HAPPENINGS IN NORTH CAROLINA

SHORT ITEMS OF EVENTS ABOUT THE STATE.

Up-to-Date and of Interest to Our Busy Readers.

The Washington district conference of the Methodist church will be held at Aurora beginning next Wednesday.

Siler City, N. C., April 30.—W. N. Harris, a well-to-do farmer living in the Lindley neighborhood, was kicked by a mule Tuesday afternoon and died within twenty minutes. The burial took place at South Fork Friends church today.

At the meeting of the College of Bishops of the Southern Methodist church Bishop A. W. Wilson was assigned to hold the North Carolina Conference at Durham on December 9th, and Bishop James Atkins to hold the Western North Carolina Conference at Asheville the 18th of November.

Charlotte, N. C., April 29.—Rowland Blakenship, an employe of the local electric street railroad, received eleven hundred volts of electricity through his body while strapped to the top of a pole this morning and had to be taken down by means of ropes and a ladder. He lived an hour after the accident.

New Bern, N. C., April 30.—Mrs. John P. Watson was the victim of a brutal negro last night. About 7:30 she was returning to her home on Pollock street and when in front of L. M. Egerton's house passed a negro who had stopped to tie his shoe. He turned on her, knocked her down, took a bag containing her purse, containing over $1500 out of her hand and wrenched her umbrella from her hand. Her screams frightened the man, and he ran away. Her injuries are not serious.

Wooten for our next representative, we the undersigned citizens of Falkland township desire to heartily join with Farmville in their endorsement and respectfully ask that the voters of Pitt county nominate him at our next county convention. Mr. Wooten was raised among us and we can recommend him to the voters of Pitt county with confidence.

Respectively,
Abner Eason, J. C. Dilda,
G. W. Jefferson, D. F. Lang,
J. L. Shackelford, J. R. Owens,
A. J. Jefferson, J. R. Dozier,

Improving the Output.

A father, whose looks are rot such as to warrant the breaking up of all existing statues of Apollo, tells this on himself.

"My little girl was sitting on my lap facing a mirror. After gazing intently at her reflection for some minutes she said: 'Papa did God make you?'"

"Certainly, my dear," I told her.

"And did He make me too?"

—taking another look in the mirror

"Certainly, dear. What makes you ask?"

"Oh, I don't know. Seems to me He's doing better work lately."—Everybody's Magazine.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hooker Dead.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hooker, who for several months has been in feeble health, died at 10:30 o'clock Thursday night at her home in South Greenville. She was a woman of many virtues—a loving mother, a true friend, a good neighbor, kind hearted to all, and a true Christian.

All of her surviving children, eight in number, had been summoned and were around her bedside when her spirit took its flight from earth. These children are Messrs. S. T. and Lawrence Hooker, Misses Mamie and Rosa Hooker and Mrs. Louisa Forbes, of Greenville; Mrs. Bettie Abbott, Kinston; Messrs. Oscar, Henry and Z. V. Hooker, of Richmond. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. McD. Horton, of Farmville.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, services being conducted in Jarvis Memorial church by Rev. M. T. Plyler, and the interment in Cherry Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were Drs. Zeno Brown, E. A. Moye, Charles Laughinghouse and R. L. Carr and Messrs. J. L. Starkey, M. H. Quinerly, R. L. Smith, Wiley Brown, D. J. Whichard, T. R. Moore, J. A. Lang and Lunsford Fleming.

ROCHDALE SPROUTS.

Roachdale, N. C., April 30. I reckon I ought to call you down, but I won't. I'll just ask you to correct one little mistake. You made me say Mrs. Mills when it was Mrs. Mills Smith.

Mrs. M. F. Smith and Miss Lou Crawford went to the Marlboro section Friday to be at the quarterly meeting Saturday and Sunday, and are visiting relatives there this week.

Miss Ellen Tyson, of Farmville, was visiting in Smithtown Sunday.

Miss Nannie Parker, of Greene county, is visiting in Smithtown this week, at Ivy Smith's.

Miss Agnes Smith went to Snow Hill yesterday to be at the marriage of her cousin, Miss Leona Lassiter, today.

