

A WOMAN'S PRA

Oh Lord! I come to Thee in prayer
once more,
But pardon if I do not kneel before
Thy gracious presence, for my knees
are sore
With so much walking. In my chair instead
I'll sit at ease and humbly bow my head.
I've labored in Thy vineyard, Thou
dost know,
I've sold ten tickets for the minstrel
show,
I've called on fifteen strangers in our town,
Their contributions to our church put down.
I've baked a pot of beans for Wednesday's spree,
An old time supper it is going to be.
I've dressed two dollies for our annual fair,
And made a cake which we must raffle
there.
Now with Thy boundless wisdom so sublime,
Thou knowest that these duties all take time.
I have no time to fight my spirit's foes,
I have no time to mend my husband's clothes.
My children roam the streets from
morn till night,
I have no time to teach them to do right.
But Thou, oh Lord, remembering all
my woes,
Will count their righteousness and heed my prayers.
Bless the bean supper and the minstrel
show,
And put it in the hearts of all to go,
Induce the visitors to patronize
The men who in our program advertise,
Because I've chased these merchants
till they hid,
When e'er they saw me coming, yes
they did.
Increase the contributions to our fair,
And bless the people who assemble
there.
Bless Thou the grab-bag and the
Gypsy tent,
The flower table and the cake that's sent.
May our whist-club be to our service
blest,
The dancing party gaye'r than the rest.
And when Thou hast bestowed these blessings, then
We pray that Thou wilt bless our souls
Amen.

The sheriff, treasurer and superintendent of health filed their monthly reports.

The sheriff was granted until first Monday in May to settle taxes for 1907.

It was ordered that the sheriff be paid 30 cents per day for feeding prisoners in jail.

The superintendent of the county home was ordered to have the cemetery there enclosed with wire fence and to run a fence between the parts used for whites and negroes.

An additional pauper allowance of $3.50 was granted Almeta Smith for one month.

The board entered into a contract with the Burt Kasson Construction Company to hire the

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes from a Hustling Town
Ayden, N. C., Feb. 8th, 1907.

Wednesday evening in Chicod Township at the home of the bride, J. F. Barwick, Esq. united in marriage Mr. H. S. Page, of Ayden, to Mrs. Jerry Worthington. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party drove in carriages to the home of the groom in this town where they will make their home.

We regret very much to learn of the serious illness of the little daughter of J. R. Smith at his home on Main street.

Everyone is looking forward to and anticipating a delightful time at the entertainment here next week by the Williams Comedy Co. which will open on Thursday night and continue for three nights.

Mrs. Lon Nichols, of Beaver Dam, has been here on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hemby.

Miss Ida G. Edwards came home Tuesday after making a long visit in Kinston.

Mrs. W. H. Buhmann has returned from a visit to friends in Edgecombe. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Hazlette, who will spend several days in Ayden.

Frank Whitaker, of Wilmington, has been here during the week visiting his sister, Miss Rube Whitaker, one of the teachers in the graded school.

If Mr. Fleming's little $200,000 bill for the improvement of public roads should be enacted into a law, will some one please tell us what amount would be apportioned to each road throughout the county? There are 56 public roads in Contentnea township alone, that would easily require the whole amount, and there are eleven townships in the good old county of Pitt. Divide up the amount as proposed by Mr. Fleming's bill, how far and how much would all sections be benefited? Certainly Mr. Fleming proposes to treat all alike, surely there can be no pets to favor. Then take it as a whole the bill is a lumbag or else the town of Greenville is working for as well as anticipating great results from the passage of such a measure. We favor good roads and we favor taxation for the purpose, provided all sections will be treated alike, but this one man system we have always despised and shall condemn so far as we know and consistently without reflecting on anyone. We believe Mr. Fleming is sincere, but believe if he will only consider he will realize $200,000 for the benefit of the entire road system of this great big county is an absurdity and can only redound to the benefit of a few.

[We fail to see how any such idea as the foregoing can be obtained from reading the bill as published.—Ed.]

Wires Crippled.
Telegraph and telephone wires were badly crippled by the sleet, and about the time the damage to the lines was getting repaired the snow came and knocked them down again.

convict road force to work on sewerage in Greenville.

