HOW THE PRIMARY VOTE STOOD.

LEGISLATIVE AND OTHER TICKETS NOMINATED.

Another Primary Will be Called to Nominate Sheriff, Treasurer and Register of Deeds.

According to the plan set forth in the call for the primary that was held on August 19th to nominate candidates for the various county offices, the Democratic county executive committee met in the court house at noon Tuesday to canvass the returns from the several voting precincts of the county with the following result:

For the senate A. L. Blow received 1089 votes and J. J. Laughinghouse 910 votes, and Blow was declared the nominee.

For the house of representatives R. R. Cotten received 1206, Dr. B. T. Cox 1087, S. M. Jones 856, S. C. Wooten 375, N. R. Corey 327, J. F. Stokes 314. Cotten and Cox were declared the nominees.

For coroner Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse received 1977 votes, having no opposition.

For surveyor R. F. Jenkins received 1976 votes, having no opposition.

For sheriff L. W. Tucker received 852, S. I. Dudley 766, Joseph McLawhorn 449, J. J. Elks 332, O. W. Harrington 147. No nomination for this office, no one receiving a majority of the votes cast.

For treasurer W. B. Wilson received 858, S. T. White 803, G. M. Mooring 409, C. T. Mumford 329. No nomination as neither received a majority of the votes.

For register of deeds R. Williams received 535, W. M. Moore 495, J. C. Lanier 393, Brascoe Bell 376, R. L. Little 291, J. C. Albritton 197, H. A. Blow 165, resulting in no nomination as none received a majority.

For county commissioners D. J. Holland received 1443, N. T. Cox 1365, J. P. Quinerly 1352, J. J. May 1236, A. V. Lang 1210, J. Z. Brooks 1061, M. T. Spier 1048, S. A. Congleton 1003, R. W. King 697. Holland, Cox, Quinerly, May and Lang were declared the nominees for commissioners.

All the townships nominated their township officers, except Chicod and Contentnea failed to make a nomination for constable.

The largest vote cast for any office was 2546 for sheriff, that representing the number of voters who took part in the primary.

It was agreed by the executive committee that a second primary be called to make nominations for sheriff, treasurer and register of deeds, and for constable in Chicod and Contentnea townships. In this second primary only the two candidates for each office can be voted for who received the highest vote in the first primary, viz:

For sheriff, L. W. Tucker and S. I. Dudley.

For treasurer, W. B. Wilson and S. T. White.

For register of deeds, R. Williams, and W. M. Moore.
For constable of Chicod township, W. O. White and G. W. Cox.

For constable of Contentnea township, Burwell D. ... and J. S. Moore.

After consultation with the candidates it was decided that the second primary be held on Saturday, September 12th.

Let every Democrat attend the primary of his precinct on that date and vote for his choice

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From Our Hustling Neighbor.

Winterville N. C., Sept. 2, 1908. Miss Janie Kittrell accompanied her sister, Mrs. B. G. Taylor, to her home in Ayden Monday. She returned Tuesday evening.

S. C. Whitehurst, of Grindool, came down Monday to enter his daughter, Miss Mary, in Winterville High School.

G. E. Lineberry returned home from Fremont Sunday evening. H. B. Mumford, of Ayden, was here a while Sunday.

G. T. Tyson was here Monday to enter his daughter, Miss Annie, in Winterville High school.

Miss Mimie Cox left Monday afternoon to enter the Baptist University at Raleigh. She is a senior this year, and bids fair to graduate with honor.

Rev. Mr. Huske filled his appointment at the Episcopal church Sunday afternoon. There was a large congregation present.

Every train brings pupils to increase the large number already present in Winterville High School. The opening Monday was fully up to our expectation. A large number of the new ones are entering the higher grades.

Miss Roland Cobb returned to her home at Conetoe after having spent last week with Miss Olive Butt.

J. L. Jackson spent Sunday at Conetoe with relatives.

J. R. Carroll and Roy Cox left Monday morning to take up their studies at Wake Forest college, John being a sophomore and Roy a freshman.

G. C. Buck, of Grimesland, was here Monday to attend the opening of school. He is an old pupil and now is a junior at Wake Forest College. His brother is with us this year.

Expert Tuner Here.

