TWO BUILDINGS READY FOR ROOF.

EASTERN CAROLINA TRAINING SCHOOL PROGRESSING WELL.

Architects Hooks Says Buildings are to be Exactly What State Specifies—Best of Material Being Used

The executive committee of the Eastern Carolina Teachers Training School composed of State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, Senator Y. T. Ormond, of Kinston, and ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis, of Greenville, were in session Tuesday at Greenville, going over the work done on the buildings of the training school. The committee visited in person the grounds and thoroughly inspected the work. They were accompanied by Mr. C. C. Hooks, of the firm of Hooks & Rogers, of Charlotte, one of the architects of the buildings. The committee after a thorough inspection of the work expressed themselves as well satisfied with the work done. It has been the policy of the committee from the start to meet as often as necessary for an examination of the progress of the work, and one of the architects has been required to make weekly inspections, so that the committee is fully informed all the time of the condition of the work. The brick work on the east dormitory building has been completed and all the framing of the roof finished so that this building is ready for the tiling to be put upon the roof. They are also putting on lathing and as soon as the roof is completed this building will be ready for the plastering.

The brick work on the refectory is also completed and the framing of the roof will be finished this week ready for the tiling. The foundations of the administration building are all in and also the foundations of the west dormitory and work is going forward on both of these buildings as rapidly as possible.

Architect Hooks remained over here today to give the contractors further instruction as to details of the work. The Reflector sought an interview with him as to the character of the workmanship and material used in the buildings and Mr. Hooks says:

"The work is progressing satisfactorily but not as rapidly as we had hoped for. This, however, is due primarily to the delay in securing face brick. The face brick are shipped from Raleigh and must be uniform color, in fact when laid in the walls they look as though they had been painted, but we insist on the uniform color and these brick must be selected from the general lots that are shipped. The recent heavy rains have interfered with the manufacture of brick which in turn has delayed the work.

"The roofs will be covered with clay tile which is the best and most durable of all roof coverings. The east dormitory will be roofed this week.

"The refectory is nearly ready for roof and this building will be one of the best proportioned buildings to be found any where.

"Several car loads of stone have arrived from Indiana and it is the very best of material and workmanship and the detail is such as to compare with the work of a sculptor.

"I am going over everything very carefully with the contractors and it is my purpose to see that the State gets exactly what is specified. I shall remain until I have satisfied myself that everything is as it should be."

THOMAS DIXON'S TRIUMPH

First Appearance of "The Traitor" in Norfolk a Great Success.

"The Traitor" a dramatized production of Thomas Dixon, Jr.'s novel by that name, which is a sequel to "The Clansman" by the same author, made its initial appearance on the stage in the Academy of Music at Norfolk on Tuesday night.

Mr. Dixon's first play made its debut from the same stage about three years ago, and such success has followed it that he decided to start "The Traitor" on a triumphal tour from the same point.

The audience that greeted its first appearance Tuesday night was immense, and it could not have been otherwise than gratifying to Mr. Dixon, who was himself present, to see how excellently the play was presented and how enthusiastically it was received by the audience. The company presenting "The Traitor" is composed of artists of merit, and the impersonations were true to the characters represented. This company was selected by Mr. George H. Brennan, of New York, under whose direction both "The Clansman" and "The Traitor" are presented. He, too, was present in Norfolk to see how "The Traitor" started off, as was also Mr. Channing Polloch, the dramatizer of Mr. Dixon's novel.

"The Traitor" deals with that part of Southern history following the civil war and is interesting. We predict for it a great triumph on the stage.

J. Early Hughes Coming.

The brightest act with J. Early Hughes' Comedians, who appear at the opera house on Monday and Tuesday Oct. 5 and 6, is the Bergere Sister, singers, dancers and quick change artists, who have recently returned from London, Eng., where they have been amusing the Johnny Bulls.

Their character songs and dances always get for them encore after encore. Their rendition of the cute little song "Smarty" is one of the best musical numbers put on in New York this summer. One of them impersonating Buster Brown and the other Mary Jane.

Every Baseball Fan should hear them sing "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," at the Masonic opera house. Prices, 25 35 and 50.

Daughters Confederacy.

The Singeltary Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon with the president, Mrs. T. J. Jarvis, to select delegates to the convention in Goldsboro. All members requested to be present.

