KING AND CROWN PRINCE ASSASSINATED.

Monarch of Portugal and Heir to Throne Meet Death at Hands of Mob.

Lisbon, Feb. 1.—King Carlos, of Portugal, and the Crown Prince, Luiz Philippe, were assassinated today and the city is in a state of uproar. The king's second son, the Infanta Manuel was slightly wounded, but Queen Amelie, who strove to save the Crown Prince's life by throwing herself upon him, was unhurt. A band of men waiting at the corner of the Praco De Commercio and The Rua Do Arsenal, suddenly sprang toward the open carriage in which the royal family were driving to the palace and leveling carbines which they had concealed upon them, fired. The King and the Crown Prince upon whom the attack was directed, were each shot three times and they lived only long enough to be carried to the Marine Arsenal nearby, where they expired.

Almost at the first shot the King fell back on the cushions dying and at the same moment the Crown Prince was seen to half arise and then sink back on the seat. Queen Amelie jumped up and threw herself toward the Crown Prince in an apparent effort to save his life at the cost of her own, but the Prince had received his death wound. The police guard fired upon the assassins and killed three of them.

"Indifference"

Mr. J. S. Mundy, of Newark, N. J., made a very interesting address in Memorial Baptist church, Sunday night, on the subject of "Indifference". As a basis of his discourse he took the career of Esau and Jacob and the former's indifference to the value of his birthright, and from this made several practical applications of indifference to opportunities and duties. He was very forceful in that part of his address bearing upon indifference to Christianity that is so noticeable in this age, and by apt illustrations showed how much more eager people are to possess things that are only temporal than they are to make sure of a home in heaven. He said the highest type of citizen is the Christian gentleman, and he urged all to attain this by accepting Christ and living in His service.

THE JURY ACQUITS THAW.

Insane When He Killed Stanford White Says Jury.

New York, Feb. 1.—Adjudged not guilty of the murder of Stanford White by reason of insanity at the time the fatal shots were fired, Harry Kendall Thaw today was held by the court to be a dangerous lunatic and was whirled away to the State Hospital for the Criminal Insane at Matteawan. It was quick transition from the dingy little cell in the Tombs, which had been the young man's home for more than 18 months, to the white bedded wards of the big asylum tucked away on the snow-covered sloping banks of the Hudson river, 50 miles above the city. The verdict came after 24 hours of waiting when everyone connected with the case had abandoned all hope of an agreement ever being reached in this or any other trial. Hours after the foreman's lips had framed the words "not guilty," with the accompanying insanity clause. Thaw protesting he was sane, was on his way to Matteawan. A little after nightfall he had been received in the institution under commitment papers which directed his detention "until discharged by due course of law."

Mail on New Train.

Postmaster R. C. Flanagan advises us that he has received notice from the postoffice department that beginning February 10th mail service will be put on the new passenger train on the Norfolk & Southern railway between Raleigh and Chocowinity. This will add still further to the convenience of people living along the route of this road.

Members of Christian Church.

Every member of the Christian church is earnestly requested to be present at a business meeting to be held in the church tonight at 8 o'clock. It is an important matter that calls you, and each one should feel interested.

In local prohibition elections it is often the case that many of those who are opposed to prohibition but haven't the sand to say so, usually fall back on the excuse that local option is no good: that "if it was a State thing" or "a national thing" they would be for it. These will now have a chance to vote for the "State thing" at the election to be held next August, but it is more than probable that some of them will still stand out on the ground that only national prohibition can be a success, or they may become converts to the local option idea.—Statesville Landmark.

To R. F. D. Patrons.

Postmaster at Greenville desires to call attention to the practice of some patrons of rural delivery of placing loose coins in their boxes each time they desire to dispatch letters instead of supplying themselves with postage in advance of their needs.

This practice imposes undue hardship on rural carriers in removing loose coins from boxes and delays them on the service of their routes.

The postmaster, therefore, urgently requests that patrons of rural delivery provide themselves and keep on hand a supply of stamps consistent with and in advance of their needs. It is also very desirable that rural patrons place in their mail boxes small detachable cups of wood or tin in which to place coins, when necessary, in purchasing supplies of stamps.

By order of Assistant Postmaster General.

The postmaster of Winterville has also requested attention being called to the foregoing.

Only four and one-half days more to vote for the most popular teacher in the county.

The Reflector acknowledges an invitation to attend a dance and banquet in New Bern on the night of the 21st.

The Value of B. and L. Associations.

