

BRINGING IMMIGRANTS SOUTH.

It may be safely estimated that between 150,000 and 200,000 settlers have been attracted to the South, and that between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 acres of land have been bought by them during the past 12 months. This estimate is based upon reports furnished by representatives of leading railroads operating principally in the South, and they reveal most gratifying results of the practical work which the railroads are doing in the cause of immigration to the South. These results are, to a large extent, cumulative, flowing from persistent work carried on in some instances for 10 or 15 years and promising even greater records in the near future. They have been gained through following different policies. Some railroads have lands of their own which have been disposed of to settlers of their own seeking or to agents working in co-operation with them. Other roads not landholders, have directed the newcomers to available homes within their territory, and yet other roads have combined industrial upbuilding with agricultural development. They have carried on a campaign in this country and in foreign parts by means of the widespread circulation of literature descriptive of the advantages of the South and its opportunities for the industrious and thrifty, of exhibits of Southern agricultural and mineral products and of personal contact with heads of families who would better their condition in life. Estimating the value of a man to the community at at least $2000, the additions to the South's wealth in one year through the energies of immigration agents of the railroads may be safely placed at $400,000,000, or about one third of the increase of its wealth in goods and chattels during the same period. These additions mean a much greater rate of increase for the South in material things in the future and an acceleration of the movement of population from other parts of the country to the South. Roller Skating Race.

Special to Reflector.

Washington, May 11.—A roller skating carnival, will open to all boys in the city, to be held tonight under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. Permission had been secured to hold the meeting on New York avenue. The asphalt in that particular section is in good condition, and the avenue is sufficiently broad, and unused enough by teams to make it a particularly attractive course for roller skaters. A large list of events of all kinds is given and prizes are numerous.

Governor Hughes Guest of the Brooklyn Young Republicans

Special to Reflector.

Brooklyn, May 11.—Governor Hughes will be the guest of honor at the banquet of the Brooklyn Young Men's Republican club, which will be held in the Union League club tonight. This will be the first appearance of the governor as a club guest. Senator Spooner, Job E. Hodges, L. Woodruff, and Congressman Calder, and Waldon will also be guests. The governor held a reception at six o'clock.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Notes From our Husting Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C., May 11th. Mrs. Allen Crawford, of Greenville, spent several days at the home of P. H. Kittrell.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the reunion of Confederate veterans at Greenville Friday and report an excellent programme.

Mrs. W. L. House went to Greenville Friday shopping.

Miss Connor Kittrell, who has been attending the Normal and Industrial college at Greensboro, returned home Wednesday.

Prof. Lineberry went to Johnson's Mill Thursday evening to speak on the bond issue.

We are having delightful weather for cotton planting and tobacco setting. Farmers may be on the lookout for grass if the weather continues wet.

Rev. W. E. Cox filled his regular appointment at the Episcopal church Friday night instead of next Monday night, on account of commencement of W. H. S. next week.

Misses Lula and Kate Chapman went to Greenville Thursday.

L. L. Kittrell and Purnell Tripp went to Greenville today.

No Subject for Congratulation.

A young lawyer, not noted for intelligence, succeeded in having a client acquitted of murder. Meeting a friend a few days afterwards, the lawyer was greeted with warm congratulations.

"Yes," the lawyer, mopping his brow "I got him off, but it was a narrow escape."

"A narrow escape! How?"

"Ah, the tightest squeeze you ever saw. You know I examined the witnesses and made the argument myself, the plea being self defence. The jury was out two whole days. Finally the judge called them before him and asked what the trouble was."

"Only one thing, my lord," replied the foreman. "Was the prisoner's counsel retained by him or appointed by the court?"

"No gentleman, the prisoner is a man of means," said the judge, "and engaged his own counsel."

"I could not see what bearing the question had on the evidence," continued the lawyer, "but ten minutes later in filed the jury, and what do you think the verdict was?"

"What?" asked his friend.

"Why, not guilty on the ground of insanity."

An Elusive Criminal.

Jin Young, alias Ernest Young, ect., is a slippery rascal. In January 1906, he was sentenced to the roads for 12 months for stealing in Rocky Mount. In about six weeks he made his escape, to be captured again a month or so later by Superintendent Martin, whose guards contrived to hold him till August when he again took leg bail. Later he was arrested, convicted and sentenced to five years' imprisonment in Wilson for attempting a criminal assault upon a little girl.

He soon made his escape from prison, but not from his evil ways. He is now in Pitt county jail, charged with breaking into a postoffice.

