WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From Our Hustling Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C., Feb. 24, 1909.

Miss Helen Forbes, of Greenville, spent last Friday here with Mrs. N. W. Askew.

Rev. B. W. Spilman, of Kinston, delivered a lecture to the pupils of Winterville High School Saturday night. Quite a number of the citizens of the town and community were present. Mr. Spilman was at his best and delivered a fine address. His subject was, "Get in the game and play ball." He is an old ball player himself and he drew some most striking and practical points in life's battles, from this theme.

On Sunday morning at the Baptist church he preached an able sermon on the early life of Christ. At the close of the service there were two additions to the church. In the afternoon he was accompanied by Prof. G. E. Lineberry to Ayden where he delivered an address.

Miss Lala Chapman came home last night, from Stokes where she has been teaching, her school having closed.

There was something of a reunion of old teachers of Winterville High School at the girls' dormitory Sunday. Miss Annie Lee Perry, of Ayden graded school, Miss Lena Spain, of Kinston graded schools and Miss Clyde Harrison, of Farmville graded school, were present. Miss Perry taught in the intermediate department one year, Miss Spain in the primary department two years, and Miss Harrison in the music department four years. We were delighted to have them back with us, as they have a host of friends here.

Rev. G. T. Lumpkin, of Winston-Salem, will preach at the Baptist church here next Sunday night. He is a fine speaker and we are sure there is a treat in store for us. All are most cordially invited to hear him.

Dr. J. G. Waldrop, of Hendersonville, spent part of Monday here visiting his daughter, Miss Nan Lou, who is assistant music teacher in Winterville High school. He was accompanied by his little daughter, and Miss Hennie Ragsdale, of Greenville.

Miss Arley Moore, from near House, spent several days visiting her many friends here. She is an old pupil of W. H. S.

Mrs. C. C. Bland, of Ayden, spent a short while here Friday with her daughter, Mrs. Charlie Aldridge.

Rev. T. H. King preached at Tucker's school house Sunday afternoon.

There will be a baptismal service tonight after the prayer meeting services at the Baptist church.

There will be services at the Episcopal church Sunday afternoon at 3:30, conducted by Rev. B. F. Huske.

To Sunday School Workers of Pitt.

We desire to have a meeting of the Pitt county Sunday School Convention about the last of March. The exact time and place will be decided upon later. We hope to enlist the workers of our county and we shall have addresses from some of the best Sunday school men in the State. Any church or Sunday school desiring to entertain the convention will please notify me as early as possible. T. H. King, 224 3rd Stw President.

THE LEGISLATURE.

What Our Law Makers Are Doing at Raleigh.

FORTY SECOND DAY. SENATE.

Among the new bills were: An act for the relief of the Soldiers' Home; to fix time of advertisement of public sales; to pension all ex-Confederate soldiers; to amend law relative to titles against the State, (by Blow); to give corporation commission control over hydro-electric company. A number of other bills of local nature were introduced.

At noon the trust bill was taken up by special order, and Senator Lockhart, who introduced the bill made a long speech in support of it. He was answered by Senator Bassett who was of the sub-committee offering a substitute which received a majority report of the whole committee. The remainder of the day's session was taken up in discussing the bill.

HOUSE.

Among the new bills were none of general importance, those coming nearest to it being: to amend the law as to bank stock; to require electric head lights on certain trains; to regulate sale of soft drinks; to annul the law as to board of public charities; to amend the fish law.

After disposing of a few minor matters the house again went into committee of the whole to further consider the revenue bill, taking it up by sections.

COX'S MILL ITEMS.

Cox's Mill, N. C., Feb. 23.

Mrs. W. F. Carroll and sister, Mrs. L. N. Edwards, attended church at Hancock's Saturday. Quite a crowd of our young people went Sunday.

Jim Fleming, of Greenville, was traveling through our country Saturday explaining the new machines to the people.

E. A. Everette's baby is very sick.

Misses Sadie Carroll and Lela Roach, H. M. Stokes and T. S. Tyson went to Conetoe Saturday to visit Miss Lena Cobb, and returned Sunday evening. They report a very pleasant trip.

