

GRADED SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT A BIG FIRE AT ELIZABETH CITY.

The Exercises a Great Success.

Another large audience assembled in the opera house Friday evening to witness the finale of the closing exercises of the graded school. There was some variation from the program as published, but the interest was in no way detracted from.

Misses Mae Schult and Abbie Smith read their graduating essays, both being excellent papers and charmingly presented. At the conclusion of these essays the six young lady marshalls filed upon the stage, their arms laden with flowers which in behalf of the Minerva Literary Society and friends Maj. Henry Harding in a beautiful speech presented to Misses Schultz and Smith.

Musical selections were rendered by Misses Carrie Gay and Hildah Critcher.

A recitation "The Bells" was splendidly rendered by Miss Essie Whichard.

Col. F. G. James in a magnificent speech introduced Lieutenant Governor F. D. Winston, the orator of the evening. In his opening remarks Judge Winston said in taking the oath of office to which he was elected, he had no idea that one of the duties to be required of him was a vote on the location of the Eastern training school. This was greeted with a storm of applause, and when it subsided he added, "If the other towns wanting the school had heard that applause they would conclude they had a ready lost out," and then told the story about if you would cook a rabbit "first catch the rabbit." The effect of this was another minute or two of tumultuous applause.

Judge Winston then took for his subject "Woman," and in a charming address of forty-five minutes told of what she was in the past, what she is in the present and what she is to be in the future. His tributes to woman were in such beautiful language that applause frequently greeted his utterances. He could not have more thoroughly delighted the audience.

The diplomas to the graduating class—Misses Mae Schultz and Abbie Smith and James L. Evans—were presented by ex-Governor Jarvis in appropriate words of commendation and wise counsel.

An incident not on the program then occurred. Mr. F. C. Harding advanced to the front of the stage and called for Ben Taylor. This had a most dramatic effect on the audience which enthusiastically expressed its delight. Mr. Harding in fitting words explained that the people of Greenville had voluntarily contributed a fund to purchase a gold medal for this young man, and he had been delegated to present it as a token of their esteem and appreciation of the splendid record he had made.

Superintendent H. B. Smith then read a list of names, twenty-four in number, who had not been absent nor tardy a single day during the eight months of the term just closed. Prof. Smith also made brief reference to the satisfactory work of the school and expressed appreciation of the united support of the people of the community.

Immediately following the exercises in the opera house a public reception was tendered Judge Winston in the parlors of Carolina Club. In the receiving line with Judge Winston were ex-Gov. and Mrs. T. J. Jarvis, Col. and Mrs. F. G. James, Dr.

Livery Stable With 30 Horses and a Number of Buggies, Carriages and Other Equipments

Elizabeth City, May 16.—At 2 o'clock this morning another disastrous conflagration occurred in this city. The fire started in a Brickhouse & Armstrong's livery stables, and before the fire was discovered the buildings and their contents, consisting of about 30 horses, buggies, carriages and other livery equipments, were doomed to the flames. The fire quickly spread in every direction. On the left Stokes & Commander and Davis' stables, together with a number of small stores, were burned to the ground. The horses of these stables were liberated and escaped the flames. On the right Mr. T. H. Nash's residence was badly damaged, and Mr. Wiley Gregory's residence was burned down, with several other smaller residences. In the rear of the stables the sash and door factory of Kramer Bros. was burned, and it was only by the most heroic efforts of the fire department that their large planing mills were saved.

The destruction of property in last night's fire is estimated at $40,000 with about $20,000 insurance.

About a dozen of the horses that perished in the flames were owned by citizens of the city and several were favorites, among them being those belonging to D. B. Bradford, Dr. L. H. White and the Misses Weeks. Some of the animals were valued at from $300 to $400.—Charlotte Observer.

Great Sunday School Convention in Rome, Italy.

Rome, Italy, May 18.—Five hundred Boston and New England Sunday School workers, of high repute, were in attendance at the great Sunday school convention which embraces Sunday school workers from all parts of the world. The New England delegates found their way here in two steamships especially chartered for the trip, and as most of them are considered experts in Boston and New England, they have prominent places on the programme of the exercises that mark the progress of the convention. At the same time that the Sunday school convention is being held, a meeting of the American section of the International Sunday School Association begins work on the selection of lessons for use in Sunday Schools for the six years beginning in 1902.

