

President Roosevelt's Actions Against Corporations.

Special to Reflector.

Washington, April 15.—Whatever may be the present purpose and plans of President Roosevelt with reference to action on the part of the general government restraining corporations engaged in interstate trade, and especially with reference to interstate railroads it is certain that the activities of the government along these lines will be emphasized during the month of April by proceedings in the two most remarkable and important cases now pending relating to these subjects. One of these cases is that against the Standard Oil Company and the other to dissolve the relation between the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific railroads. In both instances the complaint of the government is that the acts performed by these great corporations are in violation of the Sherman-anti-trust law, and amount to a conspiracy in restraint of interstate trade. The case against the Standard Oil Company will come up for answer today in the United States circuit court in St. Louis. The case involving the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific railroads will be heard before the interstate commerce commission on Thursday next.

National Arbitration Peace Congress.

Special to Reflector.

New York, April 15.—The announcement of the programme of the national arbitration peace congress in this city, for the three days beginning today, indicates a series of meetings that ought to stir powerfully the peace sentiment of the country. That such a congress may be especially needed at this time is evident to those who have followed the preparations and discussions preliminary to the next international conference at the Hague. It is proving to be very difficult to bring that assemblage of questions which strike at the roots of war; and not even the British premier's proposal for the limitation of armaments seems to obtain much of any backing aside from our own government.

Campaign Cash - Publicity.

Special to Reflector.

New York, April 15.—The Roosevelt-Harriman controversy over the contributions for the 1904 campaign has resulted in a call for a meeting for tomorrow night at the Victoria hotel, by the National Publicity bill organization. The call for the meeting is signed by Perry Belmont, chairman, and was issued at the request of a majority of the members of the executive committee and law committee of the society. William Jennings Bryan and Samuel Gompers have wired that they will attend the meeting to advocate a national law compelling the publication of contributions to and expenditures by national and congressional committees. Other prominent speakers will address the meeting on the same subject.

The Good Side.

There is a good side to everything if we will look for it. The cold weather has been better for the future health of the people in doing the sewerage work than if it was done during warmer weather.

Soaring And Paying Cash.

"What a fine lot of potatoes!" exclaimed a city visitor to her farmer host, as the two stood together looking out over an expanse of luxuriant green plants. "Fine!" answered the farmer with more earnestness than polish of speech. "The hull lot aint worth a tin penny. They've all run to tops and no taters. Things have to have some bottom to 'em to look nice accordin' to my way of thinking."

Without recognizing himself as a philosopher the farmer voiced the feeling of the vast majority of us when he declared that "things must have some bottom to look nice."

And yet we all love 'tops,' luxuriant, healthy-looking tops. We all enjoy, yes, need, soarers, and need to be soarers ourselves. We love and are inspired by the mountain bird, the boughs that blow upward to meet the bending sky, the mountain peaks that draw the heart as well as the eyes from the lower earth. We must, to be our best and so do our best, live in the upper chamber of our being, where the Christ in each of us breaks the bread of promise and pours the wine of renewal.

Sensible, honest, satisfactory soaring is made legitimate and possible only by sensible, honest, satisfactory serving, which is life's cash paying. Living is the primal, fundamental thing; talking, the accidental or incidental. We have great art, great literature, great plays, because men and women have lived greatly not because they have talked fluently.—Lida A. Churchill in the May Delineator

May Forecast Government's Attitude Toward Hague Conference.

Special to Reflector.

Washington, April 15.—Secretary Root and John Barrett, director of the Bureau of American Republics, will attend the meeting of the International Conciliation committee, which opens tonight, and continues until the 19th. Both will make addresses, and it is believed that Secretary Root will forecast the attitude of this government at the Hague conference to be held in June. A further explanation of this country's attitude toward the Latin-American continents is also expected from Secretary Root.

Louisville, & Nashville Denies Story

Special to Reflector.

