

BEAUFORT WILL CELEBRATE.

Completion of N & S. Railroad.

The people of Beaufort do not believe in doing things by halves. They are preparing on a mammoth scale for the celebration on June 8th. From 5,000 to 10,000 visitors are expected on that date. All the railroads have made greatly reduced rates, and the public is cordially invited to attend this celebration of the completion of the Norfolk and Southern railway into that town. It bids fair to be the greatest occasion of its kind ever pulled off in North Carolina. It is, however, only in keeping with the hospitality of the good people of Beaufort.

The elaborate program is here-with given:

PROGRAM.

Master of ceremonies, Mr. N. W. Taylor.

Prayer, Rev. J. H. Frizzelle.

Address of welcome, Hon. Charles L. Abernethy, solicitor of third judicial district.

Macon, of Henderson; Col. George L. Peterson, of Clinton; Capt. Oberreth, of revenue cutter Boutwell; Capt. Quian, of revenue cutter Seminole.

Presentation of flags to successful contestants in competitive drills; Major B. F. Dixon, of Raleigh.

Music by second regiment band, of Kinston, N. C. and K. of P. band, New Bern, N. C.

Chief Marshal: Mr. Thomas Thomas.

The Honorable George B. Cortelyou, secretary of the treasury, has ordered the revenue cutter Seminole, now stationed at Wilmington, to be present on this occasion and to carry the governor, State officers and North Carolina delegation in congress over the harbor and channel improvements and out to sea and as far as Cape Lookout.

All the State officials, including the Supreme court, have been invited to attend. The governors and adjutant general's staff will be present in full regiments. This will be a great day that will go down in the history of North Carolina as a great celebration of the beginning of great industrial and commercial development in Eastern North Carolina.

Weather.

Partly cloudy tonight, probably showers and warmer in western portion. Thursday showers.

PINAFORE POSTPONED.

Will Come to Greenville Later.

A telephone message this morning from Prof. Howell, manager of the Washington company of local talent that was coming here to play Pinafore Friday night, states that the engagement will have to be postponed for the present. The cause of this is that one of the leading men in the cast was taken sick with fever, and the time is too short for another to learn the part in his place.

This is indeed a disappointment to the people of both towns, but Prof. Howell says he will make another date for Greenville just as early as possible.

Ward Primaries.

The primaries of the Democratic voters of the several wards of the town of Greenville will be held on Thursday night, May 30th, 1907, at 8:30 o'clock, at the stated places below, for the purpose of nominating candidates for aldermen for the election to be held on Monday June 3rd:

First ward, in the mayor's office.

Second ward, in the court house.

Third ward, in the Centre Brick warehouse.

Fourth ward, in Parham's warehouse.

Fifth ward, in the Star warehouse.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Notes From our Husting Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C., May 29.

There was a reunion at the Baptist church here Saturday. The pastor, Rev. T. H. King, preached a sermon at the special service which was held at 11 o'clock. After the services dinner was spread on the grounds. This was a great feast to all who partook.

Rev. J. B. Jackson, of Ashpole, N. C., who is on a visit to his relatives and friends here, preached in the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. B. G. Taylor went to the hospital at Kinston Monday to have an operation performed. Her husband, Mr. B. G. Taylor, accompanied her.

Mrs. M. G. Bryan left this morning for Bethel where she will visit her mother.

L. L. Kittrell went to Greenville Monday.

Sheriff L. W. Tucker was in our town Tuesday.

We are very sorry to learn that the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Arden Tucker's very sick. We wish it a speedy recovery.

Frank A. Edmundson, who is a traveling salesman for the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., left here this morning for Tarboro and other points.

Mrs. Susan Jackson, who has been spending a week or two with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Smith, of Hanrahan, returned Saturday.

The Oxford Orphanage singing class will give a concert in the auditorium of Winterville High school June 6 at 8 p. m.

