SERIOUS WRECK ON

SOUTHERN RAILWAY

Three Killed and Twenty-one Injured
Greenville Lady Sustains Slight Bruises

A head on collision between passenger train No. 136 and freight No. 73 on the Southern Railway, one mile from Auburn last night resulted in the death of three men and the wounding of 21 persons. The cause of the wreck is attributed to Conductor C. M. Oakley and Engineer Will C. Rippey of the passenger train who forgot orders given them to meet the freight at Auburn.

The three men killed were the engineer and fireman of the freight, both white, whose bodies were consumed in the fire which followed the wreck, and the negro fireman on the passenger train.

Among the injured was Miss Elizabeth Anderson, of Greenville, who received slight bruises on the face.

All of the injured passengers—twenty-one in number—were able to continue their journey on a special train towards Goldsboro, except three who were taken to a hospital in Raleigh.

First of Farmers Meetings

Elizabeth City, N. C., Aug. 6.—The first of the series of farmers, educational meetings was held here and was a great success. At least 250 substantial and intelligent farmers were present from every section of Pasquotank county and in addition quite a number of citizens who engaged in other pursuits.

R. N. Morgan, a well known farmer, presided. There were five formal talks by experts from the United States department of agriculture, and also by Professor Pratt, state geologist.

"Oh! For a New Cuss Word."

This is the way the old man wrote to the youth at college:

"Dear William—As long as you are thar, be shore and larn all the languages you kin. I've swore at the mule till I've wore the American language to a frazzle, an' I think of I could jes' surprise him with some new cuss words maybe he'd pull the plow better. Help me out, William—fer this old mule has done wore me out!"—Exchange.

Washington's Trolley Line

Washington, N. C., Aug. 6.—Civil engineers are expected to arrive in the city within the next few days to begin the work of laying off the lines and making the necessary surveys for the electric trolley line soon to be established in this city. It is also the purpose of the company to run the car line out to cow Head mineral spring about three miles from this city and from there on to the town of Williamston.

John D. Duns-U. S.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—John D. Rockefeller, the world's richest man, is dunning Uncle Sam for the $92,200 he earned as a reluctant witness in the Standard Oil hearing before Judge K. M. Landis.

A messenger from Rockefeller's attorneys called at the federal building to learn just what the oil king has to do to collect the money.

Firemen's Tournament.

Wilmington, Aug. 6.—The advance guard of the firemen for the annual convention of the State Firemen's Association and inter-State tournament here this week has already arrived and every train to-morrow is expected to bring large crowds. Asheville arrived to-night with twenty-two men and much apparatus. New Bern, Concord, Winston, Durham and Raleigh have their apparatus here and tried the race course this afternoon with some of the horses.

President James D. McNeill, of the State association, arrived to-night and says he expects the largest attendance ever at a State meet. The convention meets Tuesday; the tournament begins Wednesday morning. The Concord company is camping out and has spread canvas near the race course on a large vacant lot. It has a good representation of men and apparatus. Many of the visiting firemen were at the seashore to-night.

No Charge for Children.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Aug. 6.—The agents and other employees of the Southern Railway at this point have received official instructions from the Southern Railway headquarters in Washington in regard to the new passenger fares, and they show that the Southern is more liberal toward the traveling public than even their best friends had hoped. According to the instructions received here the new 2 1/2 cent rate is to be put into effect on August 8, next Thursday, at one minute after the new day is born—12:01 a. m.—and this rate is to remain in effect until further notice.

The Southern, however, is not going to charge for children under five years of age, but will let them travel free, as heretofore, provided they are accompanied by parent or guardian. The Southern, therefore, goes the Norfolk & Western one better, as the latter company now charges for every body. Children between the ages of five and twelve years will be charged half price, the same as at present.

Freight Rate Hearing.

