GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 18, 1908.

NUMBER 5315

PUBLIC RECEPTION.

To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson Wednesday Evening.

The sublime song of "Paradise Lost" may perish from memory, the beautiful "Gray's Elegy" fade away and be forgotten, but the brilliancy and splendor of the social function given by Mrs. Martha E. Wilson on Wednesday evening in honor of her son, Mr. Frank Wilson, and his beautiful and accomplished bride, will cling fast and strong with the social set of Greenville, who assembled to tender the hand of friendship, express good will, and God speed to the happy couple on their return from Niagara, New York and Newport, where was spent their honeymoon.

The splendid home was a perfect bower of lovely flowers and evergreens, apt surroundings as if all nature was smiling on the two hearts just beating as one.

The guests as they entered were welcomed by Mr. W. B. Wilson and his handsome wife, with a cheer and flow of spirit that went thrilling through the entire evening. Miss Lil Wilson and W. L. Brown ushered to the parlor, where the bride and groom were assisted in receiving by Miss Nannie Lou Waldrop, of Hendersonville, sister to the bride, with Dr. Zeno Brown; Mrs. M. E. Wilson, Mrs. O. E. Warren, Jr., Miss Nannie Wilson and Mrs. Annie B. Thomas, of Dunn, mother, aunt and sisters of the groom. In the center hall Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stator, Miss Jamie M. Brown and Frank Wilson had a pleasant word and hand shake for all, directing you to the back parlor, presided over by Mr. W. H. Dail, Jr. and his lovely wife, who would show you more than two hundred presents, coming from the cold lakes of the North to Georgia's balmy climate. As you pass from viewing this array of beautiful and handsome presents you encountered Miss Susie Warren with Thomas M. Hooker, who insisted that you quaff of a glass from the bowl that would make one feel as if all the world were kin; thence you were ushered to the dining room with a genial smile by Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Parham, which was presided over by a bevy of sixteen year old girls, whose beauty and grace would challenge the admiration of the world, and require the pen of an Archaius to do them ample justice.

Who could fail to enjoy refreshments tendered by those just budding into the flower of young maidenhood.

Amidst the galaxy of the fairest women in our beautiful South land, gowned in robes unsurpassable, one could but think of the Grecian women of whose physical perfection and moral charms the greatest of the ancient poets sung. As if under some circean spell, all seemed reluctant to be forced to realize that midnight's hour was at hand, the time when pleasant association must come to an end, good nights said and happy dreams wished.

Killed a Large Eagle.

John J. Tyson, son of J. A. Tyson, who lives about 5 miles from Greenville, killed a large bald eagle Thursday. He brought the eagle to town and left it at The Reflector office. From tip to tip of wings it measured 6 feet 1 inch, and from beak to tip of tail 2 feet 4 inches. Eagles are very rare in this section.

RED LETTER DAYS.

First Performances of "The Traitor" at Norfolk Will Attract Multitudes.

Monday and Tuesday, September 28th and 29th will be red-letter days in the theatrical history of the country, for at that time "The Traitor", the dramatic sequel to "The Clansman" will receive its first presentation at the Academy of Music in Norfolk, Virginia.

Every one remembers how three years ago "The Clansman" started on its whirlwind career of success in the same city. At that time thousands flocked in from the near-by cities and towns. Railroad officials have evidently remembered this for they have arranged to run excursions into Norfolk on both the 28th and 29th of this month to accommodate the multitudes who wish to be present at the inaugural performances of "The Traitor." It is doubtful if there ever was in the history of the stage another instance where a new and unknown play was assured of such a welcome except in the case of "The Clansman." Those who have been fortunate enough to witness the rehearsals of this new play of the reconstruction period bear witness to its power. At this time it is probably sufficient to note that "The Traitor" possesses all of the elements of success that made "The Clansman" the talk of the world. There is the always delightful love story, tense situations that thrill the spectators, convulsing comedy scenes that are irresistible laugh-makers, and last but not least the weird and picturesque Ku Klux Klan is again an important factor, while an even more awe-inspiring element is introduced in the spurious red-robed riders of the bogus klan that was formed after the real klans were disbanded.

A remarkable array of talent will be found in the roster of "The Traitor" company. Among the many prominent players are Catherine Tower, Frank Patton, Adell Barker, Lydia Knott, Marion Willard, John T. Doyle, J. Maurice Sullivan, Forrest Winant, Arthur J. Pickens, Frank Leo, Harrison Crofford, Virginia Anderson, Vira Barker, Guy G. Oliver, Guinio Social and Benjamin Lewis. There are two carloads of scenery and electrical effects and white horses.

The thousands who will be present at the first performances will be delighted to know that Thomas Dixon, Jr., will be present and it is safe to say that he will have something interesting to say between the acts. His collaborator in the writing of the play, Channing Pollock, will also be present.

Arrangements have been made for the sale of seats by mail. Applications should be mailed to Otto Wells, manager Academy of Music, Norfolk, Virginia, accompanied by remittance of postal or express money orders. The prices for this engagement will be 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50 for the evening performances and 50c, 75c, and $1.00 for the Tuesday matinee. All mail orders will receive prompt and careful attention. Care should be taken to specify which performance you desire to attend. Send orders early as the rush for seats will be great.