Rev. B. W. Spilmann, one of the leading Sunday school workers of the South, will take his Philathea class of the Kinston Baptist Sunday school on an outing trip Thursday and Friday to the beautiful grounds of Winterville High School. They will be entertained at the dormitories while here. This shows the wide reputation that our campus has obtained for beauty and attractiveness.

F. C. Nye, who has been away for a week visiting relatives in Roberson, returned Tuesday evening.

GREEN SPRINGS ITEMS

Farmville, N. C. May, 28th.

This has been quite a busy week, especially with our farmers chopping cotton, plowing corn, tobacco, etc., but as yet General Green has not troubled us much. Cut worms are cutting our tobacco considerably, however, it is looking very well, considering its age, with exceptional good standing.

We seem to be having more rain in our neighborhood than some distant sections. While we are full wet I hear that around Fountain and Falkland it is rather dry. Crops in general are considered quite backward for the time of year.

Work on our spring house pavillion and ball ground is slowly progressing, however we expect to be ready for our proposed picnic and match game of ball soon. We heard R. A. Smith, manager of the Green Spring team say the other day, he would soon have on his mits and would be ready to cross bats with most any non-professional team that would meet him on the "strand" for a good time.

Rev. W. A. Forbes, pastor in charge of Methodist churches on Farmville circuit, has announced the following changes in his fourth Sunday appointments; at Bethlehem the hour is changed from 11 a. m. to 3:30 p. m., and at Shady Grove from 3 p. m. to 11 a. m.

Mr. S. A. Watkins, whose sickness was previously noted, died Saturday morning and was buried Monday, Rev. J. E. Ayscue, of Greenville, conducting the funeral service. Mr. Watkins was 55 years old and leaves a wife and one child.

Mrs. N. E. Wilkinson, who suffered a relapse from a recent attack of grip, is slowly improving.

Aaron Tyson is all smiles—it is a boy.

Mrs. Howell Cobb is visiting her daughter at Fountain.

Misses Lee and Nannie Nichols and Lena Owens, of Ayden, are visiting Miss Agnes Smith.

The famous old Green Spring is on a boom. Mr. Watt Parker has it rented and is making some improvements. It can be made one of the most popular springs in the State as analysis shows it is excellent mineral water.

There is never a day but crowds visit there, often as high as twenty five buggies drive down. The water is delivered in large quantities in Farmville, and will be shipped to various points after the new railroad is completed. Mr. Parker is preparing to have a base ball ground near the spring.

Original Observations.

Some men imagine that their prejudices are principles.

The life work of some people seems to be criticising others.

One little microbe of love can turn a whole heart upside down.

With one foot in the grave some people kick at the surrounding tombstones.

Some people are never satisfied unless they are doing something they shouldn't.

Wouldn't the world roll right if everybody had their own way about everything!

The world owes you a living they say, but far off is the time when it will pay.—Orange Va., Observer.

The Sail a Success.

A large crowd went on the moonlight sail on the Eagle, Tuesday night, and all report the trip a great success. Though the night was a little cool, the trip was greatly enjoyed.

Rest Room.

Orange is in need of a "Rest Room" for ladies. A place where those who come to town shopping from the country, can rest, get drinking water, wash the grime and dust of travel from their faces and store their packages until they are ready to return home. Scores of ladies have been heard to remark that wish they had somewhere to rest when they come to town. The fitting up of a room for this purpose will not cost a great deal, and just think of what a wonderful convenience it would be.—Orange, Va. Observer.

This would be a good thing for Greenville, too. Large numbers of ladies from all parts of the county come here shopping, and they would appreciate such a room in which they could pause for a rest.

Farmville on the Main Line.

Upon the completion of the new R. R. which will give Farmville quick transportation, low freight rates a fast mail service, places Farmville before the business world and opportunities for development which has never before presented itself is now attracting attention from prospective investors from all sides.

Don't miss the sales of June 13th. Townsend & Windham

K. of P. Tonight.

On account of the primaries to be held tomorrow night, the Knights of Pythias will meet in call session tonight. Important meeting; every member is urged to be present.

