TRIBUTE TO COMMISSIONER LANG

Board of County Commissioners Adopt Resolutions of Respect.

At the regular meeting of the Board of County Commissioners today, April 5th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, We have learned with deep regret of the death of our brother commissioner, Albert V. Lang, who departed this life at his home in Falkland township on Wednesday, March 24th, 1909, therefore be it resolved.

1 That in the death of Brother Lang, the Board of Commissioners of Pitt county have lost a most useful and valuable member, and the county of Pitt a most useful and worthy citizen. He was a man pure in life and character, upright in all his dealings, faithful to all his duties, and we feel his loss keenly.

2. That we extend to his widow and children our deepest sympathy.

3. That when this Board adjourns today we adjourn out of respect to his memory; that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Board, a copy sent to his widow by the Clerk of the Board, and also be published in The Reflector.

J. P. Quinerly, chm.
D. J. Holland,
N. T. Cox,
J. J. May,

Mr. Albert V. Lang died March 24th, 1909. He was 35 years of age and left a widow and two children—one a boy 4 years old and the other a girl two weeks old. He is also survived by father and mother.

Mr. Lang was a man of excellent morals and good habits. He was kind and patient in his dealings with every one. He was a good manager of his own business affairs and was proving a valuable member of the Board of Commissioners. Mr. Lang always stood for the nobler things in life, and was of the Primitive Baptist faith though not a member of the church.

Mr. B. M. Lewis, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. Lang, was prevented by serious sickness in his family from being present at this meeting to qualify and begin his duties with the board.

Stork Leaves Two.

J. T. Dupree's home in Pitt county Friday evening was visited by a generous stork, which left with the happy parents two fine lusty boys. Mr. Dupree is an Edgemont boy and it is a pleasure to chronicle that he is setting a most excellent example for his neighbors in making crops as well as in perpetuating the race.—Tarboro Southerner.

Who Can Furnish It?

Some days ago a Reflector reader asked through these columns for a reproduction of the story of "Cousin Sally Dillard." If any one can furnish a copy we will be glad to print it.

Masons! Attention!

Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. Business of importance to come up. Work in Master's degree. A full attendance is desired.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

A son of Mr. Ben Herring, who lives on the Wynn place in Bucklesbury, died suddenly Thursday. The boy's age was about fifteen. He had been fighting fire in the field, and becoming exhausted, lay down and in a short time expired. It is thought that death was due to heart trouble.—Kinston Free Press.

Editor Poe Coming.

If there is an editor in North Carolina doing more than another for the general uplift and betterment of the people, it is Mr. C. H. Poe, editor of The Progressive Farmer, a paper that visits the homes of more people than any other in the State. That Editor Poe is to visit Pitt county this week and deliver two addresses, is cause for congratulation, for our people are fortunate in this opportunity to hear him. He will speak in Winterville Friday night to the pupils of Winterville High school and people of that community, and on Saturday he will address the Teachers' Association at their meeting in Greenville. A cordial invitation is extended every one to hear these addresses. Mr. Poe's subject will be "What we can do for the South."

Fast Driving.

Quite a good deal of complaint has come to me about fast driving on the paved streets and upon that portion of the sand clay road to the west of A. C. L. Railroad Co., tracks and within the corporate limits of the town of Greenville, and the parties making the complaints, often do not know the offenders, and if they do recognize them, are loath to swear out warrants for their violations. I have instructed all policemen to swear out warrants for all offences which come under their observation and all citizens who desire to aid the authorities in stopping this violation of the city ordinances, will report all violations to the policemen.

Very Respectfully,
H. W. Whedbee, Mayor.

Baracas Elect Officers.

The Baraca class of Memorial Baptist Sunday school held its semi-annual election of officers Sunday morning, the following being chosen to serve for six months:

President, E. G. Flanagan.
Vice-President, T. R. Moore.
Secretary, E. B. Thomas.
Assistant Secretaries, Burney Warren and W. P. Edwards.
Treasurer, Norman Warren.
Press Reporter, J. R. Hutchings.

