

Representative Longworth Accomplished Musician.

Special to Reflector.

Washington, March 26.—The capital is much interested in amateur entertainments, and some of the leaders of society are very gifted in the art of pleasing people with their rendering of music or readings. Among the most accomplished musicians is Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of the president, who is as skillful as a professional on the violin, while his dialect songs never fail to please, frequently convulsing his audience. His love of music is only exceeded by his love of politics. The father of Mr. Longworth practically established the college of music in Cincinnati, and first introduced the Theodore Thomas orchestra there, and also promoted the annual festival, which years ago attracted attention to Cincinnati as a musical centre.

Tobacco Men Jubilant.

Special to Reflector.

Nashville, Tenn. March 26.—The tobacco growers of Tennessee, Kentucky and Virginia are jubilant and very grateful to the Tennessee legislature for passing the two tobacco association bills, said President Fort, who is chief executive officer of the association. He said that the passage of the two bills mentioned materially strengthens the organization in its fight against the tobacco trust. This organization has been conducting a determined fight for several years past against the oppressions of the trusts and in behalf of better prices for their tobacco and the members feel that they are winning all along the line. The two bills passed were strongly favored by all but a very small percentage of the members, and the large majority feel that they will now be able more effectively than ever before to carry on their contest.

New Millionaire for Toga.

Milwaukee, Wis. March 26.—The election takes place today to fill the vacancy occasioned by the declination of Senator Spooner to serve any longer as United States senator from the State of Wisconsin. James Stephenson, of Marinette, the millinaire, backer of Senator La Follette, will be elected for the unexpired term, it is expected. This is all he wants. He has been a congressman.

Resigns After Long Service.

Special to Reflector.

New York, 16.—Major Anthony J. Bleecker, who has been in military service for some twenty-three years, has resigned from the 71st Regiment, and quits the service today. Captain Deekman has received the appointment in his place. Color Sergeant Buford has received the brevet of second lieutenant after twenty-six years of service, and has been retired.

Tigers Open Today.

Melba Signs to Sing into a Talking Machine.

Special to Reflector.

New York, March 26th.—Instead of sailing today for Europe, Melba, the noted opera singer, has signed a contract with the proprietor of a talking machine who pays her $50,000 to sing into his machine for a week. The soprano is to receive more than fifty thousand dollars for singing in the week ending April 2nd. This sum will be paid in royalties, but the company has guaranteed the sum, equal to the annual salary of the president of the United States and the total annually will be far in excess of that figure. To fulfill the contract the diva cancelled a passage to England, which she had engaged for today.

A Whist in Aid of Destitute Jews.

Special to Reflector.

New York, March 26.—Under the direction of Mrs. Samuel Greenfield, Mrs. Joseph H. Coren, Mrs. Albert Lucas, and destitute poor, and for the rebuilding of the alms houses destroyed in the Kingston earthquake will be given tonight at the Waldorf Astoria. The affair is expected to be a lively one, as a large number of the most influential people among the Jewish population are concerned actively in this enterprise.

Montgomery Wants the Methodist Woman's College.

Special to Reflector.

Montgomery, Ala. March 26.—Plans are forming in this city to secure the location of the Methodist woman's college in this city, if possible. Active work has already begun to raise the sum of $50,000, the amount necessary, and to secure about fifty shares of ground. The chances of securing the college are considered excellent.

Juror Talked Too Much.

Special to Reflector.

The remains of Mr. R. D. Cherry, who died in Sanford yesterday morning, will reach Greenville this evening. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in Cherry Hill cemetery.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town

Ayden, N. C., Mar. 26th. Yesterday about 1 o'clock the large lumber mill of Charles Smith situated about a couple of miles east of here, caught on fire from some shavings and was entirely consumed. Loss $4,000, with no insurance we are informed. This is a heavy loss on Mr. Smith as he can ill afford to sustain such a misfortune.

On alighting from the noon train Monday a gentleman walked up to a friend standing near and slipping something into the latter's hip pocket remarked "this is a No. 38, have it cleaned and repaired by arrival of evening train" and then walked off. Curiosity shop, Will Hemby, wasn't satisfied and proceeded to investigate by going to the rear of him who received the package and lifted his coat tail, when there appeared to the long-vision of many standing by a beautiful shining quart with the dead remains of what was said once to be good old rye. We are informed the necessary cleaning and repairing was done in apple pie order.

