

Lets Give the Company Fits.

It is stated in the papers that an unnamed Raleigh man has arranged to bring suit against the Union Depot Company of Durham for $5,000 damages resulting from his having caught a cold while waiting in the station for a train last March. This is the most benevolent snap yet discovered. In addition to the three problems stated by Solomon there are two others under the sun. One is how you caught that cold; the other, how to cure it. The Raleigh man has achieved a unique distinction in being able to swear when and where he caught his cold. It is not stated how he cured it if it has been cured, but he has discovered something equally as good in having found out what to do about it, to wit: Sue the company. We all complain in winter of cold contracted on trains which are too cold or "overhot." The Raleigh gentleman has blazed the way to redress: Sue the company. If he who makes two blades of grass grow where one grew before is a benefactor, how much more a benefactor is he who discovers a new ground upon which to sue the company! All that part of the human race which lives where railroads run is beholden to him. It is true that not every one rides on the train and has that opportunity to catch cold but anybody can sit in the station.—Charlotte Observer.

Sun Pops A Popcorn Field.

Hart Momsen, chief of the Agricultural Division of the Census Office, is in Indian Territory, assisting in taking the census. He reports unofficially: "James Miller has a cornfield, where he raises choice popcorn. So intense has been the heat of the sun that the kernels have exploded on the cob into fluffy white flakes. When the sun creeps up 'pop, pop, pop,' is heard all through the corn patch. The filler is now eating popcorn of the cob. An ear of the corn may be seen in a store window here. Besides popping corn the sun is hatching chickens out of crates of fresh eggs."—Washington correspondence New York World.

Passing of the Common People.

"Char ain't no common people any more; they've all got rich and become uncommon. Some are hired by the trusts, some are peddlin' insurance, an' some are retin' sick chickens an' rancie butter. Them that stay on the farm know a lot more about cowties than they once did. Take 'em all in all, up one side an' down the other, an' under the lid for good luck, they ain't got the sense that the granddies had. They're lots more progressive, an' they're more highly civilized; but when you bile them big words down, what do they mean? Way, jes this; that they ain't ketched on to. When you talk about political principles an' little things like that, all eyes are on the board, for to see whar the rak-off is a-gwineter fall. The blacic gent has e'en about made his appearance, an' his playe has been took by the feller that drives a lightnin'-rod sulky a 'marries a new gal in ever' county. Ol' things have passed a way, an' the new have hove in s'g it wi' the pirate flag a flutterin' to the four winds."—Joel Candler Harris in Uncle Remus's Magazine for October.

Lyceum Course at Kinston.

The A. M. Waddell Chapter U. D. C. and the Woman's Club, of Kinston have jointly arranged for an interesting lyceum course in that town the coming season, and a series of good entertainments are promised. The first of these will be by the Temple Male Quartet on October 4th, and on October 18th there will be a lecture by Hon. Champ Clark.

Help one Another.

This tight season for money is a good time for every one to be helpful by paying debts. When money is plentiful it is not so hard for one to discharge his obligations, but when money is scarce, it is very important that every one pays his little debts, and his big ones too, if he can. A dollar paid out in settlement of a little debt may pay a dozen debts in a day and so ease the situation with as many persons. The truth is, no one has a moral right to hold on to money if he owes it to some one else.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Serious Charge Against Woman.

Columbus, Ga., Sept. 23.—J. J. Coleman has sworn out a warrant against Belle Anthony, a white woman, charging her with the kidnapping of his thirteen-year-old daughter, Jessie Coleman. It is alleged that the Anthony woman held the Coleman girl in her house and it is charged that the atmosphere there is not a wholesome and moral character.

FINISH OF THE COURT.

September Term Adjourned Wednesday Evening.
The September term of Pitt Superior court came to a close late Wednesday evening, the criminal docket being practically completed.
In the trial for murder against Ben and Anderson Peebles, a verdict of not guilty was taken as to Anderson Peebles. The other defendant, Ben Peebles, offered submission to a verdict of murder in the second degree and was sentenced to State, prison for twenty years.
Spencer Petteway and Joe Kitchen were found guilty of larceny and each sentenced two years to work on roads. This was the case of stealing a barrel of whiskey from a freight car at the A. C. L. depot here a few Saturday nights ago.
A. Vick, J. M. Keuss and T. E. Butler were tried for affray. Vick was found not guilty, the other two guilty. Butler was fined $5 and half the costs, judgment suspended as to Reuss upon payment of half the costs.
Leon Mooring was found guilty of carrying concealed weapons in two cases and sentenced to work roads for four months.
Mack Davis for carrying concealed weapon and assault with deadly weapon was sent to the roads for three months.
John Johnson and Ben Johnson for assault with deadly weapon were sent to roads for four months.

