WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From Our Hustling Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C., Nov. 21, 1908.

Mrs. T. Proctor, of Grimesland, spent a short while here this week with relatives and friends.

F. A. Edmundson and F. F. Cox went to Greenville Wednesday night to hear the Wake Forest Glee club. They report an excellent entertainment.

There will be Thanksgiving services at the Baptist church Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. A special collection for the Thomasville orphanage will be taken up. Rev. T. H. King will also preach at Hopewell at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and at the Ayden Baptist church at 7 o'clock p. m. and Prof. G. Lineberry will conduct services at Mills' school house at 3 o'clock p. m. The people are cordially invited to attend these services.

W. B. Harper and sister, of Black Jack, spent Thursday night with J. N. Harper, their brother.

J. E. Greene spent Wednesday and Thursday at his old home near Willamston. While away E. H. Small, of Suffolk, held his office down here. Mr. Small returned to Suffolk Friday morning.

Miss Maud Hoiliday, of Jamesville, spent several days here with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ange. She returned home Wednesday.

Miss Esther Johnson went to Ayden Friday.

F. A. Edmundson, O. W. Rollins, C. T. Cox and Doremus McGlohon went to Ayden last night.

Last Wednesday evening at the close of prayer meeting service eight candidates received the ordinance of baptism at the Baptist church.

Mrs. F. C. Nye went to Greenville this morning.

Mrs. Mack Smith of Grimesland is visiting relatives here this week.

Miss Jeannette Cox gave a party last night in honor of the Junior class of Winterville High School.

For Sale—One mule and two horses cheap. Harrington, Barber & Co.

Miss Hattie Kittrell went to Greenville today.

SLIPPED ON THE PAVING.

Best to Drive Carefully on Paved Streets.

Horses will have to be a bit careful how they try to cut didos on our paved streets. One hitched to an unoccupied buggy was running away this morning, and coming down Third street made a turn into Evans street at The Reflector corner and slipped broad side on the paving. It was a sudden take up of the runaway, and the horse seemed to have enough of the fun.

While on this subject we might say that the paved streets tempt some people to speeding when they want to show off a bit, but it is not a safe thing to do without a well shod horse, as now and then one slips down.

BIG TOBACCO DEAL CLOSED.

American Tobacco Company Buys About 80,000,000 Pounds.

Louisville, Nov. 19.—The big deal between the American Tobacco Company and the Burley Tobacco Society for the 1906 and part of the 1907 crops of tobacco, which has been hanging fire for several weeks, was closed here late today. The price agreed on in the transaction, said to be the largest of its kind ever put through, is an average of 20 1-2 cents for the 1906 crop and 17 cents per pound for the 1907 product.

The deal involved nearly 80,000,000 pounds of tobacco held in the pool by the Burley Tobacco Society and an outlay of something like $14,000,000 on the part of the American Tobacco Company.

The tobacco which was sold, included the larger part of the holdings of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association, formed several years ago, which pooled its crops in 1906 and 1907. There was no crop raised by the members of the association in 1908, though a number of independent raised crops in central Kentucky under guard. The sale of the pooled crop, it is believed, will mark the end of night riding in central and eastern Kentucky, as it is thought with these crops out of the way, practically all the growers will raise tobacco next year. The sale has nothing to do with the crops in the dark districts or western portion of Kentucky and northern Tennessee.

Still Wears Long Hair.

Mr. T. L. Chisholm attended court at Lillington the first of the week. While there he had a talk with Mr. Philip McRae, who declared twelve years ago that he would not shave nor have his hair cut until Bryan is elected president. Thus far he has kept his word. He has full beard, and his hair falls down to his shoulders.

He made his peculiar vow when Mr. Bryan was nominated in 1896. After the election he stuck to it. The nomination came to Bryan again in 1900, but the votes in the election were against him. Still Mr. McRae's hair and whiskers grew. Parker was nominated in 1904, and the Harnett man's hair continued to flourish. Hope returned again this year, when such strong predictions were made for Bryan's election. Mr. McRae is still hoping and growing hair. But he is getting a little impatient. In the course of his conversation with Mr. Chisholm he said:

"What in the thunder is the matter with Bryan? Does he expect me to wear long hair and whiskers all my life?"—Lee County Times.

Missionary Convention Officers.

The North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention has just closed an interesting session at Kinston. The following officers were elected for the next year:

J. W. Hines, of Rocky Mount, president.
J. H. S. Hodges, of Ayden, vice-president.
J. R. Rountree, of Kinston, corresponding secretary.
Geo. Hackney, of Wilson, treasurer.
C. M. Morton, of Wilson, recording secretary.

CAUGHT A DESERTER.

Sergeant Pendergrast and Officer Cates Run Across One.

