

A MOTHER IN ISRAEL.

Called From Earth's Labor to Her Eternal Home.

The death of Mrs. Mary Smith, of Winterville, Monday, removes from earth a noble woman who had lived more than four score years and filled all these years with usefulness and blessings to mankind. No statesman ever accomplished more to benefit his generation than did this woman. Hers was a work whose value to mankind can never be computed. Through her efforts was laid the foundation stone of education in Pitt county and the influence of her work has grown and extended far and near. She was a splendid type of womanhood physically and mentally, possessing the highest traits of Christ-like character, her every aim in life being to serve Him and to uplift mankind. It might well be said of her "Others have done nobly, but thou hast excelled them all."

Mrs. Smith was a daughter of Edward Nelson, Jr., who was a descendant of the noble family of Nelsons of Kent, England. Her mother was Sarah Roach, a daughter of Charles Roach, Sr. She was born at the Nelson homestead in Caven county Oct. 2nd, 1825.

On the 15th of March, 1846, she was married to William Henry Smith, of Pitt county. To them twelve children were born, ten of whom lived to be grown.

Her ancestry on both sides were remarkable for size and strength. Her grandfathers, Edward Nelson and Charles Roach, were soldiers in the revolution of 1770 and the two strongest men in their regiment. Her grandfather Nelson was the second tallest man in the old colonial court house, Richard Dobbs Spaight being 7 feet tall and her grandfather 6 feet 11 1/2 inches and weighed 250 pounds. Her father was 6 feet 9 1/2 inches tall and weighed 230 pounds. Mrs. Smith was 5 feet 9 1/2 inches tall and in her best days weighed 197 pounds. All her children are splendid specimens of manhood and womanhood, and the same strain is shown in succeeding generations.

Though Mrs. Smith had no great advantage of education in her youth, she did good work as a teacher. She taught her first school in 1845, the year before her marriage, and taught near her home several years afterward. She had to study grammar as she taught it, having never studied it at school. She mastered it and taught it successfully, as she did all other branches she studied.

Increasing family duties compelled her to give up teaching. Mr. Smith employed a teacher and kept a good school near the home until 1839. Being made poor by the war he found he was no longer able to support a school. There were now seven children at home, three having married. Four of the others had never been to school.

In January, 1870, Mrs. Smith determined they should not be without a school any longer. She told her husband she would do the best she could and that God would help her. She had the furniture removed from a room in the second story of her house, school desks and benches were placed on one side of the room and her spinning wheel and cards on the other. Mr. Smith took the oldest boy to help him plow, promising that he should attend next session. After preparing breakfast and doing the morning's work Mrs. Smith would go up and have a three hours' school, carding or spinning when not hearing recitations. Then she would go down to prepare the noon meal, do the chores, go back and have three hours' school in the afternoon. After this in the evening they would do the washing, ironing, or working the garden, as turn came.

She did not go on many weeks in this way before the neighbors found out she was teaching and asked permission to send their children to her. It was not long before the room was full and she had to put away her wheel and cards and give her whole attention to teaching. Others continuing to make application she had to move the school down to the school house to accommodate the neighbors. The first day there were over forty pupils and steady increase soon made it necessary to enlarge the house.

About this time she was visited by an old gentleman (the late John Ghost Elliott) who was a good latin scholar and one of the best mathematicians in the country. He had been a prominent teacher for many years but was now too old to manage a school, though he would teach any one who wished to study. At her request he made her house his home.

Though she was now 45 years old, with him Mrs. Smith studied latin, algebra, geometry and surveying during her vacations, having his assistance at all times. She taught latin and algebra and prepared her children for college in these branches. It was not long before her grandchildren were her pupils. She was liberally patronized by people of her own and surrounding counties. She taught eighteen years without stopping, and at the time her school closed six of her children and two of her grandchildren were teachers. One of her daughters taught 20 years.

Since then she taught at different places in the county, making over 25 years in all. She taught her last school in 1901 and would have continued longer had not her hearing failed. Several of her grandchildren are now teachers and considered among the best in the county. In her life work was truly verified the old proverb "God helps those who help themselves."