Mr. J. F. Seigler, expert piano tuner and repairer, is here and will be here for several days. People that are hard to please and want the best of workmen to do their tuning will find more satisfaction by getting Mr. Seigler to do their tuning than to wait for a tuner from some unreliable firm. Mr. Seigler has won the highest respect of all customers in Virginia and North Carolina and holds the best of recommendation from some of the best known firms. He tuned for the Bush & Gertz Piano Co., of Chicago, at the Jamestown exposition. If you will leave your name and address at the postoffice, care Box 100, Mr. Seigler will call and do your tuning for $2.50.

Don't pay a fancy price for tuning when you can get better work for a better price to you and a guarantee with Mr. Seigler's signature, that if the work is not satisfactory to refund the money paid for the tuning.

among those from whom the nominees must be taken. No other persons than those named can be voted for at that time.

Later we will publish the names of candidates nominated in the several townships for justices of the peace and constable, and of the executive committees chosen.

A PLEASANT EVENING.

Oscar Greene Entertains His Many Friends.

Oscar Greene before leaving for college entertained a host of friends from nine to one on Monday evening at the home of his parents on Third street.

Miss Lillian Burch and Oscar Greene met the guests at the front door and welcomed them most cordially. The guests were received in the parlor by Miss Estelle Greene and Frank Brown, who received in a very pleasing manner.

Progressive conversation was a very enjoyable feature of the evening. Miss Lillian Burch was declared the most pleasant talker and was awarded a prize which Frank Brown presented to her in a very graceful manner. Miss Burch then presented the prize to the visiting young ladies and they in turn cut for it. Miss Arlene Joyner, of Ingletarre, cutting the highest, was given the highest prize.

During the evening much music, both vocal and instrumental, was rendered by the many guests, and was much enjoyed.

At a late hour delicious ices and cakes were served. The guests departed to their respective homes about one o'clock, extending many wishes to the charming host that his college life would be very enjoyable.

The out of town guests were Misses Mattie Fleming, of Kinston, Jennie Brown Morrill, of Snow Hill and Arlene Joyner, of Ingletarre.

MR. STOKES THANKS HIS FRIENDS.

Greenville, N. C., September 1, Editor Reflector.

Please allow me space to thank my fellow Democrats who stood by me so nobly in my effort to secure the nomination for the house of representatives. My defeat is their defeat, for we stood for principles, both vital and righteous, every one Democratic to the core.

The homestead guarantee of the constitution must be abolished. Members of the board of education must be elected by the people. Salaries of the county officers must be adjusted on a basis commensurate with the services rendered. I should like also to have an amendment to our election law to prohibit lobbying on election grounds.

But I did not start out to say so much, so I will beg pardon, with the understanding that I may say something worth while later on.

J. F. Stokes.

Registration of Music Pupils

We shall be very glad if all persons desiring to enroll for music lessons at the graded school this year will do so before the 10th. The number Miss Gaston can take is limited. The committee will be glad to employ an assistant if the patronage will justify it. Please call on or phone me at the office of the graded school.

Water on Stand.

The water in the river reached a stand last night and will soon be falling. Mr. C. T. Mumford tells us that on his Wilson farm, just beyond the bridge, are 140 acres of corn, cotton and peanuts that are submerged and crops on them ruined.

FLEMING-SMITH.

A Pretty Marriage This Morning in Methodist Church.

"All the world loves a lover." This was fully proven by the large audience of friends who gathered in Jarvis Memorial Methodist church early this morning to witness the marriage of a very popular young couple, Mr. Van C. Fleming and Miss Emye Smith, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. T. Smith, which took place a little before 8 o'clock.

The church was prettily decorated, the chancel being a pyramid of ferns, and electric lights shedding a soft glow over the scene.

With Miss Lillian Carr presiding at the organ, Lohengrin's wedding march was charmingly rendered as the bridal party entered the church, and Mendelsohn's as they retired.

First came the ushers, Dr. J. E. Nobles, Messrs. L. A. Randolph, J. H. Keel and Paul Davenport, two up each aisle, crossing in front of the chancel and taking their positions on the right and left.

Next came the bride's maids, Misses Annie Fleming and Sidnye Davenport, who crossed and entered the chancel, and following them came Misses Alice and Mary J. Smith, sisters of the bride, who remained in front of the altar. All these wore dresses of white with hats to match, and all carried white astors.

As the bride came up the aisle with her father, the groom with his best man and brother, Mr. Ernest Fleming, entered from the pastors study and met her in front of the altar. The bride was attired in a handsome champagne traveling coat suit and carried a large bouquet.