We know of no better method of saving money, than by investing in a few shares of building and loan stock. Almost any young man who has a job can save enough from his wages to carry a few shares of this stock. While building and loan stock does not yield as much return as some other investments as far as interest goes, yet it enables the young man, and the old man too, for that matter, to save money which he would otherwise spend, and in that way the investment will yield a larger return than anything else.

We think building and loan associations which are conducted purely upon a mutual basis should be exempted from taxation of any kind, because these associations are not conducted for the purpose of accumulating capital, but is loaned to the individual members as fast as it is paid to the treasurer, and the money thus loaned is immediately used for building homes, upon which taxes have to be paid, and if the business of the association is taxed, and the houses which the business erects are taxed, it really amounts in a measure to double taxation. Numbers of houses in the town of Gaffney have been erected through and by the agency of these associations, thereby enhancing the value of the property in their vicinity, yet saying nothing of the independence which is attained by the individuals who thus acquire their own homes, becoming better citizens thereby, and reducing the number of people who are forced to depend upon others for homes in which to live.—Gaffney, S. C. Ledger.

Wreck on Norfolk & Southern.

The east bound Norfolk & Southern mixed train had quite a serious accident, Saturday afternoon, about four miles this side of Farmville. By what was supposed to be the falling of a brake six freight cars were dinged and the track torn up for some distance. The passenger coach did not leave the track and none of the several passengers on board were injured.

We learn that there was also a wreck Saturday afternoon on the East Carolina road between Farmville and Tarboro, but no persons were injured.

Tragedy.

The beautiful girl stood before her mirror. Her face reflected grim, awful determination. She had nerved herself up to the final deed, the desperate act which she had contemplated for hours—aye, for days! She clasped and unclasped her hands nervously before her and then took a glance about the room—her final view of things earthly before taking the awful step she had decided upon. Her hands went up to her throat, caressing it a moment, and then they moved slowly and steadily over her shoulders. A moment later shriek after shriek rent the air and startled passersby and neighbors, causing terror to strike deep into the hearts of all. Those who nerved themselves sufficiently to rush to her room arrived too late.

She had, unassisted, pull off her porous plaster!

WHITE BOY THIS!

Dragged Girl into Woods and Assaulted Her.

New Bern, N. C., Feb. 1.—The thirteen-year old daughter of Mrs. Samuel Basden, of Pollocksville, was attacked and assaulted near Pollocksville Friday afternoon between the hours 4 and 5 o'clock. The girl was returning home from a neighbor's and the road was a lonely track with few houses. She was caught by a boy, whose name was David Bryan, and dragged some 75 or 100 yards where the assault was committed. The girl raised the alarm upon reaching home and the boy, who lives in the vicinity of the place where the deed was committed, was arrested and taken before the girl and was identified. He was taken before Justice White and in default of bail committed to jail for trial. He tried to conceal his identity by giving another name, but it was proved the person whose name he gave was at work several miles away. The boy is 16 years old and his father is said to be an industrious and respectable laborer.

Farmers' Meeting.

There was a good attendance here today at the farmers' educational meeting, and but for the cold weather the number would have been much larger. Congressman John H. Small, through whose efforts with the government department of agriculture the meeting was arranged, was present and took part in it. Representative J. J. Laughinghouse was chairman of the meeting.

There were interesting lectures by gentlemen connected with the national board of agriculture on topics bearing upon tobacco culture. Sessions of the meeting were held both morning and afternoon and were too late for us to speak of the lectures at length in today's paper. Fuller report will appear tomorrow.

The meeting was a helpful one to farmers, and they owe much to Mr. Small for his efforts in their interest.

Tobacco Sales for January.

According to the records kept by Secretary C. W. Harvey, of the Tobacco Board of Trade, the sales of leaf tobacco on the Greenville market for the month of January were 581,231 pounds, and the average price $10.10.

The sales for the season up to Feb 1st were 10,402,002 pounds at an average price of $10.46.

Coal Formation.

Coal, both hard and soft, is altered and hardened vegetable matter, formed out of the remains of ancient plants. Roughly speaking, coal consists of from 80 to 95 per cent carbon mixed with a small proportion of various mineral substances, which remain as ash when coal is burned. In addition to these constituents coal contains, locked up within itself, a certain amount of gas, varying in quantity according to the kind of coal, the anthracite containing more and the bituminous less gas.

Those papers who thought the governor fell down now see it in another light.

