AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsp Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told

Ayden N. C September 17, 1907.

Sunday that pretty little dog belonging to Miss Lee Nichols while perambulating around enjoying and looking for more of the luxuries of life, ran in collision with the leg of Mr. Mack Taylor and extracted a piece of fresh meat therefrom, whereupon Mr. Taylor didn't do a single thing, no not a thing, but shot the little doggie and killed him, and the poor dog is resting under the shade or basking in the light where all little doggies will have to go we suppose.

The 2-years-old infant child of Mr. Fate Worthington, on Lee street, died Thursday of typhoid fever. This was their only child and they have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Watson, of Portsmouth, closed the meeting at the Baptist church Sunday night. He preached some splendid sermons. There were no additions to the church.

J. C. Tripp, of Greenville, is here to see his sister-in-law, Mrs. C. B. Tripp, who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Harrington, of Kinston, who have been visiting relatives here, returned home Sunday night.

Misses Pattie and Evelyn Sutton, of Winterville, spent Sunday with Miss May Smith.

Dr. J. W. Taylor, formerly of Ayden but new of Greensboro, is here for a few days. We are all glad to have him with us again.

Mrs. Ora Hardee and Julia Taylor of Greene county, left here Thursday for Richmond.

There will be a picnic at Maple Cypress Wednesday. A large crowd is expected. We are requested to announce that everybody is invited.

J. D., W. P. and Noah Buck, of Black Jack, were here Saturday to see their sister, Mrs. Caleb Tripp, who is seriously ill.

G. W. Cox, of Greenville, has been a visitor to our town.

Col. F. G. James was here Saturday on professional business. It is good to see him, he reminds us so forcibly of the days of our boyhood. There are not many of the boys and girls of our set left.

There were services in four of our churches Sunday with good congregations.

Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., bishop of the diocese of East Carolina, will make his annual visitation to St. James' church, Ayden, on Thursday, September the 26th. There will be services both Thursday night and Friday morning, at which the bishop will officiate.

Eye Trouble.

It matters not the failure of others to relieve your eye troubles. A visit to Dr. Taylor, of Greensboro, at his old office in Ayden this week, will convince you of his efficiency. If you want expert service at a minimum price, relief or no pay, don't fail to see him. This week d t f 1 w.

Moving Picture Show.

We understand that parties have engaged a building here for a moving picture show or gem theatre to run for sometime. The building will be remodeled and the show ready to open about Oct. 1st.

Dr. Swindell on The Speakeasies

Dr. Swindell, the pastor of the Methodist church of this city, said yesterday morning just before beginning his sermon that there was a matter to which he wished to direct attention that was of vital interest from a moral standpoint. It was the drink mixing places of Wilson. He said the dispensary was established here as a lessor of two evils, in the place of bar rooms, and now in the drink-mixing places we have the same evil as the bar rooms less the tax they paid. It is believed that liquor is sold in them. A man told me that he could go in one of them and get all the liquor he wanted in five minutes. Another man said that while standing in front of one of these places, he saw a man go in and heard him say, "Have I got anything in here? The proprietor of the establishment said, "I don't know, I'll see." After waiting on other customers he took an unlabeled bottle and furnished the man a drink. With this condition of affairs the object of the dispensary is being annulled.

The moral sentiment of Wilson is strong enough when once aroused to shut these places up good and tight. Let our people jointly put their shoulders to the wheel, and see that it is done. The good of this city demands it.—Wilson Times.

Good Conscience and Good Livrs.

The Landmark is not wrong in its opinion that (were a choice obligatory) a clean conscience is more to be desired than either clean clothes or a clean skin. Parson Snodgrass told his Down East congregation nearly three centuries ago that "He who hath not heard complaint from ei her his liver or his conscience, hath pretty good assurance of health both in this world and the next."—Norfolk Virginian.

Music at the Graded School

The board of trustees of the Greenville Graded schools will maintain a department of music, instrumental and vocal, this year. Miss Gaston, the teacher, is a graduate of the school of music of Syracuse University, New York, and comes to us very highly recommended.

We shall be in position to give the people the best of advantages. Rates of tuition will be the same as those usually charged in Greenville.

We are now enrolling music pupils. Persons interested would do well to see Supt. H. B. Smith at an early date. 5 3wks

Cat a Mother to Rats.

Mr. S. K. Clark, of Marmaduke, tells us that he has a cat that is caring for several kittens, but they all died and about the time the last one died his children found a bed of young rats and thinking that the cat would enjoy eating them, brought them to the old mother cat, but instead of devouring them began to nurse and care for them. This action on the part of mother cat is unusual.—Warren Record

Swallowed a Knife.

