NO MEETING HELD.

Postponed to Friday Night, 19th.

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was called for 5 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, in the mayor's office, but at that hour there were not enough of the members and business men present for the meeting to be held. This was disappointing to those who did go, for some important matters had been suggested for consideration at that meeting.

As not a quorum was present it was decided to call another meeting of the chamber for Friday night, 19th, at 8:30 o'clock. The Reflector wants to urge every member, and business men who are not members, to be present at that time. The Chamber of Commerce is designed to promote the business interests of the town, but it will take men behind it to make it accomplish anything.

STAR LIGHT SAIL.

Reported for Reflector.

The young men of Greenville gave a "sail" on the yacht Alteiro Monday evening complimentary to Miss Marie Manning, of Henderson, the charming guest of Miss Helen Forbes. They left the wharf promptly at nine with a merry party on board. After listening to beautiful strains of music as well as enjoying the beauty of the historic Tar the anchor was lowered and an elegant lunch was served. Those present were:

Misses Marie Manning, Helen Forbes, Janie Tyson, Janie Brown, Lot Blow, Mary Medeario, of Winston, Lottie White of Sanford, Bertha Patrick, Glenn Forbes, Mary Smith, Sadie Chesson, of Baltimore, Jennie Dixon, of Rocky Mount, Lucile Cobb and Mary Shelburn, Burt James, Frank Wilson, Bob Howard, Durwood Wilson, Lunch Hall, Ben Higgs, Walter Wilson, Alex Blow, Bill Patrick, Sim Chapman, Willis Atkins, Chas. Haskett, Royce Tucker, Norman Warren and John Shelburn.

Feminine Generalship.

On one occasion the noted British officer Tarleton was speaking contemptuously of Colonel William Washington to a patriot lady "Why," said Tarleton, "they tell me he is so ignorant that he cannot even write his name." With a meaning glance at Tarleton's right hand, which Washington had wounded, the lady replied, "But nobody is better aware than you, Colonel Tarleton, that Colonel Washington knows how to make his mark."

Not Afraid to Try.

"I can't understand why you are Walsingham is entertaining. It has never succeeded at anything." "But he has failed at more than forty things."—Houston Post.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Winterville, N. C., July, 17. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Daughy left Tuesday for Kinston where they will spend some time.

There were regular services at the Free Will Baptist church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cox went to Ayden Sunday to attend services at the Baptist church.

Misses Carrie and Henrietta Wesson are spending this week visiting relatives in Ayden.

The regular mission meeting was held in the Baptist church Sunday night, with a very interesting program.

Miss Olivia Cox is spending sometime in Ayden this week visiting relatives.

Theodore Cox spent Sunday in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Ange, after spending several days here with their son, A. W. Ange, returned to their home near Jamesville Monday morning accompanied by their little grand son, Hugh.

Rev. W. E. Cox filled his regular appointment at the Episcopal church here Monday night.

Mrs. W. C. Jackson, of Ayden, spent Monday evening here.

Rev. Henry Haddock, of South Carolina, is visiting relatives here.

Schools For The Farmers.

Washington, July 15—Representative Small, of the first North Carolina district, is going to institute an itinerant school for farmers throughout his district. He has been in correspondence with Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Alabama, who has just recently completed a most successful institute in Alabama, and Mr. Small's undertaking will be after the same order. Mr. Small has been thinking of this institute for several years, but has been especially inspired now by the success of Captain Hobson. Beginning Monday, July 25th, or Monday, August 5th, Mr. Small will take with him a number of experts on damage, plant culture, road building, forestry, etc., and will spend a week at each of seven county seats in his district, giving lectures and entertainments for the benefit of the people, especially the farmers. The Farmers' Alliance especially will be asked to co-operate, but all the people will be invited.

The counties in which institutes will be held are: Pasquotank, Gates, Hertford, Pitt, Beaufort, Martin and Washington. Mr. Small has been in Washington several days arranging the details with the Agricultural Department. If these institutes prove successful, and the people show sufficient interest in them, Mr. Small will start similar institutes in the seven remaining counties of his district some time in September or October.