Trade Opinions.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 25, 1907. Bradstreets Saturday will say for Richmond, Va., and vicinity. Wholesale dealers in dry goods and notions continue to receive late and filing-in orders, however, the fall trade is practically all in and travelers are preparing samples for the spring ordering. In the produce market the demand is strong and receipts light, causing price generally to be high. In North Carolina tobacco is being marketed in large quantities and prices continue good. In Virginia this crop is being cured. Manufacturers throughout the district are busy, and while in some lines the crop is well used up the supply will be adequate until the new crop is available. The peanut crop, though late, is in excellent condition and growers now expect a full crop. Prices continue high for all grades of the old crop. Labor generally is more plentiful than at any recent time. Retail trade is at its between-season dullness, some dealers are displaying fall stocks, but sales are yet nominal. Collections continue to show slight improvement.

Fitz Lee's Daughter Marries.

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 25.—Miss Virginia Lee, daughter of the late General Fitzhugh Lee was married here today to Lieutenant John Carter Montgomery, Seventh United States cavalry. The ceremony took place in Christ church and was performed by Rev. Dr. Morton, pastor of the church. Miss Lee was given in marriage by her brother, Capt. Fitzhugh Lee, U. S. A.

Almost Frost.

We expect when reports from the western part of the State come in it will be that there was frost this morning. The temperature here did not miss much being low enough for it, and the wind had a decided snap in it

WASHING MACHINE FRAUD.

[Pitt County Stirred Over It.]
Most of Reflector readers will remember that several months ago a man named Crooker was in this county selling washing machine rights. The paper at the time tried to warn the people against the fraud, but there were several who bit at the game and repented of it afterwards. The atmosphere here got rather warm for the said Crooker and he and his helpers pulled out for other fields of operations. Some of those who were caught by the sharper have since been at work stop payment of notes and other claims obtained by them through misrepresentation and fraud.
The matter had become quiet until recently advertisements began appearing offering certain tracts of land for sale under foreclosure of Crooker's claims. This got folks busy and there has since been something doing. At the recent term of court here the grand jury found several bills of indictment against Crooker for false pretense and fraud. It was learned that Crooker was operating in the western part of the State and instanten capias were sent for his arrest to the sheriffs of several counties where he was supposed to be or had recently been. With these capias instructions were sent to arrest Crooker if found and send him to Pitt county to answer the indictments, and not to accept bond from him. It seems that the sheriff of Caldwell county ignored these instructions, for he wired that he had arrested Crooker and had taken a cash bond of $350 from him, and that Crooker had left there to come to Pitt county.
But Crooker did not come to Pitt county, as everybody here expected would be the case if he was released on bond. The cash for the bond was sent here and Crooker was waited for until the last day of the court, but no Crooker showed up. The bond was thereupon declared forfeited and the sheriff of Caldwell county was amerced in the sum of $100 for failure to hold the party after arrest as he had been instructed to do.
If Crooker is not again caught and brought here for trial, action will be taken against some of those who assisted him in perpetrating the frauds in this county.

Tending the Shrubbings.

People often imagine that a shrubbery or bed of shrubs, once planted, will go on of itself for good. In fact, a shrubbery which may appear neat, tidy and cared for to the last degree may also be very much neglected. In the course of a little time the stronger and more pushing plants will have completely overgrown and ousted the more delicate ones. The lady of the garden wonders why the pretty guelder rose and brilliant diervilla have disappeared, the answer being simply that some great hearty laurel has deprived them of light and air and food till the struggle has been too hard for them. The careful gardener is therefore continually watchful for the well being of these more tender and beautiful plants.—London Tatler.

Cheerful Hint.

Among the presents lately showered upon a Maryland bride was one that was the gift of an elderly lady of the neighborhood with whom both bride and groom were prime favorites.
Some years ago the dear old soul accumulated a supply of cardboard mottoes, which she worked and had framed and on which she never failed to draw with the greatest freedom as occasion arose.
In cheerful reds and blues, suspended by a cord of the same colors over the table on which the other presents were grouped, hung the motto:
"Fight on; Fight Ever."—Woman's Home Companion.

CONDENSED STORIES.

A Well Deserved Rebuke That Was Neatly Given.

