GREENVILLE TO GET THE SCHOOL.

Practically no Doubt About This Being Decision.

It now seems to be generally conceded that Greenville will get the training school and representatives of some of the other leading towns in the contest are ready to admit the fact. Greenville is considered a good location and the offer made by that town is far in excess of that made by any other town. It is but natural for delegates from some of the towns to be disappointed but they are generous enough to say that Greenville offered the largest amount and is therefore entitled to the school. The State board of education hoped for some large offers, but Greenville surpassed expectations and the offer made was indeed surprising and especially to some of the towns in the contest. Although the board met in secret session yesterday the amounts offered seem to be pretty generally known.

From what can be learned the offers made were as follows: Greenville, $100,000 and a tract of land containing twenty-five acres; Washington, $75,000 and site; Elizabeth City, $62,500 and site; Edenton, $25,000 and site; New Bern, $25,000 and site, Rocky Mount, $25,000 and site, and Tarboro, $30,000 and site.

Each town offered some excellent site for the school, the largest tract of land offered being two hundred acres. It is said that an unusually good site is offered at Greenville in connection with the $100,000 offer. The town of Greenville submitted eight propositions.

It was nearly 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the last delegation went before the board of education. No decision is to be announced by the board until the different towns are visited and the proposed sites inspected. --Raleigh Times.

Sunday Rest.

They rest most happily on Sunday who carry an element of rest into the experiences of every day—that rare blossom of heart's ease which helps to make every burden light. It is often inevitable that we should work all the week till Saturday night up to the limit of our capacity; but the wisest of us keep, even in our busiest and most interrupted hours, a little reservoir of peace in our heart's shrine. The noise and tumult beat at the doors but they enter there. One of the offices of a well-spent Sunday is to replenish this inner, central reservoir of peace for the use of all the other busy days. These other days drain and exhaust it. Then the merciful rest day comes around and fills it full again. Those who allow themselves no real day of rest and quietness of heart are making too wearing and dreary work of life. The wear and tear of the machinery goes on too fast. Those who lead idle lives can never know what a true rest is like. Their machinery is rusted out and unused. The joy of Sunday grows out of contrast with the experience of the working days. When this balance of work and repair exists, when the soul is fed on Sunday for the hardest trials and most wearing needs of the soul, the whole week becomes religious as it should for every Christian man. And such a religion comes to its most joyful expression on its own free day. --Boston Transcript.

Protracted Meeting.

Beginning tomorrow a protracted meeting will be held for some days in the Memorial Baptist church. Rev. W. F. Fry, of Goldsboro, who has the reputation of being a preacher of great force, will arrive Monday evening to assist the pastor, Rev. J. E. Ayscue in the meeting.

FARMVILLE AND SPRING GREEN.

Doings in this Part of the County.

Farmville, N. C., June 7.---We have in our neighborhood a 10-year-old boy—Ola Joyner, son of Jason Joyner—who takes his father's cows to and from the pasture every morning. The distance is nearly a mile, and instead of having a pony to ride this boy takes one of his cows for a mount. Without saddle or spurs, he rides his cow with as much grace as Gen. Fitzhugh Lee did his dapple gray when marching through Cuba.

Thomas Willoughby, of Beaver Dam, who has been a sufferer for some time, and went to a hospital without obtaining any beneficial results, recently came to Green Spring. After trying the water for awhile he says he is much improved.

In a few days, when everything can be put in readiness, the date for the big picnic at Green Spring will be announced. It will be a basket picnic and everybody can bring dinner with them, as there will be no committee to serve dinner on the ground. Those who do not bring dinner can find plenty of barbecue and other refreshments on sale. There will be dancing, a game of baseball and other amusements to make the day enjoyable. A prominent speaker will deliver an address.

The business men of Farmville—and this town has some of the best to be found—are awakening to the benefits of using printers' ink. Your correspondent has arranged with a number of them to have a regular advertising department in the weekly edition of The Reflector, and they will show the people that Farmville is a good town to trade in.

The Hypothetical Question.