Mr. Hooks also showed The Reflector representative over the grounds and buildings and pointed the general effect the completed buildings will have. We were impressed with their perfectness and beauty and believe this institution will not suffer the least in comparison with any in the South.

The people of Greenville and of Pitt county, in fact the entire State, have cause to feel justly proud of it. If in passing this way any of them will go out to the grounds and examine closely what is going on, they will be convinced that this school is going to be a great credit to North Carolina.

"THE CLANSMAN" ARRIVES.

Several Cars Necessary for Famous Production—Horses Unloaded.

The arrival of "The Clansman" Company and production in this city today created an atmosphere of excitement in and about the railroad station which has not been equalled since the coming of the circus last summer. And in line with this comparison, it would appear as if the managers of "The Clansman" in exploiting this much discussed play had modelled their plans after the fashion of those adopted by circus promoters. For several weeks past local newspapers have been teeming with "Clansman" notices. Enormous advertisements have appeared on the display pages. Assorted lithographs of all varieties and colors, depicting "Clansman" scenes, have forced themselves from shop windows and billboards on the view of pedestrians not only in every part of the city proper, but in all the country towns for a radius of fifty miles around. It is safe to say that no play has been so extensively advertised for several seasons. When "The Clansman" train rolled into the depot to-day, an examination of the production revealed the fact that the advance representatives of the piece had not exaggerated the truth. Every glittering promise they had made was realized by actual conditions. There are included in the organization 40 principals, a corps of carpenters, property men, electricians and hostlers, and a troop of cavalry horses. The last mentioned were unloaded from their special car with no difficulty. Instead of manifesting any unwillingness, they appeared to welcome the opportunity to leave their very cramped quarters and stretch their sleek legs on solid earth. Their attendants having covered the animals with yellow blankets bearing the name of the play in red letters, led them in stately procession to the stable that had been reserved for their use. A small army of admiring urchins accompanied them on their journey.

The work of unloading the scenic and electrical equipment consumed much more time since the latter is of delicate construction requiring very careful handling. Two special cars of unusual length were necessary for the transportation of the production. On the arrival of the train, a long line of transfer wagons were in readiness to make the haul to the theatre. Some of "The Clansman" carpenters remained at the car to superintend the unloading process, while others went immediately to prepare for the reception of the paraphernalia.

It has been estimated that the weekly expenses of "The Clansman" average $3,200.00. In order to meet these expenses and to secure a bargain of profit to the management, capacity audience are relied upon in every city. An audience of ordinary size would mean loss of several hundred dollars. In this city the sale of seats has been so brisk that all indications point to a very large attendance. Not to see "The Clansman" is to miss one of the greatest treats ever present on the American stage. The play has proven such an enormous success in this country that arrangements are in progress for its early presentation in England and Australia.—Ex.

"The Clansman" will appear in the opera house tonight. Don't miss it.

POLITICAL POINTS AND POINTERS

Campaign Goes Into Every Township—On Prohibition "The People Ruled."

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 29th.—Speakers of national reputation have been assigned to North Carolina during October, which will add much to the life of the campaign Democracy is waging with every assurance of success in the State and in the nation as well. Probably the most prominent feature of the State campaign will be the appearance of Hon. Jno. W. Kern, Democratic nominee for vice president, at Guilford Battle Ground, near Greensboro, Oct. 6th, which is to be made a great national occasion. He speaks also at Asheville on the 5th, and on the 7th during the Piedmont fair at Winston-Salem. Mr. Kern is measuring up to all that could be hoped for in vice presidential timber, and the more he is known the more he grows in public favor. He is making a fine campaign that will have its affect. Hon. John Sharpe Williams, leader of the minority in congress and nominated by his State for the senate, will speak at New Bern Oct. 3rd. Hon. Ollie James, who made more fame for himself as an orator in the Democratic national convention than anyone else, will make some speeches in the State. Hon. Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, will speak in North Carolina Oct. 3rd, and Hon. A. O. Bacon, State senator from Georgia, has been assigned to the State for Oct. 5th to 10th. Their appointments have been fixed by national headquarters.