Is any one optimistic enough to believe that a reformatory would do Jin any good?—Tarboro Southerner.

Weather.

Partly cloudy and colder to night, Sunday partly cloudy.

A Merited Rebuke.

That was a neat "setting down" that Ambassador White-law Reid gave Mr. Austin, the British poet laureate, the other day. At a dinner given by the ambassador Mr. Austin, who was a guest, in responding to a toast had the ill manners to exclaim: "How unfortunate that America, which has produced so many millionaires, has not brought forth a poet in recent years." This produced consternation among the guests, followed by a short period of embarrassment until Mr. Reid arose and replied, saying: "America consoles herself with the thought that even England has poetless periods. Such a period has supervened since Tennyson's death."

What made the reply all the more cutting is the well known fact that Mr. Austin was appointed Tennyson's successor as poet laureate for purely political reasons. The appointment, it is said, would have gone to Kipling or Swinburne but for the fact that both had been severe in their criticisms of Russia, and the British government did not want to give that nation cause for offense by appointing one of them. It was well understood at the time that Mr. Austin was not qualified for the position, and his appointment was the subject of general ridicule in England and in this country.

Hereafter when Mr. Austin feels like making a particularly rude speech he will probably hunt up some one besides Mr. Reid on whom to vent his spleen.—Wilmington Messenger.

He Obeyed Instructions.

Christ Nelson, having been in this country only a few weeks, was slow in learning American customs, and especially the inscriptions on envelopes. One of his first acts after landing in Oregon was to take out naturalization papers. On the corner of the envelope, in which were contained the documents that make him an American citizen, were the words: "Return in five days."

"Wal, I be har," he said yesterday, as he shuffled up to the counter in the county clerk's office, and spoke to Deputy Prasp.

"What do you want?" asked the official carefully, noting the embarrassed flush on the Swede's face.

"Wal, it says on this har envelope, return in five days, and time be up today, so I ban come round."

When assured that nobody wanted him, he turned with surprise and walked sadly away, not certain whether he was naturalized or not.

Episcopal Convention in Philadelphia.

Special to Reflector.

Philadelphia, May 11.—The annual diocesan Episcopal convention met today in Holy Trinity church, in this city, and will continue tomorrow. Seven other dioceses are represented. The noted Bishop Coleman is present. He had charge of the preliminary service.

Six Thousand Orphans Free Guests of Buffalo Bill.

Special to Reflector.

New York, May 11.—Inmates of the city orphan asylums were the guests of Madison Square garden. Special acts were put on to entertain the youngsters and Buffalo Bill made a speech to them.

AYDEN COMMENCEMENT.

Thrilling Address by Prof. Carlyle.

The closing exercises of Ayden graded school took place Friday night in the Disciple church at that place. The large auditorium was filled to overflowing by friends and patrons of the school and the exercises were interesting and impressive.

The speaker of the evening, Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of Wake Forest college, was appropriately introduced by Rev. E. T. Phillips. Prof. Carlyle delivered a most excellent address on "The Man of the Hour." He is a fluent speaker, and his brilliant oratory and eloquence thrilled his hearers. The State has few such men as Prof. Carlyle.

After the address Prof. W. H. Ragsdale presented diplomas to the graduating class. The class consisted of Miss Aylmer Cannon, Harold McKinney and Dixie Cannon.

Superintendent McArthur made some timely remarks in which he expressed appreciation of the support the people of the community had given the school. It can be truly said of Ayden that no town or community in the county gives its school more earnest support.

In the direction of the school Superintendent McArthur is assisted by an able faculty of six teachers and they are giving Ayden a fine school. The enrollment was 230 the past session.

His True Friend.

The Great Man lay dead. The newspapers rang with his praises and men passed them from mouth to mouth; a gloom hung over the community, and the Child, his friend, wept bitterly.

The Busy Man said, "I saw him on the street not long ago, and he looked ill and down hearted. I wish I'd crossed over to speak to him, but I was just hurrying for my train. He was a good friend of mine, and I might have cheered him up a bit and told him how we missed him everywhere. It's too bad, too bad!"

The Thoughtless Man said, "I can never forgive myself. I knew he was sick for a week, but I had this great meeting to arrange for, and it just slipped my mind. He stood by me nobly when I was in trouble years ago. I never can forgive myself."

The Child pressed a tear-stained face against the window.

"Why did you want so much to take him that flower last Sunday?" asked her Mother.