Fire at Spring Hope.

The town of Spring Hope had a serious fire that occurred about 3 o'clock this morning. The postoffice and seven store buildings were destroyed.

NEWS LETTER FROM FARMVILLE.

Farmville Graded School has the Largest Enrollment in its History.

Farmville, N. C. Sept. 18, 1908.

The Farmville graded schools opened Monday, 14th with the largest enrollment in the history of the schools. The enrollment exceeded that of last year by more than 50 per cent.

The school is now using the new auditorium recitation rooms, which were added to the building during the summer months. The auditorium is large and commodious and will seat more than 600 people. This new addition to the Farmville graded school building makes one of the nicest and most convenient school buildings in the county.

Six years ago the town of Farmville had only a house 25 x 40 feet for school purposes. In 1902 a local tax was voted and a large 5 room school building erected. Today the school has eight large recitation rooms. The school opened in 1902 with six grades. The course is now composed of ten grades. Two young men who completed the course of study last May entered the state university for the ensuing year without examination. No school has made greater progress in this length of time in the county.

One of the county high schools was located here last May, one year ago. The amount of money received from the state to run this department of the school, has enabled the board of trustees to employ experienced and competent teachers for the high school.

The music department, which was added to the school this year, opened with twenty pupils, exceeding for the expectation of the board of trustees and the community. This department is under the supervision of Miss Clyde Harrison, of Raleigh, a graduate of the Southern Conservatory of music. It will be gratifying to Miss Harrison's friends to know that she has returned to the county to engage in her work. She taught four years as head of the music department of Winterville High school. Two new pianos have been recently installed in the music school, sold to the school by the energetic and popular salesman Mr. G. G. Fineman, representative of Chas. M. Stieff & Co. Mr. Fineman has placed the Stieff goods in every school of note in the county.

The new teachers in the school this year are. Miss Hennie Brown, of Tarboro, who has been teaching in the Ayden graded school for the past school year. Miss Brown is one of Pitt county's most accomplished and experienced teachers. Miss Cora Moore, of Burgaw, N. C. Miss Moore is a graduate of Red Springs Seminary and comes to the school highly endorsed as a competent and experienced teacher. Miss Mabel E. Stallings, of Louisburg, graduate of Oxford Seminary, Oxford, and formerly principal Wilksboro graded school. Miss Stallings has been very successful in school work, and is recommended as an accomplished and experienced teacher.

The work assigned to the several teachers is as follows:

E. M. Rollins, supt. 10th grade and section 1 of 9th.
Miss Mabel E. Stallings, 8th grade and section 2 of 9th.
Miss Cora Moore, 6th and 7th grades.
Miss Agnes Moore, 5th grade and section 1 of 4th.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town, Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., Sept. 18, 1908.

A prominent Republican in speaking of the speech of Col. Skinner here last Saturday said "it was a perfect bust." Surely if Mr. Skinner made no enemies here for his cause he made no friends. Indeed the influence of the colonel in this section of but a small moment.

Mr. P. E. Luper died in this place last Saturday and was buried Sunday afternoon. Mr. Luper was a good citizen, quiet and inoffensive in his ways and had made no enemies. He was a man who attended strictly to his own affairs and had many warm and sincere friends. His funeral was preached by Rev. Mr. Tripp, of the Methodist church, and was large attended.

Mrs. J. A. Davis and Miss Annie Dudley have returned from the northern markets.

Prof. J. A. McArthur, principal of the graded school here, arrived Monday evening from Fayetteville. He will denote his time from now until the opening of his school next Monday in getting everything ready. Prof. McArthur has the confidence of our people and the school under his management has proven a decided success. The other teachers are expected to arrive this morning.

Miss Cora Long and Pauline Burney, of Rocky Mount, are here on a visit to Mrs. O. C. Noble.

Hugh Corey, who has been visiting his parents here, has returned to Florence, S. C. where he has employment.

Miss Faye Corey is visiting friends at Coxville.

Mrs. J. F. Dixon has gone to visit her sister, Mrs. L. B. Stokes, at Stokes.

Eryce Brown, of Greenville, has been here on a visit to friends.

Endorsed by Governors.

Remarkable among the many sensational features of "The Clansman's" tour last season was its endorsement and patronage by the governors of half a dozen States. At least two of these chief executives came out in public statements warmly commending the play for its power for good. When conservative thinking men like Swanson of Virginia, Glenn of North Carolina and Lanham of Texas, take pleasure in witnessing this epic of reconstruction days, its appeal to the masses of the people may be easily understood. "The fierce fascinating "Clansman" as a Southern newspaper man called it, will come to the Masonic Opera House, Greenville on Wednesday, Sept. 30th.

The Farmville tobacco market is increasing its facilities to handle the product. A large and roomy prize house is under construction. The prices on the market continue good and the sales are heavy.

Farmville market is in the hands of competent and experienced men and they are men who know how to make it successful, and give to the public universal satisfaction.