Another enduring monument to Mrs. Smith is the Episcopal church in Winterville. She set her heart in building a house of worship there and a handsome edifice shows the result of her energy and perseverance. On Sunday, Oct 1st, 1905, it was her pride to see her oldest grandson, Rev. W. E. Cox, ordained to the priesthood in the church at Greenville. Her son, Rev. Claudius Smith, who is a minister in Washington, D. C. preaching the ordination sermon. The writer will never forget her speaking to him that day of her joy at seeing her son and grandson standing together in the ministry.

The next day the pretty church building which she and her daughters had caused to be erected at Winterville, was consecrated. It was her 80th anniversary, and after the ceremony, she with about forty of her family—children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, accompanied by Bishop Strange and a number of friends, repaired to a grove nearby and enjoyed a bountiful reunion dinner. She never spent a happier day, and

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas on the 12th day of Jan. 1907 it pleased God, our Supreme Grand Master, to call from Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. our beloved and worthy brother, E. A. Coward to rest from labor, and whereas, we his brethren, together with his family and host of friends deeply mourn the earthly loss, yet we bow in humble submission to the divine will of Him who doeth all things well. Therefore, be it resolved:

1st. That Greenville Lodge has lost a true and faithful brother, who was ever punctual to his duties.

2nd. That as a member of the Oxford Orphan Asylum Committee, brother Coward always rendered the most valuable service, never became weary in well-doing.

3rd. That a page on our Record book be set apart sacred to our departed brother, and these resolutions be inscribed thereon.

Also a copy sent to the bereaved family, and to the Orphan's Friend and The Reflector for publication.

LAW SUIT OVER A DOG.

Two Years of Litigation Over a Hound Valued at Five Dollars.

Wadesboro, N. C., Feb. 18.—After a legal battle extending over two and a half years the ownership of a speckled hound dog was settled by a jury in the Superior Court here this week. The fight was between Mr. Henderson Davis and D. B. Dunn, a well known colored man, both of Burnsville township.

The dog is hardly worth $5, at the outside, but Dunn, by the time he pays his lawyers and the cost of the several proceedings will probably be out considerably more than a hundred dollars.

Where Man is Bossed.

The town of East Clarior, Ohio, boasts a unique record. The Shaw Hotel is run by Mrs. Phoebe Snaw on a strictly temperance basis. The postoffice is in charge of Miss Nellie Cleator. The church choir is composed of female voices, led by Mrs. Eva Armstrong. The superintendent of the Sunday-school is Mrs. Nellie Hale. The teaching force of the public school is composed of women. The superintendent is Mrs. Anne Mawson. There has not been a male doctor in the town for several years, and nearly all the husbands in town wipe the dishes.

Don't forget the birthday party at Perkins' opera house Friday night.

It was truly a day of joy to all present.

Mrs. Smith was a remarkable woman and even in her old age was more active than the majority of not half her years. To her many descendants she leaves the priceless heritage of a noble life well spent. She was indeed "a mother in Israel."

To the end of her life she manifested a keen interest in educational matters, and those following in this great work in Pitt county could not perform a worthier deed than to rear a monument to her memory. We all should delight to honor the memory of "Aunt Polly Smith" as every one loved to call her.

MASONIC TEMPLE OPERA HOUSE.

First Appearance Here of the Oberammergau Passion Play.

Messrs. Irwin & Steel, of Philadelphia, will present here on Saturday night February 23rd, their illustrated lecture on "The Life of Christ" and Famous Oberammergau Passion Play, in 29 scenes in moving pictures. They will have 50 lantern scenes, 3 illustrated songs and interesting lectures on each scene. This is the first appearance of Irwin & Steel here and the first time this production was ever put on in this city.

Two hundred years ago the inhabitants of Oberammergau, a small village in Bavaria, made a vow that if the plague which was then raging be lifted they would thereafter every ten years perform in dramatic form the story of Christ's life and suffering. The plague at once abated and in consequence the peasants of that town have made the name of Oberammergau famous the world over by their wonderful production of the Passion Play every ten years. This will be exhibited Saturday night, February 23rd, in moving pictures by the well-known managers, Irwin & Steel.

CONTROVERSY BOTTLED.

San Francisco Will Reopen White Schools to the Japanese Children.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The San Francisco school controversy growing out of the segregation of the Japanese school children in that city, has been bottled. The basis of the agreement reached at the White House conference today is that Mayor Schmitz and the members of the school board will immediately after the passage of the immigration bill, as reported by the conference of Congress, abolish the Oriental schools and again admit Japanese children into the white schools. The President and Secretary Root gave the San Franciscoans assurance that if the bill is not passed at this session of Congress an extra session will be called immediately after the adjournment on March 4th.

