

CHRISTIAN CHURCH BAZAAR.

Event of Interest in Perkins' Opera House.

The Christmas bazaar under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church, opened in Perkins' opera house Wednesday night and will continue until Friday night.

The booths are well arranged and exceedingly pretty, and contain many nice articles on sale.

Turning to the right from the stairway the first booth is the smoking den in charge of Miss Maude Nixon, containing a choice line of cigars.

Next is the Japanese booth in charge of Mesdames T. E. Hooker and C. D. Tunstall. This contains kimono and a great variety of Japanese articles.

A few steps further is the grocery booth in charge of Misses Mattie Moye King and Margaret Blow. This is filled with a variety of select groceries in packages.

The Christmas booth is next with a beautiful collection of toys and dolls. This is in charge of Misses Lucille Cobb, Mary Smith and Susie Warren.

The baby booth in charge of Mrs. E. G. Flanagan and Miss Lillian Carr, contains many beautiful articles of baby wear.

Mesdames J. L. Wooten and J. L. Carper and Miss Ethel Skinner has charge of the fancy work booth with a large display of fancy articles.

The Larkin booth contains soaps, perfumes and toilet articles and is in charge of Mrs. D. W. Arnold and Miss Lena King.

The fish pond, which is an especial attraction to the little folks, is in charge of Misses Pattie Wooten and Ruebelle Forbes. The cooking and dining department is in charge of Mesdames R. L. Smith, J. A. Lang and H. B. Harris, who are kept busy serving meals and refreshments.

Mrs. H. L. Coward, president of the society, has general oversight of the bazaar. It had been intended to present some interesting tableaux, but owing to a disarrangement of the stage these could not be given the opening night.

There was some good music in place of these. The bazaar is open during the day as well as at night, and both dinner and supper are served on European plan or by the meal. The first day indicates that the bazaar will be a great success.

A voting contest for a doll house is in progress, Miss Ivor Shelburne being in the lead so far. Dinner will be served Saturday for the convenience of those attending the teachers meeting.

Special reduction in price of boys' and children's clothing. Pulley & Bowen.

Remodeling Sunday School Room.

Work is now in progress remodeling the basement of Memorial Baptist church and arranging several additional class rooms for the use of the Sunday school. Mr. H. G. Rogers, of Charlotte, is doing the work, and when completed the rooms will be a model of convenience for the Sunday school.

Be sure to try a pair of our cadet stockings for children. Every pair guaranteed. Pulley & Bowen.

Death of Mrs. W. T. Harrell

Shelmerline, N. C. Dec. 12. The death angel visited our town Sunday, Dec. 8th, and took from us one of our most beloved neighbors. Mrs. W. T. Harrell. She died in the hospital at Washington, N. C., and her remains were taken from there to Drum Hill N. C. for interment.

She was a faithful wife, a devoted mother, a true friend. She leaves to mourn for her, whose spirit is at rest, a devoted husband, two loving children and many friends. She is gone! Sad words are they to all who loved her.

All was done that could be by kind and loving friends who came to minister to her wants. In her weeks of sickness, her husband with untiring energy waited upon her day and night. Although her sufferings were intense she was never known to murmur or complain. None knew her but to love her. She is not dead for the Christian never dies. We can't understand why God should take her just now but he makes no mistakes. May God's richest blessings rest upon the bereaved family.

The following friends from Shelmerline joined the remains at Parmele and accompanied them to Drum Hill. Mrs. A. J. Baker, Mrs. H. H. Stanley, Mrs. D. A. Leggett, Miss Lula Sexton, P. D. Baker, H. H. Stanley and J. R. Jacobs. S.

Complete line of underwear for children, women and men, in woolen or cotton. Pulley & Bowen.

"Sis" Saturday Night.

There is said to be more fun stored up in the new play, "Sis in New York" than in any that she has had. There is plenty of chance for good comedy and her playwrights have proven in the past they know how to supply the Hoosier funmaker with plenty of opportunity. If you are there when she and Zeke shows Pierpont Morgan how they dance in Posey county, Indiana, you will get your money's worth. "Sis in New York" comes for one night only on Saturday, Dec. 14th. Seat sale begins tomorrow at Reflector Book Store.

Ladies black voile skirts, ready made, with silk drop skirts to match. Pulley & Bowen.

Weather.

Fair tonight. Friday increasing cloudiness and warmer, probably rain.

Greenville Third.

The seven leading tobacco markets in the State for the past month were the following in the order named, the figures showing the number of pounds of leaf tobacco sold at first hands: Winston-Salem, 2,793,788; Wilson, 2,512,131; Greenville, 1,861,406; Kinston, 1,567,396; Rocky Mount, 1,355,897; Oxford, 1,113,867; Durham, 1,041,671.

Mr. D. C. Moore, Superior court clerk, has received the warrants for the Confederate pensioners of Pitt county, and they are ready for delivery.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.

Those Who Come and Go—Some You Know Some You Don't

Rev. W. E. Cox, of Wilmington, came in this morning.

Mrs. M. T. Plyler and children left this morning Gates to visit her parents.

Mrs. Jane C. Latham, of Gastonia, is visiting Mrs. A. J. Griffin.

Mrs. Joel Tyson, of Washington, is visiting Mrs. A. F. Kennedy.

Dr. M. I. Fleming, of Hamilton, who was visiting here, returned home this morning.

J. R. Whichard, of Atlanta, who has been here a month with relatives, left this morning.

Mrs. W. J. Boyd and Miss Dixon, of Ayden, spent today here visiting relatives.

Mrs. Joseph Dixon and Miss Olivia Berry, of Ayden, came up Wednesday evening to visit Mrs. H. L. Coward.

Flag Raising

On Friday evening, Dec. 13th, 1907, at two-thirty o'clock, the pupils of the Grifton graded school will raise the United States flag on their campus. Supts. W. H. Ragsdale and C. W. Howard will make addresses. The public is invited to be present, and the ladies will be given an opportunity to form themselves into an organization for the improvement of the school buildings and grounds. The occasion promises some interest to those who attend as well as an opportunity to be of service to the school.

For useful Christmas presents go to Pulley & Bowen.

Defective Eyes.

Dr. J. W. Taylor, of Greensboro, will be in Ayden at his old office Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 23 and 24, where you can have your eyes scientifically examined and glasses properly fitted. Don't miss this opportunity if you have eye troubles. All work guaranteed.

Taken Up—One black cow horned, with bell around neck and has a calf about 4 months old, both cow and calf in poor condition, either are marked. The owner by coming forward proving property and paying cost and expenses can have same. This Dec. 6, 1907. J. H. Harris, Ayden, N. C.

F. L. Dancy Dead.

A telegram from Richmond, this morning, announced the death in that city of Mr. Frank L. Dancy, of pneumonia. He was the youngest son of Mrs. P. E. Dancy and brother of Mrs. M. M. Nelson, of Greenville, for whom much sympathy is expressed in their sorrow.

The remains will be brought to Greenville on the midday train Friday, and the burial will probably take place in the afternoon.

You will find all the latest novelties at Pulley & Bowen's.

An account of the Forbes-Mayo marriage at Bethel, Wednesday afternoon, sent The Reflector, arrived too late for today's issue and will be published tomorrow.

Children's red shoes, with hose to match, at Pulley & Bowen's.

ODD FELLOWS DISTRICT MEETING.

Held in Greenville Dec. 10th, 1907.

This splendid body of Odd Fellows, the personnel of which cannot be excelled, was promptly called to order Tuesday afternoon by our president, W. F. Evans, in whom every Odd Fellow should and does feel a great pride as he was educated at our Home and reflects great credit thereon.

The meeting was made especially interesting by the large attendance from the different lodges in the district, and also by the presence of two of the grand lodge officers, Grand Master Busbee and Grand Secretary Woodall.

The following lodges were represented: Phalanx No. 10, Covenant No. 17, Eclipse No. 32, Belhaven No. 22, Bethel No. 142, Ayden No. 203, Aurora No. 138, Bay View 233, Eagle No. 87.

The reports of all the lodges were very encouraging, and we hope will lead to greater achievements in the future.

The afternoon business session closed at 4:30. The meeting re-assembled at 7:30 at which time President Evans made known the program for the evening, beginning with the address of welcome which was eloquently and cordially rendered by Rev. D. W. Arnold, of Covenant lodge, expressing in most beautiful language and winning manner the sentiment of our home lodge in having our visiting brothers with us.

This was responded to in a most able and appreciative manner by Brother J. B. Latham, one of the chosen sons of Phalanx lodge, of Washington.

One of the most pleasing events of the evening was a very able and searching discourse by Grand Master Busbee, on the beginning, depth and beauty of Odd Fellowship. It was a heart to heart talk, as he termed it.

Grand Secretary Woodall, in his clear and convincing way, made us a beautiful and instructive talk.

A very enjoyable talk was given by Brother M. A. Woodard, of Ayden.

Dr. D. L. James, of Greenville, being called upon for the good of the order, gave a pleasing and humorous sketch of the personnel of his home lodge, ending by paying a most beautiful and glowing tribute to ideal Odd Fellowship.

The program being ended, a collection was taken for a Christmas offering to the children of our Home at Goldsboro amounting to $12.10.

After choosing Belhaven as the next place of meeting, all repaired to the banquet hall and there enjoyed a delicious and toothsome spread, served in a most splendid manner.

Adieus were said, all reporting this meeting a most enjoyable and benefitting one.

Notice to Creditors

Having duly qualified before the Superior court clerk of Pitt county as administrator of the estate of W. H. White, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate to make immediate payment, to the undersigned, and all persons having claims against said estate are notified that they must present the same, duly authenticated, to the undersigned for payment on or before the 12th day of December, 1908, or this notice will be placed in bar of the recovery. This Dec. 12th, 1907. Samuel T. White, Admr. of W. H. White's estate.

REV. MR. AYSUCUE WILL REMAIN.

His Contemplated Resignation is Withdrawn.

It was stated in The Reflector early last week that at a meeting of the officers of Memorial Baptist church, held the Sunday previous, the pastor, Rev. J. E. Ayscue, announced that he would like to be relieved of the pastoral charge of the church by the first of next March. This announcement was received with regret by persons both in and out of the church, and it was generally discussed and agreed that a mistake would be made if he was allowed to leave Greenville at this time.

Last Sunday morning a meeting of the church was held to consider the matter, and a resolution was unanimously adopted instructing the board of deacons to wait on the pastor with such inducements as would get him to remain. Monday night the deacons met at the parsonage and advised Mr. Ayscue of the action of the church, and at the prayer meeting Wednesday night, at which the attendance was unusually large, he expressed much appreciation of the feeling toward him by the church and people and announced that he would continue to serve them as pastor.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Value of Fuller's Earth as a Cleanser of Delicate Fabrics—Notes.

One of the most valuable cleansers for delicate fabrics is Fuller's earth, and yet comparatively few women use it or know about it. Its cheapness and the ease with which it is applied and removed should commend it to all, and then, too, it is quite safe.

For cleaning white and the delicate pastel tints as well as other colors it may be applied with a velvet covered brush or pad or a piece of old and soft Turkish toweling. Whichever is used, it should be dipped in the earth and the material rubbed, taking care to rub with the nap of the goods in the case of broadcloth and satin or other fabric having a decided nap. For broadcloth a stiff fine flesh brush will be found excellent.

Straw hats intended for use another season or to serve as stop gaps between the laying aside of one's winter hats and the new spring creations should be brushed with Fuller's earth and a fine, rather stiff scrub brush. If one have any skill at applying trimmings, these should also be removed and cleaned and put away with the hat in a dust-proof paper bag or a trunk or box until required.

Often times the lace and velvet or ribbon used on one hat serves to trim another. Such trimmings should be removed as soon as the hat is done with, carefully cleaned and laid aside.

Turning Cider into Vinegar.

This is my way of turning old cider into vinegar, writes a correspondent of the Housekeeper: If there is any honey left on the plate after a meal, rinse off carefully with pure water and pour into the cider barrel, or pieces of comb honey may be crushed and used. It will not be many weeks before you will have an excellent quality of vinegar even if the cider is two or three years old. This practice has been followed in my family for years and always with the best results.

Mint Vinegar.

