TICKET AGENT GREEN CANNOT BE RELEASED BY WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Taken from Custody of Sheriff by Judge Long, He is Now Guest of Wake County Criminal Court

Raleigh, N. C., July 17.—T. E. Green, city ticket agent for the Southern Railway Company in Raleigh, was today taken by Judge Long out of the custody of the sheriff and the defendant instructed to attend the sessions of the court from session to session without giving bond or being recognized by the court for his appearance. This move was taken in order to intercept a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Pritchard directed to the sheriff demanding the body of the prisoner. It is the intention of the sheriff to answer the writ by saying that the prisoner is not in his custody. Judge Pritchard is on his way here, but what action he will take is a matter of conjecture.

This morning when Judge Long opened Superior court counsel for the prosecution in the case against the Southern Railway Company and Agent T. E. Green (ex-Gov. C. B. Aycock and E. J. Justice) appeared and lodged a motion for the immediate trial of the prisoner on the ground that there was a move on the part of the counsel and Green to delay any trial until the arrival of a process from the federal court to take the case and the custody of the prisoner from the state court.

Ex-Judge A. C. Avery made answer for the prisoner, that he had just arrived from his home in Morganton, and had had no time to investigate as to the rights of his client or confer with associates as to the best course to pursue. What he wanted was time to prepare for the proper defense of Green, whom he had been retained to defend.

E. J. Justice, of counsel for the prosecution, arose to interrupt Judge Avery in his remarks to the court, but was cut off with the fling that he (Avery) was not there preparing any material for the next campaign, but solely for the purpose of maintaining and defending the rights of his client.

In a statement from the bench Judge Long took the position that if it was the purpose of counsel for the Southern to impede and delay the court and in the end deny the jurisdiction of this court and strive to have the prisoner taken by a process from the federal court, then no time would be allowed.

On behalf of the Southern, F. H. Busbee made answer that for the information of the court he would say that he had been engaged in the preparation of a plea to be filed in this court, but he could make no pledge as to whether it would be approved or used when the general counsel came to confer regarding the matter.

The answer of Judge Long was: "The question is, do you propose to recognize the jurisdiction of this court, or will you seek to thwart this court's proceedings with writs from other courts?" The answer was that the defense might, after consultation, file a plea as to jurisdiction, but no pledge not to take the case to the federal court through special process could be elicited from counsel.

The outcome of the cross-firing was that Judge Long announced that he would call the case for hearing at twelve o'clock. The general understanding was that a writ of habeas corpus was expected to arrive from Judge Pritchard on the 12.45 train. Counsel went their way. However, just before noon, Judge Long summoned the counsel in the case before him and read to Sheriff Sears a special order from the court directing him to surrender prisoner Green into the custody of the court, and directing the prisoner to remain at the bar of the court when in session. This move was because it was known that a writ of habeas corpus was expected here from the federal court at any time, commanding the sheriff to produce the prisoner before the federal judge, and the passing of custody of the prisoner from the sheriff would vacate this writ, and no such process could apply to Judge Long while holding the prisoner in his own custody. And he can be forced to trial at the pleasure of the court.

Greenville and the Training School.

The committee announced on Wednesday that the East Carolina Training school will be located at Greenville. Amongst the various towns which made effort to secure the school Greenville stood first with the committee, and barring the local interests of the towns which made effort for the school, we believe the people of the State will agree with the decision of the committee. This people of Greenville and Pitt county have shown a laudable enterprise in the matter from the very beginning. Indeed, as we remember it, the first movement for such school came from Pitt county. Certain it is that the people of that county have labored heroically for the school, and they have left nothing undone to have the school located at Greenville. All the other towns which made application also did well, but Greenville out-classed them and won. We congratulate the town of Greenville and all the people of Pitt county on the victory, and we trust the school may be a great blessing to the good people amongst whom it is to be located. Much depends upon Greenville and Pitt county as to what shall be the success of the school for the first few years of its existence. With the liberality which may well be expected from the people of Greenville and Pitt county and those in adjacent counties, the school will take a high stand from the first and will fulfill a good mission. The Greenville Reflector thus felicitously invites the competing towns to the laying of the corner stone of the building: "All the other competing towns have an invitation in advance to come to Greenville to the corner stone laying of the Eastern Training school. Greenville and Pitt county will cordially welcome them and show them there is no unkind feeling arising from the contest."—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

To Wash Down Quilts.