The committee appointed to examine official reports of the county officers made their reports.

The bond of S. T. White, treasurer of the board of education, was increased $15,500, which bond was given and accepted.

Jurors for March and April courts were drawn.

BETHEL DISPENSARY BILL.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Sec. 1, W. J. Robinson, D. S. Harper and Robert Staton be and they are hereby appointed a dispensary board of commissioners for the town of Bethel, Pitt county, whose term of office shall begin on the first Monday of April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and continue as follows to wit: The term of the first shall continue one year, of the second two years, of the third three years, and their successors in office as their terms shall expire shall be elected by the board of town commissioners together with remaining unexpired term of dispensary commissioners of the town of Bethel in joint session on the first Monday in April of each year.

Sec. 2, Provided further that in case of death or resignation or otherwise the chairman shall have power to call a meeting of the above named election board at any time, said board's duty shall be to fill all vacancy on said dispensary board of commissioners.

Sec. 3, It shall be duty of the dispensary board of commissioners hereinafter named in section one of this act, to meet at once, or as soon as practical and organize by electing one of its own members chairman, and one secretary; said chairman shall preside at all meetings, provided further that they may elect any one of said board in absence of said chairman to preside at any meeting.

Sec. 4, The said dispensary commissioners before entering upon their duties of office shall make oath that they will well, and truly carry out all the provisions of this act; and if it shall be made to appear that any of the said dispensary commissioners have violated his oath or been guilty of a malfeasance he shall be removed from office by the judge of Superior court of the judicial district in which Pitt county is situated, or the judge holding the court of the same, and may be upon conviction fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court, it being the intent of this section to make any violation of their oath by the said commissioners or any of them or any malfeasance in office a misdemeanor.

Sec. 5, The said board shall elect one of its own dispensary commissioners treasurer of said dispensary, but before entering upon the duties of said office he shall give bond in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars payable to the State of North Carolina for the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer of said dispensary board.

Sec. 6, That on the first Monday in April, or as soon thereafter as possible, the said dispensary board shall establish one dispensary on one of the principal streets in the town of Bethel for the sale of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, and shall elect and place in charge of said dispensary one manager, and other assistant managers if deemed necessary, and they may require a bond in any amount deemed necessary.

Sec. 7, That the said board of dispensary commissioners shall purchase all the liquors, and other supplies necessary and proper for said dispensary.

Sec. 8, That the said dispensary board shall make all rules and regulations for the government of said dispensary not in conflict with other provisions of this act and the law of the State.

Sec. 9, That no liquor of any kind shall be sold in said dispensary on Sunday or election days or before sun rise or after sun, set of any day.

Sec. 10, Provided further that no liquor shall be sold in said dispensary except in unbroken packages, bottles or jugs, which shall contain not less than one pint, and not more than one gallon, and it shall be unlawful for any manager or an assistant or any other person to open any such bottle or jug on the premises, and any one violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 11, The said dispensary board shall have power to employ attorneys, agents, and detectives to assist in the detection and prosecution of persons, firms or corporations violating this act; and for other purposes may employ chemists or other competent persons to test liquor, may borrow money, and shall have power to do other proper things not contrary to law to carry out the true intent of this act.

Sec. 12, The said manager or managers shall sell only for cash, and shall turn all money received by him or them over to the treasurer of said dispensary board at least once a week, and the treasurer of said dispensary shall on or before the first Monday in each month of the year pay one third of the net earnings over to the treasurer of the town of Bethel to be used for public improvements of said town; and one third of the net earnings shall be paid over to the general funds of Pitt county; and one third of the net earnings shall be retained by the treasurer of the dispensary board for the sole and exclusive use of the Bethel graded school; said money to be paid out by order of the board of education of Pitt county; provided, further, it shall be the duty of said treasurer of the dispensary to make all such reports as may be required by the board of education of Pitt county, and pay all moneys out belonging to the Bethel graded school district as the board of education may direct in said district of Bethel graded school.

Sec. 13, All laws in conflict with the establishment of this dispensary as provided in this act are hereby repealed: Provided further that this act shall not affect or alter either in part or in whole any laws or clauses of laws that are now on the statute books no further than the sale of whiskey through and by the dispensary in the town of Bethel herein provided for.