Auditor, J. B. Little.
The class now numbers about ninety members and is doing good work.

The Home Telephone and Telegraph Co., will sell a limited amount of advertising space in their new directory. The merchants and every one having anything to sell will find this class of advertising very profitable, as the directory will last for one year and will be distributed in Greenville, Ayden, Winterville, Grimesland and throughout Pitt county. Subscribers will be directed to call by number and therefore will not fail to see your advertisement. Space limited and very cheap.

GENERAL NEWS.

Some of the Happenings Over the Country.

New Orleans, April 3.—Robert J. Maloney, a lawyer, convicted of defrauding clients of $300,000, was today sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

Hazelhurst, Ga., April 3.—Eugene and J. L. Williams, brothers, were shot down on a street of this place today by V. T. Stowers formerly of Conyers, Ga., J. L. Williams being probably fatally hurt. The brothers are members of the firm of Jarman & Williams. It was stated that Stowers had given this firm a check the bank would not honor; that Eugene demanded the money, a fight resulting. J. L. Williams went to his brother's rescue, it is explained, when Stowers drew his pistol.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 3.—Fanned by a wind fire which originated in a barn at Jennings Avenue and Peter Smith street, in the southern portion of this city this afternoon, swept over an area of ten blocks in length and seven in width, destroyed property roughly estimated in value to be in excess of $5,000,000 and caused the death of six persons.

Week of Prayer.

C. W. B. M. prayer services will be held in the Christian church this week at 3:30 o'clock every afternoon as follows:

Beginning with last Sunday afternoon conducted by Mrs. Arnold.
Monday by Miss Minnie Tunstall.
Tuesday by Mrs. C. D. Tunstall.
Wednesday by Mrs. W. J. Turnage.
Thursday by Mrs. E. A. Moyer.
Friday by Mrs. Carper.
Sunday by Mrs. Henry T. King.
Every lady in town is invited to attend these services.

Meeting Closed.

The meeting which Rev. J. H. Shore has been conducting in the Methodist church for two weeks closed with the service Sunday night. The doors of the church were opened at that service and two were received for membership. All through the meeting Rev. Mr. Shore has preached excellent sermons, and the good resulting will not end with the meeting.

Another Tiger Caged.

Policeman G. A. Clark rounded up another walking "blind tiger" Saturday afternoon, making the third to be captured recently. This offender was Peter Harrington, a well known colored man, who was doing a retail business from the pocket and was captured with the goods on him. He was given a preliminary trial before Mayor Whedbee, and not giving $500 bond required was sent to jail.

Gates Across Virginia Roads Cause Discontinuance of R. F. D.

The postoffice department has ordered a discontinuance of all the rural free delivery routes leading out of Lebanon, the county seat of Russell county, Virginia, because the farmers have placed gates on the county roads. The matter is to be investigated by the department before the delivery of mail is resumed.—R. F. D. News.

RALLY DAY

At Christian Church a Great Success.

Sunday was an ideal day and at the appointed time the members of the Sunday school with a good number of their friends were present. We had 99 out of one hundred and ten present. Dr. J. C. Caldwell, of Wilson, was present and took charge of the Baraca class and we heard nothing but greatest praises from the entire class. Mr. Caldwell preached at 11 a. m. on the subject "What is Man?" which was a gem. He delivered an address at night on Christian Education to a large congregation which was greatly enjoyed by all. Mr. H. H. Seattle, of Wilson, was present at night and favored the audience with a solo, "One Sweetly, Solemn Thought." It was a good day for the school and added much to the cause of the Christian church here.

Baracca Class at the Christian Church.

Baracca class of the Christian church was organized June 24th, 1909, with four members. It now numbers 36 with 29 present Sunday, April 4th, with a collection of $2:55

Officers, R. L. Hill, president; W. J. Turnage, vice president; M. F. Hardee, secretary and treasurer; D. W. Arnold, teacher.

Have a membership, social and devotional committees and they are all down to work and hope to have 50 members by June 1st, 1909. All men and boys from the age 16 to 100 and over, that are not members of other classes, are wanted at the Christian Baracca class.