Miss Dell Clements' school closed at Smith's school house Tuesday and at night they had an ice cream super at the school house with just the school children and their parents and families. I happened not to be either but got an invitation and accepted it, though I left all of the cream for the others. But let me tell you, I don't think I ever saw a crowd enjoy themselves any better. The little folks "rocked the symbling" and some of the bigger ones helped them, and some of the next biggest were cornered off with—well, you know who, and the old folks would be in squads talking farming and other topics that was the men. Don't know what the ladies were talking about. Being a little shy, I thought I had better be careful and not get too close to them. To take it as a whole everybody enjoyed it fine and at eleven o'clock all very reluctantly repaired to their homes long to remember that pleasant occasion.

We will for the next ten days reduce our stock of woolen dress goods, shoes, embroideries and laces. $3.50 shoes reduced to $2.30; $3.00 shoes to $2.50; $1.00 dress goods (woolen) 85c; 60c dress goods (woolen) 45c. No goods charged at these prices.

Respectfully,
J. F. Davenport Co.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town, Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., May 1, 1908.

Mrs. C. C. Bland has returned from a visit to Kinston where she has been spending sometime with her daughter.

Mrs. Warren, of Farmville, who has been here on a short visit to her sister, Miss Lillie Savage, at the graded school has returned to her home.

Miss Lancaster, who has been here on a pleasant visit to Mrs. H. G. Burton, left Monday for her home in Rocky Mount.

E. Turnage & Sons have added a new line to their already immense stock of general merchandise. One day during the week, R. C. Coward, one of their clerks was passing down the store when his attention was attracted by a hissing sound. Turning quickly he saw a huge moccasin snake coiled on the top of a barrel, with head erect, flashing eyes and dilating tongue, ready to strike. Mr. Coward was badly frightened. Calling for assistance from others in the store they soon dispatched his snake-ship and taking his measure proved to be something more than four feet long and about eight inches in circumference. The Messrs. Turnage are not making this class of goods a specialty, but should one be desirous of the article the firm will undertake to supply the demand, as they are strictly up to date.

C. S. Smith, of Winterville, was here a short while Wednesday.

R. W. King, of Greenville, and B. R. King, of Goldsboro, were pleasant callers yesterday. We are always pleased to have the boys call as it reminds us forcibly of the good old times when we were boys and the recollection of later years tell us of a friendship that has ne'er waned e'en until now. Dick and Ben have always been among our specials.

Election for town officers comes off Monday next.

Allen's Minstrel shows are billed to show here today. Everybody is going. The little folks because they've never been, the old folks because they must see after the little ones and the young folks because they want to see the show.

Mrs. Effie Taylor spent Wednesday in Winterville with her parents.

D. W. Taylor, from near Kinston, spent yesterday here with his son, Guy Taylor.

Hon. W. W. Kitchin delivers the annual address at the graded school building Friday, May 8th at 11 o'clock a. m. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb Witherington are spending the week at the home of Capt. J. M. Dixon, and Lawrence Witherington's.

The school taught by Miss Lillie Corey, at Haddock's Cross Roads, closes tonight. (Friday) An address will be delivered by Rev. T. H. King.

The town convention to nominate officers for the ensuing year was held last night [with W. E. Hooks as chairman, and the following were nominated: For mayor, J. F. Barwick; for commissioners, R. W. Smith, L. H. Witherington, George Worthington, J. H. Tripp and Stancel Hodges.

Newspapers Business.

Considered as a manufacturing enterprise, newspaper making is enormously hazardous and absurdly unremunative. With the very many other manufacturing concerns all over the country, the rule is that if they don't make profits they are shut down, but that is not so with newspapers. They always have moral and political reasons for clinging to life, long after there has ceased to be any pecuniary warrant for it. A newspaper in these days is about as likely to clear a dividend as a church is. Competition between papers is intense and the price of nearly all of them is too low, the cost of paper and manufacture too high, and they give a great deal too much for the meagre one cent or two cents which seems to be the standard prices now charged for the daily issue of newspapers.—New Bern San.

Married.

Thursday night at the residence of Mr. Ivy Smith, in Beaver Dam township, Miss Delle Clements and Mr. Loyd Smith were married by Rev. S. W. Summerell. The bride was formerly of Warren county, but has been teaching in Pitt the last two years.

