KLINE NOT GUILTY

Jury Returns Verdict of Not Guilty After Two Hours Deliberation

Beaufort, N. C., Aug. 16.—After a 30-minute's charge the jury took the Kline peonage case, and in two hours returned a verdict of not guilty.

Another bill having been found against Kline for peonage, he was held to New Bern court under one thousand dollar bond, which he gave. In default of three hundred dollar bonds, eleven foreigners were ordered held in Carteret jail as witnesses to that court to testify against Kline.

GREENVILLE TOBACCO MARKET

Good Prices Prevailing and Volume of Business is Increasing

The better grades of tobacco have advanced from two to ten dollars per hundred on the Greenville market in the last two days. There has also been a small advance in all other grades. From what we can learn there is a good crop of tobacco around Greenville and from all indications it looks as if the farmers will get a good average price for their crop.

The Greenville market has as strong a corps of buyers as any market in North Carolina and you can rest assured that you can get as much for your tobacco in Greenville as any place on earth.

There is no danger of blocking the Greenville market as they are equipped to handle a million and a quarter pounds per week. In order to avoid keeping the farmers so long in town the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade decided to put on double sales this season, so as to enable the farmers to sell their tobacco early in the day, thereby giving them ample time to do their shopping and return home the same day.

N. C. Day at Exposition.

Norfolk, Aug. 15.—With the attendance surpassing all other notable day celebrations, North Carolina day was observed at the Jamestown exposition. Addresses were made by Governor Glenn and Lieutenant Governor Winston, of North Carolina, Governor Swanson, of Virginia, and President Tucker, of the exposition. The military review was a feature of the afternoon. Tonight the reception to Governor Glenn at the North Carolina building was the main event.

Deserved Promotion.

Mt. Airy, Aug. 16.—A gentleman who visited the jail yesterday, in which the "Smithtown" blockaders are imprisoned, gives an interesting account of a conversation he had with the twelve men. Their ages range from 18 or 19 to about 50 years. They had a great deal to say about what they proposed doing after sentence is passed and they all go to the penitentiary. They have each selected an occupation—some one thing and some another. One fairly old man said he proposed to bottom chairs, as he understood that kind of business. These men seem to be taking the thing easy—making the best of it they possibly can. When they get out of this scrape they will probably, at least some of them, let the liquor business alone.

GREENVILLE GRADED SCHOOLS.

Letter from Superintendent Smith Interesting to Patrons.

Editor Reflector:

Through the columns of your esteemed paper, I wish to transmit some information to the people of the Greenville graded school district concerning the next session of the graded school.

By order of the Board of Trustees, the white school will open on Wednesday, Sept. 25th. The following is the corps of teachers, all but two of whom were elected at the June and July meetings of the trustees: First grade, Miss Irvine; advanced first grade, Miss Harding; second, Miss Wade; third, Miss McEnery; fourth, Miss Payne; fifth, Miss Bennett; sixth, seventh, eighth and tenth, Misses Wright, McKinney and Cox. Miss Haskins will teach drawing and assist in the third grade. Miss Olive B. Gaston, of Penfield, New York, will have charge of the department of music.

All the members of our faculty are graduates, and bear the records of a successful experience as teachers; they represent the best higher educational institutions of the country, and if one may judge by their educations and by the testimonials they hold, no school need ask for a stronger aggregation of teachers.

Miss Gaston, our music teacher, is a graduate of Syracuse University, New York, and is a native of that State. Prof. White, the Dean of the College of Music of Syracuse, assures me that Miss Gaston is one of the best prepared and most accomplished musicians that University has ever graduated. She has had the best of instruction from American and European instructors. She is an experienced teacher of the finest type, Mr. White says, and we are fortunate in securing her as a teacher in our school.

I advised the Board of Trustees to establish the department of music in connection with the school because I believe it to be necessary and because a number of people in Greenville requested me to do so. We have adopted the same plan used at Rocky Mount and in a large number of the best graded schools of the State, and we believe the best of opportunities can be afforded the people in this way. By having the music at the school, we hope to make an arrangement more satisfactory to us than heretofore, and more convenient to the pupils.