Great Auto Parade on Long Island

Brooklyn, May 18.—A great automobile parade was given today by the Long Island Club. Five hundred autos participated in the show, and a large crowd witnessed the exhibit.

The Ladies Aid society of the Christian church will meet in the church Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Every member is requested to be present. Business of importance demands your attention.

and Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wooten. The pleasure of the reception was increased with vocal solos by Mrs. T. E. Hooker and Mrs. James Burton Cherry.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

How Up-the-State People Feel Toward Greenville.

The following comment on the recent bond elections in Greenville and Pitt county shows what an impression has been made all over the State by the enthusiastic movement of our people to stand together for bigger things, and portends an early reward for our first great effort in cooperative development. We clip the article from the Greensboro correspondence of Andrew Joyner. He lives where he sees things and hears things from all parts of the State, and he has himself built up a large and extensive business, because whenever he interprets news, what he sees or hears, it is invariably reliable stuff, sometimes philosophically, always artistically written up The News Mr. Joyner sends out this time about Greenville and Pitt county, besides being readable and flattering, is in our humble judgment, none the less prophetic.

Greensboro, May 16.—A great many Greensboro citizens, natives of Eastern North Carolina have been watching with interest the campaign in that section for the location of the Eastern training school. Nine, out of every ten, were in thorough sympathy with the movement to establish an Eastern school for the training of teachers and heartily approved the legislative enactment. Naturally the Eastern colony here rejoice to see the awakening of public interest in educational and industrial development in that section, which has been so evident for the past few years. The truth is many Greensboro people are such because they had to leave a section years ago where growing children were not provided educational facilities, for one where such provision had been made. But this year they are looking to the same old East with interest, if not longing, eyes. The record for the first few months is something great. Rocky Mount providing by legislative act with the approval of all for a ten mile public road bond issue. Nearly the whole of Wilson county by popular vote authorizing a good roads bond issue. Greenville voting unanimously a bond issue for public improvements and the training school and the whole county of Pitt Tuesday voting a bond issue for the Eastern training school.

Public school educational facilities have been provided in the last few years, new railroads are permeating every section of the East, and with the enthusiasm for the training school evident at this distance from all sections, the people have at last awakened to the great secret of modern progress and development, cooperative and zealous effort to all. A gentleman from an extreme Eastern county in attendance on the present Masonic convocation here. When informed this morning of the result of the bond election in Pitt county declared that he considered this as practically settling the question of location of the training school at Greenville. He said that it would be perfectly natural for the State board to consider local influences in coming to a decision. They would find that they were simply ideal in Pitt county. He said a citizen of Greenville had donated 25 acres of land on a commanding eminence adjoining the town, the town itself had unanimously voted a $75,000

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

It having pleased the great Spirit to remove from our midst the beloved son of our brother W. E. Proctor, we the members of Withlatchoke Tribe No. 35, I. O. R. M. resolved:

1st. That we have heard of the death of the oldest son of our brother W. E. Proctor with much sorrow.

2nd. That our hearts go out to him and his family with genuine and sincere brotherly and paternal sympathy, and that we commend them to Him who does all things well for their guidance and support in this their hour of grief.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to brother W. E. Proctor, a copy be spread upon our minutes and a copy be handed to The Reflector with request to publish.

Unveiling Statue of Alexander Hamilton.

Special to Reflector.

Paterson, N. J., May 18.—The fine statue that has been placed in position before the City Hall, was dedicated today with appropriate exercises. Gov. Stokes was in charge of the proceedings, and before the great crowd the statue to the honor of the illustrious American was unveiled amid cheers and uncovering of hands. This is the State in which Hamilton received his death shot at the hands of Aaron Burr, at Weehawken. It is suggested that a statue of the first mayor of Paterson and founder of the silk industry be placed on the other corner of the municipal building.

Carrier Pigeons at the Jamestown Exposition.

Special to Reflector.

Jamestown, Va. May 18.—The greatest carrier pigeon race ever held in this country comes off today, and their movements were watched with absorbing interest until they flew out of sight.

As they were mainly from Eastern cities, their start was in that direction, principally. The Metropolitan Concourse, New York, supplied 1,000 birds, the Quaker city Concourse, 1,500 and the Washington Concourse 500 birds.

Weather.

Fair tonight and Sunday warmer tonight in interior.

To Owners of Pianos.