"The late Julia Magruder, as her brilliant books show, detested the married flirt," said a Washington woman. "I once heard her at the seashore rebuke a married flirt rather neatly.
"The woman, young and pretty, was always surrounded by a throng of admirers—football and golf and tennis champions from the leading colleges—very young, but very handsome, very charming lads.
"Late one night on Miss Magruder's return from a dinner she found the young woman and a young man seated in the hall of the hotel alone.

"SEE, I HAVE A KNOT IN MY HANDKERCHIEF."

"It was very late. Every one else had gone to bed. The young woman was embarrassed, but she looked up and laughed nervously, and then, for something to say, she extended her handkerchief and murmured:
"See; I have a knot in my handkerchief, and I can't remember what it was put there for."
"Perhaps," said Miss Magruder, smiling gravely, perhaps it was put there to remind you that you are married."

Archbishop Who Made Pope Leo Laugh

Archbishop Murphy of Tasmania, the record prelate who has just entered on his ninety-third year, is a humorist, and the fact may account in some measure for his remarkable longevity. He was held in high esteem by the late Pope Leo XIII. There was a bond of affinity between them, as both received their miters from Gregory XVI. almost simultaneously. At the age of seventy-nine Dr. Murphy visited Rome, and at the close of a cordial audience Pope Leo remarked, "Well, my dear brother, I suppose this is our last meeting in this world." But five years later Dr. Murphy thought he would have one more run around the globe and presented himself at the Vatican as pert and smiling as of yore. He reminded Pope Leo of his pessimistic prophecy and slyly added, "So you see you are not infallible after all." This is said to have been one of the few occasions on which Pope Leo laughed heartily.—London Daily Chronicle.

Didn't Like the Beverage.

H. N. Randolph of Atlanta is a great-great-grandson of Thomas Jefferson, and at a recent dinner in Jamestown Mr. Randolph described some of the heirlooms in the possession of his distinguished family.
Not least among his literary heirlooms was a letter from the English novelist Charles Reade.
Mr. Randolph's great-uncle once sent Charles Reade some canvas-back duck and a case of bay rum. In his letter of acknowledgment the novelist wrote:
"The ducks I liked very well, but the bay rum must be an acquired taste. It did not go at all with the wild fowl, so I substituted champagne, as I like the bay rum better made into hot punch."

Some Extraordinary Mothers.

Probably the youngest grandmother of whom we have record was a Lady Child of Shropshire, England. She had married at twelve years of age and had a child before her thirteenth year was completed. This child in turn married while still very young, with the result that Lady Child was a grandmother at twenty-seven. The most extraordinary cases of motherhood were those of Mrs. Honeywood of Charing, in Kent, and Lady Temple of Stow. When the former died, on May 10, 1620, aged ninety-three, she counted as her descendants sixteen children, 114 grandchildren, 228 great-grandchildren and nine great-great-grandchildren. The other case was even more remarkable. Lady Temple, who died in 1656, had given birth to four sons and nine daughters and lived to see more than 700 descendants.

Puzzled the Queen.

The queen of Denmark once paid a visit to the Danish colony in Iceland, where the good old bishop did his utmost to show her everything which was worth seeing. The queen paid many compliments to her host and, knowing that he had children, asked how many. Now it happens that the Danish word for "children" is almost identical with the Icelandic name for "sheep," so the good bishop, whose Danish was not quite so good as it might have been, understood that her majesty was asking how many sheep he owned and answered, "Two hundred." "Two hundred children!" cried the queen in amazement. "How can you possibly maintain such a number?" "Quite easily," said the prelate, smiling cheerfully. "In summer I turn them out on the hills to graze and when winter comes I eat them."

THE AGITATOR.

There was a small strike of cotton mill operatives in Charlotte a few days ago, and this was followed by a small strike of mill operatives in Gastonia. Both strikes were so easily settled as to sustain the belief that there was no need for either.

The strike agitator or walking delegate is simply a parasite on the people who work. He gets a big salary, all his expenses, and lives in luxury, and it all comes out of the pockets of those who pay so much per week for membership in the unions.

Eighty persons were killed climbing the Alps during the summer; but then, "beyond the Alps lies Italy."—New Bern Sun.

That is a new name to call the place those eighty have found.

As the striking operators are the cause of the delay in handling messages, it looks like the officials of South Carolina are showing poor judgment in wanting to revoke the charters of the telegraph companies and put them out of business entirely.

The farmers must be firm on the holding proposition if they expect to cover the difference between the present price and fifteen cents.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Embarrassment of a Bashful Young Man in a Sleeping Car.

A certain benevolent old lady was noted for her thoughtfulness to others, sometimes to the extent of making them feel embarrassed. She was traveling once in a sleeping car, in which she was obliged to sleep in a lower berth instead of having a whole section, as was her custom.