Mr. John S. Davis showed us a knife Saturday that his son, John Cary, swallowed. The knife had two blades and was 2-3-4 inches long. It took the knife 43 hours to pass through the little fellow's stomach. He suffered no inconvenience during this time.—Warren Record.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE

Those Who Come and Go—Some Know You—Some You Know

Frank Brown has taken a position with The Reflector.

W. X. Coley, representative of the Raleigh Times, was here today.

Runaway Horse Kills Noted Woman

Lexing'on, Ky., Sept.—Miss Judith Morton, a society leader here, noted horse woman and well known, was killed by a fall from a runaway horse here today. She made her will the day before her death and told her mother on leaving for a ride from which she never returned, that if she did not return her will was made. Her father, Judge Jere Morton, made a thirty mile race on a special interurban car to see his daughter, but she died just before his arrival.

NEGROE'S STRANGE DOING.

Every Night for 27 Years he has Preached and Prayed While in a Hypnotic Trance.

Statesville, Sept. 13—Here is one of the most unusual cases ever heard of and why this man is not on exhibition with some show crowd is astonishing.

The story is told by Mr. E. M. Hicks, of Statesville, who travels for the Bay State Whip Company, of Massachusetts. Mr. Hicks is now at home here for a short stay. This unusual case fell under his observation while he was in South Carolina about three weeks ago and although many know of it nothing has been said in the papers about it.

Six miles from Batesburg, S. C. lives a negro farmer about 50 years old, who every night conducts a regular religious service while he is in some sort of a hypnotic state, and the strang part of the story is that the negro has been doing this regularly for twenty seven years. The case has attracted much attention and Mr. Hicks drove out to the negro's home one night to hear him. The man goes to bed about 9 o'clock and soon after he goes to sleep the performance begins and he cannot be awakened until he has completed.

Mr. Hicks says the night he was there the negro sang two songs, prayed a long prayer and then preached what he says was a good, sensible sermon. During the preaching he was seized with some kind of convulsion, something like a spasm, but his wife rubbed his face and neck with some camphor and he went on with the sermon, starting in the middle of the sentence where he had left off when the convulsion came. He never preaches the same sermon over twice and always announces when he begins that he is going to repeat a sermon he has heard preached.

Mr. Hicks says that physicians have studied the negro's case and have tried to wake him during the performance, but in vain. They say he is in a hypnotic state; but just why or how it comes on him at these regular periods and affects him in the same way, they cannot understand.

The negro is just a plain, hard-working and ignorant farmer and charges no admittance fee to his home during the strange performance. He can't read when he is awake and breaks down when he attempts to pray in public or make any sort of talk. So far as Mr. Hicks learned, his rest is not broken or his health affected by his nightly performances.—Charlotte Observer.

The Range of Prohibition.

The anti-saloon folks seem to have gone to work with renewed energy under their new head and it now looks like a certainty that they will seek State prohibition at the hands of the next legislature regardless of the Watt's law or any other law. If the people of the counties where prohibition now abounds think that a majority of the State should rule the entire State, and not the majority of each county should rule that county there will be no stopping the legislature from enacting a prohibition law to take effect likely January 1st, 1910. It all depends upon how the conservative folks look upon self government.

A statement just issued relative to just where and how liquor is sold in North Carolina is interesting. It gives the following places where liquor is sold:

A YOUNG SCOTCHMAN.

He likes Pitt County and Pitt likes him.

Mr. David A. Jamie, a young man from Scotland, was in Greenville Monday, and it was our pleasure to meet him. Mr. Jamie is a graduate of the College in Edinburgh and the last year in college also took up the study of medicine. He told the reporter that having decided to spend his vacation in America studying Agriculture he came to this country about three months ago. He came at once to North Carolina and sought Mr. T. K. Bruner, of the State department of agriculture, and after consultation with him came to the home of Mr. E. S. Laughinghouse, near Grifton, in this county, with whom he has since remained. He says he likes our method of agriculture and has sent good accounts of it back to his people. Mr. Laughinghouse also told us that he is highly pleased with the young Scotchman and hopes he can be induced to remain here.

When Secretary Bruner was recently in Scotland a number of the special industrial edition of the Reflector were sent him for distribution. Mr. Jamie tells us his father received one of the papers and wrote that he was much impressed with the advantages this section offers.

The Reflector would rejoice to see a large number of the sturdy Scotch people come to Pitt county.

FARMERS CONSOLIDATED TOBACCO COMPANY.

Makes Good And Makes Friends as it Goes.

The Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Company is making a new high record for itself this season. The Robersonville branch is more than making good in meeting expectations of the managers, while on the Greenville market both its houses have been full to overflowing every day since Sept. 1st.

This company is attracting a great deal of attention both at home and in other sections. In this connection there was a gentleman in Greenville Monday who lives about half way between this and one of the other large markets. This gentleman told us that when the Consolidated Co. was organized, he, like many others, did not think much of it, and refused to take stock or have anything to do with it. He has watched the company and its methods, has gone on all the sales here and on some of the other markets, and he now is convinced that it is time for him to change his mind. He had therefore applied for stock in the company and is going to do as much toward making it as he has done in the past to discourage it. He also said the Consolidated is a good thing for the tobacco grower and he believes in pushing it along.

PROSPEROUS COLORED FARMER.

Makes a Good Sale of Tobacco.

John W. Hall, a colored man who is a good farmer and especially successful as a tobacco grower, brought in about 2,000 pounds of his crop Monday, and sold it with the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Co., at the "Gum" warehouse. He was well pleased with the prices obtained which were as follows: 482 pounds at $8.25, 225 at $11.364 at $10.50, 100 at $11.50, 372 at $12.75, 68 at $13.90 at $22.50, 62 at $24.50, 26 at $35.45 at $21.50, 100 at $15, making an average of $12.06 taking everything as it came. Besides being a good farmer, John has his own mail box on one of the several mail routes and is a regular reader of The Daily Reflector.

When you get to the point that you cannot talk for your town it is time to keep your mouth shut.

The Republican factions in this State have buried the hatchet, and seem to have buried Blackburn with it.

The suggestion of Fairbrother's Everything for the organization of a conservative party in North Carolina calls to mind that the State already has parties enough.

The king of Siam must like dogs. Kaiser Wilhelm sent fourteen for the king to select a pair from as a birthday present, and the king liked them so well that he very generously kept the whole bunch.

Railroad disasters are something terrible, and the one occurring Sunday morning on the Boston & Maine road in Vermont, in which twenty people were killed, is the worst recently recorded.

Greensboro business men are complaining that so many automobiles run out on the good roads surrounding that city as to stop farmers from coming in with their teams, hence trade is being hurt. That is a new kick against good roads.

The people are not taking as much interest in the year-ahead campaign for governor as the candidates themselves are taking. The candidates are much on the go speaking, but thus far have aroused little enthusiasm.

The San Francisco lecturer who said "marriage for life is the greatest crime that can be committed in the world" should be denied the privilege of teaching such a principle in public. The teachings of the Bible as regards marriage ought to govern the sacred rite the world over, and any deviation from it is dangerous to society. The man who sets himself up to teach things contrary to the Bible should not be countenanced. The assertion of the aforesaid lecturer that 1,800 women in the United States have written endorsements of his position adds no weight to it. There are perhaps as many women cranks in the country as there are men cranks.

Few people have an idea how large a quantity of cotton seed for planting is sent from North Carolina nowadays. The United States Agricultural Department advised Texas and Louisiana people to get their seed from here because they are hardier and mature quicker than those grown in the South and this is an important thing in the big fight against the boll weevil. Now a lot of mighty good seed have been sent from this State, but some gross frauds have been perpetrated by the shipment of old seed and some worthless ones, not selected at all, but simply gathered together, dumped in a car and sent off. I heard a Texan say once he would like to be one of a party to lynch a North Carolinian who had shipped some sorry seed into that State.—Raleigh cor. Charlotte Observer.

INTESTINAL TROUBLES.

Colitis, its Causes and the Way it Should be Treated.

Colitis is an inflammation of the colon, or large intestine. It occurs in several forms. Simple catarrhal colitis is a not uncommon affection. It may arise from the same cause as catarrh of other mucous membranes, as of the bronchial tubes, for example, or it may be caused by the presence in the intestine of indigestible or partly decomposed food. A not infrequent cause is constipation, the matters which should be discharged being retained and by their presence setting up an irritation.

The most frequent symptom is diarrhea. This usually comes on suddenly and is watery in character, often tinged with blood. Associated with this is considerable abdominal pain, occurring in paroxysms—colic—and following the course of the large intestine at one or the other side of the abdomen or along its upper border.

The appetite is poor, the tongue is coated with a white fur, nausea is common and vomiting sometimes occurs. There is usually more or less fever, and the pulse is rapid and weak.

The treatment consists in absolute rest in bed, a very restricted diet (preferably milk and limewater in small quantities) and the administration of astringent remedies. The latter is, of course, to be left to the physician, for much harm may be done by injudicious medication. The symptoms of dysentery are very similar to those of the disease under consideration, but dysentery is a much more serious affection. The possibility that the disease is dysentery rather than simple colitis is an added reason for seeking medical advice and not attempting to cure the trouble with domestic treatment.

