POLITICAL POINTERS

From Raleigh—Progress of the Campaign Pressaged Victory.
(Special Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 22.—The progress of the campaign for the past week in State and nation has not been merely satisfactory from the standpoint of the Democrats, but the tide has set in so irresistibly with the party that Democrats everywhere are jubilant. It is an open secret that the prospects of a large majority in this State have been very much enhanced by the enthusiasm that has gotten into the national campaign, and the practical certainty of Bryan's election if the election should take place at this time; as nine out of ten well informed Democrats view the situation. The only fear of the result now heard expressed, is the old trick of the Republicans of pouring out a large corruption fund at the last, and of trying to "scare" the country away from Bryan. But money cannot sweep back a tide, and the only scare anywhere in evidence up to the present time is in the camp of the enemy. Mr. Taft undertook to set up a scarecrow last week by reminding the country of Mr. Bryan's speech in which he referred to the government ownership of railroads. But Mr. Bryan cut the ground from under him by quoting both Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt as having gone just as far in that direction as he had; all three of them having said at different times that government ownership would ultimately result if government regulation should fail. Instead of the Republicans being able to "scare" the business men of the country away from Mr. Bryan this time; it is the opinion of this correspondent that business generally is going to regard Mr. Bryan's simple plan of guaranteed security of bank deposits as being decidedly the most valuable offering by either or all of the parties to stability of business. It has gradually soaked into the mind of the business world that this is also a guarantee against panic, and the only one that is offered.

The development of the past week in New York, where all factions of the party united in nominating a ticket which the entire press of the State concedes to be strong, headed by the present Democratic Lieutenant Governor, Chanler, has improved the already bright prospects of carrying that State; while the only term that can describe the situation in Mr. Taft's own State, Ohio, is the word which the Republicans have heard so often this year—"panic". The situation in that State from the standpoint of the Republicans was very troublesome to them; and their situation can easily be imagined since the reconciliation between Messrs. Taft and Foraker was closely followed by the nauseating disclosures of Senator Foraker's intimate relations with the Standard Oil Co., and the payment of large sums of money to him by the vice-president of that company since he has been representing Ohio in the senate. A few more disclosures of this character will make a certificate of election to the senate "prima facie evidence".

Mr. Kitchin will this week complete his conquest of the West. He has had the most enthusiastic receptions at every point, and has found but one faction. Next week he will take

A KICKER RIGHT.

Horse Splinters a Buggy and Breaks Store Window.

Talk about kicking horses, there was one of them in town Tuesday. This particular horse was standing hitched to a buggy in front of the store of C. G. Starkey. From some cause the animal took a kicking notion and both his after heels began reaching out through space. Finding nothing else to come in contact with, his heels showed a fondness at feeling for the buggy. The vehicle moved back and forth on the street in keeping the antics of the horse, and that part of it in reach was pretty well splintered before time was called on the round. The most notable part of this kicking was that the horse kicked off the metal end of the singletree and sent it flying across to the other side of the street where it crashed one of the windows of the store of B. F. Patrick & Co., and went the entire length of the store before its force was spent.

The carnival folks might do well to procure that horse to add to its wild animal aggregation, for if such feats as this could be kept up it would be a great drawing card.

CARNIVAL NOTES.

Last night was another big time at the carnival.

Nobody has been reported seasick from trying the ocean wave.

The youngest and the oldest take in the carnival and all throw confettie.

The voting contest for the most popular lady will close at 10.30 tonight.

The great crowds taking in the Old Plantation show the popularity of that attraction.

There were some new attractions to open Tuesday adding to the number already there.

They are enjoying it, but you can watch for a lot of tired people when the end of the week comes.

It makes you hold your breath while "Dare Devil Cyclone" is making that leap the gap feat. He does it all right.

Mlle. Teresay made a splendid balloon ascension and parachute descent just before 6 o'clock Tuesday evening. She landed on top of the residence of Mr. James Brown, on Dickinson avenue, and the balloon came down in the vicinity of the Ficklen tobacco factory.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, will be in Greenville at Hotel Bertha on Tuesday Oct. 6th one day only. His practice is limited to diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat and fitting glasses. 9 22 2wk the southern border counties, and then throughout the East.

Another feature of last week's campaign which has pleased the party throughout the State was the magnificent speech of Hon. Cyrus B. Watson at Winston last Friday night. No one expected anything else but loyal support from this old stalwart of Democracy; but the rugged force with which he expressed himself in impromptu speech, in his appeal for party harmony, was particularly fortunate and was a reminder of his best efforts in the past. His hosts of admirers in the State regret that he is not in sufficient health to make a general canvass.

COLE BROTHERS SHOW.

Coming to Greenville on Friday, Oct. 2—Don't Miss It.

There is no show touring the country today that has kept more apace with the times than has the Cole Brothers world toured shows which will be at Greenville on Friday October 2. Progressiveness is so strongly in evidence in every department, that it can be truthfully said that modernism has completely relegated all that no other shows of a kindred nature have done, namely those things which make a performance tiresome on account of the many acts and features that have so often been seen in the past. Of course there are many acts that must be retained in order to be classed with a circus, but then the Cole Brothers have so materially improved on these that they would be unrecognizable as the acts given by other shows.

