FARMERS' CONSOLIDATED TOB. CO.

FIFTH ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS.

A Thousand Farmers Present—They Hear Good Speeches and Enjoy Bountiful Dinner—Stockholders Paid 15 Percent Dividend.

Tuesday was agreed day for tobacco farmers of Pitt and adjoining counties. It was the occasion of the fifth annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company, and fully a thousand farmers were in attendance. While the large majority of these were from Pitt county, all the neighboring counties were well represented.

President O. L. Joyner called the meeting to order in the Star warehouse and after brief preliminary remarks about the company and its work the past year presented Mayor H. W. Whedbee who delivered the address of welcome to the visitors. Mayor Whedbee spoke eloquently, complimented the farmers upon what they had accomplished through this organization and expressed the pleasure of the people of Greenville at having them here. He said he wanted them to feel that the town was theirs and to come to see us often. The welcome was truly a most cordial one and uttered in the speaker's best style. This address was responded to very pleasingly by Mr. J. L. Bailey, of Wilson county and Mr. Frank Wooten, of Lenoir county. Both gentlemen for the visitors expressed delight at being here.

Hon. J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State, was then introduced by President Joyner and delivered a stirring address on "Intelligent Co-operation Among Farmers." Mr. Grimes spoke with his usually earnestness. A great lover of his State and county, he first dwelt at some length upon North Carolina history and showed that in soil, productiveness and climatic conditions we have the most favored section of the world. We have not obtained the full benefit of our opportunities because of our lack of co-operation. Four-fifths of the wealth of the country is invested in agriculture, yet those following this avocation do not receive their share of the benefits of legislation through their failure to be organized and demand recognition as those engaged in other pursuits do. He also spoke interestingly of good roads, transportation and commerce, and said we can develop these through organization and co-operation. Concluding Mr. Grimes paid a splendid tribute to the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company and to its president, Mr. O. L. Joyner, who even at great personal sacrifice had thrown himself into the organization and made it a success, undaunted by the opposition and misrepresentations that had been hurled against him. This company is a striking example of what the farmers can do through organization.

After the speaking President Joyner announced that the directors of the company had declared a dividend of 15 percent to be paid in cash at this meeting, and there were general expressions of gratification and satisfaction by the stockholders at this statement. President Joyner also stated that the meeting would adjourn to the Gum warehouse where dinner had been prepared for all present and at which place Secretary W. H. Dail and Treasurer R. J. Cobb

SUPERIOR COURT.

April Criminal Term in Session.

The following cases have been disposed of:

W. R. Dawson, assault with deadly weapon, guilty.

W. I. Hicks, jumping board bill, enters plea nolo contendere, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Mack Dixon, assault and battery, pleads guilty.

Louis McLawhorn, carrying concealed weapon, not guilty.

Henry Saunders, larceny, not guilty, in one case, guilty in another, sentenced six months on roads.

Bud Dupree, assault with deadly weapon, pleads guilty, six months on roads.

A. B. Garris, selling wine unlawfully in three cases, pleads guilty, fined $25 and costs and required to give bond for $200 not to sell intoxicating liquors again.

George Garris, selling wine unlawfully in three cases, pleads guilty, fined $25 and costs and required to give bond for $200 not to sell intoxicating liquors again.

The grand jury returned a true bill for murder against Alfred Person and Marnetta Person for killing Ed Davenport. The prisoners were arraigned and the trial set for Thursday.

with their assistants would distribute dividend checks to the stockholders.

Then headed by Burton's Drum Corps the farmers and visitors marched to the Gum warehouse where a most bountiful dinner was spread. There was so much to eat that even the thousand present could not consume it, and there was almost enough for as many more. The stockholders unanimously voted to distribute what was left among the poor of Greenville and the inmates of the county home, a very thoughtful and generous act.

A brief business session of the stockholders was also held in the Gum warehouse and Mr. T. R. Hodges was elected a director of the company to take the place of Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse who had resigned because of his election to the superintendency of the State prison. Messrs. J. J. Turnage and J. M. Cox were also re-elected directors, their terms having expired.