Down quilts and small feather or down pillows which have become soiled can be washed at home with very little trouble and expense. First choose a good day, for the drying is half the battle, and you need plenty of sunshine and a gentle wind. Use lukewarm water, and one of the many pure soaps that are now in the market, and avoid a washboard. It will not be of any help and it will certainly pull your quilt or pillow out of shape. Rub thoroughly with the soap, squeezing and patting it with your hands as you might fine woolen underwear; rinse in two or three clear waters, and hang out to dry in the sun. A dash of salt in the water will prevent it from fading.

Greenville Deserved to Win.

The inducements offered by the towns competing for the Training School are exceedingly creditable to their public spirit and interest in education. Greenville deserves the prize she has won, not only because she offered the biggest inducements, but because her distinguished citizen, Gov. Jarvis, had more than any other man to do with winning the fight for the establishment of the school.—Reidsville Weekly.

Trade Report.

Bradstreet's to-morrow will say, for Richmond, Va. and vicinity: Wholesale and retail dealers in agricultural implements, field and garden seed and fertilizers report increased sales for the past few weeks. The weather in the early spring and summer months was unfavorable for those engaged in this line, but recent favorable weather has given tone to this market and has improved conditions of practically all growing crops. The cotton crops of North Carolina shows improvement, but will necessarily be later than the average.

Orders for dry goods for fall shipment continue coming in satisfactory amount. Collections are fair.

Dead Cities

"What became of Nineveh?" asked the Sunday school teacher. "It was destroyed," said Johnny promptly. "And what became of Tyre?" "Punctured."

FELT BIG, JUST A MOMENT.

Then it Dawned on Him That He Did Not Know How to Fish.

It's always a pity when a man gets to feeling real big that he should take a tumble all at once. Yesterday afternoon when Mr. Andrew Joyner went home to do some work in that mighty garden he owns, Mr. J. T. Pruden, his neighbor, suggested that fish would bite finely at Hamburg. His horse stood ready hitched to a buggy and Mr. Joyner hopped in. At the river he went to work with hook and line and in a short time had caught seven perch and was crowing loudly over Mr. Pruden; then Mr. Pruden, who seems to be an experienced fisherman, gave a jerk and landed a pike which in length exceeded the combined length of the seven landed by the press correspondent. At this moment his feathers fell and he refused to do any more fishing. He said it was his first effort at fishing since he came from the eastern part of the State and it was going to be his last.

Pity that some men are so easily hacked.—Greensboro record.

What It Takes.

A Texas exchange says: By mixing the following ingredients wisely, a live hustling city is sure to result. As arranged by the printer, it appears a monument, but it should be understood that not all monuments need be erected for dead issue, as this is most emphatically a live one:

- Grit,
- Vim,
- Push,
- Snap,
- Energy,
- Schools,
- Morality,
- Churches,
- Harmony,
- Cordiality,
- Advertising,
- Talk about it,
- Write about it,
- Healthy location,
- Help to improve it,
- Advertise in its papers,
- Elect good men to office,
- Patronize its merchants,
- Honest competition in prices,
- Faith exhibited by good works,
- Fire all croakers, loafers and dead-beats. Let your object be the welfare growth and promotion of your town and its people. Speak well of public spirited men and also be one of them yourself, and be honest with all your fellow men.

It is a slightly monument with the sand at the top. One reason why some towns and cities do not keep up and go ahead is found in the failure refusal of the very element most needed and most competent to join in a movement looking to progress and improvement. "Help to improve it" is one of the best stones in the monument.

A Grave Offense.

A prisoner was brought before a police magistrate. The latter looked around and discovered that his clerk was absent. "Officer," he said, "what's this man charged with?" "Bigotry, your honor. He's got three wives." The magistrate looked at the officer as though astonished at ignorance. "Why, officer," he said, "that's not bigotry, that's trigonometry."

WHERE COOL BREEZES BLOW.

Jamestown Exposition Best Place on the Map.

Jamestown Exposition, Va., July 17—That this is the time of year for people to seek the watering places and sea-side resorts of the country, to get away from the hot cities and to lose themselves from the business cares and worries of home, is evidenced by the greatly increased traveling population. Owing to the fact that the Jamestown exposition is the first celebration ever held in this country on deep water, a visit will combine the pleasures of the summer vacation, as well as an opportunity to take advantage of the educational and historic features of this great international fair.