Raleigh, Aug. 6.—Announcement was made from the office of Governor Glenn today that August 9 has been agreed on as the date for the conference between the governor, the corporation commission and the traffic managers of the Southern, Seaboard Air Line, Atlantic Coast Line, Norfolk & Southern, Norfolk & Western and other roads doing business in this state with a view to getting together in the matter of eliminating the discrimination against North Carolina towns in freight rates as compared to rates on long hauls to "Virginia cities." This is the date on which the corporation commission has already set a hearing for the Norfolk & Western on similar discriminations against Winston-Salem and Durham, North Carolina terminals of the company. It will be remembered that Governor Glenn recently issued a letter to the several railroad companies declaring his purpose to take up the fight for more equitable rates on freight to North Carolina points from Cincinnati and other points west and north.

Everyone feels a deep interest and sincerely hopes her recovery may be soon and speedy.

Johnie Lynn Jenkins came home yesterday from a visit to relatives in Grifton.

He'll Be Dead—Maybe.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 6.—"Judge Landis will be dead a long while before this fine is paid. In fact, many things will happen before that."

This is the only direct comment, public or private, that John D. Rockefeller is known to have made on the $20,240,000 fine since it was imposed last Saturday. Such as it is, it indicates the attitude of the oil king toward the federal judge and it forecasts the determined fight that is to be made to upset the Landis decision.

HAPPENINGS AROUND FARMVILLE

Crops, Personal Items, and Other News

Farmville, N. C., Aug. 5, 1907. As the turn tables of time are slowly rotating in the orbits, so are we, some coming and going, some tilling and tooling. While many seem to be willing the summer days away as it were, without a sorrow or care, and with the favorable seasons of the past week our farmers especially all seem to wear bright countenances, and of course it is understood by the signification or symbolism suggested by the name of our town, Farmville, that when our farmers are happy so are we.

Died in Marlboro, about 8 o'clock this morning the little daughter of Mr. and Mr. Q. T. Trotman, the burial will be at the family grave yard, near Falkland, at Senator W. R. Williams' father of Mrs. Trotman.

Tobacco market opened with good sales, every thing booming, Carolina leading in pounds and prices, average $8.26.

Queen quality shoes out last, wear easier, and give better satisfaction than any other shoes we have ever used in our family, is the sentiment of a well known customer of W. M. Lang, sole agent.

The following cases in our mayor's court were disposed of this morning:

Robert Hanrahan, col. assault on wife with knife with threats to kill Bound over to court under $100 bond, being unable to give it was sent to jail.

Frank Frizell, col. drunk and disorderly fined $2 and cost $3.20. Albert Ward, col. indecency, fined $2 and cost, $3.95.

H. C. Moore, drunk and disorderly, fined $3 and cost, $5.20. J. H. Frizell, drunk and disorderly, fined $3 and cost, $5.20.

J. R. Nichols, drunk and down, failed to appear, fine and capias issued.

MOORE-BARRET.

On last Wednesday evening about 10 o'clock, Elder Moore, pastor of Farmville Christian church and Miss Mabel Barrett, of Farmville, were married at the home of Mr. Eugene Stanfield by Elder J. T. Bundy, and left early next morning for Wilson and will spend some time with his mother and friends.

J. D. Thorne lost a valuable horse today, it was supposed to have had the blind staggers. This makes three horses Mr. Thorne has lost this year. Mr. Walter Barret also lost one last Saturday.

Mr. Stepher Wooten, member of the law firm of Wooten & Wooten, of Greenville, came up last Friday and will establish a branch office here, we learn. He appeared in a case in our mayor's court this morning. We extend him a hearty reception and no doubt many of us at times need legal advice, which heretofore has been very inconvenient in cases of emergency.

Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson returned Sunday from Norfolk and the exposition, and reports a pleasant and quite interesting trip. Says if there was nothing to be seen the breeze of the sea would well pay one for going.

Mrs. Sarah Walsh and daughter, Miss Sadie, of Aberline, Tex. came in last Wednesday and will spend several days with Capt. Stamper and mother, who is a sister of Mrs. Walsh.

Miss Lizzie Hines and the Misses Carroway, of Wilson, and Miss Curtz, of Norfolk, is visiting Mrs. S. A. Albritton. Miss Tabitha Visconti will accompany Miss Curtz back and spend several days.

