NO. 3878

GREENVILLE WINNER OF TRAINING SCHOOL.

A hard fought battle goes to the Progressive Capital of Pitt County. Greenville has won the location of the East Carolina Teachers' Training School after a long drawn out contest in which eight of the best towns in Eastern North Carolina participated. It was a contest worth winning, and that Greenville was chosen is proof that in Pitt county there is progress and prosperity, and a determination to succeed.

The decision came yesterday afternoon after the State Board of Education held a morning and afternoon session, and the news was heard with delight by Senator J. L. Fleming, ex-Senator F. G. James and County Superintendent of Public Instruction W. H. Ragsdale who were here in charge of the interests of Greenville and Pitt county, the town having voted $50,000 and the county 50,000 to secure the location of the school. The good news was at once wired to Greenville and other places in Pitt. The representatives of the places which had lost stood defeat gamely, and are not sore over the result.

The State Board of Education—there being present Governor Glenn, Lieut.-Governor Winston, Secretary of State Grimes, Auditor Dixon, Treasurer Lacy and Superintendent of Public Instruction Joyner, with Attorney-General Gilmer absent—during the morning session heard presented briefly the claims of Greenville, Kinston, Rocky Mount, and Washington, which also presented written bids, while written bids were also on hand from Edenton, Elizabeth City, New Bern and Tarboro.

For over an hour after this the Board was in executive session, and at 1:15 adjourned, one member saying, "We are all up in the air." It was learned that the choice had narrowed down between Kinston and Greenville, with three votes each, and that at one time Rocky Mount had received two votes. The Board met at three o'clock a rain and by four o'clock it was announced that Greenville had won. No report as to how the members voted could be obtained, but it is said that one member finally came over to Greenville, this giving it four votes to Kinston's two and winning for Greenville, the vote being then made unanimous. When the vote was a tie Governor Glenn as chairman, having voted as a member, of course declined to untie the knot. The first vote is said to have been Rocky Mount, 1; Kinston, 2; Greenville, 3.

To secure the location Greenville voted $50,000, Pitt county $50,000. From this $100,000 the expenses of the election are to be deducted and the cost of the site of 43 acres, at $200 an acre is to be deducted, this making the Greenville offer about $90,000 and a site, which is said to be a most eligible one.

The State Board of Education had before it eight propositions to vote upon, some of these double barreled ones. In brief these were as follows:

Edenton—$25,000 cash and 33 acres.

Greenville—$90,000 cash and a choice of four sites of from 25 to 43 acres.

Kinston—Two propositions; (1) $25,000 cash, $10,000 in lights and water, 87 acres, the Rhodes and Rountree buildings; (2) $61,000 cash, $10,000 in lights and water, 51 acres, the Rhodes and Rountree buildings.

New Bern—$25,100 cash, with sites ranging from 25 to 60 acres
Tarboro—$30,000 cash, $10,000 in lights and water for 10 years, and site of 46 acres.

Washington—$95,000 cash, and site of 150 acres and 200 acres.
Rocky Mount—$25,000 cash and site of 40 acres.

Elizabeth City—$62,500 cash and choice of six sites of from 25 to 45 acres.

Lieutenant Governor Winston made the announcement of the final outcome to an anxious company of representatives from the several contesting towns on the capitol grounds at 3:30 o'clock. Indicative of the good feeling prevailing among all the towns it was noticed that as soon as the announcement was made, the three Greenville representatives, Superintendent of Public Instruction W. H. Ragsdale, State Senator James L. Fleming and ex-Senator F. G. James, of Pitt county, were the recipients of cordial congratulations.

The truth is, the warmth of the hand slaking congratulations from Messrs. E. L. Daughtride, R. B. Davis, Jr., and W. S. Wilkerson, of Rocky Mount; J. W. Grainger and Plato Collins, of Kinston, and Superintendent Harry Howell, of Washington, all representatives of rival towns, was suggestive of a feeling of relief from a burden no less than philosophy under defeat.

