MR. OLA FORBES DEAD.

The End Came Early Monday Night.

After an illness of several weeks with typhoid fever, Mr. Ola Forbes passed away at his home on Fifth street a little before 8 o'clock Monday night. While he had for some time been very sick, there was such change for the better in his condition last week that hopes for his early recovery were revived. But other complications set in Saturday from which he rapidly grew worse until the end came.

Osceola Forbes was 40 years old in September, and was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Forbes. He was born and reared to young manhood on the farm a few miles from Greenville. In December 1890, he wed Miss Pattie Cobb, and in the fall of the next year moved to Greenville to engage in the tobacco warehouse business, it marking the beginning of a tobacco market in this town. Since that time he has resided here, and almost constantly had prominent connection with the market. He was a man of energy and tact, knew how to make friends and numbered them by the score. At one time he filled the office of mayor of Greenville.

Mr. Forbes is survived by a wife and four children—two boys, Percy and Earl, and two daughters, Reubelle and Ernestine. Besides his parents he also leaves four sisters and three brothers—Mrs. O. L. Joyner, Mrs. J. S. Barr, Mrs. L. M. Savage, Miss Lucy Forbes, and Messrs. E. T., G. E., and A. A. Forbes, Jr.

Mr. Forbes was a skilled musician on both violin and cornet, and was leader of the Osceola Band that existed here a few years ago and ranked among the best in the state. He was for many years cornetist in the Memorial Baptist church of which he was a member. He will be sadly missed not only by his family and relatives, but by the entire community.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with service in the Baptist church and interment being in Cherry Hill cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. T. H. King, of Winterville, and the pall bearers were: Honorary, Dr. L. L. James, Dr. R. L. Carr, Dr. William Fountain, Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Messrs. R. O. Jeffress, J. T. Smith, T. R. Moore, W. H. Ragsdale, S. T. Hooker and J. J. Laughinghouse. Active, Messrs. C. C. Vines, J. L. Wooten, J. C. Tyson, R. C. Flanagan, J. L. Starkey, L. D. Wade, J. A. Ricks and G. J. Woodward.

The many floral tributes were beautiful expressions of esteem in which the deceased was held.

Tobacco Sales for October.

Secretary C. W. Harvey, of the Tobacco Board of Trade, reports the sales of leaf tobacco on the Greenville market for the month of October at 2,678,680 pounds, the average price being $10.59. The total sales for the three months since August 1st were 8,325,568 pounds.

Dr. Swindell Next Sunday.
Dr. F. D. Swindell of Wilson will preach in the Jarvis Memorial church next Sunday morning and night. The people of Greenville will be pleased to hear this well known minister, so well beloved for his many noble qualities of mind and heart.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 4, 1908.

It is all over now.

How the folks did vote yesterday.

Old Pitt county always does herself proud.

When you want Pitt county to save the State just call on her.

Mr. Bryan is just as great a man this morning as he was before it happened.

The Republicans seem to have made good use of their corruption fund in New York.

We are not yet prepared to tell how it happened, but it seems to have happened.

Now the folks can settle down to business, and some should not forget to settle up in the meantime.

Possibly there are enough Republicans left in Pitt county to hold the Federal jobs, which is about as many as they want.

The result of Tuesday's election is disappointing as to the president, but as to North Carolina and Pitt county there is abundant cause for rejoicing.

While the editor sat at the telegraph key Tuesday night, taking the election returns, the rest of the force was at work up stairs all night to give the news to our readers early this morning.

Advertising as a Business for Farmer.

Gradually the people of the South are beginning to find that there are other things more profitable than the production of cotton and tobacco. It simply means that these other things must be regularly and vigorously attended to as the city business man runs his city business, to make good money out of them. Some days ago we spoke of a fellow up in Wisconsin, who is advertising sausages in the magazines and beating the cotton farmers making money. Laterly we note that Mr. J. C. Hamlett, of Farmville, Va., has established a stock and dairy farm, and does his correspondence on a letter head gotten out for handling the business, just as a merchant in a city does.

It is to the extension of this sort of thing that we must look for diversification throughout the South and to relieving the production of cotton and tobacco of excess competition, thereby making that profitable also. One of the most notable features of this new move is the purpose to employ all white people.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Missionary Institute.

Scotland Neck, N. C. Nov. 5, 1908.—The Executive Committee Woman's Missionary Union, of North Carolina, announces a Missionary Institute, to be held in the Baptist Church, Scotland Neck, N. C., Thursday and Friday, November 5 and 6, 1908.