The growth of the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company has been something wonderful and its success marvellous. It began business in Greenville six years ago with one warehouse and since that time has extended its field of operations to Robersonville, Kinston and Wilson, now operating seven warehouses on these markets. Every movement of the company toward extension has met with success, attesting strongly the capability of its management and business methods, and the interest the tobacco farmers take in it.

Notwithstanding the extension the company has made, in these six years it has paid the stockholders an aggregate of 125 percent in dividends and now has property worth considerably more than the outstanding stock. This result should forever put at rest the charge often lightly made against farmers that they cannot get together and stick together on any business proposition. That they can organize and conduct a business for themselves with the highest measure of success is clearly shown in the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company.

AYDEN ITEMS.

News Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., April 22 1909.

H. C. Ormond and family spent Sunday with relatives in Greene county.

Rev. C. B. Mashburn will preach in the Disciple church fourth Sunday night.

Remember the Orphan asylum singing class will give their entertainment here next Saturday night, the 24th. We learn they have an excellent program. You cannot afford to miss hearing them. The class will remain through Sunday and lead the singing at the Free Will Baptist church.

John Willis had his foot badly, but not seriously, hurt last week by standing too near a dynamite explosion.

Miss Norma McGlohon and sister, Mrs. J. L. Hobgood, from near Greenville, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. J. R. Smith.

Mrs. Susan Dunn, of Kinston, is visiting her niece, Mrs. R. C. Cannon.

J. J. May, one of our county commissioners and best citizens, spent Sunday here with his daughter, Mrs. Walter Gardner.

Rape seed and Millet seed for sale by J. R. Smith Co.

The Loyal Temperance Legion, composed of little boys and girls in charge of Miss Lillian Munn and Rev. E. B. Joyner, spent Sunday at Winterville. The children attended Sunday school and church and reported they had the best time of their lives.

Miss Sarah Harding, of Greenville, is visiting Miss Helen Quinley.

Prof. T. B. Gibson gave his school a picnic at Pearce school house Saturday. The neighbors came with baskets full of good things to eat and all present report a good time. This is a splendid community who raise plenty to eat and to spare. Prof. Ragsdale was the orator of the day. Prof. Gibson has made many friends during his stay with us. He left Monday for his home at Red Springs.

Jay Carl Jones spent Sunday with his parents near Graingers.

Miss Mamie Dawson, of Grif-ton, is visiting relatives this week.

Mr. Church Moore, one of Ayden's promising young men and Miss Venetia Baker, one of Ayden's most popular young ladies, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. G. G. Baker, last Thursday morning at 7:30 o'clock, by Rev. C. M. Morton, of Wilson, pastor of Christian church here. The happy couple left immediately for Baltimore. They will also visit Washington City and Raleigh on their return

KEEL-SMITH.

Pretty Church Marriage This Afternoon.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon in Jarvis Memorial Methodist church in the presence of a large number of admiring friends, Mr. J. H. Keel and Miss Alice Smith were made man and wife; the pastor, Rev. J. H. Shore speaking the words that joined them for life. It was a pretty marriage, amid surroundings in perfect keeping and harmony with such occasions.

The church was beautifully decorated in green and white for the event, palms being in profusion around and on the altar.

As the bridal party entered the wedding march was played by Miss Lillian Carr, and during the ceremony she softly rendered "Hearts and Flowers."

The ushers, Messrs. S. T. White, J. E. Nobles, W. B. Wilson, Jr. and W. L. Hall, were first to pass down the aisles and take their positions around the altar, the others following them.

Miss Mary Smith, sister of the bride and maid of honor, wore a costume of blue suesine and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. E. V. Smith was dame of honor. She wore a costume of old rose messaline and also carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bride entered with her father, Capt. J. T. Smith, and wore a becoming coat suit of green and with gloves and hat to match. She carried a bouquet of bride roses.

As these passed down the aisle the groom with his brother, Mr. J. C. Keel, of Robersonville, entered from the pastor's study and met the bride at the altar.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple drove to the Atlantic Coast Line depot where they took the 4:30 train for a tour of some days in Florida.

Mr. Keel is the popular ticket agent of the Atlantic Coast Line here. His bride is a daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. T. Smith and a young lady of many charms.

At the home of the bride there were a large number of beautiful wedding presents that attested the wide popularity of the couple.

home. They will locate on West avenue.