To the credit of the Greenville representatives it can be truthfully said, that although their county of Pitt and town of Greenville had bid the remarkable cash price of nearly one hundred thousand dollars, they were jubilant as well as magnanimous in victory, and expressed the utmost satisfaction at having the privilege of showing the balance of the State, and the world that there would be no halting in enthusiasm, no failure to measure up to the exacting demands.

While Prof. Ragsdale and Senator James looked well pleased Senator Fleming was literally beaming with delight. It was, who officially stood the brunt of the fight in the senate for the enactment of the law. Supported by Governor Jarvis, Supt. Ragsdale, ex-Senator James and Blow and a hundred other leading Pitt county men, Senator Fleming had a local backing which practically stonewalled the legislature into passing the law.

One among the many moral effects of this decision, will be the feeling of contentment in all sections, that Greenville was a fair victor, because she made a royal offer and royally sustained it; that a better knowledge of this real empire, this eastern county of Pitt, one the most historical and financially massive in North Carolina's rich domain.

Contrary to the action of the session of June 5th, the board held an open meeting at which not only representatives from the cities interested, but all parties were admitted.

The towns were taken alphabetically, Greenville coming first, Superintendent W. H. Ragsdale, speaking for Greenville, being ably seconded by Senator Fleming and ex-Senator James, made a splendid presentation of the claims of Pitt county. He said the original bid was unequivocal, unobscure and could be understood by all men, and Greenville had no further offer to make, to-wit: $90,000 cash and the choice of four splendid sites.

He disclaimed responsibility on the part of friends of the school for criticism of the board for failing to award the school at the regular advertised meeting in June

Short arguments for Greenville were made by Senator Fleming and ex-Senator James.

Kinston was next at the bat, with Clerk of the Superior Court Plato Collins and Capt. J. W. Grainger.

They offered cash $61,000, the Rountree site of land including the Rhodes Military school, electric light and water free for ten years, the whole amounting to $96,000.

Rocky Mount, through Messrs. R. B. Davis, Jr., E. L. Daughtride and W. S. Wilkerson, showed Rocky Mount's death record to be the lowest in the State, its water fine, and stuck to the original offer of $25,000 cash and a forty acre site, dwelling on it, and the fact of its being the Gate City of the East.

Superintendent Harry Howell was the only representative from Washington, but he counted for half a dozen. He presented the choice of two sites, one of 150 acres, one of 133 acres, and $95,000 in cash.

Although disclaiming credit of oratory, he suggested to the board that the school should be located in the section where "there had been enthusiasm from first to last and not enthusiasm recently born for local gain." Greenville men smiled at this, while Kinston's delegates not only smiled, but uncrossed their legs.

There was a lot of good natured badinage about the water, the healthfulness, mosquitoes, the elevation above sea level, etc., of the different towns, Rocky Mount claiming the banner health and water and elevation record, Kinston the site and water and health, Washington the best of all and Greenville out of sight.

But the contest was over at 3:30 and everybody accepted the result with fine spirit.

That Greenville should have won seems to fit in with the logic of event by which the establishment of the East Carolina Teachers Training School was authorized, for the bill providing for the school was introduced in the Senate by Senator J. L. Fleming of Pitt.

The Board of Trustees of the East Carolina Teacher's Training School are State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, chairman, ex officio, ex-Governor T. J. Jarvis, of Greenville; I. T. Turlington, of Smithfield; Y. T. Ormond, of Kinston; J. C. Parker, of Trenton; J. B. Leigh, of Elizabeth City; J. T. Bannerman, of Buraw; J. O. Carr, of Wilmington, and T. H. Battle, of Rocky Mount (resigned) vacancy not yet filled.—Raleigh News and Observer

Day Current.

Here is one evidence of how Greenville keeps ahead. This town has had the benefit of electric current for about a year, while New Bern, very much larger than Greenville, is just taking steps in that direction. Here the printing plants, the several bottling works, the wood yard, the ginny and other enterprises have motors and there are numerous fans all run by the day current. It is a great convenience.

Misses Mattie Moye and Amine King returned Thursday evening from Goldsboro, accompanied by Miss Mable King, who came to visit them.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Matters of Importance Discussed.

There was not a large attendance of business men at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in the mayor's office Thursday night, but from the standpoint of important matters discussed it proved a very interesting session.