H. B. Smith, Vice Chancellor.

Death of a Good Man.

Mr Charles B. Satchwell, of Yeatsville N. C. died at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. He was a good citizen and influential in his community.

His wife was formerly Miss Eva Williams, of Greenville, and many friends here sympathize with her in her bereavement. It was but a short while ago that she lost a daughter.

PERSONAL POINTS.

People who Come and Go.

R. S. Evans is quite sick with pneumonia.

The condition of W. F. Burch is no better today.

J. B. Higgs went to Richmond this morning.

D. C. Moore, Jr., went to Bethel this morning.

NEW LODGE.

A Camp of Woodmen Instituted.

Monday morning W. H. Sutton, District Deputy, came in from Kinston and began the anticipated work of organizing a camp of the Woodmen of the World. He succeeded beyond all expectation, with the help of few old Woodmen of our town.

Friday night at 8 o'clock an organization was perfected in the hall of the Red Men. The following officers were elected: L. D. Ward, Consul Commander; W. J. Holmes, Past Consul Commander; C. E. Bradley, Banker; W. P. Edwards, Adviser; W. T. Forest, Watchman; C. A. Jones, Sentry; W. S. Moye, Escort; Dr. William Fountain, Camp Physician; S. C. Wooten, J. W. Bryan, H. G. Rodgers, Managers; D. W. Arnold, Grand Chaplain; J. F. Stokes, Clerk.

Woodcraft is new to most people of Greenville, but is sure to grow here, as in all places where it is founded. It stands today as the second largest fraternal order in the whole world and has the largest and best insurance feature of any of the orders now in existence.

Its worth and merit were seen at the Jamestown exposition, 14th inst., where about twenty thousand Woodmen met in annual convention.

Magnolia camp will remain busy in the future to show the object of Woodcraft, girding up our loins for a nip and tuck tussel with any nearby camp that has an opinion of bigness and a slippery conceit that it can stay the biggest when we toe the chalk line and jump at the bang of the pistol. J. F. Stokes, Clerk.

Teach Little Girls.

That happiness is a matter of spirit, not "things."

That is possible only when every member of the household is considered.

That to be in her own place, wherever that may be, a beautiful homemaker is the loveliest ambition any woman can have.

That the one indispensable quality in a home is happiness; every home, no matter how beautiful which misses that is a failure, but no home.

That it is better to be a beautiful homemaker than a fine housekeeper, says Home Chat.

Attend The Primaries.

Every voter in the town owes it to himself and to the town to attend the primary of his ward tomorrow night and help select good men for aldermen. There is much to be done for the advancement of the town in the next year and men capable of doing it should be selected.

On to Richmond.

Many old soldiers were on the train this morning going to Richmond to attend the Confederate reunion and unveiling of the Davis monument.

That North of Kinston Eminence in Greenville.

The East Carolina Teachers' training school is going to sit on one of the eminences that run along the northern border of the city of Kinston which one we don't know.—Plato Collins in Kinston Free Press.

It gives us pleasure to furnish the gentleman the information. Of course the most suitable one, said one being here in Greenville. These "eminences" North of Kinston happens to run through Greenville.

Sure, its Coming.

As further evidence of the fact that Greenville is the generally recognized location for the Training school letters are already coming here from elsewhere addressed "Eastern Training School, Greenville, N. C." Others in the race had as well pull down their flags and quit.

The Dangerous Age.

If a man is going to commit a crime during his lifetime the chances are that he will do it at the age of twenty-nine. It is a curious fact that statistics have shown that man is more dangerous at this period of his life than at any other. The majority of criminals in the State of New York have for some time been of this age. The general superstition is that men have attained the highest development of their mental and physical powers at twenty-nine, and they are supposed to be able to distinguish between right and wrong and to realize the consequences liable to follow the indulgence of either.