If Mrs. Thaw will keep her decision not to return to the stage the public may soon forget all about it.

If the politicians will not try to make capital out of it any more, the matter of passenger rates may not be agitated again

Governor Glenn has shown that he was the man of the hour, and the action of the special legislature is an endorsement of his course.

Charlotte scores again, that city having been selected as the place of meeting of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly in July.

The extra session of the legislature was worth the price. With agitation between the people and the railroads out of the way attention can be given to development with good feeling and harmony.

It is said to have cost the Thaw family $400,000 to get Harry defended. Looks like a big lot of money to go for so trifling an object, but he hardly takes that view of it. The State of New York is also out $100,000 expended in the prosecution of Thaw.

The compromise entered into by the governor and the railroads and approved by the legislature in special session, should put at rest all agitation in this State of passenger rates. The people and the railroads seem satisfied at the adjustment, and now the aim of all should be to work together for the advancement and upbuilding of the State.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

Who made the best crop in Pitt County during the year 1907

EVERYBODY admits that this has been a bad crop year and as a whole it has been, but some planters had bounteous yields in return for their labours.

Why? Because they used Cotton Seed Meal as a Fertilizer.

DR. BONSTEEL of the Bureau of Soils of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in his address to the planters of Pitt county strongly advised its use, stating that as a fertilizer stable manure was the best adapted to our soil and the next best was cotton seed meal.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how something finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label. If poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

"Boost the Booster!"

That's the official slogan of a certain town in Arkansas which through boosting itself and boosting its boosters has doubled its population since the 1900 census.

BOOST THE BOOSTER!

The Arkansas town had been quarreling among itself for years, and standing still. It had boosters, but it had others who refused to boost the boosters, refused to stand by them and yell, "Good boy—keep it up!"

BOOST THE BOOSTER!

Finally the town got together with itself, organized a "Boost the Booster Club" and began to boom. Now its principal thoroughfare, which was a streak of mud, is a stretch of asphalt, and it has new buildings to match. Now everybody boosts the booster and booms the boom.

BOOST THE BOOSTER!

This town might take a hint from that one. We have our town boosters—every town has some. But sometimes they get discouraged because of opposition right here in our midst.

BOOST THE BOOSTER!

Cut out the criticism!

Quit the queering!

Boom the Boom!

Then watch the old town perk up and plunge forward. You can see it move.

WHEN YOU BOOST THE BOOSTER YOU BOOM THE BOOM.

The Holidays Have Passed and all are down to business again.

A Word to the Wise is Sufficient.

PHOTOGRAPHING ANIMALS.

Some Dangers the Man Behind the Camera Encounters.

Today the camera penetrates everywhere, and sometimes its use is attended with considerable danger and difficulty. Nowhere is this more pronounced than when the camera is brought into use in taking lifelike pictures of wild animals in captivity.

How hazardous this may be is shown by the following incident, which happened not long ago at a big zoological garden abroad: A fine white leopard had been added to the collection, and as soon as it appeared to have settled down the authorities decided to have it photographed. It seemed to be a fairly quiet creature—nervous and timid, to be sure, but without any sign of temper.

When the keeper entered its cage it had taken little notice of him beyond the usual spitting and hissing natural to its kind. The photographer therefore followed the keeper into its cage without apprehension of trouble.

He set up his apparatus, adjusted it, took several pictures of the leopard, and all seemed satisfactory. As he shut up his camera, however, the operator chanced to shuffle his feet once or twice on the floor of the cage.

Like a streak of lightning the leopard, with an ominous snarl, leaped at him, and before he could move the animal was gripping his ankle with his forepaws and furiously biting at his foot. Luckily the keeper and some assistants succeeded in beating off the beast in time to save the photographer's life, but it was a narrow squeak.

At the same zoo some time after when an attempt was made to photograph one of the llamas—an animal generally considered to be a fairly docile creature, with nothing particularly objectionable about it beyond its habit of spitting—the photographer's "subject" revealed its true nature by suddenly making a dash for camera and operator, and before the latter could be rescued he was the recipient of innumerable scratches, cuts and bruises which took some weeks to heal.

It is an open question whether seals and sea lions are vicious or not. They are certainly extremely curious and anxious to find out things for themselves, and a photographer who tried to take a picture of a troupe of performing sea lions had an experience worth recording.

He erected his tripod and camera and was about to make the exposure when one of the sea lions wriggled off his pedestal and made straight for the camera. It was all done so quickly that before the photographer realized it the camera was upset and the sea lion was biting the man's legs and feet pretty sharply.

