RELEASE WITNESSES

Judge Purnell Orders Discharge Because Two Enough to Testify in Peonage Case.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 16.—Judge Purnell, of the United States court, made an order for the discharge of nine of the eleven Russians held in jail at Beaufort as witnesses in the case of the government against Contractor Kline, charging peonage. The reason given for the release is that the other two can furnish all the evidence that could be gotten from the eleven. Some contend this action on the part of the government is a practical admission that it is considered there is very little in the case.—New Bern Sun.

Your Second Best.

It is said that so many of us are content with our second best. We are always going to do better. We have vague ideas as to the great things we will do, but that is as far as we get.

Before you go to bed at night think over your day. If you had it to live over again, would you spend it just as you have done? Most of us would not. Well, we still have tomorrow.

No matter how well you do anything, try to do it better. Don't be satisfied with anything but the very best that you are capable of.

Remember that this is your chance. Don't lose your golden opportunity.

DOINGS AROUND FARMVILLE.

Farmville, N. C., Sept. 17.

On last Saturday and Sunday the Primitive Baptists held their yearly meeting at the old Tyson's church about four and a half miles from Farmville. The services were conducted by Elder (Crisp and Corbet. There was much business attended to on Saturday, and Sunday the communion services were held after the usual preaching, both elders speaking a short while. The audience was large and quite attentive. There were many present from adjoining counties, Wilson, Greene, Edgecombe, Lenoir and Craven, being well represented. Also Greenville and Farmville and yet I have heard of some complaint among the neighbors of having barbecue and beef hash for breakfast Monday morning.

The Methodists held their quarterly meeting in Farmville Saturday and Sunday, the presiding elder conducting services, assisted by Elder Forbes, pastor in charge.

P. T. Atkinson, R. L. Joyner, Miss Nicey Carr, Mrs. Elias Turnage and Miss Ellen Tyson left for the exposition today.

Music at the Graded School

We are now enrolling music pupils. Persons interested would do well to see Supt. H. B. Smith at an early date. 5 3wks

PEONAGE CASES GO.

Department of Justice Takes Down Witnesses.

The end of the peonage cases in Pitt county has been reached, as the United States department of Justice takes down its Russian witness and quits. Going into the case as a roaring lion it emerges as meek as a lamb.

Judge T. R. Purnell, of the Eastern District, has received a written motion from District Attorney Harry Skinner saying that at the instance of the United States Department of Justice the release of the eleven Russian witnesses in prison at Beaufort unable to give bond, was asked.

The motion was granted and the Russian laborers are now free.

This was the case, or rather, these were the cases against E. A. Kline, of Pitt, in which the charge was peonage, the Russian laborers, later the witnesses, being the alleged peons. The strongest case against Mr. Kline was tried at Beaufort some weeks ago and he was promptly acquitted.

The United States Department of Justice, seeing that the cases will amount to nothing, throws up the sponge, lets its witnesses go and quits the contest.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Wednesday Afternoon, Sept. 18,

The Chicago paper that is doing the financial backing of Wellman's North pole project may get tired of the fun before the pole is found.

If Greensboro does not get the swell head sure enough it will be a wonder. The claim is now made for that city that it has more miles of paved streets than any city in the State, and more than Charlotte and Wilmington put together.

The automobile is getting itself into bad repute. A little girl was recently run over and killed by one on the street in Durham, and a day or two ago a little girl in Charlotte while on her way to school was run down and badly hurt. The auto ought to go.

You can't lose Atlanta, down in the State of Georgia, that city has come forward with an "affinity" hunter in imitation of Artist Earle. The Raleigh News and Observer strikes it right in saying when we find that kind of rascal in North Carolina we call him just what he is—scoundrel and knave.

Wonder if the man who writes a letter making a cut at somebody else, but is lacking in courage to disclose his name, does not feel awful mean when he looks at his real self. How much better at heart is he than the man who stabs in the dark?

Statistics that are not statistics are worthless, and that is about the condition of tobacco sales for August as recently published in the Raleigh News and Observer. The law requires that all tobacco warehouses make weekly report of sales. As to Greenville, there are five warehouses here and only one of these made any report of sales for August, hence this market was only credited with that little report. It simply shows that the warehousemen are not complying with the law.

Not All Alike.

Prosperity never strikes two men the same way. Let some people become prosperous and the days of their usefulness have well-nigh departed. This is especially true of the negro who is making wages that are a little above his necessities. You not infrequently hear it said that high wages have ruined him. He makes enough in a week to keep him going a month and he is consequently inclined to loaf. Then what seems to be prosperity to one man doesn't look that way to another. One man will see the country in a prosperous condition when the "big fish are eating up the little fellows." Another can't see any prosperity in it unless the "little fish" are feeding on the "big one." Others still think that the country is prosperous when money is circulating, crops are good, products are in demand or labor is high. This is probably the view of the average man; but prosperity doesn't strike all alike.

PARISIAN DUELS.