"Because I loved him," said the Child, simply.

She was watching the wonderful array of flowers, which men had sent, as they were carried into the church.

"O Mother, see how beautiful they are! I wish I could go with you to the church; but I suppose I might disturb people by crying. And anyway," she added, "I don't mind so much, you see; for I've given him my flower. He had that to enjoy." Youth's Companion.

Tomorrow's Troubles.

Nine-tenths of tomorrow's troubles will never come. They will vanish before tomorrow dawns. And the remaining tenth will be easily met when tomorrow comes, for you will have tomorrow's strength and resources to meet them with—they are sprouting now, and will be on hand tomorrow for the work of the day. You will be surprised to find how easily tomorrow's troubles may be overcome when tomorrow really comes. Today you are looking at them through a magnifying glass whose power will vanish when tomorrow comes.—Selected.

PERSONAL POINTS.

People who Come and Go.

Mrs. J. L. Fleming left this morning for a visit in Suffolk.

Miss Vernessa Smith came home Friday evening from school at Salem.

Mrs. L. L. Smith, of Gates, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. T. Plyler.

Mrs. Bateman and little son, of Plymouth, are visiting Mrs. W. A. Bowen.

Mrs. Abbott, of Grifton, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Rountree, left Friday evening.

Mrs. H. W. Renfrow, who has been visiting relatives here, left this morning for her home in Williamston.

Mrs. M. E. Thomas, of Tennessee, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Little left this morning.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Daniel, of Hobgood, who were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Edwards, left this morning.

Miss Mary Wilson Brown, who has been teaching at Falkland, took the train here this morning for her home in Ruffin.

Strikers Rioting.

Special to Reflector.

New York, May 11.—A desperate fight occurred today at 34th street on North river, between several hundred sympathizers against the strike breakers and police reserves. Over a score of persons were injured.

Winterville Won.

The boys of Winterville came up and played a game of base ball with the Greenville boys Friday afternoon. The game was interesting and resulted in a score of 9 to 5 in favor of Winterville.

Invitation to Wilmington.

It is said there is a whiskey famine out West. Reports like that are liable to convince men that the East is good enough for them.—Wilmington Star.

Appointments.

There will be speakings at the following times and places on the bond issue and Eastern training school:

Farmville, Monday night, May 13th, at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. D. W. Arnold and Col. F. G. James.

Swedes Here.

Mr. E. A. Kline recently returned from New York, bringing with him about 40 Swedes to work on the railroad. These men are good workers.

Scorched Woollens.

Treat a scorch precisely as you would any other stain. Sponge the stain with a mixture of equal parts of alcohol, ether and naphtha or benzine, changing the sponge several times. It is possible to remove by washing with good suds made of lukewarm water and white soap. Wipe dry.

Hair Curling.

A very nice curling fluid is made of five-eighths of a dram carbonate of potash, a quarter dram powdered cochineal, half dram ammonia water, one ounce glycerin, three-quarters of an ounce rectified spirits, half a pint violet water and two drams violet extract. This should stand a week and then be filtered. The hair must be very clean and dry. Moisten with this lotion and put up on kids or ribbons.

Freckle Remover.

A lotion of one part good Jamaica rum to two parts lemon juice and a little glycerin is one recipe for removing freckles. Another one, which is prepared easily, requires one ounce of alum, one ounce of lemon juice and one pint of rose water. Rose water and lemon juice are excellent for removing tan—one spoonful of lemon juice in a half pint of rose water.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Feels like overcoats and stoves again.

All the leaves were not grown this time by the 10th of May.

The usual services will be held. Everybody invited.

Methodist Church.

Services at the Methodist church Sunday 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m. League meeting 7:30 p. m.

Baptist Church.

Sunday school and Baraca classes meet at 9:30 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Prof. G. E. Lineberry, of Winterville. No service at night. As there will be only one preaching service, all members are urged to be present at 11 o'clock.

Pastor Absent.

Rev. J. E. Ayscue, pastor of Memorial Baptist church, goes to Kinston this evening where tomorrow he will preach the sermon at the dedication of the Baptist church in that town. His pulpit here will be filled tomorrow morning by Prof. G. E. Lineberry, of Winterville, but there will be no service at night.

Local Mill Behind.

The special in Friday's Reflector about the shortage of knit goods in the Northern mills, brought Mr. L. D. Wade, manager of the Commercial Knitting Co., of Greenville in to tell us something of the condition here. He says this mill is now 17,000 dozen behind on orders for cheap knit goods, the shortage being due to the inability to get yarns. This is strong argument for the establishment of a yarn mill at Greenville.