The secretary made report of the amounts that had been collected and expended in conducting the campaign to secure the location of the Eastern training school here. President J. L. Wooten made some remarks as to the work done by the committee and the earnest co-operation of the people of both the town and county.

The matter of having a gala day in celebration of Greenville being selected as the location of the school was mentioned and suggestion made that there be a called meeting of the chamber on Tuesday afternoon, 16th, at 5 o'clock, for a full discussion of the question, every member being requested to be present at that time.

Wiley Brown, D. J. Whichard and E. G. Flanagan were appointed a committee to devise a plan for the celebration and submit it to the called meeting for consideration.

Another important matter discussed was the providing of a rest room for the convenience of ladies from the country who come to Greenville shopping or to spend the day. The need of such a room was well emphasized and all present were of the opinion that it should be provided.

The rest room would be suitable quarters where the ladies coming in for a day could leave their wraps and bundles when desired, and drop in to rest, to eat their lunches or to enjoy a chat with friends. J. L. Wooten and J. L. Little were appointed a committee to confer with the ladies of the End of the Century Book Club and get their ideas as to the best plans for conducting the proposed rest room, and to suggest that the club have the public library operated with it. This committee is also to report at the called meeting Tuesday afternoon.

It will be seen that with such matters to be discussed next Tuesday afternoon it is important that every member of the chamber who can do so should be present.

MESSAGE FROM COL. CARR.

Sends Congratulations on the School.

Today ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis received the following very kind telegram from Col. J. S. Carr, of Durham:

Durham, N. C., July 12, '07.
Hon. Thomas J. Jarvis,
Greenville, N. C.

On my return home this morning, I am delighted to learn that Greenville won the school location fight. She is clearly entitled to it on your account. Bless your life, North Carolina should give you anything you ask tied with a blue ribbon.

Julian S. Carr.

Gov. Jarvis is deeply touched by the kind messages of congratulations he has received by telegrams and letters on the location of the Eastern training school at Greenville, and while he feels deeply grateful to those who sent them he wishes at the same time to assure them that the result is the work of the good people of Greenville and Pitt county. He is glad that he has been permitted to join with the people in the efforts they have made to secure the school, but he wants it distinctly understood that the success of the work is due to the people and not to him.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsp Notes From a Husting Town.

Ayden, N. C. July 12, 1907.

H. L. Coward and wife, of Greenville, who have been on a visit to friends here, returned to their home Tuesday.

Master Ben Dixon has been on a visit to Greenville during the week.

Will Whichard has been here this week and as a salesman he seems to be popular with our merchants. It generally takes him two or three days to work the town.

How in the name of goodness these sweet pretty girls of ours around here can look so cool and fresh this miserable hot weather is something we can't understand. Surely, they must belong to the angel host. As for us, from present indications we've been making preparation for another clime.

Miss Alice Hodges came over from Kinston Wednesday to visit Miss Blanche Cannon.

Mrs. Athleen Wilkerson, of LaGrange, is here on a visit to her brother, Dr. Joseph Dixon.

Try a cake of white tar soap, only 10c. It is refreshing and healing to the itching scalp and keeps it in healthy condition, prevents the hair from falling out and leaves it soft and smooth sold at R. H. Ricks.

Notice.

The Chamber of Commerce will hold its regular quarterly meeting Thursday night, July 11, this meeting will be open for any business that may come up for action. Remember the hour is 8 o'clock at the mayor's office.

THINGS THAT COUNT.

Our news columns today show in the report of the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Thursday night, that Greenville is indeed getting awake as to the needs of the hour. The Reflector heartily approves the suggestion for the establishing of a rest room for ladies from the country who come here to spend a day shopping or other visit. Such a building or rooms will certainly be a great convenience to the ladies as well as be helpful to the business of the town, in that the ladies if assured that such comforts are here for them will come in larger numbers. We cannot show our friends over the county too much attention, and to manifest an interest in their welfare and comfort will closer unite town and country in friendly relation.

