PREDICTS BRYAN LANDSLIDE.

Mr. Mack Gives Figures Showing 301 Electoral Votes.

New York, Oct. 24.—National chairman Mack authorized a statement today in which he aimed the election of William Bryan by a landslide. Mr. Mack announced that his reports showed that Mr. Bryan would receive at least 301 electoral votes, or fifty-nine more than is necessary for a choice. Mr. Mack's forecast of the election follows:

"The rumblings and thunder of the Bryan landslide in the West are already heard in the Eastern States, and to-day I can confidently predict the election of Mr. Bryan. That landslide in the West will extend to the shores of the Atlantic. It means the Democratic national tickets will carry every doubtful State in this section, and in rock-ribbed Republican districts the majorities of that party in recent years will be reduced to a minimum. Basing my forecast on the most conservative lines, in view of the optimistic reports I have received from all sections of the county, I figure that Mr. Bryan will have at least 301 electoral votes, or fifty-nine more than is necessary for a choice. This comfortable majority will be increased rather than decreased when the vote is counted.

"In addition to the 166 votes of the solid South—and in this I include Maryland—I am confident that Mr. Bryan will carry New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, Nebraska, Nevada, Indiana, Ohio, Delaware, Kansas, and South Dakota—a total of 301 votes. All over the country there is a change of 25 to 50 per cent, from the Roosevelt vote of 1904 to Mr. Bryan.

"Result is no longer in doubt in New York. The thirty-nine votes of the State are assured for Mr. Bryan. He will win by a substantial plurality. The Empire State can no longer be included in that territory called the enemy's country. I speak from information gained from a thorough canvass and reports from every county in the State.

"From Connecticut I have received very encouraging reports. Judge Robertson, the Democratic candidate for Governor, will carry the State by about 20,000 plurality, and the national ticket, backed by a united party, has the best chance in years for winning the seven electoral votes.

"New Jersey sounds an optimistic note and there is every reason to believe that that State will be in the Democratic column. Few, if any, States in the Union have a better or more effective organization than New Jersey.

"Mr. Bryan's tour of the State on Friday last and the ovation he received spelled victory to my mind. The internal dissension in the Republican party in West Virginia and the swing of the labor vote in that State to Mr. Bryan are powerful factors for his success.

"Delaware we expect to win. The people are hot with resentment against a party branded Dupontism. Thousands of Republicans there will either vote for Bryan or not vote at all.

"In Ohio and Indiana every element is working for our success and despite the great Republican majorities of previous years, I am confident that both States will be in the Democratic column. They are for Bryan today, and there is no reason for believing that the next week will

Coming—The Devil.

At the Opera House, on the evening of October 28th the citizens of Greenville and vicinity will have the opportunity of seeing one of New York City's famous productions. The Garden and Belasco's Theatres have been producing the play of "The Devil" for the last two months to crowded houses, and now comes the Manhattan Troupe, supporting Mr. W. A. Hadley in this famous play, identically the same as is being produced in the city. Some say that it is the greatest play ever written. "There is a great lesson" says Beatrice Fairfax in the New York Journal, "for all women and men in this wonderful story. It is one that will impress with its power. But I am glad to say that I do not believe fully in its truth. The 'Devil' here wins his victory, as he has won many. But each year, as men and women get better, the victories of Satan are fewer. Good men and women fight against the evil and do not yield. The tragic and heart breaking story, by the wonderful new writer, tells one side of the battle between good and evil that goes on in every human heart. It has its lesson for all men and women. It is a powerful warning against playing with fire. Its lesson taught in the downfall of the man and woman is kept away from evil and the appearance of evil." It is well worth seeing and you will not be disappointed if you attend. The players are all artists of note and have been selected with the view of giving the interpretation of Molnar's famous play of "The Devil" with accuracy and, as presented, it equals that produced at either of the two theatres in New York City. No one should fail to see this great production at the low price of 25, 35 and 50 cts. Remember the date, Wednesday night, October 28th, at the Masonic Temple Opera House.

witness a change of sentiment. Eighty per cent, of the labor vote in both States and fully as large a percentage of the German population are for Mr. Bryan.

"Illinois is doubtful with the chances in favor of Mr. Taft, but if he wins it will be by a greatly reduced plurality.

"The Pacific coast States all show a Bryan trend and a disgust of the extravagant, destructive policies of Mr. Roosevelt. In each, particularly in Oregon, State issues are an important factor.