Mrs. Dr. Blount went to and returned from Greenville Friday.

John R. Carris tells us sometime last week a thief broke into his smoke house and carried away about 150 pounds of good old hams.

C. A. Fair has been to Aurora during the past week.

Dr. White, of Scotland Neck, made a special and very important visit to Ayden from Saturday until Monday. Surely the doctor has some sincere friends here.

Friday a negro went to the camp of the Ayden Lumber Company while the hards were out in the woods at work. He made a general swipe of all and everything movable. Pistols, razors, clothing and quantities of provisions he appropriated to his own use and silently stole away to the depths of the dismal forests and not since has his much desired angelic form been seen by those who wish to see him most and those we presume who do not love him best. The treatment which will be accorded him should he ever return, we presume would not cheer the conquering hero or delight the honored statesman in his round for greater triumph or more glorious conquests. He is just simply gone.

J. A. Newell and wife from the country, were visiting the family of their son-in-law, W. L. McLawhorn, last week.

The Rhodés Comedy Company gave an entertainment here last evening and will give another tonight. It is a good, clean show and had a nice house.

An Excellent Recital.

Greenville people, with the exception of the small number present, do not realize what they missed in the recital by the Richardson Trio in the opera house Monday night. Every member of the trio is an artist and master of his instrument, and every selection was the highest conception of music. The trio consists of Don Richardson, violinist, Karl Von Lawrenz, pianist and Herr Peter Peters, cellist. A combination of more celebrated musicians would be hard to find.

Musical attractions which embody distinctive vaudeville acts of the better class are in vogue this season. "Johnny Wise," the cartoon comedy which will be seen here Friday night represents the best type of this class of attraction.

SEVENTY-FOUR.

I am this day 74 years old. In the providence of God Almighty I have been kept. For in Him we live, move and have our being. He has guided and fenced me and done all for me in the way of preservation. By the grace of God I am what I am.

But few are living that are as old as I am. Why is it they are gone the way of all the earth, and I am still living on earth? God gives no account of His matters. It is because it seemed good in His sight. Having obtained mercy of the Lord I continue to this present time.

If one is blest with the spirit to appreciate life as the creation and gift of God, and values it as a favor above anything that man can earn or deserve and is impressed to do those things that are good and profitable unto men, being diligent in business and fervent in spirit, serving the Lord, then life is worth living. To be busily engaged in what is useful and up-building to the people, helpful to the race, is desirable. To be cheerful and courageous, endeavoring to do those things which are good and profitable to men with a meek, quiet and thankful spirit, graces human life. To seek not what men own, but to seek their good and happiness, to speak a word of encouragement to the despondent, to relieve such as are oppressed, is good proof of good will to men. To escape the polluting touch of ungodly lust and to live soberly, righteously and godly in this present evil world, is to attain a purity far more glorious than ill-gotten wealth can ever bestow. To so live as to have a conscience void of offence toward God and man supplies a feast that kings might well covet.

My life has not been equal to what I would like for it to be, for I have failed to utilize or redeem time as I ought. How much longer I shall live is unknown to me. When a boy it seemed that a man 74 years old was a very aged man, well stricken and burdened with years and cares. But today the Lord God so blesses me that life is not a burden but a joy. To God all my thanks are due for His surprising mercies who has so blest me that I have never been so sick a single day of my life that I did not wait on myself, and for many years I have been able each day to attend to the labors of that day.

I have kind friends in Wilson and many other places whose society is very pleasant to me, and I would like to appreciate their friendship. If I have enemies it is unknown to me. If there is a man on earth to whom I would not do a kindness it is unknown to me.

If it is the will of God I would love to wear my armor girded on me to the end of my appointed race in life, and fall asleep in Jesus instantly after life's day of labor is over. P. D. Gold —Wilson Times, 25th.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to return our heartfelt thanks to the people of Greenville for the many acts of kindness shown us during the recent sickness and death of our son and husband, J. M. Moore. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore. Mrs. J. M. Moore.

Died.

On the evening of the 22nd of March, 1907, about six o'clock, God in His all wise kindness visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Clark and took away their infant son, Wiley Jay, age 2 years 7 months and five days.

MASONIC OPERA HOUSE.

Friday Night.