In order to make the music department self-sustaining, pupils will be charged the rates of tuition usually charged in Greenville. We propose to make the department first class in every respect, and we hope to have a liberal share of the patronage of the people. Anyone desiring to know more of this feature of the school will do well to see members of the Music Committee, Dr. R. L. Carr, Mr. F. C. Harding or Mr. D. C. Moore, or myself.

All the best schools in the country now have sight-singing taught in the grades as a part of the school course. We shall add this to all the grades this year, Miss Gaston having the work in charge. In this way we hope to develop the musical propensities of the children and bring them into a keener appreciation of good singing, and also culture their voices as much as possible. Drawing will be taught regularly in all the grades this year. Miss Haskins is an efficient and capable teacher of drawing; President Jarmon, of the Virginia State Normal School, assures me that we are fortunate in being able to engage her. I am fully convinced that drawing is one of the most important subjects taught in the schools of today, and I am resolved that the children of Greenville shall have some training in this direction. Ours is an age of designs, diagrams and blue prints, and it is our duty to educate the coming citizens in this direction.

French will be substituted for physics this year, and will hereafter be made a permanent part of the school course. All pupils are required to take Latin in the eighth grade unless there is some good reason why they should not. After the eighth grade is finished pupils may, with the consent of their teachers, take Latin or French. Whichever language is chosen must be pursued during the remaining two years. Pupils desiring to take Latin and French may do so provided they get the consent of their parents and teachers. In the present age, French seems to be needed as much, perhaps more than Latin; it is admitted to be about as good for training the mind as the Latin, and hence our reason for adding it to our course.

During the vacation I have succeeded in securing permanent scholarship for our school from the State University and Trinity College. I shall very probably be able to secure one to Converse college, and the equivalent of one to the State Normal. Dr. Poter, president of Wake Forest college, has written me that we applied too late for a scholarship at that college but we can in all probability secure one next year.

Our school is now on the approved list of schools of the University, Wake Forest, Trinity, and the State Normal. Our graduates can enter any of these institutions without the usual entrance examination. I am rather pleased with this stamp of approval which the State's best colleges have placed upon our work. A graduate of the Greenville Graded school has a splendid standing in educational circles.

Last year we admitted beginners to the first grade in October and in January. The plan was not satisfactory, those entering in January being something of a hindrance to the progress of the others. This year we shall not be able to accept any beginners to the first grade except during the month of October. I wish to urge people having children to enter school for the first time to start them in October. If a child is six years old before Dec. 1st, we will accept him, but please do not send children who become six after that date, as we cannot accept them.

On September 15th, I shall place at the book stores for distribution printed lists of all the books children will need at the beginning of school. I very much hope parents will call at the stores, get a copy of the list and as nearly as possible supply their children with books before the opening. I trust this will avoid confusion from that common source of trouble, viz., books.

The outlook for the coming year is such that I think we may all feel optimistic over it. We have added drawing, French and music to the course of study, and have otherwise improved the curriculum, having raised it somewhat. We have what I believed to be a strong corps of teachers, and I am confident that

ROAD IS JOINED

Direct Communication Between Raleigh and the East will soon be Established

Greenville is now connected by steel rails with Wilson and Raleigh. The new line of the Norfolk & Southern was joined yesterday and Greenville now has a direct line to the capital city, as well as to Washington and the East.

No announcement has been made as to when trains will begin running on regular schedule, but it is understood that by Sept. 15th regular trains between Raleigh and Washington will be making the trip daily.

With these connections Greenville, now the best town in the East, will have many advantages not heretofore enjoyed, and with the progressive spirit which has seized the people of this community, will forge to the front. Watch Greenville grow!

SERVICES TOMORROW.

Eleven Usless Bepeds

A woman in a nearby town announced a "white elephant party." Each guest was told to bring something for which she had no use, but which was too good to throw away.