"Miss Prittily," said the young lawyer, with the high forehead and the Henry Clay forelock, "let me ask you a hypothetical question. Suppose that a young man of excellent habits and increasing income—a young man who believe himself fully capable of making a woman happy—were to appear before a young woman who had eyes of rare and radiant luster and hair of the texture and glory of spun gold; whose lips were more perfect than Hogarto's line of beauty; whose cheeks held a tint that put to shame the magnificent pink of the rose petal—a young woman whose culture and charm easily placed her immeasurably above all other women in the world, and he were to ask this young woman if she would—"

"Oh, Mr. Blackstone!" she whispered, sinking into his arms. "Yes."—Judge.

Pity the Bachelor.

Bachelors should not be taxed. The poor devil who has never tasted the sweets of matrimony, who has never known what it is to have her waiting for him, who has never gathered them about his knees and listened to them as they sing such sweet and tender melodies as "Everybody Works But Father," who has never been called upon to heal the injuries of the wounded doll, who has never risen in the night, to furnish a remedy for the aching interior of the lilliputian anatomy, who has never had his collar and shirt front mussed by the soiled hands of loving progeny, this chap ought not to be taxed. In loneliness, he is every day expiating his failure; in solitude he is his own worst enemy. In all that life holds he is an outlaw with a price upon his head. Pity the poor bachelor; don't tax him.—Memphis Scimitar.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Notes From our Hustling Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C., June 8.

Miss Dora Cox left Friday morning for Asheville where she will attend the Southern conference of the Y. W. C. A. which convenes there. She will represent the Y. W. C. A. of the Baptist University for women. She has been elected president for next session.

Mrs. J. E. Buck returned home Friday morning from Kingston, where she had been in the hospital for some time. We are glad to learn that she is improving rapidly.

Misses Kate and Lola Chapman returned from the University commencement Thursday evening. They report a delightful trip.

Rev. A. McCullen preached two excellent sermons at the Methodist church Friday and Friday night. He held a regular conference.

The new gates have come at last, which will add no little to the convenience of those coming and going from town.

Mrs. Rena Munford, of Ayden, spent several days visiting relatives here this week.

The class from the Oxford orphan asylum gave us a most delightful concert in the auditorium of the academy Thursday night. Each one showed careful training, even though several of them were small tots. The proceeds were $75.00. The orphans have a large place in the hearts of our people in Winterville.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry and family left Friday afternoon for Siler City where they will spend several days at his old home. He then expects to take a special course during the summer at Chicago University.

The Mothers' club spent a most delightful day at the hospitable home of Mrs. Maggie Butt, about one and a half miles from town. About 10 o'clock the buggies began to arrive, loaded with mothers, accompanied by their children. At each arrival a well filled basket was taken to the dining room until they should be needed later.

Under the shade of the large oaks in the yard, the young folks and children were engaged in party games and laughter until the long tables made their sudden appearance in one corner of the yard, heavily laden with such delicious viands as the mothers of this club know exactly how to prepare. Of course the games were changed for a short time.

At 8 o'clock Mrs. Butt, the president, called the club to order and the usual programme was carried out. At the conclusion of this, all took their departure for their respective homes, declaring it to be a day most delightfully spent. Mrs. Butt will have no trouble in securing the mothers' meeting at her home any time she wishes it.

F. A. Edmundson came in Thursday from several days on the road for the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Mrs. J. R. Cooper left for Goldsboro Friday to visit her aunt, who is very sick.

Misses Florence and Rowland Cobb returned to their home near Conetoe, after spending some time with their sister, Mrs. J. L. Jackson.

Rev. A. McCullen left this morning for Greenville.

Miss Sallie Edwards, of Greenville, is visiting Mrs. Charlie Aldrige.

Greenville Girl Wins Prize.

For the last six months Miss Nora Blow, of Greenville, has been at St. Leo's hospital in Greensboro taking a course as trained nurse. She is a member of the intermediate class and recently prizes were awarded to those whose work has been most efficient. The first prize, a handsome hypodermic set, was awarded to Miss Blow.

Weather.