Mr. Small is very much impressed with the excellence of the Jamestown Exposition, which he has visited "The government exhibits are very fine," he says. "The exhibits in the several buildings are all good. The State buildings being particularly creditable to the various States. I was especially pleased with the North Carolina and Georgia buildings, which are most attractively and creditable to these States." Continuing, he said that the exposition is now substantially complete, except the government pier, and that Secretary Cortelyou had promised that the forces of his department would be concentrated upon the completion of this pier until it is finished.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE

Those Who Come and Go—Some Know You—Some You Know

Miss Ruth Cobb left this morning for a visit to Tarboro.

Mrs. H. B. Anderson, of Norfolk, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. D. D. Haskett.

C. E. Rountree, W. L. Cherry, and T. A. Vick returned Tuesday evening from Ocracoke.

Misses Margaret and Rue Clark, of Beaufort, are visiting Miss Julia Harris on Dickinson avenue.

G. W. Baker came home Tuesday evening from Richmond where he has been in the hospital some weeks. His health is much improved.

Mrs. T. B. Wilkinson and children, of Raleigh, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lipscomb, returned home today.

Mrs. J. L. Rumley and little son Julian, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Haskett, left Tuesday evening for their home in Elm City.

Capt. Ola Forbes and family came home Tuesday evening on the yacht Eagle. He has brought his boat back here to run on Tar river. With Capt. Forbes on the trip back to Greenville were Mrs. Forbes and their four children, Capt. and Mrs. J. S. Barr, Miss Mary Cobb, Ned Laughinghouse and Charlie Rountree.

Editors at Morehead.

The North Carolina Press Association met at Morehead City today, and many editors are here enjoying the ocean breezes. The Reflector man found matters so he could not be with them, very much to his regret.

A young lady school teacher, who delighted to tease a young country lad who sat next to her at the boarding house table, asked him one day to write in her autograph album. He blushed and stammered, but finally wrote:

"Thy life, may nothing vex it—Thy years be not a few, And at thy final exit, May the devil miss his due!" The boy's name was John G. Whittier

The Governor and the Federal Judge.

Ashville, N. C., July 16—Following the arrest here yesterday of J. H. Wood, district passenger agent of the Southern, on the charge of having violated the new rate law by charging more than the 2 1/2 cents per mile as provided, and the arraignment in police court this morning when the cases were continued, Judge Pritchard, in the United States Circuit Court, issued writs of habeas corpus commanding the chief of police to produce the prisoners before him.

Police Judge Reynolds communicated with Governor Glenn, who instructed him to proceed with the cases and have the solicitor resist the release of the defendants under the writ of habeas corpus.

Governor Glenn denounced the action of Judge Pritchard in taking the enforcement of the criminal laws of the State out of the hands of State officers, and declared that it was a high handed proceeding.

Big Paper Weight Sent to Jamestown.

Mt. Airy, N. C., July 16—The Southern railway and Mt. Airy Granite Corporation sent out from the granite quarries at this place on Saturday a solid granite column, called the "big paper weight," weighing fifty-eight tons, and seven feet long and about four by five feet square. This fine specimen of granite will be placed on exhibition at the Jamestown fair, and will no doubt attract much attention. It is a remarkable fact that this fine rock can be cut to almost any shape and size, and can be safely transported by rail to any point of the compass.

The rock was nicely dressed and a pretty banner erected over it on the car giving a full description and telling all about its size, weight, etc.

TEXAS ELKS COMING.

Will Celebrate El Paso Day at Jamestown Exposition.

Jamestown Exposition, Va., July 16.—Among the thirty thousand Elks who will come down from Philadelphia July 22 to observe Elks' Day at the Jamestown exposition there will probably be no delegation attract more attention than the El Paso Quien Sabe Club of Elks, of El Paso, Texas.

Its members, attired to represent every type of the picturesque costumes in the sister republics of Mexico, the Quien Sabe Club will go east to the national convention in Philadelphia this year with a kaleidoscopic collection of garments, educative and instructive, to people unaccustomed to the manners and dress of the Mexicans, and picturesque indeed in their beautiful blending of the soft blended shades at which the Mexicans and Indians are adepts.