Louisville, Ky, April 15.—The Louisville & Nashville denies the story that it would hold until today an offer made to the minority stock holders of the Southern Chattanooga railroad not to exercise its option on the majority of the stock if those minority stockholders would not sell.

Pope's Consistory Today.

By Cable to Reflector.

Rome, April 11.—The consistory meets today, and a number of cardinals will be created today. Whether any Americans will be appointed is unknown, but probably none will be. The Pope says there must be patience exercised; they will be satisfied later.

Weather.

Fair and not so cold tonight and Tuesday. Frost probable tonight in exposed places.

There was a little snow Saturday afternoon, and several flurries of it Sunday.

A Man With a Celluloid Nose.

A man with an inflammable nose recently created excitement on the Boulevard St. Michael, Paris. He was lighting a cigarette when his nose became suddenly ignited, and it and his beard were soon on fire. The man jumped about in great pain, and was carried through a horrified crowd to a druggist's shop, where the blaze was extinguished. It was then found that he had a celluloid nose. The real nasal organ had gone under in a street fight, and he went to a flesh patcher for an artificial nose. He had been supplied with one of celluloid instead of horn, hence his mishap.

Sunday School Reorganized.

For sometime the Free Will Baptists have been conducting a Sunday school at their church in South Greenville, though the school did not meet regularly Sunday afternoon the school reorganized and took on new life. Rev. W. H. Laughinghouse is supervisor of the school and the new officers elected are W. M. Pugh, superintendent; J. T. Abrams, assistant superintendent; W. S. Moye, secretary; Miss Daisy Laughinghouse, treasurer. The school will now meet regularly every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Engagement Cancelled.

Owing to a pressing invitation to meet the chamber of commerce of Wilmington on an important matter on the 18th inst., the same date selected for their speaking in Greenville, President C. C. Moore writes that it will be impossible for him and Mr. E. D. Smith to meet their appointment in Greenville on that day. This is very much regretted, but Mr. Moore says he hopes they can make another date for Greenville at an early day. J. J. Laughinghouse.

Earthquake in Mexico.

Special to Reflector;

New York, April 15.—Advices this morning from the city of Mexico state that it has been visited by a severe earthquake shock lasting several minutes. The people were badly frightened, though the shock was attended by no loss of life nor property damage of consequence. It is feared that heavy damage has occurred further southward.

Another Stemmery.

Mr. J. N. Gorman, of Richmond, has purchased the Bernard & Hooker prize house property in the tobacco section of the town. He has already commenced remodeling the building and will fit it up with improved machinery to operate as a stemmery. His plant will strengthen the Greenville tobacco market.

THE COTTON MANUFACTURES IN THE SOUTH.

A gentleman in this city has received a letter asking information about cotton manufacture in the South on the following points:

1. "Is the negro efficient as a laborer; if not why not?"
2. "What is the number of mills in the South?"
3. "What is the capital invested?"
4. "What is the increase for the past three or four years?"
5. "What is the number of people employed in the business?"
6. "What percent of the capital is northern capital?"
7. "Has the South a practical monopoly of the manufacture of cotton; if not, why not?"

We have obtained from different sources answers to these queries, some accurate, some estimated and some guessed at and all in round figures. All the answers are probably accurate enough to meet the requirements of one wanting general information. These approximate answers are as follows:

The operatives are all white except perhaps 1 per cent. who are firemen, wagon drivers and yard laborers. Negroes have not been tried much—not enough to say whether their efficiency would average equal to that of white labor. It is not believed the negro is so efficient in a cotton mill as white labor. On the other hand, they nearly monopolize the work in cotton seed oil mills and seem more efficient than white labor in this heavy, hot sort of work.

The number of mills in the South is about 600.

Capital invested, $200,000,000. Increased in three years, 20 per cent.

People employed, 125,000.

People supported directly, 300,000.

People supported indirectly and directly 500,000.

The South raises 12,000,000 bales of cotton.

The South spins 2,000,000 bales of cotton.

The United States spins 4,000,000 bales.

