WASHING MACHINE IN WEST.

Some of Crooker's Doing in other Counties.

Pitt county people will no doubt be interested in what some of the Western North Carolina papers are saying about the washing machine frauds up that way. In the Hickory Democrat of the 19th appeared the following:

Mr. Will Kennedy had a warrant issued for Mr. Crooker, who has charge of the washing machine men in this section. The warrant charged that false pretense had been used in selling Mr. Kennedy a "right to sell rights." One of the agents told the prosecutor that he had made large sums out of the business, that he had $1,700 in one bank and $1,000 in another. He also pulled out a roll of bills of $500 saying that he had made this entire amount in a very short while. This was too much for Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy to withstand and they readily signed notes, secured by a mortgage on their home in order to secure a right. It developed at the trial that Mr. Crooker had advanced the other agent—Bush—a large part of the $500 in cash, and that there were only $1,200 in the two banks in stead of the $2,700.

The case was tried before Justices Bruns and Whitener and the defendant was bound over under a $300 bond.

Later Armsby, Bush and Crooker were arrested and placed under bond to appear before T. J. Leonard, Esq., Friday to answer the charge of conspiracy.

In the Hickory Mercury of the 24th the following also appeared:

It is hard to tell how the washing machine business now stands. If any body really knows, they are in a condition not to tell.

One thing certain, they did not appear at the trial set here Friday at 2 o'clock. And no one seemed to care, or in the least disturbed, not even the officers.

A bench warrant was sent here for Crooker from Pitt county on Thursday. One was also sent to the Sheriff of Caldwell. It is said the sheriff there got Crooker, Thursday evening. Crooker gave him a small cash bond and he, Crooker, or none of them have been heard from since.

It is believed by some that the Kennedy and Michael cases here have been compromised. But the real facts about it can not, or have not been made known.

Kennedy and Michael do not seem to know. Crooker's lawyers do not know. How the compromise can be made and no one know it is a great legal mystery.

It is not believed Crooker and the other co-laborers who got the money will be seen here again unless caught and brought back here. No one seems anxious to catch them, except it be the Pitt county fellows. However time will tell.

Rev. Thomas Chapman will preach at the Delphia M. E. Chapel Saturday, 28th at 11 a. m. and at night, and on Sunday, 29th both morning and night.

One Rose Today.

Many friends of Mr. Henry E. Fries, of Winston-Salem, made his fiftieth birthday anniversary a pleasant event. It is good to show good men how much they are appreciated while they are in active life. One rose today is worth a chaplet of flowers on the grave.—News and Observer.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told

Ayden N. C. September 27, 1907.

Around town the men have put on their collars and ties, donned their coats and vests, have come out in pretty clothes, too, and it looks like we are going to preaching every day. Allowing to that snow, we suppose.

J. S. Hines and wife left yesterday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Harris, at Macesfield.

Mrs. G. W. Dail's store was the center of attraction with the ladies yesterday.

There are an abundance of scuppernon and jamaica grapes on the market every day.

J. W. Furlaw and wife, from Pamlico county, who have been visiting friends here, have returned to their home.

Miss Dora Hobstetter of this place has accepted a position as nurse in the Robert Bruce McDaniel hospital at Kinston.

The trustees of the Free Will Baptist Seminary here anticipate an enrollment of not less than 200 students during the present session. This is an excellent school and deserves all the patronage it may receive. We would be pleased to see it reach the 300 mark.

Bishop Strange conducted services in the Episcopal church last evening and this morning.

J. A. Griffin went to Greenville Tuesday on important business.

Master Carrol Hooks and Miss Daney Hooks are visiting in the country.

B. E. Parham was here Wednesday having been called by to make special bids on tobacco for some of our prominent farmers.

J. F. Edwards, postmaster at Vanceboro, has been here during the week.

Dr. J. W. Taylor, of Greensboro, who has been here on professional business and also visiting, has returned to his home.

A FINE PLAY.

In the struggle for prominence in the theatrical world many of the noted playwrights have sacrificed all in their efforts to outdo each other in sensational incidents. Crimes are idealized, pugilists are brought from the fist arena and forced upon the modern theatregoer. Criminals have the hold of romance thrown around them, and episodes which are insult to human intelligence are graphically depicted in the mad rush for theatrical popularity.

Happily now this is in the decrease and the better class of patrons demand their extinction.