In organizing for the present season there was absolutely nothing left undone that experience could devise or unlimited capital could procure that would and is placing this gigantic aggregation on the very topmost rung of amusement, and that this effort has been successful is evident not only in the extreme magnitude of the shows but in its unequalled merit as well. The shows extended trip through the European countries afforded unprecedented opportunities in securing many valuable additions to the extensive menagerie and the contracting of the leading features of the foreign countries. These opportunities were embraced by the show's agents and the very cream of the foreign circus world obtained. However, while Europe has supplied many attractions, America has been liberal in supplying her quota. The rivalry between the foreign and home continents is keen, good natured and sufficiently strong to bring out the very best qualities of the various artists.

The Cole Brothers have adhered to the old time habit of giving a street parade and will continue to do so as long as they remain in business, irrespective of what the circuses in the circus trust may do, as they have refused to affiliate with them.

One of the innovations with these shows, and we know one that will be appreciated and commended by every one is the relegating of the old time plank seats. Comfort was out of the question when they were in use. The Cole Brother's have adopted comfortable seats with back and rests and every ticket purchaser is assured of a comfortable seat to himself or herself, no matter how large the crowd may be. Standing room is never sold. The tent in which the performance is given has a seating capacity of 10,000 and fifty uniformed ushers are always in attendance to care for the shows' patrons. No gambling or catch penny devices are ever tolerated and one may attend these shows with a feeling of security. All the tents are absolutely rain and water proof. Those who are unable to attend either of the performances should not permit anything to prevent them seeing the street parade, the free exhibition on the grounds and enjoy a visit to the large horse tent where some of the finest horses in the world are quartered. This part of these great shows costs nothing.

WHAT DOES "KU KLUX" MEAN?

As one sees on the billboards advertising "The Clansman" a half circle of oddly masked and shrouded figures labeled "Ku Klux Klan," the curiosity is keenly excited. The Ku Kluxers, as they are often called, were a secret society of Southern white men organized to stamp out the excesses of the carpetbagger negro regime and re-establish Anglo-Saxon supremacy. They met at dead of night in mountain caves or deserted houses and caused it to be given out that they were the spirits of the Confederate dead, come to revenge themselves on their enemies. The superstitious negroes were the victims of their own fears, and even the rumor of a visit from the dreaded Ku Klux caused them speedily to decamp. Graver criminals were punished by whipping, and if the offence was repeated were expelled from the country or strung up. These stern measures were necessary in a time of anarchy and chaos when bush whackers committed frequent outrages and the whites were in nightly fear of a general negro uprising and a massacre. The Ku Klux Klan flourished in most of the Southern States from 1867 to 1869, at the end of which time their purpose was effected and they quietly dissolved. They have never been better defined than in the eloquent phrase of Thomas Dixon Jr., author of "The Leopard's Spots" He styles the organization an Invisible Empire which within a few months overspread a territory larger than modern Europe, snatched power out of defeat and death, and tore the fruits of victory from 20,000,000 conquerors. "The Clansman" for the first time sets in the broad light of day the secret workings, methods and ritual of this mysterious order, the equal in romantic interest of the Mafia in Sicily, the Corsican Vendetta or the Vigilantes of the Western frontier. Therefore the appearance of the play at the Masonic Opera House Sept. 30th.

IT IS DANGEROUS.

Possibly it might have been expected, but all the same it is to be regretted that "night riders" have begun to operate in North Carolina. The press dispatches report that a gin in Cleveland county received an anonymous letter containing the threat that his gin would be burned unless he shut down and ginned no more cotton until price of the staple advanced to 12 cents. There is no telling what will be the outcome of such outrages as this if they become general. If the gins have to stop it will mean deprivation to many farmers who owe money on their cotton and cannot meet their obligations until it is sold, and if the cotton should be destroyed there will be nothing with which they can pay. This would mean a loss to the merchants who have furnished supplies to the farmers and would naturally cut the farmers off from further credit. The "night rider" business is dangerous and should be stopped.

RAISE MORE CORN.

It is getting almost time to gather the corn crop, and The Reflector wants to again urge the farmers of this section to make up their minds to raise more corn next year. When you gather the present crop select some of the very best for seed and put it away carefully for next planting. Let your motto for next year be more corn and better corn, that is improve your crop both in quantity and quality. The way many of our farmers have of depending on the Western states for their corn will certainly impoverish them sooner or later. You can not make money raising cotton and tobacco at prevailing prices and have to buy corn. There should never be a bushel of corn shipped into Pitt county, but on the other hand our farmers should have surplus corn to sell every year.

It is a two-to-one fight, Bryan having to run against Taft and Roosevelt both, but he is going to beat the whole push.