Showers and thunderstorms tonight and Sunday.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, our fellow worker, R. S. Evans, has been called from labor to rest by the Great Head of the Church, who calls away His workmen in His own good time and carries on His work by other hands, and

Whereas, Brother Evans was a faithful and efficient member of the Board of Stewards of the Jarvis Memorial Church at the time of his death, therefore, resolved:

1st. That we give grateful thanks to God for his devoted Christian life and faithful service as a Steward in the Church of God, where he always did his work gladly and effectively.

2nd. That we extend our sympathy to the bereaved wife and children now left without the presence and helping hand of husband and father in these years of their great need. May the Father's blessings be upon them.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent the family and also a copy be sent the Reflector for publication.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Adopted by Withlacooche Tribe 35 I. O. E. M.

Whereas the Great Spirit has seen fit in His divine providence to take from our brother J. N. Hart, his beloved wife, be it resolved:

1st. That we extend to Brother Hart our heartfelt sympathy in this his sad hour of bereavement, and assure him that in some measure we feel his loss.

2nd. That we commend him to the Great Spirit, who doeth all things well, as being the only true comforter in such sorrow.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be spread on our minutes; a copy be sent to Brother Hart, and a copy be sent to The Daily Reflector for publication.

Shortest Hour in the Day.

"What is your shortest hour in the day?" asked a business man of an acquaintance. "Don't say you have none. You have, although you may not know it. Everybody has. Of course, reckoned by actual measurement each hour is composed of sixty minutes yet notwithstanding that chronological exactness the hours vary in length. My shortest hour is from 2 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon. I find upon inquiry that that is the fleetest period for many people. In my case so swiftly do those sixty minutes hurry by that I try to crowd into them as many of the disagreeable yet inevitable things of life as I possibly can. If I have to interview a bore, I see him then; if I have to visit the dentist, I do it then. That hour is bound to slip away quickly; no matter what happens, therefore the agony of disagreeable scenes seems of shorter duration."—New York Sun.

Died Suddenly.

Mrs. W. B. Strickland, of Beaver Dam township, died very suddenly Thursday. Our informant says she died in about half an hour after being taken sick. She was a daughter of Mr. B. F. Corbett.

Let's Celebrate.

Greenville might very properly celebrate the coming 4th of July. There are several things the town and county feel good enough over to come together in a day of rejoicing.

MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD.

Vacancies Filled—Music to be Added.

The board of trustees of the graded school held an important meeting in the superintendent's office Friday night. All the vacancies in the faculty were filled. The two new teachers are Miss Edith Payne, of Graham, and Miss Betty Wright, of Clinton. Miss Payne will succeed Miss Sweet, and Miss Wright will take the English work in the upper grades.

The board decided that it would be useless to make further effort to employ a male principal for the coming year, as practically all the men who would be at all suitable are employed. The demand for more men in the schools was never greater than it is today, and certainly they were never fewer.

The trustees decided to establish and maintain a department of music in connection with the school. Provision will be made for a suitable room, a piano secured, and the very best teacher employed who can be procured. The rates of tuition will be such as to make the department self-supporting, or practically so, but no charges higher than those usually prevailing in Greenville will be made. The board of trustees took this step because they believe it a wise one, and also because a number of people have requested it of them. They hope to have a reasonable patronage by the people. Any one desiring to know more of this feature of the school work would do well to consult Superintendent Smith or Dr. R. L. Carr, F. C. Harding or D. C. Moore, the music committee.

Sight singing will be taught in the grades once each week. It is hoped that in this way, the musical instincts of all the children may be developed. This is the plan of music teaching in a great many towns, and we believe it will prove as beneficial here as it has elsewhere, and in so, the results will be of much cultural value to the children in the school.

Tunstall-Frisbee.

A beautiful but quiet marriage took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Frisbee, Belhaven, N. C., Tuesday morning, June the fourth, at eight o'clock when their daughter, Miss Phroline Bowman Frisbee, was made the wife of Mr. Claude Dameron Tunstall, of Greenville. Rev. W. O. Winfield performed the ceremony.