It is always desirable to have fresh mint sauce to serve with roast lamb, but when this cannot be obtained it is a good thing to have a substitute on hand. This can be prepared by putting fresh mint leaves into a wide mouthed bottle and pouring pure cider vinegar over them. Fill the bottle with the vinegar, cork tightly and allow it to stand for two weeks. After that strain the liquid into a clean bottle and seal until ready for use.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

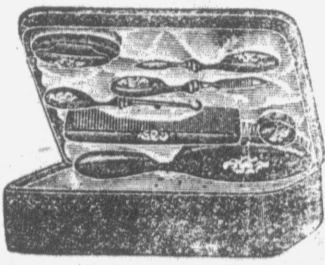

A gift should be something that gives to him who receives it a better impression of your friendship, and also something that will keep that impression in mind. You surely will find the gift you want in our stock.

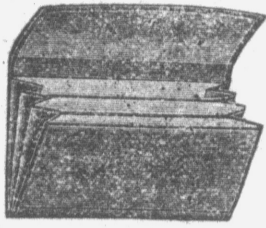

When you buy your gifts for Christmas you should endeavor to give something nice however small. Quality not quantity should be your motto. We kept this in view when we bought our holiday line and we have the daintiest and most appropriate gifts that can be given.

This space is too small to give you a list of everything we have. Suffice to say that we have the largest and most elaborate line of holiday goods we have ever had.

Our line of toilet and manicure sets is without doubt something that will tempt you to invest. We have them from $1 to $12.50

We also have a line of men's pocket books and bill books to suit, and prices that are reasonable.

The use of candles at the Christmas season is as closely identified with the holiday as Santa Claus himself. We have a line without rival ranging from 30c to 3.00 per dozen

Never before has such a gorgeous line of mirrors been displayed in Greenville

Bohemian glass sets are again stylish and we have them in every style and in such pretty designs too. Our prices are from 1.50 3.50 for Bibles at the Christmas season. The Bible makes a most appropriate gift for either young or old. We have them from 50c. 3.50

A book of poems in a dainty binding. A Christy Book, a new novel, and all the regular holiday editions, bring delight and enjoyment to the recipient. We always carry a good line of picture books, novels illustrated books, holiday editions and everything usually found in the Book line

In leather goods we have a complete line of ladies shopping bags in all the popular colors of leather. Our prices range from 50c. to $5.00

Never before has such a gorgeous line of mirrors been displayed in Greenville

The line consists of French plate mirrors on gold and silver easels, and in triple mirrors with frames of the some materials. Our prices are very reasonable on this line

We especially call attention to our line of Christmas cards, Fisher pictures, our calendars; Christmas and new year cards, and also to our holiday boxes for Christmas packages. We also have a complete line of holly tags and labels. No gift is complete without them

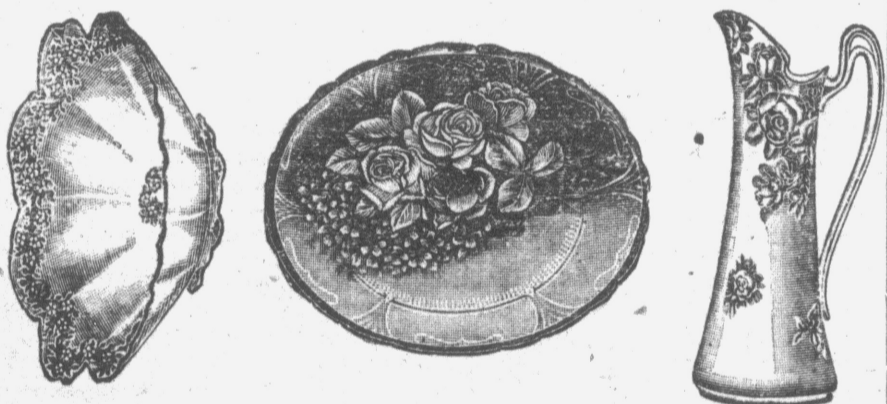

Be sure to see our line of Post Card Albums. Every post-card collector needs one, and nothing is more acceptable as a gift. Ask to see them

In bisque figures we have something that will appeal to your pocket book, however small or large it may be toys, we have drums, rocking horses, dolls, tin toys etc.