North Carolina raises 600,000 bales.

North Carolina manufactures 600,000 bales.

Some of the home crop is exported and replaced by shipments from the west.

Probably 20 per cent of the operatives are illiterate, but public schools supplemented by the mills themselves, is reducing this illiteracy rapidly.

Northern capital invested, 10 per cent.

Much more than this has at times been invested by Northern machinery and commission men, but these sell and re-invest to promote their business.

The South has no monopoly of the manufacture of cotton and probably never will have.

Some of the reasons why not, are:

1. We now manufacture only 2,000,000 bales out of twelve and we have reached the limit of available labor. The cotton mills limit of available labor. The cotton mills in the South are now 10 to 20 per cent, idle for lack of labor.

2. Our people are as yet educated and trained to do only the simplest and cheapest kinds of cotton manufacture. It will be a long time before we can develop knowledge and skill to compete with the French in cordantries, the Swiss in muslins and embroideries, the Germans in knit

An Unexpected Retort

A country newspaper man, who is very fond of honey, visited a neighboring city recently, and at one of the hotels he was served delicious honey. He enjoyed it so much that he told his wife all about it when he returned home. On his next trip to the city she accompanied him. They visited the same hotel and when the noon meal was being served he said to his wife that he hoped they had some more of that honey. It did not appear, however, and the newspaper man, therefore, beckoned to a waiter and said: "Say, Sambo, where is my honey?" He was almost paralyzed when that worthy grinned and replied: "She doan work here no more, boss. She done got a job at the silk mill." The wife received a handsome new dress before they returned home, after making a solemn promise not to tell the story.—Lippincott's Magazine.

He is an Artist.

Mr. D. C. James, Greenville's pen artist, has been exercising his talent on Greenville as the location for the Eastern training school, and has produced a very forceful picture carrying out this idea. The picture has been printed on mailing cards which can be had at Reflector Book Store. Mr. James has also designed some beautiful postal cards with scenes of Greenville and these will also be on sale soon.

Don't Forget Us.

During the court that begins next Monday, there will likely be many people coming to town. We ask as many of our subscribers throughout the county as can do so, to call at The Reflector office when they are in town and pay their subscription.

SCHOOL CLOSINGS.

Three Take Place This Week.

The school at Ballard's X Roads will close next Friday. The teachers, pupils and people of that community are preparing to make it an occasion worthy of that splendid school. This school won second prize last Saturday on improvements in house and grounds.

Gov. T. J. Jarvis and Supt. W. H. Ragsdale will speak that day at 10 o'clock and the school will have appropriate exercises. Everybody in the community ought to take enough interest to go out that day and make it a rally day for the school work so splendidly begun there.

The school out near Mr. J. W. Allen's, taught by Miss Hulda Cox, will close to-morrow night with appropriate exercises. Supt. W. H. Ragsdale will be present and speak to the people.

The school near Smith's store, taught by Misses Delle Clements and Ellen Tyson, will close on next Wednesday night. This school has done fine work and splendid closing exercises may be expected.

goods and England in export goods.

3. We have no ships to carry our goods to foreign countries. In some of the above articles we cannot compete with the foreigner in our own markets. In the foreign markets they have the advantage of better knowledge and skill and ship lines to export their own goods.

Even to hope to monopolize the trade in cheap goods we must have ships to take our goods to the countries where they might be sold.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The second edition of the Thaw trial will not likely be so voluminous at the first.

Ten days to the opening of the Jamestown exposition. Then the exodus to Norfolk will set in.

Several towns in the State are getting rid of the denizens of red light districts under the vagrancy law enacted by the last legislature.

Most of the big lawyers withdrawing from the Thaw case at the conclusion of the first trial leads to the conclusion that they think the best pickings are gone.

People of other sections who were caught by washing machine rights have no room to laugh at the victims of the palmist in Greensboro.

Greensboro has found a new substitute for corn juice in making policemen drunk. It is to suck a hot air rubber tube. Now a demand for such tubes may be expected.

