WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From Our Hustling Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C., Jan. 30, 1909.

Miss Annie Carroll in another part of the county came in last night to spend Sunday with her parents near here.

Winterville High School has been exceedingly fortunate this week in having several distinguished visitors to make short addresses at the opening exercises as follows: Rev. Mr. Bridges, of Ayden, Monday morning; Rev. B. F. Huske, of Greenville, Wednesday morning; Rev. Mr. Buskey, of Goldsboro, Thursday morning and Rev. Mr. Skinner, of Beaufort, Friday morning. The short addresses were excellent and we feel that they will accomplish much good.

The convocation of the New Bern district convened at the Episcopal church here beginning Tuesday night. Each was well attended. Quite a number of visitors from the several churches of the district attended.

The visiting ministers were as follows: Rev. B. F. Huske, of Greenville; Rev. J. H. Griffith, of Kinston; Rev. F. N. Skinner, of Beaufort; Rev. Mr. Buskey, of Goldsboro; Dr. Meade, of Kinston; Rev. Mr. Ticknor, of Aurora; and Rev. J. H. Browne, of New Bern. Surely it has been a great spiritual feast to our people to have this meeting in our town. The sermons at each service were strong and greatly enjoyed by our people. We are informed that the next convocation will convene with the church at Snow Hill April 20, 1909.

Edward Early, of Aulander, came in last night to enter Winterville High school.

Mrs. O. H. Jackson left this morning for Cary.

Miss Julia Salisbury, of Hassell, came in last night to visit her sister, Miss Laura, at the girls' dormitory.

BOY'S BRAIN PERFORATED.

Son of Rev. J. N. H. Summerell Accidentally Killed.

New Bern, N. C., Jan. 29.—Howard, the fifteen-year-old son of Rev. J. N. H. Summerell, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, met with a distressing death today.

He went hunting early this morning, and when he had not returned at the time appointed, his parents became alarmed. Enquiries in the vicinity of his journey resulted in the information that he had not been seen. Fearing that he had wandered into some of the thick undergrowth of the swamp and became mired or wounded, a party of citizens went in search of the boy, and the dead body was found in the marsh near the county home, five miles from New Bern.

The gun had discharged its load which lodged under the boy's jaw, and his brain was perforated with the shot. The trigger had evidently caught on a brier in the undergrowth and caused the discharge.

This is sad news to the many friends of Rev. Mr. Summerell in Greenville and Pitt county, and their heartfelt sympathy goes out to him in this great sorrow.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Jarvis Memorial church will meet Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. H. D. Bateman.

WHEN BABY IS A YEAR OLD.

Diet That Will be Beneficial to Young Children.

By the time a baby is a year old its diet should begin to include scraped meat and fruit juices and the whites of eggs, says Dr. Leonard Keene Hirshberg in the February Delineator. Begin with a wine glass of chicken broth or bouillon, fed from a spoon, and as these things are increased, gradually decrease the amount of bottle food. Soon after it turns its first year the child should learn to drink from a small cup. After that its meals may be reduced to five a day, with an occasional drink of orange juice and plenty of water in the intervals.

The first meal, on awaking in the morning, had better have modified milk as its chief constituent, with half as much infant food or strained oatmeal added. The second meal, in the middle of the morning, may be a repetition of the first. Early in the afternoon a gill or so of chicken broth, or half as much beef juice, may be given, and this may be varied, every few days, with the white of an egg boiled, say, for one minute. The two remaining meals had better have milk as their mainstay. After a month or so of such diet, if the baby is in good health, its mid-morning meal may begin to include dry toast, zwieback, thin oatmeal and other cereals, and its afternoon dinner may include a whole egg, soft-boiled or poached, and a teaspoonful of finely chopped raw beef. Fruits should be given freely, but it is always best to have them well cooked.

How Grandpa Had Grown.

Little Agnes, aged six, and her sister, two years older, were contending as to which of their two grandpas was the taller. Agnes declared that Grandpa R. was the taller, and her sister was quite positive the Grandpa F. had the greater height. Finally little Agnes decided the difference by remarking very emphatically, "Well, you may think as please, but I know that Grandpa R. is taller, for he has grown clear through his hair, and Grandpa F. has not."

(The top of Grandpa R.'s head was entirely bald.)—The February Delineator.