We regret to learn that the seven months' old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilson died last Thursday.

J. N. Alexander was called to Ahoeskie Saturday to attend the burial of one of his nephews.

Remember the orphan singing class will give their entertainment at the Baptist church Saturday night. Be sure to come and bring your family and help a worthy cause with your presence and money.

Miss Sudie Becton, of Trenton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Tingle.

The Mission Band under the management of Mrs. J. R. Tingle and Mrs. C. M. Holton gave a splendid entertainment in the Christian church Sunday night. Mrs. M. W. Ormond, of Ormondsville, is visiting her son, H. C. Ormond.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

R. E. Cox, of Kinston, came over Tuesday and will be here for some days.

Mrs. V. N. Seawell, of Faison, arrived Tuesday evening and Mrs. J. W. Goodwin, of Philadelphia, arrived this morning to be with their sister, Mrs. M. M. Nelson, who is critically ill.

A Good Company.

The Californian, as presented by the Hendley Stock Company last night; more than pleased. The company is without a doubt far superior to any stock company of its size that has been here in some time, and would under any other circumstances as those prevailing play to crowded houses. All the parts last night were well taken and the play went with a vim. The company will close their engagement tonight with "Love and Honor," which is promised by the management to be the best of all.

With Our Colored People

At the A. I. E. Zion church Bishop, Alexander Walters, A. M. D. D. Bishop of the 3rd, Episcopal District, will preach and lecture at the above named church on Thursday night, April 22nd. Our white people and colored are most cordially invited to be present. Our white friends will occupy the left hand amen corner. All are welcomed.

R. Henry Sawyer, Jr.

Christian Church Meeting.

Another large congregation heard Dr. Colyer at the Christian church Tuesday night. He preached a powerful sermon from the subject, "The Sin of Sins." Much interest is being shown.

One person was received into the membership of the church. The subject tonight is "Try and Couldn't." At each service Prof. Bowles sings some appropriate selection.

A Forceful Sermon.

In the Baptist church Tuesday night Rev. G. T. Lumpkin preached one of the best sermons we ever heard, his subject being "Personal Responsibility." No parent especially could have heard it without being benefitted and awakened to a keener sense of responsibility.

There was one addition to the church at this service.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

WHAT THE FARMERS CAN DO.

A business that pays its stockholders an aggregate of 128 per cent dividends in six years, and still leaves them with property worth considerably more than the value of the outstanding stock, is not a business to be esteemed lightly. Yet this is the record of the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company, a business organized and controlled by farmers, a class who have in the past been charged with inability to get together and stick together on any business proposition. It is a record to be proud of, and The Reflector does not hesitate to reassert its oft expressed confidence in the enterprise and to again declare it the greatest movement ever undertaken by farmers. And while he has had faithful helpers in managing this mammoth enterprise, we do think too much can be said in praise of Mr. O. L. Joyner, who has been president of the company since its organization, and to whose brain, energy and industry its success in large measure is due. The tobacco farmers can never realize their full measure of indebtedness to him.

Sorry He Could Not Come

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company will be held in Greenville, N. C., Tuesday, April 20. A dinner will be given on the occasion and the Hon. J. Bryan Grimes will address the meeting on "Intelligent Co-operation Among Farmers." The occasion will doubtless be an interesting one, and it is our desire to be present. We have received a letter from our friend, Mr. O. L. Joyner, the president of the company, extending us a kindly invitation. We hope we can accept, for nothing would give us more genuine pleasure than to mingle with those splendid men of the goodly section in which Greenville is located. In this connection we desire to repeat our former expressions in regard to the work of Mr. Joyner and his associates. These gentlemen are doing more, from a practical standpoint, to help the tobacco farmers than all the politicians and disgruntled grouchers in the South. They are proceeding along lines of practical and business-like ideas, entirely free from those things that tend to dissatisfy and disrupt the planters. Mr. O. L. Joyner, and men of his like, will never do or say anything but what is for the very best interest of the tobacco farmers.—Winston Tobacco Journal.

At the last moment a letter was received from Colonel Webb stating his inability to come, and this was cause for regret all around. He would have enjoyed a visit here and Greenville would have been delighted to have him. Don't wait for another annual meeting, colonel, but run down between time.