The idea of going South in the summer may not appeal to the uninitiated, but to those who have enjoyed a summer in the South, it is well known that the watering places and sea side resorts of Virginia, by reason of, not only their beautiful and varied scenery, but the ideal weather conditions that exist, are becoming the most popular resorts in the country.

And so with the Jamestown exposition, there exists a combination difficult to excel. Located on the historic waters of Hampton Roads, across which is continually wafted the bracing salt air from the broad Atlantic, the exposition with its six hundred acres on Sewell's point, one of the most attractive spots in the Old Dominion, affords all the requirements for either the pleasure seeker or for those looking for rest and quiet.

The exposition, which is within a twenty-four hour radius of forty millions of people, is connected with the North, South and West, by eight or ten railroads, and as many steamship lines, affording pleasant and efficient transportation facilities to and from the fair.

Just across the water of Hampton Roads, lie Old Point Comfort, Fort Monroe and Hotel Chamberlain, where both arms of the service are seen daily on parade and featured in social life. Fort Monroe, with its grim walls and winding moat aside from being the most important artillery station on the Atlantic coast, is one of the most picturesque places in the country. Virginia Beach, the "Atlantic City" of the south, a short trolley ride from the exposition grounds, where stretches for more than a hundred miles one of the most perfect beaches on the coast. These places together with many others, in and around the Tidewater Virginia, compare favorably with any of the summer resorts of the North, and during the late hot spell that swept the country, a comparison of temperature showed that the Jamestown exposition—the shores of Hampton Roads, recorded as low mercury, if not lower, than many of the watering places farther North. Indeed the climatic conditions of the sea-side resorts of the Old Dominion, in the summer, are becoming as popular as the Florida and Gulf resorts in the winter.

THE MAJOR TIES THEM.

Two Couples Come to Get Married.

Major Henry Harding is much in demand these days as a joiner of ties matrimonial.
Wednesday evening a colored couple, Walter Knight and Bettie Walker, who had first visited Register of Deeds Williams and armed themselves with the proper implement, took themselves to the office of Major Harding for him to put on the finishing touches, which he did in good style.

Early this morning there was a call from a white couple who run away from Greene county and came here to get married. They started on their journey about 3 o'clock and were here before many people were stirring. Not knowing just who to apply to for license they first sent for Clerk of the Court Moore and hustled him out. He being the wrong man to issue the kind of document wanted, Deputy Register John Williams was the next officer captured. He was not fully satisfied as to the age of the bride-elect and Register of Deeds Williams was sent for. The license was soon all right, and a hurry call went to the residence of Major Harding who came down and soon had the happy couple joined. They were Mr. Edward Little and Miss Fannie Baker. They returned to Greene county immediately after the ceremony.

"BEYOND THE ALPS"

An item of news has been going the round about a Kansas girl who gained prominence by a display of good old common, hard sense, when she was given the theme "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy" at her graduation in a Kansas college Here is her essay:

"I don't care a cent whether Italy lies beyond the Alps or in Missouri. I do not expect to set the river on fire with my future career. I am glad that I have a good education, but I am not going to misuse it by writing poetry or essays on the future woman. It will enable me to correct the grammar of any lover I may have should he speak of 'dorgs' in my presence or 'seen a man.' It will also come handy when I want to figure out how many pounds of soap a woman can get for three dozen eggs at the grocery. So I do not begrudge the time I spent in acquiring it. But my ambitions do not fly so high. I just want to marry a man who can lick anybody of his weight in the township, who can run an eighty acre farm and who has no female relatives to come around and try to boss the ranch. I will agree to cook dinners for him that won't send him to an early grave and lavish upon him a wholesome affection and to see that his razor has not been used to cut broom wire when he wants a shave. In view of all this I do not care if I get a little rusty on the rule of three and kindred things as the years go by."

She is the plain American girl. She is pure gold. She is worth more than can be seen at a glance and her goodness will be shown in her every day life. The man who wins this kind of a girl has a prize he can't value too high.

He Was Going Fast Enough.