"The mountain states, from information I have received within forty-eight hours, will, I am confident, be counted in the Democratic column.

"In fact, I figure at the present time, Mr. Bryan will have at least 300 electoral votes. I include in my estimate the following States:

Solid South	166
Idaho	3
Montana	3
Colorado	5
Nebraska	8
Nevada	3
Indiana	15
Ohio	23
Delaware	3
Kansas	10
New York	39
New Jersey	12
Connecticut	7
South Dakota	4
Total	301

And the "Devil" to pay tomorrow night.

BENEFITS OF BUILDING AND LOAN

[Extract from the address of Hon. O. B. Eaton at the State Convention of the North Carolina Building and Loan League at Winston-Salem.]

"Through your splendid and superb organization runs the beautiful and touching sentiment of Home, Sweet, Home. It stands beside the toiler in the shop and lends pathos to the ring of the anvil; it goes with the toiler to the field and gives beauty and softness to the great chorus of nature; it goes with the man who pushes the plane or drives the plough or swelters at the forges and in the factories and helps to roll back earth's bitter tide of withering gall, dry up her dark fountains of grief and turn her Iliad of woe into bright songs of gladness."

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town, Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., Oct. 27, 1908.
A. M. Moseley, of Greenville, was here Monday.

The Ayden Lumber Company, after a close down of several months, has started up again. They have bought much new machinery of the most modern make and extremely expensive. They have in their swamps a skidder machine that is movable, to which large trees that are felled and immense logs can be attached and pulled for any distance, in a short space of time to their main track then hauled to their mills. It is wonderful we are told and saves an immense amount of labor as well as expense. There were large crowds from town and the surrounding country out to see it last Sunday all of whom express themselves as really amazed and surprised at something they never imagined could be accomplished. Indeed this is an advanced age of civilization.

George Garris is preparing to erect a residence on West avenue.

Mr. Ross, the popular salesman of E. Turnage & Sons, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents at Aurora.

The Rebeccas are preparing to give an entertainment at an early date.

Miss May Holton came from Wilson Friday and spent until Monday with her mother near here. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Marie Bailey, of Elm City. They are both students at the Carolina Christian college.

Mrs. H. E. Tripp came home Monday evening from a visit to friends.

R. H. Garris went to New Bern Federal court Monday and returned the same day. Quick trip.

Mr. Hazelette, of Conetoe, after a pleasant visit to his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Buhmann, left here for his home Monday.

Mrs. Nan Joyner, of Norfolk, came Monday to visit her niece, Mrs. F. G. Buhmann.

M. M. Sauls and Roy Cannon went to Rountree Sunday.

Since the rise in cotton the buyers on this market have been a busy set of men.

Rev. C. W. Howard closed his year's engagement as pastor with the Disciple church here last Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Rawls, nee Early, of Rocky Mount, has been visiting friends in Ayden during the past week.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Mr. David Williams and Miss Sarah Stocks were united in matrimony. J. M. Blow, J. P. officiating. The couple drove up in front of the judge's office and were so timid they could not be prevailed upon to alight and enter the office, so the judge himself who anticipates at an early date attempting the fatal step, performed the ceremony while the couple sat in the buggy and now David and Sarah have no fears and are no doubt serenely happy basking in the sunlight of each other's smiles. And may it eternally last is our fervent prayer.

Man Made Happy With Check He did not Know Belonged to Him.

Mr. Joyner Wingate, a good farmer of Contentnea township, walked in The Reflector office this morning to tell us an experience he had in selling tobacco and which he said he thought the public should know. About two weeks ago he sold a load of tobacco at the Star warehouse branch of the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Co. He got a check amounting to $104.50, and went home contented with the sale, though he did not closely examine the sales statement given him with the check.

On Monday Mr. Wingate brought more tobacco to the Star, and Mr. Dail, the auditor, asked if he had his sales statement of two weeks ago with him, as a mistake had been made in the settlement which the company wanted to correct. Mr. Wingate did not have the statement with him but said he had it among his papers at home and could bring it today. He brought the statement today and a comparison of it with the sales book of the Farmers Consolidated Co. disclosed an error of $58.50 and another check for this amount was handed to Mr. Wingate. He was a well pleased man at finding himself that much better off than he thought, and he did not fail to praise the integrity of the officers of the Consolidated.

CREWING TOBACCO

His First Experience Was a Plenty— Never Tried the Second Chew.

