 4th the Richardson Trio, of Charlotte, composed of three of the best known musicians in the South, will begin an eight weeks' tour of North Carolina, to include all the cities and towns of importance east of Charlotte. The tour will be directed by Mr. O. V. Kessler, of the Schloss theatrical circuit, who has engaged the musicians at considerable expense. The trio will appear at Greenville March 25th. In announcing the tour of the Richardson Trio, The Charlotte Observer had the following:—

"Never before now has North Carolina had a musical organization of sufficient reputation and artistic ability to attempt a tour of the State, but Manager Kessler is confident that the tour planned will be a financial as well as an artistic success. Each of the musicians in the trio are well known and they have no superiors in the State. Mr. Richardson, leader of the trio, is one of the best known musicians and violin soloists in the South. He has been in Charlotte several years, during which time he has built up an enviable reputation for himself and the musical organization that bears his name, the Richardson Orchestra Concert Band and the Richardson trio. Besides being a musician he is a music composer of no mean ability. Mr. Karl Von Lawrenz, the piano soloist, is probably without a peer as a piano player in the State. His technique and tone are superb. Herr Peters, the third member of the trio, is a cello player who made an enviable reputation at Washington and other large cities before coming to Charlotte and with whose work no Charlotte critic has found fault."

New Stock.

B. E. Patrick & Co, who recently changed from an exclusive grocery business by adding a complete line of dry goods, tell something of their stock in an advertisement to be found in this paper. With such a nice new stock they can interest you in goods and prices.

Light Snow.

Sunday was one of those disagreeable days on which people love to stay by the fire. In the evening there was a drizzling rain that sleeted as it fell, followed by a light snow early in the night, enough to turn everything white.

BETHEL ITEMS.

Bethel, N. C., Jan. 28th.

Misses Lydia Roberson and Mayne Ives, of Robersonville, visited Miss Lucy Manning last week.

Miss Carrie Bullock returned Sunday after a visit of some weeks to friends in Goldsboro.

Mrs. Willie Carson visited friends in Tarboro last week.

W. L. Browning, of Ayden, spent Sunday in Bethel on his way to his former home near Jamesville for a short visit to his folks.

C. S. Harris, of Raleigh, assistant State Chemist, was here Saturday on business.

Born on the 16th, to Mr. and Mrs. X. L. Mayo, a son, E. L. Mayo, Jr.

Hon. S. M. Jones paid a brief visit home last week. He is a member of several important committees, and though a new member of the house, is already well posted on the ins and outs of legislation and is alive to Pitt's interest.

The people in this section are preparing for the potato crop. The Bethel Manufacturing Company is shelling out lots of barrels and is installing machinery to greatly increase their capacity.

The Ethian Literary Society of Bethel graded school has offered a gold medal to the best debater. A medal for the best recitation has been offered by the superintendent of the school.

We notice from recent statement of the Bethel Banking & Trust Co., that their earned surplus equals one half of the capital stock. This is a good showing for so young an institution, having been in business less than two and one half years, and the citizens of the community are justly proud of its fine record.

STATE NEWS.

About 200 bales of cotton on the railroad platform at Elon College were burned Saturday.

MRS. JACKSON DECLINES.

Expression of a Noble Woman.

A bill was introduced in the legislature to give a pension to Mrs. Stonewall Jackson of $100 per month. This step was prompted by the love the people of North Carolina have for this distinguished woman and their reverence for the memory of her heroic husband. After the bill had been introduced Maj. John W. Graham, a member of the legislature and a kinsman of Mrs. Jackson, wrote advising her what had been done and in reply received the following letter:

300 W. Trade St., Charlotte, N. C.,

January 25th, 1907.

Major John W. Graham,

My Dear Cousin:

Yours of the 21st apprising me of the introduction of a bill in the legislature, to allow me a pension of $100 per month was certainly a great surprise. I most earnestly appreciate this loyal tribute to the name of my hero-husband, and tender my heart-felt thanks for the professed honor and benefit, but I do not feel that I would be justified in accepting it. I am informed that the laws in North Carolina limits all pensions to those who have not $500 of personal property, and as I do not come under this law, I respectfully request that the bill be withdrawn. I would also suggest that the pension which has been so magnanimously proposed in my behalf be appropriated to the relief of the destitute widows of Confederate veterans. It would also please me far more to see our honorable assembly take measures for a reformatory for the good of the State.

Trusting that I have not been ungracious or unappreciative, I am, with love, your affectionate cousin,

M. A. JACKSON.

The Boot of our Boyhood.

A travelling salesman for a boot and shoe house carries with him as a mascot a boy's boot with red leather top and a copper toe.

"I found it in Fort Dodge, Kan." he said. "It was among the stock of a shoe dealer there and I asked him for it. It is a great curiosity now, but in my early days on the road I sold thousands of them."

The red topped, copper toed boy's boot has dropped out of existence. No store in Kansas City sells them. The salesman said they were not manufactured.—Kansas City Star.

One Member Sick.

Mr. Albert Wunder, one of the members of the Williams Comedy Co., was taken quite sick Saturday and could not appear in the performance that night. His part in the cast being an important one made the play weaker for tonight, others having to substitute for him at the last moment. Mr. Wunder was not well enough to go with the company to Wilson Sunday and had to be left here.

Called Meeting.

The Chamber of Commerce will hold a special meeting Tuesday night, Jan. 29th, usual hour and place, mayor's office, 8 o'clock. The purpose of this meeting is to consider the advisability of extending the town limits. All parties interested are requested to be present.

Horse That Goes to Church.