The best way to put other counties ahead of Pitt educationally, and at the same time make Pitt contribute largely to the progress of other counties, is to oppose the Eastern training school.

Some who are known to be opposed to the county issuing bonds to secure the Eastern training school, are quite active in seeing that those opposing the bonds are registered. This gives a hint to those favoring the bonds to get busy.

The world must be getting better. Three big railway systems—Norfolk & Western, Chesapeake & Ohio and Southern—have been in conference with an inter-denominational church commission and agreed to abolish Sunday excursions.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.

By a Contributor.

It is little short of remarkable how many Republican leaders are just now making a noise like a man kicked on the shins.

David said, "I said in my haste, all men are liars," and he had never even heard of the Annias club.

Mr. Roosevelt may not know as much about railroading as Mr. Harriman does, but he knows a great deal more about politics.

So many explorers are going to start for the North pole next summer, that there are possibilities of some pleasant chance meetings of outing parties.

As a matter of course the national committee of the Democratic party will change its chairman next year. It and the party have both had enough of Mr. Thomas Taggart. There have been suggestions of Senator Martin, of Virginia, by papers of that State, for the succession. We do not know of his qualifications but there is one man of whose qualifications for the national chairmanship we do know and of whom we can speak with confidence. That is Senator Simmons, of North Carolina. He has the genius of politics and is big enough and skillful enough as a captain for the place. — Charlotte Observer.

Mr. Simmons would come as near engineering the party to victory as any man who could be made chairman.

It all the German papers of August, 1838, appeared an ordinance signed by the king of Bavaria forbidding civilians on any pretext whatever to wear mustaches and commanding the police authorities to arrest the offenders and shave them by force. Apparently this was not necessary, for, according to a French account of the time, "mustaches disappeared immediately, like leaves from the trees in autumn. Everybody made haste to obey the royal order, and not one person was arrested." The ancient Anglo-Saxon was not so obedient. He wore long hair and a mustache, though no beard, and when he was conquered by the clean shaven Norman he wore his hair longer than ever, to exaggerate the difference between the two races.

NOTICE TO THE VOTERS OF PITT COUNTY.

Notice is hereby given to the voters of Pitt county that the board of county commissioners, at their meeting on the first Monday of April, 1917, it being the first day of said month, ordered that an election be held at the various voting places in said county on Tuesday, May 14th, 1917, for the purpose of taking the sense of the qualified voters of said county on the proposition to confer upon the board of county commissioners of said county the authority to issue and sell interest bearing coupon bonds, of said county, not to exceed the sum of fifty thousand dollars to run for thirty years and to bear interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent. The proceeds of the sale of said bonds to be used in erecting suitable buildings at some point in Pitt county for a training school for white teachers, and the excess, if any, of the fund arising from the sale of said bonds, after securing the location of said school in the county, to be used in the purchase of machinery for the use of the convicts in working the public roads and to aid building and repairing bridges in the county of Pitt.

A new registration of the voters has been ordered for said election, so that it may be definitely and accurately ascertained who are qualified voters at said election. The law authorizing said election requires those favoring the issuing of said bonds to vote a written or printed ballot with the words thereon, "for bonds" and those opposed to vote a written or printed ballot with the words thereon "against bonds." The registration books will open on Thursday, April 11th, 1917, and close at sunset on Saturday, May 4th, 1917. Only those who register can vote.

By order of the board of county commissioners of Pitt county.
This the 1st day of April 1917.

A GAME OF PENEUCLE.

How One Husband Acts When He Plays With His Wife.