Thomas Lewis, a young Durham soldier who went into the service early in February and was stationed at Fort Miles, Va., was caught here last night by Sergeant J. R. Pendergrast and Officer G. P. Cates.

The young fellow did not like the army life and its lure was a distant enchantment. He broke camp June 10 and has successfully dodged the army officers until this week. Sergeant Pendergrast had a tip several days ago that the boy was wanted and Wednesday night received the papers. Last night he went to his father's home here and found him there.

Young Lewis said he had been unable to stand the life of the soldier and was not strong enough for it. While his offense is regarded as very ignoble even in times of peace, the punishment isn't so drastic and the army court will be merciful to him.—Durham Herald.

Take the Interest the Paper Does.

Did you ever think it? We do not wish to appear gottical, but suppose every business man in the city took as much interest in the upbuilding of a city as the newspaper man. He works for manufactories, better roads, churches, good streets, and a hundred and one things for the general good; he urges, pleads, scolds, badgers and cavorts around generally until he gets what he sets out for. Imagine his feelings, then, when some lame, string halted kind of a fellow reproaches him because he don't boom things enough, and nine out of ten that same fellow has never paid one cent toward supporting the paper, and the paper he reads with marked regularity is either borrowed from his neighbor or picked up from the counter in the store at which he trades.—Mt. Olive Telegram.

Rather Have Better Prices for Cotton.

New York, Nov. 19.—A "Program for the South" will be the general subject of the address at the annual dinner of the North Carolina Society of New York at the Hotel Astor on December 7. William H. Taft will be the principal speaker. Taft's speech will be of particular interest to the people of the South.

MASTERFUL WOMEN RARELY NAG.

Whatever Her Deficiencies, She is Free from This Feminine Deficiency.

Men understand each other, and women understand each other, and the same sexes get on together indefinitely; but those of the opposite sex pull at the reins, fret, break away, become restless and then irritated and irritating, says Anne Rittenhouse, in the December Designer.

The best remedy for discontent and even divorce lies in learning the art of letting each other alone. It is not too strong a statement to say that if young wives had studied the art of letting their husbands alone, there would be fewer divorces. Two personalities need never seriously jar if each gives the other the right of way. A man is far more apt to accord this privilege to a woman than a woman is to a man. The very spirit and temperament which makes her the one in the household to correct children from the cradle up is what dictates this corrective spirit toward her husband.

Strange to say, this is rarely the attitude of a masterly woman. She is apt to think as a man does, and know that each soul in the world is a free agent and has a perfect right to work out his own salvation. She may argue and convince in crises, but she never nags. Usually the woman who would not for the world lift her voice against her husband in matters of moment will be the one who cannot let him alone in small things. She is apt constantly to question his right to carry out trifles in his own way.

It is one of the ironies of life that the woman who cannot, or will not, learn the art of letting a man alone is the one to lose him altogether, or at least to lose his free confidence, his chatty confessions, and his open talk about the details of his life. He retires into himself and gives to her questioning only so much confidence as he chooses. If he is strong enough to insist upon his right of way, he continues to make her miserable until she is either taught the lesson or subdued into indifference.

There is hardly a matter that Greenville could get really interested in to more advantage than water transportation.

In his testimony Mr. Rockefeller is getting in a lot of free advertising for Standard oil. The old man is far from being a fool.

The big railroad systems are helping to bring prosperity by making a 3 per cent. advance in freight rates. Prosperity for themselves, you see.

The Reflector is waiting to issue a call for the women to meet and organize a civic pride club. Just say, the word, ladies, and our columns are at your service.

The fixing and unfixing of the Abruzzi-Elkins marriage comes along about as regularly as do the newspapers. One day it is all arranged and the next day it is not arranged at all.

That is a peculiar state of affairs in Fayetteville. Detectives went there to hunt for blind tigers, and one of the detectives has been arrested for selling liquor himself.

That was a big deal the American Tobacco Company made in paying $14,000,000 for the tobacco stored in Kentucky. It promises to put an end to the "night rider" troubles in that State.

If we don't have but a quarter we are going to be thankful for that much, but will be more thankful if subscribers in arrears will round up a few dollars and roll them our way by Thanksgiving day.

The Johnson county citizen who offered to be one of two hundred to subscribe $50 a year each to keep the Greensboro Industrial News going, is on the right line. That is the kind of interest that helps a newspaper to be of good service to the people it serves.

In the last election Republicans elected three congressmen in North Carolina, and the information is sent out from Greensboro that there will likely be a contest for the fourth. J. A. Smith, who ran against Congressman Webb in the ninth, is claiming that he was cheated out of it.

