FARMVILLE NOTES.

Farmville, N. C., Oct. 27. Col. Harry Skinner spoke to quite a crowd here Saturday evening and of course he very gracefully propounded the political issues of the day and explained the other side of the Democratic party and compared it to the Republican party's emblems of purity which made the whole quite an interesting speech for we Democrats as well as the few Republicans.

Mr. Samuel Brewer, of Marlboro, died Sunday night about 7 o'clock after suffering a long time from paralysis. He was about fifty years of age, a member of the Free Will Baptist church, and leaves a wife and one daughter to mourn his death.

On Saturday night about 9 o'clock, Oct. 17th, Mr. T. L. Allen lost his dwelling house and contents with a narrow escape of being burned himself. It seems that Mr. Allen's wife and child were visiting their uncle, Watt Parker, and Mr. Allen being alone went over to a neighbor's house to spend the evening and returning home he went into his room and closed the door and in a few minutes the fire came bursting out from an adjoining bed-room. Before he had time to save anything the whole house was in a blaze. His loss was a heavy one, being nearly a thousand dollars with only a little insurance.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the Ladies Magazine club in Farmville, North Carolina, on October 21st, 1908, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to call to Himself our faithful member and vice president, Mrs. Sue May Albritton, we desire to place upon the records of our club our appreciation of her many virtues, as well as the great loss we have sustained at her death. A charter member, and ever ready and active in the work of the club, to which she gave the best services of her well stored mind, her warm heart, her ready wit and keen sense of humor.

We feel that the community, as well as the club she loved, has sustained a loss by the death of this good woman.

Be it resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to our county papers, and also to the family of our friend, assuring them of our deep sympathy in their hour of trial.

Miss Venetia Morrill, Sec.
Mrs. J. Stanley Smith, Pres.

Birds Scarce—Should Be Protected.

The birds are said to be very scarce this fall. This is said to be due in part to the unfavorable seasons and particularly the heavy flood the latter part of August which killed out a number of the younger birds. Farmers might do well this season to offer every possible protection to the limited number of birds that survived the big rains of August. The birds are among the farmer's best friends, and are therefore worthy of his especial protection.—Waxhaw Enterprise.

Clock Service.

The Western Union Telegraph Co. will soon install clock service here. Some of the business houses have already engaged clocks and they will be quite an advantage. Wherever the clocks are placed accurate time will be found.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

In Vacant Store Next to Postoffice Friday Afternoon and Night.

The ladies of the End of the Century Book club will give the old time Hallowe'en party that was mentioned a few days ago in this paper in the vacant store next to the postoffice, Friday, beginning at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon and lasting until 12 at night.

The ladies are making ample provisions for both young and old children and they want everybody to come. There will be fortune tellers, ghost story tellers and every kind of amusement peculiar to Hallowe'en, even to the ducking for apples. And then, you can get plenty to eat, too—everything from a delicious menu for supper down to chestnuts.

Everything at the party will be presided over by beautiful and bewitching young ladies and you will be sure to have a good time. Come.

This party is for the benefit of a very worthy cause—the public library—and should be well patronized. It will begin at 4:30 o'clock; so the small children can come. Remember the hours—4:30 to 12 o'clock.

Sans Souci Book Club.

Reported for Reflector:

The Sans Souci Book club was very delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Miss Mary Higgs. The meeting was called to order by the president, roll call and minutes read by the secretary.

Miss Lizzie Jones then read the constitution of the club, this being the first opportunity of having it read this year.

After all other business was dispensed with the books were exchanged by the librarian. The meeting was then voted to be in the hands of the hostess who passed sheets of paper with ten words written on each. The guests were asked to write a short story, using each of these words in their respective order. The prize, a dainty piece of handwork, went to Miss Irma Cobb for the best story.

We were very glad to have with us at this meeting two charming visitors, Miss Bready and Miss Woodward.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess, after which the club adjourned to meet again on November the tenth, with Mrs. J. L. Carper.

Big Increase in Resources.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 27—A gain of more than $2,000,000 in the resources of the State private and savings banks in North Carolina is shown by the summary of the condition of banks just issued from the office of the North Carolina corporation commission here, the gain being in comparison with the total resources shown by the last previous summary, three months ago.

The total resources shown by the report just issued is $46,810,201. The total deposits, time, subject to check and in certificates, is $30,981,064.

New Type.