"Peneucle is a peculiar game," observed the married woman. "When a woman wins, it's because she is lucky, but when a man wins it's due to his good judgment and nerve in holding his cards for big melds. I play the game two or three nights every week with my husband for an opponent, and the way he frowns when things are not coming his way is enough to make one smile. But I do not dare smile. I do not even dare resent it when he says things about dumb luck when I lay down kings for an eighty meld or when he sneeringly suggests that I should be a speculator if I quietly spread out four aces on the table. If I win the first game, he demands that I shuffle the cards decently during the next game, or if he does the shuffling he takes two minutes to do it and declares that the cards are going to be mixed up all right, this game. If on his own deal he gets a hand that doesn't look good, he murmurs something about the luck being all on one side and looks at me as if I were a criminal if I meld the first dix and pick up the king or ace of trumps.

Suddenly his demeanor changes, and I know he is getting some good cards. Then he lays down the 150 meld and tells me what nerve he had in holding for it, as he had no trumps in the deal and was halfway through the hand before he had anything. I smile and make the same meld on the next play. Then he becomes angry again and is vicious in his denunciation of my luck.

"There is a limit to my endurance, so I remark that he should have known by his own hand that the other cards were very likely out against him and suggest that had he led trumps it would have been all off with me. He has no answer to that, but he frowns dismally and picks up his next card with the air of a martyr. And so it goes. If he loses three games in succession, he gets up from the table without a word, puts on his coat and goes out without saying where he is going or when he will return. From the way he slams the door after him I gather the impression that he is angry and is going to the corner to see if Corrigan is still doing business. Then I wonder if it would not be the wise course for me to deliberately lose the games and keep him good natured. But somehow I can't do it. I love to beat him."—New York Press.

Punishing English Schoolboys.

In English schools for boys the punishment is inflicted for the most part by the students. By way of example the cricket captain or the football captain can give so many cuts with the cane to a player who has not done his duty. A well known English authority on educational matters called attention to the strange fact that "an heir to a dukedom or actually a duke himself may be well thrashed at Eton by an annoyed monitor, who is only a schoolfellow after all, and nobody make the slightest remonstrance." On the other hand, "the son of a village cobbler cannot be given even one stroke by the headmaster of the village school for outrageous conduct without also seeing enough stir made in the village to incline one to think that the constitution had come to an end."—American Boy.

INCONSISTENT.

Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, Pennsylvania's health commissioner, is waging a fight against the public drinking cup.

Dr. Dixon said one day in Harrisburg:

"I have seen people clean their teeth with tooth powder and dental floss, rinse their mouths with listerine and other antiseptic washes and then go and drink calmly from the public cup in a railway station or a theater.

"Such people remind me of a schoolboy of Ardmore.

"Seeing this boy wade ankle deep in a half frozen puddle one day in January, I said sternly:

"Tommy, why are you not at school?"

"I've got the whooping cough," he answered, splashing about vigorously."

The Great Sheep Countries.

The greatest industry of Australia is sheep raising, mainly for the sake of the wool, but also in part, of course, for the meat. Australia now ranks second among the great sheep raising countries, Argentina being first with 92,000,000 sheep, Australia second with 72,000,000 and Russia third with 70,000,000. Only a few years ago Australia was first, possessing no less than 106,260,000 head of sheep. That was in 1891. Prolonged droughts were the cause of the destruction of many millions of Australian sheep, but since 1902 there has been an annual gain. Yet these sheep were not indigenous to Australia. They were first introduced in 1797, being of the Spanish merino species.

"Bonds" For Matrimony.

How manners and customs change in a generation! In talking with Congressman Green the other day he recalled the fact that his mother and father were married in Massachusetts, and his father was required to give a bond of $125 before the ceremony could be performed. If this requirement were enforced at the present time and every young man who desired to enter the blessed state of matrimony had to prove that he was possessed of $125 spare cash it is to be feared that many of our young people would have little left to purchase a housekeeping equipment. In those old days they regarded marriage as something more than a pastime and entered upon it as a real and serious responsibility.—National Magazine.

Possible Fate of This Old World.

Lord Kelvin, the well known British scientist, foresees that as the world grows older earthquakes will grow bigger until it is to be supposed that Jamaica and Sumatra latest of earthquake victims, will sink into the sea. In the distant time when the central fires of the earth are burning themselves out Lord Kelvin believes that earthquakes will occur only at interval of a few millions of years. But even when the earth has been cooled down to a uniform temperature throughout and all further disruption by shrinking has ceased a new terror looms on the Kelvin horizon—a shattering and melting of the earth by collision with some other large body.