In the successful romance, "The Girl of the Sunny South," all these repellent features are eliminated, and the stirring play does not depend on any of the above for its power to entertain, thrill and amuse. It is a pure story of intense heart interest with powerful situations, comedy complications and brilliant music and vaudeville features.

AROUND GRIFFON.

Vanderbilt Taking in the School. Griffon, N. C., Sept. 27.

Whoopée, Mr. Editor, we are having hot times in the old town now, with all these pretty ladies who have charge of the tutorship of the young minds at our graded school here. I tell you it is enough to break the heart of an old widower, if it is made of flint rock fresh from the North Pole, to just be in their presence. I just felt all over in streaks when I went out to the teachers' meeting at the beginning of the session. You know Bro. R. was there to talk for the edification of all who heard him speak, and let me tell you, I think he did very well under the circumstances, being as now he was a courting man, too. And don't you know, I sat there and thought to myself that if I had a position like him (i. e.) to have the task of visiting all the schools in the county and see how they are getting along—there is no use talking, old Satan might as well hang up his harp on a willow tree so far as Vanderbilt is concerned, for he would be singing that good old song that says "I want to be an Angel and with the Angels stand, a crown upon my forehead and harp within my hand."

But look here, Mr. Editor, I don't want to be a gal angel, I want to be an angel man so the girls can come around to see me and treat me on candy and such like and so on. But let me tell you, if the candy they treat me on was made of salt it would taste good to me, especially when taken from their pretty little white hands. I like the angel band around Griffon, they are so nice. It would be almost impossible to keep a man from committing "susanside" to keep him from viewing their lovely, beautiful, charming faces with all the grace with which they are in possession.

Well, Mr. Editor, from the foregoing you may have come to the conclusion that Vanderbilt is very much smitten. In answer to that I will say I am like the little fellow who came into the store one time. I asked him what his name was, and he said it was Herman. I said "You are a good looking boy, ain't you?" and he said, "I am dat" And as old man pap used to say "jess so" I am dat. I think I met my "affinity," if not I certainly have run up agin my fate. So long.

Griffon is on a big boom now since the training school has become a reality. The recently burned district is built up anew, and three new stores besides. A brick hotel is in process of erection and will be open in thirty days, if the Lord is willing, and I reckon He is if Bro. Dub's money holds out that long. I suppose it will hold out, as he has some coming in all the time. Selah.

Cousin Bill Dawson went to the Jamestown exposition this week and expects to see the dive in hell while there. He promises all we poor sinners a full description of the place when he gets back, so you see if any of our folks should be so lucky as to go there they will be pestered as to what will be seen in that part of the country. But we folks at, in and around Griffon are not going to the "sho nuff" hell, or sheol, either, as we now have two Sunday schools and will start the third one shortly. I don't think the devil can get us all, even if he does take a few.

VANDERBILT.

Extension of Passenger and Freight Service to Wilson, N. C. September 30th.

The Norfolk & Southern Railway announce the opening of the extension to Wilson, N. C., on September 30th, giving both passenger and freight transportation and this will be welcome news to the many who have been anxious for the developing of this new territory and wished to have the opportunity of trade expansion in that direction. There has been some slight change in the schedule of trains, the morning train now leaving Washington at 10:10, Chocowinity 10:40, Greenville 12, noon, Farmville 1:00 p. m. Stantonburg 1:47, arriving at Wilson 2:15 p. m. The train leaves Wilson at 2:05 p. m., Stantonburg 2:36, Farmville 3:36, Greenville 4:40, Chocowinity 5:50, and arrives in Washington at 6:20 p. m. Connections will be made at Chocowinity with both north and south bound trains to Norfolk and intermediate points and to New Bern, Morehead City, Kinston, and Goldsboro.

Prices that Talk.

On Thursday the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Company at the Star warehouse sold 60,000 pounds of tobacco at the fine average of $11.27. Foxhall was right down behind every pile and pushed it for all it would bring. Sell at the Star or 'Gum' and you always get the best to be had.

Advices by wire from Washington say that "The Girl of the Sunny South" there last night was the finest attraction that has appeared in that town. You will miss something good if you fail to attend tonight.

To My Friends and Customers.

On account of Photographers Association of Virginia and the Carolinas my studio will be closed from Tuesday the 2nd of October until Monday the 8th inclusive. 273rd R. T. Evans.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.

Those Who Come and Go—Some Know You—Some You Know.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale returned today from Gramam.