J. G. Latham, Supt. school.
R. L. Hill, Pres. of class.

Death of Admiral Cervera.

Puerto Real, Spain, April 3.—Vice Admiral Pascual Cervera, who commanded the Spanish fleet in the battle of Santiago, Cuba, died here this afternoon.

Admiral Cervera was retired from the active list of the Spanish Navy on December 14th last at his own request on account of failing health. He suffered from an affection of the heart. He was born on February 18, 1839.

In the war with the United States he sailed from the Cane Verde Islands with four cruisers and three torpedo boat destroyers in April, 1898, entered the harbor of Santiago de Cuba May 19th, and lost his entire fleet off that port July 3rd in an attempt to force his way through Admiral Sampson's blockading squadron.

Today gave strong temptation to discard heavy underwear, but you had better stick to it a while longer.

The Board of Aldermen will meet tonight for the regular monthly meeting deferred from last Thursday night.

Everybody is wishing this pretty weather may continue through Easter, but there is no telling what may happen in a week.

Fishermen usually say there is a large run of herrings about Good Friday, and they will be on lookout for a good catch this week.

Why Not Be Your Own Editor?

It is queer how many suggestions are made to an editor as to what he ought to say about this one, or that one in his editorial capacity, how vulnerable the public career, etc., of officials is, and when the editor kindly offers to the would-be writer the use of his columns, over the signature of the writer, the opportunity to give vent to pent up indignation, the zeal for the public good becomes vapor and is no more. Why expect an editor to make charges that you would not dare make over your own signature?—Littleton News-Report.

A Thackeray Story.

A correspondent of London Notes and Queries contributes this anecdote of Thackeray:

Thackeray once desired to succeed Cardwell as M. P. for the city of Oxford and when returning from his canvass said: "What do you think, Cardwell! Not one of your constituents ever heard of me and my writings." He prefaced "constituents" with a Streptich adjective.

Strange, if true. They must have been starving in the midst of plenty.

In two months Greenville will hold a municipal election and between now and then much local political talk may be heard, though there has been but little so far.

If the Democrats were less divided than the Republicans on a man for the Eastern North Carolina judgeship, they might stand a little better chance of getting one in.

We are glad that some of the papers have printed a picture of a Whittla girl, sister of the now famous Willie. They go further and give the information that while the boy was in the hands of the kidnapers, the girl was at home with her mother. Good girl!

Supremacy of the Newspaper.
 An esteemed agricultural contemporary, the Farm Journal, has been delving into statistics concerning specializing publications and furnishes some very interesting and at the same time significant figures, proving the immensely dominant part played by the daily press in the life of the people. Perhaps the most curious and surprising fact thus developed is that concerning farmers. The figures show that not one farmer in twenty takes a live stock journal, not one farmer in a hundred takes a poultry journal, and all this notwithstanding the thousands of farm papers of all kinds which are published.

This is pre-eminently a country of free institutions and science of government, yet not one voter in a hundred takes a paper or other periodical devoted technically to the science of government and the principles of free institutions. Despite the breadth of culture and extent of higher education not one citizen in fifty takes a musical or art journal, and not one citizen in fifty takes a scientific journal. This is widely to be a Christian nation, yet not one citizen in ten takes a religious paper of any sort. This is a country of homes, and yet not one citizen in ten takes either a youth's or a household periodical of any character.

All of this does not argue any benighted condition or any apathy of the people along the lines of enlightenment. It simply means that the daily press supplies the great mass of the people with all they need to develop them along the lines of the broadest and most effective citizenship, while a very creditable proportion patronize the publication which specializes.

Daniel J. Sully, the former cotton king, says that he has interested unlimited capital in the North to build a chain of bonded warehouses all over the South for the storage of cotton. Sully declares that the storage of one-third of the crop in these warehouses would free cotton from stock market speculation and would bring a great business boom to the South.