The object of the Institute is, by the simple, definite and direct presentation of plans and methods, to enable leaders to work more effectively in Woman's Missionary Societies, Young Woman's Auxiliaries, and Sunbeam Bands.

Instruction will be given in organizing and conducting Mission Study Classes as well as Mission Societies. There will also be an outline of work for Mission Study Classes in the "Uplift of China," "The Challenge of the City," and "Uganda's White Man of Work."

The Committee asks that delegates be sent from your Society, who will on their return, put in practice what they have gained from the Institute. Delegates living too far to reach the Institute from home, will be entertained by the Scotland Neck Society. Names of those who wish entertainment should be sent in as early as possible to the chairman of the Hospitality Committee, Mrs. B. F. Tillery, Scotland Neck, N. C.

The hours will be from 10:30 to 5 p. m. and from 8 to 10 at night.

It is requested that those who receive this announcement pray for the success of the Institute.

Greenville N. C.
September the 17th 1908.

Mr. H. A. Waite,
Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:

During the summer you prevailed on me to buy a disability policy in the Maryland Casualty Company. Within a very short time after purchasing same, I found that it was necessary for me to have a slight surgical operation performed on account of which it was necessary for me to remain away from my business for a period of about two weeks.

The check presented me to-day in full settlement of lost time, also covering cost of operation is very much appreciated, and I can highly recommend the Maryland and yourself for the prompt service rendered.

Very truly yours,
W. E. HOOKER.

SHELMEKDINE ITEMS.

Shelmerdine, N. C. Nov. 3, 1908.

F. G. Whaley returned Monday night accompanied by Miss Julia Phillips, who is the guest of Mrs. O. G. Calhoun.

We were delighted to see Theodore Cox, of Winterville, in Shelmerdine Sunday. It did us good to hear his happy laugh. He was accompanied by Frank Edmondson and they were the guests of Miss Olive Woodard.

W. F. Harrell left Monday for New Bern on important business. Mrs. H. B. Phillips left today for Hertford to visit relatives and friends.

Dr. D. L. James, of Greenville, spent Friday night in Shelmerdine, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cox.

Irving and Lillian Parker, students of W. H. S., of Winterville, came home Friday returning Monday morning.

An automobile party came in Sunday afternoon from Pinetown and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Phillips.

A series of meetings will begin in the Methodist church Sunday and will continue throughout the week.

Richard Laughinghouse, a farmer living near here, died Saturday of appendicitis while being taken to the Washington hospital on a private conveyance. The interment took place Sunday afternoon at the home of G. F. Oakley. Quite a number of people from Shelmerdine attended.

Shelmerdine public school is progressing rapidly and has already quite a large enrollment.

Foiled.

"I have come, sir, to ask you for your daughter's hand," said the young man boldly.

"And suppose I refuse it?" questioned the old man.

"Then, sir," answered the applicant, "we will abide by your decision."

At this the old gentleman started violently.

"You will not elope?" he asked.

"No, sir; we will not. We know too well what is due to us in an affair of this description. Custom puts certain obligations upon you in the way of providing a proper wedding, and if you think you can escape by giving an imitation of the obstinate father act you are mistaken."

"Foiled!" sighed the old man as he thought of the cost of the wedding. "Take her, my boy, and be happy!"

SERVICE IN THE CABINET.

The Custom of Our Presidents in the Republic's Early Days.

If President John Adams had been a man of different temperament the custom might have been established in the early years of the government of the United States of retaining the cabinet of one administration for service with its successor where that successor succeeded to the political ideas of its predecessor. President Adams sought at first to retain through his administration the members of the cabinet of President Washington. Indeed, at that early period the status of a cabinet officer was not exactly that of the present time, and in the course of President Adams' rows with the members of his official household he resorted to the strange step of removing his secretary of state, Timothy Pickens, and James McHenry, his secretary of war.

President Jefferson of course took a new cabinet. President Madison continued in his administration a number of the cabinet officers of President Jefferson, and President Monroe held some of his predecessor's. John Quincy Adams also continued to meet about his council board some of the advisers of James Monroe, but Andrew Jackson began his administration with an entirely new set of official counselors. He maintained also another set of advisers, unofficial, who became known as the "kitchen cabinet."

For some time the gentlemen who had acted respectively as secretary of the treasury, secretary of war, secretary of the navy, postmaster general and attorney general in the cabinet of President Jackson retained their seats under President Van Buren, but changes only awaited the passage of time.