Another and more serious form of inflammation of the colon is what is called membranous colitis. This disease occurs usually in young adults and in women more commonly than in men. The initial symptoms are similar to those of simple colitis, but the diarrhea does not last long and alternates with periods of obstinate constipation. In the passages, especially during the periods of constipation, are patches of membrane, sometimes of considerable size, looking like wet parchment, formed of sheets of tenacious mucus.

The subjects of this disease, which is chronic in character, are usually dyspeptic, suffering much from flatulence, anæmic and depressed in spirit. The treatment is mainly hygienic. The patient should live much in the open air, have long hours of sleep, eat plenty of nourishing food, scrupulously avoiding fried meats, pastry and other indigestible articles of diet. A change of air and scene is often curative in its effects. The patient should also if possible have some light but interesting occupation, which will serve to turn his mind from his ailments.—Youth's Companion.

Won His Bet.

One of the most singular wagers which might be taken to be the outcome of a growing industrial age was made and decided in 1811. Sir John Throckmorton at that time bet a thousand guineas that he could have a coat made in a day from the first shearing of the sheep to the last stitch of the tailor's needle. According to the agreement, at 5 in the morning Sir John gave two Southdown sheep to a Mr. Coxeter. The sheep were shorn, the wool "spun" the yarn "spooled, warped, loomed and wove," the cloth "buried, milled, rowed, dyed, dried, sheared and pressed." At 4 o'clock in the afternoon it was in the hands of a tailor. At exactly twenty minutes past 6 that workman finished his task and the completed coat was presented by Mr. Coxeter to Sir John, who put it on and appeared in it before a crowd of 5,000 applauding spectators.—Metropolitan Magazine.

Tired of the Even Thousand.

John Hollister was one of the most popular men in Washington. He was always doing favors for other people and never asking any for himself. An acquaintance, knowing his proverbial good nature, had abused his confidence.

One day Hollister was standing in the Arlington hotel lobby when this man came up to Hollister and said very effusively:

"I'm a thousand times obliged to you for what you said to Secretary Foster. I got the place."

"And you are a thousand times obliged?" queried Hollister in his most innocent manner.

"Yes, indeed; a thousand times."

"Say, can't you make it 1,200, just once? You've been a thousand times obliged on several occasions, if I am to believe you."

An Elephant's Teeth.
Whoever has looked inside an elephant's mouth has seen a strange sight. Elephants have no front teeth, and they never eat flesh or any food that requires tearing apart. Eight teeth are all they have, two above and below on each side, huge yellow molars as wide as a man's hand and about two inches thick. Over these hay or fodder is shifted by the queerest, ugliest tongue in the whole animal kingdom, a tongue that is literally hung at both ends, having no power or movement except in the middle, where it shifts back and forth from side to side, arching up against the roof of the big mouth like an immense wrinkled pink serpent.

Proof Positive.
Mrs. Perry thoughtfully regarded the package the maid had just brought in and then remarked to her husband that she had meant to buy a mauve broche.
"What did you get?" he asked.
"Pink louisiane."
Her husband could not quite conceal a significant smile, and Mrs. Perry went on hurriedly: "I know what you are thinking, Joe—that I don't know my own mind. But I can prove that I do."
"Did you ever know me to go to a grocery and bring away a can of peaches instead of a bar of soap? Certainly not!" she concluded triumphantly.—Youth's Companion.

Figures Won't Lie.

"But what does it mean, son?" repeated his mother.
"Those figures," answered the little man proudly, "stand for the Declaration of Appendicitis!"—Lippincott's.

JOB PRINTING AT THE REFLECTOR

I will mail you free, to prove merit samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store

The wise man looked not at the thermometer during July and August.

When you feel the need of a pill take DeWitt's Little Early Riser. Small, safe pill, sure pill. Easy to take, pleasant and effective. Drives away headaches. Sold by John L. Wooten's drug store

You can never make another noise with the cracker that has been exploded.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Some bargains are expensive.

Get a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" at our store. If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this clever Coffee imitation. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. Made in a minute. No tedious wait. You will surely like it. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co

Politics sometime makes strange cellmates.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Worry never completed a task worth while.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A weeks treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The vacation earned is the vacation enjoyed.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The pies are just as good as ever—your "taster" is out of whack.

For scratches, burns, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The vacation we miss is the one we would have enjoyed the most.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. GENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupifying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label. If poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good!! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chances, especially with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding
