Tuesday evening Thomas Andrews, col., called on J. M. Blow J.P. to unite him in marriage with Minnie House, colored. The justice very readily agreed. In company with a friend we rode out to the home of the prospective groom only to find the bride elect had changed her mind and all the pleadings and prayers of the disappointed and seemingly broken hearted groom-elect amounted to naught. So we returned homeward realizing how uncertain the bird at large and how consoling the bird already caught. After supper sitting in the quietude of our room the door bell rang and in response thereto we found quite a crowd assembled at the front door. Upon closer inquiry Thomas and Minnie made their presence known and the blushing Minnie informed us she was now willing to become the happy spouse of the loving Thomas. So then and there we spoke the words that made them man and wife. Fon Jenkins was master of ceremonies with M. M. Sauls and Luther McLawhorn assisting the groom.	It seems as if prices of tobacco had been satisfactory with the farmers for a while until last Thursday, when the bosses of the big tobacco companies appeared on the Greenville market it took a long leap downwards. Ivy Smith sold some on that market Thursday and said the price was off at least one third and I guess that makes the farmers feel like holding their tobacco. [You must not have been keeping up with the market, as prices are all right.—Ed.] Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McLawhorn went to Rountree's Thursday night to church where Eld. S. W. Sumrell was holding a protracted meeting last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smith, Miss Lou Crawford and Misses Sallie and Mattie Smith went to Greenville to the show last Friday. Miss Sarah Clement left last Friday for her home at Henderson, after spending several weeks visiting her neice, Mrs. Lloyd W. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Smith and Misses Martha Belle and Jessie Smith went to Greenville to the show last Friday. Eld. T. H. Barnhill held his yearly meeting at May's Chapel Saturday and Sunday, and done some very good preaching, especially on Sunkay when I think he shot his big gun. Mr. and Mrs. Noah W. Tyson, of Frog Level, were visiting at Mills Smith's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nichols, of Pokeatink, were visiting at Mills Smith's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Flanagan and children, from near Marlboro, were visiting at Mills Smith's Sunday. C. L. Tyson, of Renston, was in our town Monday evening. It being an oversight I failed to any last week that the death angel visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pollard and took from their fond embrace their darling babe, Sunday night Sept. 27th, 1908. It was about two and half months old, and had been sick about all its life. It was said that it had neither palate nor lungs. They have our heartfelt sympathy. Ivy Smith happened to an accident last Thursday night that put him in bed for a few days. He was trying to shoot an owl in the grove and in leaning over the baluster he lost his balance and fell, but his injuries were not serious. He is up and getting around now. Mrs. Mills Smith had a severe case of chills and fever last Friday and Saturday, but has improved and is about all right now. After tobacco took such a slump last Thursday some say its selling all right now. R. E. Willoughby went to Greenville yesterday and is going today to sell tobacco. Mills Smith went to Greenville yesterday.	Lillington, N. C., Oct. 7.—Col. Harry Skinner, United States District Attorney, spoke here Monday to not more than one hundred and twenty-five people, about one-third Democrats, who went out of curiosity. Col. W. E. Murchison was requested, by a Republican friend, to present Col. Skinner to the audience, which he did gracefully. After Mr. Skinner concluded his speech, Col. Murchison arose, to the discomfiture of the Republicans, and said: "I have known Colonel Skinner when he was a Democrat, he afterwards told me that he was a Republican and when I was asked to introduce him, I did it because I thought it would give him an opportunity to repent of his political sins, but I found him worse than I expected. I have been a Democrat all my life and by the help of God, I expect to die one, all that Col. Skinner said to the contrary notwithstanding." The applause that greeted the remarks of Col. Murchison were louder and more prolonged by far than the applause given Col. Skinner. The speech of Col. Skinner has done no harm.—Raleigh News and Observer.	Miss Carrie Chapman, of Coxville spent the past week at L. L. Stokes. Sam Harper and Roy Stokes, went to Ayden Saturday afternoon. L. L. Stokes went to Ayden Saturday afternoon. Quite a number of our people attended church at Timothy Sunday. George Moore spent Sunday very pleasantly at W. B. Harper's. J. D. Stokes and Roy Stokes went to Gardner's X roads Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bland spent Sunday afternoon at J. A. Stokes'. Jimmie Smith and sister, Miss Linnie, spent Sunday afternoon at L. B. Stokes. Frank Stokes has returned home from quite a stay in Greenville. Miss Mollie Harper has returned home after quite an extended visit to friends near Centerville. Bob Stokes and Walter Bland spent a short while here Sunday. Sam Harper and Calvin Stokes spent Sunday evening near Centerville. W. B. Harper attended church at St. John Sunday. Jim Stokes, of Vanceboro, spent Sunday evening at L. L. Stokes'. J. D. Stokes and mother attended church at Shelmerdine Sunday night. The farmers of this section are busy "making hay while the sun shines."	Though every newspaper where the Waynes have played has given that company a good introduction to the public, none has done the players substantial justice when all things go into consideration. The Wayne Musical Comedy company is the best performance that has been given as a musical comedy in this town for several seasons. The "White Hat" last night was a charming bill and every number called strongly for one or more encores. There was perhaps not a ticket-holder who suffered the least disenchantment when the work was over. Mr. Fred Wayne, owner and manager of the company, writer of his own plays, stage director, leading comedian and all round good fellow, has brought to the south a production that is high class from every viewpoint. The songs are catchy, the costumes pretty and the wearers of those dry goods about the prettiest chorus girls ever seen here. There was a striking unity of comment upon this feature. All of the girls are young, they are the best dancers that have been on this stage at all and they appear often enough to keep interest high. Anybody stingy of compliment would praise those girls. While the chorus is not crowded so they stumble over each other in their lines, there are enough for variety and not one who is not more than ordinarily pretty. The sole trouble about the crowds is that nobody has any idea that the Waynes give so good a show. Popular misinformation has been that this is a repertoire company and that though better than the average one, they are yet that earth, earthy. As a matter of fact, the Wayne company is as high class musical comedy as Durham people have ever seen or will have an opportunity to see, and as a matter of further fact, the public is getting for its 25, 50, 75 and $1 all that it has been accustomed to receiving in the best $1.50 plays on the road. The company puts on the "White Hat" this afternoon as a matinee. People who cannot venture out in the night, will find a recreation there that is enjoyment of the most substantial order.—Durham Daily Herald Oct. 6th.	ATLANTIC COAST LINE. Northbound Southbound 8:28 A. Mrs. Hazlette and Miss Lula Hazlette, of Conetoe, who have been visiting Mrs. W. C. Buhmann, returned to their homes Thursday. Mrs. J. S. Ross and daughter went to Greenville one day during the week. The tobacco market has brought quite a number of people to Ayden who will make it their home. Mrs. John Pierce, from near here, left on the train Thursday for Grifton where she will spend several days visiting friends. Mrs. C. D. Rountree and Mrs. George Woodward, of Greenville, have been visiting the family of Dr. Hardy Johnson. Mrs. W. E. Hooks and Miss Florence Blount spent Thursday in Grifton with friends. At the home of J. E. Mumford Wednesday evening Mr. Amos Garris and Miss Alliny Garris were united in marriage. At the home of the bride Wednesday evening Mr. Grover Cox and Miss Lancaster were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. To each of the above happy couples we extend hearty congratulations. J. D. Jones, salesman for J. R. Smith Mer. Co., went home Thursday owing to being sick. The Ayden Lumber Company started up work on the 30th inst. They have recently purchased two large engines, 275 horse power each, and 500 horse power boiler. They have recently purchased of R. H. Garris and others immense bodies of gum timber lands at an option of ten years and will at once commence work cutting, sawing and shipping same. This company employs a large force of hands and do a tremendous business. Mrs. Forrest Jones, of Grain gers, was here Monday visiting her son who is a clerk in the store of J. R. Smith Mer. Co. The Ayden tobacco market is booming, Dixon &amp; Dixon at Centre Brick are paying prices way up yonder. Joseph Newell and wife, of Greene county are here on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Luther McLawhorn. They speak of locating here. For public school books go to J. R. Smith Mer. Co. Testaments and Bibles also on hand.	Farmers Beware. It is an every day occurrence to run up with reports that tobacco is off at Greenville; and when traced it originates with drummers from other markets. All such drumming is rotten to the core, and intelligent men should not listen to it. Our sales at the Gum warehouse deny such tales. Our entire sale today averaged $11.84. Our farmers were highly pleased and went home happy. Will Brown and Harris averaged 14c for a load of tips. C. D. Smith sold 182 at 10, 160 at 13½, 100 at 17, 146 at 17½, 122 at 19½, 40 at 23, 48 at 26. C. D. This is considered one of the best $1.00 attractions on the road, as all the press comments in the various cities in the State will verify. Durham Herald says it is as good as the best $1.50 attraction ever presented in that city. You take no chances in going, for, if entire satisfaction is not given, I am authorized by the manager of the company to refund your money, which I will do. The prices we also guarantee same as charged in the larger cities. Respectfully, 10 8 2td R. Williams, Mgr. Dixie. New pictures all the time. No repeaters. ## NORFOLK & SOUTHERN'S ACCOMMODATING POLICY.

The Norfolk & Southern railroad has been good to Greenville and our people appreciate the convenient schedules that road has given this town. For a time after the road was opened there was a shoo-fly train operated between Wilson and Raleigh, leaving Wilson in the morning and returning there in the evening. Greenville saw an opportunity to get the benefit of this train, asked for it, and the Norfolk & Southern officials very readily gave it to us, making Greenville the starting and returning point of this train instead of Wilson. This convenient schedule gave our people an opportunity of going to Raleigh in the morning, spending six hours there and returning home at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The people of our neighboring town, Washington, have since sent in a petition, in which Greenville concurred, to also give that town the benefit of this train, and the railroad officials have decided to extend the run there, leaving Washington in the morning and returning there in the evening. This leaves Greenville with just as good a schedule for Raleigh as when the end of the run was here. In addition to this, the new schedule with the train starting from Washington makes it convenient for farmers in that section to come by train in the morning to Greenville, have nearly all day here to look after their tobacco sales and get back home in the evening.

Now New Bern is putting in a bid for that town to be made the starting and returning point for this train so as to give the people there an opportunity of going to Raleigh and returning the same day. We hardly see how this can be done unless the train has to double between Washington and Chocowinity, or else put on a local train to run between New Bern and Chocowinity to connect at the latter place with the Raleigh train. However, we believe it is the policy of the Norfolk & Southern to furnish every convenience possible to the people along the road, and the officials may devise some plan to give all the towns what they want.

The treasurer of the national Republican campaign committee is complaining of the smallness of contributions. Guess their usual contributors see that the Republicans have a lost cause in this campaign and do not want to be throwing away their money.

When the newly paved streets are cleaned off, lets have civic pride enough to keep them clean. They will certainly be pretty streets if a little attention is given in this direction.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A Pittsburg woman sued for divorce from her husband because he had not bathed in eleven years. And she won the case.

It is pleasant to hear strangers coming this way say nice things about Greenville. They find something here to talk about.

The president has grown very quiet, almost painfully so.

Here is something from a correspondent of the New York World about Bryan and Roosevelt that is too good to let slip: I cannot think of a better retort in a few words that Bryan might make to Roosevelt than in the language employed by the Earl of Beaconsfield to his most formidable antagonist on a memorable occasion at the Carlton Club in London, whom he described as "a sophisticated rhetorician inebriated with the exuberance of his own verbosity, and gifted with an egotistical imagination which can at all times command an interminable and inconsistent series of arguments to malign an opponent and to glorify himself."

We don't believe Mr. Roosevelt is quite as bad as all that, but the characterization is certainly highly entertaining.—Greensboro Telegram.

Greenville N. C.
 September the 17th-1908.

Mr. H. A. White,
 Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:-

During the summer you prevailed on me to buy a disability policy in the Maryland Casualty Company. Within a very short time after purchasing same, I found that it was necessary for me to have a slight surgical operation performed on account of which it was necessary for me to remain away from my business for a period of about two weeks.

The check presented me to-day in full settlement of lost time, also covering cost of operation is very much appreciated, and I can highly recommend the Maryland and yourself for the prompt service rendered.

Very truly yours,
 W. E. HOOKER.

A Good Start.

"My dear," said a gentleman to his newly married wife, "where did all those books on astronomy on the library table come from? They are not ours."

"A pleasant little surprise for you," responded the lady. "You know, dear, you said this morning that we ought to study astronomy, and so I went to the bookseller's and bought everything I could on the subject."

It was some minutes before he spoke.

"My dear," he then said slowly, his voice husky with emotion, "I never said we must study astronomy. I said we must study economy."

Tax Notice.

I will attend the following places on dates named for the purpose of collecting taxes due for the year 1908:

TUMULT IN THE SEA.

Terrific Force of a Marine Upheaval Off Cape Horn.

A sailing ship rounding Cape Horn was caught in a dead calm, something almost unprecedented in that stormy latitude. The sky was filled with a light haze, and the sea was flat and lead colored. About 10 o'clock on the morning of the second day the ship began to shake violently, the masts whipped and bent like fish poles, and everything movable above and below came down with a clatter. It was like striking a rock, only the shock was less pronounced at first, but increased in violence during the thirty seconds it lasted. The sea heaved in oily swells with a strange, hoarse murmur, and it continued to be agitated after the tremors ceased.

Half an hour later fish by the thousands began to rise to the surface until it was covered with them. Forty-seven whales were counted, many cowfish fully eight feet across, sharks without number and seals by the hundreds. They were evidently stunned with the force of some terrific marine upheaval, and when struck with a pole by one of the sailors showed only faint signs of life. In twenty minutes after the first fish arose to the surface they began to drop out of sight like pieces of lead. Whether they were stunned and, on recovering, immediately dived beneath the waves in a panic, seeking safety in the depths, or whether they died from the shock and, instead of floating as dead fish do, were drawn under by some submarine whirlpool, were scientific questions too deep for the skipper, but half a dozen of the smaller fish hauled aboard by the cook for dinner were quite dead when examined. The calm continued twenty-four hours longer before the ocean resumed its usual aspect and a wind from the southeast permitted the ship to continue its course.—New York Press.

"Please, Mr. Brown," said the young litigant, "I want to get a divorce from our family!"—London Fun.

If You Need a Piano

THREE PONTS

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED WHEN YOU PURCHASE

First: Is the Piano strictly high-grade, of a lasting tone-quality, and made by a reliable factory?

Answer—From
STIEFF
Finish

The use of best materials, best construction by skilled workmen, profiting by the experience the STIEFF FACTORY has had in its sixty-eight years of continued manufacture under the same management, places the STIEFF PIANO at the head of High-Grade Instruments. Its sweet tone does not change, as does the so-called "good as" variety, so often sold by dealers to unsuspecting purchasers because there is more profit in the sale.

Second: How can I obtain the BEST PIANO for the least money, value being considered?

Answer—BUY
Straight
TIEFF
from the Factory

ALL STIEFF PIANOS ARE SOLD TO THE CUSTOMER BY THE MANUFACTURERS thus guaranteeing against excessive profits often obtained when an instrument passes through several ownerships before reaching the customer.

Third: How am I to know what I select will prove all claimed for it?

Answer—You are Safe
Fraud

If you buy a STIEFF. These are more STIEFF PIANOS in use in North Carolina than any other three makes of high-grade Pianos. Some of the STIEFFS in use have been in the same homes for over half a century, and to all STIEFF purchasers we gladly refer.