[Written for The Reflector]

I remember when a boy about eleven years old, my big brother, now long numbered with the saints at rest, and whom I believed to be the cleverest and handsomest fellow in the world—said to me one day, "Tom, have a quid." I hardly knew what he meant but with his little ivory handled knife he cut a chew of tobacco and in a quizzical way, he held the morsel in his fingers, saying "Here is to Sir Walter Raleigh, and the weed." Weed was a new name to me but it was not long before I had a plug of old John Meadows thribble x g. I had not yet tried it, but the odor was agreeable, and I heard of several boys who chewed like sailors, and one day I took a chew as an experiment, just like a big boy, and at the time I may have swallowed a portion, for in a few minutes I was deathly sick and scarcely able to reach the house and bed, to avoid a sensational collapse.

The old folks had been out riding early that morning, and sister Jane came meeting me at the door, saying "what is the matter with you, Tom? You are sick and pale as a ghost." The tone of her voice at once attracted the attention of the children and negroes, and thereupon ensued a general commotion and alarm. Cousin Peggy Ingraham said I had a chill, but a lady friend and neighbor, upon examination, said it looked to her very much like a case of poisoning, and that I was already turning green, "Oh, my Lord," said Rachel, the maid, as with pious ejaculations she hurriedly examined the water bucket for the deadly virus and ran for a doctor, while Martha, the wash woman, equally excited, threw down the clothes and the soap suds regardless of consequences. And upon this scene of confusion entered our old cook, Anjone, shaking her head ominously, and whispering to her friend over the fence, "wher he sho' gone, Tom bad mun." Then came Uncle Shade Brickle, who was on the lot at the time, and had not yet ventured an opinion on the situation, but on moving my jacket, he noticed accidentally I had dropped a small metallic sounding object on the floor and picking it up "what's that?" said Uncle Shade and upon further scrutiny he laughed heartily, saying, "here it is, a tobacco box if I live," he is all right now," and with this assurance the relaxation was sudden and complete to all.

Then the scene changed, my father and mother had returned and I was still too sick to catch it, but my sister, dear soul, always ready to soothe life's pathway for me, said, it was a small matter, that other boys chewed, and with the observation that he had no small vices of his own my father never referred to the matter again.

Then that afternoon when the family were all at supper Uncle Shade slipped in and said laughingly, "young master, you can now chew as much as you please without making you sick, but you are too little," and he jokingly added "you can give me the box." And being content with my experience I have never tried the second chew of tobacco in all these years.

Well, boys, of course old time gentlemen still chew tobacco and say it is good for a snake bite, but I believe it is now beginning to be difficult to find any up-to-date boy or knight of the twentieth century who either smokes or chews.

Uncle Tom.

TUESDAY, OCT. 27, 1908.

No doubt Congressman Hobson will have many shaky spells while our fleet is in Japanese waters.

It is just as well to go ahead and beat the Republicans, as they are just about scared to death anyway.

The result is going to show some surprises, but after it is over there will be plenty of them to say "I told you so."

The Danville Bee gets off a good one in saying "Hon. Nick Longworth was not long worth while as a Republican stumper."

President Roosevelt has accused Governor Haskell of telling falsehoods. Same old story of "the pot calling the kettle black."

It shows the straits of desperation the Republicans have reached when the president and his cabinet have to get so actively into the campaign.

Every Democrat in Pitt county should be at the polls next Tuesday and vote the entire ticket. Make this election give a record breaking majority.

Chairman Mack says he is sure it will be Bryan, and Chairman Hitchcock says he is sure it will be Taft. We will know sometime next Tuesday night which one is correct.

The government report issued Monday showing such a large amount of cotton ginned up to the 18th, can be accounted for in the ideal weather for picking cotton that has prevailed this fall.

Charlotte had another drawing card in Col. John Temple Graves who went there to make a speech last night. But we expect the colonel had not much to speak about. Still Charlotte was glad of his presence.

Again let us remind the voters that the misrepresentations made of county affairs by the Republican speakers in Pitt county are not worthy of consideration. You should rebuke them by voting the entire Democratic ticket and show that you do not countenance falsehood.

The prediction given out by Chairman Mack, of the national Democratic executive committee, that appeared in Sunday's papers, and his telegram to State Chairman Eller, which we publish elsewhere, ought to be very gratifying to every Democrat. We want to see the Democrats of Pitt county act on Chairman Mack's suggestion and roll up the largest majority this county has ever given. Get to work and bring your neighbors out next Tuesday and see that they vote the entire Democratic ticket.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Expected Pacification.