The bride was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Lida Wilkinson, and the groom by Mr. K. W. Cobb, of Greenville. The bride carried a bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. She was becomingly gowned in a light tan tailor suit, with hat and gloves to match.

The happy couple left on the early train for New York, Washington City and Jamestown. On their return a reception will be given at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Tunstall, in West Greenville, Thursday night, June the 13th, 1907.

SATURDAY JUNE 8th 1907.

Candidates for governor and for commissioner of labor and printing are numerous. Some of them had as well make up their minds to stay home.

Greenville will send the others an invitation to come to the laying of the corner stone, and we want you all to come and help us have a big time.

All of these people who are arguing that women should be especially protected, because they are more delicate than men, should take a look around at the girls who are wearing peek a boo waists while men are shivering in their winter flannels—Durham Sun.

Looks like they are about to make a stir out of one of Speaker Cannon's speeches on his recent visit to North Carolina. He is quoted as saying things complimentary to the South and her method of handling the race problem, that he did not want his friends in the North to know that he had said. If a man tries to be two sided he may expect to get in a dilemma before he quits.

No battle-scarred flag at the Richmond reunion could have been more a reminder of a generation that is rapidly passing away than the appearance of several old time negroes in the parade. The marching side by side of former master and former slave, evidenced the tender feeling that still exists for the faithful negro in the South. The old-time darkey remains the object of gentlest care and admiration.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Speaking about giving in taxes, we have formed the conclusion, from some observation, that as a rule, the man who owns from five cents to fifteen hundred and two thousand dollars, is the man who gives in the most accurate list, with the fairest valuation, and therefore pays more nearly his just amount of the taxes than men worth more than he is. The more money a man is worth it seems, the more he tries to dodge taxes. When he gets to be a millionaire, he pays nathing.—Lexington Dispatch.

Cat Yearly Adops Chicks.
 Following its usual spring custom, a cat owned by George Smith, of Watchung avenue, West Orange, N. J., is foster mother of several chicks which she abducted from a setting hen. The cat lost three kittens nine years ago, and three chicks unwillingly took their places in her heart. Since then the cat has cared for three chicks every spring.
 At first the mother hen objected to the abduction of the chicks, but the cat walked away with the trio and placed them in a box by the kitchen range, where she constantly looks after them.—New York Herald.

When Girls Forget.
 It is a common fault when girls are together to exchange little confidences—yes, a fault, for confidences can be greatly abused, and it leads to some very embarrassing things sometimes. Things repeated, and the girl who tells little things she has been told, sometimes told not to act; she is the recipient of all her confidences, her sorrows, and joys. Then does the friend impart the news to one of her confidants, and there is a misunderstanding. It is lovely to find two girls who are bosom friends, yet it is really better when they are companionable with a number and not wholly confidential with any. Confidentiality can cause a lot of trouble. There are some girls who never want but one girl friend. They cling to that one girl with tendences once disclosed have fairy wings and travel fast; when they return home they are wretched little affairs and have so completely changed that the owner does not even recognize the story as being her own original confidence. The truest, loveliest and best girls are those who, when they say they will keep a promise, do so. It is said woman cannot do this; but women can and do, and even when the ties are broken, do not tell the little secrets told them in confidence. This kind of a girl is a jewel.—Exchange.

Origin of Kissing the Book.
 The exact origin of kissing the book in English courts, though modern, is obscure. It is not, I should say, a matter of legal obligation, but seems to be merely a custom dating from the middle or end of the eighteenth century. If a witness claims to follow the law according to Coke and to take his "corporal oath" by touching the book, who shall refuse him his right? The "kissing" act seems akin indeed to what the "fancy" call somewhat unpleasantly a saliva custom, which in modern life exists in very few forms, though many of the lower classes still spit on a coin for luck.—Cornhill Magazine.