"Come to Greenville."

Mr. D. C. James, our local pen artist, has designed a very pretty post card of Greenville. On the card is a large horse shoe with the words "Come to Greenville" and surrounding this are pictures of local buildings and views. A supply of these cards can be found at Reflector Book Store, two for 5 cents.

The Southern railway has secured an injunction against the State corporation restraining the latter from putting in effect the passenger and freight regulation passed by the last legislature. Right there the Southern railway has made a big mistake.

Friday was a field day for bonds. People were here from all sections of the county and the bond election was talked more than any other subject. Good reports came from all quarters and the outlook is that the county will give a tremendous majority for bonds on the 14th.

Some Raleigh ministers complained at the way the News and Observer wrote up the denominational college base ball games. That paper called the Davidson team Presbyterians, the Trinity team Methodists and the Wake Forest team Baptists, using the terms pouring, sprinkling and immersing in expressing what the boys did for each other in their games. Such expressions as these were regarded by the complaining ministers as sacrilegious and the paper promised "not to do so any more." If the denominational colleges would stop sending out ball teams to advertise their respective institutions, the secular press would not have occasion to mix them up in the sporting field phrases manufactured in reporting games.

If we wanted to win and keep the favor of a man we certainly would not be continually antagonizing him. Looks like the railroads that profit by a rule like that. They cannot expect to win and hold the favor of the people, on whom they depend for patronage, when they antagonize the people's interest and antagonize the laws the people pass. The people believe the railroads can handle both passengers and freight at a lower rate than they have been charging, and passed laws compelling them to make certain reductions. One of the three large railroad systems in North Carolina is antagonizing these laws that just means the fight will continue until the railroads submit to the laws and give the matter a fair test. The people do not want to cripple the railroads, but are determined that the railroads shall be just and fair.

In recent years it has become a fad for college students, at their graduation, to wear caps and gowns. The custom has been adopted by some of the colleges in this State and we note with interest that even at democratic and conservative Wake Forest the cap and gown will be in evidence at this year's commencement. So long as the college students are clothed and in their right minds (their conduct sometimes leaves one in doubt about the latter) we suppose we have no right to object to anything they do. Anyway the cap and gown comes along with the affected habit among all classes of wearing glasses which are not only of no service but are often absolutely hurtful to the eyes, and of spending about 95 per cent, of the time developing muscles by playing foot ball and baseball instead of cultivating their brains—or rather in making physical instead of mental cultivation the chief aim. But after all these things do the Gentiles seek and the cap and Mother Hubbard might as well come along with the rest. The old-time would probably not object to some of the new fangled ways they have in college if those who are turned out by these institutions only knew something that is worth while when they are out, but very often they don't.—Stateville Landmark.

Panama Canal—Erie Canal. Machinery is digging the Panama canal a thousand times quicker than the shovel dug the Erie. Machinery produces the L & M paint at 50 times less cost for labor, than if made by hand. The L & M. gives the best job in the world, because L & M. Zinc hardens L & M. White lead and makes L & M. paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years. It only requires 4 gallons of this celebrated paint and 3 gallons of Linseed Oil at 60 ct per gallon, to paint a moderate sized house. If any defect exists in L & M. Paint, will repaint house for nothing. Sold by H. L. Carr, Greenville. 52w

THIS SETTLES THE QUESTION.

THE TOWN AND COUNTY STAND TOGETHER AND WILL BOTH DO THEIR PART.

It is strange what statements people will sometimes make in their eagerness to turn sentiment. It reached the ears of The Reflector that some people were trying so hard to defeat the proposed bond issue to secure the Eastern training school in Pitt county, they have been telling that Greenville did not propose to apply any of the town bonds toward the school but was going to use them all for town improvements, and would depend upon the county bonds to get the school. Of course such a statement is absurd, and that no one might be deceived by it we addressed a letter to the board of county commissioners while that body was in session Monday, to get an expression from the members that will settle the matter. The letter and reply are published below:

Greenville, N. C., May 6, 1907

To the Board of County Commissioners.

It is reported that if the County Bond issue passes that the town of Greenville will not pay its part towards locating the Eastern Training School in Pitt County. Will you please say for publication what you, as representatives of the county, will do in issuing these county bonds, should you be authorized by the vote of the people on the 14th., to do so?

