The Abundance of Locusts.

The presence of vast swarms of locusts in different sections of the State is being commented on far and near. A well-known traveling man, who spent yesterday in the city at the Selwyn, thus described a ride which he took several days ago in Randolph county. "Suddenly I heard a peculiar whirring noise in the distance which rose and fell with the breeze and which sounded like the humming of ten thousand spindles in a big cotton mill. As I drove near the woods from which the sound seemed to issue the noises became louder and louder. By closing my eyes I could readily imagine myself in the spinning room of a big Northern mill. Entering the section of woods, the source of the sounds became apparent, for the limbs of the trees, the leaves, the trunk and even the ground was covered with locusts. They flew from tree to tree in droves and sang together in such fashion as to make the welkin ring. They told me they came from the ground and were the 7-year species."—Charlotte Observer.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, N. C., will be in Greenville at Hotel Bertha on Thursday and Friday June 6th and 7th for the purpose of treating disease of Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, and fitting glasses. On this visit the doctor's fees for testing eyes for glasses will be reduced one half.

GREENVILLE IS IT.

By Ben Taylor.
 Greenville boys are hustling round. If you don't believe me just go down town, And see them skipping and jumping around, Getting ready for the baseball ground.
 Rocky Mount thinks that she is a bee, By stinging Greenville twenty-nine to three; But just let Greenville practice more, And she will meet them in another score.
 Winterville thought she was going to thrive When she beat Greenville nine to five. But just let Greenville get on the ground, And she'll be there 'till the sun goes down.
 Parmele thinks she'll get in the band. Because all the rest have had a helping hand; But before the Greenville boys will be backed down, They'll run the others right out of town.

We Notice Sometimes That -

A lazy man is a dead loss to himself.
 A lot of worry comes to those who wait.
 Criticism, like charity, should begin at home.
 The family tree of the grafter is a plum tree.
 Lots of the money that men marry is counterfeit.
 A corner in grain isn't necessarily on the square.
 For the traveler the best guide-book is a checkbook
 A tight man and a loose dog are equally dangerous.
 Many a man's nervousness is due to his lack of nerve.
 A man's good judgment usually shows up the day after.
 Be good if you can; but if you can't be good, be careful.
 Graft often goes about disguised as a business opportunity.
 Experience teaches us how to make other kinds of mistakes.
 In order to satisfy a man give him what he thinks he wants.
 Some men make a specialty of posing as horrible examples.
 It takes a man with a lot of brass to dispose of a gold brick.
 Enterprise and advertising make the biggest pair in the deck.
 Most people would fall short if measured by the golden rule.
 It's safer to laugh with the big man than to give him the laugh.
 It's surprising how many friends a man has until he needs one.—New York Commercial.

Protracted Meeting.

The protracted meeting will begin in Memorial Baptist church Sunday, and Rev. W. F. Fry, of Goldsboro, who is to assist in the meeting, will arrive Monday evening in time to preach that night. Short prayer services will be held at the church tonight and tomorrow night preparatory to the meeting. The service tonight will begin at 7:45 and hold just half an hour.

The Way of the Child.

A small boy who had recently passed his fifth birthday was riding on a suburban car with his mother, when they were asked the customary question: "How old is the boy?" After being told the correct age, which did not require a fare, the conductor passed on to the next person.
 The boy sat quite still as if pondering over some question, and then, concluding that full information had not been given, called loudly to the conductor, then at the other end of the car: "And mother is 31."—Human Life.

Keep your eye on Greenville when the training school returns come in.

PERSONAL POINTS.

People who Come and Go.
 Wash Patrick went to Norfolk today.
 H. W. Whedbee went to Tarboro today.
 O. Hooker, of Richmond, came in Wednesday evening.
 Titus Harper, of Goldsboro, is visiting his sister, Mrs. H. L. Carr.
 Miss Olivia Cox, of Winterville, spent Wednesday with her brother, Rev. W. E. Cox.
 Work has commenced on Mr. R. L. Smith's new house, corner Evans and Eighth streets.
 The condition of Mrs. Pattie Hooker is worse today and hope of her recovery has been almost abandoned.
 Dr. W. H. Wakefield, the eye, ear and nose specialist, of Charlotte, came in today and will remain through tomorrow at Hotel Bertha.

Century Old Firms Hold a Reunion.