The Well Knit College Chap.
 Ethel's big sister has an ardent admirer who is a college athlete—a big, broad shouldered chap. Ethel overheard her sister say that he was well knit. The next evening when the young man called Ethel went into the parlor to entertain him.
 "Do you know what sister says about you?" demanded Ethel.
 "No. Something nice, I hope," said the young man.
 "Oh, yes; it's very nice," replied Ethel. "She says you are beautifully crocheted."—Judge.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
 by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
 We will give One hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

 For Spring Planting at Cowart & Wooten's The Druggists

...the need of a pill take a little Early Riser. Small pill, safe pill, easy to take. Pleasant and effective. Drives away nervousness. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Supreme happiness never-sprout when planted in the soil of hate.

For scratches, burns, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

You can not estimate the weight of the fish by the size of the hook.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

There is only one little letter between speculation and speculation.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A weeks treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

A lot of people never think of repentance until their sins are made public.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol goes directly to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the digestive organs, supplies the natural digestive juices and digests what you eat. It is a simple, clean, pure, harmless remedy. Don't neglect your stomach. Take a little Kodol after each meal and see how good it makes you feel. Money back if it fails! Sold by John L. Wooten.

Investigation will often disclose that a greasy 'jumper' covers a broadcloth heart.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by John L. Wooten.

If people try to keep you from 't there's a heap of fun in doing things you don't like to do.

Mothers who give their children Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup invariably endorse it. Children like it because the taste is so pleasant. Contains honey and tar. It is the original laxative cough syrup and is unrivaled for the relief of croup. Drives the cold out through the bowels. Conforms to the Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by John L. Wooten.

When a girl will admit she's in love with a fellow she isn't.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50cents. Sold by Bryans Drug Store.

It would be nice to be rich, so as never to be criticised by the minister.

Get a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" at our store. If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this clever Coffee imitation. Dr. Shoop has closely matched Old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real Coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. Made in a minute. No tedious wait. You will surely like it. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co.

A nice, comfortable sort of wife to have is one who doesn't want to buy your ties for you.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Bock on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store.

CONDENSED STORIES.

A Rather Neat Retort From a Witness Under Cross Examination.

In a case recently tried in Fall River before Judge Bell, Dr. George L. Walton of Boston appeared as a witness for the defense. The plaintiff claimed that he had been severely injured by a car leaving the rails and that he had suffered as a result of this injury for over two years and was still suffering. Dr. Walton testified that he had examined the plaintiff and that in his opinion the symptoms that the plaintiff complained of were within his own control and were not genuine.

Upon cross examination Waldo Reed of Fall River took each symptom separately and made each into a question which ended with, "Do you believe that to be a genuine symptom, doctor?" And to each question Dr. Walton said, "No."

The star question was reached, and Reed's voice trembled with emotion as he asked, "Dr. Walton, when pressure was applied to this man's back between his shoulder blades tears came to his eyes, do you believe this to be a genuine symptom?"

"No," said Walton.

"Dr. Walton, can a man make tears come to his eyes without a cause?"

"H'm!" said Walton. "I've seen lawyers do it in court."—Boston Herald.

Ghost of His Youth Arises.

County Judge Norman S. Dike of Brooklyn was thrown into something akin to panic the other afternoon when a friend showed him a college paper of recent date containing a poem written by him when he was an undergraduate at Brown university twenty years ago. The verses read:

FROM JUNE TO JUNE.

Two lovers 'mong the weedy brake
Were rowing—happy pair!
They drifted far upon the lake
To get the sun and air.

A year has fled. Again they float,
But one is now the pair,
And three are riding in the boat.
They bring their son and heir.

Brooklyn's well known bachelor jurist seemed to pale when he read the lines.

"The ghouls! To dig that from its grave!" he said. "Heavens! If this becomes known my political future is ruined!"—New York Times.

Only Little Slit Left.

Mrs. Lucia Ames Mead of Boston aroused a good deal of comment with her recent declaration that tin soldiers had a bad effect on children, inciting in them a love for war.

Mrs. Mead, an engaging author and a noted lecturer, was well qualified to speak on this matter, for she has for a number of years studied carefully and intelligently the child mind.

