Battleships of Santiago Fame Ready for Exposition.

Special to Reflector.

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—The famous old battleship Texas, now at navy yard, Portsmouth, is ready for service at the Jamestown exposition, rush orders to the effect that she must be ready having been strictly complied with. The same instructions came also for the cruiser Brooklyn, another famous old warrior, which fought beside the Texas in the rain of shot and shell of Santiago, and was conspicuously involved with the Texas in the Sampson-Schley controversy that followed the battle. Both are to be stationed at the exposition, and both have been made ready sixteen days before the opening. The presence of the tough and resolute looking Texas and the stately and towering hull and superstructure of the Brooklyn, will revive memories of both the battle that beaming Sunday morning off the harbor of Santiago and the unfortunate controversy that followed the battle, involving Admiral Schley's pennant ship, which was the Brooklyn.

Effort to Abolish Charter of Nashville.

Special to Reflector;

Nashville, Tenn. April 10.—Senator Porter has introduced a bill to abolish the charter of the city of Nashville so as to rid the city of saloons. The measure will be strongly pushed by Senator Porter, but is being widely criticized and discussed by members of the legislature, who do not agree upon the matter. Some of them think it is like cutting off a dog's head to cure him of some disease. The remedy is considered rather harsh, and as using a disturbance of the fundamental conditions to affect a temporary and subordinate purpose. The Jackson charter bill, which also proposes abolition of the instrument, will enter largely into the Nashville fight, the opponents of that measure making common cause with the Nashville opponents, to down both.

Mourn the Dead Bishop.

Special to Reflector.

Nashville, Tenn. April 10.—The death of Bishop Cranberry at Ashland, Va., last week is the cause of widespread mourning and grief in the South, where his virtues were well-known. The Methodist denomination especially mourn his sudden departure, as he was very dear to all the thousands of worshippers of that faith who have known of his services for many years. Bishop Cranberry was also well-known at the North, and in many pulpits his death was mentioned with genuine regret and sorrow. His engaging personality endeared all who met him, especially the young people of the flocks to which he ministered.

Died.

Friends of the family in Greenville regret to learn of the death of Miss Satchwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Satchwell, of Yeatsville, Beaufort county, which occurred Monday night, in her 15th year. The mother of Miss Satchwell was formerly Miss Eva Williams, of Greenville, and a sister of Mrs. W. B. Green and daughter of Mrs. Caroline Cherry.

Education Board at Pinehurst.

Pinehurst, N. C., April 10.—The first day's session of the Education Board yesterday was a great success, the attendance being large, and the papers read and the discussions being profound and practical. Leading educational men from all parts of the South are here, and today a discussion will be held upon "Agriculture and the Southern Farmer" by Dr. S. A. Knapp, of Lake Charles, Va. T. O. Sanders, of Farmville, Va.; and Dr. L. Bailey, of Cornell University. There will also be a discussion of "Women's Work for Public Schools" with report from women who have been foremost in the several states in organizing efforts for school improvements. State superintendents will discuss high schools and secondary education, and President Harry Pratt Johnson, of the Chicago University, and many others will speak.

—George Washington died and the country survived. His death was a ten days' talk and then people talked of somebody else. Napoleon went to St. Helena and a Bourbon occupied the throne of France. What is true of illustrious men is true in greater degree of those who have not achieved eminent distinction. To succeed in advertising one must keep himself constantly before the public. When he ceases to advertise people forget him. Who remembers Hembold now? Yet time was when he and his buchu preparation were the talk of the country. When a man ceases to work he deteriorates mentally; when a business man stops advertising his sales decrease visibly, says Printer's Ink.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. J. F. Brinkley.

LEFT FORTUNE TO ROOSEVELT.

New York Woman Willed President Her Property and Cat.

New York, April 8.—President Roosevelt is the sole beneficiary under the will of Lulu B. Grover, of No. 2089 Lexington avenue, which was filed in the office of the surrogate today. No petition was filed with the will and the value of President Roosevelt's bequests are, therefore, unknown. The main part of the will, which is very brief, reads as follows:

"I give to Theodore Roosevelt at my death everything that is mine, household furniture, personal property, jewelry, diamonds, estate, all money in bank to my credit and my cat, Snow Drip Low, and everything that is mine. I owe to Theodore Roosevelt a debt greater than I can ever pay in this world, and in this way I wish to show I am not ungrateful. He has been my good angel who spread his wing of shelter over my peace through life and was my only true friend in trouble. I gladly give my little all to him and only wish it were millions instead of so small an amount. I hope he will accept it in the spirit I give it and with God's blessing."