This act shall be enforced from and after its ratification.

A FORECAST OF THE SOUTH'S ADVANCE.

During 1906 the wealth of the South increased $7,300,000 for every day of the year, Sundays included, or a total $2,690,000,000. The actual increase in assessed value was $1,076,479,788 and this was on the average 40 per cent, of the true value. The amazing magnitude of this gain of $7,300,000 a day is strikingly shown by the statement of the London Express, which, bemoaning the inability of Great Britain to keep pace with America's growth, put the increase in Great Britain's wealth at $7,000,000 a week.

Contrast the South's increase of $7,300,000 a day with Great Britain's $7,000,000 a week and then think of the future.

Great Britain, with comparatively few natural resources, dependent upon the outside world for nearly all its foodstuffs, for much of its iron ore, for all of its cotton and a large part of its lumber, and with only 10,000 square miles of coal, of which a large portion has been worked out, has 40,000,000 people crowded into an area equal to that of less than half of Texas.

On the other hand, look at the South, with the world's cotton trade in its absolute domination, with 62,000 square miles of virgin coal fields, with iron ore sufficient to duplicate for years to come the whole iron and steel trade of all Europe, with almost limitless soil capabilities already producing over 800,000,000 bushel of grain a year and several hundred million dollars' worth of diversified farm products, able to produce foodstuffs for hundreds of millions, able to clothe the world, able to do more manufacturing than that of the whole country today, with millions of available water-power, 500,000 horse-power for electrical transmission being already under development, and when you have catalogued these you have mentioned only a few of the South's strong points—Manufacturers' Record, Baltimore, Feb. 7th.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Printed Pictures of Passing People.
O. L. Joyner went to Raleigh Friday evening.

W. T. Hunter came home Friday evening from South Carolina.

D. C. Moore and H. A. White returned Friday evening from Raleigh.

Senator J. L. Fleming came home Friday from Raleigh. He has been on the sick list a few days.

Meeting Postponed

On account of the inclement weather Friday, the meeting of the Womans Missionary Society of the Baptist church was postponed to Friday, 15th, at Mrs. W. H. Bagwell's. The same program will be used that was prepared for yesterday's meeting.

Teachers' Meeting.

The weather was so bad as to prevent a large attendance of teachers today and the regular program was not carried out. Those who came held a very interesting informal meeting in the office of the county superintendent.

Weather

Fair and warmer tonight and Sunday.

SATURDAY, FEB. 9th, 1907.

On the strength of such weather as this anybody would love to meet the ground hog.

John D. Rockefeller has made another appropriation, $32,000,000, to the cause of education. Users of oil may take notice.

People ought to think well before they do anything to hinder public improvements in a town. All should desire to do what is best for the general welfare of the town.

The government was living up to its own laws when it forbade the railroads giving special rates to shippers and then tried to get a special rate on the transportation of troops and army supplies. Uncle Sam ought to take his own medicine.

Talk about folks working for a thing in earnest, there were two hundred citizens of Moore county, all wearing badges containing the words "Lee County," who filed into the hall of the house of representatives on Wednesday afternoon. They were there to champion the bill to make a new county out of portions of Chatlain and Moore counties with Sanford as the county site. The large number in the delegation showed the interest of the people in the matter. Their earnestness was rewarded, as the committee before whom they appeared gave the new county bill a favorable report.

There has been introduced a bill in the legislature to encourage immigration to North Carolina. The bill carries with it an appropriation of $10,000 with the provision that this money is to come out of the funds of the agricultural department. We like the bill to encourage immigration and think it a step in the right direction, but we do not think that part of it to take the appropriation out of the funds of the agricultural department is right. That might do if the immigrants were to be only agriculturists, but the mills, the manufactories and other industries are also to be benefited by this movement. The State wants more agriculturists to come in, but it wants mechanics and laborers as well. The appropriation should come out of the general fund and not make the agricultural department bear all the expense of the immigration bureau.

$10 Reward.