Ex-Judge Montgomery has entered suit against the Raleigh News and Observer for $50,000 for publishing the letter which Thomas Dixon, Jr., wrote about him. If the Judge could recover the sums asked for out of both Mr. Dixon and the News and Observer, he would have enough to get along on for awhile. But he will hardly do it.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other disease put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and there fore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. ## THE MATTER OF THE PRIMARY.

The Newton Enterprise, discussing the announcement that State Chairman Eller will soon appoint a committee of five members of the State executive committee to formulate changes in the Democratic plan of organization to be submitted later to the full committee, says, with its accustomed good sense:

"The aim should be to minimize and not to accentuate the importance of the primaries. If we could get rid of the voting between Democrats and Democrats altogether and get back to the old system of appointing uninstructed delegates to the State convention, it would be better for the party. The arraying of Democrats against Democrats at the ballot box makes breaches in the party that cannot be bridged over before the election and have served as prolific recruiting stations for the Republican party.

"But if the committee decides to retain the primary elections in any form, let the people now resolve, while the incidents of of the last one are fresh in their minds and while there are no candidates in sight to whom any personal application can be made, that they will not stand another speaking campaign by candidates for Governor, Senator or any other important office or headquarters from which money is distributed and active work is carried on to boost one man and assassinate another. The next man who undertakes to inaugurate this system and force his rivals to follow suit, should be ostracized and excommunicated."

The mail which brought The Enterprise brought also the Rutherfordton Sun, a paper of equal intelligence, which says the same thing on the same subject and says it well. Thus:

"The Sun [referring to another matter] believes this to be true; and one of these sources of weakness which it may safely point out now while other sources are held for future demonstration, is the adoption for the last four years of the party primary. Its effect upon party organization is demoralizing and we had almost said pernicious. Employing against party friends methods of electioneering that would not be honorable even if employed against party enemies, can result only in destroying party enthusiasm if not endangering party loyalty. The intention of the party primary may be all right; but so far as expediency and practice go, it is usually associated with much that is wrong. The old precinct meetings and county conventions may have been open to abuses and perhaps were so; but they did not furnish one opportunity for machine manipulation where the primary furnishes a score. Nor did they generate party feuds and fraternal strife, to be fostered and fed until they become destructive all through the campaign of that free spirit of liberty and loyalty without which no party contest can be won. Honor and honesty, truth and justice, are cardinal virtues; and so long as they are embazoned upon our party standards may we go forth confidently to battle. But we cannot employ against a party brother any narrow, under-hand method of party competition, and then in the end expect him to prove himself a saint where we have have been a sinner."

If the Democratic party of North Carolina does not realize the truth of these sayings without argument, then argument would be useless. It may, however, be added that in remembrance of the character of the ante-primary campaign preceding the State convention in June of this year, it is amazing that the party made in the recent election as good a showing as it did, and that it cannot safely take the chances on another such exhibition. The fidelity of the minority in the party under the circumstances inspires new confidence in the good faith of humanity, but there is a point beyond which, under frequent tests, it will not endure.—Charlotte Observer.

Pretty Girl Hobo.

Statesville, N. C., Nov. 20.—A girl hobo dressed in men's overalls, passed through Statesville yesterday morning in an empty box car of a west bound freight train. The train remained here a few minutes and the young woman got out of the car and walked about the station. A man who conversed with her said she was a very pretty girl and stated that she and a male companion who was secreted in another car, were beating their way from Baltimore to Florida. She wore pants for the advantage of them over dresses in swinging trains, and to disguise herself as a man.

Confusion of Languages in India.

Consul-General William H. Michael, of Calcutta, reports that India has about 150 different languages, most of them unwritten, and it not unfrequently happens that Indians drift into Calcutta who can find no one able to understand their vernacular. Not a little trouble is caused by such visitors. The courts, too, frequently have trouble with litigants and witnesses who talk a language that neither the court nor the court interpreters understand.

FOR RENT—New sixroom cottage near residence of E. B. Higgs. Also seven room house formerly occupied by E. B. Higgs, beautiful oak grove. Higgs Brothers. eod. in d 4wks.

Great Land Sale

On the first Monday in December and on Tuesday after I will sell, strictly under the hammer, at the court house door in Greenville, more than a dozen small farms. Some for cash, but most of them on long time, with a payment of only one-fourth cash. Remember the dates—December 7th and 8th, 1906.

Have also some for sale privately on long time between now and above date. These lands are all within from one to five miles of the town of Greenville, and in the best neighborhoods to live to be found anywhere, and are among the best agricultural lands in Pitt county.

This is a great opportunity for young men and others wishing to begin life on the farm.

The splendid Training School will open in Greenville next fall and then you'll want to be convenient to it. You had better buy now while you have the opportunity.

Plots and other information can be had at my office. See also my other notices in The Reflector. dwtf J. L. FLEMING, Attorney.