Then the suggestion of a gala day in celebration of our victory in winning the location of the training school is timely. This is a victory for both the county and the town, and in such a celebration both should come together for a day of special intercourse and rejoicing. People from all the towns competing for the school and elsewhere will be invited and the plan is to make it a great day.

The duty of every business man in Greenville in these matters is plain. The town has suffered in the past because business men, so afraid of leaving their places a little while, would not give proper attention to movements to draw people to the town. One of the objects of the Chamber of Commerce is to advance ideas and promote plans that will insure to the profit and pleasure of the people of both town and country, hence when there is a meeting of the chamber it is the duty of every business man who can be present and do his part.

Just now Greenville is the best advertised town in the State, and it is the kind that counts most.

Greenville is now launching on the flood tide of development, and if our people continue to be conservative and take advantage of the opportunities for progress as they present themselves, the growth of the town is going to be wonderful. Such a spirit of co-operation between the town and county as has existed the past year counts for much. Pitt county has a noble people, and the interest they are taking in educational advancement and material progress will rank her in the lead. The county feels a pride in her capital town, and the town feels a pride in the county. We are all one and the same people, and with a united spirit and concerted effort nothing can hold us back.

CONDENSED STORIES.

The First Speech delivered by President Roosevelt.
President Roosevelt made his first set speech when he was ten years old. At that time he would a bold sailor be. He had read all the marvelous tales of the sea, and his ambition was to sail the ocean blue in command of a stanch craft that would carry him to the uttermost parts of the earth. He was permitted by his governess to spend much time about the wharfs of New York, and he thus became personally acquainted with many of the most famous seamen of that time. Chief among his heroes was a certain Captain Doane, commander of the clipper ship Rival.

THE OLD SEA DOG TOLD INTERESTING STORIES.

This old sea dog used to fill the mind of the future hero of San Juan with astonishing stories of storms at sea and hairbreadth escapes from the sepulcher in Davy Jones' locker. It fired the imagination of the youth and stirred his ambition. In 1868 the boy who is now president raised a fund by popular subscription for the purpose of a library for the officers and crew of the Rival, all of whom were his friends.

At the head of a delegation of youngsters he visited the ship when it next came into port and with due ceremony presented the library, consisting of fifty-five volumes, to the skipper. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Roosevelt. When reminded a few days ago of this event by an old friend the president said he remembered it perfectly and that frequently he had wondered if any of the officers or crew of the Rival were still alive and if so if they remembered his speech.

"I thought it was a mighty fine speech," said he, "and so did Captain Doane."—St. Louis Republic.

What We May Come To.
Alexis Aladin, the leader of the Russian douma's labor party, was marveling in New York at the strength of the labor unions of America.

"Now that I grasp the size and power of these unions," he said smiling, "I see the point of a story that I failed to understand coming over on the boat."

"An American woman told me this story. She said that a young bride was found one afternoon crying bitterly in the smoking room of her club."

"Why, my dear," said an elderly matron, "what is the matter with you?"

"Oh," sobbed the bride, "I'm going to leave George! Dear me, I'm going straight back home to mother!"

"What!" exclaimed the matron. "Has George already proved unkind? Well, they're all alike, my—"

"But the weeping bride interrupted her."

"No," she said, her shoulders shaking with grief. "George is a dear. He's perfect. But that brute of a Henry Simmons has refused to buy Mrs. Simmons a new dinner gown, and District No. 4 of the Amalgamated Wives' union has been ordered out on strike!"

Met the Emergency.
"With dread," said President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton, "the youth of our land now behold examination time approaching. I hope none of them will be so ill prepared and conscienceless as a student whom I heard of last year."

"This young man as he sat waiting for his oral examination in Greek saw passing down the line an extract of extreme difficulty. This passage would inevitably flunk him. There was no time to lose. What was he to do?"

"In desperation he seized hold of a frail fellow student, who was subject to epilepsy, and, though the young man was quite well at the time, he carried him out as if he were in a fit.
"On his return he got an easier passage."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

COLIC AND DIARRHOEA
Pains in the stomach, colic, cholera are quickly relieved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers in Patent Medicines.

It isn't the cheery man who does the most cheering.