Special to Reflector.
 Philadelphia, June 6.—Thirty-four venerable business firms belonging to the association of centenary firms and corporations of the United States will hold a reunion dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford tonight. The first dinner was held in the old Bellevue May 4, 1893, at which time 25 firms which had been in business one hundred years or more were enrolled as members. There are no annual dues, and the reunions are held only at rare intervals. Of the present members twenty-one are Pennsylvania firms, and the majority of these are in Philadelphia.

Father and Son Are Living Veterans.

There are perhaps very few instances in which father and son served in the Confederacy and both still live, but there is one such case in Harnett county. Mr. Jacob Holder and his son, Mr. Ripley Holder, entered in Company H, 50th Regiment N. C. troops. One of them enlisted in 1862 the other in 1863, and both live and are on the pension roll. Mr. Jacob Holder is quite feeble, being near 90 years old. There were several such instances in this county two years ago, but there is only one now. One by one they are passing over, steadily the eternal camp is growing. Ere long—tap—and all will be asleep.—Lillington News.

Jacob Tatum, of Davie county, who graduated at the A. and M. College in Raleigh last week, has a record that deserves to be perpetuated and held up as an example to others. Tatum is an orphan and was a country lad without means and probably without influential friends. He wanted to go to the A. and M. College and he made arrangements to work his way through. He was there five years and his total expenses were $736.82—an average of $147.36 annually. He made every cent of the money to pay his way—board, clothes and all—by working about the college, and leaves the institution free from debt. Glory to Jacob Tatum, of Davie. He's the kind that will succeed. He didn't borrow the money and leave his sureties to pay it, as some of the collegemen have done; and he isn't leaving school cramped by debt. He was not ashamed to work while in school and pay his way. Agam, honor to Jacob Tatum. If there isn't something out of the common in him we shall be disappointed.—Stateville Landmark.

THE TRAINING SCHOOL.

Matter Now With State Board.
 Mr. R. W. King, chairman of the board of county commissioners, returned from Raleigh today, being the only one of the delegation from here to get back, and he left Raleigh Wednesday evening. He says all the towns competing for the Eastern Carolina training school put in their bids with the State board of education and the different delegates were heard as to the claims of respective towns. The boards decided that nothing in connection with the bids would be made public until they had visited the towns and inspected the sites offered. It is known that Greenville made the highest cash bid, with Washington second and Elizabeth City third.

The House of Mourning.

The Saviour taught that they that mourn are blessed. They shall be comforted. Others have as much cause to mourn; but sorrow is unpleasant, and they put it away. This is a busy age, and we have no time for sorrow. This is a joyous optimistic age; we have no toleration of grief. Our mothers read sad stories, our fathers sang sad songs; but now the minor key is avoided in music and even in novels. It is strange that with all our light-heartedness we hold to the fashion of wearing mourning for the dead—a fashion that can hardly be regarded as in good taste or altogether consistent with the Christian faith.
 It is not wholesome to shut ourselves away from the world's sorrow. We should at least know something of that burden He bore who carried the load of human woe. If there is no grief in our repentance, there can be no joy in our pardon. Where there is no mourning there is no comforting. He was a true philosopher who said: "It is better to go to the house of mourning than to the house of feasting." If we help others bear their sorrows, our own will be lighter when they come. The comfort we find for others waits for us.—Ex.

Raise in Postmasters' Salary.

Sixty-five towns North Carolina will receive a raise in postmasters' salary beginning July 1st, according to reports sent out from Washington. Greenville is in the list of towns named, the increase here being from $1,800 to $1,900. We are glad of this, for it shows that the business of the office is increasing. Besides this, Postmaster Flanagan deserves all that comes his way, for he is one of the best.

Marriage at Scotland Neck.

Miss Helen C. Perry, daughter of Mr. J. A. Perry and sister of Mrs. J. F. Brinkley, of Greenville, was married to Rev. J. K. Henderson, Tuesday morning, at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. C. Josey, in Scotland Neck, by Rev. G. T. Lumpkin. Miss Helen Brinkley, of Greenville, was maid of honor.

Trouble Settled.

Cable to Reflector.
 Liverpool, June 6.—The steamship differences have been adjusted and the threatened reduction of fares will not be made.

The Oxford asylum singing class did not make Greenville on this trip.