There Are Three Kinds—Tricks to Gain Time While Fighting.

Duels are common enough in France nowadays, but they are robbed of their picturesque side, says the Household Brigade Magazine. They may be divided into three categories, which I place in the order of their frequency of occurrence—journalists' duels, duels that are the outcome of a tongue too well hung or lubricated by an overdose of alcohol, and, thirdly, those where the opponents are out to kill if they can. The above order also represents the degree of publicity accompanying each.

Of those due to an ill considered or ill bred remark comparatively few come to an interchange of shots or thrusts, but fizzle out after an interchange of cards. Morning brings a more reasonable frame of mind, and things are quieted down by those unfortunate individuals who have been selected as seconds. When such encounters do take place at least one of the principals is only too desirous for privacy to be maintained, the safest possible conditions are arranged, and one only hears about the affair after it is all over.

The materials for disagreement are usually a night restaurant and the one extra bottle which might have been dispensed with. Only recently a respectable married man found himself confronted in combat by an unknown Argentinian with whom he had apparently had a disagreement the night before at a well known second rate cosmopolitan cafe much frequented between about 2 a. m. and breakfast time.

Neither of the gentlemen knew quite what it was all about, but their seconds said it was all right, so they had to go through with it, and no harm was done. The third type of duel is serious and very rare. It usually takes the form of a row about a lady.

There are a good many tricks to gain time in dueling. Dropping the sword is one, resting the point on the ground or making a wide parry so as to scrape the ground is another. In either of these cases the point has to be sandpapered and treated with an antiseptic or held in a flame, so that there may be no risk of a wound being poisoned.

With pistols the conditions are arranged according to the seriousness of the quarrel. As a rule, dueling pistols at twenty-five paces are used. The dueling pistol is muzzle loaded and rifled. Its pull off is regulated by the circumstances; also the powder charge. Seconds often arrange to put in only sufficient powder to drive the bullet out of the bore. Sometimes they drop the bullet into the left hand when loading and hammer an imaginary one down the barrel.

Sermon in a Few Words.

We are very much impressed by something we saw and heard while passing along the street a few evenings since. A young girl was standing in front of a store, and near her, with a hangdog expression on his face, was a young stripling of a youth. As we passed the two the girl said to the boy, "Any one who speaks of my father as 'the old man' is not worthy of my respect." From the tone of her voice we knew that the girl spoke from the impulse of a moment, but there was a whole sermon in her utterance. We don't know the girl, but if she lives she will develop into a noble womanhood, and the world will be better for her having lived in it. And the boy, if he has any redeeming qualities in him, will profit by the lesson given him in that one sentence.—Burlington Chronicle.

Show a Bad Example.

A grocer who was noted for his carefulness had an advertisement inserted in a local newspaper for a message boy, and a young fellow who understood the kind of a gentleman who was advertising came to apply for the situation, and while the grocer was telling him how careful he must be a fly settled on a bag of sugar, and the grocer caught it and threw it away. The boy then said: "If you want me to be careful you are showing me a bad example."

Why?

"Why?" replied the former. "Because," said the boy, "you have thrown that fly away without brushing the sugar off its feet."—London Mail.

Be Not Afraid.

He has not learned the lesson of his life who does not every day surmount a fear. If you have no faith in a beneficent power above you, but see only an adamant fate coiling its folds about nature and man, then reflect that the best use of fate is to teach us courage. If you have no confidence in any foreign mind, then be brave because there is always one good opinion which must always be of importance to you—namely, your own.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

JOB PRINTING AT THE THE REFLECTOR

I will mail you free, to prove merit samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store

The wise man looked not at the thermometer during July and August.

When you feel the need of a pill take DeWitt's Little Early Riser. Small, safe pill, sure pill. Easy to take, pleasant and effective. Drives away headaches. Sold by John L. Wooten's Drug Store

You can never make another noise with the cracker that has been exploded.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by John L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Some bargains are expensive.

Get a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" at our store. If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this clever Coffee imitation. Dr. Shoop has closely matched Old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real Coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure roasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. Made in a minute. No tedious wait. You will surely like it. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co

Politics sometime makes strange cellmates.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol goes directly to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the digestive organs, supplies the natural digestive juices and digests what you eat. It is a simple, clean, pure, harmless remedy. Don't neglect your stomach. Take a little Kodol after each meal and see how good it makes you feel. Money back if it fails sold by John L. Wooten.

Worry never completed a task worth while.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A weeks treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The vacation earned is the vacation enjoyed.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The pies are just as good as ever—your "taster" is out of whack.

For scratches, burns, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The vacation we miss is the one we would have enjoyed the most.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased part on of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One hundred Dollars for every case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's "catarrh cure". Send for circulars, free. F. J. GENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's label—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives a firm flesh.

Small bottle holds six times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size.

TO MY FRIENDS.