W. L. Hall went to Rocky Mount today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. White, of Hobgood, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Humber, returned home this afternoon.

Another joyous home in our midst is that of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mooring, the cause being the arrival of a daughter.

Mrs. Alice Harper, Mrs. T. R. Moore, Mrs. K. H. Fleming, Mrs. E. B. Higgs and Misses Lelia Higgs and Alox Bradley went to Norfolk today to attend the exposition.

Got 'Em Bad.

A fellow went to the postoffice with some letters to mail, bought stamps, carefully stuck them on the letters, then walked back to his place of business with the letters in his hand instead of depositing them in the box at the postoffice. We have heard of them having bad cases before.

Weather.

Showers tonight and Saturday, warmer tonight.

FOR SALE.

TWISTED TREE TRUNKS.

Curious twists are observed in many tree trunks, and the inquiry just begun in Europe suggests the surprising conclusion that they are produced by the earth's rotation, like the twists of storms and the whirls seen in water. Van den Broeck, the Belgian geologist, points out that if conditions of growth were the cause the torsion should follow the sun's apparent path. In at least 990 out of 1,000 trees the reverse is true, and it may be that the twist is usually to the left in the northern hemisphere and to the right, or with the clock, in the southern hemisphere, like the turn of the cyclonic storms and water vortices. This difference is due to the earth's rotation. Jean Brunhes notes that it was shown some years ago that the winds due to the earth's motion blow steadily at a season when vegetation is active and sensitive, and a slight continuous bending and turning then would be likely to affect the tree permanently.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Growth of Rural Delivery.

It is now only fourteen years since an appropriation of $10,000 was made for experiments with the project of rural free delivery. As recently as ten years ago the appropriation for this new service amounted to only $40,000; last year it was more than $25,000,000, while this year rural free delivery will cost $37,000,000.

Every route proposed must be inspected before it is accepted by the department, more than 30,000 rural carriers must be watched and paid, and all the minute requirements of the laws and regulations must be enforced. It is a great undertaking, and we in the cities should bear with some patience the shortcomings of the service which we get while this necessity of rural development, this boon to the toiling millions on the farms, receives the attention it so well deserves. All the improvements needed will come in good time.—Boston Globe.

A Learned Chimney Sweeper.

M. Koloman Zanzi, chimney sweeper of Budapest, is probably unique in his profession. His mornings and days generally he devotes to clearing the sooty ways of the material world, his evenings to exploring the obscurities of the region of intellect. For years it has been his practice, once the working hours of the day were done, to retire for a long evening of study. Science, history and law were his favorite subjects. Some years since he became a bachelor in arts, two years ago he qualified as a mining engineer, and now he has passed quite brilliantly his examination for the doctorate in law. Friends have asked him if he did not intend to go to the bar, but they little knew their philosopher. "Why?" he inquired quite simply. "I gain a good living among chimneys. I have a good connection. I shall remain a chimney sweep."—London Globe.

Dividing the Flocks.

"One summer morning," he said, "the approach of a great flock of sheep obliged me to pull off the narrow country road. I halted my car and watched with interest the passage of the sheep, the intelligent dogs and the shepherd.

"I had a short talk with the shepherd about his odd and difficult trade.

"Look here," I said, "what do you do, driving sheep like this on a narrow road, when you meet another flock coming from the opposite direction?"

"Well," said the shepherd, "ye just drive straight on, both of ye, and the one that has the best dogs gets the most sheep."

Talking Shop.

"How about the stovepipe joke?" inquired the first humorist.

"I didn't have the nerve to take it down this year," responded the second gloom dispeller.

"And the bathing suit joke?" "More abbreviated than ever this season."

Another Man Out for Gov.

The Hon. J. A. Long of Roxboro, who has recently been in the city attending a meeting of the trustees of the Greensboro Female College, is being mentioned as a possible candidate for governor.

A prominent Democrat told a News man that Mr. Long might enter the race, and if he did he would have a good backing. Mr. Long is a farmer, merchant, and manufacturer and has served in the legislature.

Some of these days Greenville will get down to street paving, too. See if she don't.

There are folks in Pitt county who would like to get hands on one Crooker, of washing machine right fame.

The Raleigh Times says "The closed season for red-heads will come earlier than usual this year." But the News and Observer keeps bagging them.

Inspecting the books seems to be popular these days—with everybody except Southern railway and Standard Oil company's officials and their beneficiaries.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.