H. A. Moore went to Greenville Saturday.

Miss Nancie Mills went to Kinston Friday.

We had right much rain and hail Friday, but not enough to stop the "tacky party" at McGowan's school house Friday night. There was a large crowd, and you may be sure they were dressed tacky. A vote was taken on who was the best dressed for the occasion, and Miss Cora Carroll received the greatest number of votes, so she won the prize. It was presented by Marion Cox with a few appropriate remarks. Misses Maggie Hudson, of Grimesland, and Roland Cobb, of Conetoe, and Madison McGowan, of Cox's Mill, were the judges.

Eld. C. C. Bland, of Ayden, will preach at McGowan school house first Sunday in March at 11 a. m. Rev. T. H. King will also preach at Mill's school house at 3 p. m. H. A. Moore has rebuilt his store and is doing business again at his same old stand. Misses Roland Cobb and Maggie Hudson were visitors in our neighborhood Sunday night.

BOLD HOLD-UP ATTEMPTED.

Effort to Rob Express Car Near Mount Airy.

Winston-Salem, Feb. 23. 2 a. m.—Three masked men attempted a bold hold up of Express Messenger Tom Hubbard, who runs on train No 731 between Sanford and Mount Airy, last night at 7:50, four miles on this side of Mount Airy, but the bandits were repulsed and fled without securing any booty.

The robbers entered the car while the train was standing at the Ararat tank taking on water. They called on Hubbard to throw up his hands, but instead of doing this he snuffed out the light and reached for his pistol. A number of shots were exchanged by the four men, and it is believed that one of the bandits was wounded. Hubbard was not hit. The robbers became alarmed at the noise made by the firing and fled without securing any booty.

A message was received here asking that bloodhounds be sent to be put on the trail of the highwaymen, but none were to be had. A further message this morning said that Sheriff Haynes and a posse of deputies and citizens were pursuing the three men. At this hour no arrest has been made so far as is learned here.

The place where the hold-up was attempted is a wild and rugged point, with the river running beside the track, and the getting away of the bold trio was an easy matter.—Charlotte Observer.

ROCHDALE SPROUTS.

Rochdale, N. C., Feb. 23 1909.

Clayton Joyner, of Farmville, and Mrs. Pittman, of Cobddale, were married at Cobddale last Thursday evening, and went to his home near Farmville, where there was great preparation made for the occasion.

C. D. Smith went to Greenville Thursday to sell tobacco.

Mills Smith and Mrs. M. F. Smith went to Farmville Saturday evening.

Ivy Smith went to Greenville Saturday.

Mrs. C. L. Tyson, of Renston and Mrs. Robert Worthington, of Ayden, were visiting at R. A. Willoughby's and C. E. McLawhon's Saturday evening and Sunday.

Miss Nannie Parker, of Greene county, who is attending school at Greenville, was visiting at Ivy Smith's Saturday evening and Sunday and returned to Greenville Monday.

T. W. Lang, of Farmville, was visiting in Smithtown Sunday.

Elder G. Hinton Crumpler, of Wilson, came down Saturday evening and preached two very good sermons at Smiths school house on Sunday one at 11 a. m. and one at 7 p. m. to large and attentive congregations. He went to Standard and preached at 3 p. m. to a very good congregation. He stopped with C. D. Smith and returned to Wilson Monday morning.

We had a very good Sunday school Sunday morning. And we hope the attendance will continue to improve.

R. E. Willoughby went Greenville Monday.

Request to G. F. C. Alumnae.

No accurate record of the Alumnae and students of Greensboro Female College having been kept during the sixty-three past years of its history, the Alumnae Association is now making an effort to gather as much material as possible for a permanent record of each student. In order to accomplish this, the co-operation of every former student and friend of the institution is earnestly solicited. We request the readers of this paper who may be in possession of any information which would be of value in making this record to kindly send us such information as early as possible.

We would like for every former student to write us, giving her maiden name and present name and address; also what profession or work she has or is now engaged in, and any other facts of interest.