Again the Quien Sabes will make the trip in a special train all the way from the border of sunny Mexico to the borders of picturesque Canada on the north, through Canada to Niagara, and thence down south to the convention city of Brotherly Love and on to the Jamestown exposition. Two years ago the same organization made the trip to Buffalo, N. Y., and was awarded the first prize for traveling the longest distance of any organization at the meeting. This time they will travel much further.

For the second the club will also take the famous Gaudalajara band. This is the personal band of the governor of the Mexican state of Jalisco, 650 miles from Mexico and is tendered again to the club as a compliment from the big, six-foot governor Miguel Ahumada, who is an honorary member of the El Paso Elks and the only foreigner who has such a distinction in the entire membership of the order. This band, composed of sixty-two pieces, under the leadership of Augusto Azzalia, son of a noble Italian family won first prize in competition with bands from all over the United States at Buffalo in 1905 and is entered for the Philadelphia contest under the leadership of the same man.

Enroute to the convention the train made numerous stops at Kansas City, Davenport and Topeka, Moline and Rock Island, Chicago, Detroit, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and elsewhere enroute to Philadelphia and after the close of the national convention in Philadelphia, the Elks, in their Mexican costumes, and accompanied by their Mexican band, will visit Jamestown exposition on "El Paso Day".

Among the pilgrims of the special train, every costume from the gay charro of the rurale with its gold and silver braid and buttons, down to the bright hued attire of the peasant or-to use the Mexican word—peon-will be represented. Even the bull fighter will not be neglected and the gaudy colors of scarlet and gold and green and purple of the gay and gallant matadors, picadors and banderillos will be worn. The gaudy capes carried by the bull fighters to lure Mr. Toro to his death and the beautiful Zepapes, the wonder of all easterners, will adorn many shoulders. It will be one of the picturesque aggregations ever sent to a national reunion of Elks, and will be educational in that it will correctly represent the dress of all classes of citizens of Mexico. The Mexican government would not recognize the organization and permit the use of its band if the costumes were not correct.

IN MEMORIAM.

On the fourteenth of July 1907, our dear father and husband, Andrew J. Moore, passed from this earth and entered the better home above where he had so often wished to be. He had often expressed himself ready and willing to die. Although his loved ones had been prepared for the worst it came to them with a sudden realization of what it meant to give him up who had so loved and cared for his dear ones while yet he was here with us on earth.

Andrew J. Moore was born in Wilson county, was married to Della A. Cotten, of Edgecombe county, on Feb. 3rd 1859. Their marriage was blessed with seven children of which five still survive, also a devoted wife, who has tenderly nursed and cared for him all through the dark days of affliction when hope seemed of no avail.

His living children are: Mrs. T. C. Bryan, of Goldsboro; J. R. Moore, of Pittsburg, Pa., W. H. Moore, of Falkland; F. C. Moore, of Newport News, Va., and Mrs. W. G. Williams, of Greenville. Three of these were with him at the time of his death.

He was seventy-five years old on the third day of June.

He has twenty three grand children and thirteen great grand children.

As a citizen he was highly esteemed by all, and counted his friends by the score, that feels in his death a good man is gone who always upheld the right and bore ill will to no man. As a husband he was true and self-sacrificing. As a father he was generous and kind, looking not for the pleasures the world contained for himself, but made other's joys his own.

His afflictions were great for the past three or four years, but he always said God's way was best, and his Christian spirit and trust in God gave strength for him to bear his burdens. He was willing and ready to obey the summons when it came and fell "asleep in Jesus, peaceful sleep, from which none ever wake to weep."

He was a faithful member of the Methodist church for a number of years. The funeral took place at Falkland last Monday at 11 o'clock, the service being conducted by Rev. M. T. Plyler.

His Daughter.

Killed on Battleship.

Boston, Mass., July 15.—By the explosion of a case of powder in the hands of a gunner in the after superimposed turret of the battleship Georgia in Massachusetts Bay today, eighteen men were killed and thirteen injured. Not one of the persons in the turret escaped injury.

Household Hints.

Add a pinch of soda in water in which fresh cut flowers are put and they will keep longer.