President William Henry Harrison's cabinet was brand new, and John Tyler sought to keep it together after Harrison's death, but in less than six months all had resigned except Daniel Webster, the secretary of state. Presidents Polk, Taylor, Fillmore, Pierce, Buchanan and Lincoln each formed a new cabinet.

President Johnson's difficulties with certain members of the cabinet that existed at the death of President Lincoln are well known. Since that period, when for the second time in American history the question of a cabinet officer's right to retain a seat which the president wishes to have vacated came up for angry controversy, cabinets by mutual but tacit understanding end with the administrations.—Boston Globe.

COMEDY IN CRIME.

The London Urchin With the Bun Down His Back.

It has been a matter so customary to look upon crime as tragedy and criminals as tragedians that to aver that comedy is more frequently to be found in crime than tragedy seems at first view paradoxical. Yet such is the case.

A little London urchin ran into a baker's shop and, placing a halfpenny on the counter, asked nervously and timidly, "Mister, ave you a 'alfpenny buster (bun)?"

"Yes, my little man. Here is one quite hot."

"Thanks, mister. Would you mind a-shovin' it down my back?"

"Down your back, my little man! Why down your back?"

"Cos, sir, I'm only a little un, and if those chaps outside know I've a buster they'll take it, and I am so 'ungry, I am."

"Dear me, how wrong of them! Come round here, my little chap. There—there, it is down your back."

The boy ran off. In an instant another entered—a bigger boy.

"I say, mister, 'as a little boy just been in 'ere?"

"Yes."

"And did 'e buy a 'alfpenny buster?"

"Yes."

"And did 'e arsk you to shove it down 'is back, as us big fellows would take it?"

"Yes."

"Yah! Where's your watch and chain? 'E's got 'em. 'E's just round the corner."

Out rushed the baker. In a trice the big boy collared the till and bolted.

The shopman never saw the comic side of it all.—London Strand Magazine.

A Drink of Water.

A glass of cold water slowly sipped will produce a greater acceleration of the pulse for a time than will a glass of wine or spirits taken at a draft. In this connection it may not be out of place to mention that sipping cold water will often allay the craving for alcohol in those who have been in the habit of taking too much of it and may be endeavoring to reform, the effect being probably due to the stimulant action of the sipping.

An Impertinent Question.

A young man hurriedly entered a restaurant and sat down at the table nearest the kitchen. With shuffling feet the waitress advanced.

"Have you frog legs?" the young man anxiously inquired.

"No, indeed. Rheumatism makes me walk like this," the waitress indignantly replied.—Judge's Library.

Evasive.

The Professor—And how did Phocion shamefully evade his duty? The Freshman (who doesn't know)—I have been taught, sir, never to speak ill of the dead.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Goodness Nosed!

When the clerk informed the customer that the handkerchiefs were $7.50 each the latter remarked: "No, sirree! That's too much money to blow in!"—Judge's Library.

TAFT OUR NEXT PRESIDENT.

Forsythe uncertain, very close. Returns from Buncombe up to 10:30 indicate it goes Democratic by 50, except Crawford for congress from 25 to 50.

Harnett gives 500 Democratic majority close estimate.

Caldwell county very close, will take official count to decide. Pasquotank estimates Democratic 650.

Tyrrell county small Democratic majority.

Orange county indicates Cole Republican, elected treasurer, Sparrow Republican, elected representative. All other county officers Democratic. Full returns not in.

New Hanover county Bryan 1,850 Taft 526.

Columbus Democratic about 700 on State ticket.

Halifax county two thousand Democratic majority.

Durham county, Bryan 1,700 Taft 1,300, Kitchen 1,750, Cox 1,252.

A late telegram from Chairman Eller says the State has gone Democratic by 45,000, and that all Democratic congressmen are elected except possibly in the eighth and tenth districts.

NORTH DAKOTA

Fargo. Returns from four counties over the state give Taft 6,390 Bryan 4,960, with Burks Democrat leading Johnson Republican for governor.

Fargo, Republican State Committee chairman says: North Dakota is for Taft by substantial majority.

OHIO

Cincinnati. 4 precincts out of 4,430 in State, give Taft 339, Bryan 471. The same 1904 gave Roosevelt 413, Parker 308.

Cincinnati. 845 Taft said "It looks like a land slide, I can take a short nap."

OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma City. At 10 o'clock Democratic State Chairman Thomson claims the state for Bryan by forty thousand.

