SUGGESTED AMENDMENTS.

Grimesland, N. C., Jan 20 '09.
Editor Reflector:

You will please permit me, through the columns of your paper, to make some suggestion to our members of the legislature in regard to certain items of public interest.

We need an amendment or addition to our insurance laws which will require every holder of a fire insurance policy in incorporated town to register a synopsis of the policy with the commissioners of said town, and every holder of a policy in country districts to register a synopsis of policy with the county commission of the county in which the insured property may be.

The synopsis should state

1. Owner of property insured.
2. Name and address of the company.
3. Amount of concurrent insurance.
4. Amount of policy and number of same.
5. Date of issue and expiration.
6. Name of soliciting agent.

Failure to register should render the policy void.

It would require very little labor and time to record this much of a policy. The county commissioners could supply record book made in blank form, and any officer could make this short record for fifteen cents, and he glad to do it.

Where property owners have property contiguous it is nothing but fair that one property owner should always know how much insurance his neighbor carries, and if any person really desired fire insurance he would not mind paying a small fee to have synopsis of policy recorded, and made a matter of public record.

There should be another amendment to our insurance laws requiring insurance companies to pay the full amount of the policy in case of fire loss, and not be allowed to dodge behind the three-fourth value clause, after having taken premium year after year on a fictitious or exaggerated value of the property.

The insurance company should be made to properly value the property to be insured before issuing the policy and then, in case of loss, to pay the full amount for which premium had been paid and accepted. The burden of proof of value of the property should be placed upon the company before the issue of policy, and this will make insurance agents more careful in estimating property values.

Dr. C. M. Jones.

Large Crowd Last Night.

"The Parish Priest" was played by the Demorest Comedy Co., Thursday night, to almost another capacity house. The actors all seemed at their best and this was pronounced the best production of the week so far.

The bill for tonight is "Ku Klux Klan." Saturday afternoon there will be a matinee with "Peck's Bad Boy."

The live baby will be given away Saturday night, and there is much interest in who will get it.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., Jan. 22, 1909.

Yesterday there were three young ladies in town from the country trading and they traded, too. If any one doubts it let them ask Heber Hart he knows. They were all about the same size, dressed exactly alike and so attractive were they the boys called them the three pretty little Brownies and they were pretty too.

Thursday just before noon the little 3 year old son of Mr. Daugherty, who lives on Lee street went up stairs and getting hold of some matches began striking them, with the result his dress caught fire and soon he was a seething mass of flames. The dress soon burned off and so badly was the little one injured that great pieces of skin and flesh peeled from the body, hands and face. The child lived only a short while. Those who saw it tell us it was the most pitiful, as well as horrible, sight they ever beheld. Yet we know some parents to teach their children how to strike matches. This should be a lesson.

Mrs. Tod R. Allen left Tuesday evening for Indianapolis, Ind., where she will enter a hospital for treatment.

O. W. Harrington, of Greenville, has been here during the week.

M. M. Sauls, Mrs. Sauls, Miss Myrtle Burrus and little Miss Burrus Sauls all went to Greenville Tuesday on a pleasure trip. They took in the town and speak highly of the training school buildings especially.

Theodore Cox, of Winterville, was in Ayden Thursday.

Mrs. R. H. Garris, from the country, came yesterday to see his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Hooks, who is quite sick.

Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. R. Sugg, two miles from town, Mr. Burwell Skinner and Miss Pearl Sugg were united in marriage. Mr. Skinner is constable of Contentnea township and is a very excellent young man. We extend congratulations.

Express Companies Must Publish Rates.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Regulations were issued yesterday by the interstate commerce commission in modification of the requirements of the act to regulate commerce with respect to express companies. The companies are given the option of complying strictly with the law or accepting the modifications suggested by the commission.

The regulations, in brief, require the companies to afford to express shippers every reasonable opportunity to know what the tariffs are and to give them facilities, through posting tariffs in the stations and the supplying of files of tariffs by agents, that will enable the shippers to know in advance just what any offered shipment may cost. These files must be accessible at all times to shippers, so that no misunderstanding may arise over the tariffs. By the terms of the order compliance is required not later than July 1, 1909.

A similar order affecting the Pullman company and other sleeping car companies also was issued by the commission.

A dog was run over on the street Thursday afternoon and raised a howl that was heard for blocks away.

REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

Recommends Removal of County Home and Enlargement of Court House.

The grand jury for January term of Pitt Superior court completed its work Thursday afternoon, and was discharged with the thanks of the court. In its final report to the court the grand jury made several important recommendations. The report is as follows:

County home—Committee finds that the home is in a very satisfactory condition, but it is our opinion it would be much better to have this home nearer the town of Greenville.

We find the jail in a good condition considering the number of prisoners in there.

The Court House—We find the various offices and records well cared for, considering very small rooms. We suggest that the court house be enlarged so as to give more room below and above, and that the extension be on the west end. We further suggest that the toilet room now under construction and attached to the court house, be built two stories. It would be more convenient for the court and attendants during the sessions of court. We also recommend that the clerk be furnished with a book case.