Do not stretch table linen, but iron while damp and press until quite dry; otherwise it will be too limp.

A little raw linseed oil rubbed upon a stovepipe will prevent its rusting. Cover the places with a little blacking and polish.

There is no better filling for needle and pin cushions than sheep's wool, as its oily qualities prevent the needles from rusting.

Bureau Scarfs.

To make a pretty bureau scarf take three ladies' handkerchiefs with narrow hemstitched border, which can be bought for 8 or 10 cents each; join them together lengthwise, with a row of val lace between each. Then sew val insertion lace all around the four sides. Add a ruffle of val lace and use a colored lining. A sideboard scarf is made with gentlemen's handkerchiefs and imitation cluny lace insertion and edging.

AROUND ABOUT TOWN

Some of the Things that Happen in Greenville and Hereabouts

Both hot and dusty now.

For milk and cream call No. 294 B

Deep sea mullets at S. M. Schultz

Choice country hams at J. B. Johnston's.

Prayer meetings in the churches tonight.

"Jake" is having a busy time cleaning the streets.

We have seen the temperature higher, but the heat today seemed to have steam in it.

There was a little watermelon in town today, and it wanted a quarter to walk off with you.

There is sickness here among the colored people. Five deaths have occurred in the last two days.

Weather.

Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday.

Trains to Wilson Soon.

The information comes to The Reflector, though unofficially, that trains will be running from Greenville to Wilson within 60 days. Of the 34 miles, 23 are laid with track, and the force has a capacity of a mile a day.

A. H. Taft & Co., Assign

A. H. Taft & Co., furniture dealers, made an assignment Tuesday afternoon, A. L. Blow and F. C. Harding being named as assignees. The liabilities of the firm are stated at about $5,500 and the stock, exclusive of accounts, will inventory about $4,000. We hope their financial troubles can soon be adjusted and they can return to business.

Marriage Licenses.

Register of Deeds R. Williams has issued the following licenses since last report:

WHITE.

J. F. Smith and Mattie E. Cox. John James and Lizzie Bullock. R. E. Fulford and Victoria Moye.

COLORED.

Robert Hanrahan and Letha Tyson. Evans Forbes and Lula Joyner. John Burney and Pattie Ellis. David Howard and Lena Roe.

JOHN WHITLEY DROWNED.

Leaves Wife and One Child.

Mr. John Whitley, a young married man who lived in the Hoell house on Third street, was drowned in the river, Tuesday afternoon, about 2 miles above Washington. Mr. Whitley had been to Washington with Mr. Joe Mayo, on the latter's gas boat to tow a raft of logs.

The only particulars that can be learned of the drowning are that the two men left Washington with the boat to come to Greenville. When at Willow Point the boat grounded and Whitley got out to push it off. He gave the boat a shove and as it moved away from him he fell in deeper water and was drowned. The body had not been recovered at last report.

Mr. Whitley leaves a wife and one child. Mrs. Whitley's father came here today to take her and the child back to his home at Bethel.

DON'T BE INDIFFERENT.

In many respects Greenville is mighty good town, but it certainly does not speak well for the business men that when a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce is called to consider important questions, not enough of them attend for the meeting to be held. This is what happened Tuesday afternoon, and in all earnestness it should not happen again. The business men themselves are the greatest losers by such indifference. One thing is sure, the town needs more business, and another thing equally sure is we are not going to get this business unless we make the effort. Business is not going to come and roll over in our laps unsolicited, but has to be persuaded to come. Therefore every movement that aims at increasing the business of the town should have the interest and cooperation of every business man in the town. The Chamber of Commerce can be a power in developing Greenville if the business men will make it so. Keep this in mind and attend the meeting Friday night, 19th.

Durham is getting on her togs over a contemplated early visit from Mrs. Carrie Nation, who has hatchets to sell.

It looks like our warships are dangerous things. We lose more men on them in time of peace than in time of war.

The Charlotte Observer in answering a recent query in The Reflector, says "Oh 'bran new' or 'brand new' is old." Yes, "brand new" is old enough, but the point we were after is why a paper of The Observer's standing should say "bran new."