The trainer got him away, and no serious harm was done, but he explained to the camera man that sea lions often did a little biting just to find out what an object was made of!—Pearson's Weekly.

Clancy's Employer.

Benjamin F. Butler of Massachusetts was a tireless worker when he started on anything. He and his secretary, Clancy, says the Baltimore Sun, oftentimes sat in the library until almost daylight when the general wanted to finish up anything.

During the night sessions of the senate toward a close of congress a senator called on General Butler one morning at 3 o'clock. The same senator called again when the senate adjourned the following morning at daybreak and found the general and Clancy still at work.

"Don't you ever stop?" the senator asked.

"No," General Butler said. "Satan finds some mischief still for idle hands to do."

"General, I never knew before just who my employer was," Clancy said, bowing.

Placing the Blame.

Counsel (a giant in the world of cross examiners)—You are continually bringing actions, aren't you?

Plaintiff—I have brought a few.

Counsel—You didn't succeed in the last, did you?

Plaintiff—I came out of it all right.

Counsel—Do you mean to say you didn't lose it?

Plaintiff—I did not.

Counsel—You didn't? Remember, sir, you are on your oath.

Plaintiff—I know that.

Counsel—And yet you swear you didn't lose that action?

Plaintiff—I did not. You threw it away for me.—London Scraps.

Her Eloquent Glance.

The plea of a man arrested for swearing at his mother-in-law was that "she commenced with him first."

"Did she swear at you?" asked the judge.

"No, your honor, but she looked it."—St. Louis Republic.

A SHREWD LITTLE GIRL.

Prompted a Question Which Saved an Old Woman's Life.

Elizabeth Janfield, afterward Lady Falkland, was called an "odd child." Sometimes her father, who was a judge, took her with him to court. On one of these occasions a woman was brought before him on a charge of witchcraft. It was said that she had bewitched two or three persons to death. The frightened creature when asked if this were so fell on her knees and, weeping, confessed that the accusations against her were true.

"Did you bewitch — to death?" asked the judge.

"Yes," was her reply.

"Did you come in the form of a black cat and breathe on him so that he languished away?"

"I did."

And then the judge heard a whisper at his ear, and his little daughter—she was only ten years old—began to ask the woman if she had bewitched John Symondes to death.

The question was put and immediately answered in the affirmative. How had she done it? Then she told one of her former stories, at which all the company laughed. The reason of the merriment was that John Symondes was the judge's brother-in-law and at that moment was standing near him in court. The judge then asked why she had made such a statement.

"Alas, sir, I know him not," replied the woman. "I said so because you asked me."

"Are you no witch?"

"No. God knows I'm not."

"Nor did you ever see the devil?"

"No; never in all my life."

On further examination she said she had been told that if she did not confess she would be tortured until she did, but that if she admitted all the accusations mercy would be shown her. She was thereupon acquitted, and she owed her release and probably her life to the shrewdness of a little girl.

Very Few Stops.

Little Tillie had received from her father a short time ago a toy organ. Since that time she played without ceasing.

The other day a neighbor visited Tillie's mother. Examining the organ with interest, she asked the little girl:

"How many stops has your organ?"

"Four," replied the mother promptly—"breakfast, luncheon, dinner and bed."—Exchange.

TO MY FRIENDS.

Having been away for several months I wish to announce to my friends and patrons of the "empire" of Pitt that I am still connected with the firm of Chas. M. Stieff, and if bachelors are allowed to misuse the happy term home as a synonym for a "hanging out place" I still call Greenville my home, and while I intend to be away from Greenville a great deal of my time during this fall a postal care of box 325, Greenville, will reach me within a day or two. We now have a number of slightly used upright pianos, some of which have been rented during the summer months, others which were temporarily used by artists at the exposition and for orchestra work, at bargain prices.

We also offer a special school piano for $225 00 fully measuring up in standard to any $350 00 instrument. This piano is especially built for college and school work for the special price named above and is full guaranteed by my firm for 10 years. Those interested in a school piano or in a good slightly used piano for the home should write me at once and will profit by it, and as ever I am always mindful of my patrons' protection and interest as well as my firm's interest. Grateful of past patronage. Very resp., G. G. Fineman, Box 325 Greenville, N. C.

At present prices, it is hard to understand how any man in the butter and egg business can fail.

