

THE WOMEN ARE HELPING.

Greenville, N. C., April 23, 1907.
MR. EDITOR:

I read with great profit and pleasure the admirable letter of Mrs. Walter F. Harding on the training school published in your paper yesterday. I wish every voter in Pitt county could and would read this letter. Mrs. Harding puts the whole argument in a nut shell and she does it so well that it must carry conviction to all who read it. I beg to suggest that you publish it in your editions that circulate in the country and that you scatter it broad cast among the voters.

In my long experience in working for schools I have always found the women, in the forefront of the battle, ready to do and to dare whatever was needed to insure success. They have an inspiration to the onward educational movement and much of the credit for the beautiful well kept school houses recently erected in Pitt is due to them.

Now if we can only get the ladies--the young and the old--enlisted in this movement to build up in Pitt a great educational institution, its success is certain. I therefore appeal to the good women to enter into the fight, at once, and to work for the location of this school in their county till the going down of the sun on the 14th of May. The location of this school in Pitt means great things for the boys and girls who are to be the men and women of the near future. If these good women will make up their minds to have it, it will surely come. It will cost so little in money to get it that they will not be imposing any burdens upon the labor and property of the men.

Wife, tell your husband who gives in $1,000 worth of property for taxation his tax will be 25 cents a year and that you will pay that for him about Christmas with a dozen eggs.

Tell the husband who gives in $5,000 worth of property that his tax will be $1.25 a year and that he can pay that with a half barrel of corn, but that if he can't spare the corn you will raise five chick ens for that purpose. On the morning of the election assemble the children around the table and say to their father "look at these and when you go to the ballot box vote to throw wider open the door of hope to them and make it possible for them to enter into the higher and better things of life."

Thos. J. Jarvis.

Rule for Grammar.

A fourth grade boy was poring over his grammar lesson and wanted to know what part of speech a certain word was. He was told to get his rule and learn how to find it. "I have no rule to find out by," he complained. "Here's a rule, work it out with this," put in a little fellow of the primary department as he left his drawing for the time being and held out a foot rule.

Cuspider for Court Room.

Monday Judge Neal instructed Sheriff Tucker to send out and purchase a dozen spittoons to be placed in the bar of the court room, and then he ordered that any one found spitting on the floor be ejected from the bar. The judge remarked that the spittoons were much cheaper than the carpet, and the latter should not be ruined, and the floor ought to be kept as tidy as possible.

SUPERIOR COURT.

April Term in Session.

The April term of Pitt Superior court convened at noon Monday with Judge Walter H. Neal presiding and Solicitor C. L. Abernethy representing the State. This is Mr. Abernethy's first court in Pitt since he was appointed solicitor.

The grand jury drawn for the term was composed of the following: W. L. Wootton, foreman, D. D. Gardner, J. B. Oakley, John G. Taylor, J. R. May, B. F. Manning, J. I. Nobles, J. M. Wooten, William McLawhorn, B. J. Skinner, John Nokes, H. C. Fornes, S. A. Stocks, C. L. Wilkinson, J. A. Smith, D. C. Dudley, W. G. Little, Joseph Lang.

H. A. Blow was appointed officer of the grand jury.

Beginning his charge to the grand jury Judge Neal said he would only address the body briefly, as he was a little late in arriving, but if he had arrived early in the morning and found such a meeting going on as was in progress when he reached the court house (the speaking in behalf of the Eastern training school) his desire would be not to interfere with it.

Judge Neal said he did not wish to be considered as meddling with matters in which he had no concern, but felt that it would not be out of place to say a word regarding a matter of such great importance as this school. It made his heart throb with joy when he saw that the East was going to have a training school for teachers and the possibility of Pitt county securing should interest every citizen of the county. While he was not of the class that regarded education as a panacea for all our ills, yet he was ready to say an educated citizen makes the best citizen. An educated father does not always mean an educated son, but an educated mother means educated children. If we educate the girls of today who are to be the mothers of the next generation, it means the children of that generation will be educated. The value of a training school like that proposed to be established cannot be estimated.

Then addressing himself to the grand jurors Judge Neal referred briefly to the importance of their office and the responsibilities resting upon them. He also referred to the too frequent commission of perjury on the witness stand, and the tampering with jurors in the effort to influence them, evils which he said should be corrected.

He paid a compliment to Solicitor Abernethy, saying he was a man who would perform the duties of his office fearlessly and conscientiously.

After the close of the charge and the grand jury had retired, Judge Neal ordered the sheriff to permit no one to pass out the door. He then had the clerk to quietly write down the names of enough good men in the audience to compose a jury and these were called up and sworn as an extra jury for the work to avoid any delay in getting talesmen when other jurors are needed. It was a wise step and shows that Judge Neal does not believe in the time of the court being wasted.