The Southern railway is prompt to return a favor. Last week Federal Judge Pritchard granted an injunction favorable to the Southern, and this week the Southern has appointed a son of Judge Pritchard assistant surgeon of the road. It would have looked better to waited a little longer between favors.

Governor Glenn is taking a hand in the fight, and sent a letter to all Superior court judges of the State asking them to instruct their respective grand juries and direct the solicitors to send bills against the agents and employes of the railroads or its higher officials who violate the passenger rate law. That is going right after them, and the violations are going to be checked.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.

By a Contributor.

Secretary Root says the Japanese have no more rights in this country than an ordinary citizen. This may be true, but they seem to be under the impression that they have more wrongs than any one else.

A Cleveland woman kissed a burglar in the dark, thinking he was her husband, and discovered her mistake because he had no mustache. In other words, she wasn't tickled as much as she expected to be.

There is good reason to fear that when Mr. Rockefeller begins again to tell all he knows about the oil business, no kind voices will hoarsely whisper "cut it out."

A prominent architect predicts that the day is coming when buildings twice as high as the Washington monument will be erected. When that comes to pass, the poor organ-grinders are going to have a hard time attracting the attention of people on the top floors.

The Philadelphia Press remarks that the stock markets are depressed because investors are putting their money into automobiles. But what are automobile dealers putting their money into?

After looking our battleships over if the Japanese desire any further information as to what they are good for, they can easily obtain it from the Spanish government.

WAYS OF SAVING WASTE.

Skimming River For a Living—Fishermen Who Net Corks.

Skimming a river for a living may be said to be one of the most striking examples of the utilization of waste. This is done in Paris. There is one individual at least in the French capital who makes it his daily business to skim the Seine. He is out at early morning in an old flat bottomed boat, armed with a skimming pan. With this he skims off the surface of the river the grease which collects there during the night and which he disposes of to a soap factory. Generally he makes a quarter or so by his morning's work, which enables him to live.

In Paris, says the Chicago Tribune, also there are a number of people who make a living out of waste corks, which they fish from the Seine. They collect on the river bank at daybreak, each with a short pole, at the end of which is a small net. They set to work to gather in the floating corks, subsequently selling them to the cork merchants in the neighborhood.

There are about a score or so of these cork fishermen, who have formed themselves into a sort of craft and who guard their interests jealously. If they catch sight of a stranger netting corks they fall on him in a body. Only recently the police rescued one of these noVICES barely in time to save his life.

The sweepings of a floor might well be considered as so much waste. Yet through a fire in London the other day, which consumed a quantity of sweepings stored in the basement, a certain firm lost several thousand dollars. The heap of dust and rubbish contained silver filings, which it was intended to extract later on.

This is done regularly at all works where silver or gold is used. In gold refiners' premises even the soot in the chimneys is not allowed to be treated as waste. It is found to contain minute particles of the precious metal, which are far too valuable to be lost.

In places where sheep are bred extensively one frequently sees little bits of wool adhering to briars and hedges. These are no longer regarded as waste. From such wool rubbish, whether coming from sheep or goats, valuable oil is now extracted.

Disraeli as a Real Humorist.

Disraeli's absorption in politics, which never quite destroyed his love of literature, is, of course, familiar to the most superficial student of his singular career. His "profound contempt for frivolity" referred to by Lady Dorothy Nevill in her "Reminiscences" strikes those who knew him as absolutely true. Disraeli, it must be remembered, was a real humorist, and in nine cases out of ten a real humorist despises flippancy. He was also, like many humorists, a melancholy man, isolated from his fellows, leading an inner life, of which glimpses may be seen in his biography of Lord George Bentinck.

A Modern Jacob.

"The case of Jacob sometimes has a modern parallel. I knew a man once who served five years for his second wife."

"How romantic!"
"Not so remarkably romantic. He married the second one without getting a divorce from the first and served five years for bigamy." — Chicago Journal.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—go on should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison means on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison means there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

Machinery is digging the Panama canal a thousand times quicker than the shovel dug the Erie.
Machinery produces the L. & M. paint at 50 times less cost for labor, than if made by hand.
The L. & M. gives the best job in the world, because L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White lead and makes L. & M. paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years.
It only requires 4 gallons of this celebrated paint and 3 gallons of Linseed Oil at 60 cts per gallon, to paint a moderate sized house.
If any defect exists in L. & M. Paint, will repaint house for nothing.

COLIC AND DIARRHOEA
Pains in the stomach, colic and hoes are quickly relieved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by druggists and Dealers in Patent

When you feel the need of a pill take DeWitt's Little Early Riser. Small, safe pill, safe pill. Easy to take, pleasant and effective. Drives away headaches. Sold by John L. Wooten's drug store.

Nearly every man's idea of doing right is to do wrong, but keep it secret.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Bock on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store.

When you want a letter badly, it's a sure sign it won't come.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

No matter how much a man loves a woman, she thinks he ought to love her more.

Get a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" at our store. If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this clever Coffee imitation. Dr. Shoop has closely matched Old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Nut, etc. Made in a minute. No tedious wait. You will surely like it. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co.

Gossips have no use for people who refuse to supply them with raw material.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol goes directly to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the digestive organs, supplies the natural digestive juices and digests what you eat. It is a simple, clean, pure, harmless remedy. Don't neglect your stomach. Take a little Kodol after each meal and see how good it makes you feel. Money back if it fails, sold by John L. Wooten.

Never try to borrow money from a man you have had an argument with.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A weeks treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

A forgiving disposition is the first law of self preservation.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Many a man's failure is due to his being afraid to try.

For scratches, burns, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Fortunately for the fool, he doesn't know he's a fool.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50cents. Sold by Bryans Drug Store.

Where there's a will there's always an heir.

Mothers who give their children Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup invariably endorse it. Children like it because the taste is so pleasant. Contains honey and tar. It is the original laxative cough syrup and is unrivaled for the relief of croup. Drives the cold out through the bowels. Conforms to the Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Kaiser Made Him One.
One day the kaiser was walking in civilian dress when he was recognized by a corporal. The emperor, noticing that the man's face wore a troubled expression, questioned him. For some time the corporal hesitated to reply, but at last confessed that he was in love with the daughter of his sergeant major, but the marriage was impossible since the girl's father would have none less than a sergeant as a son-in-law.
"Do you really love the girl?" inquired the kaiser.
"With all my heart," was the reply.
"Very well, then; go and tell your sergeant major that the kaiser has made you a sergeant."—Cleveland Leader.

Parliamentary Humor.
On one occasion when Mr. Gladstone was beginning to give up the lead in the house of commons to Sir William Harcourt it was noticed by the members that he left the house at the dinner hour, and Sir William Harcourt led for the rest of the sitting. Mr. Darling one evening drove Sir William to fury on failing to elicit a definite answer to an inquiry by casually observing in the course of his speech, "I have noticed that lately the party opposite, adopting an ancient precedent, has set up a greater light to rule the day and a lesser light to rule the night."

A Popular Delusion.
"Did you read this, dear?" said Mrs. Grigsby to Orlando the other night. "It's a strange case. A harmless lunatic imagines that he's a grain of corn and will not go into the yard lest a chicken eat him. Isn't it an odd delusion?"
"Oh, the world's full of such delusions, dear," said Grigsby. "I know a harmless lunatic who seems to imagine that she's a piece of cheese, and she will fly from a room when a mouse enters it for fear the little creature will devour her."—London Tit-Bits.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles, I am cured. MRS. LORING H. CHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me. D. KAUBER, Nevada, C.

Digests What You Eat

John L. Wooten.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and slow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

SIR JOHN MOORE.

The Brave Soldier Died as He Had Always Hoped He Would.

Moore was dying. Baird was severely wounded. The early winter night was creeping over the field of battle, and Hope, gallant soldier though he was, judged it prudent to stay his hand. Soult had been roughly driven back. The transports were crowding into the harbor. It was enough to have ended a long retreat with the halo of victory and to have secured an undisturbed embarkation.