Editor of Daily Reflector.

Greenville, N. C., May 6, 1907

D. J. Whichard, Editor Reflector.

Dear Sir:—

Your letter received. In reply will say that we will see to it that the County does not pay one dollar more for the purpose of locating the Eastern Training School in Pitt County than the town of Greenville pays.

IN COURTESY OF SPAIN.

Travelers Get the Best Ideas by Journeying Third Class.

The stranger cannot perhaps more easily get a single glimpse of the true and ancient Spain than by acquiring the habit of traveling third class. The seats indeed are hard, but the company is usually excellent, charming in its manners and not offensive to any sense. Here a constant series of novel pictures is presented to the traveler, who may quietly study them at leisure. Perhaps it is a dozen merry girls on their way to a festival, packed tightly together and laden with packages. Some of the more sedate among them wear mantillas, some bright handkerchiefs on their heads or go with hair uncovered; but, however they are dressed, to whatever class they belong, they are all clean and sweet.

Or perhaps it is a less crowded carriage one enters. There are two middle class Spaniards and a peasant group of three—a fat, jolly middle aged man in a peasant's costume, but clean and new, almost stylish; a woman of like age, one of those free, robust, kindly women whom Spain produces so often, and a pretty, bareheaded girl, evidently her daughter, though the man seems a friend or relative who is escorting them on their journey. By and by, when we have been some hours on our journey, he lifts from the seat in front of him the large, heavy embroidered wallet—the alforja, which Sancho Panza was always so anxious to keep well filled—unwinds it and draws out one of the great, flat, delicious Spanish loaves and throws it on the woman's lap. Then a dish of stewed meat appears, and the bread is cut into slices, which serve as plates for the meat. But before the meal is begun the peasant turns round with a hearty "Gusta?" It is the invitation to share in the feast, which every polite Spaniard must make even to strangers who happen to be present, and it is as a matter of course politely refused, "Muchas gracias." Before long the black leather wine bottle is produced from the wallet, and the meal proceeds. At its final stage some kind of sweet meat appears, and small fragments are offered to the two middle class Spaniards and then, with a slight half movement, expressing a fine courtesy restrained by the fear of offering any offensive attention, to the foreign caballero also. It is not improper to accept this time, and now the leather bottle is handed round, and the middle class Spaniards avail themselves of it, though with awkward unfamiliarity.—Atlantic Monthly.

NOTICE TO THE VOTERS OF PITT COUNTY.

Notice is hereby given to the voters of Pitt county that the board of county commissioners, at their meeting on the first Monday of April, 1907, it being the first day of said month, ordered that an election be held at the various voting places in said county on Tuesday, May 14th, 1907, for the purpose of taking the sense of the qualified voters of said county on the proposition to confer upon the board of county commissioners of said county the authority to issue and sell interest bearing coupon bonds, of said county, not to exceed the sum of fifty thousand dollars to run for thirty years and to bear interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent. The proceeds of the sale of said bonds to be used in aiding in erecting suitable buildings at some point in Pitt county for a training school for white teachers, and the proceeds of any of the fund arising from the sale of said bonds, after securing the location of said school in the county, to be used in the purchase of machinery for the use of the convicts in working on public roads and to aid in building and repairing bridges in the county.

A new registration of the voters has been ordered for said election, so that it may be definitely and accurately ascertained who are qualified voters at said election. The law governing said election requires that every voter, in issuing of said bonds, vote a written or printed ballot with the words thereon, "for bonds" and "opposed to vote a written or printed ballot with the words thereon "against bonds." The registration books will open on Thursday, April 11th, 1907, and close at sunset on Saturday, May 4th, 1907. Only those who register can vote.

By order of the board of county commissioners of Pitt county.
This the 1st day of April 1907.

For Swollen Feet.

A bath that quickly relieves tired, swollen feet is to mix half an ounce of powdered alum, an ounce of sea salt and one of borax and put a teaspoonful in a foot tub. Soak the feet a quarter of an hour. Dry, pass a white ribbon under the foot, bring it over the instep and pass around the ankle. This prevents swelling and is a great relief.

Cleaning Chamois Skins.

To clean dirty chamois skins rub them with soft soap and allow them to stand for a couple of hours and then rub thoroughly till clean. Rinse them in a weak solution of warm water, soda and yellow soap and dry quickly. It is necessary to have a little soap in the rinse water, or the chamois will be stiff and wiry.

To Remove Mildew.