The following cases have been disposed of

TRAINING SCHOOL.

The Women All Favor It.

The Reflector is glad that the women of the county are taking much interest in the establishment of the Eastern training school. They realize that it will be of incalculable benefit to them in training them for their work in teaching and give them opportunities they could get in no other way.

We wish to commend to every person in the county the letter of Mrs. Walter F. Harding that was published Monday. Mrs. Harding is a graduate of the State Normal at Greensboro, and is in position to speak with authority on the subject of a school for the training of teachers. She knows the benefit of it, and she wants to see the women of Pitt county have the opportunities a training school will afford them.

These columns are open to any others who would like to discuss the matter.

Special Term to Wipe Out Lotteries.

Special to Reflector.

Biloxi, Miss., April 23 --- Judge Niles called a special term of the Federal circuit at this place today, and the court has been called to business. The grand jury was charged to look into the lottery business which has been reported to be in full fledged working order on the Mississippi packets that run up and down the Mississippi river. The recrudescence of lotteries on the Mississippi valley has quite surprised the authorities, but these have equally surprised lottery men, some of whom have been caught red-handed.

Election Date Stands.

Bristol, Va. April 23 --- Judge Price, of the corporation court, denied the petition of the whiskey dealers to have revoked the order for a local option election in Bristol today. He also refused to grant an injunction to prevent the election Counsel for the whiskey men have appealed from this decision.

Disposition was made of similar cases against Peter Hines, James Harris, colored, John Patrick and Marcellus Ringold, all pleading guilty.

George Taylor, assault with deadly weapon, pleads guilty. Will Edwards, affray, not guilty.

Lam Whitehurst, W. H. Hardee and Thomas Chestnut plead guilty of carrying concealed weapons and were each fined $15 and costs.

William Hanrahan, appeal from mayor's court, pleads guilty, sentenced 30 days to roads.

Judge Brown, disposing of mortgaged property, pleads guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Charlie Holt, carrying concealed weapon, pleads guilty, fined $25 and costs.

William Joyner, Dee Reed, Alonzo King and Irvin Harris, gambling, plead guilty.

Thomas Best, carrying concealed weapon in two cases, guilty, fined $15 and costs in each case.

Newbern Best, assault with deadly weapon, guilty.

Samuel Jones, abandonment, guilty.

Joe Dupree, plead guilty of carrying concealed weapon, also of resisting officer and was sent to the roads for six months.

The white cap cases were continued until September term.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Nwsy Nots From a Hustling Town.
Ayden, N. C. April 23rd.

Mrs. B. F. Early left Saturday for a visit to Ahsokie.

Misses Annie and Jesse Lawrence, of the Winterville High School, were here visiting friends Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Braswell, from near Asheville, are here on a visit to their numerous relatives and friends.

J. J. Smith left for Norfolk Monday.

J. B. Pierce is a juror in the Federal court at New Bern this week.

The entertainment last Friday night in the opera house under the management of Misses Whitehead and Whitaker, we hear spoken of as a perfect success. The children all acquitted themselves admirably and the large audience present showed their appreciation by their frequent bursts of applause and encouragement. The receipts of the evening were $35, and this, too, was very gratifying to the management.

Mrs. W. E. Hooks and children spent from Saturday until Monday afternoon in Grifton.

W. J. Kittrell and Charlie Gaskins, of Grifton, came up Friday afternoon presumably to take in the entertainment and be otherwise amused.

W. C. Smith, who has been confined at his home for some time with typhoid fever, we are pleased to see at his place of business.

I will be in Grifton on Wednesday the first day of May, 1907, for the purpose of registering all the qualified voters in that vicinity of Precinct No. 1 Contentnea township, for the election to be held on May 14th, 1907 on the bond issue.

J. M. Blow.

Miss Earle Tucker, after a visit of several days with the Misses Blount at the hotel, returned to her home in Grifton Sunday evening.

Miss Annabel Kittrell spent from Saturday until Monday with her father in Grifton.

E. G. Cox is home for a few days from Wilson.

Mrs. Georgia Baker has opened an establishment for the sale of ladies ready made clothing.

Miss Janie Kittrell has been here on a visit from Winterville.

J. F. Barwick and family came home Monday from a visit to Kingston.

Miss Norma M. Lawhorn has returned to her home after a pleasant visit to Miss May Smith.

Beginning tonight Evangelist Hamlin and his singer, Mr. Daugherty, from Texas, will begin a series of meetings to continue three weeks. They have just closed a very successful meeting in Kinston and came here highly recommended.