Wheels seek the road bed when they are tired.

Our National Wealth.

In round figures we have 3,000,000 square miles out of the total 50,000,000 square miles of the world's area. We have a population of 86,000,000, or a fraction over 5 per cent of the world's. With an area of 5.9 per cent of the world's and a population of 5.2 per cent, we are raising annually 43 per cent of the world's total production of wheat, corn, and oats. Of corn alone,—one of the most important cereals known to mankind,—we are producing 78.8 per cent; of tobacco we are raising 31.1 per cent, and of cotton 71.3 per cent. Thus, in agriculture,—the starting point of material progress, since man must first be fed and clothed,—is found an illustration of our position.

This agricultural supremacy is fully matched in minerals and manufactures. Taking the most recent available figures, which include a few estimates for 1907, and the striking comparison is produced that we made last year over 42 per cent of the world's iron production, or 25,780,000 tons out of a total of 61,090,000 tons. We mined 455,000,000 tons of coal out of a total of 1,220,000,000 tons, or 37.3 per cent of the industrial energy stored in coal, the motive power of material progress. Of petroleum, which lights so large a portion of the earth, illuminating the adobe house in the wilds of the mountain regions of Mexico, the home of the dweller in the Andes, the hut of the mountaineer in the distant regions of the Himalayas, and likewise furnishes what is regarded as the best of lights in the dwellings of wealth and even of royalty, we produced last year 162,600,000 barrels, or 62.5 per cent of the world's total of 260,000,000 barrels.—From "A National Inventory," by Richard H. Edmonds, in the American Review of Reviews for May.

FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1908.

New Bern will be 200 years old in 1910 and the city has begun talking of holding a big celebration in honor of the event. New Bern has made much history in her career, and the whole State should join with her in celebrating her two hundredth anniversary.

The Raleigh Times thinks it is "too late for third term talk." Not much. It takes the president only about thirty seconds to make up his mind to do something rash. By the time the convention comes he may be a very willing candidate for the nomination.

We know of no people to whom prohibition will be a greater blessing than the women, and their inactivity so far in the campaign now in progress is almost inexcusable. Of course we are speaking of local inactivity, not knowing if the same condition exists generally and hoping that it does not. But the women of Greenville are doing practically nothing in the interest of the campaign for prohibition, and it is not at all to their credit that they are so indifferent. It is simply mockery for a woman to cry "save my boy", and then put forth no effort herself to save him. We hope the women will get to work in this matter, as they have an influence that no other power on earth can exert.

Time to Think

When the friends of a Democratic candidate become to overzealous, and resort to the extolling of Republicans to the detriment of another opposing Democratic candidate, it is time for Democrats generally to stop and think seriously of the tendency of such arguments and use their endeavor to return to harmony and a solid front to the enemy, by discountenancing the attempts to tear down, rather than build up. The effort to cut the political throat of one Democrat in the interest of another, and divide party fealty, in the face of an engagement with the common enemy, in the hope of gaining ascendancy for any particular candidate, is to be deplored, and Democrats who engage in this kind of political warfare in their own party should well consider the tendency to what ends they are leading. It only furnishes the enemy with a stick to crack their own heads, and weakens the cause of Democracy in the fight that is ahead of us. Brethren, possess your zealous souls with patient ardor, and spend not the force of your energies in fighting the members of your own household more vigorously than you do the real enemy you are to meet in the political combat. It is time to stop and think on these things, and the end to which they tend, before the fruits of victory are turned into the ashes of disappointment by a disrupted party, which has opened the gateway to Republican success.—Durham Sun.

To the Voters of Pitt County.

We the undersigned constituting a majority of the county board of elections for the county of Pitt hereby give notice that an election will be held on 26th day of May, 1908, at which all who favor the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in North Carolina will vote a ticket with the words thereon "For the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors" and those who are opposed to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in North Carolina will vote a ticket with the words thereon "Against the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors"

In order to vote in that election, as in all other elections, it is necessary to be properly registered. It is our opinion that the registration books used at the election on the 14th of May, 1907, are the ones to be used in the coming election. We therefore advise every voter who did not register in that election to see that his name is put on the registration books before the close of the 16th day of May when the registration books will be closed by law.