The ceremony was beautifully and impressively performed by Rev. M. T. Plyler, pastor of the church.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple drove to the Atlantic Coast Line depot where the left on the north bound train for a tour of northern cities.

Mr. Fleming is a prosperous merchant at Parker's X Roads, two miles from Greenville, and his bride is a most attractive young lady. They have the hearty good wishes of a great host of friends.

They were the recipients of a large number of exceedingly handsome bridal presents.

Card From Mr. Moore.

To the Democrats of Pitt County: The Democratic executive committee of Pitt county having called a second primary to be held on Saturday, Sept. 12th for the purpose of testing the strength between the present incumbent, Capt. R. Williams and myself for the office of Register of Deeds, and other county offices, I wish state that if I am nominated this time I shall not stand for nomination for a third term of office.

Thanking my friends for the liberal support they have given me in the past, and hoping they will help me in the final contest, which will be decided on Saturday Sept. 12th, 1908, I am,

Respectfully yours,
W. M. Moore.

The people on the north side of the river will be no more pleased when they can come to town again than we on this side will be to see them come.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

C. B. Whichard went to Tarboro today.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Wade and child returned Tuesday from Atlanta.

Miss Louise Josey, of Scotland Neck, is visiting Miss Elise Vincent.

D. H. Graves, a prominent cotton man of Goldsboro, was here Tuesday.

Miss Alice Lang, returned from a visit to Farmville Tuesday evening.

Miss Reid Lang, of Farmville, came in Tuesday evening to visit Miss Alice Lang.

The river is a place of interest just now, and many are going down to see the high water.

Prof. H. B. Smith has returned from Greensboro and is getting matters ready for the opening of the graded school.

J. T. Pairo came in Tuesday evening from St. Louis and will again be on the tobacco market here. His friends are glad to see him back.

Little Miss Mary Kennedy, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kennedy, left this morning for Morganton to attend the school for the deaf.

Miss Laura Oden, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. J. G. Latham, left today for Belhaven, where she will resume her position in the millinery department with the Clark Smith Co.

ANTE-NUPTIAL

Handkerchief Shower, Complimentary Miss Verda Waldrop.

Hendersonville, N. C., Sept. 1.—A handkerchief shower was given Monday at the home of Mrs. W. F. Edwards in honor of Miss Verda Waldrop, who is to be married Wednesday evening to Mr. Frank Wilson, of Greenville.

The color scheme in the hall was green and white, in the parlor red and green, in the library white and green and in the dining room pink and white. The color scheme was also carried out in the ices and cakes.

The guests were met at the door by Miss Ethel Dixon and Arnie Edwards. Mrs. H. P. Feaman served punch in the porch.

In the parlor Misses Verda Waldrop, Amy Edwards, Rosa Few and Hennie Ragsdale received, and in the library Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Edwards, Prof. and Mrs. Ivens. In the dining room Mrs. G. W. Brooks and Mrs. Dixon, Misses Hennie Ragsdale and Inez Waldrop.

The shower was a bunch of bride roses tied with tulle and a shower of handkerchiefs tied to it. This was presented to the bride-elect as she left the dining room.

The out of town guests here for the wedding are Misses Lillian Wilson, Janie Brown, Hennie Ragsdale and Hennie Whichard, of Greenville; Miss Suzannah Linticum, of Durham; Miss Fannie Clark, of Inman, S. C.; Miss Lottie Shuford and Sam Shuford.

Meeting to Call Pastor.

STATE NEWS

Items of Happenings Over the State Gathered from Our Exchanges

Raleigh Dispatch, Aug. 30.—Cold and stiff in death the body of Mr. S. G. Ryan, a lawyer of this city, was found tonight at 11 o'clock in his office in the Commercial and Farmers' Bank building. Mr. Ryan had probably been dead for twelve or fifteen hours, as he had not been seen all day. For some time he had been a sufferer from asthma, but death is supposed to have been from heart trouble.

WHY BOYS ARE WAYWARD.

Mr. J. P. Cook, chairman of the Stonewall Jackson Training School now being established near Concord, attended the meeting of county superintendents of schools at Morehead City, last week, and was called on to explain the nature of the institution. This he did interestingly. He said he was already receiving letters by every mail asking him to take charge of wayward boys, and added "these boys are not from the slums, but from good families, whose fathers are too much engaged in business and their mothers in society to raise the children." What a sermon there is in that quotation! It is a truth that every parent should take to heart.