Why not write at once before you forget it to

Mrs. W. M. Curtis, Recorder Alumnae Association, Greensboro Female College, Greensboro, N. C.

It Was a Big Time.

T. R. Moore, J. M. Reuss, F. C. Harding, S. J. Nobles, W. H. Harrington and W. C. Hines returned Tuesday evening from Norfolk where they had been to see the return of the fleet. They say it was a great occasion, and such crowds as were in Norfolk Sunday and Monday were never there before. In a collision of street cars Monday several people were badly injured.

BAD LION PUT TO DEATH.

Manifests Disposition to Eat his Train er once too Often.

Americus, Ga., Feb. 21.—Late last night "Wallace," one of the largest African man-eating lions in captivity, was killed after having made a savage attack upon his trainer, Captain Cardo. The captain was only slightly wounded. He saved himself by the rapid firing of his pistol in the infuriated beast's eyes.

"Wallace" attacked Captain Cardo about a week ago during a performance in Albany, at which time the trainer was severely wounded. He was saved on that occasion by the prompt assistance of a bystander.

"Wallace" was the property of a carnival company which is filling an engagement here and Captain Cardo is an attache of the organization.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 24, 1909.

The season of train wrecks seems to have returned.

Both sides seem to be about "nip and tuck" in the Cooper-Carmack trial at Nashville.

Eleven years after a fellow comes forward and says he can raise the Maine and float her to a dry dock.

There is a bill before the legislature to extend the time of educational qualification to voting to 1916. Looks like that ought to be time enough.

A few train robberies like the one attempted near Mt. Airy Monday night will put North Carolina in a class with the wild Western States. May she escape that class.

When Mr. Roosevelt gets in Africa, the newspapers will be minus a very fruitful subject of comment.—Greensboro Telegram.

Which will be fortunate for both papers and readers.

Some of the papers actually turn aside from the trust bill long enough to say something of the approaching baseball season. The latter will soon be the most important of the two subjects.

And Mrs. Hetty's daughter is married. As she waited until she was thirty she was old enough to do as she pleased about it. And as her ma is the richest woman in the world there is no question about her being able to take care of her husband.

Are You Helping to Bury Your Town?

A town whose citizens have no public spirit is on the way to the cemetery.

The citizen who will do nothing to help his town is helping to dig its grave.

The citizen who growls about his town being "The worst ever," is assisting in its burial.

The business man who will not advertise is driving the hearse.

The citizen who is a chronic grumbler and is always pulling back in every public enterprise is throwing bouquets on the grave.

The citizen who "knocks" and howls "hard times" preaches the funeral sermon.

Point to a town whose citizens count every dollar gotten from their neighbors a gain, and every dollar given to a school or college or church or library or cha-tauqua or lecture course as loss, and you point to a town on which there rests a business and social blight, which will be known throughout your State as "A good town to move from." Do your part, then, as citizens!

Count for something in the affairs of your town or city. Pledge your word and honor that so long as you reside in a community it shall be your constant aim to "boost" it in every way you can. That you will not "knock," but will do all you can for every public enterprise that has for its object the best interests of the community. That you will submit to the ma-

 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

majority rule, and not growl if things are not always as you think they should be. That you will keep in mind that if a town is good enough for you to make money in it is the legitimate place for you to spend it, and will buy everything you can of your home-town merchants. That you will always say something good of your town and people or keep silent, except in case of a public nuisance. That you will not encourage nor contribute to injurious reports about your neighbors or business competitors, but will use the scales of charity in weighing the shortcomings of your fellows. Practice this teaching and your town will be one into which the best families will come as the children gather round the fire on a winter's night. Take a big dose of cheerfulness and feel that the best is yet to come.—Ex.

Recently Judge Biggs held court in a neighboring county. On the second day after it convened the judge felt called upon to adjourn court because one of the lawyers who had a number of cases on the docket was absent trying to get an office for himself. Lawyers are as much responsible for the congested condition of the court dockets in some counties in this State as judges are. In some instances lawyers have cases continued from court to court, their object being to defeat the ends of justice. If all the judges and all the lawyers would do their full duty, as some of them do when they appear in court, the people would not hear so much talk of congested dockets.—Sanford Express.