I am free, to prove merit, of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my back on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't mistake the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is only the result of your ailment, and of the cause. Weak Stomach and the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart and Kidneys as well, have their control in or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store.

Many a married man is a silent hero.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kenney's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Drivers of delivery wagons are always there with the goods.

Get a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" at our store. If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this clever Coffee imitation. Dr. Shoop has closely matched Old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. Made in a minute. No tedious wait. You will surely like it. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co.

It's a pity that poet car't live on food for reflection.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol goes directly to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the digestive organs, supplies the natural digestive juices and digests what you eat. It is a simple, clean, pure, harmless remedy. Don't neglect your stomach. Take a little Kodol after each meal and see how good it makes you feel. Money back if it fails. Sold by John L. Wooten.

We would never suspect how good some people are if they didn't tell us.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A week's treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

A man's idea of a close friend is one who will loosen up occasionally.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same acids found in healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by John L. Wooten.

When you want a letter badly, it's a sure sign it won't come.

For scratches, burns, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

A pawnshop where we could hock our troubles would fill a long-felt want.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50cents. Sold by Bryans Drug Store.

Music has charms in the country where the houses are a mile apart.

Mothers who give their children Kenney's Laxative Cough Syrup invariably endorse it. Children like it because the taste is so pleasant. Contains honey and tar. It is the original laxative cough syrup and is unrivaled for the relief of croup. Drives the cold out through the bowels. Conforms to the Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

When you feel the need of a pill take DeWitt's Little Early Riser. Small, safe pill, sure pill. Easy to take, pleasant and effective. Drives away headaches. Sold by John L. Wooten's drug store.

He Remembered. A restaurant keeper hung out this sign: Coffee: Such as Mother Used to Make. A customer asked, pointing to the sign: "Is your coffee really such as mother used to make?" "It is," replied the proprietor. "Then," said the man with a reminiscent look, "give me a cup of tea."

Politeness. At a dinner given by a high official at Washington a distinguished Frenchman, who was visiting this country as a delegate to a certain industrial conference, gave expression to extravagant praise of his beloved France. His neighbor at table, on the right, would smile and bow in polite acquiescence every time the visitor would mention an instance of France's superiority above every other nation. "The French," exclaimed he, "are the politest people on earth." The neighbor at table again smiled and bowed. A little piqued by the other's silence, the Frenchman asked, "Americans admit, do they not, the superiority of the French in politeness?" "Oh, yes," came the reply; "that's our politeness."—Lippincott's.

Always Up to Date. Tourist—Get any newspapers here? Boatman—Oh aye, when the steam comes, it's fine, but when it's stormy, if winter we dinna catch a glint of her for three months at a time. Tourist—Then you'll not know what's going on in London! Boatman—Na, but, ye see, ye're just as ill off in London as we are, for ye dinna ken what's gaun on here!

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my feet would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured. MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me. D. KAUBLE, Nevada, O.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, making the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, ceases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—also general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. J. W. BRYAN.

About That home Do You Contemplate Owing One?

If so the first thing to consider is a good lot in a desirable location and you cannot be better suited in a lot than the Sam White Property.

No property surpasses this for a desirable home. Lots can be bought there now at reasonable prices and on easy terms. There is every indication that property around Greenville is going to be higher, and the longer you defer buying the lot the higher it will cost.

This property is located only 5 minutes walk from the business part of the town. See Sam White and let him explain prices and terms.

The Indispensable Man.

When old Zach Taylor came into the presidency, persons in Washington soon began to tell him there was one public servant the government couldn't do without. They said they had come to express the hope that the old general and rather unexperienced president would permit them to inform him of it. This piece of information and advice was systematically dropped into his ear at frequent intervals. At first he paid little attention to it, but finally took note of the fact that a certain John Hobbs, who for twenty odd years had held the important office of assistant postmaster general, was the official the government couldn't get

THE KING GEORGE.

In the Death of the Famous Old West Indian.

If ever you happen to be so fortunate as to take a trip down the west coast of Africa you will be sure to hear of the famous old West Indian, King George. This yarn is packed up by the records of the British admiralty, so of course it is true. She was wrecked in the year 1789 during a hurricane that devastated the coast of Cuba and the West Indies generally. Every man, woman and child aboard of her was lost, and the ship herself was stripped of her top hamper, masts and spars and went drifting, a helpless wreck, "bawd to all disaster."