Mrs. Henry Farman, the wife of the noted aeronaut, said in an interview in New York:

"What I particularly like about you Americans is your naivete. This naivete often makes selfish traits seem quite charming. For instance:

"I lunched the other day with a Brooklyn woman. After luncheon, as we took our coffee in the drawing room, my hostess's son, a little lad in white, came in.

"He talked to me politely for a while, then he crossed the room to his mother.

"Ma,' he said in his little hard, nasal voice, 'did you buy Harold a birthday present when you were out this morning?'

"Yes, dear,' said his mother.

"And, ma,' he went on, 'what did you buy to pacify me 'cause it ain't my birthday?'

The Republicans are depending on fraud and trickery to carry the election. In the first place, the trusts have been requested, as their contribution to Republican success, to put all their men to work, so as to look like a return of prosperity, and as soon as the election is over, many of these men are to be put off to loaf again. Fraud the second: Mr. Chas. P. Taft has purchased the Baltimore Sun, an old Democratic paper, and is now, of course, supporting his brother with it as a bolting Democratic paper, when it is simply a change of ownership. The Republicans know that the honest Americans are going to elect that great statesman from Nebraska, and they are resorting to fraud, coercion and trickery to prevent it, but this is a Democratic year from Dan to Beersheba.—Durham Sun.

Every member of President Roosevelt's cabinet is out shelling the woods this week, while it is taking a hundred horsepower engine to keep the boss man of the White House from getting out himself. Mr. Bryan, referring to this, said Saturday—"The Republican party has had the active support of all officers of the government, the endorsement of nearly all the great metropolitan press, and an enormous campaign fund, yet the closing days find its leaders so frightened that a Republican president sends out his entire cabinet to give instructions to the voters, so that the man whose nomination he forced can be pulled through at any cost. But this effort will fail."—Greensboro Record.

The check presented me to-day in full settlement of lost time, also covering cost of operation is very much appreciated, and I can highly recommend the Maryland and yourself for the prompt service rendered.

If You Need a Piano

THREE POINTS

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED WHEN YOU PURCHASE

First: Is the Piano strictly high-grade, of a lasting tone-quality, and made by a reliable factory?

Answer—From Start
TIEFF
to
Finish

The use of best materials, best construction by skilled workmen, profiting by the experience the STIEFF FACTORY has had in its sixty-eight years of continued manufacture under the same management, places the STIEFF PIANO at the head of High-Grade Instruments. Its sweet tone does not change, as does the so-called "good as" variety, so often sold by dealers to unsuspecting purchasers because there is more profit in the sale.

Second: How can I obtain the BEST PIANO for the least money, value being considered?

Answer—BUY
Straight
from the Factory

All STIEFF PIANOS ARE SOLD TO THE CUSTOMER BY THE MANUFACTURERS thus guaranteeing against excessive profits often obtained when an instrument passes through several owners before reaching the customer.

Third: How am I to know what I select will prove all claimed for it?

Answer—You are Safe
Fraud

If you buy a STIEFF. There are more STIEFF PIANOS in use in North Carolina than any other three makes of high-grade Pianos. Some of the STIEFFS in use have been in the same homes for over half a century, and to all STIEFF purchasers we gladly refer.

The STIEFF is sold for cash or on terms to suit purchaser.

HIS MISTAKE.

It Was Costly, but Cured Him of an Irritating Habit.

Bunsen was always a great kidder. He isn't any more.

Bunsen is a lawyer, although, of course, he is known by a different name. Don't ever get the idea, though, that this didn't really happen just because Bunsen's real nomination isn't mentioned.

As we were saying, Bunsen used to be pretty much of a kidder. He would even kid his own patient little wife. Those who care to read on down a little farther will learn why he ceased to be a kidder.

One evening last week when Bunsen got home his wife had a new hat to show him. It was some hat. Anybody could have seen that it was the final phrase in female headgear.

But Bunsen started in to make fun of it. He said it looked as if it had been trimmed by a cross-eyed milliner on an empty stomach. And he made a lot of other disparaging remarks that were extremely harassing to poor Mrs. Bunsen.

"D'ye buy it sight unseen?" he inquired. "Say, how much do they pay the girl that sold you that? She ought to have a raise. Any girl who could put that one over a customer must be something of a smooth saleslady, I'm here to remark."

