AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town, Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., Oct. 6, 1908.

The Democratic county canvass opened in Ayden Saturday. The interior of the Centre Brick warehouse had been nicely cleaned, ample arrangements made for seating the large crowd present, a stage erected with banners and flags tastefully and everything necessary for the occasion done. At the proper hour Mr. F. C. Harding, of Greenville, called the meeting to order and in very graceful manner explained its object. After this he introduced the county candidates who each in their turn came forward, thanking the good people for the honor conferred at the recent primaries and promised, if elected, they would do their very best. Next came the speakers for the day. Mr. Bailey, Democratic elector for State at large, came first and for one and a half hours he expounded Democratic truths as only an orator of his class can. Mr. Bailey is an orator, a forcible, a powerful speaker. At no time during his entire speech did the crowd become restless but by their applause, their laughter, one could readily observe Mr. Bailey was master of the occasion. Mr. B. F. Aycock followed next. He is a plain, practical, entertaining speaker. Like Mr. Bailey he held the attention of the crowd throughout. Especially did he make a hit when speaking of the present crisis, he said it was not a panic, oh no! the Republican party never had panics, the present depression said he was only a "financial disturbance."

The Ayden band furnished music and many were the compliments spoken for the splendid manner in which it acquitted itself.

Thursday night at 12 o'clock Mr. W. L. Browning died at his home on Third street, after a long and protracted illness of several weeks. Mr. Browning was a most excellent young man, greatly admired and highly esteemed. His was a moral and Christian character and especially was his kindness of heart and genial disposition appreciated as was evident from the fact if he had an enemy in the world no one was aware of it. For a long time he was book keeper for the firm of the J. R. Smith Mercantile Co., of this place and at all times held their confidence, and none regret more sincerely than they the demise of this most exemplary young business man. He was a member of the Pythian order and was buried Friday afternoon with the honors of this order. A tremendous crowd attended his burial, the religious services being conducted by Rev. C. W. Howard, of Kinston, who about one year ago united him in marriage to Miss Lula Smith, of this town, who survives him. All our people truly sympathize with the young widow and the host of relatives in their loss. All hope they may look to Him who giveth and who takes away and at all times does that which is best and good for His children.

So well pleased was Mr. Joe McLawhorn with the excellent music furnished by the Ayden band Saturday that he presented its treasurer with a one dollar bill and said the band was a credit to the town, and as a citizen he was proud of it. If others with the pride and enterprise as displayed by Mr. McLawhorn would come forward and show a similar disposition Ayden would indeed have a band proper.

Mrs. Browning and Miss Allie Browning, who have been here with the late W. L. Browning during his illness, returned to their homes near Jamesville Saturday.

Misses Anabel Kittrell and Earl Tucker, of Grifton, spent Friday night with Mrs. W. E. Hooks.

Bishop Strange preached in the Episcopal church Friday evening at which service one young man was confirmed.

The last writing done by the late W. L. Browning and at the request of his relatives we publish same.

Eureka Lodge No. 167.

Ayden, N. C.

Many thanks to my dear friends and brother Pythians. To me was the grand helping hand extended by my K. of P. brothers in giving me $30, which I greatly appreciated.

Let me say after being sick for so long a time and unable to work, I do realize fully what it means to be a member of such a generous and sympathizing band of good hearted Pythians. I do extend my greatest thankfulness to Eureka lodge for the valuable assistance, which has been rendered me, and do vouch that I will try and be a faithful K. of P. and a good wisher of Ayden lodge, 167.

Fraternally yours,

W. L. Browning.

Now is the Time to Build.

If you are ever going to build a frame house, do it now. This is the upshot of an elaborate argument in the current issue of Suburban Life. Lumber and other building materials, it is commonly known, have fallen more than anything else in the recent business depression; food-stuffs have not been greatly affected in price, but extension of plant of all kinds have been held up with a resulting sag in values of all structural material in practically every part of the country. But this is only half the story. As soon as business resumes its normal proportions again, Suburban Life maintains, the products of the rapidly vanishing forests will go kiting upward to prohibitive figures. Certainly the experience of the last six years—up to last October's depression—justifies this view, and our enormous waste, through forest fires this year, points only more clearly to a dwindling supply of what must long be the basis of our popular building operations.—From the Boston Transcript.