"Well, really, I don't know," hesitated the old lady. Just then the unfortunate young man returned for a forgotten magazine. "Oh, sir," she called, "would you rather sleep with your feet or your head to the engine?"

The young man gave her a scared look, then turned and ran. It is not known whether he went to bed at all that night or sat up in the sanctity of the smoker.

Not So Rash After All.

"Are you sure the mine is going to pay?" "Well, the manager said he would cut off his right arm if it didn't."

CHARITY NATURALLY PAINFUL.

General Booth, the head of the Salvation Army, was discussing the antisuicide bureau that his church has opened.

"Kindness and charity," he said, "are factors of these bureaus. The charity will be of the right kind, I trust. There are, you know, two kinds of charity, and too much of it is like the barber's."

"There was a poor deacon in Warwick who had no money and needed to be shaved, and he went from barber to barber, but none of them, despite his holy office, was willing to shave him for nothing."

"Suddenly the barber's dog in the adjacent room set up a terrific howling."

"Be still, there!" cried the barber, and he muttered anxiously, "What can they be doing to him?"

When the present lord mayor of London, Sir William Treloar, president of the London branch of the United Kingdom Commercial Travelers' association, attended the annual dinner of that organization he told a story of his early traveling life.

"Forty years ago," he said, "I called on an upholsterer in Southampton, whose daughter, a very nice looking girl, rang the bell for her father. As soon, however, as she recognized the visitor she gently called up the stairs:

"You need not come down, papa. It's only a drummer."

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a "coughing" poison. It's strange how some things really come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—little do they know—Congress says "Put it on the label. If poisons are in your Cough Mixture, Good! Very good!! Hereafter for this very reason, mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's pills—and none in the medicine, else it must be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Whole Fried Potatoes. Select potatoes of uniform size, peel and cook tender, taking care to preserve their shape unbroken. Take from the water, expose for a second or two to a current of cold air, to render them mealy, then dip in beaten egg and dredge with breadcrumbs. Fry a golden brown in deep hot fat.

Hair Curling Fluid. A nice preparation for a hair curling fluid is made by dissolving three teaspoonfuls of quince seed in a pint of hot water; strain, add a teaspoonful of alcohol to each cup and one of cologne or any perfume preferred. Wet the hair with this, wave and tie a bit of tulle over until dry.

Spiced Malaga Grapes. Select choice bunches of Malaga grapes. Leave them on the stem and keep the bunches intact while you wash the fruit under running water. Lay the bunches carefully in gallon stone jars. Make a sirup of a pound of sugar to a quart of water and the juice of five lemons.

For Inflamed Toe Joints. A boracic poultice is excellent for an inflamed toe joint. Steep a piece of lint in boracic acid solution. Lay this on the joint. Place over it a piece of oiled silk, keeping it in place with a narrow bandage. Do not wear shoes that press on the foot in any way.

Cranberry Catchup. Press four quarts of stewed cranberries through a colander and to three quarts of juice add three pounds of sugar, one pint of vinegar and one tablespoonful each of cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves and pepper. Boil twenty minutes and seal.

To Clean Ivory. To clean ivory hairbrushes dip half a lemon from which the juice has been squeezed into fine salt and rub the spots with this, then dry immediately, or otherwise the dampness will discolor the ivory.

Wrinkled Silk. To remove creases from silk, spread on a clean ironing cloth, lay a damp cloth over the crease, place a soft paper over this and press with a warm iron.

Cleaning Saucepans. A little chloride of lime boiled in your granite saucepans will make them look like new. Rinse well after throwing out the limewater.

TWISTED TREE TRUNKS.

Curious twists are observed in many tree trunks, and the inquiry just begun in Europe suggests the surprising conclusion that they are produced by the earth's rotation, like the twists of storms and the whirls seen in water. Van den Broeck, the Belgian geologist, points out that if conditions of growth were the cause the torsion should follow the sun's apparent path. In at least 990 out of 1,000 trees the reverse is true, and it may be that the twist is usually to the left in the northern hemisphere and to the right, or with the clock, in the southern hemisphere, like the turn of the cyclonic storms and water vortices. This difference is due to the earth's rotation. Jean Brunhes notes that it was shown some years ago that the winds due to the earth's motion blow steadily at a season when vegetation is active and sensitive, and a slight continuous bending and turning then would be likely to affect the tree permanently.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Growth of Rural Delivery.