The retirement of Colonel Mathias, the man who led the Gordon highlanders when they stormed the heights of Dargai ten years ago, recalls a curious story of how he came to join that famous regiment. The gallant colonel is not a Scotsman, but a Welshman, and it was owing to a slip of the pen that he joined the renowned Seventy-fifth regiment. "I was intended," he says, "to go into the old Ninety-fifth regiment; but 9 and 7 are very much alike and by a slip of the pen I was gazetted to the Seventy-fifth." A story is told concerning Colonel Mathias when he was leading the famous charge at Dargai. "Stiff climb, eh, Mackie?" he said breathlessly to the color sergeant by his side. "I'm not so young as I was, you know." "Never mind, sir," the sergeant replied, "ye're going verra strong for an auld mon."—Tit-Bits.

The Portrait Pipe.

The portrait pipe is a fad with certain wealthy young men, says a London paper. One of the most beautiful is owned by a well known peer, who was married to an American beauty a few years ago. He wished to have a pipe made bearing the likeness of his wife, and left several photographs and a statuette of her with the carver. A month later he received the pipe and a bill for $800. A number of pieces of meerschaum had been tried, only to prove defective, and the last piece, which measured eight inches high, seven inches broad and twelve inches deep, was reduced to a pipe three inches high and two and one-half inches at its widest part. When completed the pipe had passed through the hands of twenty-seven workmen.

The Reason.

F. A. Busse, Chicago's new mayor, had been complimented by a reporter on the direct, terse quality of a statement he had given out. "I am a believer in brevity," said Mr. Busse, smiling. "The fewer words you say a thing in the stronger and more striking is that thing's effect. Once I knew a man who hated the Swiss. 'Why, Jake, I said to him one day, 'you astound me. You hate the Swiss, yet here you are married to a Swiss wife.' 'Yes,' said Jake, 'that's the reason.'"

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. GENEVEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

To Restore Faded Colors. Babied colored frocks and coats often become faded after being washed at the laundry. For a few cents' worth of soda of lemon and scald it. When quite cold, plunge the article in and let it lie for some twenty minutes or so, turning over once or twice. The color will be quite restored. To Relieve Pains in Feet. If your feet are painful dust them every night with this powder: Pulverized alum, five grams; naphthol, five grams; borax, ten grams; starch, ten grams; salicylic acid, three grams; violet talcum powder, sixty grams. Dust into the shoes each morning.

Covering the Ironing Board. When covering an ironing board instead of tacking the cloth on just try this method: Make an inch hem on each side, put on tapes about eight inches apart and tie securely underneath. Have two covers, and then they can be easily removed and washed.

A family is very useful to teach a man not to throw away any money on himself.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store.

If you can smile when your rival is praised you have tact.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

There is always a demand for the man who does his best.

Get a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" at our store. If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this Coffee imitation. Dr. Shoop has closely matched Old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real Coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. Made in a minute. No tedious wait. You will surely like it. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co.

As a rule, other people are the best judges of your importance.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol goes directly to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the digestive organs, supplies the natural digestive juices and digests what you eat. It is a simple, clean, pure, harmless remedy. Don't neglect your stomach. Take a little Kodol after each meal and see how good it makes you feel. Money back if it fails. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Drifting with the tide is a slow way to get anywhere; the tide flows both ways.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A weeks treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The way to make admirers is to make a fortune.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The aggressive man is usually only a polite way of referring to your quarrelsome friend.

For scratches, burns, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolicized Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Some women can fool you about whether their complexion is made up even when you taste it.

Mothers who give their children Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup invariably adore it. Children like it because the taste is so pleasant. Contains honey and tar. It is the original laxative cough syrup and is unrivaled for the relief of croup. Drives the cold out through the bowels. Conforms to the Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by J. L. Wooten's.

CHILDREN'S CRUSADE

One of the Most Remarkable Events in the World's History.

There is one episode of the history of the crusades that few people are familiar with, an episode so unique, so strange, so pathetic, so tragic withal, that it stands out as a conspicuous illustration of the fever of enthusiasm then pervading Europe. It is called the "children's crusade," and as one of the most remarkable events in history it is well worth telling you about.

It was in the summer of 1212. Two boy prophets, so called, each about twelve years of age, were preaching a crusade, not of arms, but of prayer, against the Saracens. One of them was Stephen of Cloys, in France; the other, Nicholas of Cologne, in Germany. They claimed to be inspired by heaven to raise each an army of children to go to the Holy Land and convert the infidels to Christianity. The sea, they said, would open, as it once did for the Israelites, and permit them to pass over to Palestine with dry feet. Their preaching caused almost a frenzy of excitement among the children, and soon two armies of them started for the Holy Land, one from Cologne, the other from Vendome, France. The German army numbered about 40,000 and the French about 80,000.