Eleven of the nineteen guests present brought their husbands. —Philadelphia Record.

Four of those four different parts of the devil which are listed in their respective territories since that day the Spaniards have been haughty, the Italians arrogant, the Germans gluttons and the French great dancers.

with the continued hearty support of the people, we shall be able to make this the best year in the history of the school. My ambition has been to make the high school department a sort of college to the people, thus eliminating the institutes and seminars scattered around over the country by giving all these advantages at home. I trust I shall see my ambitions realized this year.

Hoping that the school children are already yearning anxiously for Sept. 25th.

I am very truly,
H. B. Smith, Supt.,
August 15, 1907.

STRIKE ORDER DELAYED.

Meanwhile the Telegraph Companies Claim to Be Gaining Ground.

Chicago, August 16.—An order for a general strike of all union telegraphers which President Small, of the telegraphers organization promised would be sent out ten minutes after his arrival in Chicago, did not make its appearance tonight. Mr. Small arrived in Chicago early in the evening and an hour later in conference with Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; George W. Perkins, president of the Cigar-makers Union, and Wesley Russell, nation secretary of the telegraphers' union. Labor Commissioner Neill will leave for Washington tomorrow afternoon. He is taking no part in tonight's conference and said that he would make no effort to do so until a request for such action had been made.

Mixup in Chatham.

Did you ever hear of a man marrying the widow of his son? There is a man in this county who married his deceased son's widow and is the stepfather of his own grandchildren. Such a marriage brings about a madly of mixed kinship. For instance, the children of such a marriage are the uncles and aunts of their half-brothers and sisters! —Chatham Record.

PROPOSAL PARTY.

Delightful Social Affair at Hotel Macon Last Night.

Last night at the Macon Hotel Miss Ethel Skinner gave a delightful party in honor of Miss Clara Hampton, of Plymouth.

The guests were received at the front door by Miss Ethel Skinner, the charming hostess and Mr. Alvin Dupree. The guests were then escorted to the punch bowl which was presided over by Miss Jamie Bryan and Mr. Cecil Cobb, from here the guests were received in the parlor by Miss Clara Hampton and Mr. Alex. Blow. The guests then proceeded to enjoy themselves with games and other amusements. The proposals were then in order, each being allowed five minutes with each girl and the one that made the best proposal was to receive a prize. After the voting was over it was found that Mr. Ames Brown, had made the best proposal and was awarded the prize a handsome fan, which was presented to him in a very appropriate speech by Mr. J. Burt James. Mr. Brown in turn presented it to Miss Clara Hampton.

After the proposals were served which were thoroughly enjoyed by all. The next in order was a mock marriage. Mr. Ames Brown being the groom and Miss Bruce Swift the bride, the ceremony was performed by Mr. Alvin Dupree, who after some persuasion agreed to act as the minister.

After the mock marriage was over Miss Margaret Skinner and Miss Bruce Swift, delighted the guests with a few vocal selections that was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Those present were as follows:

Messrs Alex Blow, Cecil Cobb, Norman Warren, John Shelburn, William Patrick, Thurman Moore, Burt James, Luther Bowling, Will Lipscomb, Ames Brown, Royce Tucker, Robert Howard, Alvin Dupree, Leon Pender, Bascom Wilson, Durwood Wilson, Blount Pierce, Dock Horne Harry Skinner, Frank Wilson and Sim Chapman.

Misses Clara Hampton, Jamie Bryan, Mary Shelburn, Mary James, Virgia Hughes, Lillian Carr, Francis Bagwell, Nellie Pender, Margerett Skinner, Maujer Moseley, Lee Brown, Bruce Swift, and Lizzie Higgs.

At half past twelve the guests began to depart. All declaring that they had thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Interesting Notes From Our Hasting Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C., Aug. 17. G. E. Lineberry, J. B. and J. R. Carroll attended the farmers institute in Greenville: Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Baldree left Saturday morning for Kenly where Mrs. Baldree will spend some time with her people.