That woman who thinks her husband never uses "cuss" words, says the naughty Wilmington Star, should be in hearing distance when he makes about the third unsuccessful call at the express office for that little package he is expecting from across the State line.

AN UNWASHED PRINCE.

The Lesson That Ended His Kicks About Morning Baths.

When Emperor William II. was a small boy he had a strong objection to being washed in the morning, and his governess, having had some unpleasant experiences with him and being in some doubt as to what she had better do, appealed to his father, the then Crown Prince Frederick. Frederick answered, "The next time he gives any trouble on this score leave him alone to his own pleasure and report to me."

Naturally it was not long before the young prince refused to go through the purification process, and the governess followed the orders received.

Now, the boy had a little carriage and was very fond of driving out in the morning, and he generally ordered the coachman to go by way of the Brandenburg gate, as it amused and flattered him to see the soldiers in the barrack, just inside the gate, turn out and present arms as the heir to the empire passed their quarters. Accordingly on the morning of his disobedience the order was, as usual, "To the Brandenburg gate," and the carriage rolled rapidly thither. But what was the amazement and the rage of the princeling on arriving there to see no soldiers except those on guard, and they took not the slightest notice of him. In a towering passion he ordered the coachman to return to the palace, where, rushing into his father's room, he complained of the indecent behavior of the guard and demanded their condign punishment.

But his father only smiled and said in the gentlest voice: "Fuer unge-waschener prinz wird niemals praesent-tirt" ("An unwashed prince is never saluted").—Harper's Weekly.

Time to Go.

"I wonder how many of those connected with newspapers," said a reporter, "remember the famous dispatch sent by a press telegraph operator at the time of the San Francisco earthquake. It was the only smile raiser in the whole horrible catastrophe. It read something like this: 'The building is beginning to rock, bricks are falling about, and it's me for the simple life.' Then it trailed off as if the operator had scooted for the open door, or wall, perhaps. This dispatch was handed about the newspaper offices and made all the boys laugh in spite of the serious picture it called to mind.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Reasons For Cannibalism.

According to a writer in a French review, there are three causes for cannibalism. It is due either to necessity, pleasure or fashion. Twenty per cent of the cannibals, we learn, eat their dead to honor them. The ancient Tibetans belonged to this class. This is sentimental anthropophagy. Nineteen per cent eat their great warriors to obtain their courage. This is designated egotistic anthropophagy. Twenty-nine per cent eat human flesh to punish their enemies and 32 per cent because it is the fashion or because they consider the flesh savory.—Indianapolis News.

Fat Singers—Why?

A medical gentleman, writing in Comœdia, explains that the physical massiveness of the majority of famous singers comes mainly from abnormal development of the lungs. We must confess that we had been under the impression that it was due to a laudable effort to make grand opera amusing.—Punch.

A STEADY DRAIN.

Sick Kidneys Weaken the Whole Body--Make You Ill, Languid and Depressed.

Sick kidneys weaken the body through the continual drainage of life giving albumen from the blood into the urine, and the substitution of poisonous uric acid that goes broadcast through the system, sowing the seeds of disease. Loss of albumen causes weakness, languor, depression. Uric poisoning causes rheumatic pain, nervousness, nausea, cricks in the back, gravel and kidney stones. The proper treatment is a kidney treatment, and the best remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Great Greenville cures prove it.

James Hardison, 319 E. Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says: "My kidneys were weak and the secretions passed too frequently, especially at night when I was forced to rise several times. In the morning my back was very lame and I was subject to pains through my loins. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Wooten's drug store, restored my kidneys to a normal condition. I am now able to sleep well and the lameness and soreness across the small of my back has entirely disappeared. I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to live up to representations and I have no hesitation in giving them my endorsement." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

For Sale—Cabbage plants grown from Tate's thoroughbred Jersey Wakefield seed, in any quantity. $1 per 1,000 delivered from field, 25 cents per 1,000 extra for packing for shipment. 29 tfd L. C. Arthur.