The Democrats are taking nothing for granted, and are prosecuting a fine campaign throughout every township. They are not trying to run this year's campaign on past years' votes. Even upon the settled question of prohibition, dissensions are vanishing. The North Carolina sense of fair play is evidenced, as it is explained, for instance, by Hon. W. A. Self, that it has been settled in accordance with the over-shadowing issue of the times. "Shall the people rule?" "On this question the people have ruled," says Mr. Self, who opposed prohibition, "and although I was defeated by the properly expressed will of the people of the State, and with me that settles it. I intend to show that I am as good a Democrat as any man who voted for prohibition, and (humorously) expect to confine my resentment to refusing my prohibition friend a drink when he is thirsty, by telling him he has made it too hard to get." It is doubted if Hon. Cy. Watson has even that much feeling left, while Hon. Walter Murphy is entertaining large gatherings with discussions of the tariff with as much humor as if no drought were in sight, and with as much fine logic as a senator. By the nomination of a prohibitionist at the head of the Republican ticket and the omission of the question from their platform, it is left where it pre-eminently belongs—outside the pale of party politics, and as the sovereign people of the State have settled it.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 30, 1908.

One of "my policies" of the president now is to write a campaign letter every day.

It is only a battle of letters now. The battle of ballots will come the third of November.

We do not believe there is a much better or safer investment you can make than in Greenville property.

Governor Haskell is going to make somebody prove it or take water in regard to the recent charges lodged against him.

Public letters to each other between Mr. Bryan and President Roosevelt are making almost daily appearance in the papers, and Mr. Bryan is getting the best of it.

Mr. Cox, Republican nominee for governor, has been sued in Cumberland county Superior court by L. M. Andrews for violation of a contract to furnish shuttle blocks.

At Guilford College six students were arrested for hazing a fellow student. The six were carried to Greensboro and given a hearing and one of them was fined $10 and costs, and judgment suspended as to the others. That is the way to break up hazing.

Another newspaper man is up against a libel suit, and no doubt justly so. Hon. B. F. Aycock, Democratic candidate for corporation commissioner has brought suit for $5,000 against the editor of the Hickory Times-Mercury because of a recent editorial in that paper charging "that four years ago Senator Aycock went to Hickory to speak and that he was so drunk his friends had to take him down." The Hickory editor is not going to be able to prove his charge.

Remembering the action he took to induce Harriman to raise a fund of $200,000 to help elect him (Roosevelt) four years ago, it comes with very ill grace for the president now to be accusing any one else of corruption in politics. Notwithstanding what he induced Harriman to do, it is well remembered that on the eve of the last election President Roosevelt wrote a public letter denouncing as false the charge made by Judge Parker that corporate interests had contributed large sums to the Republican campaign fund.

It is all right to have the big politicians address large audiences, but the little fellows had better get to work if they want the votes counted.—Durham Herald.

We do not know why cotton took a tumble just at this time unless it was that at this particular time the farmer is supposed to have some to sell.—Durham Herald.

The Yorkville, S. C., Enquirer submits that with lard selling at 12 cents wholesale, ribs 11 3/4 cents, fat back at 10 cents and flour at $5.40 a barrel; how the cotton producer is going to make both ends meet with 9-cent cotton is a puzzling proposition. It is, indeed, for the cotton producer who has allowed himself to become a fool on the subject of cotton, but he who has heeded the oft-times wearisome but always sound advice concerning "hog and hominy" and such matters can view the situation with entire serenity.—Charlotte Observer.

Mr. H. A. White, Greenville, N. C. Dear Sir—

During the summer you prevailed on me to buy a disability policy in the Maryland Casualty Company. Within a very short time after purchasing same, I found that it was necessary for me to have a slight surgical operation performed on account of which it was necessary for me to remain away from my business for a period of about two weeks.

The check presented me to-day in full settlement of lost time, also covering cost of operation is very much appreciated, and I can highly recommend the Maryland and yourself for the prompt service rendered.

Very truly yours, W. E. HOOKER.

Flowers By the Wayside.

A young girl visiting the country was following the farmer's wife along a winding, half overgrown path amid a winding tangle of wild flowers. The young visitor exclaimed at their variety and beauty. "I mean to gather all I can carry when we come back and have a little more time," she said. Better pick them now, if you want them," said the elder woman. "It isn't likely we'll come back this way." It was one of those simple, homely incidents that sometimes seem to epitomize life. We must pick now, if we want them at all, the flowers that God scatters along our way.