The Democrats of Pitt county have certainly nominated a splendid legislative ticket. Mr. Blow has been in the senate once before and makes a good one, and our people can expect the right thing of Mr. Cotten and Dr. Cox in the house. Excellent gentlemen, all of them.

The government may warn postmasters to keep out of politics, but it is a warning that goes unheeded. The g. o. p. could hardly run a campaign without them.

Keep in mind that a second primary will be held on Saturday, Sept. 12th, to nominate a candidate for sheriff, for treasurer and for register of deeds.

The excessive rains and floods give indication of high priced feed stuffs next year. The farmer who has to buy will catch it as hard as other folks.

No doubt Atlanta is envious that Springfield and Atlantic City are crowding her out of the public eye for the time being.

They are not tumbling over each other down this way to make contributions.

We thought they were all notified, but there seem to be more of them yet.

Eggs are much too high for use as campaign bouquets.

The Republican State ticket looks very much like the mixture of fusion days.

September says shuck the straw hat, but some of us are sticking to 'em yet.

Commending the resolutions passed by the Rowan Baptist Association, colored, anent the conduct of the negro and how to merit and hold the good will of all the people, the ever level headed Statesville Landmark says:

"If colored preachers and leaders would benefit their race instead of hurting it by such teaching as that mentioned, they would teach this one great truth: That the only badge of safety for the colored man, the only pathway to advancement, material, moral or mental, for him, is good conduct. For the truth of this assurance look about you. The colored man who is respected by the whites and who can be sure at all times not only of all his rights but the help of white men to enforce them, is he who conducts himself decently and orderly as a good citizen; respectful to all, industrious and thrifty; who opposes wrong-doing by his own race; does not shield those who violate the law but as a good citizen aids in its enforcement."

This is mighty good reading. No man, white, black or any other color, can hope to get along decently without adopting a policy like this.—Greensboro Record.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.

(By Contributor.)

Atlantic City is evidently troubled with a lid that won't stay on.

If a flying-machine really has to go anywhere it takes the railroad or a steamboat.

If all the campaign lies are to be spiked, the nail industry should be looking up.

It is going to be a whirlwind campaign, but so far we've had more wind than whirl.

If Capt. Hains finds time hanging too heavily on his hands, might study Harry Thaw's expense account.

"There isn't a fat King in Europe," says a London paper. Nearly all of them have fat jobs, however.

"Can You Tell the Whole Truth?" is a new article by Prof. Hugo Muensterberg. Why, Professor, this is campaign year.

Mr. Sherman promises us "revision" of the kind we have always had. A little bit higher each time.

The collapse of the big cotton pool ought to be instructive. Cornering things in this country is not such an easy job as it was when the country was smaller.

The first thing Mr. Bryan's trick-mule from Minnesota did was to throw a newspaper correspondent. Nothing like killing the toughest proposition first.

Possibly the farmers would show a great willingness to contribute to the campaign funds if they were not compelled to pay their hands such high wages just now.

A magazine writer says that American cities have no distinctive smell of their own. Tarry a bit in Pittsburg, stranger; spend an hour in Chicago, sniff the malted breeze in Milwaukee.

Delicious Banana Cream

This recipe is highly recommended by one of our correspondents; try it for dessert tomorrow.
Peel five large bananas, rub smooth with five teaspoonfuls of sugar. Add one teacup sweet cream beaten to a stiff froth, then add one 10c package of Lemon JELL-O dissolved in 1 1/2 teacups boiling water. Pour into mold when cold garnish with candied cherries. Serve with whipped cream, or any good pudding sauce. JELL-O is sold by all Grocers at 10c. per package.

HIS PASSPORT NO GOOD.

Italy Holds That "Once an Italian Always an Italian."

When on my first visit to Italy after an absence of twenty-five years, furnished though I was with a passport from Washington with the great red seal of state and with my naturalization papers, I was amazed when I was arrested and put in a den of a prison reeking with filth and vermin because I had paid no attention to the Italian laws regarding the matter of military obligation. I was under the impression, as I am sure many Americans are, that when once I had sworn off my allegiance to the king of Italy and had become an American citizen I would be recognized as such and not be required to fulfill the obligations of an Italian citizen.