Next to the age of twenty-nine the greatest number of criminals have been twenty-one, twenty-seven or forty-five years of age. The intervening years, in which men do not commit as many crimes, have not been explained by expert criminologists who have made investigations proving the above statements to be true and who are still working on a solution of the problem.—New York Herald.

WEDNESDAY MAY 29th 1907

In the midst of so many surprises it is hardly worth while to be surprised at the weather.

No man has any more right to an office than some other man, but any man who wants one has a right to try to get it.

The Charlotte Observer has brought on quite an agitation over the ten best things to eat. We could make a right good dinner of any list mentioned if there was a chance at them.

We hear but little said about candidates for aldermen in the different wards, still the people should not be unmindful of the fact that good business men are needed in such positions.

Verily the railroads are straining at a gnat in raising the point that the passenger fare reduction bill passed by the last legislature is not legal because the speaker of the house signed it with a rubber stamp instead of writing his name with a pen.

That the passenger fare reduction bill passed by the last legislature is not legal because the speaker of the house signed it with a rubber stamp instead of writing his name with a pen.

The signature of the presiding officer of a legislative body is merely a matter of form, and should have no bearing on the legality of a bill. No question can be raised about the rate reduction bill being passed by the legislature, and the sooner the railroads acquiesce to the demands of the law the sooner there will be peace and good feeling between them and the people, a condition that all should earnestly wish to see.

THOROUGHLY AROUSED.

Pitt County Determined to Get Training School.

State Senator J. L. Fleming, of Pitt county, is in the city attending Federal court. He is as deeply interested in the Eastern Carolina Training school as he was during the legislature and is seeking to have it established at Greenville. He believes Pitt county is entitled to it, and thinks the other counties should not ask for it.

In speaking of the matter last night Senator Fleming said:

"Pitt is going to get the training school. We are entitled to it. We convinced the State legislature that such a school was needed in Eastern North Carolina and now we are going to convince the State Board of Education that we are most centrally located with the best railroad and transportation facilities, the best water and the best health conditions, of any point in Eastern North Carolina. Our people are thoroughly aroused upon the importance of such an institution and are determined to have it in Pitt county and to make out of it a great educational advancement for Eastern North Carolina. The State Board will always have occasion to be proud that they located at Greenville, the county seat of Pitt. No other county in Eastern North Carolina has such splendid spirit for progress in educational lines as Pitt, and being today first among the counties of the East educationally she will be in a few years with the establishment of the training school the first among the counties of the State. We are going to offer the most creditable bid, in proportion to our wealth, and the prettiest sites, and if we do not get it, we know that our successful competitor will always feel that she has robbed Pitt of its just deserts. In fact I think out of a spirit of justice and merit alone, the other counties ought to come out and declare for Pitt as the place - Raleigh News and Observer, 28th.

FEMININE SMOKERS. Ways of Women Who Indulge in the Tobacco Habit. It is interesting to notice the different ways in which cigarettes, cigars and pipes are held by people. The writer has traveled a great deal in different parts of the world during the past eight years and has had a very good opportunity to observe the customs of smokers in Cuba, the land where the ladies smoke, as they do in the Philippines. The Filipino and the Cuban like to smoke. No matter how poor, he or she always has a supply of cigarettes to smoke. As the ladies and children smoke, too, one can observe some delicate hands supporting cigars and cigarettes.

While the ladies do not, as a rule, smoke pipes in the Isle de Cuba or the islands of the southern Pacific ocean, you can see the pipe in service in the grasp of females now and then. But the ladies of Spanish origin of Cuba are unique in the managing of the cigars and cigarettes. They always act as if they thought the gentlemen were observing the manner in which they hold their cigarettes. They like to assume that they are old hands at it. They are pleased to make a good impression upon the visitor.