The above reward will be given by the fence commissioners of Pitt Co for evidence sufficient to convict parties found guilty of destroying or otherwise mutilating the fence around the Stock Law Territory. This Feb. 6th, 1907. T. M. Hooker, Secy. 6-6mo d.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces, of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they have offered One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. French Economy. France in her system of finance and in her whole scheme of economy aids and encourages saving among the people. The government conducts a vast banking institution whereby every postoffice has its savings bank department—its "caisse d'epargne." Here any one may make a deposit as low as 1 franc (20 cents), which deposit is recorded in one's "livret de la caisse d'epargne" (savings bank book). A convenient feature of this system tending to make saving easy, is that one may make his deposits in any post-office anywhere in France and may withdraw any part or all his savings at any postoffice, without regard to where the deposits have been made. I have never had a servant in France who had not her "livret de la caisse d'epargne," and yet the girl or woman, if she had no family of her own to support, almost invariably contributed to the support of her father's family. I have had one middle aged "femme de chambre" on whose face each day I could read pretty well how the bourse was going.—Flora McDonald Thompson in Harper's Bazar.

Shopping. Shopping is a form of cruelty indulged by married ladies toward their husbands. It is incipient in young girls, reaches an active condition in brides and arrives at its most virulent stage between the tenth and the twenty-fifth year of married life. A small, delicate, slight, nervous, sensitive woman who would faint away at an empty mouse trap will go through the shopping district in from two to seven hours and come out refreshed and sustained by an unflinching trust in her husband's credit is good, while that gentleman at the end of forty-five minutes has to be carried home on a stretcher. Some women are born shoppers, others achieve it, but not one of them has it thrust upon her. Shopping is extensively practiced on week days, beginning on Monday with a rush and ending on Saturday in time for the opera. It promotes industry. Without it married men would have time to rest.—Delinicator.

Shooting a Rabbit. In Sullivan county there is a man who spent a whole day hunting, and at nightfall he was returning homeward empty handed when he found a rabbit in a snare and still kicking. He released it and was about to dispatch it with the back of his hand when it occurred to him that he could not say he shot it, as no shot marks would be found to corroborate his story. So he tied a string to one of the hind legs of the rabbit, tied the other end to the fence, backed away twenty yards and fired. The shot cut the string and bunny ran away. Such a good joke on himself was too good to keep, and he told it at the village grocery, little thinking that it would be handed about, until now if you want to anger him the mere mention of the yarn opens the old sore.—Forest and Stream.

Practicing by Ear. When Grover Cleveland was practicing law at Buffalo among his associates was a young lawyer who, though a bright fellow, was rather inclined to laziness. He was forever bothering Cleveland about points of law rather than look them up himself. At last Cleveland became tired of it, and the next time the young man sauntered in Cleveland knew what he wanted and, getting up, pointed to his bookcase and said: "There are my books. You are welcome to them. You can read up your own case." The fellow was caught, but he rose to the occasion. "See here, Grover Cleveland," he said, "I want you to understand I don't read law. I practice entirely by ear, and you and your books can go to thunder!"

Women Rule as Babies Do. The ordinary man would still much rather glorify women and set them on a mock throne, whence he can depose them at will, than have to acknowledge in them a real title to regard. It is difficult for a man to overcome his essential self importance. Most of us perhaps prefer to have inferiors round us—an abject trait of character, but natural. And only very slowly have we men been getting to prefer our womankind as friends and equals rather than as queens and pets, rulling us as a baby or a spoiled dog does.—London Saturday Review.

A Clever Hint. "You are so popular," sighs the swain. "You have so many suitors!" "The idea!" smiles the fair young thing. "Why, I can count them all on the fingers of my left hand. See. The index finger is Mr. Smugforth, the second finger is Mr. Balder, and the third finger—the third finger of my left hand—the third finger is you." Next day he got the ring for it.—Chicago Post.

News to Him. "The beauty of this great and glorious republic," said the American proudly, "is that any boy born here may become president." "Fawncy!" exclaimed the British tourist. "I was under the impression that the president had to be at least forty years of age."—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Philosopher. A philosopher is a man who when he has hard luck, due to his own carelessness and idocy and other shortcomings, can blame it all on fate.—Somerville Journal. ## Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood elements.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, with its tonic excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

England's Historic Miser.