To the Voters of Pitt County.

Some doubt and confusion having arisen in the minds of some persons as to what registration books shall be used as the legal registration books for the registration of voters for the election to take place on the 26th of May 1908, I beg to say that the registrars should use the book used at the election on the 14th day of May 1907 and no other.

Whenever a new registration is ordered and taken all previous registration and registration books become useless and cannot be used at subsequent elections. The registration for the election on 14th, of May 1907 was a new registration and not a special registration. It is therefore certain that the registration books in use at the election on the 14th of May, 1907, must be used in the coming election. Any voter whose name is on the registration books used at the election on the 14th of May, 1907, need not register again. All whose names are not on these books will have to register for the coming election or they cannot vote.

The registration books were opened on the 24th inst and the law requires them to be closed at sundown on Saturday the 16th day of May, 1908. The law also requires the registrars to be at the polling places in their respective precincts on each Saturday during the period of registration, but the registrars can register the voters at other times and places. So it is clear that every voter whose name is not on the registration books used at the election in May 1907 has ample time and opportunity to have it put there if he so desires and I make this publication for the purpose of urging the voters to register and vote. A great moral question is to be decided upon which will seriously affect the habit, the homes and lives of the people and especially the boys and girls who are soon to become the men and women of the near future. You cannot vote in that great question on the 26th of May unless you are registered. I therefore urge you to register. This great question will be presented to you in the form of two ballots. One of these ballots will read "For the Manufacture and Sale of Intoxicating Liquors." The other ballot will read "Against the Manufacture and Sale of Intoxicating Liquors."

If any man is in doubt as to which of these ballots he ought to deposit in the box let him ask his wife or that darling little girl for whose safety he would give his life or that bright eyed boy whose future may be determined by the result of this election. They will tell him and tell him right. But I put it to every father and grandfather in the county of Pitt can you look that mother, that darling girl and that dear boy in the face and then turn away and vote "For the Manufacture and Sale of Intoxicating Liquors." I am expecting, hoping and praying that the men of Pitt will roll up a great big majority "Against the Manufacture and Sale of Intoxicating Liquors."

Deafness Cannot be cured

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The Good Old Days.
The richest man in King Charles II.'s England could not get so good a dinner as tens of thousands will sit down to today. Cattle were of a far poorer breed, vegetables were few and bad and the commonest conveniences of the table were unknown. Fish tails, for instance, are hardly considered an extravagant luxury, but Mr. Gladstone could remember when they were not to be found on any table.—London Telegraph.

Meals and Brains.
We give too much thought to our meals, for instance. They need contriving, and it is pleasant to have them set temptingly upon a table on which fresh flowers are arranged and to eat them in a room wherein there is not a speck of dust, but it is not right that our bodies should be fed at the expense of our souls or that the dust should be taken from every ledge in our house and left to gather thickly in our brains.—Reader Magazine.

IT IS SERIOUS.

Some Greenville People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

The constant aching of a bad back, The weariness, the tired feeling, The pains and aches of kidney ills Are serious—if neglected. Dangerous urinary troubles follow. Mrs. C. C. Joyner, 322 Eastern Ave., Rocky Mount, N. C., says: "I think a great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills having received much benefit from their use. I suffered for a long time from dull pains in my back and loins and frequently on arising in the morning, I was so lame and sore that I could hardly stoop to put on my shoes. If I made a quick movement or performed any work that required the use of the muscles of my back, I was rewarded with sharp twinges throughout my body. I had no strength or energy and felt generally run down, but was at a loss to know how to obtain relief. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and believing that they might help me, I procured a box. Since using them I have been free from backache and have had no trouble from the kidneys. My advice to any one afflicted with kidney complaint is to use Doan's Kidney Pills." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

All the Gold IN GEORGIA Could not Buy-

Rodrig, Ga. August 27, 1906.
Messrs. K. G. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.
Gentlemen:—
In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. Some physicians told me it was Dyspepsia, some Consumption of the Lungs, others said consumption of the Bowels. One physician said I would not live until Spring, and for four long years I existed on a little boiled milk, soda biscuits, doctors' prescriptions and Dyspepsia remedies that flooded the market. I could not digest anything I ate, and in the Spring 1903 I picked up one of your Almanacs as a poor emaciated Dyspepsia wreck will grasp at anything, and that Almanac happened to be my life savior. I bought a fifty cent bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE and the benefit I received from that bottle ALL THE GOLD IN GEORGIA COULD NOT BUY. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic.
May you live long and prosper.
Yours very truly