Our factory tuner, Mr. A. L. Henderson, will be in Greenville on Monday, May the 27th and will remain several days. Any one wishing to have their pianos tuned will please send in their written order to our Mr. G. G. Fineman, box 325, this office. Do not phone or leave word at hotel, but write; messages are sometimes delayed.

Very respectfully, board issue partly for that purpose. This remarkable unanimity of progressive sentiment and enthusiasm both of town and country, he said, was something he, as an Eastern man himself, felt proud of, although living in a town that was seeking the school in a county remote from Pitt.

From the fact that Pitt county not only out did all others in advocacy of and pressure for the bill that established a school in the East, it does look as if Greenville has the call for the training school, unless other towns and counties do more than they have done in practical works.

WINTERVILLE HIGH SCHOOL.

Closing of the Seventh Session.

The seventh session of Winterville High school closed with commencement exercises held on the 15th, 16th and 17th.

Wednesday night the annual sermon was delivered by Rev. J. E. Ayscue, of Greenville, in Winterville Baptist church.

Thursday evening there was a concert by the primary and intermediate grades, in which the little folks showed remarkable talent and splendid training.

Friday was the big day of the commencement, and large audience filled the school chapel morning, afternoon and evening. The annual address and awarding of diplomas took place in the morning, interspersed by delightful musical selections.

Representative J. J. Laughinghouse introduced Congressman W. W. Kitchen who delivered the annual address. He spoke of his acquaintance with Mr. Kitchen since boyhood, referred to his splendid record in public life, and closed by predicting he would be the next governor of North Carolina. This reference met with the hearty approval of the audience.

The subject of Mr. Kitchen's address was "Success." As the elements of success he mentioned honesty, temperance, education and friendship. Under each of these divisions he portrayed his subject masterfully, showing what real success in life is. His admonition to young men to live honest, temperate and pure lives was superb. Throughout his address there was such eloquence and force in his utterances as to rivet the closest attention and make a profound impression upon every hearer. It was an address that uplifts the standard of righteous living will bear fruit for good through years to come.

Following the address Rev. T. H. King presented diplomas to two young lady graduates, Misses Rosabel Taylor and Bell Newton.

Friday afternoon the annual debate took place. The query was "Resolved, that North Carolina should have a law prohibiting children under fourteen years of age from working in mills and factories." The affirmative was represented by J. D. Rogers, F. C. Perry and B. R. Jackson, and the negative by W. A. McGlohon, G. G. Dixon and R. R. Cox. The young men handled the question ably and the contest was a very close one. The decision of the judges was for the negative.

Friday night the commencement closed with a concert under the direction of the Philo Altem Society that was especially enjoyable.

The session just closed has been the best in the history of the school, the enrollment making 253. Prof. Lineberry and his faithful corps of assistants are to be congratulated upon the splendid work done, and Pitt county is to be congratulated upon having a school of such excellence within her borders. Pupils attend this school from about twenty of the Eastern counties.

Dreamland Reopens Today.

Special to Reflector.

New York, May 18.—The great amusement park, Dreamland, opened today, delay being created because of the huge amount of work that was necessary to be done. The great wall, sculptured after the manner of the ancient Babylonians, which surrounds the Orient, is practically completed along with the two big obelisks with their inscriptions from the ancient monuments. More than 200 of the prettiest girls to be found are to be seen in the big spectacles at the park this season.

Swedes in Court. There was a trial somewhat out of the ordinary before Justice H. Harding this morning. The defendants were two of the Swedes brought here recently by Mr. E. A. Kline to work on the railroad. Mr. Kline advanced the money to bring a number of Swedes here and was to be repaid in installments from their wages. Those two became dissatisfied and were about to leave without repaying what had been advanced and a warrant was obtained against them. Mr. J. M. Revss was interpreter at the trial, as the Swedes could not handle English.

SATURDAY MAY 18th 1907.

Some South Carolina papers keep digging up Andrew Jackson to find out where he was born, just like they did not know, or ought to know, he was born in North Carolina.

Some people are yet losing sleep over the result of the recent bond election in this county. They remind us of the story of the old woman who tried to dip the ocean dry with a bucket.