The Federal Court.

(Editorial Correspondence.)

Beaufort N. C August 6.

Judge Thomas Purnell convened the special term of Federal court at 10 o'clock this morning and adjourned at 12, the only work of the day being selecting the grand jury and the judges charge. The first man called on grand jury was W. E. Tucker of Pitt county.

Judge Purnell began his charge by saying it is to be regretted that so many people misunderstand United States courts and are antagonistic to them. They charge that these courts are of foreign jurisdiction and for revenue regulation. The antagonism is kept alive by bobtail lawyers and interested editors. United States courts had their origin in 1787, hence have been in existence for 125 years. With a single exception in this State they have always been presided over by North Carolinians. The business of United States courts is to look after affairs controlled by the government, just like the business of State courts is to look after officers controlled by the State. There is sometimes conflict between them, but never where the laws are properly administered.

Judge Purnell then took up some of the statutory laws to call to the attention of the grand jury, dwelling at length on peonage. He said this had not been regarded a crime until within the last three years. Since he had been charging grand juries on peonage his position had been criticised, especially by the editor of one leading paper who took issue with him. Any holding in servitude for debt, whether voluntary or involuntary is peonage and should be punished. One man makes a contract with another and furnish him supplies, the creditor goes before a magistrate who binds the debtor to work out the debt. This puts the debtor in slavery and is peonage, notwithstanding it is sanctioned by a State statute under the landlord and tenant act.

Judge Purnell then mentioned a few other offenses and gave his charge a political turn on the tariff. He defined the position of both parties on this question, saying one favored tariff for revenue only, and the other tariff for the protection of American industries. He expected most of the grand jurors would disagree with his opinion, but he favored tariff for protection.

He also warned the grand jury against finding bills of indictment for petty charges of retailing and said he often went home feeling like he had been holding police court instead of United States court. He brought smiles to the audience in saying when you are in a prohibition town and awful dry and a man who knows the ropes gets you a pint, it is mighty hard to see him indicted for it.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Back or either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys, Troubles of the Stomach, Headaches, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken those nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store.

The vacation earned is the vacation enjoyed.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. EXCESSIVE ATHLETICS.

The Danger of Weakening the Body and the Nerves.

Exercise is a necessary for the human body as food and drink. It is impossible to maintain perfect health without it. But it must be taken in moderation, for excess in this respect is as harmful in its way and sometimes in the same way as excess in eating.

The effect of exercise is to increase the tissue changes in the body. The weaker cells are destroyed and replaced by new and stronger cells, the nutrition is increased, and the waste products are thrown off. If the exercise is carried to excess, however, it may happen that the waste products are thrown into the system in so great a quantity that they cannot be disposed of in the ordinary way, and they accumulate to such an extent that the body is poisoned by its own waste. The result is the same as when an excess of food is taken, and so exercise, which in moderation tends to counteract the evil of overeating, in excess only increases the evil.

It has always been known that excessive physical labor has a tendency to shorten life, and the attainment of old age is seldom the lot of the laboring man. But the fact is often curiously overlooked that physical labor is physical labor, whether it consists in wielding a pick and shovel or in throwing weights, rowing a boat, running or jumping.

The dangers of inordinate devotion to athletics are that one part of the body, one set of muscles or certain organs, such as the heart, will be developed out of proportion to the other parts. This is especially the case in the young who have not yet attained their growth. Again, as has just been noted, the body becomes poisoned by its own waste thrown off more rapidly than it can be eliminated by the natural processes. The nervous system, which presides over and regulates all the functions of the body, is put to a great strain, and the overtrained athlete is in great danger of becoming neurasthenic. But it is especially the heart and arteries, the carriers of nutriment to all the organs and tissues, which are apt to suffer the most.

The heart is a patient organ, and when strain is put upon it it quietly increases its bulk and its strength to meet the task. So long as the strain is continued it works along, but when the call upon it is diminished suddenly, the young man giving up his athletics and taking to a sedentary life, its muscular tissue begins to degenerate.

