AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes from a Hustling Town, Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., Aug. 28, 1908.

R. Williams, register of deeds, spent part of two days here during the past week.

Several new buyers have been on the tobacco market.

We omitted in our last items to mention that Miss Lee Nichols had returned from a visit to friends in Grifton.

Watch Ayden forging to the front.

The Free Will Seminary began its fall session Monday.

Once more we call attention to our city fathers to the deplorable condition of our streets. They are a disgrace to civilization.

The little daughter of Mayor J. F. Barwick does not seem, from what we can learn, to get any better.

The incessant rains have placed the roads in almost an impassable condition. Bridges have been washed away and the travelling public are placed at a great inconvenience.

The loss sustained during the recent fire by J. S. Ross was fully adjusted in less than ten days by Moseley Bros. with whom he had insurance.

Sheriff Tucker was here Tuesday. He was smiling, shaking hands and as usual seemed delighted to meet his many friends. J. C. Lanier was here also, similarly engaged.

Miss Edith Mumford is away in the country on a visit of two weeks among friends.

Miss May Holton, after spending a pleasant week with Miss Rush Dixon, has returned to her home.

The picture man is here giving exhibitions every night for the benefit of the Daughters of Rebekkah.

It is time now for our business men to advertise. We will be glad to receive orders at any time. We are not writing for glory, we are after the where-withal, and unless we receive encouragement we will be compelled to change our calling. We have labored hard and zealously for Ayden and the interest of its people and, to say the least, we are entitled to a livelihood. We are not asking charity, but soliciting only that just patronage to which we think ourselves honestly entitled. For four long years, week after week, twice a week, without omissions we have done our best, and our every effort and purpose was to see Ayden grow and her people prosper and we do hope now everything is looking so bright they will not forget us.

Miss Mamie Dawson came up from Grifton Thursday to visit relatives.

Miss Lena Dawson came home yesterday from a visit to friends. Mrs. Agnes Blount went to Greenville yesterday.

Miss Marion Hodges, of Kinston, is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. R. Turnage.

Miss Ferrebee, of Camden, is visiting Miss Olivia Berry.

To Cease Publication.

The North Carolina Odd Fellow, which was started in this city by Mr. St. Leon Scull, of Windsor, will cease publication after its next issue of the 26 inst. Lack of support is given as the cause. Editor Scull will either locate in New Mexico or Arizona, and he has our best wishes.—Goldsboro Argus.

WHOLESALE PETTY THIEVERY.

Two Negroes of Kinston in Hot Water by Coast Line Detective.

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 27.—For some time the Atlantic Coast Line has been troubled with petty thieving in and around its depot and out of sealed cars. Detective McBryde, of Norfolk, and Policeman Howland, of Kinston, got a clue yesterday and found that John Henry Allen, colored, had been breaking in and doing the taking, and Esless Watts, colored groceryman, was retailing the stolen property. Quite a lot of cheese, sausage, tea, etc., was found in Watts' store last night. Allen has not been found, Watts was tried this afternoon before the mayor and bound over to court. In default of bond is in jail. The police are looking for John Henry.

ROCHDALE SPROUTS.

Rochdale, N. C., Aug. 28, 1908.

Last week was rather a disagreeable time for saving fodder, though some of the farmers finished pulling.

Some of the cotton fields look like picking time.

Mills Smith went to Farmville last Friday morning and returned in the evening.

Misses Lizzie Braxton and Mamie Madry, of Scotland Neck, came last Friday to visit relatives and friends in our section.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Smith left Saturday morning for Henderson to spend some time visiting Mrs. Smith's people.

Jim Bob Smith and T. E. Little, of Rochdale and several others of Arthur took a flying trip to Farmville Saturday evening.

While on the train they met H. Bently Harris and others of Greenville on their way to Farmville and all returned on the next train.

Mrs. Mills Smith and children and Miss Trilby Smith went to Ormondsville Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Wyatt Eason and returned Sunday evening.

R. E. Willoughby and Miss Virginia Mayo went to Farmville Sunday and returned in the evening.

Mills and H. A. Smith, I. B. Jasper and Sam Joyner went to Norfolk Monday.

Ivy Smith, Wm. McArthur and G. T. Tyson boarded the train at Arthur Tuesday morning for Raleigh to attend the farmers convention.

Miss Mamie Madry returned home to Scotland Neck today. T. E. Little and Lizzie Braxton took her to Greenville for her to take the train there.

Miss Agnes Smith and her brother, Joe, returned home today from Kinston and Snow Hill where they had been visiting for a week or more.

An Answer from Lanier.

In answer to the question would I ask for the office of Register of Deeds, if elected longer than four years, I will say that I would not, for we have too many good and competent men in the County, for any one man to hold it longer than two terms. I will thank any and all, who have not decided whom they will support, to cast their vote for me at the Primary on Saturday, Aug. 29.

Respectfully,

J. C. Lanier.

MAKING IT PERMANENT.

Beaufort Bridge Will Not be Abandoned.