If the other towns that appear to be in the race for the Eastern training school would do the graceful and fair thing, they would withdraw in favor of Pitt county and make the location of the school here unanimous. It is generally conceded by all, except the contesting points, that Pitt county is going to get the school. It is recognized that it was the work of Pitt county before the legislature that secured the passage of the law establishing the school. It is known also that Pitt county has laid well the foundation and fortified herself to put in a bid that will insure the school coming within her borders. Pitt is entitled to it and should receive the unanimous vote in locating it.

An Indiana Baptist preacher wants to get back to old time religion and he speaks some straight stuff on the subject. A quotation is interesting: "What America needs more than railway extension, and Western irrigation, and a low tariff, and a bigger wheat crop, and a merchant marine, and a new navy, is a revival of piety, the kind mother and father used to have—piety that counted it good business to stop for daily family prayers before breakfast, right in the middle of harvest; that quit field work a half hour early Thursday night, so as to get the chores done and go to prayer meeting. That's what we need now to clean this country of the filth of graft, and of greed, petty and big; of worship of find houses and big lands and high office and grand social functions. What is this thing we are worshipping but a vain repetition of what decayed nations fell down and worshipped just before their light went out? Great wealth never made a nation substantial nor honorable. There is nothing on earth that looks good that is so dangerous for man or a nation to handle as quick, easy, big money. It takes greater and finer heroism to dare to be poor in America than to charge an earthworks in Manchuria."

There has just been a story started to the effect that powerful financial interests are behind a scheme to nominate Mr. Stephen Grover Cleveland of Princeton, N. J., for president in 1908. The Ledger is in favor of Mr. C. B. Aycock, of Goldsboro, N. C., but would take Mr. Cleveland as a second choice in the event that it is impossible to have the North Carolina gentleman.—Gaffney, S. C. Ledger.

Who can beat this? Mr. Zedoc Chase Friday morning last while removing cotton seed from a tobacco barn, where they were stored last fall, found a hen nest with seventy-five sound eggs in it. Six dozen and three eggs in one nest.—Snow Hill Loconic.

The gambler who forces up the price of wheat, cotton and the like, is no better than the gambler who forces it down, although we may have a kinder feeling toward him.—Durham Herald.

American Navy is Third.

Investigation by the navy department shows that the United States stands third as a naval power and Japan fifth and that if all the ships now building in the two navies were completed the relative positions would remain the same. The war ship tonnage of the world on Feb. 2 stood: Great Britain, 1,612,357; France, 625,498; United States 525,970; Germany, 475,067; Japan, 347,461; Russia, 261,945; Italy, 204,253; Austria, 111,127.

Singers of the Future.

The prediction is made by one giving much thought to music that the majority of the American singers of the future will hail from the south. This belief is founded on the fact that the people of southern climes have the soft voices and temperament requisite to the success of a singer. The prediction is of especial interest, as it comes from a woman of New England origin and training.—Circle Magazine.

STAT EOF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, LUCAS COUNTY. Panama Canal—Eric Canal. Machinery is digging the Panama canal a thousand times quicker than the shovel dug the Erie. Machinery produces the L & M paint at 50 times less cost for labor, than if made by hae. The L & M gives the best job in the world, because L & M. Zinc hardens L & M. White lead and makes L & M. paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years. It only requires 4 gallons of this celebrated paint and 3 gallons of Linseed Oil at 60 ct per gallon, to paint a moderate sized house. If any defect exists in L & M. Paint, will repaint house for nothing. Sold by H. L. Carr, Greenville. 5 2w Laxets 5c Sweet to Eat A Candy Bowl Laxative

Insure Your Insurance.

AT

THE ONLY COMPLETE POLICY.

The North State Mutual Life Insurance Company.,

OF KINSTON will Insure your Insurance and do it for actual cost. The time has been when a house was insured against fire it had to be TOTALLY destroyed or the Insured got nothing. If a room was burned or the roof destroyed by fire there was no liability. It is not so now. You insure your house for PROTECTION against loss—not total loss, but any kind of loss. If the house is valued and insured for $1,000.00 and it is damaged $100.00 you get $100.00 indemnity.

THE Life Insurance Policies issued by other companies are like the fire insurance policy. You have to die (i. e. be totally destroyed) before your policy becomes a claim in any form.

THE COMPLETE Policies issued by THE NORTH STATE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, like the modern fire policy, insures against PARTIAL DESTRUCTION. Your salary or other income is GUARANTEED. For each $1,000 life insurance, you are guaranteed $5.00 per week indemnity for loss of time caused by accident or illness. A $5,000.00 policy carries with it $25.00 per week for such loss of time.