It has been announced that President Roosevelt will accept the estate bequeathed to him and turn it over to some New York charity. The cat is being cared for now under directions issued by the President.

Voting for Wisconsin United States Senator.

Special to Reflector.

* Madison, Wis. April 10. The two houses of the legislature will today begin voting for United States senator. While LaFollette and his forces are concentrated on Stephenson, the course of Lenroot is considered mysterious.

Honor Roll.

The following is the honor roll for District No. 2, Greenville township:

Ora Crawford, Ethel Clark, Hettie Clark, Ethel Allen, Daniel Elks. Hulda M. Cox, Teacher.

Colored Folks' Entertainment.

The colored people had some kind of an entertainment in one of the tobacco warehouses Tuesday night. They brought up a brass band from Ayden to make music for the occasion.

Much of the so called friendship of the day is but pretense. It exists only in name and as soon as it ceases to be advantageous it is dropped. The friendship that continues the same in prosperity and adversity is to be prized, but all other kinds are worthless. It matters not how hard a man may struggle to do right and make a success of life there is always some loathsome reptile, some worthless wretch who is ready to drag him down, to blight his hopes and blast his fondest ambitions. The loss of money and property is not the greatest loss a man can sustain in the business world; far better to lose your money than to lose hope and ambition. Dunn Guide.

EXTREMES.

One Brought a Single Envelope, the Other a Million.

"That's the first time I ever sold a single envelope," remarked the young woman in a big stationer's store in the city's centre. "I've always sold them in packages, but that gentleman came in with a letter in his hand and asked for an envelope, and I sold him one for a cent. I imagine that that is the smallest sale that has been made in this establishment since it opened. The biggest I ever made happened to be in the envelope line, too. A rather roughly dressed man came in, asked to see our envelopes and wanted to know the price by the thousand. I told him. Then he asked the price by the million. I got the figures from our manager, who smiled as he gave them to me. Yet the man ordered a million envelopes and when we asked for reference he said he would as lief pay the bill on the spot—which he did from a roll of yellow bank notes about the size of a loaf of bread. We delivered the envelopes but haven't seen the purchaser since.—Philadelphia Record.

Some Things Not to Fear.

Don't be afraid to work; it is healthy, physical and mental exercise.

Don't be afraid to hustle, be glad of the chance.

Don't be afraid of being turned down.

Don't be afraid to change a man's opinion, but be careful how you do it.

Don't be afraid of failure. Keep on, though you fall a dozen times.

Don't be afraid of difficult undertakings. Be glad of the opportunity to show your metal.

Don't be afraid to play the game honestly. Honesty always wins out.

Don't be afraid to go out the way to do good turn for a friend.

Don't be afraid to tell the truth. It is a part of your honor.

Don't be afraid to obey. A man must learn to obey before he can hope to command.

Don't be afraid to forget work at times. Your work will go the better for it.—Chicago Tribune.

Rules for Success.

Do it better!

Letting well enough alone never raised a salary or declared an extra dividend.

And what was well enough for yesterday is poor enough today—do it better.

Seek out that automatic act of habit—do it better.

Put another hour on the task well done—and do it better.

Strive not to equal—strive to surpass. Do it better!

The law requiring the State flag to be floated over every court house is now in effect. As we understand it, the flag is to be displayed at all times except on rainy days. It is to be half-masted on the death of a State officer or other prominent official or citizen. The law prescribes that the flag shall be four-by-six feet and of all-wool bunting, both sides alike.

THE EASTERN TRAINING SCHOOL.

It is now certain that this school will be located during this year at some point in Eastern North Carolina. The legislature has ordered such a school to be established and has left it to the State Board of Education to locate it. It is certain that this institution is to be a part of the educational system of the State and that it will remain where it may be located. The people of Pitt county should therefore well understand that it is now or never. They can secure the school if they will, but they must do it this year, not next. In fact they must make their decision on the 14th of May, 1907. If on that day they vote for bonds they will record themselves in favor of securing the school. If they vote against bonds they will by that act say they do not want the school established in their county. We cannot believe that any of our people will so vote. Our observation is that the people of Pitt love their county and that they take a pride in its growing prosperity and influence. The location of the school in our midst will give an impetus and an uplift to the county that will soon make it the foremost county of all the East.

There are already too many written laws, and some of the unwritten are better than the written.

Greensboro has not yet quit talking about the palmist, but such "Easy Marks" should never have squealed.