It is now only fourteen years since an appropriation of $10,000 was made for experiments with the project of rural free delivery. As recently as ten years ago the appropriation for this new service amounted to only $40,000; last year it was more than $25,000,000, while this year rural free delivery will cost $37,000,000.

Every route proposed must be inspected before it is accepted by the department, more than 30,000 rural carriers must be watched and paid, and all the minute requirements of the laws and regulations must be enforced. It is a great undertaking, and we in the cities should bear with some patience the shortcomings of the service which we get while this necessity of rural development, this boon to the toiling millions on the farms, receives the attention it so well deserves. All the improvements needed will come in good time.—Boston Globe.

A Learned Chimney Sweeper.

M. Koloman Zanzi, chimney sweeper of Budapest, is probably unique in his profession.

His mornings and days generally he devotes to clearing the sooty ways of the material world, his evenings to exploring the obscurities of the region of intellect. For years it has been his practice, once the working hours of the day were done, to retire for a long evening of study. Science, history and law were his favorite subjects. Some years since he became a bachelor in art, two years ago he qualified as a mining engineer, and now he has passed quite brilliantly his examination for the doctorate in law. Friends have asked him if he did not intend to go to the bar, but they little knew their philosopher. "Why?" he inquired quite simply. "I gain a good living among chimneys. I have a good connection. I shall remain a chimney sweep."—London Globe.

Dividing the Flocks.

Asa Goddard of the American Automobile association was recounting in Worcester some of his touring adventures.

"One summer morning," he said, "the approach of a great flock of sheep obliged me to pull off the narrow country road. I halted my car and watched with interest the passage of the sheep, the intelligent dogs and the shepherd.

"I had a short talk with the shepherd about his odd and difficult trade.

"Look here," I said, "what do you do, driving sheep like this on a narrow road, when you meet another flock coming from the opposite direction?"

"Well," said the shepherd, "ye just drive straight on, both of ye, and the one that has the best dogs gets the most sheep."

Talking Shop.

"How about the stovepipe joke?" inquired the first humorist.

"I didn't have the nerve to take it down this year," responded the second gloom dispeller.

"What of the automobile joke?"

"I'm working on the new models now."

"And the bathing suit joke?"

"More abbreviated than ever this season."

"How about the appendix joke?"

"Ah, cut it out!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Headaches and the Eyes.

At least 90 per cent of all cases of neuralgic headache are attributed by Dr. Toms, an American oculist, to defects of the eyes. These were mostly slight errors of refraction or muscular derangement, entirely unsuspected in 600 patients, and most cases required no treatment except properly adjusted glasses. A much neglected condition of the young is premature long sightedness, which may cause alarming headaches and insomnia.

I will not you free, to prove men samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my Book on Stomach Disorders. I will send you the "Bible" of the Stomach, "The Stomach and its Disorders," which is a masterpiece of symptoms of a diseased stomach. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the insular nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And if heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably pay weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to touch the "insular nerves." A sore, irritable, nervous, fatigued, or congested condition, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store.

Some bargains are expensive.

Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. Made in a minute. No tedium is wait. You will surely like it. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co.

Politics sometime make strange cellmates.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol goes directly to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the digestive organs, supplies the natural digestive juices and digests what you eat. It is a simple, clean, pure, harmless remedy. Don't neglect your stomach. Take a little Kodol after each meal and see how good it makes you feel. Money back if it fails. Sold by John L. Wooten

Worry never completed a task worth while.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A weeks treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The vacation earned is the vacation enjoyed.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by John L. Wooten

The pies are just as good as ever—your "taster" is out of whack.

For scratches, bites, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The vacation we miss is the one we would have enjoyed the most.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased part of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. GENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

TO MY FRIENDS.

Having been away for several months I wish to announce to my friends and patrons of the "empire" of Pitt that I am still connected with the firm of Chas. M. Stieff, and if bachelors are allowed to misuse the happy term home as a synonym for a "hanging out place" I still call Greenville my home, and while I intend to be away from Greenville a great deal of my time during this fall a postal care of box 325, Greenville, will reach me within a day or two. We now have a number of slightly used upright pianos, some of which have been rented during the summer months, others which were temporarily used by artists at the exposition and for orchestra work, at bargain prices. We also offer a special school piano for $225.00 fully measuring up in standard to any $350.00 instrument. This piano is especially built for college and school work for the special price named above and is full guaranteed by my firm for 10 years. Those interested in a school piano or in a good slightly used piano for the home should write me at once and will profit by it, and as ever I am always mindful of my patrons' protection and interest as well as my firm's interest. Grateful of past patronage. Very respct., G. G. Fineman, Box 325 Greenville, N. C.