During the passage over the Alps nearly 30,000 of the German children succumbed to cold and exposure, and 10,000 of the French children died between Vendome and Marseilles.

The German army had marched in two divisions, the first under the famous Nicholas and the second under a boy whose name has not been preserved. When Nicholas arrived at Genoa and found that the sea did not open to permit their passage he disbanded his army. Many of the children were sent back home by the kind-hearted Genoese, but others pressed on to Pisa and took passage by ship for Palestine.

Meanwhile the army under the unknown boy had reached Brindisi, whence they departed for the Holy Land, and about 5,000 of the French children were shipped from Marseilles for the same destination.

But alas for the fatuous preaching of the boy prophets and the equally fatuous credulity of their followers! All the children that survived the voyage were sold as slaves to the Turks, and of the 70,000 that started out on that crusade of prayer at least 50,000 were never heard of by their parents afterward.

What must have been the condition of the public mind when 70,000 children, nearly all of them less than twelve years of age, were permitted to take part in so wild and fatal an enterprise!—Chicago News.

Matrimonial Commandments.

- Matrimony has ten commandments.
- These were studied out by Theodore Parker shortly before the day of his wedding. They took the form of ten beautiful resolutions which he inscribed in his journal. They were as follows:
- First.—Never, except for the best reasons, to oppose my wife's will.
- Second.—To discharge all duties for her sake freely.
- Third.—Never to scold.
- Fourth.—Never to look cross at her.
- Fifth.—Never to worry her with commandments.
- Sixth.—To promote her piety.
- Seventh.—To bear her burdens.
- Eighth.—To overlook her foibles.
- Ninth.—To save, cherish and forever defend her.
- Tenth.—To remember her always in my prayers. Thus, God willing, we shall be blessed.

An Unfortunate Synonym.

An American girl who studied in Germany tells of a German girl who was studying English and who used to write letters in English to her parents. One day the German girl handed a letter to her, saying: "Here is the letter which I have written to my mother. I want you to read it over and see if it is properly written." The letter was all right, excepting the closing phrase, which read as follows: "God pickle and keep you." An investigation proved that the young German woman in looking for a synonym for "preserve" had come across "pickle."

A Hopeless Case.

"Yes," said the business man, "I have given up trying to collect that little bill from Bilkins. You see, he is a big, muscular fellow, and he used to throw my collectors out." "Then why didn't you employ a woman collector?" inquired a fellow tradesman. "He couldn't do that to a woman." "That's what I thought, so I got one and sent her around, but she never came back." "Why not?" "He married her."—Spare Moments.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured. MRS. LORING N. CHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as to heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me. D. KAUBLE, Nevada, O.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well. If your back aches or is weak, if the urine smells, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell.

Information as to the Care of Kerosene Lamps—Domestic Wisdom.

Never touch the chimney of a lamp with water. A few drops of kerosene oil will remove the smoke and dimness, and a rub with soft flannel or chamois skin will result in a clear polish.

Clean every bit of the burner with a rag dipped in oil and polish it dry and bright. Boil very dirty, neglected burners in soda and water.

See that the outside of the lamp is dry, clean and perfectly free from oil after being filled. Each day rub off the burnt portion of the wick with a duster. Do not cut the wick.

Do not fill a lamp to the brim. Do not let a lamp burn after the oil is exhausted or turn it down. Nearly the same amount of oil is consumed as when the flame is full, what is not burnt passing off in the form of gas, which can be smelled when entering a room where the lamp has been turned low.

Soak new wicks in vinegar and dry thoroughly before putting in the burner.—Lamp-lighter.

Salt of the Earth.

In older days salt was the emblem of purity and incorruption. It was supposed to have a sanctifying influence. Christ called his disciples the salt of the earth. Salt has such a serious matter that God gave the kingdom to David by a covenant of salt. The Roman soldiers were required to take a part of their wages in salt, which was as good as gold of the realm. Among the Arabs to eat a man's salt is to partake of his hospitality, and it forms a sacred bond between host and guest. "You know many a man who is not worth his salt," and many another who couldn't "earn money by the sweat of his brow" or "live salt" is a faithful to his employer. And he who "sits above his salt" is a man in a place of distinction.—New York Press.

Doctor and Hearse.