The Convict Camp—We find this in good condition, the prisoners well taken care of. The sand-clay road now being built we are very much pleased with and expect to see it a success.

The Greenville graded school we find well arranged for convenience and satisfactory in every department. We recommend some change be made in the Farmville graded school for fire protection.

Our visit to the East Carolina Training school, we find so far as the buildings have progressed they are large, commodious and handsome, and when completed will be not only on a credit to Pitt county but to the entire State.

W. S. Atkins, Foreman.

SUPERIOR COURT.

January Term in Session—The Cases Disposed of.

The following cases have been disposed of:

Jim Holloway and Fred Washington, larceny, mistrial.

Arnold Mills, Jr., and Fannie Hardee, carrying concealed weapon and assault with deadly weapon, Mills not guilty of carrying concealed weapon but guilty of simple assault, Hardee guilty of assault with deadly weapon, judgment suspended, each defendant to pay half the cost.

Nelson Hopkins and Matilda Loftin, fornication, not guilty.

Mrs. Cotten Addresses Woman's Club.

Yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Child Study department of the Woman's Club, Mrs. R. R. Cotten addressed a large audience in the club building on Salisbury street, her subject being the Stonewall Jackson Training School. This institution, recently established by the State, is located near Concord. In her address, Mrs. Cotten urged that the people contribute to its support, thus aiding in the good work of rescuing the criminal youth of the State, turning them aside from the error of their ways, and making good, law-abiding citizens of them.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Farm work can move right along in such weather as this.

THE LEGISLATURE.

What Our Law Makers Are Doing at Raleigh.

FOURTEENTH DAY, SENATE.

These were among the new bills introduced:

Manning: An act relating to more efficient municipal government. The bill related to Raleigh and is the matter over which there has recently been such a stir between the officials and good government association of that city.

Bassett: An act to protect the earnings of railway employees and give them the benefit of the homestead and personal property exemption laws.

Long: An act relative to the issuance of franks by telephone and telegraph companies.

HOUSE.

Among the new bills in this branch were:

Fordan: To create a library commission.

Butler: To make the limit two years for action against telegraph companies.

Graham: To repeal section of divorce law; also to expedite trial of capital offenses.

The divorce matter brought out another discussion and was finally referred to committee.

At night in the hall of the house exercises in celebration of Lee's birthday were held under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Monday morning as Mr. Frank L. Carr and wife were on their way to Snow Hill, just south of Lizzie, while traveling along the road his valuable drive horse dropped dead in the road. There appears to have been no indication that anything was the matter with the horse, nothing was suspected until it dropped in the harness dead. Heart disease is supposed to have been the trouble.—Snow Hill Laconic.

The Truth.

The only honorable and honest way to stop a newspaper is to step into the office and pay up all arrearage, get a receipt and have your name off the list. To fire your paper back at the publisher marked "refused" when you owe six months or a year, and never go near the office is not only disreputable, but superlatively dishonest as well.—Mt. Olive Tribune.

The bigger the salary the better the president will feel.

The California-Japanese situation is no doubt giving Mr. Hobson much satisfaction.

Those who were saying the legislature was not going to have anything to do, are beginning to rub their eyes.

In a letter published elsewhere Dr. C. M. Jones throws out some suggestions as to amending the insurance laws that the legislature might well take cognizance of.

We have received a copy of "Observerette," a neat little paper gotten out by the mechanical force connected with the Charlotte Observer. It is certainly an interesting little sheet, and while it is to be published only occasionally, in other words when the boys feel like it, we would be glad to see it often. There are a lot of bright folks connected with the Observer office.

Not long since the Board of Aldermen of Greenville sent several hundred copies of the recent trade edition of The Reflector to persons in other States with a view of interesting them in this section. As a result of this letters of inquiry are coming in and the outlook is that several new settlers are likely to be secured. Towns, as well as individuals, are always benefitted by judicious advertising and money spent to that end is a good investment.

A Beautiful Custom.

We notice that the inhabitants of Messina, who were on the streets when the funeral cortege accompanying the bodies of the American minister and his wife, which have recently been rescued from the ruins of the American legation building, after lying there buried for eighteen days, stopped and took off their hats and stood uncovered until the procession passed. This was no doubt prompted by a spontaneous respect for our government, which has with a spirit of Christian charity responded so quickly, so liberally and so nobly to the great needs of the stricken district.

The people of Paris always stop and stand on the streets with heads uncovered while a funeral procession is passing. Is it not an act of great significance as well as respect for the dead, and sympathy for the living who are bereaved? Would it not be a beautiful custom for a nation that boasts of its Christian civilization, to observe on all occasions, in these days of godless greed and materialistic madness, without regard to the dignity, achievements or position of the deceased?—Greensboro Record.