This is a Square Deal.

From what we can see we don't believe there is a town in North Carolina with a more flattering prospect before it than Greenville. The city is not dreaming but is awake and going ahead. Its merchants are alive, the place looks lively and is lively, the people take pride in their town and it's going ahead and will continue to do so as the people of Greenville are broad minded, liberal, industrious, full of vim and all that it takes to make a great city.—Snow Hill Square Deal.

A Monroe Man With a Record.

Mr. M. F. Boyte, of Monroe, who is 72 years old, and never too a drop of doctor's medicine in his life, and never expects to," has 97 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, and among all of his descendants there have never been but four deaths. One son, Mr. H. W. Boyte, who lives in Moore county, has nine in family, and their total weights are 1,688 pounds.—The Journal.

THE LEGISLATURE.

What Our Law Makers Are Doing at Raleigh.

TWENTY FIRST DAY, SENATE.

Among the new bills were these: An act relating to certain nuisances in public conveyances; relating to the disability of Confederate soldiers; an act providing for a constitutional amendment to abolish the office of solicitor and create the office of county attorney; an act to require boards of education to purchase Ashe's history of North Carolina for rural school libraries.

There were several new bills, and a number of former bills passed second and third readings.

HOUSE

Among the new bills were these: To safeguard the health of prisoners; to create a system of recorders' courts; to protect employees of railroads against accident; to protect married women; as to year's support of a family; as to physician's license.

A number of former bills passed second and third readings.

Musical Club.

Reported for Reflector.

The Musical Club had a most enjoyable afternoon Friday with Mrs. Carper. In spite of the inclement weather all the members were present but two.

The president called the meeting to order, and a great deal of business transacted. As the object of this club is self culture, a plan of study was decided upon. A committee was appointed to prepare a set program for six months' study on the composers, their life and their works. Lest these become tiresome we vary the work by national and international programs.

After the business, a short program was rendered as follows: Instrumental duet—Mrs. Carper and Miss Forbes.

Reading Mrs. Travis Hooker. Vocal duet—Mrs. Hall and Miss Forbes.

Vocal solo—Mrs. Frank Brown.

A guessing contest of the faces of composers was given. Mrs. Travis Hooker guessing correctly won the prize, which she presented to Mrs. Brown, the guest of honor.

Dainty refreshments were served and we adjourned to meet with Miss Helen Forbes Feb. 12.

Engagement Closes Tonight.

The Dora Mystic Lindley Co. had a larger audience in the opera house Friday night to witness "In Ole Virginny." The company will close its engagement here tonight when the bill will be "The Moonshiner's Daughter" and not "Woman Against Woman" as first announced. You will enjoy this play.

INDUSTRIAL NEWS SUSPENDED.

'Shop' Closed by Order of Judge Boyd.

Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 29.—Judge Boyd this afternoon ordered Receiver W. I. Underwood to discontinue publication of the Industrial News, the organ of the Republican organization in the State, and to advertise again for sealed bids to be opened in fifteen days for the sale of the plant. E. C. Duncan's bid was the only one offered at the sale today and Judge Boyd refused to confirm it.

There will be no issue of the Industrial News tomorrow morning. The building is dark tonight and the staff and mechanical force have scattered, seeking employment elsewhere.

Earthquake in Spain.

London, Jan. 30.—A special dispatch received here from San Sebastian, Spain, says that a terrible earthquake has devastated several towns and villages in South and Southeastern Spain.

A tidal wave submerged the coast near Barcelona and a great landslide at Ceuta buried the village of Rakanar and several hundred inhabitants.

News from Malaga says that many houses were damaged in the town of Totania and several villages in the province of Murcia.

A dispatch from Tarrassa says that Barcelona had been overwhelmed by a tidal wave. The loss of life is unknown.

Subterranean roaring preceded the tidal wave, causing a fearful panic among the people on the promenades and in the buildings of the city.

Chafing Dish Party.

On Friday evening at their home on Dickinson avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson gave a chafing dish party in honor of the birthday of their sister Miss Nan Lou Waldrop. It was very pleasant occasion for all present, and there was much enjoyment of dainties from the chafing dish. At a later hour ice cream and cake were served.