The STIEFF is sold for cash or on terms to suit purchaser.

A REAPER RACE.

The Feat That Made William N. Whiteley Famous.

In the early days of the exploitation of various reaping machines a field demonstration, usually competitive, was a necessary occurrence. H. N. Casson in "The Romance of the Reaper" tells the following story of William N. Whiteley, "the Chariemagne of the harvest field."

He was as tall as a sapling and as strong as a tree. As a professor in the great school of agriculture he has never been surpassed. He could outtalk, outwork and generally outwit the men who were sent against him. He was a whole exhibition in himself.

"I've seen Bill Whiteley racing his horses through the grain and leaning over with his long arms to pick the mice's nests from just in front of the knife," said an old Ohio settler.

The feat that first made Whiteley famous was performed at Jamestown, O., in 1867. His competitor was doing as good work as he was, whereupon he sprang from his seat, unhitched one horse and finished his course with a single surprised steed pulling the heavy machine.

His competitor followed suit and succeeded fully as well.

This enraged Whiteley, who at that time was as powerful as a young Hercules.

"I can pull that reaper myself," he shouted, turning his second horse loose and yoking his big shoulders into the harness.

Such a thing had never been done before and has never been done since, but it is true that in the passion of the moment Whiteley was filled with such strength that he ran the reaper from one side of the field to the other, cutting a full swath, a deed that had been done in ancient Greece, would have placed him among the immortals.

That ten minutes in a horse collar made $2,000,000 for Whiteley. His antagonist, Benjamin H. Warder, was filled with admiration for Whiteley's prowess and at once proposed that they should quit fighting and work in harmony.

"Give me the right to make your reaper, and I'll pay you $5 apiece for as I can sell," said Warder.

"It's a bargain," responded Whiteley. And so there arose the first consolidation in the harvester business.

A Diplomatic Sign.

As soon as the apartment house was ready for occupancy the janitor placed a "Rented" sign in several of the second and third story windows. When the agent saw the placards he said a good many things not exactly complimentary to the discretion of the janitor.

"What did you stick all those notices up for?" he asked.

"Because the apartments are really rented," was the reply. "I thought it a good plan to let folks know they were going off so quickly."

"That is all right in principle," said the agent, somewhat mollified, "but you didn't go about it in the right way. That is not the proper kind of a notice. Never use the word 'Rented' in a high class apartment house. Always say 'Leased.' It makes a better impression. 'Rented' sounds cheap. Any agent who wants his apartments to bring a big price will tell you that."—Philadelphia North American.

Fishing on Horseback.

After a big storm on the Pacific coast an enormous number of squid are usually driven inshore and tumbled about by the breakers. When such occurs every man or boy in the California towns nearby who can beg or borrow a horse goes galloping down the beach armed with a six foot bamboo pole, at the end of which is a strong steel hook. They dash into the surf, and driving the sharp steel into the squirming jelly-like creatures haul them ashore one by one, with their sucker rimmed arms coiling about like snakes. They sell for about 25 cents each.—Popular Mechanics.

GOOD WATER MEANS Good Health

Analytical tests made by the Director of the STATE LABORATORY OF HYGIENE under the control of the NORTH CAROLINA BOARD OF HEALTH at RALEIGH, N. C., shows that the water supplied by the Greenville (municipal) water works is PURE.

For the protection of patrons samples of water are submitted monthly and the reports of the Chemist are always on file in the office of the Commission for inspection.

Discard the old well or pump and get the benefit of the advantages offered by the Water Department. It not only means that you will always have good water to drink, but it will prove a great convenience. Nothing to do but turn the spigot. No more pumping and drawing.

We furnish 3,000 gallons per month for $1.00 and allow you a discount of 10 per cent. if bill is paid by 5th of month succeeding month in which service is rendered. This makes the cost only 90 cents.

Information gladly furnished to anyone regarding cost of making tap, etc.

L. D. WADE, Superintendent.