Having been away for several months I wish to announce to my friends and patrons of the "empire" of Pitt that I am still connected with the firm of Chas. M. Stieff, and if bachelors are allowed to misuse the happy term home as a synonym for a "hanging out place" I still call Greenville my home, and while I intend to be away from Greenville a great deal of my time during this fall a postal care of box 325, Greenville, will reach me within a day or two. We now have a number of slightly used upright pianos, some of which have been rented during the summer months, others which were temporarily used by artists at the exposition and for orchestra work, at bargain prices.

We also offer a special school piano for $225.00 fully measuring up in standard to any $350.00 instrument. This piano is especially built for college and school work for the special price named above and is full guaranteed by my firm for 10 years. Those interested in a school piano or in a good slightly used piano for the home should write me at once and will profit by it; and as ever I am always mindful of my patrons' protection and interest, as well as my firm's interest. Grateful of past patronage. Very resp't.

CONDENSED STORIES.

How Senator Beveridge Was Saved From a Would Be Slayer.

Albert J. Beveridge, senator from Indiana, spent several of his adolescent years in Kansas, driven to the wild by ill health and overwork at his law studies. One day in a small town he butted in and broke up a lynching party.

A stage driver had accused a man he was known to dislike of having stolen a mule. Beveridge thought it was a put up job and with all the enthusiasm of a budding lawyer argued that the evidence was insufficient to convict, it being a case of one man's word against another's. When he pointed out, moreover, that the evidence of the accuser was prejudiced because of his dislike for the accused the crowd saw the point, and the lynching was called off.

The stage driver determined on revenge and started to pick a quarrel with Beveridge. Finally the stage driver pulled his gun, and the future senator closed his eyes, waiting for the bullet that would cut down his fair young life. But for some reason the weapon was not discharged.

Curiosity finally led Beveridge to open his eyes, and he discovered that the would be murderer had paused because another man had the drop on him. A murderer, cut-throat and all round bad man whom Beveridge had nursed through a serious illness had interferred just in time to prevent the United States senate from being deprived of one of its future ornaments.

The Retort Courteous.

Paul Morton, the president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, was talking on La Savoie about the London cobby.

"A hansom or a four wheeler is supposed to be cheap in London," Mr. Morton said, "but let the average American tourist go driving about in one of them day after day, and at the week's end the size of his expenditure will shock him.

"Of course, it is impossible to ride in a London cab and pay only the legal fare of a shilling for two miles. Try cab riding without liberal tipping, and the cabman will assail you with the most brilliant and witty sarcasm.

"I know a lawyer who, through ignorance, rode from the British museum to the Ritz hotel in Piccadilly and only gave his driver the shilling required by law.

"The driver looked at this shilling and bit his lip. Then, in the most courteous manner, he motioned to the lawyer to get in again.

"Go on," he said. "Do step in again, sir. I could ha' drew ye a yard or two further for this 'ere."

Strenuous Hunting.

"Dr. Seward Webb," said an editor, "once showed me over Shelburne Farms, his splendidly stocked estate in Vermont. I complimented him on the abundance of game at Shelburne and he told me an appropriate story.

"It was a story about a young clubman. He looked up from his mail one morning and murmured: 'Beastly. Simply beastly.'

"What is the matter?" some one asked.

"Here is an invitation," said the young man, 'from a chap who owns 10,000 acres in New Hampshire. He wants me to go wild boar shooting there.'

"Well, why don't you go?" said his friend.

"Ah—er—I don't know," the young man hesitated. "I—er—haven't got the fare, for one thing, and—er—you have to find your own boars for another. So perhaps I haven't missed much."

Won His Bet.

One of the most singular wagers which might be taken to be the outcome of a growing industrial age was made and decided in 1811. Sir John Throckmorton at that time bet a thousand guineas that he could have a coat made in a day from the first shearing of the sheep to the last stitch of the tailor's needle. According to the agreement, at 5 in the morning Sir John gave two Southdown sheep to a Mr. Coxeter. The sheep were shorn, the wool "spun," the yarn "spooled, warped, loomed and wove," the cloth "buried, milled, rowed, dyed, dried, sheared and pressed." At 4 o'clock in the afternoon it was in the hands of a tailor. At exactly twenty minutes past 6 that workman finished his task and the completed coat was presented by Mr. Coxeter to Sir John, who put it on and appeared in it before a crowd of 5,000 applauding spectators.—Metropolitan Magazine.

Tired of the Even Thousand.

John Hollister was one of the most popular men in Washington. He was always doing favors for other people and never asking any for himself. An acquaintance, knowing his proverbial good nature, had abused his confidence.

One day Hollister was standing in the Arlington hotel lobby when this man came up to Hollister and said very effusively:

"I'm a thousand times obliged to you for what you said to Secretary Foster. I got the place."

"And you are a thousand times obliged?" queried Hollister in his most innocent manner.

"Yes, indeed; a thousand times." "Say, can't you make it 1,200, just once? You've been a thousand times obliged" on several occasions, if I am to believe you."