The experience was not amusing, and yet as I look back upon it there was a ridiculous side to it. When with great dignity and pride I pulled from my pocket my passport I expected to see the little Italian official gasp for breath and humbly beg my pardon. Imagine my feelings when, glancing at the American eagle on my papers and the signature of the secretary of state, I at the same time exclaiming, "Sono cittadino Americano" ("I am an American citizen"), he turned his back upon me and said most indifferently, "Fate niente; fa niente" ("That's nothing; that's nothing"). I was led away by two carabinieri and turned into a large room, where I found seven prisoners who were to be my companions for that day and night. The next day I was taken before the prefect of the province, and then it was learned that I was not obliged to serve the regular three years in the Italian army, not because I was an American citizen—that was not recognized—but because I was the only male in my family. The Italian theory is "once an Italian always an Italian." The government does not recognize the change of allegiance on the part of any of its subjects.—Antonio Maggano in "Charities and the Commons."

PAIN AND PLEASURE.

The Sensations That Come When a Person is Hanged.

This is the way Rev. J. T. Mann in Spare Moments describes the way he feels to be hanged:

At Fort Barrancas, Fla., on April 4, 1868, I was hanged as a Confederate spy. I spent four minutes physically and spiritually between earth and heaven. Then a Yankee sergeant, believing me to be the wrong man, cut me down.

My first sensation when the barrel was kicked from under my feet was that a steam boiler inside me was about to explode. Every vein and blood vessel to and from my heart seemed charged with an oppressive fullness that must find an avenue of escape. The nervous system throughout its length was tingling with a painful, prickling sensation the like of which I never felt before or since. Then followed the sense of an explosion, as if a volcano had erupted. This seemed to give me relief, and the pain gave way to a pleasurable feeling, one very desirable could it be secured without death. With this sensation a light broke in upon my sight, a light of milky whiteness, yet, strange to say, so transparent that it was easier to pierce with the eye than the light of day. Then came into my mouth a taste of sweetness the like of which I have never since known. And I felt myself moving on, with a consciousness of leaving everything behind. Then I heard the sweetest music, and it seemed that more than a thousand harps led in each part, accompanied by myriads of voices.

And the sensation of coming back to life after I had been cut down was just as painful as the first feeling of hanging. It was acute torture. Every nerve seemed to have a pain of its own. My nose and fingers were parts of the most excruciating agony. In half an hour the pain was all gone, but I would not go through the experience again for the wealth of the Indies.

The Farmers Consolidated Tob Co.

(HOME OFFICE, GREENVILLE, N. C.)

WILL OPERATE WAREHOUSES THE COMING SEASON AT Greenville, Robersonville, Wilson, Kinston

It is the experience of every stockholder in this company that he never made a better investment, for the five years of its operations the original stockholders have been paid 113 1-2 per cent in cash dividends. That is the result of co-operation, good management and sound business methods.

Again it is the experience of every farmer who has sold his tobacco at the warehouses of this company that he received higher prices than other houses could obtain. For the coming season the company is prepared to even surpass the fine record it has made in the past, hence it is to the interest of the farmers to sell their tobacco with this company.

THE GUM WAREHOUSE

on the Greenville market, will this season be in charge of that prince of warehousemen, Capt. J. R. Hutchinson, formerly of Wilson, whom you have only to try to be convinced of his ability to please you.

THE STAR WAREHOUSES

on the Greenville market will again be in charge of that veteran warehouseman and champion of high prices, F. D. Foxhall, whose record in the past is a guarantee of what he can do for you in the future.

The warehouses at Robersonville, Wilson and Kinston will be under capable and efficient managers who will carefully guard the interests of all who sell with them. The wise farmer will sell his tobacco with Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Co.

HUMAN SCARECROWS.

They Are Quite Common in the Villages of England.

Human beings as scarecrows? Why not? It may seem queer and brutal to an American, but in England the human scarecrow is common.

As he stands out there in the middle of the flat Suffolk field there is little to show he is not the ordinary inanimate scarecrow. He stands motionless for five minutes at a time, and only when a bird is tempted by the fresh corn just appearing above the ground does he show any sign of life.

From the road outside the field he looks exactly like the conventional collection of old clothes propped upon a stick. Even the crows are contemptuous of the figure, and every now and then a number of them appear leisurely above the hedge and settle on the field.