Those present were Miss Nan Lou Waldrop with Harry Skinner, Jr., Miss Helen Forbes with Cary Warren, Miss Nell Skinner with A. M. Moseley, Miss Alice Blow with Andrew Moore, Miss Glenn Forbes with Will Best, Miss Delzelle Woodward with Burney Warren, Miss Lot Skinner with Walter Wilson, Jr., Miss Bettie Tyson with Tom Hooker, Miss Irma Cobb with Frank Wilson.

Sounds Good.

This from the Durham Sun, sounds excellent. If the Sun knows this to be true from practical experience, it is certainly in a class higher up than most of us: If you want to go to Joyville take the Smiling high road pass Gladsome creek. Keep to right all the way. If you meet a poor woman with a basket, carry it for her. When you meet a man, say "Howdy!" If it rains croon a song. If you are cold, run a little and think about something that will make your heart glow. If the way is long, recall how you trudged every Sunday night to your best girl's house and never got tired. If a dog barks at you, don't throw a stone at him. Soap your fingers and say, "good doggie!" If you feel like crying, laugh instead. If you do all this, you'll get to Joyville, all right—and it's about the only way you ever will get there."

Before President-elect Taft is inaugurated, some of them are talking about who will be the Republican candidate to succeed him. Starting pretty early.

Statistics say that there are 10,572 births a month in New York. That is growing some, even if the city had no other channels of increase in population.

In some instances an increase of salary would be in keeping with the importance of the office, but if the legislature fails to make the increase the occupants of those offices need not be over-disappointed, as they sought the position with a full knowledge of what the salary was.

If the bill introduced Friday in the legislature to abolish the office of solicitor and create the office of county attorney should become a law, the county attorneys to be elected by the commissioners in each county, there would be something like a scramble when the time for such election came.

The people who have grievances should now come forward and have the legislature to pass a bill in their behalf. From the present outlook there will be ten thousand and one bills presented affecting everything from a squirrel law to a divorce law. It seems that there are a million little things to take up as the days go by and the real things that would benefit the State are being left in the rear and it will remain for some future generation to do something.—Raleigh Times.

No Display for Joe Brown

Governor-elect Brown, of Georgia, is going to return to the Jeffersonian simplicity in his inauguration. He is going to have no "fuss and feathers" performances over his going into office. The Georgia militia colonels and other staff officers with their gold lace and brass buttons will be conspicuous by their absence. He says he is going to Atlanta on inauguration day in the way he has always gone when business called him there; that if the weather is good he will walk to the capitol; otherwise he will ride in a street car. Reaching the executive offices he will subscribe to the oath of office and "start being the governor of Georgia." We like that kind of talk, and we hope Governor Brown will stick to his present resolution. We like the man who has the independence to pursue such a

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Value of the Sabbath.

Sabbath observance is, in itself, of inestimable value. It is also a sign unmistakable, indicating that the life of those who keep the Sabbath is undergirded by strong moral principle, and that they keep other things as well. The individual who consciously regards this sacred day will be found to be characterized by reverence for God, benevolence toward man, righteousness of life, aspiring in conduct, chaste in conversation, and noble in character. On the other hand, those who keep no Sabbath are lacking in clean moral convictions about other things, and are only negative at best concerning life's moral issues.—Charles C. Earle.

We Second the Nomination.

Just as soon as some member of congress gets up and shows the magnitude of Uncle Sam's deficit, another gets up and introduces a bill to spend a few millions more than we have been getting away with. If it can't be done any other way raise salaries. By the way, Representative Gordon, of this county, should be in congress. He would "shave" things all right if he could have his way.—Greensboro Record.

If there is one thing in which churches, as a rule, need to be more careful it is the matter of preacher's salaries. With an indifference and an insensibility which we cannot understand, many churches seem to think that a contract between themselves and the minister is no contract at all. They promise him a definite salary then pay him whatever is convenient. The gas man, the coal man and even the sexton must be paid, but the debt owing the minister is looked upon as altogether righteous and proper.—Ex.

The regular retail price of these tires is $5.50 per pair, but to introduce we will give you a sample pair for $4.00 cash with order $1.50.

NO MORE TROUBLE FROM PUNCTURES

NAILS, Tacks or Glass will not let the air out. Sixty thousand pairs sold last year. Over two hundred thousand pairs now in use.