She was first reported by a ship of the same company some hundred miles north of the point where the storm is supposed to have struck her. Men were sent aboard her from her sister Indian and reported that she was sinking rapidly. After that she was never completely lost to sight for the best part of five years, when she vanished in a storm of the Grand Canaries. In that time she had drifted upward of 10,000 miles and had been the direct cause of at least four wrecks and the indirect cause of three more.

Her travels were strange enough, especially at that time, when the locations of the ocean currents were but vaguely guessed at by the most speculative of mariners. She journeyed northward and eastward from the gulf of Mexico to the British Isles and then, making a long curve, to the west coast of Africa. During all that time she was constantly reported by passing ships, many of which sent men aboard of her. At last the British government dispatched a man-of-war after her, with orders to blow her up. Instead the frigate ran on a reef and was wrecked. Another, the Daphne, was then sent out, but she encountered a slaving dhow and was sunk in the ensuing fight.

By this time the whole English speaking seafaring world was agog over the mystery. When a third warship was dispatched and in her turn ran high and dry on the beach superstition had its way, and the King George was allowed to proceed on her ghostly path in peace. She was reported a few times after that by passing merchantmen, then disappeared for good and all in a tornado that destroyed much beside the derelict. But her name is still a thing to conjure with in some parts of the world.—New York Herald.

Hello! Got It All Down.

"Hello! Is this the Grand hotel?" asked the man at the phone.

"It is," sweetly responded the young woman at the other end.

"Will you please ask Henry Perkins, who is stopping there, to ring me up this afternoon?"

"Yes, sir. Who shall I say he is to ring?"

"D. B. Feely."

"B. D. Greeley?"

"No, no! D. B. Feely."

"P. Beef Healy?"

"No! Can't you get it? Listen—D. B. Feely. Understand?"

"Spell it, please."

"D—get that? A, B, C, D—get it? B—understand? A, B—all right? F E E L Y—Feely. Got it? All right. Just tell him to ring me up. He'll know what it means."

When Mr. Perkins returned to the hotel he received a memorandum saying, "Please call up Mr. A. B. C. D. A. B. F. E. E. Feely."

The Canadian Habitant.

The rural population of French Canada is unlike that of any other country. The habitant is the result of peculiar conditions. Transplanted originally from the north of France, the stock has been modified and transformed by the environment of the new world. It retains the simplicity and poetic temperament of the old stock, combined with a measure of the vigor and self reliance of pioneer life. And with it all, remarks a correspondent of the Nation, in an appreciative tribute to the patois story of the late Dr. William Henry Drummond, the habitant remains to this day almost untouched by the influences of modern civilization, living his life in his own sufficient way, oblivious of many things that the rest of us think indispensable.—New York World.

The Savory Seemles Roaster.

Is far superior to any other Roaster made, not an ounce of substance lost. Other roasters waste from 10 to 20 per cent. The Savory seemles roaster needs no water, grease or attention of any kind. It simply asks to be let alone. Retains all juices and flavors, renews the youth of the toughest fowl. One great feature of the Savory roaster is the oval bottom, with the ordinary flat bottom roaster the moisture brought out of the meat by cooking has no chance to accumulate and is burned and dried up in the bottom of the pan. In the oval bottom this meat juice flows continuously to the lowest point of the bottom, where it is turned into steam and condensed on the surface of the meat. This condensation continues until the roast has become heated through to the temperature of the atmosphere in the roaster, when the condensation stops and the brown ring of the roast begins.

The Savory roaster is self basting and self browning. The bottom is raised off the oven by the outside heat-retaining jacket, which applies a uniform heat to the roast from all sides.

The Savory roaster is a class to itself. Is guaranteed to give satisfaction when used according to directions. Buy one, take it home, go by the directions, use it thirty days, if not all we claim forth, return it to us and we will give you back your money, providing the roaster when returned, is in good condition.

See our window display of the Savory roasters. We will be glad to show you. Call and see them.