The arteries under strain act in the same way, and when the tension is relaxed the condition known as arteriosclerosis develops. The tissues are poorly nourished, and the man ages before his time. When devotion to athletics has been excessive, it is only by the greatest care in training down that the athlete can avoid the danger of weakened body and nerves.—Youth's Companion.

Dog Fennel to Start Balky Horse.

"A balky horse is the meanest thing this side of Memphis," said A. L. Nichols of Brentwood, Tenn. "I had a horse one time that balked on all occasions. He would balk if you whistled, balked if you laughed and balked if you looked from the corner of your eye. One day he balked and I could not make him move forward to save me. An old negro man happened along and supplied a remedy. Going to the side of the road, he pulled a handful of dog fennel weed. Taking this, he rubbed it under the horse's nose. The animal shook his head once or twice, raised up his tail and started down the road in the merriest trot you ever saw. That treatment of dog fennel cured the horse of balking. He never made another attempt to act ugly after that."—Nashville Tennessean.

An Actor's Coolness.

An actor who was playing Claude Melnotte lost his memory to such an extent in the scene where he makes love to Pauline and describes the imaginary villa by the lake of Como that the prompter was obliged to come to his relief and recite the whole passage in a loud voice.

Canada, however, was cool enough to do his part by saying, "Tell me dearest, you like the picture"—turning to the prompter—"which this gentleman has been kind enough to submit to your consideration?"—Liverpool Mercury.

His Mistaken Idea.

The misguided young man in the check suit had disturbed the audience by snoring and by while the gifted actress was playing the part of Mary, Queen of Scots, and the big policeman was leading him out by the ear.

"I've found out, anyhow," muttered the young man, "that laugh and the world laughs with you" is the biggest lie that ever was published!"—Chicago Tribune.

PAIN

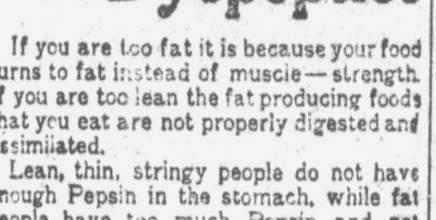

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congested, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At last, says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effects are charming, pleasantly delightful, gently though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruse your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

The Savory Seamless Roaster

Is far superior to any other Roaster made, not an ounce of substance lost. Other roasters waste from 10 to 20 per cent. The Savory seamless roaster needs no water, grease or attention of any kind. It simply asks to be let alone. Retains all juices and flavors, renews the youth of the toughest fowl. One great feature of the Savory roaster is the oval bottom, with the ordinary flat bottom roaster the moisture brought out of the meat by cooking has no chance to accumulate and is burned and dried up in the bottom of the pan. In the oval bottom this meat juice flows continuously to the lowest point of the bottom, where it is turned into steam and condensed on the surface of the meat. This condensation continues until the roast has become heated through to the temperature of the atmosphere in the roaster, when the condensation stops and the brown ing of the roast begins.

The Savory roaster is self basting and self browning. The bottom is raised off the oven by the outside heat-retaining jacket, which applies a uniform heat to the roast from all sides.

The Savory roaster is in a class to itself. Is guaranteed to give satisfaction when used according to directions. Buy one, take it home, go by the directions, use it thirty days, if not all we claim forth, return it to us and we will give you back your money, providing the roaster when returned, is in good condition.

See our window display of the Savory roasters. We will be glad to show you. Call and see them.

Formerly a telephone had stood on the bracket in the corner. The bracket had been made expressly for the phone. It had been so exceedingly convenient to call up her friends that the woman immediately noticed the change, for on the bracket in place of the telephone stood a cigarette that she didn't much care for.

"What have you done with it?" she asked of them.
"The company tried to collect the bill," they said.
"I am sorry," the woman sighed, because at that moment she thought of about a dozen to whom she would have liked to telephone.
"So are all our friends," they pointedly.—New York Press.