The Reflector job printing department has just put in a lot of the prettiest type ever carried in a Greenville print shop. If you want some nice printing from this new type try us with an order.

BENEFITS OF BUILDING AND LOAN

[Extract from the address of Hon. O. B. Eaton at the State Convention of the North Carolina Building and Loan League at Winston-Salem.]

"If ever the providence of God, lashed by the storm and riven by the lightning, your grand institution should totter to its ruin and decay, around its trunk will the ivy of Home, Sweet, Home, still cling and mantle with greenness and verdure its ruin and decay."

"The organization, therefore, that goes forth on such a mission and draws its life and inspiration from such great truths is worthy of a great State and will never die."

HUNDRED YEARS OF METHODISM.

Centennial Celebration by Church in Fayetteville.

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 27.—The centennial of Methodism in Fayetteville is being celebrated here this week with impressive services in the Hay Street Methodist church. The celebration, which will continue through Thursday, was opened Sunday morning by Bishop A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore, who also preached that night on the Laymen's Movement.

Col. John F. Bruton, of Wilson, N. C., delivered an address Sunday afternoon on "Wealth".

A feature of the celebration is the address of several former pastors of the Hay Street church.

Dr. L. L. Nash, of Gibson, a former pastor of Hay Street church, preached an excellent sermon Monday morning on the Evangelization of the World, while Rev. T. A. Smoot, of Wilmington, also a former pastor, delivered a very entertaining lecture Monday evening on "One Hundred Years of Methodism in Fayetteville."

Among the speakers on the program is ex-Governor T. J. Jarvis.

At 11 o'clock this morning Rev. W. H. Moore D. D. of Rockingham, preached an eloquent sermon in the Hay Street church. This evening Rev. T. N. Ivey, D. D., editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, delivered a scholarly and highly interesting address on "Methodism and Literature" and Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Rocky Mount, discoursed eloquently on "Methodism and Revivals."

The centennial celebration is proving a great success and will undoubtedly aid in the advancement of the cause of Methodism.

Special Train For a Republican Orator.

The Republicans in this State, especially the Durham Republicans, must have money to burn. Hon. Thos. Settle, Republican elector at large, who is doing most of the spellbinding for his party in the State, had an appointment to speak at Durham with Mr. Elwood Cox. But Mr. Settle got busy in a lawsuit in Asheville, in which he was suing to his house by setting off a blast which shook up the place, and didn't go to Durham.

A telegram came urging his presence. Mr. Settle answered that he was busy and couldn't leave. A more urgent telegram followed. Mr. Settle again plead urgent business and to end the matter said all the trains were gone and he couldn't get there. Then came a telegram telling Mr. Settle that a special train—engine and parlor car—were waiting him at the Asheville station to convey him to Durham.

Beginning Saturday, Oct. 31st, we will run a 15 day reduction sale. Will reduce prices 1-3 on entire stock of shoes, dress goods, notions, cloaks, laces, etc. 10 28 4d w1. J. F. Davenport Co.

HOUSE DEMOCRATIC BY 67.

Chairman Lloyd Expects Gains in Three States.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—The house will be Democratic by probable majority of 67, and possibly more, in the opinion of James T. Lloyd, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign committee, who made his anti-election prediction today, Lloyd said:

"The present congress consists of 391 members. There have been elections in Oregon and Maine, and six Republicans were chosen from these States. Of the 385 yet to be elected, it is reasonably sure that there will be 199 Democrats and 126 Republicans."

"This leaves sixty districts to be classed as doubtful. If our estimates are correct, all the districts may yet be given to the Republicans, and yet the Democrats would have a majority of seven, but the doubtful districts our judgment is that the Democrats have at least an equal chance, and may probably elect as many as thirty additional members out of this class for Democracy, which would make a total of 229 Democrats and 162 Republicans, a Democratic majority of 67."

"The principal gains would be in the Northern Mississippi Valley, in New York, and Pennsylvania. The reason for the gain is due to the dissatisfaction of the people with existing political conditions, and their disgust at the autocratic rule of the present Speaker of the House of Representatives."

The Youth's Companion for 1909.

The amount of good reading given to subscribers to The Youth's Companion during the year is indicated by the following summary of contents for 1909:

Fifty star articles contributed by men and women of wide distinction in public life, in literature, in science, in business, in a score of professions.

Two hundred and fifty capital stories, including six serial stories; humorous stories; stories of adventure, character, heroism.

One thousand up-to-date notes on current events, recent discoveries in the world of science and nature, important matters in politics and government.