A Washington physician was recently walking on Connecticut avenue with his five-year-old son, when they were obliged to stop at a side street to await the passing of a funeral procession.

The youngster had never seen anything of the kind. His eyes widened. Pointing to the hearse, he said, "Dad, what's that?"

"That, my son," said the physician with a grim smile, "is a misdiagnosis."—Washington

CONDENSED STORIES.

When the Pride of a Settlement Worker Received a Hard Jolt.

Rev. Anna Shaw, president of the American Woman Suffrage association, said in an address in Chicago: "An excellent cure for false pride is a little college settlement work. By false pride I mean the belief that the poor regard one as noble and fine because one happens to be rich. Servants and dependents have to encourage this false pride in us, but a little settlement work soon undoes the mischief."

"I know a Philadelphia woman. She is proud because her great-grandfather, a carpenter, happened to own land that is now worth millions. In her haughty way she did some settlement work during Lent.

"I SUPPOSE THEY ARE VERY INQUISITIVE."

"There was an old woman whom she visited every few days. She carried the old woman jellies, tea, olives and such like luxuries. And she was secretly pleased with the attention she attracted as she passed up and down the narrow, squalid street.

"Your neighbors stare at me a good deal," she said complacently one morning.

"I'll be bound for that," said the old woman.

"I suppose they are very inquisitive, eh?"

"They certainly are, the busy-bodies," the old woman grumbled.

"No doubt they question you about me a good deal?"

"Indeed they do, mum." The visitor smiled again.

"And what do you tell them?" she asked sweetly.

"Oh," said the old woman, "I just say y'er me dressmaker, and let it go at that."

The Modern Builder.

Dr. H. W. Wiley, the chemist and food expert of the department of agriculture, paused in an address in Washington to tell an appropriate story.

"Not in food alone," he said, "has an ugly modern spirit manifested itself. Take, for instance, the building trade.

"A builder the other day was showing a prospective buyer over a row of new houses.

"Talk about walls," the man said, rapping a parlor wall proudly with his knuckles. "John," to his clerk, "just go in next door, and we'll show this here gentleman what these walls is like."

"John ran into the next house. The builder shouted through the wall to him:

"John, can ye hear me?"

"Yes, sir, I can hear ye," John replied.

"The builder, looking disappointed, paused. Then:

"John, can ye see me?" he shouted.

"No, sir," sang out John. "No, sir, I can't see ye."

"The builder turned to the prospective buyer:

"There's walls fur ye," he said."—Boston Globe.

Up to Them.

"A trust conference—any kind of a conference, for that matter—is a good thing," said Governor Sheldon of Nebraska, "if it is conducted fairly.

"To be unfair, to be prejudiced, to be suspicious, is a way to judge wrongly. The suspicious man falls into error and makes a fool of himself.

"There was a very suspicious countryman who went to New York to see the sights. Coming to the Metropolitan museum, he was amazed to find that the admission to this splendid building cost nothing. He mounted the steps and entered.

"Your umbrella, sir," said a uniformed official, extending his hand.

"The countryman jerked back his umbrella, laughed scornfully and turned on his heel.

"I knowed there was some cheat about it when ye got in free," he said."

The Savory Seamless Roaster

Is far superior to any other Roaster made, not an ounce of substance lost. Other roasters waste from 10 to 20 per cent. The Savory seamless roaster needs no water, grease or attention of any kind. It simply asks to be let alone. Retains all juices and flavors, renews the youth of the toughest fowl. One great feature of the Savory roaster is the oval bottom, with the ordinary flat bottom roaster the moisture brought out of the meat by cooking has no chance to accumulate and is burned and dried up in the bottom of the pan. In the oval bottom this meat juice flows continuously to the lowest point of the bottom, where it is turned into steam and condensed on the surface of the meat. This condensation continues until the roast has become heated through to the temperature of the atmosphere in the roaster, when the condensation stops and the brown ing of the roast begins.

The Savory roaster is self basting and self browning. The bottom is raised off the oven by the outside heat-retaining jacket, which applies a uniform heat to the roast from all sides.

The Savory roaster is in a class to itself. Is guaranteed to give satisfaction when used according to directions. Buy one, take it home, go by the directions, use it thirty days, if not all we claim forth, return it to us and we will give you back your money, providing the roaster when returned, is in good condition.

See our window display of the Savory roasters. We will be glad to show you. Call and see them.