Rumors have been flying around the last day or two that Miss Katie Tunstall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Tunstall, who was attending school at Wilson, and Mr. R. C. Lassiter, who lived in Greenville last year but now in Norfolk, eloped Sunday and were married.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes from a Hustling Town.

Ayden, N. C., Feb. 19th.

The Williams Comedy Company came to us highly recommended and well they sustained their reputation. For three consecutive nights they gave us entertainments of a clean and high order, that were both elevating and entertaining. They were greeted each night with large audiences, and those who attended were very much pleased. To Messrs. Hooks and Gardner this entire community is indebted for the privilege of opportunities to attend and witness such interesting and delightful performances. These two young men have not only put themselves to considerable expense but have been zealous and untiring in their efforts to secure good troupes and afford us an opportunity perhaps we never would otherwise have had to enjoy ourselves. We hope and we believe the people of Ayden will see to it that these young men will be amply rewarded for their risk and enterprise. They deserve it.

If the legislature is desirous of improving the jury system why not abolish it altogether, jurors now a days only seem for the purpose to fill space in the court house, it has seemingly become the custom when a man is arranged before the court charged with an offense, a jury is impaneled, the culprit declares himself ready for trial and enters plea of "Not Guilty." His Honor regardless of counsel, prisoner, jury and everything else takes the matter into his own hands, after hearing a few witnesses he decides the case to suit himself. The jury is ignored, the prisoner deprived of the greatest privilege accorded on American citizen, the county taxed to death to pay for something it never had and the prisoner charged up in the bill of costs a five dollar fee which he never received. If we are to have one man reign let us know it, if we are to adhere to the customs of our fathers than in the name of God let us get at it.

J. O. Sugg, register of deeds, of Greene county and Miss Martha Harper spent the day, Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Coward.

Misses Emma Kilpatrick, of Centerville, Mamie Dawson, Mattie Cox and Mrs. Maggie Jackson, of Grifton, were guests of Mrs. W. E. Hooks during the past week.

We are pleased to see our little friend, Miss Burrus Sauls out after a slight attack of the measles.

Miss Mattie Hill, of Chocowinity, came yesterday to visit friends here.

Cotton has been coming on our market so rapidly for the past few days it reminds one very forcibly of the fall season. Some 200 bales have been sold within the last ten days.

Claude Dawson, of Grifton, spent the past week with his sister Mrs. F. G. Buhmann.

Miss Janie Kittrell, of Winterville, spent from Saturday until Monday with Mrs. C. A. Fair.

Very many people from Winterville and Grifton came to attend the entertainment last week.

Invitations have been issued to the Washington Birthday party at the Perkins opera house. If you didn't receive one you are invited to come. You can get a sack at the hall.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Printed Pictures of Passing People.

W. H. White went to Norfolk today.

C. D. Tunstall went to Wilson Monday evening.

Friday night is the time for the birthday party in Perkins opera house by the Altar Workers of the Methodist church.

Capt. Robertson is at the wharf with another load of nice oysters. Also a limited supply of corned mullets.

Birthington Washday—we mean Washington Birthday will be celebrated by the Altar Workers of the Methodist church at the Perkins opera house Friday night. Everybody going.

New Garden Seeds.

For Spring Planting at Coward & Wooten's The Druggists.

The Fish Bill.

Representativ J. J. Laughinghouse scored another victory in the passage of his agreed fish bill by the legislature. The bill provides for such a change in the mesh of nets as to permit small fish to pass through and stop their wholesale destruction. It also prohibits the use of nets within three miles of Ocracoke inlet. This is not altogether as good a bill as Mr. Laughinghouse wanted, but it will be a great help in enabling up the river people to get more fish.

Meeting of R. F. D. Carriers.

The rural free delivery mail carriers of Pitt county will have a meeting in Greenville at noon on Friday, Feb. 22nd, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization of R. F. D. carriers. Every carrier in the county is invited to be present.

Weather.

Fair tonight except rain in eastern portion; colder in extreme western portion; Wednesday fair.

PLAN FOR GREENVILLE'S GROWTH.

Proposed Amendment to Charter Extending Limits and Re-districting Wards.

The board of aldermen held another adjourned session Monday night, all the members being present.