By a contributor.

Mr. Jas. J. Hill says the country wants more money. If Mr. Hill and a number of his kind would stand aside and keep hands off for a while, the country might stand some show to get it.

If Mr. Roosevelt should become an editor after his retirement from the presidency, it is safe to assume that fresh and conscienceless contemporaries would think twice before stealing his editorials.

Suppose, as an authority says, it does cost more to bring up a girl than a boy. They are worth the difference, aren't they?

After spending some time at the springs, prisoner John F. Gaynor, of Gaynor and Greene fame, now asks to be permitted to take a sea voyage in order to repair his "shattered nerves." So far as we can see, there is nothing the matter with his nerve—beyond its abnormal development.

It will be a bitter blow to Capt. Hobson if Japan desired to lick England instead of the United States.

Senator Platt says he doesn't "think much of Gov. Hughes." The Senator may at least have the consolation of knowing that nobody expected him to.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie admits that he has not voted in twenty-five years. Then what right has he to kick if the government isn't conducted to suit him?

Mr. Taft is reported to contemplate holding three kings—in conversation—during his trip, but Mr. Foraker is alleged to have the two black aces up his sleeve.

The Central American republics have agreed to let Presidents Roosevelt and Diaz settle their differences. We suppose they would as lief die as be frightened to death by the big stick.

As if it were not enough for the president to scare Wall street out of a year's growth, the order for the fleet to sail to the Pacific has thrown the whole town into terror of a Japanese bombardment.

An Indiana woman wants a divorce because her husband reads Shakespeare all the time. She ought to have it, too. The idea of an Indian going back on "home products" that way!

There are thirty-seven pages of Smiths in the New York City directory. The Smith a mighty clan is he!

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

Once there was a squirrel that did not like his home, and he used to scold and find fault with everything. The papa squirrel had long gray whiskers, and so was wise—besides which he could shake his whiskers quickly. He said to the squirrel, "My dear, as you do not like your home there are three sensible things you could do—
"Leave it.
"Or change it.
"Or suit yourself to it."

But the little squirrel said: "Oh, I do not want to do any of those. I had rather sit on the branch of a tree and scold."

"Well," said the papa squirrel, "if you must do that whenever you want to scold just go out on a branch and scold away at some one you do not know."

The little squirrel blushed so much that he became a red squirrel, and you will notice that to this day red squirrels do just that thing—St. Nicholas.

How to Play Wonderment.

It is necessary that two only of the party should have a knowledge of the game, and then wonderment is sure to be the result.

The two players agree that a certain word shall be regarded as a signal word. As an illustration, imagine this word to be "and."

One of the players asserts his belief that he is gifted with second sight and states that he is able, through a closed door, to name any article touched by any person in sympathy with him notwithstanding that said person may attempt to mystify him by mentioning a lot of other articles. He then chooses his confederate as being one with whom he may be in sympathy and goes outside.

The partner in the room then proceeds to call out perhaps in this way: "Table," "Hearth rug," "Piano," "Footstool," and "Chair," "Lamp," "Inkstand," etc. He then places his hand on the back of a chair and asks, "What am I touching now?" The answer will of course be "Chair," because the signal word "and" came immediately before that article.

If players are skilled the trick need not be discovered for a long time.

A "swapping party" is one of the latest forms of amusement at a young people's gathering.

Each guest is asked to bring a certain number of articles with which he or she is willing to part. The more trifling in value and the older these are the more fun it will be toicker for somebody else's well worn treasures.

Old toys, valentines, bits of bric-a-brac, cherished neck ribbons or cravats, photographs, dance programmes, games and a hundred other relics of bygone days will suggest themselves as contributing to the amusement of the affair. The one who has succeeded in swapping for the most articles by the time the fun ends is awarded a modest prize of some sort.

Thread and Eggshell.

Some interesting and effective little tricks may be performed with the aid of thread that has previously been soaked in salt and water. This renders the ash of the thread when burned sufficiently strong to support a light weight, such as an empty eggshell, provided there is no vibration in the article to which the thread is attached.

Having suspended an egg by a prepared thread, a match can be applied and the thread burned right through without the egg falling to the ground.

How to See a Coon.

Did you ever see a coon up a tree? Well, if you didn't, don't blame me; but turn your eyes toward the skies, and on a limb you'll sure see him.

NOW IN FULL SWING.

Jamestown Tercentennial Exposition Complete in All Details.