Saint John's Day Celebration at the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

In the great oak grove at the Orphan Asylum, on Saturday, June 22nd, 1907, the annual celebration of Saint John's Day will be held by the Masons of the State.
 A special communication of the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina will be called.
 The Oxford Orphan Asylum Association, composed of former girls and boys of the institution, has planned to hold its second meeting.
 Grand Master Francis D. Winston has appointed Past Grand Master, F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, orator for the occasion.
 The children of the Oxford Orphan Asylum will assist in carrying out the interesting program of the day.
 A hearty invitation is extended to the good people of the State to be present.
 A large attendance is expected.
 Many bring baskets and enjoy an old-fashioned picnic dinner in the grove.
 Barbecue dinner, lunches and refreshments will be for sale on the grounds.
 The Seaboard R'y will, in all probability, operate excursion trains from Raleigh, Durham and Weldon to Oxford.
 Other roads will likely give special rates.

Fine Trip to Norfolk.

Capt. Ola Forbe's new yacht, the Eagle, will leave for Norfolk Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The trip will be via Roanoke island and through the Dismal swamp canal and will be delightful. Those wishing to take the trip should see Capt. Forbe at once.

Work of Mob.

Cable to Reflector.
 Shanghai, June 6.—This morning a mob destroyed the mission station at Chuan near Thibt.

An unusual scene was witnessed in the court room Thursday morning when Mr. J. M. Mooring, a policeman here, was ordered before Judge Neal and warned not to follow the practice that seems to have prevailed here for some time. The ordinances, a number of them, have penalties for their violation attached thereto. The practice has been for the policemen to collect this penalty or fine without the formality of a trial. This, Judge Neal said, was a violation of the law and the policemen were warned not to do so again.—Snow Hill Laconic.

Except with the boys Greenville has escaped baseball fever this season.

Haywood Dail says it looks so much like Greenville he is going to put out an extra kiln of brick.

Raleigh papers failed to come through on the noon train today and Greenville people never wanted to see them worse.

THURSDAY JUNE 6th 1907.

Some of the anxious want to know what the president will do when he gets out of his present office. Just now he seems to be planning nature study.

Mr. Hearst is accused of being hunting for Populists to reorganize them in a party of another name. He has set himself a difficult task, for they are hard to find.

Greenville drew number seven in the turn to go before the State board of education in the Eastern training school hearing and had eleven representatives present. That is "come 7, come 11." If that don't win the school there is nothing in lucky figures.

In this age when the spirit of commercialism is so rife, other things being almost lost to view in the mad pursuit after the dollar, the announcement of a protracted religious meeting should arrest attention. Greenville has many good people who live upright lives, are sympathetic, kind hearted, ready to extend the hand of charity and go to the help of others when needed. Yet with all this, for the last few years the town has not had a genuine revival of religion, though the churches have made several efforts in that direction. Something is wrong, but just what is hard to determine. It is not because there are no people who need saving, for they are numerous. Possibly this spirit of commercialism, which has even reached the churches themselves, has caused Christians to forget the fact that it is their duty to impress the unsaved with the need of personal salvation, without which they are lost. This town needs a religious awakening. An opportunity for it is at hand and it is time our people were doing some serious thinking as to their duty.

THE BUILDING AND LOAN.

Charlotte is the best exponent North or South, of the value of the building and loan association to a community, and The Chronicle has never hesitated to give the building and loan association advertising with a free hand, for in so doing, it has always felt that it was engaged in a good work. Now for a few general facts to be followed by some of a more local nature. There are now subscribed in the building and loan associations of North Carolina 100,000 shares of stock, with a par value of $10,000,000, and $5 per capita, as compared with $1,750,000, or $1 per capita, four years ago. There are in the United States $3,000 building and loan associations, with a membership of 2,000,000 and subscribed shares of a par value $650,000,000.

In Wilmington there are thirteen building and loan associations. In Charlotte there are three, but one of these three, alone, the Mechanics Perpetual, does more business than all of Wilmington's thirteen. The record of this association is typical of the growth of the building and loan business in Charlotte. The Mechanics Perpetual now has in force 19,500 shares at a par value of $1,950,000. Its authorized capital of $2,000,000 is so near taken up, that during July it will increase its charter to $5,000,000. Three thousand, six hundred shares, at a par value of $360,000 was subscribed for the last series. As the association issues two series a year, if that rate continues, it will issue within a year 7,200 new shares at a par value per year of $720,000—weekly receipts, $6,500.