On account of the Norfolk & Southern railroad temporarily closing the bridge at Beaufort to make some repairs resulting from the recent storm, the report has gained currency that it was the purpose of the railroad to abandon the bridge. This is a mistake, as a letter from Mr. Fitzgerald, one of the receivers, shows. He says the road has no idea of abandoning the bridge, but expect to make it a permanent structure, work now being in progress to that end. It was decided advisable to stop trains from crossing it for a few days so as to complete the work as soon as possible, and it will be only a short while before regular schedules across the bridge will be resumed.

12 Reasons Why Republicans Should be Defeated.

That the Roosevelt Administration, which is attempting to project itself into the future, is highly vulnerable needs no proof beyond the presentation of the bare facts:

1. It has been extravagant and wasteful.
2. It has attempted to popularize war.
3. It has gloried in Philippine imperialism.
4. It has menaced the States with Federal usurpation by means of constructive jurisprudence.
5. It has recklessly undermined confidence in our business methods, causing panic, depression and suffering.
6. It has profited by the political contributions of corporation seeking legislative favors.
7. It has spoken vociferously against the male factors of great wealth, but it has not brought one of them to justice.
8. It has bullied Congress, threatening to do as it pleased, law or no law.
9. It has assailed the courts when their judgements were contrary to its wishes.
10. It has maintained the highest tariff ever known in a free country and has made no move in favor of income and inheritance taxes.
11. It has constantly demanded law and more law for the prosecution of trusts, although existing laws are held by it to be too drastic for enforcement.
12. It is now attempting to round out a career of wilfulness, greed, ambition and tyranny by forcing the election of a personally excellent and amiable Proxy.—New York World.

Keep Off the Bridge.

Engineer D. M. Clark, of the bridge construction crew, asks us to notify persons to keep off the new bridge during the hours that the work is in progress. So many have been on the bridge and crowding around where the hands are at work as to get in their way and interfere with what they are doing. If you want to look at the bridge go down where the hands are not at work.

Uniform Rank of K. P.

At the last meeting of Tar River Lodge K. P. action looking to the forming of a Uniform rank, was taken. This is a Military rank of the order and deserves not only the support of Pythians but of all true citizens as it means protection to all homes.

COX NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR.

Republican Convention Gets Out Full State Ticket.

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 27.—With a degree of apparent harmony that was rather startling in view of the recent manifestations of friction among some of the leaders, the State Republican convention this afternoon brought to bear all the available forces in its power to put up a show of harmony. The adoption of a platform and the nomination of a State ticket were disposed of with machine-like exactness and the pre-arranged course of sailing was followed as smoothly as if there had never been a ripple on the surface of the political seas in the Tar Heel State.

The full State ticket as named this afternoon is as follows:

For governor—J. Elwood Cox, of Guilford.

For lieutenant-governor—Charles F. Toms, of Hendersonville.

For Secretary of State—Dr. Cyrus Thompson, of Onslow.

For auditor—John Quincy Adams Wood, of Pasquotank.

For treasurer—W. E. Grigg, of Lincoln.

For commissioner of agriculture—J. M. Mewborne, of Lenoir.

For corporation commissioner—H. G. Elmore, of Rowan.

For superintendent of public instruction—Rev. Dr. J. R. M. Lyerly, of Rowan county.

For insurance commissioner—J. B. Norris, of Wilkes county.

For commissioner of labor and printing—Charles M. Ray, of Mecklenburg.

For attorney general—J. F. Newell, of Mecklenburg.

For electors at large—A. A. Whitener, of Catawba, and Tom Settle, of Buncombe.

TURPENTINE AND ROSIN.

Government Studies Naval Stores Industry.

The government has just begun a study to determine the magnitude of the naval stores industry in this country. For a long time manufacturers of naval stores have worked under difficulties owing to the lack of statistics dealing with the industry. At the present time there is no reliable information in regard to the amount of naval stores produced or the amount of timber still capable of producing them.

The United States Forest Service has for some time been making experiments to determine the relative efficiency of the cup and gutter system and the old box system of turpentine. This work is being continued and in addition statistics showing the annual production of naval stores will be collected. A careful study will also be made of the effect which the present system of boxing has upon the life of trees which have been tapped. The work has met with the hearty co-operation of manufacturers of naval stores and shows promise of being of considerable assistance to everyone interested in the production of turpentine and rosin.

Court began again this morning with Judge O. H. Allen presiding.

Choir practice at the M. E. Church tonight at eight o'clock. Every member is urged to be presented.

With as much tobacco as has been sold this week, the farmers will soon be turning loose some money.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

L. H. Rountree went to Grifton today.

Cadet D. S. Wilson left Thursday to return to his post at West Point.

J. J. Laughinghouse returned Thursday from Morehead where he had been attending the meeting of the fish commission.

Miss Pearl Daugh, who has been at work here in the telephone office, left today for her home in New Bern.

WOMEN'S SUSPENDERS.

First Imitation, Now They Are the Real Thing.