BEAUTIFUL COLONIAL CITY.

A Veritable Dreamland to the Visitor.

Never before in the history of the country has there been held an exposition with so many attractive features as the Jamestown Tercentennial, now in full swing on the historic waters of Hampton Roads. The Tercentennial is now complete in all of its details and presents to the visitor a veritable dreamland. The immense exhibit palaces, state and government buildings, all of a permanent or semipermanent construction, set off with the most luxuriant trees and foliage, give to this exposition an appearance distinct from all of its predecessors.

Within an hour's ride by either boat or train are such places as Yorktown, where Cornwallis surrendered to the Continental army, and Jamestown Island, the "cradle of America," where now remain only the old ruins of the first church in America. Just across the waters of Hampton Roads are located Old Point Comfort and Fort Monroe, the strongest and most important artillery station on the Atlantic coast, whose grim walls and winding moat make it one of the most picturesque spots in the country. These and many other places of historic interest give an appropriate setting to the Jamestown exposition, which commemorates the three hundredth anniversary of the first permanent English speaking settlement in America, the most important event in the history of modern times.

Owing to the fact that the Jamestown Tercentennial is the first celebration ever held on deep water in this country, there has been going on almost continually a grand naval spectacle of a kind such as America has never seen before. The entire North Atlantic fleet, under the command of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, squadron by squadron, will rendezvous in Hampton Roads from time to time, giving the visitor to the exposition ample opportunity to see the strongest fleet of battleships in the world. There will at all times during the summer be at least six men-of-war in the roads.

The army as well as the navy is well represented at the Tercentennial, and daily parades by crack regiments of United States troops are to be seen on Lee's Parade, one of the largest and best equipped drill plains in the country. Stationed at the exposition grounds at present are the entire Twenty-third regiment of United States Infantry, the Second squadron of the Twelfth United States cavalry and D battery of the Third field artillery. Several regiments of the national guard of various states, besides numerous military and semimilitary organizations, are encamped at the exposition from time to time. Each of these military organizations brings its own band, which, together with the exposition orchestras and bands, gives a continual and varied musical programme.

The government exhibits, housed in four handsome structures on the water front of the exposition, comprise one of the most complete and comprehensive displays of the work of the various departments of the government ever assembled. The individual states have also come forward at this exposition with their heartiest support and co-operation, and twenty of them have erected buildings to represent them at the Tercentennial, while practically every state is represented in exhibits historical, educational or industrial. These state buildings are located on Willoughby Boulevard, a grand avenue paralleling the water front, and from the broad piazzas of the state structures visitors may rest and view the magnificent and historical harbor whereon the vessels of the world might rest at anchor. In the immediate front appear the great white men-of-war of our own and oftentimes a foreign nation's, and yachts, sloops, schooners and merchant vessels of every kind. Beyond are the frowning walls of Fort Monroe and the beautiful social retreat of the coast, Old Point Comfort. To the left may be seen the noted industrial school at Hampton, and still farther up the roads, toward where the mighty James mingles its waters with the salt tide of the sea, may be seen the city of Newport News, with the greatest shipyards in the world. To the right appears the broadening channel from roads to bay and from bay to broad and mighty Atlantic out between the capes of Charles and Henry.

The illumination at night is a scene in itself worthy a journey of a thousand miles to witness, and, with all the outlines of the buildings aglow, the paths of the Canoe Trail and Lovers' Lane twinkling with the myriads of little lights, the War Path a blaze of electricity, the many powerful searchlights playing the heavens with their mysterious messages and fifty miles of shore lines dotted with the lights of a dozen cities and nesting towns, what spectacle more sublime or beautiful could be imagined?

On the amusement section of the exposition, called the War Path, there is every conceivable amusement and diversion, where the visitor to the exposition, after a long day of sightseeing, can relax and let himself drift with the pleasure seeking from one amusement to the next. On this "Great White Way," where the lights ever twinkle and the noise of the oriental music is ever in the air.

Valuable Farm For Rent.

On account of ill health I shall rent or lease for a term of five years my farm containing 100 acres of cleared land with all necessary out houses, in good state of cultivation. Produces corn, cotton, tobacco and all other crops grown in this country. Man with team preferred. Apply to F. M. Smith.

"Ah, my son," said the old gentleman solemnly, "don't you know it is a brier in my side every time I see you smoking that pipe? Do you know why?"
"No, pop," chuckled the college youth, "unless it is because this happens to be a brier pipe."—Detroit Tribune.