PENNSYLVANIA

Pittsburg. When the polls closed in this city at 7 o'clock, a very heavy vote had been cast. Republican leaders claim plurality at four thousand for Taft in Alleghany county.

Philadelphia. Republican leaders claim Pennsylvania for Taft by more than 300,000 plurality.

RHODE ISLAND

Providence. Returns from two districts in state out of 163 gives Taft 290, Bryan 128, Higgen 1. Same districts in 1904, Roosevelt 193, Parker 121.

SOUTH CAROLINA

It is conceded that Democratic nominees, state and national, have carried South Carolina by fifty to sixty thousand majority. All Democratic congressmen are elected by normal majorities.

TENNESSEE

Nashville. Incomplete returns indicate that Bryan will carry the state by usual Democratic majority. State Democratic ticket also elected.

TEXAS

Dallas. Returns indicate the election of the entire Democratic ticket, both state and national by the usual majorities.

UTAH

Salt Lake city. Chairman Republican committee claims Utah Republican by 25,000.

VERMONT

One hundred and twenty-five towns in Vermont give Taft 26,014, Bryan 7,768.

WASHINGTON

Seattle. Scattering returns from every part of Washington indicate a plurality of at least forty thousand for Taft and the State Republican ticket.

WEST VIRGINIA

Wheeling West Virginia. Republican says "with meagre returns, Taft for president and Glasscock for governor have carried state by 15,000 majority. All five congressman republicans re-elected.

WISCONSIN

Milwaukee. Meagre returns received from different points in Wisconsin up to 7:30 indicate this state is safe for Taft and that Davidson, Republican for governor is running about even with Taft.

Taft's Electoral Vote.

Associated Press bulletin from New York says indications are that the following votes will be cast in the electoral college for Taft: California, 10, Connecticut 7, Delaware 3, Idaho 3, Illinois 27, Indiana 15, Iowa 10, Kansas 10, Maine 6, Massachusetts, 16, Michigan 14, Minnesota 11, New Hampshire 4, New Jersey 12, New York 39, North Dakota 4, Ohio 23, Pennsylvania 34, Rhode Island 4, South Dakota 4, Utah 3, Vermont 4, Washington 5. If the present ratio is maintained Taft will have carried Indiana by 18,000.

A Later Summary.

Indiana gone for Taft: Bryan apparently carried Nebraska. Ohio returns slow coming in owing to immense ballot but Taft carried it by large plurality. Taft may have a majority in the city of New York, the first time the big city has given its vote to a Republican presidential candidate. Taft probably will receive a greater plurality in New York state than Roosevelt did four years ago. He has exceeded Roosevelt's plurality in New Jersey and had a surprisingly big vote in Massachusetts.

Bryan carried Lincoln by six hundred overturning a normal Republican plurality of 1600.

New York Herald bulletin says New England plurality is Maine 35,700, New Hampshire 15,000, Massachusetts 25,000, Vermont 28,000, Rhode Island 10,000, Connecticut 25,000.

General election returns received up to midnight show following results: Taft elected approximately 298 votes, practically no change indicated in the complexion of national house of representatives. The U. S. Senate will retain its present republican majority.

Mr. Bryan Expresses Appreciation.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb.—At 11 p. m. Mr. Bryan sent down the following statement: "It is very gratifying to receive a complimentary vote in my home precinct and in the city of Lincoln. We appreciate very much this expression of good will on the part of our neighbors in the Republican strongholds."

PITT COUNTY ALL RIGHT

Her Majority Will be Fifteen Hundred or More

In Pitt the vote was large and the county done herself proud in a magnificent majority. Complete returns could not be had during the night, but we give enough below to show how the county has gone, there being but little difference in the balance of the ticket from those whose names we publish. In next issue will give more complete figures. From Beaver Dam, Belvoir and Bethel township no returns came.

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Just Like This in Greenville.

Scores of Greenville people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

John G. Latham, 907 Cotanch St., Greenville, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills in my case far surpasses any kidney remedy I had previously used. For some time my kidneys had been in a disordered condition, the secretions being too frequent in action and the passages attended with pain. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills I was so impressed that I procured a box at John L. Wooten's drug store. They went directly to the seat of my trouble and gave me relief in a short time. My kidneys were restored to their normal condition, the secretions gave me no trouble whatever and I felt better in every way. My wife also used Doan's Kidney Pills when suffering from dull nagging backaches accompanied by headaches and the results derived were highly satisfactory."