DECEPTIVE! Made in all sizes. It is lively and easy to ride, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which does up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of this specially prepared fabric on the tread. The retail price of these tires is $5.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.00 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C. O. D. on approval. You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented. We will allow a cash discount of 5 per cent (thereby making the price $3.80 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated brass hand pump. Tires to be returned at OUR expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination. We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is safe in a bank. If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look finer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer. Don't buy any kind at any price until you send for a pair of the special introductory price quoted above; or write for our big Tire and Sundry Catalogue which describes and quotes all makes and kinds of tires at about half the usual prices. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING a pair of tires until you have seen our catalogues. DO NOT WAIT or a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and better way to ride. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write it NOW.

Do You Want to Help
Boom This Town?

If you do, you'll assist the editors in advertising the place.
If you do, you'll patronize home industries, including the printer.
If you do, you'll subscribe for this paper regularly and advertise in it.
But—
If you don't, you'll sneer at our efforts for town improvement.
If you don't, you'll order your job printing from some outsider.
If you don't, you'll borrow your neighbor's copy of the paper to read.
DO YOU OR DON'T YOU?

A BUDDING GENIUS.

Ambitions and Hard Work of the Boy Saint Gaudens.

Immediately on being apprenticed to Avet I applied for admission to the drawing school of the Cooper institute, and every evening after my return from work at 6 o'clock and a hasty tea I went down there, where my artistic education began.

I can recall there the kindly impression produced on me by Abram S. Hewitt as he glanced at me during some function. Father at that time was making shoes for the Cooper family, and I suppose that that is why he looked at me. The feeling of profound gratitude for the help which I have had from that institution abides with me to this day.

It was during the next two or three years that my first aspirations and ambitions made themselves felt. I became a terrific worker, toiling every night until 11 o'clock after the Cooper institute was over, in the conviction that in me another heaven born genius had been given to the world.

I can recall thinking in public conveyances that if the men standing on the platform around me could realize how great a genius was rubbing elbows with them in the quiet looking boy by their side they would be profoundly impressed. As a result, I was so exhausted by the confining work of cameo cutting by day and by drawing at night that in the morning I was literally dragged out of bed by mother, pushed over to the washstand, where I gave myself a cat's lick somehow or other, driven to the seat at the table, administered my breakfast, which consisted of tea and large quantities of the long French loaves of bread with butter, and tumbled downstairs, out into the street, where I awoke.—"Reminiscences of Augustus Saint Gaudens" in Century.

The Old Constitution.

The Constitution originally carried forty-four guns. A particularly interesting history is connected with this ship. During the war with the Barbary powers in 1803 she was Commodore Preble's flagship in the Mediterranean and played a conspicuous part during the whole war. Lieutenant Wadsworth, who was blown up before Tripoli in the ill fated Intrepid, was one of the officers of the Constitution. In the course of the war with England in 1812 the English papers laughed at the Constitution and spoke of her as "a bundle of pine boards sailing under a bit of striped bunting." But when under Captain Hull she captured the English frigate Guerriere, a vessel of nearly equal force, the people who had before ridiculed her called her "one of the stanchest vessels afloat." A few months after this victory the Constitution, then commanded by Captain Bainbridge, compelled one of the finest frigates in the British navy, the Java, to strike its colors.

Glass Polishing.

Glass grinding is effected by the use of emery powder of various degrees of fineness. But it has been shown that this grinding cannot be carried beyond a certain point, however fine a powder may be used. In fact, a continuation of it undoes the work and breaks the surface up again. The most finely ground plate, if largely magnified, is shown to be covered with tiny bits which no grinding will remove. The work is therefore continued with rouge carried on a pad of resin, which gradually smooths down the elevations between the pits. Hydrofluoric acid gas corrodes glass very rapidly, but a weak solution of it melts away the roughened surface and leaves a fine polish underneath. This method is used where very fine adjustments of the surface are required—as, for instance, in lenses for telescopes and microscopes.

Nature is lavish in the production of everything but great men.—Hubbard.

Time, Not Space.

Mrs. Frink was a trusting soul and rarely questioned the opinions of others about matters concerning which they were supposed to be informed. One day she came home with a new pair of shoes under her arm. "Got them at Bride's," she explained, "and they're the best I ever bought you."

"What is so very good about them?" inquired her son, for whom the shoes were intended.