The first question called up was the bill to authorize the issuing of bonds by the town to an amount not to exceed $75,000 for the purpose of completing and extending the sewerage system now in course of construction, to pave or otherwise improve the streets of the town, and to aid in establishing a training school for teachers in or near Greenville if one is authorized by law. The bill was read and unanimously adopted by the board and ordered sent to the legislature.

The next question was the matter of extending the corporate limits of the town. The committee recently appointed to investigate the matter made a report recommending that the boundaries be as follows: Beginning on Tar river east of the town on the line between C. T. Mumford and Frank Johnston, running with their dividing line in a southerly direction to the southern side of the Greenville & Washington road, thence on easterly course with the southern side of said road to the western side of the public road just east of W. H. Harrington's house, thence a southerly course with the western side of said road and continuing in same direction to the northern line of S. T. White's property, thence a direct line in a southerly course crossing the Raleigh & Pamlico Sound railroad at the western end of the trestle where the railroad crosses the county road near Greene's mill run to the southern boundary of the right of way of said railroad, thence a westerly course with the southern boundary of said railway to a point near the Elisha Williams property, thence a southerly course by the colored graded school to the southern side of the Greenville and Falkland road, thence with the southern side of said road to a point opposite R. A. Tysons' south eastern corner, thence a northerly course across said road and with Tysons' eastern line to Tar river, thence down the river to the beginning.

The re-districting the town into wards was recommended as follows:

The first ward to embrace all that part of the town between Third street and the river, and to have one alderman. The second ward to embrace all that part of the town between Third and Fifth streets and to have two aldermen. The third ward to embrace all that part of the town in the angle beginning at Five Points lying between Fifth street and Dickinson avenue and to have two aldermen. The fourth ward to embrace all that part of the town between the angle beginning at Five Points lying between Dickinson and Evans street and to have two aldermen. The fifth ward to embrace all that part of the town south of Fifth street and east of Evans street and to have one alderman.

Another amendment to the charter provides that in elections only four members of the board of aldermen shall be elected each year, which will prevent changing the entire board every year. These recommendations were adopted and will be drawn in a bill to be sent to the legislature. On motion the boot black stand in the Jarvis building was permitted to keep open on Sundays. After passing on some accounts connected with the sewerage construction the board adjourned. A number of citizens were present at the meeting and some of them took part in the discussions on the proposed amendments to the charter.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of opium, chloroform or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in cough remidier. Dr. Shoop, it seems has welcomed the Pure Food Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines for many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against opium and other narcotic poisons. He has made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by Bryan's Drug Store.

PANACEA MINERAL WATER CURES.

Read one among a hundreds of such testimonials. "I have suffered with NERVOUS Dypepria for past 10 years and have received more beneficial and lasting results from the use of PANACEA MINERAL WATER than from any other remedy of the many I have had prescribed for me. It gives me great pleasure to testify to its marvelous results in my own case and many others I have personally observed."

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated. Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds 5¢ times as much as the 5¢ bottle.

Prepared at the Laboratory of E. C. Dewitt & Co., Chicago, U. S. A.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

About That Home

Do You Contemplate Owing One?

If so the first thing to consider is a good lot in a desirable location and you cannot be better suited in a lot than the

Sam White Property.

No property surpasses this for a desirable home. Lots can be bought there now at reasonable prices and on easy terms. There is every indication that property around Greenville is going to be higher, and the longer you defer buying the lot the higher it will cost.

This property is located only 5 minutes walk from the business part of the town. See Sam White and let him explain prices and terms.

OPERA HOUSE.
ONE NIGHT
SAT. FEB 23

Irwin & Steel, of Philadelphia, will present their Illustrated Pictures
ON

The Life of Christ
AND FAMOUS

Oberammergau Passion Play.
29 Scenes in Moving Pictures. 50 Lantern Slides, 3 Illustrated Songs and an interesting lecture on each Scene. This is the first appearance of Irwin & Steel and the first time this production was ever put on in this city.

Two hundred years ago the inhabitants of Oberammergau, a small village in Bavaria, made a vow that if the plague which was then raging be lifted they would thereafter every ten years perform in dramatic form the story of Christ's life and suffering. The plague at once abated and in consequence the peasants of that town have made the name of Oberammergau famous the world over by their wonderful production of the Passion Play every ten years. This will be exhibited Saturday night February 23rd in moving pictures by the well-known managers, Irwin & Steel.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they have offered One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