There is something in Linton's production of the cartoon musical farce "Johnny Wise" which commends itself strongly to music and comedy lovers. It is one of the best light farces on the road and deserves its unusually successful season.

"Johnny Wise" is just a bit of tom-foolery that is never loud or vulgar, always refined, and always sends away a well satisfied audience at the end of the performance. There are over two hours of music drollery and high class vaudeville with never a minute that is slow and dull. It is one round of side splitting laughter from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

Morton and Ward, the whole-

sale butchers of the English language are exceedingly fine. C. Stuart Johnson as Johnny Wise, an over-smart and decidedly eccentric detective is a character quite new to the stage and one that is very well received by the audience. In the rendition of the Melba waltz song Miss Katherine Lee displayed an unusual fine voice as an encore, "The Last Rose of Summer" received several deserved recalls. The specialties of the well-known Gillmore sisters gained vociferous applause from the galleries. There is lots of snap and go about this play and snatches of refined burlesque that make you laugh in spite of yourself. The piece is written along the lines of the universally known Weber and Fields style of attraction and might be called a sort of pocket edition of their last success.

MILLINERY OPENINGS.

Two in Progress Today.

When it comes to openings of new goods, especially in the millinery line, Greenville always excels. The ladies are delighted with the two in progress and even the sterner sex, though gifted with not so much of appreciation, sees much to admire even if it does puzzle him whether to look at the pretty hats or the beautiful women.

Mrs. L. Griffin & Co., as is usual with their openings, have a beautiful display of pattern hats, flowers, trimmings and other things in this line. The new shapes and colors are attractive and much admired. It was really a feast to look over the elegant array of stylish goods.

C. T. Munford's is also an attractive place. One side of his big store was devoted to a display of millinery, spring dress goods, trimmings and novelties innumerable. His pattern hats are beauties and everything in keeping with the season's styles.

Both these openings will continue tomorrow and Pulley & Bowen's will also begin then.

Now who is the bigger, Foraker or the court martial?

Brain storm bids fair to get in the overworked class with strenuous.

One swallow don't make a spring, neither do three warm days make a summer.

It was well enough for a break to come in the Thaw trial this week, for it could not hold up interest in the face of the Easter hat.

Greensboro takes the lead in large initiations at one meeting of a secret order. The Junior Order of United American Mechanics at a recent meeting carried eighty one new members through the degrees.

Regarding the Durham, Herald saying the trusts bought up enough Democratic newspapers to make a good showing, and the Reflector's comment thereon, that paper says "we didn't see the point." And the Herald has not shown it to us.

The Wilmington Star is a remarkable paper. It has reached the age of forty years without a change in name, ownership or editorial management, and has only once in our recollection even changed its appearance. Major Bernard says he has joined the "Boys Brigade" and expects to spend many more years at the helm of the oldest daily paper in the State. May it be so.

In the last issue of the Manufacturer's Record, published at Baltimore, is a long article written by Congressman John H. Small, of this district, on the improvement of rivers and waterways. For several years Mr. Small has taken great interest in securing the opening of the inland waterway along the Atlantic Coast, realizing the vast benefit it will be to coastwise shipping. Congress has been rather slow taking up his idea, but the inland waterway is one of the things that is certain to come.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.

By a Contributor.

Spring can spring backward as well as forward.

President Castro has recovered sufficiently to receive ovals.

Now's the time for Senator Foraker to be either a man or a mollycoddle.

The Chicago audiences that listened to Vice-President Fairbanks' speeches, are said to have "warmed up to him." Spring must have come to Fairbanks too.

Insanity experts convinced against their will are of the same opinion still.

Every time Fairbanks looks at Taft he wonders how such a fat man can think running for anything.

Alfred Austin should cheer up, Frank L. Stanton says, his latest poem "Monastery Bells" has the "right ring."

The books of the Chicago sub-treasury are said to be "in perfect order". There is a missing $173,000, however, that is probably to be classed as extremely disorderly.

Massachusetts increased its "dry" area at the recent municipal elections.

We are slowly coming to the conclusion that Brownville just imagined that it was shot up. Keep on Mr. Foraker, you will soon be able to prove that the 's'un do move."

The lawyer who has presented Anna Gould a bill for $175,000 for securing a divorce from Castellana, is an American, trained in New York ways and leg- ullivan.

Now they are wondering whether or not Mr. Roosevelt can fish. We are inclined to think that fishing for anything less than whales would prove irksome to the president.