It is a long time before another general election, but there will be no let up on political discussion in the meantime.

A good motto for every voter in Pitt county: "As for me and my house, we favor bonds to secure the Eastern training school."

The man who argues against bonds to secure the location of the Eastern training school in this county, argues against both his own and the county's interest.

What it will cost to get the Eastern training school located in Pitt county will only have to be paid once, while the benefit the county will reap from it will go on through years without number.

It matters not in what section of the county a man may live, he should be in favor of bonds to secure the Eastern training school. Such a school will benefit every section of the county and all neighboring counties also.

The Daily Free Press, of Kinston, has reached the age of ten years. It is a paper that has always been active in advancing the interest of its town and community. There is no single enterprise in Kinston worth so much to the town as the Free Press.

The rumor is sent out from Raleigh that the railroads of the State will test the validity of the act of the recent legislature reducing passenger fares to 2-1-4 cents. The railroads may know their own business, but we believe it is bad policy to continue a further fight in this matter. Even if they could prevent the act becoming operative for the time being, it would only make the next legislature more determined in passing a law to reach the railroads, and the rate might be made lower than under the present law. It would be better to stop the agitation and give the law a fair trial so that the railroads and people may both see if it is advantageous. The Reflector has all along been of the opinion that if the railroads had accepted the Laughinghouse 2 1/2 cent bill in the legislature of 1905, there would not have been a passenger reduction bill considered by the legislature of 1907.

FARMERS' MEETING

Two Distinguished Speakers Will be Present.

Hon. E. D. Smith, president of the South Carolina, and C. C. Moore, president of the North Carolina division of the Southern Cotton Growers association, will speak in Greenville Thursday, April 18th. Every farmer in Pitt and the adjoining counties who can possibly do so should come out and hear these two men who are giving the organization of the cotton farmers of the two States their whole time and attention. They are both practical farmers, are well posted on the situation, and it will be time well spent to hear them. Those who have heard Mr. Smith say he is a fine speaker and holds the attention of his hearers from beginning to end. I earnestly hope every farmer who can will come out to hear these two distinguished gentlemen.

J. J. Laughinghouse,
Pres. Pitt County Branch.

NOTICE TO THE VOTERS OF PITT COUNTY.

Notice is hereby given to the voters of Pitt county that the board of county commissioners, at their meeting on the first Monday of April, 1907, it being the first day of said month, ordered that an election be held at the various voting places in said county on Tuesday, May 14th, 1907, for the purpose of taking the sense of the qualified voters of said county on the proposition to confer upon the board of county commissioners of said county the authority to issue and sell interest bearing coupon bonds of said county, not to exceed the sum of fifty thousand dollars to run for thirty years and to bear interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent. The proceeds of the sale of said bonds to be used in aiding in erecting suitable buildings at some point in Pitt county for a training school for white teachers, and the excess, if any, of the fund arising from the sale of said bonds, after securing the location of said school in the county, to be used in the purchase of machinery for the use of the convicts in working the public roads and to aid building and repairing bridges in the county of Pitt.

A new registration of the voters has been ordered for said election, so that it may be definitely and accurately ascertained who are qualified voters at said election. The law authorizing said election requires those favoring the issuing of said bonds to vote a written or printed ballot with the words thereon, "for bonds" and those opposed to vote a written or printed ballot with the words thereon "against bonds." The registration books will open on Thursday, April 11th, 1907, and close at sunset on Saturday, May 4th, 1907. Only those who register can vote.

By order of the board of county commissioners of Pitt county.
This the 1st day of April 1907.
Attest: R. W. King, Chairman,
Richard Williams, Clerk, 11d 4tw

The proceeds of the sale of said bonds to be used in constructing, extending, enlarging and maintaining the sewerage system now in course of construction in said town and for the purpose of paving, or otherwise improving street and to aid in the establishment of a training school in or near the town of Greenville, if one shall be authorized by law, and allowing the board of aldermen to use so much of the proceeds of the sale of said bonds for either of said purposes as they may deem proper, but for no other purpose.

A new registration of the voters has been ordered for said election so that it may definitely and accurately be ascertained who are qualified voters at said election. The Act of the General Assembly authorizing said election requires those favoring the issue of said bonds to vote a written or printed ballot with the words thereon "For Bonds" and those opposed to the issuing of bonds to vote a written or printed ballot with the words thereon "Against Bonds." The registration books will be open at the various polling places in the several wards of the town on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the first second and third days, of May, 1907. Only those who register can vote.