We are sorry that Wright's airship, after making several successful flights, met with an accident that caused the death of one of the navigators. In a flight Thursday a blade to one of the propellers broke, causing the machine to overturn at a height of 75 feet, and in the fall one of the occupants was fatally injured. Of course accidents may be looked for in aerial navigation, yet the efforts to make it successful will likely continue.

In accordance with the adjourned meeting last Friday night, the Chamber of Commerce and Tobacco Board of Trade will be in joint session again tonight, in the court house, to receive the report of the committee appointed to investigate the completion of the bridge here, and to discuss and act upon any other matter looking to the advancement of the community. It is hoped the meeting tonight will be as largely attended and as interesting as the one last Friday night. The tobacco men, the professional men, the merchants, the mechanics, and the laboring men should all be present.

Judge Peebles and the Sunday School.

The recent decision by Judge Peebles that a Sunday-school is not public worship is in line with some other decisions this remarkable judge has made, and need occasion no surprise. The worst blow he dealt the Sunday school, however, was his comparing it to the legislature, which is opened with prayer. We are glad that a political convention did not pop into the judge's head while he was thinking of a comparison. A political convention is opened with prayer, too, and the recent Republican convention was opened with a prayer that was composed and printed all ready for use, and framed in select language. It is evident, not from this incident alone but from many other things we have observed in Judge Peebles' career, that he was not brought up in a Sunday-school. If it is not a part of the work and worship of the church. Rev. B. W. Spilman and other experts in Sunday-school work have been leading us astray all these years. They tell us that the Sunday school is the church engaged in the study of God's word. If that is not worship that comes under the protection of the law of the land we would like to know what it is. It is wholly a religious exercise from beginning to end, and 90 per cent. of the membership of the churches come through the Sunday school. We have not seen whether or not the Peebles decision was appealed from, but it should by all means be carried to the Supreme Court for final settlement.—Charity and Children.

A Few Hints to Voters.

Before casting your vote with the Republican party remember some of these things:

1. The failure of the Republican party to take steps to provide for electing Senators by popular vote and the refusal of the Republican convention to endorse the reform.

2. The failure of the Republican congress to pass a bill providing for publicity of campaign contributions and the refusal of the Republican convention even to endorse the reform.

3. The failure of the Republican congress to pass a postal savings bank bill and the hypocrisy of the party in endorsing this reform, which it had just ignored in congress.

4. The passage by the Republican congress of a currency bill which enables speculative banks to convert all sorts of securities into currency and actually reduces the margin of safety for depositors instead of increasing it.

5. The destruction of representative government in the lower house, where the Republican speaker and his committee on rules have all power and not even a majority can get a vote on a popular bill if the speaker refuses consent.

6. The forty-nine per cent. increase in the cost of living under the Republican Dingley tariff and its trusts, while wages have increased only nineteenth per cent.

7. The refusal of the Republican congress to amend this tariff, although its iniquities are admitted and future revision has been reluctantly promised by its friends after the storm is over.—From The Commoner.

Dear Sir— During the summer you prevailed on me to buy a disability policy in the Maryland Casualty Company. Within a very short time after purchasing same, I found that it was necessary for me to have a slight surgical operation performed on account of which it was necessary for me to remain away from my business for a period of about two weeks.

The check presented me to-day in full settlement of lost time, also covering cost of operation is very much appreciated, and I can highly recommend the Maryland and yourself for the prompt service rendered.

Very truly yours, W. E. HOOKER.

IT IS SERIOUS.

Some Greenville People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

The constant aching of a bad back, The weariness, the tired feeling, The pains and aches of kidney ills Are serious—if neglected. Dangerous urinary troubles follow. Mrs. C. C. Joyner, 322 Eastern Ave., Rocky Mount, N. C., says: "I think a great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills having received much benefit from their use. I suffered for a long time from dull pains in my back and loins and frequently on arising in the morning, I was so lame and sore that I could hardly stoop to put on my shoes. If I made a quick movement or performed any work that required the use of the muscles of my back I was rewarded with sharp twinges throughout my body. I had no strength or energy and felt generally run down, but was at a loss to know how to obtain relief. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and believing that they might help me, I procured a box. Since using them I have been free from backache and have had no trouble from the kidneys. My advice to anyone afflicted with kidney complaint is to use Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's—and take no other.

Butchered To Make Holiday.

Five thousand six hundred and twenty-three men, women and children killed and injured—this is the slaughter that went to make America's holiday. This is the indictment by the American Medical Association, through its official journal, in grim rows of statistics and a biting editorial.

The bull fights with which the American taunts his Latin neighbor sink into insignificance, the tragedies of the football gridiron which have raised such storms of indignation are trivial by comparison, and only the gladiatorial conflicts of pagan Rome rival the carnage of the American Fourth of July.

The number of casualties is 1,210 more than last year, though the number of deaths, 162, is one less. The list contains 157 more names than that of 1906, the second largest of the six years during which statistics have been kept by the Journal of the American Medical Association.—Greensboro Patriot.