John Camdon Neild, whose magnificent bequest to Queen Victoria supplied the funds out of which the prince consort built the present Balmoral castle, deserves a place among the great misers and was as remarkable a man as any of them. He was educated at Eton and Trinity college, Cambridge, and was a barrister at Lincoln's Inn. At the age of thirty-four his father's death placed him in possession of a fortune of £250,000, and from that moment he became a confirmed miser. Neild lived at 5 Cheyne walk, Chelsea. His big house was so meanly furnished that it did not even boast of a bed. Two old women, who did his chores, and a black cat were his sole companions. When he visited his large estates in the Midlands, which he did frequently, he generally walked unless he could get a lift for nothing, and he was not even above taking a gratuitous seat on a dung cart. Sometimes he was compelled by the weather to take a seat on the stagecoach, and there he would sit outside, shivering and dripping, for he never wore a greatcoat, an object of commiseration to his fellow passengers.

Lincoln's Rebuke.

The saying that there are few honest lawyers, did not hold true in the case of Lincoln. A man once called to retain him on a suit.

"State your case," said honest Abe. The man did, and then Lincoln said: "I cannot represent you, for you are wrong, and the other party is right."

"That is none of your business if I employ you," said the client.

"Pardon me," said the man who afterward became president; "my business is never to defend wrong. I never take a case that is manifestly wrong."

"Well, but you can make trouble for the other fellow."

"Yes," said Lincoln, "I can set a whole community at loggerheads, I can make trouble for this widow and her fatherless children and by so doing get you $600 that rightfully belongs to her, but I won't do it."

"Not if I pay you well?"

"Not for all the money you are worth," was the reply.

A Warrior Too.

The wooden boards that had marked the graves in a certain rural cemetery rotted off and were raked up in the spring cleaning. Consequently on Memorial day when the delegation from the G. A. R. arrived with flags and appropriate floral decorations for their departed comrades the decorating committee found itself somewhat in doubt as to which grave belonged to Captain Blodgett and which to Hannah Ericson. The mistaken delegates heaped their offerings upon Hannah's last resting place and departed. That afternoon Ericson, the widower, drifted, with the rest of his world, to the cemetery. When he saw the flag and the flowers above Hannah the astonished Swede fell to chuckling joyously.

"Well," he exclaimed delightedly, "dose faller bane pooty smart too! Ay fark dat vor all right and som gude yoke on Hannah—he vor pooty gude fighter herselluf!"—Youth's Companion.

Devonshire Terrace.

Dickens was twenty-seven years old when, in 1839, he moved from Doughty street to Devonshire terrace. George du Maurier lived for some years in 1 Devonshire terrace. In this celebrated house Dickens wrote no fewer than ten of his books—"The Old Curiosity Shop," "Barnaby Rudge," "The Christmas Carol," "American Notes," "Martin Chuzzlewit," "The Haunted Man," "The Battle of Life," "Dombey and Son," "The Cricket on the Hearth" and "David Copperfield." Devonshire terrace was situated at the corner of the Marylebone road and used to be called the smallest terrace in London.

It Varied.

The late Judge Saunders of North Carolina was noted as an angler, but he had a poor memory as to the weight of the fish he had taken. On one occasion a friend, trying to entrap him, said, "Say, judge, what was the weight of that big catfish you caught the other day?"

The judge turned to his waiter and said, "Bob, what did I say that catfish weighed?"

"What time yesterday, boss—in de mawula', at dinner or after suppah?"

The Moon.

Astronomers long since came to the conclusion that the moon's surface is very hot during the height of the lunar day, which, as will be remembered, lasts two weeks, and very cold during the lunar night, which is equally long. These extremes of temperature reach their height at the lunar noon and midnight and are greater than any natural temperatures on the earth.

The Golfer.

Bertie (to caddy, searching for lost ball)—What are you looking there for? Why, I must have driven it fifty yards farther! Diplomatic Caddy—But sometimes they hit a stone, sir, and bounce back a terrible distance.

Willing to See.

Mrs. Enpeck—The philosophers tell us that blessings often come to us in disguise. Mr. Enpeck (with a sudden show of spirit)—Maria, when are you going to unmask?