L. F. Elliott and wife returned from Fort Barnwell Thursday, after spending some time with their son.

L. Whitehead left Saturday morning for Nashville.

Messrs. Andrew Joyner, V. C. Moore and Edwin L. Conn, representatives of the News and Observer, spent Wednesday night in our town on business.

Quite a number of our young people attended a festival given out to Mr. Alfred McGlohon's last Thursday night. All seem to report an excellent time.

SIR JOHN MOORE.
The Brave Soldier Died as He Had Always Fought—He Would.
The early winter night was dark and cold. The field of battle was a silent witness to the brave soldier who had fallen. Sir John Moore had been carried into his quarters at Coruna. A much attended servant stood with tears running down his face as the dying man was carried into the house. "My friend," said Moore "it is nothing." Then, turning to a member of his staff, Colonel Anderson, he said: "Anderson, you know I have always wished to die in this way. I hope my country will do me justice." Only once his lips quivered and his voice shook as he said "Say to my mother" and then stopped, while he struggled to regain his composure. "Stanhope," he said as his eyes fell on his aid-de-camp's face, "remember me to your sister"—the famous Hester Stanhope, Pitt's niece, to whom Moore was engaged. Life was fast and visibly sinking, but he said, "I feel myself so strong I fear I shall be long dying."
But he was not. Death came swiftly and almost painlessly. Wrapped in a soldier's cloak, he was carried by the light of torches to a grave hastily dug in the citadel at Coruna, and far off to the south, as the sorrowing officers stood around the grave of their dead chief, could be heard from time to time the sound of British guns, yet in sullen retreat. The scene is made immortal in the noble lines:
Few and far were the prayers we said,
And we were not a word of sorrow,
But we were gazed on the face that was dead.
And we bitterly thought of the morrow.
We thought as we followed his narrow bed
And smoothed down his lonely pillow
That the French and the stranger would tread on his head,
And we far away on the billow.
—Cornhill Magazine.

The Lien Law.
The lien law has become a burden on the resources of the south, anyway, and the country will never be the great agricultural region that nature intended it should be as long as the lien law remains on the statute books. Credit is a good asset when it is judiciously used, but nine-tenths of the people who buy agricultural supplies on time do not know how to use it. It makes them the slave of the merchant, the merchant the slave of the banker and the banker the slave of the money kings of the east. As long as such a condition exists our people can never be free, nappy, prosperous and contented. The lien law is a creature of a radical legislature and has outlived its time. It came into existence when the country was impoverished and the establishment of a system of credit that would be available to all classes was absolutely necessary. But happily that day is passed.
The above is from the Dillon, (S. C.) Herald, and is just about right. Eastern North Carolina is hampered in many ways by the practice of farmers of buying on the uncertainty of their crops. The result of which is the wrecking of themselves when time comes to pay.

Cats of Other Days.
The lot of the average twentieth century cat does not compare favorably with that of its ancestors. Everybody knows that the early Egyptians held the cat sacred, and any one injuring a sacred animal was liable to severe punishment. Among the ancient laws of Wales was a statute which prohibited the slaughter of a cat under a curious penalty. The owner of the slaughtered animal held it by the tip of its tail with its nose touching the floor and the slayer had to give him, by way of compensation, as much wheat as would bury the entire animal out of sight. The grain was supposed to represent the amount that the owner would lose through the depredations of vermin by being deprived of the cat. Saxony, Switzerland and other European countries also had laws enacted for the protection of cats, which were regarded of economic value.

The pretty part of it about the growth of Greenville is that it keeps on growing.
If the Southern Railway elected Governor Glean they now probably wish they hadn't.
If the telegraph operators get what they are asking for they may be satisfied for a whole month.
There's an 'r' in the latter part of September, but we hope the oysters will come in with the first of the month.
If the Standard Oil Company pays the fine, the money might be used to pay the difference in the price of oil.
An exchange says "man comes into the world without his consent and goes out against his will." Poor man is never satisfied.
They have now brought out the astounding fact that kissing will remove freckles, but don't get alarmed. The men don't like freckles.
Dr. C. H. Irion, state health officer of Louisiana, has declared that ninety percent of the crimes in the United States is due to bad cooking. This will evoke a chance for "food-storm."

