WITH THE ALDERMEN.

New Board Down to Business—First Meeting Thursday Night.

The new board of aldermen that was sworn in on Wednesday and elected officers, had their first regular meeting Thursday night with seven of the members present.

J. L. Wooten and J. R. Moye, who had been elected two of the dispensary commissioners, declined to accept, and C. W. Harvey and D. S. Smith were elected to fill the vacancies.

The terms of J. G. Moye and J. L. Wooten having expired as water and light commissioners and they declining to serve longer, C. O. H. Laughinghouse and H. A. White were elected to fill these vacancies.

R. L. Humber appeared before the board with a complaint of water running across his lot and the matter was referred to the street committee.

The election of chief of fire department was deferred to a later meeting. J. L. Hassell, agent of the Norfolk & Southern railroad, submitted a request that the driveway across the sidewalk from Dickinson avenue to the depot be paved with brick the same as the street, instead of with cement, the railroad agreeing to pay for the brick used in making this change. The matter was referred to the street committee.

License taxes were levied, and in most instances were the same as last year. The tax on dogs was reduced from $2 to $1. Tax on drays is $10 for one, $25 for three, and $5 each on all drays over three.

There were five applications for restaurant licenses, four of them being granted and one refused. There were also three applications for license to run pool tables, one of which was refused.

The chief of police was directed to furnish the board with a list of property, tools, etc., belonging to the town, and the chief of fire department was directed to furnish a list of all the fire equipment.

The police were instructed to assist the tax collector as far as they could in collecting the insolvent taxes.

Aldermen Higgs and Hardee were appointed a purchasing committee, their duty being to purchase and contract for all supplies used by the town.

Aldermen W. S. Moye and Flanagan were appointed to dispose of the town horses. The street committee was directed to investigate the cost of a street sweeper and report at next meeting.

The board endorsed the action of the previous board in deciding to widen the paving on Dickinson avenue between the two depots, and instructed F. J. McGuire to order the paving brick necessary to complete the work.

The street committee was directed to ascertain what property owners will agree to pay for paving sidewalks in front of their property on Evans street, between Third and Fifth streets, as soon as such paving can be done, this being deemed the best plan to have these sidewalks paved at once without having to wait until the town gets sufficient money on hand to advance for the work.

The following standing committees were appointed by the mayor:

Finance—Aldermen Carr, Higgs and Flanagan.
Streets—Aldermen Hardee, Bowen and White.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

By Mohican Tribe No. 56, Winterville, N. C.

As the Great Spirit has seen fit in His infinite wisdom to take away the wife of Brother B. F. Nunn, be it resolved,

That we the members of Mohican Tribe do sympathize with Brother Nunn in his distress and commend him to God the great comforter and our only refuge.

And while we sympathize with Brother Nunn in his sad bereavement, may he fit himself for that second meeting, when he shall lay down the working tools of life and cross the river of death, and may he be united in the happy hunting grounds, of the Great Spirit land from whence no traveler returns.

J. F. Harrington,
J. E. Buck,
O. W. Rollins.

Committee.

See the Committees.

In another column we publish the several committees on the board of aldermen who are to serve this fiscal year. These committees are appointed by the mayor to have supervision of the affairs coming under their respective departments. In this connection we want to make a suggestion: If people having any complaints or other matters to be considered will go to some member of the committee to which it properly belongs, the matter might be considered and adjusted, without delay and save the trouble of going before the entire board at a regular meeting to have it looked after.

Examinations for U. S. Marine Corps.

Washington, N. C. July 2, 1908.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

There are about fifty vacancies in the grade of 2nd Lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps, as the result of recent legislation. There is an opportunity for one or more young men from the first congressional district to enter this service if they are properly qualified and are ambitious in this direction. The physical and mental examinations are right, and the young man must be of good moral character. The age limit is from 21 to 27; minimum height 5 feet 6 inches, and minimum weight 132 pounds. The examination will be held not earlier than October 15th. The pay for a 2nd Lieutenant on entering the corps is $1700.00 per annum.

If there are any young men who think they can come up to the requirements, and who desire to enter the service, I shall be glad to forward circulars giving other details as to the requirements.

Respectfully,
Jno. H. Small.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town, Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., July 3, 1908.

W. L. Browning, the clever book keeper for J. R. Smith Co., is at Seven Springs for his health.

Benjamin Craft, of Falkland, was here Thursday.

Misses Nancy and Carrie Smith, of Greenville, returned home after a short visit to relatives here.

The Ayden band is improving very rapidly under Prof. Bailey. They will soon be so they can make music on most any occasion. They are a handsome, clever set of young men and Ayden is proud of them.

Maj. W. S. Blount, our clever wholesouled hotelist, says his trade is improving, that he is glad he lives in Ayden. He sets a good table, and traveling men all speak well of Major Blount.

