THE BILL WITH TEETH

Gets an Unfavorable Report From Committee.

The senate judiciary committee met yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock to pass on the famous Lockhart anti-trust bill. The sub-committee was still unable to get together. A minority report and a majority report were filed by the sub-committee.

Senators Blow and Bassett's substitute embodies the Manning substitute and provides machinery for the enforcement of the law. The report which was adopted by a vote of 9 to 8 is as follows:

"To the Senate Judiciary Committee:

"Your sub-committee to whom was referred the senate bill No. 116, introduced by Mr. Lockhart, and the substitute offered therefor before the committee by Mr. Manning, being unable to agree upon said substitute, and the undersigned being agreed between themselves as to a substitute for both bills, do hereby recommend the enclosed as a substitute for the Lockhart bill and the Manning substitute.

"ALEX L. BLOW,
"L. V. BASSETT"

The substitute bill submitted by Senators Blow and Bassett is as follows:

"A bill to be entitled an act to amend chapter 218 of the public laws of 1907, entitled 'an act denouncing conduct within the state of North Carolina which interferes with trade and commerce.'

"The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

"Section 1. That section 1 of chapter 218 of the public laws of 1907, be amended by adding at the end of said section the following sub-section as sub-section (f): For any person, firm, corporation or association to conspire, with any other person, firm, corporation, or association to put down or keep down the price of any article produced in this state by the labor of others, which said article the said person, firm, corporation or association intends to buy.

"Sec. 2. That section 6 of said chapter be stricken out and the following inserted in lieu thereof: That if it shall be made to appear to the attorney general by satisfactory affidavit (which affidavit may be made upon information and belief, and when so made shall state the ground thereof) that any corporation is violating any of the provisions of this act within the state it shall be the duty of the attorney general to apply to a judge of the superior court for an order to cause such corporation, its officers and agents or any of them, to appear before such judge at a time and place to be named by him, which time shall not be less than five days from the service of such order to show cause why such corporations, its officers and agents or any of them, should not produce before such judge, at a time and place to be named, all the papers, books and records of such corporation; and if the judge shall be satisfied that such books, papers and records should be so produced he shall make an order requiring such corporation, its officers and agents, or any of them, to produce all or any of its papers, books and records, to be examined by the attorney general in the presence of such judge. If any corporation, its officers or agents shall fail to appear, or shall fail to produce such papers, books or records as

THE LEGISLATURE.

What Our Law Makers Are Doing at Raleigh.

THIRTY-NINTH DAY.

SENATE.

Senator Pharr introduced a joint resolution relative to the unjust discrimination of freight rates in North Carolina, and providing that the attorney general shall prosecute all infringements of the law.

Among the new bills introduced were: To amend the law relative to suits by and against administrators and executors; to maintain North Carolina room in the Confederate museum at Richmond; to define the residence of a corporation.

A message was received from the governor transmitting the report of the North Carolina board of internal improvements. The report criticised certain work contractors had done upon buildings for the State.

HOUSE.

The same message as went to the senate was sent by the governor to the house.

Among the new bills introduced were: To establish a State conservation commission; to relieve holders of mileage books on railroads; to repeal law creating the fish commission; to promote better free rural delivery, (by Cox, of Pitt); to extend time for corporations to file reports; to require ginners to mark correct weight on cotton bales; to amend the law as to blind and maimed soldiers pensions; to aid in erection of memorial to Daughters of the Confederacy.

A resolution was offered that no new bills be introduced after the 24th inst.

The bill regulating the running of freight trains on Sunday was the principal subject of the day's discussion and it finally passed third reading by a decided majority.

Rev. L. L. Nash Forced to Give Up His Work.

Laurinburg, Feb. 18.—News has reached Laurinburg that Rev. Dr. L. L. Nash, the pastor of the Methodist churches at St. John's and Gibson, is suffering so greatly with indigestion, with possible heart complication, that his physicians have ordered him to rest for awhile. Dr. Nash is perhaps one of the best-known ministers in North Carolina, having friends and admirers throughout the State.

Miss Lucille Johns Entertains.

On Friday evening from 9 to 12 Miss Lucille Johns entertained a party of friends at progressive whist, at the home of her sister, Mrs. O. C. Gregory, on Dickinson avenue. There were several interesting hands, Miss Lucille Cobb winning the ladies' prize and Tom Dupree the gentlemen's. After the game refreshments were served.

may be required, it or he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to cause such corporation or person to be prosecuted therefor. When it shall be made to appear that the papers, books or records of any such corporation, or any of them, are without the limits of the state, or that they cannot conveniently be produced before the judge for examination as hereinbefore provided such judge may issue a commission for the examination of such papers, books and records before a commissioner to be named by him.

"Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification."—Raleigh Times.

MRS. NANNIE EDWARDS DIED.

Earth is Poorer and Heaven Richer by the Passing of this Good Woman.

Mrs. Nannie E. Edwards departed this life at 5:18 p. m. on Friday, Feb. 19, at the home of her son, Mr. W. P. Edwards, in West Greenville.

The remains were taken to Farmville for interment this morning.

Mrs. Edwards leaves two sons, Mr. Jas. N. Edwards, of Farmville, Mr. W. P. Edwards, of Greenville, one sister, Mrs. Laura Short, of Spray, N. C., and a brother, Mr. John Marshall, of Nash county.

Mrs. Edwards was a member of the Baptist church of Greenville and a consecrated Christian woman.

She was quiet and unassuming in manner and was one of those humble servants of God who delighted to serve those whom she loved, or those who needed her help.

For several months she has been an invalid; since October confined to her bed.

A patient sufferer indeed and appreciative of every attention shown her to a degree one rarely sees, even to the end.

During the last weeks of her sickness she expressed a willingness to die and often prayed, in her conscious moments to be at rest. One of her warm friends remarked over her remains "I grieved more for her sufferings than I do for her death."

She is at rest, all is well with her.

To the bereaved ones the sympathy of the community goes out in this hour. May the Lord bless them and use this dispensation of His providence to lead them nearer to Him "who doeth all things well."

UNIQUE BUILDING.

Dickinson Avenue to Have a "Flat Iron".

When the town was having Evans street and Dickinson avenue paved and concrete sidewalks laid, on the latter it was necessary to buy some property to straighten and get the walks on the avenue the proper width. One piece of property purchased was the small triangular shaped plot occupied by Evans' photograph studio, adjacent property owners refusing to sell enough at any figure reasonable to make room for the building to be moved back off the sidewalk. The town bought Mr. Evans' entire lot, took a strip off the front for the sidewalk and then sold the lot to Higgs Brothers. As it now is the lot has a frontage on the avenue of 27 feet, running back in angles 40 feet on one side and 38 feet on the other to a point. Higgs Brothers are having erected thereon a handsome two-story brick building just the size and shape of the lot, and it is going to be unique and attractive in appearance. It will have pressed brick and plate glass front and be equipped with modern conveniences. Already there are several applicants to rent the building as soon as it is completed.

'Willingham will treat you right'

There will be a meeting of the Retail Merchants Association Monday night at 8 o'clock in the mayors office. All merchants of the town are urged to be present. W. F. Evans, Sec.

MR WHITE'S RECITAL.

His Program an Excellent One.

Mr. James Wesley White, noted baritone singer of Wilmington, gave a most delightful recital in the opera house Friday night under the auspices of the ladies of the Baptist church. Mr. White was in excellent voice and even surpassed himself at his former visit here on Thanksgiving night.

His program consisted of eight numbers, two of them being double, and three encores. While every number was excellent, Schubert's "Serenade" and and Tosti's "Good Bye" were perhaps more enjoyed and received more applause.

Miss Olive Gaston was accompanist through the entire program, and her splendid and expressive playing was in perfect harmony with the singer. It is to be regretted that the weather was such as to cause a small audience and make the ladies lose on it as a financial venture. But those present certainly had an evening of rare pleasure.

SATURDAY, FEB. 20, 1909.

The State needs some other things much worse than a larger capitol.

Round by round Greenville climbs higher up the ladder, but the top is yet far ahead.

Some of Mr. Taft's smile may wear off before he gets through with some of the jobs ahead of him.

In the matter of anti-trust legislation we think the substitute of Senators Blow and Bassett gets the best end of it.

Looks like the legislative fish bill has got caught in a net. It will wiggle out and be ready for another run two years hence.

A bill that would prevent other concerns from selling out to trusts might be the most effective way to bring about a remedy.

There are doubtless some who think that Mr. Bryan continues to hold the reins of the Democratic party, as they lay so much stress upon everything he says.

The pictures some of the papers are printing of the Cooper-Carmack jury at Nashville, Tenn., shows about the worst looking bunch that could be found.

Notwithstanding all they say to the detriment of the State capitol, it is noticed that plenty of them are willing to get quartered there for a term and take chances on coming out alive.

If farmers will decide to raise all their needed home supplies and cut the tobacco crop down below the demand for consumption, they will soon find themselves independent of the trusts.