Another feature is the increase in the average size of the loans. This has heretofore been $900, but the industrial and commercial people are beginning to find it profitable to borrow from the building and loan associations, and applications are now coming in for loans in sums of $10,000 and $20,000. Much of this increased recognition of the value of the building and loan is due to the efforts of the State League, of which Mr. S. Wittkowsky and Mr. E. L. Keele, both of Charlotte, have been president and secretary and treasurer, since its organization four years ago. Charlotte could not have been anything like the city it now is, but for the building and loan.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Dr. Wiley, the chemist expert of the agricultural department, advises everybody to refrain from chewing their meat during Republican times, a good many people are refraining from chewing very much of it.—Wilmington Star.

Mr. Howell's English.

His use of words which readers will find a little odd by parts naturally, became dear Mr. Howell's is an American and knows Oxford only as a visitor—in such sentences as "we were flown with the beauty of the scene," "a blue sky thickly archipelagoed with white brown clouds," "an office lady darkled behind her office window," "the type of sage eternized by Mr. Hardy." But quite delightful, they will murmur, is that passage wherein he describes how once at dinner "a feeling of the long continuity of English things suddenly rose in a tidal wave and swept me away from the soup that would be so cold before I could get back."—London Chronicle.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is not a local but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. GENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

When some people tell the truth others are unable to recognize it.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

And a good-looking detective isn't necessarily a good looker.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidney, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A weeks treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

There are many large tails connected with small fish.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol goes directly to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the digestive organs, supplies the natural digestive juices and digests what you eat. It is a simple, clean, pure, harmless remedy. Don't neglect your stomach. Take a little Kodol after each meal and see how good it makes you feel. Money back if it fails! Sold by John L. Wooten.

It's useless to forgive an injury if you can't forgive it.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by Jhon L. Wooten.

Beware of mad dogs and back-biting people.

Mothers who give their children Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup invariably endorse it. Children like it because the taste is so pleasant. Contains honey and tar. It is the original laxative cough syrup and is unrivaled for the relief of croup. Drives the cold out through the bowels. Conforms to the Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A farmer committed suicide the other day right in the face of dollar wheat.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50cents. Sold by Bryans Drug Store.

A raid on the price of Pullman upper berths should be followed by one directed against the lower berth.

Get a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" at our store. If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this clever Coffee imitation. Dr. Shoop has closely matched Old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real Coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. Made in a minute. No tedious wait. You will surely like it. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co.

The farmer in the northwest says wheat never gets as high as a dollar until it has reached the elevator.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store.

"WORK" IN SCOTLAND.

A New Yorker who crosses the Atlantic several times a year says that last year he was in Dundee, Scotland, when he found himself in need of shoes. On entering the first shop he came to he was surprised to find that patrons were expected to sit in an ordinary stiff high backed chair and that there was no rest for the feet—nothing, in fact, in the way of accommodation. After making his purchase and as he was about to leave the shop he said to the clerk: "In American shoe stores there is a rest placed on the floor in front of each customer, and on this rest he places his foot. Just back of this rest is a seat on which sits the clerk as he fits the customer."

The clerk listened respectfully to all this, then, leaning confidentially toward the American, he said: "That's all very well in America, sir, but here our employers do not like to see us sitting down when we work."—Success Magazine.

Battles of Peace.

A traveler in the wine growing districts of France is sometimes startled by the sudden thunder of cannon, as though a great artillery battle were in progress. Upon various hilltops he will see farmers working like trained gunners about their smoking pipes, apparently engaged in a deadly duel with another battery upon a hill across the valley. Investigation will disclose, however, that all the commotion has been caused by the appearance of a lowering cloud, which the weatherwise would at once designate as a hail-storm, the greatest of all the vineyard's foes. The artillery fire is to dissipate the cloud, and it has been found to most successfully accomplish this purpose. There are not less than 500 cannon of all sizes mounted in the vine growing districts of France. The expense of this method of defense is not great, as old smoothbore cannon and black powder are used.

Omnium-Gatherum.

Dr. Molenaar of Munich in a recent letter spoke of Esperanto as an "omnium-gatherum" of all tongues. The inventor of that curious compound term used by the Munich correspondent is almost certainly lost in antiquity. Writing to his wife in 1776, John Adams, the future president of the United States, likened his letters to "the dish which is sometimes called omnium-gatherum," and added, "This is the first time, I believe, that those two words were ever put together in writing." But Adams was at least two centuries and more out. Dr. Murray's dictionary gives an instance of "omnium-gatherum" as early as 1530, and in the seventeenth century it seems to have been the name of a kind of scrambling dance. "Omnigatherum" in one word was an early variant.—Chicago News.