We regret very much to learn of the death of the father of Miss Hennie Brown one of the graded school teachers. We wrote in our last items of his having a stroke of paralysis which since has proved fatal. We all sympathize with Miss Hennie who's greatly beloved by all in our midst.

The Jamestown exposition, commemorating the 300th anniversary of the first English settlement in America, will open at Norfolk, Va. on Friday, with President Roosevelt as the guest of honor. The exposition will continue until November 30.

PERSONAL POINTS.

People who Come and Go.

W. L. Best returned Monday evening from LaGrange.

Mrs. C. W. Harvey left this morning for Goldsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White have gone out to their country home to spend the summer.

H. B. Smith and S. C. Wooten went to Ayden Monday evening and returned this morning.

L. W. Tucker, R. Hyman and G. A. Clark left Monday for New Bern to attend Federal court.

Mrs. A. B. Suttle, of Shelby, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. S. Forbes, left this morning.

Speakings on Bond Election.

Below we publish a number of appointments for speaking. The school bond issue will be discussed at each of these places by gentlemen who are thoroughly informed as to every detail of the measure. With a great question like this before the people owe it to themselves to go out and hear this matter discussed.

An Aged Citizen Dead.

Mr. John L. Daniel died a little past midnight, Monday night, at his home on the corner of Washington and Third streets. He was 80 years old, and his life had been that of an upright citizen. While feeble from age, he had been in his usual health until last Friday when he was taken sick. He seemed better Monday and was up in his room a good portion of the day, but grew worse after supper and soon passed away. It was a little over six months ago that his aged wife preceded him to the better world.

Mr. Daniel spent much of his life on the farm and moved his family to Greenville in 1835. He served many years here as a night policeman, his advancing age causing him to give up the work about three years ago.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Maggie Hammond and Miss Lovie Daniel of Greenville, Mrs. J. L. Barnhill, of Virginia, and leaves seven grandchildren. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. F. H. Langley, of Pactolus. He was a consistent member of the Methodist church.

The funeral will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon in Cherry Hill cemetery.

Encampment of the Grand Army:

Special to Reflector.
Dallas, Texas, April 23.--The annual State encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the Woman's Relief Corps, convened in this city, and will continue its meeting until including tomorrow. The annual camp fire will be held tonight on the fair grounds. Distinguished speakers are here from the entire bounds of old Texas, and besides, numbers from other states.

Weather.

Fair tonight and Wednesday, cooler Wednesday.

TO WHOM THIS MAY COME, GREETING.

I shall be making and placing "concrete curbing" in the cemetery for the next few days and I wish all those who are interested in having their grave lots neatly and carefully preserved and ornamented to come and see for themselves what it is and what it is worth. I am also prepared to place this curbing around the yards of the homes in town or country. I specially wish the people to come to the cemetery and see for themselves the work that I am doing. They will then see what they are missing every day.

Wonder if those fellows hunting for the North pole would know it if they found it.

Why will not some people use as much judgment regarding voting for bonds as they do in a business enterprise? If a man could invest one dollar and get ten dollars in return therefor, he would jump at such an opportunity. To establish the Eastern training school in Pitt county will bring the county more than ten fold what it costs the tax payers. Yet we hear of some people who are opposed to the bonds to get the school.

If Secretary Taft resigns to run for the presidency, we are wondering what three the president will appoint to occupy his seat in the cabinet.

An esteemed contemporary in copying a paragraph about Mr. Taft being called "the jolly man" but the Cubans, got it "the jelly man." The mistake goes, however.

There are 190 clocks in Pennsylvania's new $13,000,000 State house. They were probably put in for the purpose of enabling the grafters to avoid working overtime.

It is reported that Mr. Schawb is now to go down into his jeans for a $2,000,000 wedding gift for his brother. At that rate it should not take long to get the whole family married off.

If the party who started a rumor that the president is threatened with nervous prostration will make himself known, he may get a seat right next to Mr. Harri-man in Ananias row.

Mayor-elect Busse of Chicago, declares that he will appoint none but good men to office. If he is limited to citizens of Chicago, we fear he has the time of his life before him.

NOTICE TO VOTERS OF THE TOWN OF GREENVILLE.

Notice is hereby given to the voters of the town of Greenville that the Board of Aldermen of said town at their regular meeting on the first Tuesday of April, 1907, it being the fourth day of said month, ordered that a election be held at the various voting places in the several wards of said town on Tuesday, May 7th, 1907, for the purpose of taking the sense of the qualified voters of said town on the proposition to confer upon the Aldermen of said town the authority to issue and sell interest bearing bonds of said town, not to exceed the sum of $75,000.00 to run for thirty years, and to bear interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum payable annually. The proceeds of the sale of said bonds to be used in constructing, extending, enlarging and maintaining the sewerage system now in course of construction in said town and for the purpose of paving, or otherwise improving street and to aid in the establishment of a training school in or near the town of Greenville, if one shall be authorized by law, and allowing the board of aldermen to use so much of the proceeds of the sale of said bonds for either of said purposes as they may deem proper, but for no other purpose.