No where will you find such a collection in china goods as at our store. Our shelves are profuse with the world's china creations; the rich and modest line of hand painted Old

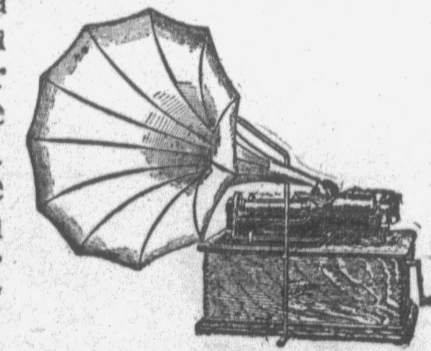

Ivory from Prussia, the delicate hand painted Nippon Art Ware from Japan, the brightly colored and artistically decorated pieces of our Tokio assortment, and the pretty creations from the German line. When you come to see us don't leave the store until you have seen our souvenir line of blue cobalt from Germany. This line consists of dozens of useful ornamental pieces containing views of Greenville. When you give a gift out of town give something that will give local touch to the one who receives it

Our souvenir goods in silver, brass, gun metal, and white metal are the most tempting of the whole line. We have hundreds of articles in silver, antique brass, gun metal and copper, that will appeal to every holiday shopper in Greenville and the vicinity. Dainty and original, you may be sure the person to whom they are given has nothing like them. We have heard nothing but exclamations of delight wherever they have been shown. We also have articles of the same materials without the souvenir feature that are creations of beauty, jewelry cases, candelabras, puff boxes, pin trays, ink stands, pin cushions etc.

The talking machine is a gift to the family. Mr Man you can do nothing better than buy one now. The whole family will enjoy it, and none of the family more than you. We handle both the Edison and the Victor machines and a full line of records for each

We have been very frugal in marking our line of Christmas goods and we believe the people of the community will appreciate the fact. You must come to our store if you see the real holiday line. All goods will be sold at prices marked

TO MY FRIENDS.
Having been away for several months I wish to announce to my friends and patrons of the "empire" of Pitt that I am still connected with the firm of Chas. M. Stieff, and if bachelors are allowed to misuse the happy term home as a synonym for a "hanging out place" I still call Greenville my home, and while I intend to be away from Greenville a great deal of my time during this fall a postal care of box 325, Greenville, will reach me within a day or two. We now have a number of slightly used upright pianos, some of which have been rented during the summer months, others which were temporarily used by artists at the exposition and for orchestra work, at bargain prices.

We also offer a special school piano for $225.00 fully measuring up in standard to any $350.00 instrument. This piano is especially built for college and school work for the special price named above and is full guaranteed by my firm for 10 years. Those interested in a school piano or in a good slightly used piano for the home should write me at once and will profit by it, and as ever I am always mindful of my patrons' protection and interest as well as my firm's interest. Grateful for past patronage. Very respt.

TO THE PUBLIC.

pered with one of the arc lights on Bonner's lane, causing the light and wire to drop to the ground. It would be certain death to any person or animal to come in contact with one of these wires. While this is very dangerous from this standpoint, it also caused damage to the light plant to the amount in dollars and cents somewhere between $50.00 and $100.00. We hereby offer a reward of $25.00,

A. B. Elington & Co.

MAYBE you'll rea- lize the business value of being well dressed; everybody doesn't.

It grows out of the fact that people have to judge your ability and standing by the way you look, until you give them something else to judge by.

That Means that we are in a position to increase the business value of every man in this town; we've got Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes for you; and if you live up to your looks in these clothes, you'll be a sure success in Business.

Munford's Extravagant Buying A Mighty Good Thing For Everybody But Munford.

ORGAN FREE

We will give away to the one holding the most coupons, a Beautiful sweet-toned Organ during this 20-days sale.

WHY?

He has gone to work and loaded his store with about four times more goods than he needed, owing to the short season we have had, and now he owes for them, and the only way to get out of the hole is to slay the prices in order that he may realize money quick to meet his obligations. He is not looking forward to making money, he only wants to pay his honest debts; and to raise some quick money or bank scrip he began on the morning of December 4, 1907, opened the doors to the world and said we are here to raise money, not to make money, during this 20-days sale. Come One, Come all, to this mighty