Corn is coming up, but it is not too late to plant some more to come along with it.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

We have not the figures, but believe it would be a safe assertion to say that more money is sent out of Pitt county annually for meat, corn and hay than comes into it for cotton. And these articles of food supply could be raised so easily at home, and for so much less than it costs to buy them elsewhere. Keep at home the million dollars and more a year that is sent out of the county for food supplies and you will see a very much more prosperous county.

The Times says that unless some steps are taken at once to curb the lawless and desperate element that infests certain parts of Raleigh something will happen to give that city a bad name. We thought it had already happened, and that Raleigh's reputation was bad enough. Yet the suggestion that something be done to curb the lawlessness there is timely.

Those women who are trying to persuade the mistress of the White House to raise chickens must not be her real friends, or they would not want to get her in trouble with her neighbors.

"I do not believe in the mail order citizen. IT IS BETTER THAT WE SHOULD HAVE A THOUSAND TOWNS THAN ONE LARGE CITY. If a place is good enough for a man to make his money in, it certainly should be good enough for him to spend his money in. The merchants have a just right to all the business of the town in which they have their stores, and every good citizen will help them to get it."

Did you ever see a FINE LARGE FACT so simply stated?

A Change of Tune.
A furniture van stood in front of a house. A little boy stood by the horse and gave it some bread to eat. The driver looked on with a broad grin.
"That's right," said he to the young benefactor; "always be kind to dumb animals. Look how the old horse enjoys it. But does your mother always give you big chunks like that?"
"No," replied the youngster; "I didn't get that from my mother."
"Where did you get it, then?"
"It was lying in the van."
Here the driver flew into a temper and bawled out:
"Why, that was my breakfast, you miserable rascal, you!"
The poor lad, doomed thus early in life to a practical experience of the sudden vicissitudes of popular favor, flew from the scene.—London Tit-Bits.

The Generous Scot.
An Edinburgh tourist arrived at King's Cross station one day, accompanied by his wife and daughters and an enormous quantity of luggage. One of the porters attended to the latter, taking about a quarter of an hour to convey it to the cab outside.
When he was done, the canny Scot produced his snuffbox and said: "Man, ye've been very obleegin' Wad ye tak' a pinch o' snuff?"—London Scraps.

Unreasonable.
An old Tennessee ducky was arrested, charged with stealing a pig. The evidence was absolutely conclusive, and the judge, who knew the old man well, said reproachfully, "Now, Uncle Rastus, why did you steal that pig?"
"Bekase mah pooh fambly wuz starvin', yo' honnah," whimpered the old man.
"Family starving!" cried the judge. "But they tell me you keep five dogs. How is that, uncle?"
"Why, yo' honnah," said Uncle Rastus reprovingly, "you wouldn't s'pect mah fambly to eat dem dawgs!"—Argonaut.

The Lesser Evil.
There are other destructive forces in nature, and even earthquakes have rivals. "This happened at the time of the trembler at Charleston, S. C., several years ago. A resident of the shaken city, while he felt that his duties required him to remain there to do what he might for the sufferers, sent his six-year-old son out of the danger and confusion to the youngster's grandfather in New York. Three days after the boy's arrival the Charleston man received this telegram from his father: "Send us your earthquake and take back your boy."

An Apology Due and Forthcoming.
An illiterate young man once got a friend to write a letter for him to his sweetheart. The letter was rather prosaic for a love letter, and the lover felt that an apology was due to his sweetheart for its lack of tender nothings. It was added at his suggestion as follows:
"Please excuse the mildness of this here letter, as the chap wot's writin' it is a married man, and he says he can't bide any soft soapings. It allus gives him the spazms."—London Telegraph.

He Had No Answer.
Sister (to elderly prodigal, who is much given to pawning his things)—What's this ticket on yer best coat, Sandy?
Sandy—That was the night I was at McPhearson's ball. They tack yer coat from ye at the door and gie ye a ticket for't.
Sister—H'm! Aye, I see there's yin on yer trousers as well.—London Punch.
Death is a friend of ours, and he that is not ready to entertain him is not at home.—Bacon.