The Biblical Recorder says that only 90 Baptist churches in North Carolina have preaching every Sunday and only 87 have preaching as often as twice a month. The remainder, it is supposed, drop to once a month and less. This is surprising, in view of the fact that the Baptist is by far the strongest denomination in the State, although it is doubtless partially explained by the fact that the greatest strength of the denomination is in the rural districts. It is doubtless true, however, that the other denominations in the State are, in proportion to their numbers, as short on regular preaching service as the Baptist; in some instances probably more so. All of which suggests that there is a vast field in North Carolina for preachers who can create an interest in church membership and strengthen individual churches so that a regular pastor can be supported at more of them.—Statesville Landmark.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

If there ever was a plainer case of robbery by a government than the annexation of Hawaii and the confiscation of the property of its queen it is not recorded in history, ancient or modern. She should have been recompensed long ago, either by appropriation out of our national treasury or by the Hawaiians through a special tax for the purpose. The islands were an important acquisition and one that the United States could have well offered to pay liberally for. Leaving out entirely the question of justice our government ought to have been willing to pay value for what she got from the person despoiled.—Wilmington Star.

The first Presbyterian church of Greensboro has made an innovation in church work by abolishing the evening service and holding a Sunday school in the afternoon. There will doubtless be some objection to the abolition of the evening service, but it is more than probable that if Sunday schools were held in the afternoon in all towns they would be more largely attended and better work would be done. The brief time given to Sunday school before the morning service is too short for good work and it requires an effort for pupils and teachers to get there in time.—Statesville Landmark.

A MAN OF ACTION.

He Got Out of His Tight Corner With Flying Colors.

He was a husband who, when he left home for a week or so on a business trip, invariably took with him a photo of his wife, and in the letters that he wrote to her he always made a great point of this portrait and dwelt upon the fact that the sight of it was the only thing that kept his spirits up when he was far away from her.

One day, however, he left the home and forgot to take the portrait with him. But he was not going to let a little thing like that worry him.

Down he sat and penned his customary amorous epistle, in which the portrait played its usual part. It was not until the letter was posted that he remembered that the portrait had been left at home in a conspicuous place where his wife could not fail to discover it.

The fat was indeed in the fire, but he was a man of action and determined to get out of his tight corner somehow. He remembered the shop where the photo had been taken and promptly wired there for another copy, which he had put into a beautiful frame especially adapted for traveling.

On his return home his wife "handed out the freezing mixture" to begin with and then dissolved in unquenchable tears. When under cross examination she admitted that the cause of her grief was his cruel deception, he produced the newly acquired photo and then asked her, in a hurt voice, how she could possibly have suspected him of working off mere tarradiddle on his little wife.—New York Mail.

The Eternal Feminine.

A photographer was called upon not long ago to make some pictures of an old lady of seventy years or so, but of surprising agility and quickness of perception. The picture man was, therefore somewhat surprised to find that no words of address could induce the old lady to speak until after the operation was completed. Then she put her fingers into her mouth, whence she withdrew several wads of paper.

"You wouldn't have me photographed with my cheeks falling in, would you?" she asked the photographer. "I just stuffed some paper in my mouth to fill out."—Harper's Weekly.

Suspicious.

The person who, on examining a homemade henhouse, remarked that "it looked as if some fellow had built it himself" has a kindred spirit in a delightfully simple old lady, noted for her naive comments. In a street car not long ago she noticed a man carrying a shotgun and a blanket roll.

"Look at him," she whispered to her companion. "He looks as if he were going to spend the night somewhere."—Youth's Companion.

Warned in a Dream.

On the occasion of a fatal accident to a lift in a Paris hotel some years ago a lady who was just going up in it started back, saying, "Oh, there is that dreadful man again!" and tried to induce her husband to come off it, too, but he refused and was among the killed. The "dreadful man" to whom she referred she had seen in a dream, which the niece of the friend who told me the story had heard her relate a day or two before the accident. It was of a funeral drawn up at her door, so pompous as to produce a great impression on her, presided over by a big dark man in a strange sombrero hat. This man she saw, or believed she saw, in the lift, and the coincidence terrified her from going up in it.—London Notes and Queries.

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness Profit by Greenville People's Experience.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are common early symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect this ill. The attacks may pass off for a time but return with greater intensity. If there are symptoms of dropsy—puffy swellings below the eyes, bloating of limbs and ankles, or any part of the body, don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up the treatment until the kidneys are well, when your old time health and vigor will return. Cures in Greenville prove the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

Mrs. J. F. Stokes, Cor. Twelfth and Evans Sts., Greenville, N. C., says: "For some time I suffered severely from kidney complaint. The kidneys were very irregular in action and at times caused me great annoyance. I had bearing down pains through my abdomen and sharp shooting twinges through my loins causing me untold misery. There was a tender spot across my kidney regions and at times my limbs pained intensely. I finally read of Doan's Kidney pills and was so much impressed that I procured them at Wooten's drug store. They soon relieved the pains in my sides and limbs, restored the secretions to a regular and normal condition and at present I am feeling a great deal better in every way. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for the great improvement in my condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