Two thousand one-minute sketches, anecdotes, bits of humor, and selected miscellany, the weekly health article, the weekly woman's article, timely editorials, etc.

A full announcement of the new volume will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address on request. The new subscriber for 1909 who at once sends $1.75 for the new volume (adding 50 cents for extra postage if he lives in Canada, will receive free all the remaining issues for 1908, including the Double Holiday numbers; also The Companion's new calendar for 1909. SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

J. J. Cherry, Jr., of Norfolk, came in Tuesday evening to visit his parents.

Bishop Strange will preach in the Episcopal church tonight, also tomorrow morning and night.

Miss Jackie Moore, of Whitakers, who has been visiting at New Bern, arrived here Tuesday and is visiting relatives here.

Against Sunday Mails and Newspapers

The Sabbath Observation Association of this State held its annual meeting in High Point last week. Judge Pritchard was one of the speakers of the occasion. Among other things the association passed the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That this convention do most earnestly solicit from the people of our State their active support in an energetic crusade for fuller Sabbath observance; to the accomplishment of which the pushing back of many encroachments will be necessary, and since if an inroad is to be made at all it must begin somewhere, therefore it is suggested by this convention that our energies be first directed against Sunday mails and Sunday newspapers as productive of influences seriously detrimental to Sabbath observance and Christian activity."

Ex-Sheriff Aman Surrenders.

Clinton, N. C., Oct. 27.—Yesterday Superior Court convened here for two weeks' term, Judge Lyon on the bench and Solicitor Duffy prosecuting the State docket. This morning, ex-Sheriff A. W. Aman came into court and surrendered.

His bond was fixed at twenty-five hundred dollars and he was placed in custody until the bond was given. Aman was indicted about two years ago for embezzlement of county funds and for forgery.

Attractive Drug Store.

The drug store of Coward & Wooten has recently undergone considerable improvement and is now the most attractive store in town. A plate glass front has been put in and the wood work all newly painted, a metal ceiling has been placed inside and the floor covered with linoleum. These set off the nice interior furnishings and make it a handsome store.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Chairs of all kinds, single or in sets, at Taft & Boyd's. 10 28 3td 1tw

Folks never thought of taking offense today if you told them to go to the Devil.

The tobacco warehouses will not have any sales on next Tuesday, election day.

About the first fair morning that follows these damp days there will be a big frost.

The weather is not any too good for the speakings of the last week of the campaign.

Courting Trouble.
"Look here," said the official, "there'll be trouble if your wife disregards us when we persistently tell her she must not pick the flowers."
"Then," replied Mr. H. Peck, "for it was no other, 'why ever do you persist?'"—Judge.

Be prepared to answer for the single talent committed to your charge and take no thought for the rest.—St. Bernard of Chartreux.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 28, 1908.

About this time next week you will know all about it.

No Democrat should stay away from the polls next Tuesday. Come out, men, and do your duty.

Mr. Bryan put in twenty-two hours work Monday. That was surely his busy day, and what is better every hour counted.

If the Republicans are pleased with their outlook in North Carolina, as their speakers claim, it takes very little to please them.

What would become of the public schools in Pitt county (and that includes nearly all) if the Republicans had a chance at them?

The Greensboro News says "The New York Herald gives the election to Judge Taft." Fortunately for the country such a gift is not in the hands of The Herald.

Charlotte is even bragging about going to have Marion Butler to speak there. Charlotte has had lots of good things, but we see nothing in this last to brag over.

Do not think about staying at home next Tuesday because you know the Democratic ticket will be elected. Go to the polls and help make the majority as large as possible.

About the only hope the Republicans now see is to steal or buy Taft's election. The Democrats should be watchful and active enough to prevent them from doing either.

Just suppose the Republicans had control of the board of education of Pitt county, can you guess who would be superintendent of schools? If such a thing should happen you would be ashamed to tell it away from home.

Mr. Hearst's greatest desire seems to be to do Mr. Bryan all the damage he can, and Col. John Temple Graves is doing the bidding of his boss. Graves made a speech in Charlotte Monday night the most of which was anti-Bryan.

The Republicans in their misrepresentations are saying much about the management of affairs in Pitt county. We want to ask the voters to look over the list of Republican candidates and see if they think a single one of them could conduct the county's business as well as it has been. If you have the slightest intention of voting for a Republican you better think what you are doing before voting.