Bargains! Bargains!

THE WAYNE MUSICAL COMEDY CO.

At the Masonic Temple Opera House Friday Night.

"The White Hat" the newest of comical musical plays presented by the Wayne Musical Comedy Co's. carefully selected company of singing comedians and sparkling soubrettes, is to be the attraction at Masonic Opera House for a one night's engagement Friday. That it will prove to be one of the special events of the season is a foregone conclusion, judging from the glowing reports from everywhere along the line wherever this splendid attraction has thus far been presented. The play with its deftly constructed comedy, abundance of song hits, brilliant dialogue and rapid fun, assures one there will be no dull moments and that the audience will be kept busy with laughter and applause during the action of the piece. Mr. Fred Wayne who is responsible for this comic surprise, and has capped the climax of his brilliant career. "The White Hat" is divided into two rapid fire acts in which fun and song hold sway. There are no dull moments throughout and no time to think of trouble. Eighteen magnificent musical offerings are introduced. Scenically, and as to costuming, it is a most pretentious affair, and from every point of view it is a musical comedy production that will compare favorably with any to be seen on Broadway, New York. The company is a splendid one in its entirety, headed by such well known people as Fred Wayne, Emmett O'Connor, Harry Gribbon, Chris Allworth, Corris Hardy, Aimee Travis, Loretta Marshall and Edith Carlisle. A large and efficient chorus of pretty and dainty girls add a zest that is refreshing.

W. F. M. Society of the M. E. Church.

There will be no regular meeting of the Greenville auxiliary on Wednesday afternoon but on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. F. G. James, there will be held a Missionary Question Bee. You will enjoy this novel feature of the program as well as the social hours afterwards, so come without fail. We extend a cordial invitation to all the ladies of the church.

Old Tree Gone.

The town authorities are having the old beech tree on the corner of Washington and Third streets cut down. That old tree was one of the town's landmarks, and the oldest inhabitant does not remember when it was planted. It took up so much of the sidewalk that it was thought best to take it down.

Office Improved.

There have considerable improvements made in the office of the city clerk in Masonic Temple building which make it more convenient for handling his work. Under the new order of the water and light commission all collections now have to be made in the office.

Two Large Hotels Reduced to Ashes.

Boston, Oct. 3.—Cresthan and Ocean View hotels with three large summer cottages occupying one of the most beautiful spots on "The Crest" at Winthrop Beach, were destroyed by fire with a loss estimated at about $175,000.

HART-HELLEN.

Beautiful Church Wedding This Morning at Beaufort.

At seven o'clock this morning in the Baptist church at Beaufort a large number of friends gathered to witness the marriage of Mr. J. N. Hart, of Greenville and Miss Mary E. Hellen, of Beaufort.

Just before the bridal party entered the church a beautiful and appropriated solo was sung by Mr. M. Leslie Davis. The wedding march was played by Miss Bessie Taylor as the bridal party entered.

The ushers were Messrs. H. W. Whichard, of Norfolk, and C. M. Willis, of Beaufort.

The bride entered with her brother, Mr. J. B. Hellen, and the groom with Mr. Jesse Speight, of Greenville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. W. Spilman, of Kinston.

After the ceremony a large number of friends followed the couple to the Norfolk & Southern depot where they took the train for New York to spend their honeymoon. They were accompanied as far as New by Mrs. Charles Carrow and Miss Bertha Hellen, sisters of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Hart will come to Greenville about the 16th.

Signs of a Hard Winter.

The prophets say a hard winter is in store for us. In the mountains there is an enormous crop of chestnuts—sure sign of a hard winter. The 'simmon crop is very heavy, and the fur on 'possums never was so thick and warm. The hickory leaves curl upwards. There are other signs but they are not recalled. Yesterday morning was cold enough for fire to feel "right," and there may have been frost. In the mountains there has been frost for a week. The coal man is becoming popular again and the ice man is getting ready to fold his tent like the Arab and as silently steal away.—Lexington Dispatch.