Put the things to be cleaned into a pail of warm water until they are completely soaked, then take out soaking wet and hang on clothes-line in sun and put a thick layer of common brown soap on, then thick layer of salt. Let hang until dry and repeat next day in sun. Be sure to use plenty of soap.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that stress and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. With out that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and shallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

Directions For Dry Cleaning Delicate Laces—Domestic Gossip.
Delicate or fine old laces may be dry cleaned at home if they have not been allowed to get too soiled by means of breadcrumbs or a mixture of equal parts of flour and magnesia. When using bread, rub the crumbs in with a soft cloth, changing crumbs and cloth directly they look soiled. In the method of using flour and magnesia rub the mixture well in with cloths and allow the lace to stay a few hours before shaking and brushing it. Pull into shape, tack down on a piece of white paper and leave under a weight.
Lace handkerchiefs may be finished successfully on the window pane. Pull into shape and lay on the glass, pressing out every wrinkle. They will dry smooth and ready for use.

Renovating Curled Plumes.

The whole secret in renovating feathers is starch, raw, not boiled, as that would act like glue. Take three tablespoonfuls of raw starch to one pint of cold water, into which put the feathers. After they have been washed and rinsed press in a dry cloth with the hands, squeezing as dry as possible, then hang in a draft to dry. When quite dry, shake thoroughly. As the starch flies off in a cloud every flue will rise, and the plume will be just as full and rich as when new. Hang over steam of a boiling kettle. Do not curl near the stem, as it gets too narrow that way. When curling have the forefinger of the left hand parallel with the stem.

To Remove Moles.

Moles must be very carefully touched. They are apt to turn into troublesome sores if tampered with. Mix equal parts of white vaseline and salicylic acid and apply to them at night. In a few days they will become a little sore and in time drop off. If very prominent, tie a bit of white silk thread tightly around close to the face. This takes all nourishment from the mole, and it will dry up and drop off. Do this only one at a time. Be careful not to pick them.

No Miracle For Him.

A clergyman was endeavoring to instruct one of his Sunday school scholars, a plowboy, on the nature of a miracle. Thinking he had made it plain, he said, "Now, boy suppose you should see the sun rise in the middle of the night, what would you call it?" "The moon, sir." "No, but suppose that you knew it was not the moon, but the sun, and that you saw it actually rise in the middle of the night, what should you think?" "I should think it was time to get up, sir."—St. James' Gazette.

MAKE GOOD FRIENDS.

Every One Should Have This In Mind Because of Future Benefits.

It is not worth while to pause to consider whether men in older times placed a mercantile value on friendships. The significance of the modern application needs no justification. Friendship pays. Acquaintance pays. That is a wise young man who looks to it that his acquaintances are formed with a view to future benefit to himself. What does it profit any man to know a lot of men who are only ordinary mortals with no capacity for doing anything special or anything especially well—merely men who do a day's work at whatever they have to do and who spend their leisure time at the races, baseball games or at the theater?

The men to know are those who have a serious purpose in life and who go on cheerfully toward the goal, developing their powers meanwhile. At college a young man has an excellent opportunity for selecting among his classmates companions for a future career, but if a boy is denied the advantage of a college course, with its discipline and associations, and is cast into the huge swirl of the commercial world without training he must make his friends and get his start there. To begin with, it requires no mercenary foresight. No pleasant fellow need be slighted because he probably cannot "be of use," but the importance of spending little time with good fellows is apparent when one has his way to make by his own efforts in the world. Courtesy is always commendable, and courtesy costs nothing. It helps everywhere.

The value of a long list of friends and acquaintances to a commercial man is most obvious, for by his acquaintance, his popularity, he obtains much valuable information that helps when it comes to doing business. And the point is not to overlook the opportunity to cultivate the friendship of those whose knowledge and worth have already advanced them to high position, for their example inspires to emulation; thus association develops our best powers, and their counsel and friendship are worth something ethically and financially.—Los Angeles Times.

Point-Check Story.

A tarpon pursued by a shark near Garden Key, in one of its treacherous leaps fell across a skiff containing two fishermen, who were so busily engaged with a net that they did not notice its approach. The skiff broke in two, the fishermen became entangled in the net, and the shark took a huge bite out of the side of one of them. Pelton Larkin cutting his body nearly in two. It is thought the shark bit Larkin's body for the tarpon it was in pursuit of, for sharks in the waters have never been known to attack a man.—Punta Gorda Herald.