Lest and Won at Shiloh.
Many an amusing incident of army life is given in Lew Wallace's autobiography. For example, he writes thus of a tented "paradise" which was lost and won at the battle of Shiloh: "Within our line there was a drinking tent on which was written 'Paradise.' It was taken by the Confederates in the first day's fight, and the victors wrote beneath its name 'Lost.' By Beau regard's order all camp furniture was left intact, as he expected to possess the whole field in the morrow's engagement. The Union army recovered their ground by the second day's battle, the pleasure tent was retaken, and to the two names was added the word 'Regained.'"
Characteristics of Animals.
The animal of least intelligence in a circus menagerie is the beautiful giraffe; the most intelligent, the monkey; the most timid, yet the most dangerous, the elephant; most untrustworthy, the cats, including all those animals belonging to the feline family; most affectionate, the seals; most ill tempered, the hippopotamus, who is never in a pleasant frame of mind from the day of his birth until he is ready to be skinned and mounted in a natural history museum.—Spare Moments.
Urbanity.
A shopgirl entered the car. Every strap was fully occupied. But was she compelled to stand on her poor, tired, aching feet all the way home?
Oh, no! Three or four men promptly jammed her up among them in such a way that she could not possibly fall down.
Americans are no doubt the politest people in the world. As for the French, if you speak of them, they have no such opportunities.—Life.

Weak Kidneys
Cause more trouble than any other organ of the body. The function of the kidneys is to separate inorganic salt and water in the process of circulation, and to remove them and their attendant poisons from the body through the bladder. Therefore when the kidneys become diseased and weak they are naturally unable to perform their work properly, and pains in the back, inflammation of the bladder and urinary disorders are the result. It is imperative that a prompt relief be afforded, which is impossible unless you remove the cause.
DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills promptly eliminate poisons from the system and at the same time make the kidneys well and strong.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store.

The wise man looked not at the thermometer during July and August.

When you feel the need of a pill take - DeWitt's Little Early Riser. Small, safe pill, sure pill. Easy to take, pleasant and effective. Drives away headaches. Sold by John L. Wooten's drug store.

You can never make another noise with the cracker that has been exploded.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kenney's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by John L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Some bargains are expensive.

Get a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" at our store. If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this clever Coffee imitation. Dr. Shoop has closely matched Old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real Coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. Made in a minute. No tedious wait. You will surely like it. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co.

Politics sometime makes strange cellmates.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol goes directly to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the digestive organs, supplies the natural digestive juices and digests what you eat. It is a simple, clean, pure, harmless remedy. Don't neglect your stomach. Take a little Kodol after each meal and see how good it makes you feel. Money back if it fails. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Worry never completed a task worth while.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A weeks treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The vacation earned is the vacation enjoyed.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The pies are just as good as ever—your "taster" is out of whack.

For scratches, burns, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The vacation we miss is the one we would have enjoyed the most.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, "asi they cannot reach the diseased part on of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. GHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

MUTUAL SERVICE.

One Pair of Arms, One Pair of Legs and Two Men.

The experience of Captain Robert Benham during troubles with the Indians in Ohio in 1778 is one of the strangest in the history of Indian warfare. The author of "The Ohio River" gives a description of it. "Having broken through the line of Indians during a battle, Benham made his escape, though wounded by a musket ball in both legs near the joints. He reached an immense fallen tree, crawled under it and lay still through the ensuing night and the next day in bitterest pain.

"On the evening of the second day he shot a raccoon on a tree near by, hoping by some means to get and cook it. At the crack of his musket the sound of a human voice reached him. In a moment's time he reloaded and awaited the Indian's approach, resolved to fight to the last extremity. The voice sounded nearer.