The J. R. Smith Co. & Dixon are doing a nice business. They certainly make nice trimming for residences, and are preparing to make large quantity of hogheads for shipping tobacco.

Ayden will sell her share of tobacco this year.

Miss May Smith went to Winterville Thursday.

H. C. Ormond went to Wilson to bring his wife home from the sanitarium.

The Ayden tobacco warehouse will soon be completed. Mr. Glenn, the clever manager, is making many friends among the farmers.

The infant of Mr. J. F. Hart was buried Wednesday at the Cannon cemetery.

Roy Kittrell, of Greenville, has been in Ayden several days during the week.

The attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Lillian Nunn Wednesday, was one of the largest ever seen in Ayden. Mrs. Nunn was born and raised here and had a host of friends and relatives among whom she was very popular. The profusion of beautiful flowers just literally covered the grave from head to foot. All deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones, especially the young husband and two little children, one 2 years of age and the other scarcely 11 months.

Mrs. L. L. Kittrell, of Winterville, has been spending several days here with her daughter, Mrs. Guy Taylor.

Sandy Redditt came over from Kinston to attend the funeral of Mrs. Nunn, Wednesday.

R. G. Chapman, J. R. Cooper, M. G. Bryan and quite a number of others have been here from Winterville this week.

Mrs. Martha Cox has returned to her home after a short visit here.

The stork visited the home of Robert Davis this week and left a fine girl.

J. J. Smith and family are at Morehead for the next 30 days.

Owing to very poor health, after the 6th inst, we will be away from Ayden some 8 or 10 days to recruit. If in our absence any of our patrons should have work for us we will appreciate their keeping it for us until we return. We thank everyone for the many kindnesses shown us and sincerely hope at an early date to be in some measure able to repay them. Our friend R. W. Smith has kindly consented to write items for the Ayden department during our absence.

We congratulate the readers of The Reflector and consider ourselves fortunate in securing the services of so fluent a writer and one who knows how to give expression to his subject in a manner both interesting and beneficial.

Newsy Notes From Our Hustling Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C., July 4, 1908.

M. G. Bryan, our clever postmaster, went to Norfolk Friday morning on a pleasure trip.

Quite a number of B. F. Nunn and wife's relatives were here Wednesday to accompany the remains of Mrs. Nunn to Ayden for interment Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Mollie Bryan left Thursday morning for an extended visit in Randolph county. We wish her a most pleasant stay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McDixon were in town Friday afternoon.

We are glad to see J. E. Greene out again. He was sick for several days.

Mesdames Ernest Manning and Guy Evans spent Wednesday here with relatives.

Our farmers are in excellent spirits. Fine seasons for crops, and good prices for potatoes and cabbage make them feel brighter. Our manufacturers are also as busy as bees with great stacks of orders ahead, so they are not making any complaint. The prospects for the school are good. Catalogues are in the hands of the printer and will soon be ready to be mailed out.

Claude Chapman went to Greenville yesterday.

O. W. Rollins and Doremus McElhcn went to Ayden last night. There must be some attraction over there.

MARRIAGE AT RECTORY.

A Greenville Couple Seeks Union at Christ Church Rectory, This City.

A very quiet wedding took place last evening at 7:30 o'clock in the rectory of Christ Church. The contracting parties were Mr. W. L. Hall and Miss Janie Tyson, both of Greenville, N. C. They arrived on the New Bern and Norfolk train last evening from Washington, N. C. The anxious couple was hastily driven to the rectory, where Rev. J. H. Brown made the happy pair man and wife. The newly made man and wife spent last evening in the city and left this morning on the New Bern and Norfolk train for a short honeymoon at Virginia Beach, after which they will be at home in Greenville, N. C. Mr. Hall is a gentleman of sterling character and a prominent cotton buyer of Greenville, while the bride is one of Greenville's most popular, beautiful and lovely belles, and is possessed of an exceedingly charming voice. On a number of occasions she has entertained an audience with her beautiful solos.—New Bern Sun.

The Charlotte Chronicle calls them "dentalites". That is not so bad.

New York is building a skyscraper over nine hundred feet high. That is going up some.

They are predicting a lot of things to happen if Bryan does not get it on first ballot. But there will be no such if.

There is yet too much hard times talk for the good of business. True money is scarce, but if people would talk more cheerfully, make some effort to pay at least a part of what they owe, and keep money circulating instead of hiding it, conditions would improve.

A Hard Fight Ahead.