Meanwhile Moore had been carried into his quarters at Coruna. A much attached servant stood with tears running down his face as the dying man was carried into the house. "My friend," said Moore, "it is nothing!" Then, turning to a member of his staff, Colonel Anderson, he said: "Anderson, you know I have always wished to die in this way. I hope my country will do me justice." Only once his lips quivered and his voice shook as he said "Say to my mother" and then stopped, while he struggled to regain his composure. "Stanhope," he said as his eyes fell on his aid-de-camp's face, "remember me to your sister"—the famous Hester Stanhope, Pitt's niece, to whom Moore was engaged. Life was fast and visibly sinking, but he said, "I feel myself so strong I fear I shall be long dying."

But he was not. Death came swiftly and almost painlessly. Wrapped in a soldier's cloak, he was carried by the light of torches to a grave hastily dug in the citadel at Coruna, and far off to the south, as the sorrowing officers stood around the grave of their dead chief, could be heard from time to time the sound of Soult's guns, yet in sullen retreat. That scene is made immortal in Wolfe's noble lines:

Few and short were the prayers we said,
And we spoke not a word of sorrow,
But we steadfastly gazed on the face that was dead,
And we bitterly thought of the morrow.
We thought as we hollowed his narrow bed
And smoothed down his lonely pillow
That the foe and the stranger would tread o'er his head,
And we far away on the billow.
—Cornhill Magazine.

Cats of Other Days.

The lot of the average twentieth century cat does not compare favorably with that of its ancestors. Everybody knows that the early Egyptians held the cat sacred, and any one injuring a sacred animal was liable to severe punishment. Among the ancient laws of Wales was a statute which prohibited the slaughter of a cat under a curious penalty. The owner of the slaughtered animal held it by the tip of the tail with its nose touching the floor, and the slayer had to give him, by way of compensation, as much wheat as would bury the entire animal out of sight. The grain was supposed to represent the amount that the owner would lose through the depredations of vermin by being deprived of the cat. Savony, Switzerland and other European countries also had laws enacted for the protection of cats, which were regarded of economic value.

Lost and Won at Shiloh.

Many an amusing incident of army life is given in Lew Wallace's autobiography. For example, he writes thus of a tented "paradise" which was lost and won at the battle of Shiloh: "Within our lines there was a drinking tent on which was written 'Paradise.' It was taken by the Confederates in the first day's fight, and the victors wrote beneath its name 'Lost.' By Beauregard's order all camp furniture was left intact, as he expected to possess the whole field in the morning's engagement. The Union army recovered their ground by the second day's battle, the present tent was retaken, and to the two names was added the word 'Regained.'"

Characteristics of Animals.

The animal of least intelligence in a circus menagerie is the beautiful giraffe; the most intelligent, the monkey; the most timid, yet the most dangerous, the elephant; most untrustworthy, the cats, including all those animals belonging to the feline family; most affectionate, the seals; most ill tempered, the hippopotamus, who is never in a pleasant frame of mind from the day of his birth until he is ready to be skinned and mounted in a natural history museum.—Spare Moments.

The Savory Seemless Roaster

Is far superior to any other Roaster made, not an ounce of substance lost. Other roasters waste from 10 to 20 per cent. The Savory seamless roaster needs no water, grease or attention of any kind. It simply asks to be let alone. Retains all juices and flavors, renews the youth of the toughest fowl. One great feature of the Savory roaster is the oval bottom, with the ordinary flat bottom roaster the moisture brought out of the meat by cooking has no chance to accumulate and is burned and dried up in the bottom of the pan. In the oval bottom this meat juice flows continuously to the lowest point of the bottom, where it is turned into steam and condensed on the surface of the meat. This condensation continues until the roast has become heated through to the temperature of the atmosphere in the roaster, when the condensation stops and the brown ing of the roast begins.

The Savory roaster is self basting and self browning. The bottom is raised off the oven by the outside heat-retaining jacket, which applies a uniform heat to the roast from all sides.

The Savory roaster is in a class to itself. Is guaranteed to give satisfaction when used according to directions. Buy one, take it home, go by the directions, use it thirty days, if not all we claim forth, return it to us and we will give you back your money, providing the roaster when returned, is in good condition.

See our window display of the Savory roasters. We will be glad to show you. Call and see them.