Advice to a Theorist.
"What kind of views would you advise me to set forth in my next lecture tour?" inquired the habitual orator.
"Well," answered the coldly practical theorist, "if I were you I'd get some stereopticon views."—New York Times.

As Usual.
"What is the matter with your father, Gladys?" asked the child's aunt.
"He's awful sick with a headache," the little girl answered, "an he's hurt, too, 'cause mamma said he's broke his resolution."—Lippincott's.

Man and a Pipe.
Man's a pipe, his life but smoke (You may think that is a joke). They are really much akin. Both with breath are filled within; Both of them, composed of clay, Take the breath of both away. Nature has the selfsame plan; The pipe will die, so will the man; Men at last most surely must Die some time and come to dust. So 'tis with the pipe you smoke. It comes to dust—so where's the joke! —New York Press.

THE KING CLOTHIER

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by John L. Wooten.

For scratches, burns, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by J. J. Wooten's Drug Store.

The vacation we miss is the one we would have enjoyed the most.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased part on of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. GHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A weeks treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. I will mail you free, to prove merit samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves--the inside nerves--mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Bryans Drug Store.

You can never make another noise with the cracker that has been exploded.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Get a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" at our store. If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this clever Joffee imitation. Dr. Shoop has closely matched Old Java and Mocha Coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real Coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with Malt, Nuts, etc. Made in a minute. No tedious wait. You will surely like it. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol goes directly to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the digestive organs, supplies the natural digestive juices and digests what you eat. It is a simple, clean, pure, harmless remedy. Don't neglect your stomach. Take a little Kodol after each meal and see how good it makes you feel. Money back if it fails, sold by John L. Wooten.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough--even from a simple cold only--you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now--a little late though--Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels--and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only so, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

SHOWERS OF FISH.

The phenomenon of a shower of fish is of more common occurrence than is generally supposed.

It is undoubtedly due to some small fry of fishes having been lifted from the water and carried over dry land by what is popularly known as a waterspout. When two currents of air traveling in opposite directions meet, the resulting atmospheric disturbance, if on a small scale, is called a whirlwind and if on a large scale a tornado, the destructive powers of which are proverbial.

Hon. Ralph Abercromby defines a whirlwind as "a mass of air whose height is enormously greater than its width, rotating rapidly round a more or less vertical axis." The mass might be, for instance, 200 feet high and only ten feet in diameter. This whirlwind column has a funnel-like center and may travel as fast as thirty miles an hour in a particular course.

The phenomenon is usually visible in the sky as a descending column. This is owing to the compression of a cloud within the circuit of the whirlwind air. Should the disturbance reach the surface of the ground, mud and all kinds of debris are sucked up into the column and carried along. If the path of the axis of the disturbance crosses the sea or a river, the surface water is whirled up into the funnel and mingles with the whirling column of descending vapor. This is the effect known as a waterspout.

When the rotary motion ceases the accumulated moisture descends in a cloudburst or as very heavy rain. The small surface living fry of fish in the sea, usually herring or even comparatively heavy fish from shallow inland waters, are frequently thus carried over dry land and astonish the pedestrian by descending on his umbrella.

Many cases are reported from abroad, and they are common in India. In England the species of fish that thus fall are usually indigent to the neighborhood, which shows that their involuntary journey through the air is never very far. Frogs, insects and other living creatures have also been known to be thus transported through the air.--London Globe.

TO MY FRIENDS.

Having been away for several months I wish to announce to my friends and patrons of the "empire" of Pitt that I am still connected with the firm of Chas. M. Stief, and if bachelors are allowed to misuse the happy term home as a synonym for a "hanging out place" I still call Greenville my home, and while I intend to be away from Greenville a great deal of my time during this fall a postal care of box 325, Greenville, will reach me within a day or two. We now have a number of slightly used upright pianos, some of which have been rented during the summer months, others which were temporarily used by artists at the exposition and for orchestra work, at bargain prices.

We also offer a special school piano for $225.00 fully measuring up in standard to any $350.00 instrument. This piano is especially built for college and school work for the special price named above and is full guaranteed by my firm for 10 years. Those interested in a school piano or in a good slightly used piano for the home should write me at once and will profit by it, and as ever I am always mindful of my patrons' protection and interest as well as my firm's interest. Grateful of past patronage. Very respt.