THE COMPLETE policy takes your place in providing for you, your family and pays your premiums on your life policy when you are not able to do so. It is a common expression often heard by Life Insurance Agents, "Oh, I would take a policy if I knew I would be able to keep the premium paid, but I might get sick or have an accident and lose my insurance." The COMPLETE policy issued by THE NORTH STATE MUTUAL does away with this excuse entirely. You get this valuable protection AT COST.

About That Home

Do You Contemplate

Owning One?

If so the first thing to consider is a good lot in a desirable location and you cannot be better suited in a lot than the

Sam White Property.

No property surpasses this for a desirable home. Lots can be bought there now at reasonable prices and on easy terms. There is every indication that property around Greenville is going to be higher, and the longer you defer buying the lot the higher it will cost.

This property is located only 5 minutes walk from the business part of the town. See Sam White and let him explain prices and terms.

STAINED GLASS.

The Art of Making It Originated With the Chinese.

Glass is of very ancient origin, having probably been discovered by the ancient Egyptians about the year 6000 B. C. But it is to the Chinese that we owe the discovery of the beautiful stained glass of early times.

The first glass staining was done by this race about 2000 B. C., according to some authorities, and not until after the Christian era, according to others. At any rate, however, the art was original with the Chinese.

The Egyptians made sham jewels of glass at least 5000 or 6000 B. C. In some of the most ancient tombs scarabs of glass have been found imitating rubies, emeralds, sapphires and other precious stones, and the glass beads found broadcast in three parts of the globe were quite possibly passed off by Phoenician traders upon the confiding barbarian as jewels of great price.

Of the use of glass in windows there is not very ancient mention. The climate of Greece and Egypt and the way of life there gave little occasion for it. But at Herculaneum and Pompeii there have been found fair sized slabs of window glass, not of very perfect manufacture and probably at no time very translucent.

Remains also of what was presumably window glass have been found among the ruins of Roman villas in England. In the basilicas of Christian Rome the arched window openings were sometimes filled with slabs of marble, in which were piercings to receive glass (which may or may not have been colored), foreshadowing, so to speak, the plate tracery of early Gothic windows.

Stained and painted glass, existing as we find it in mediaeval windows, probably dates back to Charlemagne, 800 A. D., but it may safely be said not to occur earlier than the holy Roman empire.

At the date of the Norman conquest stained glass windows can no longer have been uncommon, but archaeologists appear to be agreed that no complete window of the ninth or tenth century has been preserved and that even of the eleventh there is nothing that can be quite certainly identified.

The great mass of early Gothic glass belongs to the thirteenth century, and when one speaks of early glass it is usually thirteenth century glass which is meant.—Scrap Book.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol.

Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach and digestive tract, nervous dyspepsia and catarrh of the stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of dyspepsia, flatulency, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

NOTICE.

The people of the town and county, having voted in favor of issuing bonds to secure the location of the Eastern Training School in or near the town of Greenville, now becomes necessary to take up the question of securing a proper site for the same.

The State Board of Education is charged by law with selecting and determining this site, and that Board has said that they will not consider a site that contains less than twenty-five (25) acres.

The undersigned committee, therefore beg all persons having suitable site, to submit to this committee sealed proposals for a site of not less than 25 acres, to be made upon blanks which anyone can obtain for that purpose by applying to A. L. Blow Secretary Committee. It is hoped that those offering sites will exercise all possible liberality in the location, price, etc., and they are requested to give a general description of the site in filling up the blanks.

The bids or offers for site should be handed to A. L. Blow Secty before 6:00 p. m. on Friday the 24th instant. After the bids are in the persons making them will be expected to put their offers in legal forms by giving to the State Board of Education an option on such site conditioned in accordance with the offer, and also, upon the location of the school by State Board on site so offered. Any person or persons may make any number of different propositions, provided the site offered contained not less than twenty five acres.

This committee wishes to emphasize the fact that the acceptance or rejection of any proposed site, rests solely with the State Board of Education, and all sites offered of twenty five acres or more will be submitted to them, and that this committee is simply taking this action for the purpose of getting the matter in proper shape for the consideration of the State Board of Education.

Respectfully,
Thomas J. Jarvis,
H. A. White,
J. L. Wooten,
A. L. Blow,