A Raleigh correspondent represents Mr. Kitchin, Democratic nominee for Governor, as laughing at the idea that the Republicans will make any gains at the November election in this State. Well, we wish we could agree with Mr. Kitchin, but the Democrat who finds anything to laugh about in the political situation in this State, is a mighty light-headed sort of a fellow. The Democratic party in North Carolina has to face some stern facts this year—facts that cannot be whistled down. There is nothing to warrant a feeling of confidence. There is every reason to believe that the "commercial Democracy," at one time so much derided, will have to be reckoned with this year. There is going to be a good deal of independent voting. By that we mean to say, that there will be a large element of the Democratic party in the State that will shake off party ties, and have no compunctions of conscience in doing so. The carrying of the State may have been child's play for the Democratic party in the past. It is not to be so in the future. We are not alone in this opinion. For instance, The Wilmington Star speaks the truth when it says that "the Republican party to-day in this State is very different from what it was a few years ago and it is day by day becoming a greater menace to Democratic supremacy in this State. The vote that party will poll next fall will be a great surprise to many Democrats. The time has passed when all that is necessary for the Democrats to carry the State is to hold the election and announce overwhelming victory of its party at the polls. Now an intelligent and resourceful opponent is to be met—an opponent who is gaining strength with each recurring election. The time has come when the Democratic party leaders must consult the wishes of the people, must bid for the support of the people instead of dictating to them how and for

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. whom they shall vote." Who will deny that the truth has not been fully set forth in this quotation from The Star? The Democratic paper that would make its readers think all is safe and serene, is doing the worst possible service it could do for the party. The Democratic majority is going to be reduced. What the Democrats will have to look out for, is to see that it is not reduced out of sight.—Charlotte Chronicle.

All the Gold IN GEORGIA Could not Buy.

Roding, Ga. August 27, 1906.
Messrs. E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.

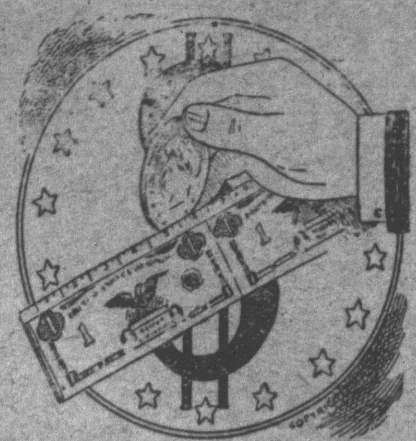

Gentlemen:—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. Some physicians told me it was Dyspepsia, some Consumption of the Lungs, others said consumption of the Bowels. One physician said I would not live until Spring, and for four long years I existed on a little boiled milk, soda biscuits, doctors' prescriptions and Dyspepsia remedies that flooded the market. I could not digest anything I ate, and in the Spring 1902 I picked up one of your Almanacs as a poor emaciated Dyspepsia wreck will grasp at anything, and that Almanac happened to be my life saver. I bought a fifty cent bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE and the benefit I received from that bottle ALL THE GOLD IN GEORGIA COULD NOT BUY. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly, C. N. CORNELL.

OUR ANNIVERSARIES.

A Critic Who Takes Exception to the Celebration of Birthdays.

"While not intending to change the dates of any anniversaries now existing," remarks the meddler, "I do wish to make a few timely and original remarks upon the absurdity of the custom.

"Why should the celebration of a great man be held upon the anniversary of his birth? Was there anything remarkable in that? Did any benefit accrue to the world at that time? Is there any part of his existence for which he is less responsible? Surely not. It is absurd that in a long and illustrious lifetime the date that should be selected for an anniversary is his advent into an indifferent world as a naked, blind animal without developed senses and without a mind.

"Is not April 30, the date of Washington's inauguration as the first president of a new nation, more symbolical of his life than Feb. 22? The birth of the United States—each year it passes without notice. The Declaration of Independence was fine, but it did not assure the launching of the ship of state. Washington had much to do with the launching of that ship, and it is fitting that he should be remembered chiefly in connection therewith. Feb. 22, forsooth! We might as well celebrate the chopping down of the cherry tree.

"There are many men whose anniversaries might well fall on July 4. It was on that day that Thomas Jefferson signed the Declaration of Independence, which he had drawn up. But since there are many who had a share in that proceeding and in bringing that day to pass it is better that July 4 should remain a national anniversary and not the day of any one man.

"I submit a revised list of anniversaries:

"Benjamin Franklin, Nov. 30. On that day in the year 1783 he signed the treaty of peace between American colonies and England at Paris.

"Thomas Jefferson, April 23. On that day in the year 1803 he bought the Louisiana territory from Napoleon Bonaparte for the sum of $15,000,000.

"Abraham Lincoln, April 9. On that day in the year 1865 Lee surrendered at Appomattox, this being the thing which Lincoln spent the best part of his life bringing to pass. It meant the preservation of the Union.

"Jefferson Davis, Feb. 22. On this day in the year 1862 he was inaugurated president of the Confederacy.

"Robert E. Lee, May 4. It was on this day that the battle of Chancellorsville was won.

"In at least one conspicuous instance the greatest achievement of a man's life has fixed a date in the public mind. Who knows in what year Columbus was born? Who does not know, from schoolboy to grandfather, that he discovered America in 1492?" — Birmingham News.