"Why, the salesman said that you could walk farther in them than in any others without getting tired, and I said that you couldn't walk very far just now on account of your knee, you know, and he said that he meant farther for the same distance. So I bought them, and here they are. Save the string, please."

She did not notice the smile on her son's face as he undid the package, and he was spared the trouble of explaining.—Youth's Companion.

Buttermilk a Life Saver.

A French medical man advises people to drink buttermilk for long life. He says that the lactic acid dissolves every sort of earthy deposit in the blood vessels, keeping the veins and arteries so supple and free running that there can be no clogging up, and hence there is no deposit of chalky matter around the joints or of poisonous waste in the muscles. It is the stiffening and hardening of the blood vessels which bring on old age. Buttermilk is likely to postpone it ten or twenty years if freely drunk. A quart a day should be the minimum, the maximum according to taste and opportunity.

Warm.

An Introduction.

Harry was walking with another boy when he was joined by a friend a year or so older and inclined to manners.

"Introduce me, Harry," the newcomer whispered pompously.

Harry twisted, reddened and at last turned to his companion with, "Jim, have you ever seen Gilbert Spencer?"

"No," the other boy answered.

"Well," Harry blurted out, reddening still more and jerking one thumb over his shoulder toward the newcomer, "that's him!"—Lippincott's.

The Color of Flames.

Many people have noticed with much interest the many tinted bars and bands that rise in the shape of "forked tongues of flame" from wood burning in a fire. These varied hues are the result of combustion from the different elements of the fuel. The light blue is from the hydrogen and the white from the carbon. The violet is from the manganese, the red from the magnesia and the yellow from the soda, which are constituent parts of the wood.

The Real Reason.

"De po' child died fum eatin' too much watahmillon."
"Huh! Dar ain't no sich-uh thing as too much watahmillon."
"Well, den, dar wasn't enough boy."
—Puck.

It Had Been Read.

"That old tightwad uncle of mine is dead."
"Has his will been read yet?"
"Did you hear what I called him?"

The Disturbing Telephone.

"The telephone has destroyed all the privacy of society," said the society girl. "It breaks in on everything. Nothing is sacred to it. You may be saying your prayers. The telephone. Or in the midst of your bath. The telephone. Or doing up your back hair or, worse of all, a delightful man may be making love to you, when k-ling, k-ling, k-ling! The telephone breaks off the thread of his theme and he fails to resume it."—New York Press.

The Nature of the Beast.

Mrs. Gunson was entertaining a visitor when Nora appeared at the door of the drawing room.

"Please, mum, will ye tell me phat yez want done wid th' oyster shells yez left from lunch?" she inquired.

"I want them thrown away, of course," replied Mrs. Gunson.

"Yis, mum. But Oi didn't know phere to throw them," replied Nora. "Do they be ashes or jarbridge?"—Judge.

No Wonder.

"You love long rambles in the country?" asked the girl in the white sweater.

"Yes, indeed," responded the young man in the green hat with the purple band and buckled shoes. "When I go out in the country all nature seems to smile."

"Gracious! I don't blame her. It is a wonder she doesn't laugh outright."—Kansas City Independent.

WILL CHARGE SMALL FEE.

Expenses of the Library Make This Necessary.

At a recent meeting of the End of Centary Club, it was decided to charge a fee of $1.00 a year or 10cts. a month, payable in advance, beginning March 1st. for the privilege of reading the books from the library.

The public is aware of the fact that this library was opened and has been run under the auspices of this club as a free library; but the expenses are more than twenty women can meet without more outside help than they have been receiving. The first two years of the library's existence a few gentleman of the town helped us by subscriptions. And the Board of Alderman have several times been very generous in assisting us, and this year have given $50 which is greatly appreciated, especially as we know of the demands upon their resources. But with this assistance together with our donations, we will not be able to meet the expenses of rent, paying a librarian, and adding new books, unless we have some other help, and we feel sure that all those who enjoy and patronize the library will be willing to pay this small fee.

It is not our desire to deprive anyone of the advantages of the library, so if there is anyone who is unable to pay this fee, if it is reported to the librarian, there will be a special committee to act upon it.

We also wish to state that there will be no fee charged for consulting the reference books; but they are not to be taken out of the library. The length of time to keep the books and the fines will be the same as here before.