Staton-Patrick.

It will be of much interest to the many friends of Miss Bertha Patrick to know of her approaching marriage to Mr. V. E. Staton, of Bethel, N. C., which event will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Patrick, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 14th, at half after three o'clock.

Owing to a recent death in the family of the bride-elect, no invitations are issued, as it will be a quiet marriage witnessed by only a few intimate friends and relatives. After their marriage the couple will leave for a trip to northern cities.

Tobacco Prices Up.

There is some good tobacco coming to market now and it is bringing old time prices. There are plenty of piles that sell for 40 to 50 cents a pound, and some even higher.

Important—Read.

Dear Sir—It is probably unnecessary, but as a reminder, I beg to say that the registration of voters from October 1 to 24 this year, is the last opportunity that those men who cannot read and write the constitution, and who failed to get on permanent roll of voters, will have to avail themselves of the "Grandfather Clause."

While most of our settled citizens have registered under this provision, yet there may be some who have not done so, and it is certain that some who have recently moved into the state or recently become of age should be reminded of their rights under the law. You will, of course, see to it that this class of men in your county are looked after.

One other point: The Bryan-Kitchin Club at Wilmington has adopted the following motto: "Proper Representation for New Hanover in all Conventions."

Every county must get out its Democratic vote this year or lose its rightful position in state and other conventions.

Very truly yours,
A. H. Eller,
Chairman.

TUESDAY, OCT. 6, 1908.

Just four weeks to the election.

This being the month of fairs and the finishing month of a big campaign, there is not much danger of people finding things too dull.

Hon. John W. Kern, Democratic candidate for vice-president, is in North Carolina this week and will make several speeches.

With all the advice given to the contrary, President Roosevelt is going to take the stump and deliver several speeches in behalf of Taft. He must think that the chances of his man are getting desperate.

The president says he quit writing letters to Bryan because the latter grew "personal." Republican politicians took the view that Roosevelt was hurting the party, so they insisted on his quitting so much writing.

Harriman's $260,000.

As we understand Mr. Roosevelt's defense of the Harriman campaign contribution:

1. It was entirely proper for Mr. Roosevelt to solicit this money, because he intended to bunco Mr. Harriman and did bunco him.

2. Secrecy was necessary because Mr. Roosevelt's motives might have been misconstrued by low-minded persons who would see in the transaction a sordid attempt on the part of Harriman to control the presidency through the use of tainted money.

3. Publicity of such a contribution before election might have thwarted the high moral purpose of Mr. Roosevelt in separating Harriman from his money without giving anything in return.

4. Other presidential candidates should never be permitted to engage in similar negotiations, because even, were they sufficiently patriotic to repudiate the moral obligation they would not be sufficiently practical to deceive a man like Harriman.

5. The fact that it was Theodore Roosevelt who did this is a complete answer to all hostile criticism.

Having defended the contribution, perhaps, Mr. Roosevelt will now explain just how the money was used, as Harriman said, to turn 50,000 votes in the election.—New York World.

Let Justice be Done.

The News believes in one standard of morality for both males and females. The News believes in punishing all men alike whether poor or rich for violation of both civil and criminal laws. Because a man or woman may have high social standing in a community is no excuse for covering up or smuggling up what such persons may do. The Goddess of Justice is blind so as to mete out justice alike to all. There is no one thing which causes more disrespect for our officers of the law and want of faith in our courts on the part of the people than the fact that certain individuals may be and by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

sometimes are not dealt with as a poor man would be in a community. Let our officers treat all alike and let all men be dealt with according to law.—Catawba County News.

The person that stands on the street corner looking around for something to gossip about or to find fault with, can always find what he is looking for. But what a life he lives. His soul shrivels and withers until it is shown in his manner and looks. For such a person's life has lost its savor. It becomes sour, misanthropic, whining. He passes from bad to worse and sees no good in anybody. His taxes are always too high, no matter how low they may be and he curses his neighbor because his neighbor is prosperous and enjoys life. In fact, he hates himself, is a menace to a town's prosperity, a foe to God and no good to the devil. These persons seem to be a necessary evil in every town. They ought to be put out.—Ex.