Pitt county is going too fast on the up grade of progress for the people to think of letting by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

the Republicans pull her back down. The worst thing that could happen for the county would be for the Republicans to get control of it. We are not writing this because there is any danger of such a calamity, but just to remind the people that they should vote the entire Democratic ticket next Tuesday.

The Legislative and County Offices.

While a full Democratic vote all around is highly desirable, for reasons pointed out in another editorial this morning, there is no need for any one to worry about the fortunes of the State or national Democratic tickets in North Carolina. They are just as sure of large majorities as the sun is to rise the morning of election day.

But there are other considerations than these, and important considerations, too. Yesterday we discussed the importance of the House to the Democratic party and the country and strove to give some reasons why the State should return a solid delegation. Superior in importance, however, even to this are the Legislature and the county offices. North Carolina cannot afford to allow the Legislature to pass from Democratic control and is not going to do so if the people are alive to their own best interests and these we are urging them to safeguard. We are all anxious for Mr. Overman's return to the Senate; of course we are; and aside from this there are weighty reasons why the Legislature should be Democratic. A moment's reflection will suggest them to every mind. Then there are the county officers. They are very close to the people and should be from among the very best men. Generally speaking the Democratic nominees for these important places are. They are so this year in all the counties, we can safely assume.

In a word, keep the counties straight and the State will keep straight. Do not neglect the legislative and county candidates and do not scratch any of the nominees on any of the tickets. —Charlotte Observer.

Dear Sir:

During the summer you prevailed on me to buy a disability policy in the Maryland Casualty Company. Within a very short time after purchasing same, I found that it was necessary for me to have a slight surgical operation performed on account of which it was necessary for me to remain away from my business for a period of about two weeks.

The check presented me to-day in full settlement of lost time, also covering cost of operation is very much appreciated, and I can highly recommend the Maryland and yourself for the prompt service rendered.

Very truly yours,

If You Need a Piano

THREE POINTS

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED WHEN YOU PURCHASE

First: Is the Piano strictly high-grade, of a lasting tone-quality, and made by a reliable factory?

Answer—From Start
Stieff
Finish

The use of best materials, best construction by skilled workmen, profiting by the experience the STIEFF FACTORY has had in its sixty-eight years of continued manufacture under the same management, places the STIEFF PIANO at the head of High-Grade Instruments. Its sweet tone does not change, as does the so-called "good as" variety, so often sold by dealers to unsuspecting purchasers because there is more profit in the sale.

Second: How can I obtain the BEST PIANO for the least money, value being considered?

Answer—BUY
Straight
Stieff
from the Factory

All STIEFF PIANOS ARE SOLD TO THE CUSTOMER BY THE MANUFACTURERS thus guaranteeing against excessive profits often obtained when an instrument passes through several owners before reaching the customer.

Third: How am I to know what I select will prove all claimed for it?

Answer—You are Safe
Fraud

If you buy a STIEFF. There are more STIEFF PIANOS in use in North Carolina than any other three makes of high-grade Pianos. Some of the STIEFFS in use have been in the same homes for over half a century, and to all STIEFF purchasers we gladly refer.

The STIEFF is sold for cash or on terms to suit purchaser.

THE DEEP SEA DIVER

Perils Against Which the Modern Expert Must Guard.

PROTECTING HIS AIR TUBE.

This is His Chief Care While Delving in the Debris of Sunken Wrecks. Tragic Debut of John Day, a Clever but Ignorant Old Timer.

A great deal of water has run under the bridge since, in the month of June, 1774, John Day made his fatal debut as a diver in Plymouth sound. Day, a clever but ignorant millwright, had laid numerous wagers that, confined in a water tight box and provided with a candle, food and drink, he would remain submerged at any depth for twelve hours. His plan was that the box should be fastened by screws—from within—to a vessel subsequently sunk and that when the allotted time had elapsed he should withdraw the screws and rise to the surface. His mad scheme was actually put into execution on June 22, and Day, as might have been expected, lost his life. Not the least extraordinary part of the affair is that, while he was warned how the pressure of the water would affect his box and greatly increased its strength in consequence, no one seems to have so much as hinted at the danger of his death from want of air.