Might have known it. When, years ago, women began wearing mock suspenders in the form of cloth straps sewn to their shirt waists it was a foregone conclusion that soon or late they'd adopt the real article. And now its coming, by suspenders, of silk of course, are indispensable to the late-summer wardrobe of the fashionable girl. They are not visible, as were the straps that preceded them, save through the liberality of the peek-a-boo waist. They are worn under the waistband, and, by an ingenious contrivance, fastened to the waistband of the skirt. Naturally, being of the eternal feminine, they come in a myriad designs, and all are dainty. They range the scale of colors, and each hue comes in all its prettier shades. Gold and silver buckles are attached to the tiny diamond or ruby or sapphire set in the exact center. Maybe before long the more daring women will wear them outside their waists. After the sheath skirt, anything may happen.—New York Press.

The Newspaper's Duty.

No higher duty can be ascribed to any reputable newspaper than that of seeing that justice is done, in so far as fallible man is capable of carrying it out. It owes its first duty to the public which it is morally obliged to protect. No newspaper willingly offends any one; but as between its duty to the public and the individual, it should know no man. But the men who are loudest in their condemnation of the views of the newspaper with which they disagree, are the most exacting of the paper in any apparent dereliction of duty to the public. Such men may not openly proclaim the fact, but they are in reality more appreciative of the paper which dares to express the truth, than of one which commits the unpardonable sin of silence.—Roanoke, Va., Times.

Some who went on the excursion to Norfolk Monday and also took a run up to Baltimore, say they saw it snowing in that city on Wednesday.

Bridges the Chasm.

Blackberry pie bridges the chasm between the millionaire and the pauper. It is found on the mahogany table of the haughty society leader and on the oilcloth covered pine table of the lowly washerwoman. It is on the bill of fare of the grandest hotel and is fed to the inmates of the poorhouse. The rich man who rides in his gasoline buggy and the poor tramp who rides the rods under the freight car or steps from cross tie to cross tie in the blistering sun meet on a common level at the lunch counter, and both order blackberry pie. In a word, blackberry pie is the one article of diet which makes the whole world kin.—Monroe Inquirer.

Now for Regular Work.

During the past two weeks The Reflector printery has been crowded with work incident to the primary, and in that time has printed some over 200,000 tickets for the candidates and the executive committee besides other work necessary for the campaign. This work all had to be done within a specified time, and not only kept our force busy day and night, but also necessitated the laying aside of some of our regular job printing orders for the time being. It has been a strenuous two weeks on the office, but now that it is over the force can get down to the other work we will have all patrons served as quickly as possible. Just be patient a few days and we will catch up with all orders.

It would be better for the cotton growers if there was not any New York cotton exchange.

Marion Butler said he was trying to bring about harmony in the Republican party. Since when?

Nothing seems to give the Republicans more trouble than Mr. Bryan's speeches. Evidently his utterances are hitting the spot.

It has been predicted that Marion Butler will be hurrahing for Bryan before the campaign is over. May Mr. Bryan be spared of any such incubus.

We see names of many of the moss backs mentioned as being at the Republican State convention. From which it may be inferred that they lost none of their love for pie.

The Republican State convention at Charlotte came across with a forty-five minute demonstration at the mention of Taft's name by a speaker. Guess if he had been there in person they would have stretched the noise out longer.

Let us say this word to the candidates who get defeated in the primary tomorrow: Take your defeat gracefully and go to work for the man who gets the nomination, just like you would have expected him to do had you been a winner.

Judge R. B. Peebles dismissed a case being tried before him in Swain county Superior court, the other day, in which the defendants were answering an indictment for disturbing public worship, to wit, a Sunday school. The ground upon which Judge Peebles dismissed the case, was that "Sunday schools are not public worship within the meaning of the law." That is a new one.

The Greensboro Record wants to know if a lump of lead weighing ten pounds and another lump weighing one hundred pounds, both the same shape, were dropped from the top of the Washington monument at the same time, which would strike the ground first. The best way we know to tell you to prove that is to get the two lumps of lead and go try it.

The Charlotte Observer gives this forecast of the platform of the Republican State convention.

Briefly speaking the platform, as prepared, dodges the liquor issue, throws bouquets at the labor vote, promises a square deal to business interests, much as the Confederate veteran, promises privacy to the voter and recommends the increase of the personal property tax exemption from $25 to $300, free school books to public school children,

An Announcement.

I hereby announce to the Democratic voters of Pitt county that I desire the nomination of the party for State Senator from the county of Pitt, and that my name will be before the Democratic voters at the Democratic primaries, to be held on the 29th day of August, 1908.

The people of the county are familiar with my services to the party to which I have been attached from my birth. I have labored for its success in the days of prosperity and in its hours of adversity. I will very greatly appreciate any support that I may receive in every section of the county, and if it shall please the party to make me its candidate for senator I shall be very grateful and do what I can to roll up a big majority in the county. If elected senator I shall labor to represent the county in the upper branch of the legislature in a manner that shall reflect credit upon myself and honor upon the county that favored me with its confidence.

The result of the primaries will in no wise effect my allegiance to the party or earnest support of its nominees.

For the coming season the company is prepared to even surpass the fine record it has made in the past, hence it is to the interest of the farmers to sell their tobacco with this company.