This notice is given with a certain act of the General Assembly of North Carolina passed at its session of 1906, and entitled "An Act to allow the town of Greenville to issue bonds."
By order of the Board of Aldermen of the town of Greenville.
This the 4th day of April, 1907.
F. M. Wooten,
Mayor of the town of Greenville.
Attest: J. C. Tyson,
Clerk of the Board of Aldermen of the town of Greenville.

AN IDEA FOR A CARD GAME.

"It is curious what original ideas people sometimes have in connection with the subjects that they know absolutely nothing about," remarked a lawyer. "I was trying to teach a friend bridge the other day. He had never played any game of cards but seven up. When I tried to explain to him that one trump suit was better than another I suppose I did not express myself very clearly, because he asked me afterward if hearts would always win diamonds and diamonds clubs, and so on, and when I told him no he wanted to know if there was any game of cards in which all the suits were trumps at the same time, so that if you had none of one suit you could trump the trick with a card of the suit which was next in rank above the suit led. Well, I spent a whole evening looking through my Hoyle to see if there was any such game. I found almost every conceivable twist and turn in the way of card ideas, but not that. Why is not that an absolutely new idea for a card game?"—New York Sun.

Microphone Detective.

In France M. Hardy has invented an application of the microphone to detect fire damp in mines. This is its principle: If sound waves from two pipes of equal pitch impinge on microphones connected in series with a telephone, a clear note is heard, but, if one of the pipes emits a slightly different note, beats will be heard in the telephone. Here is the application: One pipe is placed in the mine, the other above ground, and they are blown simultaneously. If the air in the mine is charged with fire damp, it will produce a different note from that produced by clear air owing to the difference of density, and in consequence a series of beats in the telephone gives warning of the presence of fire damp. The same apparatus is very sensitive to the presence of coal gas.

Lather and Litigation.

A sequel to Emperor William's journey to Munich last fall appears in the form of a curious libel suit. His majesty stopped at a wayside station to get shaved, and a local Socialist newspaper stated that the members of an association of military veterans stormed the barber shop to obtain the lather scraped from the royal face, adding that the delectable mess was distributed among them while a band played the national anthem. The veterans did not like this story and sued the paper for libelous insult. The trial, which has just taken place, convulsed everybody, including the judges, with laughter, but the court decided that the editor must pay a fine for overstepping the bounds of fair comment.

The Whistling British Boy.

The whistler, oddly enough, is English, though the name has been made famous by an American. Among all the noises you hear in Paris—surely the noisiest city in the world—the whistle is not prominent. In New York, sufficiently noisy, you will seldom hear a whistle, though it sent us the first great siffleuse. But in London the whistle is insistent. It is not only the cab while the two for a hansom, one for a greater, with frequent "ex-cuses." It is the boy. This is a fairly quiet flat in a fairly quiet neighborhood, but there is scarcely a waking moment in which you cannot detect the sound of the boy and his whistle.—London Chronicle.

London's Foodstuffs.

According to a recent estimate of the secretary of the public health committee, London annually consumes nearly 1,800,000 tons of foodstuffs. Of this amount rather more than two-thirds arrives by water and less than one-third by rail. The shipments include 1,000,000 tons of meat, fish and milk, butter, eggs, lard, etc.; 500,000 tons of fruit and vegetables, including sugar and preserved fruits, and 1,400,000 tons of grain and flour. It is pointed out in the committee's report that the system of inspection is inefficient and that oleomargarine is largely sold as butter.

A Sign Curiosity.

On Wentworth avenue there is a florist's shop which excites no little curiosity on account of the peculiar partnership names. The gilt sign above the shop reads, "Alm & Paalm." The question as to whether Pa-alm is really Alm's pa or not immediately presents itself. It is thought, however, that no blood relationship exists between the two.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Our Army.

The United States regular army, which is regarded as the basis or skeleton of a much larger army in time of war, is probably both as to officers and men the best physically, the most intelligent, the most highly trained and the most perfectly equipped of any army in the world.—London Spectator.

A LIQUID GOLD CURE AND LAXATIVE COUGH SYR'.

The Red Clover Blossom and the Honey Bee on Every Bottle.

"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard." Nearly all other cough cures are constipating, especially those containing Opiales. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar moves the bowels, contains no Opiales.

KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE HONEY AND TAR

Relieves Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.

Relieves Coughs by cleansing and strengthening the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes.

For Croup, Whooping Cough, La Grippe, Influenza, Bronchitis, and all Coughs, Colds, Lung and Bronchial affections no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Children like it.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds up strength; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with