Mrs. Bunsen was almost in tears. Bunsen had to go into the other room to have a quiet laugh at her expense. Oh, he was the great kidder, all right. The next day, though, he had forgotten all about the hat.

The day after that he was reminded of his little jokefest. Mrs. Bunsen handed him a slip of paper when he came home to get his victuals that evening. It was a bill for retrimming that hat; $18.34 it came to.

Bunsen paid it without a murmur and said the revised edition of the hat was just exactly right. He isn't making fun of hats any more.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

NOTED ANAGRAMS.

Ingenious Transmutation of Names of Well Known Persons.

Anagrams that transmute the names of well known men and women are often startlingly appropriate. What could be better in this way than these announcements, evolved from two great statesmen's names when the reins of power changed hands: Gladstone, "G leads not!" Disraeli, "I lead, sir!" Quite as happy is the comment on the devoted nursing of Florence Nightingale, whose name yields "Flit on, cheering angel." Among those that are most often quoted we may mention Horatio Nelson, "Honor est a Nilo;" Charles James Stuart, "Claims Arthur's seat;" Plilate's question, "Quid est veritas?" ("What is truth?")

"It is the man here present"; Swedish nightingale, "Sing high, sweet Linda;" David Livingstone, "D. V. go and visit Nile;" the Marquiss of Ripon (who resigned the grand mastership of Freemasons when he became a Romanist), "R. I. P., quoth Freemasons;" Charles, prince of Wales, "All France calls, Oh, help!" Sir Roger Charles Doughty Titchborne, baronet, "You horrid butcher Orton, biggest rascal here," and many shorter specimens, such as telegraph, "great help;" astronomers, "no more stars" and "moon starers;" one hug, "enough;" editors, "so tired;" tournament, "to run at men;" penitentiary, "nay, I repent;" old England, "golden land;" revolution, "to love ruin;" fashionable, "one-half bias;" lawyers, "ely ware;" midshipman, "mind his map;" poorhouse, "Oh, sour hope;" Presbyterian, "best in prayer;" sweetheart, "there we sat;" matrimony, "into my arm."—Chambers' Journal.

Air and Water "Cures."

It is a remarkable fact that, as with various natural so-called "mineral waters" so with various "airs" which people find beneficial, no one has yet clearly and decisively shown, in the first place, whether they exert any chemical effect of a special kind on the people who seem to benefit by drinking the one or breathing the other. Still less has any one shown what is the particular chemical ingredient of the air or of the water of any given resort which exerts the beneficial effect attributed to that air or that water.—Sir E. Ray Lankester in London Telegraph.

A Habit He Won't Contract.

A man who signs himself "A Son of Rest" sends us the following: "Several people have asked me why I never work. I take this means of replying to all.

"The habit of working is like a habit of taking dope. If a man is a dope fiend and stops it he dies. Now, if a man gets the habit of working and then stops it he starves to death. Same thing. I shall never contract such a habit."—Cleveland Leader.

Could Stop Over.

As an express train was going through a station one of the passengers leaned too far out of the window, overbalanced and fell out. He fortunately landed on a sand heap, so that he did himself no great injury, but, with torn clothes and not a few bruises, said to a porter who was standing by:

"What shall I do?"
"You're all right, mister," said the porter. "Your ticket allows you to break your journey."—London Scraps.

CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

Chr'm. Mack Wires Chr'm. Eller Bryan Will Have Majority.
(Special to The Reflector.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 26—The following telegram received at Democratic headquarters here this afternoon:

A. H. Eller, Chairman Democratic State Com. Raleigh, N. C.

We are confident that Bryan will win in the electoral college. I am wiring to urge you to call upon the voters of your State to be active and to appeal to those in strong Democratic sections to bring out the full Democratic vote so that a big majority of the popular vote will be cast for Bryan and Kern. A large majority of the popular vote will help to secure the reform legislation to which our party is committed. A big majority in your State will help the Democratic party everywhere. Please leave no effort untried to get out the full Democratic vote in your State. Appeal to the Democratic papers which have done so much in this campaign to aid in this work.
Norman E. Mack.

Blackberries in October.

It is unusual to see blackberries growing and ripening the latter part of October, but Mr. W. C. Rogers brought a bunch to this office Monday which he gathered on the roadside coming to Henderson. There were several berries on the twig, some small and green, others fully matured and ripe. This has been a remarkably beautiful fall, though—open weather and very little frost so far.—Herderson Gold Leaf.