While Mr. Butler is trying to find out where Judge Adams got his money it is perhaps fortunate that he does not have to tell where he got his.—Durham Herald.

Touching the Spot.

The grim visaged guest sat gazing at the dinner before him in the restaurant. His eyes were sad, and his hands hung limply by his side. Presently a glad light illumined his eye. "Waiter," he cried, "is there a chemist's by here?" "Yes, sir," replied the knight of the apron, "across the road." "Do they sell mustard plasters?" "Yes, sir," said the waiter, "strong ones too. They touch the spot and make it tender." And he smiled mildly at his little bit of wit. "Well," said the diner, "that's just the sort I want. Send over for half a dozen and put 'em on this beefsteak."—London Scraps.

NOT A PLUMBER BORN.

The Beginner Who Was Sent to Find a Leak and Failed.

Pipes & Fassitt ran a busy shop. They had men out working the eight hour day in the Washington heights district. They had helpers out, too, at the regular rates.

Monday morning had opened up with a rush. Joints were bursting, and bathtubs were flowing over.

Fassitt generally followed up the jobs, seeing that they were covered. Pipes held the desk down and made out the bills.

Presently the door pushed open, and a hardy looking young fellow came in. He handed a note to Mr. Pipes. Pipes read it.

"Please, sir," said the young fellow. "Don't please anybody here," said Pipes. "Riley says you're a good man and willing to work. Sid down!"

The hardy looking young fellow sat for five minutes; then the telephone rang.

"Get that off the wire," said Pipes. The young man got it.

"It's Mr. Silverberg that owns the big apartment house on St. Nicholas avenue. His star tenant complains of a leak in the ceiling from the floor overhead."

"You take that wrench and go over," said Pipes. "Locate the floor. Get around to Congdon's, where we've got a contract, and lift a helper. Go back and find the leak. Then report to me. Don't hurry too much."

The young man departed, returning in a couple of hours.

"Nothing doing, Mr. Pipes," he said. "The tenant overhead spilled some water in a corner of the kitchen. It ran under the sink and followed the pipe line to the floor below. That was all."

Pipes kept on making out bills. A ninety cent clock got along to 12 just as the noon whistle blew outside.

Then Pipes rose up sadly. "Here's sitting time," he said. "Take the money. You'll need it. A tenant imagines a leak. The owner wants to pay for repairing the leak. You were sent to find it. You failed. Some day you may be an angel, but you will never be a plumber. Goodby!"—New York Sun.

MIXED METAPHOR.

The Wonderful Feat That Was Performed by a Bottle.

An amateur historian is responsible for this: "All along the ever flowing stream of history you can discern the silent footprints of the crowned heads of Europe."

The village reporter on the death of the village poet: "That dauntless pen shall write no more, for its eyes are closed forever."

From the speech of a rising young politician: "The fierce light of public opinion shall dog their footsteps until it strangles them. Then shall they swallow the bitter pill and drink its very dregs."

Advice and warning from a successful man of business to a gathering of young people: "Every rung in the ladder of success is paved with slippery stones, on which only the clear head and the steady hand can retain their footing."

The fearless suffragette was addressing a meeting of mere men. She had graphically related to them the fascinating story of the strenuous struggle the ladies had made for that most priceless of possessions, a vote; how every obstacle had been conquered and victory was at last in sight. "We have now," she shrieked, "almost crossed the trackless desert, and the harbor lights are stretching out their arms to greet us!"

The temperance advocate was giving a striking but a true picture of the vast amount of evil wrought by the demon of drink, and the fact that he occasionally got somewhat mixed in his metaphors did not derogate from the truth that underlay his remarks. "What is the greatest devastating agent of our time?" he asked. "It is the bottle, which smiles genially before your face while at the same time it is stabbing you in the back."—T. P.'s London Weekly.

Overlooked.

Visitor—And so you're leaving Paris. Of course you've been to the Louvre? Fair American—Yes; I bought this colaret there. Visitor—Ah, no! I mean the pictures, y' know. Fair American—There, mommer! I said there was a gallery by that name!—Punch