Where History is Repeated.

Not long ago a case of history repeating itself was noted. A young man named George Washington was brought before the police court in Bendigo, Australia, and fined for applying his ax to a tree belonging to King Edward VII., the magistrate smilingly expressing regret at his inability to forgive. This week's mail records another curious conviction at Bendigo for illegally cutting down timber on crown lands. This time the culprit's name was John Wesley. If the next offender should answer to the name of William Shakespeare or John Hampden or Bernard Shaw we shall begin to suspect that the Bendigo axmen have struck a gold mine of new humor.—London Chronicle.

Origin of the Railroad Check.

The invention of the system of baggage checking belongs to John Palmer, who died poor not long ago in Michigan. When a young man Palmer was a fiddler and took charge of the hats and wraps of those who came to the dancing parties. He gave numbered checks for them. Some railroad men attending the dances appropriated the idea, and in a little while the system was adopted all over the country.—New York American.

Her Majesty's Etiquette.

Queen Alexandra of England is strict on such points of etiquette as make it a breach of decorum, for instance, to hand anything but new and unused coin, fresh from the mint, to the consort of the British sovereign. To make love to her majesty is punishable by the law of Britain with death unless, of course, one happens to be the king.

General Botha and the English.

Botha is enjoying that magnanimity which among Englishmen is subordinate to reasons of state. Had Botha been taken prisoner during the war the English would have shot him. But now that he has recognized their sovereignty they acclaim him and receive him magnificently.—Paris Libre Parole.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured. MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me. D. KAUBLE, Nevada, O.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason mothers and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison masks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must be said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Origin of a Common Saying. In a volume of essays written by an English author in 1815 there is the story of a boy who by the offer of liberation was induced to turn thief. A man who desired to change his name. The promised reward was not made, and the boy was disgraced. He was then ordered an apprentice to a shoemaker. He was an excellent worker.

CONDENSED STORIES.

A Rather Neat Retort From a Witness Under Cross Examination.

In a case recently tried in Fall River before Judge Bell, Dr. George L. Walton of Boston appeared as a witness for the defense.

The plaintiff claimed that he had been severely injured by a car leaving the rails and that he had suffered a fracture of the spine for over a year.

Dr. Walton testified that he had examined the plaintiff and that in his opinion the symptoms that the plaintiff complained of were within his own control and were not genuine.

"DO YOU BELIEVE THIS TO BE A GENUINE SYMPTOM?"

Upon cross examination Waldo Reed of Fall River took each symptom separately and made each into a question which ended with, "Do you believe that to be a genuine symptom, doctor?" And to each question Dr. Walton said, "No."

The star question was reached, and Reed's voice trembled with emotion as he asked, "Dr. Walton, when pressure was applied to this man's back between his shoulder blades tears came to his eyes, do you believe this to be a genuine symptom?"

"No," said Walton.

"Dr. Walton, can a man make tears come to his eyes without a cause?"

"Yes!" said Walton. "I've seen lawyers do it in court."—Boston Herald.

Ghost of His Youth Arises.

County Judge Norman S. Dike of Brooklyn was thrown into something akin to panic the other afternoon when a friend showed him a college paper of recent date containing a poem written by him when he was an undergraduate at Brown university twenty years ago. The verses read:

FROM JUNE TO JUNE,
Two lovers 'mong the woody brake
Were rowing—happy pair!
They drifted far upon the lake
To get the sun and air.

A year has fled. Again they float,
But one is now the pair,
And three are riding in the boat,
They bring their son and heir.

Brooklyn's well known bachelor jurist seemed to pale when he read the lines.

"The ghosts! To dig that from its grave!" he said. "Heavens! If this becomes known my political future is ruined!"—New York Times.

Only Little Slit Left.

Mrs. Lucia Ames Mead of Boston aroused a good deal of comment with her recent declaration that tin soldiers had a bad effect on children, inciting in them a love for war.

Mrs. Mead, an engaging author and a noted lecturer, was well qualified to speak on this matter, for she has for a number of years studied carefully and intelligently the child mind.

In the course of investigations she has come upon many quaint instances of the peculiar reasoning of children. The other day she said:

"I once told a little girl that some folks claimed the moon was inhabited. The child sneered.

"Rubbish," she said. "It can't be. What would the people up there do when there was only a little slit left?"—Washington Post.