Why Rubber Tires Get Hot.

When an automobile is running at high speed the rubber tires are rapidly warmed, and the heat sometimes becomes very great, with resultant injury to the rubber. The cause of this accumulation of heat in the tire is ascribed to the kneading of the rubber, which generates heat faster than it can be radiated away. For this reason manufacturers have found it to be an advantage to have metal parts in the tread, such as the ends of rivets, in contact with the tire, because the metal, being a good radiator, helps to carry off the heat to the outer air.—Youth's Companion.

New Vacuum Tube.

A new type of vacuum tube for use in X ray experiments has just been brought out in Germany. An aluminum "filter" is placed inside the tube, and it is claimed that this serves to absorb all the rays emanating from the anticathode, which are not true Roentgen rays and which by striking the glass walls are responsible for the heating effects and chemical changes that gradually change the character of an ordinary vacuum tube.

A Domestic Utopia.

"About how much do you pay for a servant here in New York?" asked the Russian.

"From $4 to $5 a week," was the answer.

"Do you know how much we pay in Russia for a woman who stays around the house all the time, cooks, washes, irons and tends to the baby if there happens to be one?" he questioned. "Just $1.50 a month."—New York Press.

A LIQUID COLD CURE AND LAXATIVE COUGH SYRUP

The Red Clover Blossom and the Honey Bee on Every Bottle.

"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard." Nearly all other cough cures are constipating, especially those containing Opium. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar moves the bowels, contains no Opium.

KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE HONEY AND TAR

Relieves Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.

Relieves Coughs by cleansing and strengthening the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes.

For Croup, Whooping Cough, La Grippe, Influenza, Bronchitis, and all Coughs, Colds, Lung and Bronchial affections no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Children like it.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It build, it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

The Hobbes System.

Justice as administered in Arizona some years ago furnished the kernel of many more or less amusing stories. A man was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or spend ten days in jail. He had only $3, and the court accepted the amount in lieu of three of the days allotted for his imprisonment. By some carelessness on the part of the jailer the man was detained in jail for the full ten days, and when set free he demanded redress for his wrongs. "You'd ought to have some allowance and return made," the court admitted, "but we don't see any way to do it unless you get sentenced again for something; then we could give you three days for a kind of a rebate. That's the only way to fix it up square."—Youth's Companion.

A Friar's Prediction.

A certain Spanish friar who was an almanac maker predicted with accuracy and in distinct and precise terms the death of Henry IV. of France. The friar in question was arrested and brought before the king, who treated the prediction with contempt, while he thanked the friar for his anxiety upon his (the king's) behalf. The event, however, happened as the prediction had foretold. It is of course possible that the friar may have had some secret knowledge of the existence of a conspiracy against the king's life and desired in this way to warn his majesty of the impending danger.

Cream Salad Dressing.

Beat the yolks of four eggs light with one rounding teaspoonful of dry mustard, one of salt and half a level teaspoonful of mace. Add one pint of cream and cook until the mixture thickens; cool partly and stir in one and one-half table-spoonfuls of tarragon vinegar or, if preferred, the juice of one small lemon.

To Remove Rust Spots.

Have a teakettle full of boiling water on the stove; take the garment dry, cut a lemon in two, squeeze the juice on the spots and hold over the steaming spout of the teakettle; then see how readily the spots of rust yield to this treatment.

I shall be making and placing "concrete curbing" in the cemetery for the next few days and I wish all those who are interested in having their grave lots neatly and carefully preserved and ornamented to come and see for themselves what it is and what it is worth. I am also prepared to place this curbing around the yards of the homes in town or country. I specially wish the people to come to the cemetery and see for themselves the work that I am doing. They will then see what they are missing every day.