Australian Girls Fearless Riders.
Many Australian girls live right up in the bush, or "stations," which are miles away from any town or village, and their time is largely occupied with riding and driving. They are as much at home on a horse as a duck is in the water and think nothing of riding twenty miles or so to pay a visit. Household duties claim a share of their time, however, and any day they are liable to be left without servants and with a house full of visitors, but are in nowise daunted by such an occurrence. Then the bush girl comes down to the capital for the season, and, far from appearing a country bumpkin or a tomboy after her free and open air life, she is as much at home in a ballroom as any town bred girl, as neat and well dressed as if she had never ridden bareback over wild tracts of country with little thought of appearances.—London Woman.

Birds as Ventriloquists.

Many birds form their sounds without opening their bills. The pigeon is a well known instance of this. Its cooing can be distinctly heard, although it does not open its bill. The call is formed internally in the throat and chest and is only rendered audible by resonance. Similar ways may be observed in many birds and other animals. The clear, loud call of the cuckoo, according to one naturalist, is the resonance of a note formed in the bird. The whirring of the snipe, which betrays the approach of the bird to the hunter, is an act of ventriloquism. Even the nightingale has certain notes which are produced internally and which are audible while the bill is closed.

Dickens and the London News.

Dickens was the originator of the London Daily News. The paper was started on Jan. 21, 1846. At that time Charles Dickens was editor, his father, John Dickens, was the manager, Douglas Jerrold was assistant editor, and Bradbury and Evans were the printers. Albany Fonblanque and John Forster were leader writers, "Father Prout" (Mahoney) was Roman correspondent, and George Hogarth, Dickens' father-in-law, was musical critic. Sir William Jackson, Sir Joseph Watkins and Mr. (afterward Sir) Joseph Paxton were among the principal proprietors.

Why He Mourned.

O'Flanagan came home one night with a deep band of black crape around his hat.

"Why, Mike," exclaimed his wife, "what are ye wearin' that mournful thing for?"

"I'm wearin' it for yer first husband," replied Mike firmly. "I'm sorry he's dead."—Everybody's Magazine.

What Makes a Bank Strong

In judging a Bank, always remember that it is Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits that give security to the depositor, because that money is what stands between you as a depositor and any possible shrinkage in the securities held by the bank.

Few banks in the State have a larger margin of safety than THE BANK OF GREENVILLE which, with the watchful interest of a very capable and conservative board of directors and the constant inspection of the Corporation Commission, has built up here one of the best financial institutions in the county, one whose

Are You a Trust Buster?

Hey—You! Yes, YOU'RE the man we mean. You're always talking about the harm the trusts are doing. The country's going to the demnition howwows, you say, because of the uncurbed trusts. Rich growing richer, poor getting poorer. Used to be that a poor man could go into business for himself in a modest way and make a good living. Now he must become a clerk or a roustabout or a hodcarrier for some corporation—some combination that has grown to be a Goliath of bigness, that has devoured the fat of the land and is still gourmandizing upon it, till there's not a scrap of bone left for the under dog.

That's your line of talk. You're still handing it out, and you're proud of it.

Well, now, let's see: Are YOU a trust buster YOURSELF?

Didn't we see you stalk up to the postoffice just now and mail a letter with the address of a city Mail Order Store on the envelope? Hey? Didn't we?

Don't you know that the Mail Order Store is a trust—one of the most dangerous in the crowd? Don't you know that it is secretly and silently and slyly closing the doors of opportunity to the young men in country towns and small cities like ours? Don't you know that the Mail Order Trust is collecting the patronage of town and country people by the mail route, thereby cutting down the patronage of the smaller merchant, the local man who is trying to build up a modest, independent, antitrust business?

Hey?

Didn't that ever occur to you?

N. B. (which means note well): Why don't you trade at home instead of helping to build up a trust that hurts your home place?