But then it is that the scarecrow moves. He hits an old tin can with the rusty handle of a shovel and frightens the birds and makes them fly quickly out of sight.

So he spends his day, this old, bent man, and at the end he is paid 36 cents. He is the village scarecrow.

Whatever the weather may be, he is expected to be there. In rain he may shelter under the nearest hedge, but he must watch his fields, and if the birds take advantage of his absence he must go out into the open and scare them from the corn.

For this old man knows well that he is competing for his living against the clothes propped upon a stick or the dead crows scattered about the field, and it is necessary that he should take a certain pride in his profession.

Unless he can show the farmer that he is more effective than the conventional scarecrows he cannot make a living in the few months between the sowing of the seed and the appearance of the corn.

While the boys of the village are in school he can earn enough in these few months of the year to keep him from the workhouse. He is still capable of scaring birds.

His very clothes are a qualification. He looks exactly like a scarecrow, and he has the advantage of being able to hit an old tin can with the rusty handle of a shovel.

At 1 o'clock he has his dinner of bread and cheese by the side of the hedge, but every now and then he gets up and looks around to see that the fields are free from birds.

Sometimes when the day is colder than usual his granddaughter from the cottage a mile away brings him a hot dinner in a basin covered with a cloth, and while he eats she talks to him about her school and if a bird appears runs carefully on to the field and claps her hands and frightens it.

And then the old man—this shabby guardian of the fields—is left alone. The only suggestion of life is a collection of old clothes propped upon a stick in the field a mile away.

And when the old man looks at this silent competitor of his he is filled with new energy and strides off to the field, making a great noise with his old tin can.—Baltimore Sun.

Book Name Blunders.

A London publishing house for a long time kept a book in which were noted the curious blunders made by those who asked for books. "Worcester's Diseases of the Colander" was asked for. "The Worcester Diocesan Calendar" was what was required. "River Frozen, Silent Gold and Unstepped Lands" was demanded. The book wanted was Rev. Frazer's "Silent Gods and Sun Stepped Lands." "Play Actress," by Crockett, Pseudonym Library, was turned into "Play Actress and Cricket in the Pandemonium Library." "The Boy Hero," by Walsham How, was wanted, but the collector asked for "The Boy Hero of Walthamstow," and the same genius turned "Frondes Agrestes" into "Bounders and Heretics."

A New Relationship.

Tommy's mother had married again, and, though Tommy didn't in the least object to his new father, he was somewhat puzzled as to their relationship.

"Mamma," he said, "is this man my step-papa?"

"Yes, dear; he is your step-papa." "Well, mamma," pursued thoughtful Thomas, "you call me your little lad, don't you?"

"Yes, dearie; you are mamma's little lad!"

"Then, mamma," concluded Thomas, "I suppose I must be my step-papa's little step-ladder."

Second Primary.

In consequence of failure to nominate candidates for the offices of sheriff, treasurer and register of deeds and constables for Chicod and Contentnea townships, at the Democratic primary election on the 29th of August 1908, and in pursuance of written demands by the persons receiving the second highest votes filed with the executive committee of Pitt county this day, it was ordered by the Democratic executive committee of Pitt county that a second primary election for the office of sheriff, treasurer, register of deeds and constables for Chicod and Contentnea township, shall be held at the usual voting places in Pitt county, on Saturday, September 12th, 1908, under the same rules and regulations under which the last primaries were held.

And that at said election the following candidates only shall be voted for, to-wit:

For sheriff, L. W. Tucker and S. I. Dudley.

For treasurer, W. B. Wilson and S. T. White.

For register of deeds, Richard Williams and W. M. Moore.

For constable of Chicod township, W. O. White and G. W. Cox.

For constable of Contentnea township, Burwell D. Skinner and J. S. Moore.

This the 1st day of September, 1908.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Greenville Citizen can Afford to Ignore

Danger Signal No. 1. comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

Danger Signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pain, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Greenville proof:

James Hardison, business address 319 Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says: "My kidneys acted too free'y, especially during the night when I would be forced to rise several times. In the morning my back would be very lame and at such times I was subject to pains through my loins. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Wooten's drug store, restored my kidneys to a normal condition, I am now able to sleep well at night and the lumbago and stiffness across the small of my back has entirely disappeared. I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be exactly as represented and I have no hesitancy in giving them my endorsement.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milb're Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