H. B. Smith, of this town, has a remarkable bay horse, Muggins, which appears to have more religious instinct than the majority of animals.

The horse has been used by Mr. Smith for the last 25 years to draw the family to the village church. In the last 20 years there have been only two Sundays on which Muggins didn't have to carry some member of the family to church. The second occasion was a few Sundays ago.

A year ago the horse was turned into the yard for a little Sunday recreation and nothing more was thought of Muggins until the far distant toll of the church bell was heard. Then the horse pricked up his ears, and realizing that he was late started off at a quick pace for the church. He went directly under the shed and took his accustomed place where he remained until it was time to go home.

A couple of weeks ago the horse made his second appearance at the church alone. Mr. Smith had placed Muggins in a stall and had left the stable door slightly ajar. The old bell tolled exceptionally loud and long and Muggins could not resist the call. In some manner he slipped his halter and made his way from the stable to the church, where he remained until the service was over. The parson patted the horse affectionately as he trotted up to the door, and then he started on his homeward journey.—Monterey correspondence Boston Globe.

Wood Sawing Machine.

Superintendent J. A. Dunlap tells us that a wood sawing outfit has been ordered for a party here. This is good news, and when it comes housekeepers will have less trouble in getting their wood cut.

A Thought for the Day.

The aphorism, "As a man thinketh in his heart so he is," not only embraces the whole of a man's being, but is so comprehensive as to reach out to every condition and circumstance of his life. A man is literally what he thinks, his character being the complete sum of all his thoughts.—James Allen.

Ruining Their Business.

A western paper reports the following: The other day a local merchant happened to see a farmer receiving some goods at a freight office at the depot, and noticed that they came from a certain mail order house. He noticed that the goods were right in his line and same he has carried in his store for years. He immediately approached the farmer and said: "I could have sold you every article you have there for less money than you paid the Chicago house and saved you money besides." "Then why didn't you say so?" answered the farmer. "I have taken two county papers for a year and have never seen a line about you selling these goods. The Mail Order House sent advertising matter asking for my trade—they got it. If you have any bargains why didn't you put them in the paper so we can see what they are."

That ended the argument and the merchant went to corral other non-advertising merchants and explained to them that the mail order house was ruining their business.

MONDAY JAN. 28th, 1907.

Mark it down that an investment in property in Greenville is worth while. No chance to lose on it.

It is much easier to issue bonds than it is to pay them, and the legislature should go slow in that matter.

Nothing like changes. It is not every section that can show spring, summer and winter weather all in one week.

The weather man has been having his way about it for quite a while, but next Saturday the ground hog will take charge.

The report now is that Swettenham has sent in his resignation as governor of Jamaica. That is what he ought to do or be put out.

George W. Vanderbilt has cleared his skirts of the personal tax dodging charge. The mayor of New York says he is a resident of that city and pays taxes there.

Speaker Cannon expresses his displeasure at what North Carolina newspapers have been saying about him recently. He may boss congress, but he will learn some of these days that he can't boss the newspapers.

Congressman W. W. Kitchin, of the fifth North Carolina district, announces himself as a candidate for governor in the next election. There must be something attractive about being governor when a man is willing to give up a position with a salary of $7,500 attached for one that pays only $4,000.

One matter the Chamber of Commerce might consider is a union depot for Greenville. It looks like the Atlantic Coast Line and the Raleigh & Pamlico might easily be brought together on this proposition before the latter begins work on a depot here. While the legislature is in session would be the proper time to get the aid of that body if the two railroads cannot be induced to come together voluntarily on a depot.

The legislature is a powerful assembly of powerful men, capable of accomplishing almost anything, but, in our humble opinion, they will reach the finish of their strength, and strike a powerful snag when they attempt to keep a lady from wearing her new Easter bonnet wherever she likes.—Charlotte News.

Something for Boys.

Many people seem to forget that character grows; that it is not something to put on, ready made with womanhood or manhood; but day by day, here a little and there a little, grows with the growth and strengthens with the strength, until good or bad, it becomes almost a coat of mail. Look at a man of business—prompt, reliable, conscientious, yet clearheaded and energetic. When do you suppose he developed all these admirable qualities? When he was a boy? Let us see the way in which a boy of ten years gets up in the morning, works, plays, studies, we will tell you just what kind of a man he will make. The boy who is late at school stands a poor chance to be a prompt man. The boy who neglects his duties, be they ever so small, and then excuse himself by saying, "I forgot; I didn't think," will never be a reliable man. And the boy who finds pleasure in the sufferings of weaker things will never be a noble, generous, kindly man—a gentleman.—Williamston Enterprise.

For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of opium, chloroform or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in cough remedia. "IT'S WRITTEN RIGHT IF HORNADAY WROTE IT"

There's a sense of Safety and of Security
 In the possession of Policies of Fire Insurance issued by HORNADAY that proceeds from the fact that ample assets and efficient experience doubly guard interests involved. No other Policies can so surely satisfy. See him and get the BEST INSURANCE (if you not already done so.)

IF YOU WANT TO BE BIGGER
 YOU MUST BE BETTER.

And the epigram is as applicable to selling Clothing as it is to the building of a man's character.

Forbes' is a store that studies. Studies to please all men who have the good clothes idea.

No matter what price you have in mind, we work to give the most clothes satisfaction. From every point regarded, a Forbes' suit always makes good the claim of correctness.

And isn't one of your reasons for buying a Forbes' suit, that you are after the very latest form and your money's worth?

Masons hold special meeting tonight.

If the weather don't suit you, wait for something better.

There were services in all the churches and in the court house Sunday night, but the weather was such as to make congregations small.