"Whoever you are," were the beseeching words, "answer me." And at the words a borderer, shot through both arms, came into sight.

"The comrades were unspeakably pleased each to find the other, for between them they had a pair of arms and a pair of legs, and therefore some hope of life and escape. As best he could, Benham dressed all the wounds and then proceeded to cook some food. All that could be done with arms and hands Benham did, cooking, loading and firing the gun.

"His comrade, having the rims of a hat placed between his feet by Benham, waded into the river and secured sufficient water for their needs. He also drove wild turkeys near enough to Benham to allow him to bring some down, and then he kept tossing them with the toe of his boot toward camp until they were within Benham's reach. By the same means he kept his partner supplied with wood.

"When the wounds healed and the men could travel they camped at the mouth of Licking river in the hope of being picked up by a passing boat. Near the last of November a boat was hailed, and, although it took some time to prove that they were not such savages as their appearance indicated, they were taken on board and carried to Louisville."

MARSEILLES MARKETS.

The Curious Fish They Use For Food Purposes in France.

If the traveler approaches Marseilles by water, he will be rewarded by a novel pageant of fishes, gamins who have rowed out and are on the lookout for coixs and a stretch of ocean liners representing nearly every port in the world floating peacefully in the foreground, while, high above all, like a silhouette against the sky, rises the statue of Notre Dame de la Garde, the sailors' patron and the chief landmark of the city. The entire population of Marseilles seems to be occupied with either buying or selling fish. The wonder of it is that when anybody apparently might catch all the fish that he wants—for the city centers right around the harbor—the markets, which in the morning are piled high with every variety of sea food, are in a few hours depleted of stock, although there is no canning or preserving establishment to use up the supply. And these markets are scattered about in all parts of the city and are quite independent of the street sellers with their accompanying baskets. The most curious edible fish in the world are to be found here for sale. Fish which it would seem from their color and oddity should be relegated to the aquarium are used as food. A species of octopus with its long tentacles is one of the most popular, and, strange to say, the hideous looking arms are the most delicate and the most valued part. Huge crabs, known best in either Havana or in the cities along the Pacific coast, are also here in quantity. Serpents, several varieties of scallops and other shellfish not generally eaten in America, although they are found in some parts, are on display, and they seem to be much in demand. The Mediterranean fish are more brilliant in color than and differ in many other respects from the fish of the Atlantic. Their flavor is undoubtedly influenced by the deposit of salt in the water, which in the Mediterranean is 7 per cent, while it is only 2 per cent in the Atlantic—Leslie's Weekly.

Famining Generals' ship.

On one occasion the noted British officer Tarleton was speaking contemptuously of General Washington as a petulant lad. "Why," said Tarleton, "they tell me he is a general that he cannot even write his name." With a meaning glance Tarleton's right hand, which had been wounded, ed, the lad replied: "But nobody is better aware than you, Colonel Tarleton, that Colonel Washington knows how to make his mark."

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative
J. W. BRYAN.

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated. Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatic.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

THE ENGLISH WAY.

Biscuits Are Rolls in Great Britain and Crackers Are Biscuits.

In England the term used for "once in awhile" is "now and then;" "bully" is "jolly;" "you don't say" is "really;" "right away" is "directly;" "all aboard" is "take yer seats;" "I declare" is "fancy;" and "want to know" is "really."

An undershirt is a vest, and a vest is a waistcoat; pants are trousers; drawers are pants; a derby hat is a pot hat, a stovepipe hat a top hat; a hat is a bonnet; corsets are stays; a sack coat is a jacket, and a jacket is a monkey jacket.

Biscuits are rolls; crackers are biscuits; snapping mottos, crackers; a pie is a tart; candy is sweets; wine is champagne; beer is bitter; a saloon is a public; mush is porridge; baked potatoes are roasted; roast meat is baked; wheat and oats are corn; corn is maize; a rooster is a cock, and a gobbler is a turkey-cock.