Tending to Strawberry.

People often imagine that a shrubbery or bed of shrubs, once planted, will go on of itself for good. In fact, a shrubbery which may appear neat, tidy and cared for to the last degree may also be very much neglected. In the course of a little time the stronger and more pushing plants will have completely overgrown and ousted the more delicate ones. The lady of the garden wonders why the pretty guelder rose and brilliant diervilla have disappeared, the answer being simply that some great hearty laurel has deprived them of light and air and food till the struggle has been too hard for them. The careful gardener is therefore continually watchful for the well being of these more tender and beautiful plants.—London Tatler.

Cheerful Hint.

Among the presents lately showed upon a Maryland bride was one that was the gift of an elderly lady of the neighborhood with whom both bride and groom were prime favorites.

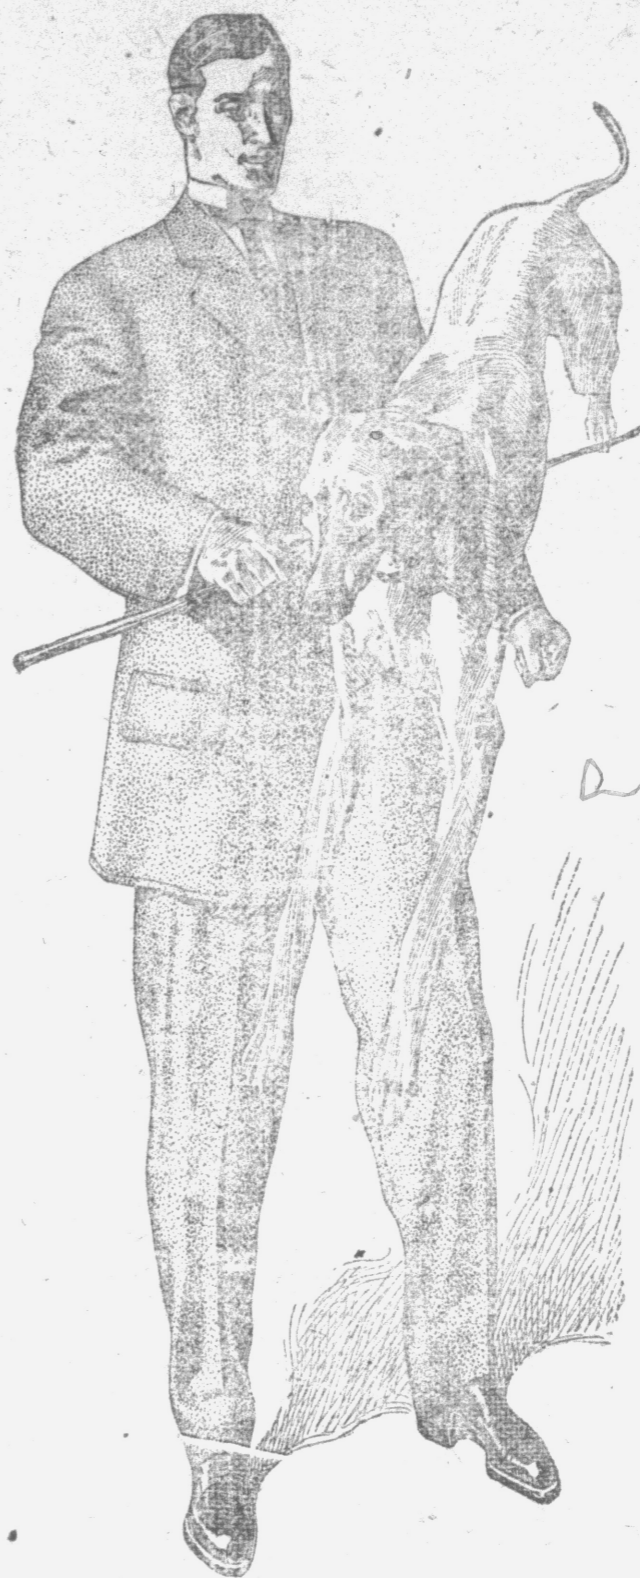

Some years ago the dear old soul accumulated a supply of cardboard mottoes, which she worked and had framed and on which she never failed to draw with the greatest freedom as occasion arose.

In cheerful reds and blues, suspended by a cord of the same colors over the table on which the other presents were grouped, hung the motto:

"Fight on; Fight Ever."—Woman's Home Companion.