In the course of investigations she has come upon many quaint instances of the peculiar reasoning of children. The other day she said:

"I once told a little girl that some folks claimed the moon was inhabited. The child sneered.

"'Rubbish,' she said. 'It can't be. What would the people up there do when there was only a little slit left?'"—Washington Post.

"Old Glory."

As all young folks know, Old Glory is a pet name for our national flag, but do they know who christened it so? An apparently authentic account gives William Driver of Salem, Mass., the honor of being the first to use the name. He was in 1831 captain of the brig Charles Doggett, and, being about to start on a voyage to the south Pacific, he was presented with a large American flag for his vessel. When it was sent up aloft and broke out to the air, Captain Driver christened it Old Glory.—Chicago News.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach and digestive tract, nervous dyspepsia and gasarr of the stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured. MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me. D. KAUBLE, Nevada, O.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupifying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, especially with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

When to Go to Alaska.

There is an element of surprise in the advice of Dr. Henry Gannett of the United States geological survey, "If you are old go to Alaska by all means, but if you are young wait." Mr. Gannett gives this reason for his advice: "The scenery of Alaska is much grander than anything else of the kind in the world and it is not well to fill one's capacity for enjoyment by seeing the finest sights first."

Shoes of Whale Hide.

Newfoundland whalers, seized with a spirit of enterprising economy, are reported to be attempting to place whale hide on the market for the manufacture of whale leather. It is not surprising that such an attempt should be made. It must vex the spirit of a whaler of well balanced mind to see, after all the hardship and danger of his calling, an enormous and altogether disproportionate bulk of his quarry cast away. From a large right whale of say forty-five to fifty feet in length about 250 barrels of oil and one and three-quarter tons of baleen, or whalebone, may be obtained. The remainder of the gigantic carcass, which may be as much as fifty tons, has hitherto been considered useless. The average whale hide if laid out on the ground would cover a surface of nearly 1,500 square feet, at which rate one whale, if its hide could be made into boots and shoes, would well stock a west end boot shop. -London Express.

Young Man Paralyzed.

Mr. W. M. Wilkinson suffered a stroke of paralysis, Friday, that involved his entire left side. He was over in Carolina town ship where the county convicts are at work, he being one of the guards of the camp. His brother Mr. C. L. Wilkinson, went over there last night and brought him to Greenville early this morning.

It is unusual that a person of Mr. Wilkinson's age, he is only 27, should have a stroke of paralysis. His condition today is quite serious, but he is getting along as well as could be expected. All hope he will soon recover.

Prof. McIver Goes to Wadesboro.

Prof. J. H. McIver, who was recently elected superintendent of the Wadesboro graded schools spent last Friday in Wadesboro and while here signified his acceptance of the position. Those of our citizens who met Prof. McIver were very much pleased with him, and the school trustees think they have secured the right man for the head of the school. It is expected that he will come to Wadesboro about the first of July to remain permanently. -Wadesboro Messenger.

Prof. McIver has been superintendent of the graded school at Farmville, and that town regrets to lose him.

Long and Loud.

A noted evangelist was preaching the other day in an uptown church. The family who entertained him had a son who was unusually fond of attending service. When his parents were ready little Charles flatly refused to go with them.

"I don't want to go to church," he declared.

"What's the matter?" asked the mother, much surprised, "are you ill?"

"No but I heard Doctor--before, and I don't like him," confessed the child.

"Oh, Charles, that's a wicked thing to say," gasped the mother. "Tell mother why?"

"Well," said Charles, "he preaches so long that I can't keep awake and he preaches so loud that I can't go to sleep." -Philadelphia Public Ledger.

A Fight the Vanderbilts Lost.

For years the Vanderbilts have been fighting the approach of business or apartment houses toward their residence in Fifth avenue, New York. They seem to have lost in the struggle, for a real estate man has bought a corner just south of the Vanderbilt mansion and will erect a twelve story apartment house. It has been estimated by competent authorities that within the last five or six years the Vanderbilts have spent between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 in protecting that part of Fifth avenue in the immediate vicinity of their residences from what they regard as undesirable forms of improvement.