A new registration of the voters has been ordered for said election so that it may definitely and accurately be ascertained who are qualified voters at said election. The Act of the General Assembly authorizing said election requires those favoring the issue of said bonds to vote a written or printed ballot with the words thereon "For Bonds" and those opposed to the issuing of bonds to vote a written or printed ballot with the words thereon "Against Bonds." The registration books will be open at the various polling places in the several wards of the town on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the first second and third days, of May, 1907. Only those who register can vote.

This notice is given with a certain act of the General Assembly of North Carolina passed at its session of 1903, and entitled "An Act to allow the town of Greenville to issue bonds."

By order of the Board of Aldermen of the town of Greenville.
F. M. Wooten,
Mayor of the town of Greenville.

BERNINI'S FOUNTAINS.

The Way the Great Artist Helped to Beautify Rome.

In 1629 Bernini, the famous Italian architect, painter and sculptor, who was one of the architects of St. Peter's, turned his mind to another branch of ornament for Rome. Many of the most beautiful fountains had already been constructed. In the preceding century Cardinal Ippolito d'Este had made his famous garden at Tivoli, containing no less than 360. Many of these were on a very large and elaborate scale, and it seems very probable that these, which in Bernini's time were still in good preservation, may have inspired him to emulate their splendor. He certainly often visited Tivoli, as he was employed to report on some new waterworks constructed there, and there are the remains of one fountain which appears to have been added about this time and in which a seventeenth century portico is supported by columns similar to that which Bernini copied for his baldacchino. However this may be, in Rome Bernini may claim to be the creator of the monumental fountain, a feature so conspicuous in the city.

Who that loves Rome but will acknowledge a debt of gratitude to the man who set the Baraccia or open boat at the foot of the Spanish steps, who reared the dripping Triton draining his conch shell on high on the piazza of the Barberini? Who will not thank him for his gift of the famous Trevi, with its splendid facade, its wild sea gods and plunging horses, its reckless prodigality of space and material, its wealth of spouting streams? For although erected many years after the death of Bernini, still the idea and the original plans are his, and Prince Doria possesses his sketch for the central group. At intervals all through the remainder of his life he found time to add to their number, and Rome owes to him no less than twelve of her fountains. They meet us in all parts of the city. In the Piazza Navona the little sea gods blow their horns around the Fountain of the Moor, and the colossal forms symbolical of the Four Rivers recline in sleepy grandeur. Others stand in the Vatican gardens, in the Villa Mattei, etc., and are all marked by the same fertile invention and largeness of conception.—Fortnightly Review.

Cream Salad Dressing.

Beat the yolks of four eggs light with one rounding teaspoonful of dry mustard, one of salt and half a level teaspoonful of mace. Add one pint of cream and cook until the mixture thickens; cool partly and stir in one and one-half table-spoonfuls of tarragon vinegar or, if preferred, the juice of one small lemon.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Why the Stranger Followed the Nervous Man.

A nervous man on his lonely homeward way heard the echoing of following footsteps, and dim visions of hoodlums, blackmailers and garroters coursed through his brain. The faster he walked the more the man behind increased his speed, and, though the nervous one took the most roundabout and devious course he could devise, still his tracker followed. At last he turned into a churchyard.

"If he follows me here," he mused, "there can be no doubt about his intentions."

The man behind did follow, and, quivering with rage and fear, the nervous one turned and confronted him. "What the dickens do you want?" he queried. "Why are you following me?"

"Do you always go home like this," said the stranger, "or are you giving yourself a treat tonight? I am going up to Mr. Brown's, and the porter at the station told me to follow you, as you lived next door. Excuse me asking, but are you going home at all tonight?"

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated. Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatin.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Possibly, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves. This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds them up; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong action, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with Unknown Negro Found Dead When Train Reached Elm City.

Mr. David C. James, of Greenville, who arrived in the city last night on the midnight train from the East, reported a most unusual killing of an unknown negro by an A. C. L. train, the tragedy having occurred in the early part of the night between Sharpsburg and Elm City.

The negro was struck by the train, on which Mr James was a passenger from Rocky Mount to Selma the train being No. 31. Nothing was known of the accident until the train stopped at Elm City, when the body of an unknown negro was found dead on the "cow catcher." The body was taken off there. This was all the information of the affair that Mr. James had opportunity to gather.—Raleigh News and Observer, 20th.