The diver who goes down today to salvage the contents of a sunken wreck, recover a dropped torpedo or execute some submarine erection or repairs has better knowledge of the necessary risks he runs and the precautions by which he may avoid all needless danger at his work than had poor Day. Science, mindful of the great increase of pressure brought about by every foot that he descends beneath the surface of the sea, warns him to go slowly down the stepladder that hangs from the ship's side or the dock wall and to pause frequently as he does so, that he may grow accustomed to the increase by degrees. By this means a man fit for the work, sound of heart and free from appetitic tendencies passes with little inconvenience from the moderate pressure of eight pounds per square inch, which surrounds him at a depth of twenty feet, to that of sixty-five pounds, which he must sustain after descending 150 feet—the greatest depth at which his work can be considered safe.

Once landed at the bottom of the sea the diver has a host of things to bear in mind. Weighted as he is with brass soled boots, copper helmet and often a treble set of underclothing below his diving suit of twill and rubber, the tendency to rise is yet so great that his powers of action are very limited. He can lift a comparatively heavy weight with ease; the attempt to pull down some trifling piece of wreckage from overhead will probably take him off his feet. Readers of Robert Louis Stevenson will remember how, when, dressed in full deep sea costume, he accompanied a diver to his work the novelist was able to hop with ease upon the summit of a rock some six feet high. But descend again he could not. His companion hauled him off head downward and propped him on his feet "like an intoxicated sparrow." Even for such an apparently simple piece of work as drilling a hole in a rock or portion of a wreck the diver will perhaps need to prop himself against a stone or make himself secure by lashings to the object upon which he works.

The great danger against which the diver must be ever on his guard is that of getting his air tube entangled in the debris of a wreck—no difficult matter as he creeps in and out of cabin, engine room and hold, among a broken and distorted mass of wood and iron. He may have been moving in one direction, all unconscious that he is being helped by a strong current, until he presently attempts to turn and finds it vain. It is not the deep sea diver only who runs this risk. Some years since a diver was at work in twenty feet of water repairing some dock gates. His job finished, he gave the signal to the boat above to close the gates that he might see if all worked well. The rush of many tons of water as the heavy gates swung to swept him between and through them. In a flash he realized that his air pipe would be caught between the massive doors and at the same moment saw his only chance for life. He thrust his heavy hammer head between the closing gates, and this kept his pipe free till he could signal for them to be reopened.

The old method of communication between the diver and his helpers at the surface was by means of tugs upon the line, but nowadays the telephone or perhaps a speaking tube accompanies the air pipe at his side. And, though many divers still work in the comparative darkness, both oil and electricity will shed their light upon the scene if need arise.

Sharks are visitors with whom in certain waters the deep sea diver has to count. But the shark is not always so dangerous a morning caller as might be thought. A diver at work in the cabin of a sunken ship saw, to his dismay, a shark swim slowly in. The diver had no suitable weapon of defense at hand, and flight seemed the only chance for life—and a poor one at that. Meanwhile the shark swam to and fro in the cabin as if meditating on a system of attack. The diver made a sudden bolt for the door; the shark—as seriously alarmed, it seemed, as was the man—did the same and, being unnumbered with costume and in his native element, got out an easy first and disappeared.—London Globe.

Mason and Dixon's Line.
The "Mason and Dixon's line," the name given to the boundary line between Pennsylvania and Maryland, was run, with the exception of some twenty-two miles, by Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon, two English mathematicians and surveyors, between November, 1763, and December, 1767. During the excited debate in congress in 1820 on the exclusion of slavery from Missouri John Randolph made great use of the phrase, which was caught up by all the newspapers of the country and thus gained the celebrity it still holds.

CASE AFTER CASE.
Plenty More Just Like This in Greenville.
Scores of Greenville people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?
John G. Latham, 997 Cotanch St., Greenville, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills in my case far surpasses any kidney remedy I had previously used. For some time my kidneys had been in a disordered condition, the secretions being too frequent in action and the passages attended with pain. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills I was so impressed that I procured a box at John L. Wooten's drug store. They went directly to the seat of my trouble and gave me relief in a short time. My kidneys were restored to their normal condition, the secretions gave me no trouble whatever and I felt better in every way. My wife also used Doan's Kidney Pills when suffering from dull nagging backaches accompanied by headaches and the results defied were highly satisfactory."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Dry Goods and Ladies Dress Goods.
I have purchased the interest of the late B. E. Patrick in the firm of B. E. Patrick & Co., and will continue to carry on a general dry goods business at the same stand.
A ladies department with a special of dress goods and trimmings has been added, Miss Nellie Barnhill being in charge of this department. The ladies are cordially invited to call and look at this line.