The ladies of Cuba do not all smoke. There are many Spanish and Cuban ladies who would never think of handling either the cigar, the cigarette or the pipe. The American and ladies of other nationalities in Cuba very seldom smoke. But there are certain classes of native born ladies who smoke a great deal. They are pleased to begin the morning duties with smoking and to finish off the afternoon with a cigarette. Toward the final hours of the night, before retiring, they smoke. Some fall asleep smoking, and the servant has to look out for the cinders to prevent the bed-clothes taking fire. Some chew a cigarette in their dreams. The men of Cuba are great smokers, as are all people in the tropics. - United States Tobacco Journal.

Justifiable. The cat had eaten the canary. "I haven't any compunction about it, either," she said, picking her teeth with her claws. "I couldn't eat the pig on the first floor or the graphophone on the third, but I could make a meal of the musician on the second floor and I've done it."

With a satisfied grin on her face she carried on the floor, gasping and went to the cage. The bird.

Read one among a hundreds of such testimonials. I have suffered with NERVOUS Dyspepsia for past 10 years and have received more beneficial and lasting results from the use of PANACEA MINERAL WATER than from any other remedy of the many I have had prescribed for me. It gives me great pleasure to testify to its marvelous results in my own case and many others I have personally observed.

SHE TOOK HIS SPEECH.

Then the Bright Girl Got Work as His Stenographer.

She was riding into the city on the morning train in search of a position as a stenographer. Having seen the large, florid man in the seat in front of her cut an advertisement from his newspaper and put it away in his pocketbook, she was just curious enough to look up the corresponding place in her own paper. Finding there an advertisement for a stenographer, she noted down the address and thanked her feminine curiosity.

She then turned back to her pencil and notebook. It seemed as if, practice as she might, she never could keep her speed up to 100 words a minute. She tried copying from the newspaper, but the motion of the car made the words dance before her eyes until they hurt her. She tried making up sentences as she went along and failed. Finally she resorted to taking down the incessant chatter of two women behind her, but their talk was often drowned in the disturbances of a number of young people still farther back, who were riotously noisy.

The young lady struggled with a tirade on the servant girl problem, timing herself by the distance between stations—two minutes from Sherwood to Sherwood Corners. Could she do 200 words? As her hand dashed madly over the page a large wad of newspaper flew past her and struck the florid man in the neck. The laughter behind subsided into dismayed giggles.

Slowly the large man turned his injured neck. He was redder than ever as he started to speak. The words fell from his lips, hot but distinct, swiftly but smoothly. He was telling the boisterous young people seven seats back just what he thought of them.

The young woman with the pencil saw her chance and took it. Here was glorious dictation. Her pencil flew. The speech lasted a minute and a half and was cut short then only by the arrival of the train at the terminal. The stenographer slapped her book shut with a comfortable feeling of having done even better than a hundred words per minute and set off in search of her position.

When she arrived at the address she had noted down, she was ushered into a private office, where sat the man of the speech. She stammered a little until she saw that he did not recognize her. His mind had been full of bigger things. Then she smilingly told him her errand.

"Do you think you can take my dictation?" he said, frowning.

"Yes, sir."

"What makes you think so? I talk very fast."

"But very distinctly, sir." She produced her notebook and laid it open before him. "Here's a sample." She began to read her notes.

His jaw dropped. There was his masterpiece of the train, complete and unabridged. It really sounded very well, so full of fire.

When she finished, he looked at her sharply. His face was very red, but his eye twinkled.

"The job's yours," he said subdued voice.—Youth's Cion.

Anxious to Oblige.

The manager of a telephone exchange recently gave employment as an operator to a young woman whose previous employment had been in a department store. The girl seemed so bright and willing and possessed such a clear and distinct voice that the manager resolved to give her a trial.

The newcomer, who was all amiability and willingness, rapidly learned her new duties, but one day an incident occurred that betrayed her department store training.

In answer to a ring she had asked sweetly, "Number, please?"

"Let me have 325," said the patron.

"I am sorry that 325 is busy just now," said the girl, "but I can let you have 323 or 326."—New York Herald.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, causes nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well