Roosevelt says it would be a calamity not to elect Taft. Of course he thinks so, but the greater part of the country holds that it would be a calamity to elect him.

It is a menace to public safety that lunatics are allowed to run at large. A Sunday or two ago one killed a young lady while attending church in one of our western counties, and more recently two persons were killed by a crazy man in Washington City. Such people should be kept in confinement where they can do no damage.

Cotton Warehouse vs. Night Riders.

More warehouses and more cotton mills will help the price of cotton. Night riding and coercion will do harm instead of good.

The workers in the factories of the South came off the farms. This relieved the competition on the farm and cotton went up to a decent price. Now that many factories are shut down the price of cotton promptly falls. The causes of both the ups and the downs of the price of cotton are beyond the reach of the night riders but are within the reach of constructive influences like warehousing and a decent currency system and the further development of all kinds of manufactures.

Besides its constructive work of building warehouses, helping to reform the currency to make it meet the varying requirements of marketing the crops and fostering further diversification of manufacturing and farming the Farmers' Union should charge itself particularly with the duty of putting down lawlessness. It should set its face against night riders and their doings.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Dear Sir—

During the summer you prevailed on me to buy a disability policy in the Maryland Casualty Company. Within a very short time after purchasing same, I found that it was necessary for me to have a slight surgical operation performed on account of which it was necessary for me to remain away from my business for a period of about two weeks.

The check presented me to-day in full settlement of lost time, also covering cost of operation is very much appreciated, and I can highly recommend the Maryland and yourself for the prompt service rendered.

Very truly yours,

Farmers Educational Meeting.

Washington, N. C. Sept. 16, 1908.
Editor Reflector:

I am gratified to announce that a Farmers' Educational meeting will be held in Greenville on Friday, September 25th. There will be a morning and afternoon session. The meeting will open at 10:30 o'clock, and it is important that those who expect to attend should be on hand promptly.

Some of the leading experts in agriculture will address the meeting, and will discuss topics of vital interest to every farmer in Pitt county interested in the soil.

Those engaged in other vocations will also find the meeting extremely interesting.

There will be no politics about the meeting directly or indirectly. The only purpose is to bring benefit to the people.

Respectfully,
Jno. H. Small.

IT IS SERIOUS.

Some Greenville People

Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

The constant aching of a bad back,

The weariness, the tired feeling,
The pains and aches of kidney ills
Are serious—if neglected
Dangerous urinary troubles follow.

Mrs. C. C. Joyner, 322 Eastern Ave., Rocky Mount, N. C., says: "I think a great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills having received much benefit from their use. I suffered for a long time from dull pains in my back and loins and frequently on arising in the morning, I was so lame and sore that I could hardly stoop to put on my shoes

If I made a quick movement or performed any work that required the use of the muscles of my back I was rewarded with sharp twinges throughout my body. I had no strength or energy and felt generally run down, but was at a loss to know how to obtain relief. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and believing that they might help me, I procured a box. Since using them I have been free from backache and have had no trouble from the kidneys. My advice to anyone afflicted with kidney complaint is to use Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,

A LECTURE FOR HIM.

Why the Bright Little Woman Scolded Her Thoughtless Husband.

A bright little woman was recently overheard lecturing her husband as follows:

"Now I'll tell you why I wouldn't go into the restaurant and have a cup of coffee with you while we were waiting for the train. I didn't like the way you asked me. Not half an hour before you said to Mr. Puffer, 'Come, let's get a cigar,' and away you went, holding his arm and not giving him a chance to decline.

"When we met John Howdy on our way to luncheon you said: 'Just in time, John. Come take lunch with us.' And then tonight, when we had to wait an hour for the train, you looked at your watch, turned on me and said in a questioning way, 'Would you like a cup of coffee?' And I did want it. I was tired and a little hungry, but I would have fainted before I would have accepted such an invitation. And you went away a little bit vexed with me and had your coffee and bread and butter by yourself and didn't enjoy them very much. In effect you said to me, 'If you want a cup of coffee, if you really want it, I will buy it for you.'

"You are the best husband in the world, but do as nearly as all the best husbands do.

"Why do you men seem to dole out things to your wives when you fairly throw them to the men you know? Why didn't you invite me heartily as you invite men? Why didn't you say, 'Come, let's get a little coffee and something,' and take me straight away with you?

"You wouldn't say to a man, 'Would you like me to go and buy you a cigar?' Then why do you always issue your little invitations to treats in that way to me?

"Indeed, if men would only act toward their wives as heartily, cordially and frankly as they do toward the men whom they meet they would find cheerier companions at home than they could at the club."—San Francisco Chronicle.

The Long Lived Pear.

The pear is really more hardy than the apple and needs less cossetting. There are trees still standing near Monroe, in the state of Michigan, which were planted by the French settlers before Penn founded Philadelphia. Pear trees can be kept in good bearing condition for 300 years and apples for at least 150 years. I have an apple tree 115 years old and its annual fruitage is as perfect as it was sixty years ago.—E. P. Powell in Outing Magazine.

The Comparison.