We are led to wonder if any one really braced Mr. Roosevelt and had him to quit his newspaper controversy with Mr. Bryan, or did the man actually see that he was playing smash and quit of his own accord? Mr. Roosevelt is a man that brooks no interference with his plans or ideas, but something hit him and caused him to wilt. But will he stay "wilted?" It is now stated that he has ordered Hitchcock, chairman of the national committee, to visit him at Washington to "talk it over," the idea being that he is dissatisfied with the way things are going. Senator Crane is practically in control of the campaign and has been for weeks, so that perhaps Hitchcock is out of it but the fact will not be announced.—Greensboro Record.

In the 1893-4 so-called Democratic "panic" there were seventeen bank failures. In the 1907-8 panic in Roosevelt's administration, forty-three banks stopped payment. That is one fact that Republican orators are kept busy dodging.

Dear Sir—

During the summer you prevailed on me to buy a disability policy in the Maryland Casualty Company. Within a very short time after purchasing same, I found that it was necessary for me to have a slight surgical operation performed on account of which it was necessary for me to remain away from my business for a period of about two weeks.

The check presented me to-day in full settlement of lost time, also covering cost of operation is very much appreciated, and I can highly recommend the Maryland and yourself for the prompt service rendered.

If You Need a Piano

THREE POINTS

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED WHEN YOU PURCHASE

First: Is the Piano strictly high-grade, of a lasting tonality, and made by a reliable factory?

Answer—From Start
 T
 I
 to
 Finish

The use of best materials, best construction by skilled workmen, profiting by the experience the STIEFF FACTORY has had in its sixty-eight years of continued manufacture under the same management, places the STIEFF PIANO at the head of High-Grade Instruments. Its sweet tone does not change, as does the so-called "good as" variety, so often sold by dealers to unsuspecting purchasers because there is more profit in the sale.

Second: How can I obtain the BEST PIANO for the least money, value being considered?

Answer—BUY
 Straight
 T
 I
 from the
 F Factory

ALL STIEFF PIANOS ARE SOLD TO THE CUSTOMER BY THE MANUFACTURERS thus guaranteeing against excessive profits often obtained when an instrument passes through several ownerships before reaching the customer.

Third: How am I to know what I select will prove all claimed for it?

Answer—You are Safe
 T
 I
 from Fraud

If you buy a STIEFF. There are more STIEFF PIANOS in use in North Carolina than any other three makes of high-grade Pianos. Some of the STIEFFS in use have been in the same homes for over half a century, and to all STIEFF purchasers we gladly refer.

The STIEFF is sold for cash or on terms to suit purchaser.

BRICK TALK, No. 11

Masons prefer our brick to those of other makes. WHY?

Because all they have to do is mark off with a trowel just where they want to break it to fit a joint and first one breaks right.

REASON. There's no twist. They're MADE.

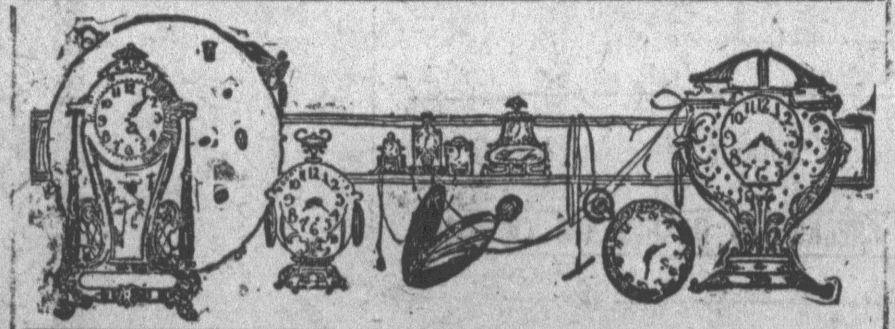

Think of the saving of TIME in this to say nothing of the brick broken up of other kinds in trying to break one right. See the point?

We have plenty on hand and they are sold at COMMON BRICK PRICE.