A pitcher is a jug; a sugar bowl is a sugar basin; a bureau is a chest of drawers; a spool is a reel; thread is cotton; calico is print; cotton is calico, though a calico horse is a piebald horse; a lap robe is a railway rug, and a trunk is a box.

A fruit store is a fruiterer's; a hardware store an ironmonger's; a dry goods store a draper's or haberdasher's; a cigar store a tobacconist's; a furnishing store a hosier's; a vegetable store a greengrocer's.

A tidy is an antimacassar; stub (of a check book) is a counterfoil, and sleeve buttons are cuff links.

A railroad ticket office is a booking office, and buying a ticket is booking; a locomotive is an engine; an engineer, driver; a driver is a coachman; a fireman a stoker, and a freight train a goods train.

Driving is riding; a wagon is a carriage; a balky horse a jibbing horse, and a checkrein a bearing

A vine is a creeper; lumber is timber; kindling wood, fagots, and white pine, deal.

A muffler is a comforter, and a comforter is a quilt.

Shik is neat; cute is comical; cunning is pretty; smart is clever, and clever is kind.—Boston Post.

His Profession.

The father of a family presented himself at an emigration office and asked for tickets.

"How many are you?" inquired the agent.

"Three—myself, wife and child."

"Your age and profession?" went on the clerk.

"I've just turned thirty; profession, carpenter; my wife, a needle-woman."

"Three of you, you said?" inquired the man. "What about the child—sex and age?"

"Boy; seven months."

"Profession?"

The father's eyebrows were raised so much that they almost formed Gothic arches on his forehead.

"His profession, I say," repeated the agent.

The astonished father paused just a moment longer, wondering where red tape would stop; then as if inspired he said:

"Bachelor!"—London Graphic.

Reform.

In a little town a score of years ago there was a shiftless colored boy named Wash Jones who after being caught in a number of petty delinquencies was at last sentenced to a short term in the penitentiary, where he was set to learn a trade.

On the day of his return home he met a friendly white acquaintance who asked:

"Well, what did they put you at in the prison, Bill?"

"Dey started in to make an honest boy out'n me, sah."

"That's good, Bill, and I hope they succeeded."

"Dey did, sah."

"And how did they teach you to be honest, Bill?"

"Dey done put me in de shoe shop, sah, nailin' pasteboard onto shoes fo' soles, sah."

A Touch of Nature.

"When I hear a child crying like that," said the sleepless woman as they sat still and listened, "I wish I could too. Hear the sobs, the shrieks!—There is probably nothing the matter with her. She has lost her doll or her toe hurts. That's all, but she'll feel a whole lot better when she lets up. If I could scream and cry like that for awhile at night when I wake up, I believe I could go right back to sleep again."—New York Press.

Young and Verdant.

A man married recently a young wife who takes everything quite literally. He came home and said he would take her to the theater and presently he found her stuffing all sorts of eatables into a couple of black bags. "What are you doing?" he asked, and she replied meekly: "Packing provisions because I have just read in the paper that six weeks will elapse between the first and second acts."—London Tatler.

How to Arrange a Bopeep Party For Small Children.

All the children who are invited to a Bopeep party should be asked to come dressed as shepherds and shepherdesses, not an expensive garb by any means. The hostess of the afternoon, probably the mother or aunt of the heroine of the day, should be dressed as Mother Goose, and should receive the children.

Among the prize games played during the party should be one that brings forward a large sheep drawn on muslin. The sheep must be minus a tail, and the picture must be pinned upon the wall. Then let each child be blindfolded and let him try to pin on the tail in the correct place. The one who can pin on the tail nearest to the correct place receives a prize.

PLACE fifty different makes of Womens shos together. Ask ten women to make a choice. Nine of them will pick the "QUEEN QUALITY" SHOE. We have tested and proved this. There must be a reason why "QUEEN QUALITY" outsells all other women's shoes in the world.