The Pale.

Little Margie (reading)—What is the "pale of civilization," Tommy? Small Tommy—Oh, some new brand of face powder, I suppose.

The root of all discontent is self love.—Clarke.

The Treacherous Lioness.

"Lionesses are far more dangerous than lions," said an animal trainer. "Their tempers are more uncertain. They are more treacherous. They are more wily. If a lion is in a bad humor, he shows it. He growls and snarls and lashes his sides. You know what is in the wind and prepare accordingly. But a lioness in a bad humor is as affectionate as a girl. She brushes, purring, against your leg, and she minds you with the joyous alacrity of a good fox terrier. Then, as soon as your back is turned, whiz—a yellow streak shoots through the air, and you are on your back, and she is at your throat. With all the cat tribe it is the same. Whenever you hear of a trainer mauled or mangled, be sure it was a female, not a male, cat that did the deed."

Greenland's Glaciers.

Nearly all the Greenland glaciers and tongues from the internal ice cap terminate in vertical faces from 100 to 1,000 feet high, presenting facilities for investigation. The vertical faces reveal pronounced stratification on the basal ice, even earth materials in the bases carried by the ice being arranged in layers. Fine laminations were seen twelve or twenty to an inch. The layers are sometimes twisted and contorted and even "shoved" over each other. The glacier movement at the ice border is a foot per day to a foot per week.

Force of Example.

"Talk about the instinct of the lower orders! I built a little two story house for our parrot not long ago, and the very next morning after I put her in it she looked out of the window and greeted me in a very profane fashion."

"Why should she do that?"

"Complaining about the house, I fancy."

"But why should she swear at you?"

"Took me for the janitor, no doubt."

—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

His First Love Affair.

Mrs. Rose—Did your husband ever have much of a love affair? Mr. Rose—Oh, yes, one, I believe. Mrs. Rose—An what was when he fell in love with you? Mr. Rose—Oh, yes, when he fell in love with me. Mrs. Rose—Oh, yes, when he fell in love with me. Mr. Rose—Oh, yes, when he fell in love with me.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

Give me the man with ravishing eyes,
And sweet, red lips;
She is better than mansions of stone,
Or temples of brick,
For joy and pleasure there will be,
If she takes Rocky Mountain Tea
Wooten's Drug Store.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. Health Coffee is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real coffee, remember in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor matches closely old Java add Mocha coffee. If your stomach heart or kidneys can't stand coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing and satisfying. It's safe even for the smallest child.
Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co

Builds up weak tissue, promotes appetite, improves digestion, induces refreshing sleep, giving renewed strength and health. What what's Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.
Wooten's Drug Store.

Mothers who give their children Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup invariably indorse it. Children like it because the taste is so pleasant. Contains honey and tar. It is the original laxative cough syrup and is unrivaled for the relief of croup. Drives the cold out through the bowels. Conforms to the Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Panama Canal—Erie Canal.
Machinery is digging the Panama canal a thousand times quicker than the shovel dug the Erie.
Machinery produces the L. & M. paint at 50 times less cost for labor, than if made by hand.
The L. & M. gives the best job in the world, because L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White lead and makes L. & M. paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years.
It only requires 4 gallons of this celebrated paint and 3 gallons of Linseed Oil at 60 ct. per gallon, to paint a moderate sized house.
If any defect exists in L. & M. Paint, will repaint house for nothing.
Sold by H. L. Carr, Greenville. 5 2w

Purity is our watchword. Selecting only the choicest herbs and roots known to pharmacists. No spirits or harmful drugs. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is purity itself. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.
Wooten's Drug Store

To stop a cold with "preventives" is safer than to let it run and cure it afterwards. Taken at the "sneeze stage" Preventives will head off all colds and Grippe and perhaps save you from Pneumonia or Bronchitis. Preventives are little toothsome cold cure tablets selling in 5 cent and 25 cent boxes. If you are chilly, if you begin to sneeze, try Preventives. They will surely check the cold, and please you. Sold by Bryan's Drug Store

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of opium, chloroform or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems has welcomed the Pure Food Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines for many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by Bryan's Drug Store.