If you have Catarrh, rid yourself of this repulsive disease. Ask Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis., to mail you free, a trial box of his Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. A simple, single test, will surely tell you a Catarrh truth, well worth your knowing. Write to day. Don't suffer longer. Bryan's Drug Store.

Nothing pleases his satanic majesty more than to see a church divided against itself

At times when you don't feel just right, when you have a bad stomach, take something right away that will assist digestion: not something that will stimulate for a time but something that will positively do the very work that the stomach performs under ordinary and normal conditions, something that will make the food digest. To do this you must take a natural digestant like Kodol For Dyspepsia. Kodol is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids with natural digestants and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Each dose will digest more than 3,000 grains of good food. It is sure to afford prompt relief; it digests what you eat and is pleasant to take. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

You may have read about the blessings of poverty, but did you ever see any of them?

The trouble with most cough remedies is that they constipate. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently but promptly on the bowels and at the same time it stops the cough by soothing the throat and lung irritation. Children like it. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Those Kentucky and Tennessee night riders are surely a shady set.

"Health coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. This, the finest coffee substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health coffee is made from pure toasted cereals, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for coffee. No twenty or thirty minutes boiling. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. T. E. Hooker & Co.

Ohio is the only State in which the politicians are now real busy.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

An Englishman is charged with having 500 wives. Most wonderful man.

Grippe is sweeping the country. Stop it with Preventics, before it gets deeply seated. To check early colds with these little Candy Cold Cure Tablets is surely sensible and safe. Preventics contain no Quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh or sickening. Pneumonia would never appear if early colds were promptly broken. Also good for feverish children. Large box, 43 tablets, 25 cents. Vest pocket boxes 5 cents. Sold by Bryan's Drug Store.

The fellows who predicted a hard winter are now prophesying a hard spring.

IT DOES THE BUSINESS

Mr. E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says of Eucklen's Arnica Salve "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for a hopped hand and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c at J. L. Wooten's drug store.

Congressman Sabath will probably be given charge of all Sunday closing bills.

THE MODERN ACTOR.

A Stage Hand Compares Him With the Stars of the Past.

"Actors travel on their nerve so much nowadays it makes 'em think they're nervous," said the old carpenter. "Why, I was with a show that had to delay opening two weeks because the star discovered a fancy interior done in blue and gold. He said blue got on his nerves. So we lost time while the scene was painted over. Same way with another—a woman star. She wouldn't work because a parlor set had panels decorated with peacocks. Said she was picked one day by a peacock, and even pictures of 'em scared her.

"But you can bet that's done mostly for advertising. They do their acting for the press agents, and the more hot air is wrote about 'em in the newspapers the better actors they think they are.

"Used to be actors had to produce the goods—and do it on real acting too. They could act and talk so as to make the audience think it was a balmy moonlight night, for instance, without a lot of electrical stuff to help 'em out. There's often more stage hands working realistic effects nowadays than there are actors in the whole cast, and sometimes what passes for a good show would be just as interesting if there was no actors in it."

"What is lacking in the modern actor compared to the old school?" asked the student.

"Most of 'em ain't got the backbone to be good actors," replied the old man. "Can you figure any of those dude society stars pulling off fierce sword fights and struggles like McCullough or Forrest? No, sir. They ain't physically able. And that's what makes us sick when we have to stand in the wings and listen to them fool the audience into thinking what wonderful heroes they are."—John S. Lopez in Harper's Weekly.

The Deepest Well.

The deepest well in the world is probably the one at Spenberg, Germany, some twenty miles from Berlin, sunk for the purpose of obtaining rock salt brine. A bore hole of sixteen inches diameter was carried down to the depth of 280 feet, where the salt bed began. After a farther descent of 680 feet the bore was reduced to thirteen inches diameter and then continued till the extraordinary depth of 4,119 feet was reached.—New York American.

Tremendous High-grade Stock of Fine Merchandise Having been brought to Greenville and Placed in C. T. MUNFORD'S big store for a quick sale.

CONSIDERATION! After considering what we and our Creditors think best, and they say the only wise thing to do with this combined gigantic stock of high-grade merchandise is to sell and satisfy our creditors, the best way possible, as we have no ready cash to keep them quiet, we must listen to them, have this sale, and throw this immense stock on the market. We must take their advice, mark it down like they say, so we can raise a few dollars to send them so that every time the train blows our color won't change, knowing that as soon as the mail is handed to us we will open after where some house writes like this: "You must pay this bill at once."

Our Doors will be thrown open to the Public January the Twenty-fifth, 1908