Remember The King's Daughters will hold a public reception at the "Rest Rooms" Monday night. Also bear in mind that you can "lend a helping hand" to the ladies in this good work.

Representative Cotten, of Pitt, is doing some good work in the legislature toward getting the Torrens system of land registry established. To establish such a system would be a benefit to the State.

Not so much is being heard now as there was awhile back about the commission plan of municipal government. It is a question that must sooner or later come to the front, as there is hardly a town of any consequence that could not profit by such a plan.

The Bond Issue.

It seems to be quite true, as Dr. Gordon, chairman of the house committee on appropriations has stated, that all appropriations for the State institutions "really depend upon the Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. question of the bond issue, and the members might as well make up their minds to a bond issue of some extent, and the institutions should come in for a handsome share of it." Ex-Governor Jarvis thinks that a bond issue of about $500,000, out of which would come the debt already incurred, would be sufficient at the present time, but it strikes us that there should be no half-way doing. Money is needed and a bond issue is needed to raise the money. While the legislature is at it, the bond issue should be sufficient to cover all purposes and prevent the possibility of an agitation for an additional issue at the next session. The original figures, $1,500,000, would be about right. Rather have too much than too little money. The surplus would be well taken care of.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The New York World—strength to its arm—keeps right on insisting that the Democratic party is in better shape than ever, that is, since its division into hostile camps in the nineties. Here is one of the World's reasons for the faith that it professes:

The Democratic party polled 6,308,182 votes last fall, an increase of 1,315,211 over 1904, as against a Republican increase of 14,190.

It gives other significant facts, but the one quoted ought to be sufficient to cheer up the faint-hearted. To be sure, it is commonly understood that the Democrats made big gains over the result of the previous test of their national strength, but we feel sure that that fourteen thousand gain of the Republicans has been overlooked. To state the comparison in another way, the Democratic gain was just 450 times as great as the Republican gain. That is, in the language of the street, "going some."—Greensboro Telegram.

Thought Microbes In a Drop of Ink.

When applied to the newspaper page they make people think twice.

First, people think there's a man who keeps up with the procession.

Second, they think he must keep good goods on hand.

Again, if the home paper has enough drops of advertising ink on its surface to make a proper showing the outsider thinks this must be a pretty lively town.

Thus a drop of NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING INK is a good thing for the town.

One Kind of Friendship.

In the village where I live I was in the habit of visiting two poor, infirm old women, one inhabiting the single downstairs room, the other occupying the garret above her. Each kept a jealous watch as to whether I bestowed more tea or sixpences on the other, and each was sure to tell me every ill trait she could hear of the other. One day the old lady who lived upstairs, thanking me effusively for my visit, said: "You're the only lady ever comes near me, the only friend I have. That one," pointing downward, "has hapes of friends," adding hastily, lest I should be too favorably impressed by that circumstance, "and there's not wan of them but hates her." I thought to myself that such a description of friendship may sometimes apply to higher circles than that of my poor old friend.—London Spectator.

Take It as It Comes.

Once a smart hare met a wise fox. "B-r-r-r!" chattered the hare. "What's the trouble, my friend?" queried the fox craftily. "Why, this weather is terrible. I am almost frozen." The wise fox winked up at the crow in the tree. "In that case, my friend," he chuckled, "I think you will find it warmer inside than it is outside." Without further ceremony he swallowed the hare. Moral.—It is not always a safe policy to complain about the weather.—Chicago News.

The Geese of Nieder-Morlen.

In the little Hessian village of Nieder-Morlen, says the Strand Magazine, between Giessen and Frankfort, a strange scene may be witnessed every evening at 5:30. Some 2,000 geese, which have spent the day on the river's bank below the village, at a given signal from their leaders make their way homeward with much pomp and circumstance and raucous noise. The strangest part of the proceeding is seen when they reach the village street and, without any guidance or driving, waddle each into its own yard for the night. Like so many squads they break off in their dozens from the main body, knowing instinctively their owners' door and with solemn gait entering in as though conscious of their own innate cleverness.

Too High.

"I thought zis building had only forty stories!" cried the excited foreigner. "It has," said the elevator starter. "Ah, no! You deceive me! I just got on one of your elevators. One passenger said, 'Three, please.' Another said, 'Seven,' another 'Ten.' And zen a man cried out, '1,945!' 'Sacre bleu! I got out at ze first stop. It is too much of ze risk!" "But '1,945' is an office number," explained the starter. "No! You deceive! I have not ze trust in you! Tomorrow I return to Paris!"—New York Times.