A FEATHERED FRAUD.

Robin Redbreast Called a Much Over-rated Bird.

The horticulturist put down his paper and sneered in disgust when he read an article praising robins. "The robin is a much overrated bird," he said. "People rail against the English sparrow, but he doesn't begin to torment the gardener as the robin does. Did you ever hear of a robin eating insects? No, indeed; not one little bug does he eat. But he'll pull up all the worms in the soil and impoverish it, for angle worms are the natural enrichers of the soil. His appetite is enormous, and it won't take him long to clean out all the angle worms in a good plot of earth. "He also feeds on berries, and I won't forget in a hurry what he did to me last winter. I planted a lot of black alder trees in my grounds, anticipating that by Christmas they would be blazing with red berries. You know the black alder is called the northern holly, and its berries are a vivid scarlet. Well, just as soon as the berries began to form a swarm of robins swooped down and gobbled them all up. How did they happen to be up north? Why, robins would stay north all winter if they could find enough berries to eat. They don't mind the cold weather any. It's simply a matter of food that drives them to a warmer climate. Bittersweet berries are the only sort they won't eat. They are robbers too. They'll steal the nests of such little birds as the phoebe, that sing sweetly. And they haven't a bit of common sense. When they teach their young to fly they keep up such a squawking that they attract the attention of every cat for a quarter of a mile. Of course the cats promptly gather and pounce on the young birds. Most horticulturists will tell you that the robin is a fraud and is no pet of gardeners. Even his name is a deception, for his much vaunted red breast is a yellowish brown. I welcome the sparrow around my place much more cordially than I do the fat robin." — New York Press.

Cats, large and small, are most careful toilet of any class of animal, excepting some of the opossums. The lions and tigers wash themselves in exactly the same manner as the cat, wetting the dark india-rubber-like ball of the fore foot and inner toe and passing it over the face and behind the ears. The foot is thus at the same time a face sponge and brush, and the rough tongue combs the rest of the body. Hares also use their feet to wash their faces, and the hare's foot is so suitable for the brush that it is used to apply the "paint" to the face for the stage. — Birmingham Post.

Got Back at the Plumber. The Rev. Dr. J. O. Peck, once pastor of Trinity Methodist church, was not only fond of a good horse, but of a good joke, and he could preach a good sermon. One year funds were low in the church treasury, and it devolved to some extent upon the pastor to see that money was raised. A meeting for the discussion of ways and means was called, the doctor being present. The directors suggested that some of the wealthiest members of the congregation be called on and asked for private subscriptions. To this Dr. Peck agreed. A few days later he was met on the street by one of the directors.

"Well, doctor," said he, "how are you getting on money raising?" "Fine," said Dr. Peck as his eyes twinkled. "I went around to several bankers, merchants and manufacturers, but it was of no use. Then I thought of the church plumber who robbed me last month, so I went around to him and held him up for the full amount." — Boston Herald.

No property surpasses this for a desirable home. Lots can be bought there now at reasonable prices and on easy terms. There is every indication that property around Greenville is going to be higher, and the longer you defer buying the lot the higher it will cost.

A LIQUID COLD CURE AND LAXATIVE COUGH SYRUP

THE NEW IDEA

The Red Clover Blossom and the Honey Bee on Every Bottle.

"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard." Nearly all other cough cures are constipating, especially those containing Opium. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar moves the bowels, contains no Opium.

KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE HONEY AND TAR

Relieves Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.

Relieves Coughs by cleansing and strengthening the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes.

For Croup, Whooping Cough, La Grippe, Influenza, Bronchitis, and all Coughs, Colds, Lung and Bronchial affections no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Children like it.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Possibly, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds, it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen those nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of opium, chloroform or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in cough remidier. Dr. Shoop, it seems has welcomed the Pure Food Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines for many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by

Own a HOME

INVEST IN REAL ESTATE AND YOUR MONEY IS SAFE.

I have several houses and lots for sale at very low prices and reasonable terms, one-fourth cash and from one to two years on balance.

You can borrow money from the Home Building and Loan Association to pay for this property and your rents from same will pay the Building and Loan. This is a fine investment for any one who wishes to make any money out of real estate or own a home.

This property is situated in the town of Greenville and on one of the most desirable streets.

Lumber is very high now and you can buy a home already built cheaper than you can build one.