The pleasant hours, the dear friendships, the offered confidences, the happy gatherings—all the brightness and blessings that we so often push aside, but mean to find leisure to enjoy sometime—we must take them day by day as they come, or we shall lose them altogether; we can never turn back to find them.—Selected.

Behind the Times.

Four artillerymen were looking around the picture gallery in the Metropolitan museum the other day, but they did not seem particularly interested. When they got to Meissonier's "Friedland—1807" two of them, one a sergeant, paused for a second look. The sergeant went close to the canvas and gazed intently at the Old Guard in the background.

"Those guys are carrying old fashioned Springfield rifles," was the only comment he made.—New York Sun.

The Boiler's Reasons.

Mother—Don't tease me, Johnnie. Can't you see I'm in a lot of trouble? The boiler has sprung a leak. Johnnie—What makes it leak? Mother—Because it's my day at home, your father has asked two men to dinner, the cook has left, and the butcher hasn't come with the meat. Now run and play.—Brooklyn Life.

A Big Difference.

Mrs. Crimsonbeak—See how nicely that team of horses go along. Why can't man and wife trot along pleasantly together like that? Mr. Crimsonbeak—Well, you see, there is only one tongue between those two horses.—Yonkers Statesman.

Fundamentally there is no such thing as private action. All actions are public in themselves or in their consequences.—Bovee.

If You Need a Piano

THREE POINTS

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED WHEN YOU PURCHASE

First: Is the Piano strictly high-grade, of a lasting tone-quality, and made by a reliable factory?

Answer—From

Finish

The use of best materials, best construction by skilled workmen, profiting by the experience the STIEFF FACTORY has had in its sixty-eight years of continued manufacture under the same management, places the STIEFF PIANO at the head of High-Grade Instruments. Its sweet tone does not change, as does the so-called "good as" variety, so often sold by dealers to unsuspecting purchasers because there is more profit in the sale.

Second: How can I obtain the BEST PIANO for the least money, value being considered?

Answer—BUY

ALL STIEFF PIANOS ARE SOLD TO THE CUSTOMER BY THE MANUFACTURERS thus guaranteeing against excessive profits often obtained when an instrument passes through several ownerships before reaching the customer.

Third: How am I to know what I select will prove all claimed for it?

BRICK TALK, No. 11

Masons prefer our brick to those of other makes. WHY?

Because all they have to do is mark off with a trowel just where they want to break it to fit a joint and first one breaks right.

REASON. There's no twist. They're MADE.

Think of the saving of TIME in this to say nothing of the brick broken up of other kinds in trying to break one right. See the point?

We have plenty on hand and they are sold at COMMON BRICK PRICE.

To Marry in Baltimore.

Mr. R. R. Fleming, of Pactolus, a very prominent business man of that place, and prominent in business circles in this city, left this morning for Baltimore, accompanied by Dr. D. T. Tayloe, who will act as best man at his marriage to Miss Reid, of 2221 Brookfield Avenue, Baltimore.

The wedding is to be a very quiet home affair, confined to the immediate family of the bride with the exception of Dr. Tayloe, first friend of Mr. Fleming. The first friend of Miss Reid will witness the occasion with Dr. Tayloe. After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Fleming will make an extended tour, visiting New York City, the Hudson river, Niagara Falls and through Canada and other places of note.

On their return they will reside at Pactolus.—Washington Messenger, 29th.

Dr. Hyatt in Greenville.

Dr. H. O. Hyatt will be in Greenville at Hotel Bertha Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Oct. 5th, 6th and 7th for the purpose of treating diseases of the eye and fitting glasses. WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Greenville women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Greenville woman's words.

Mrs. Susan Kinsaul, of No. 508 Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says: "I have derived great benefit from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and take pleasure in recommending them. For some time I suffered from the dull nagging backaches and had distressing pains through my kidney regions. My kidneys were very weak and the frequent action of the secretions caused me great annoyance. My back pained me severely and when first arising in the morning would be so lame and sore that I would be scarcely able to get around. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, procured them at Wooten's drug store and a short use entirely banished these troubles. The fact that my kidneys have given me no trouble whatever since using Doan's Kidney Pills leads me to recommend them most highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's—and take no other.
