ARLINGTON CONFEDERATE MONUMENT.

A Plan to Build at Once—Appeal to Public on Memorial Day.

No contribution asked for more than 10 cents. $9,000.00 now in hand. One day's earnest work throughout the country will, it is hoped, complete the amount needed.

Some years ago, under a generous act of the United States congress, at government expense, the remains of 265 Confederate soldiers, then scattered throughout Arlington and the District of Columbia, were gathered and interred together in a beautiful spot now known as the Confederate section in Arlington cemetery, each grave marked with a marble headstone, identifying the soldier when possible. Practically every Confederate State is named on those slabs.

Later the United States Congress gave by unanimous vote $200,000.00 to care for the graves of those who died in Northern prisons. Each of these soldiers, where known, is to have a separate headstone, and the remains of the unknown, it has now been decided by the president, are to be grouped under appropriate monuments.

In the center of the Confederate section at Arlington is left a mound. There, in sight of Washington City, where for untold generations the American and the foreigner will be pilgrims, the Confederates themselves are expected, to build a memorial, which will typify their love of and veneration for their dead.

Soon after the reinterment at Arlington, Confederate organizations in Washington began to move in this matter. In 1906 the United Daughters of the Confederacy, in convention at Gulfport, endorsed the movement and subscribed to it. In 1907 at Norfolk the daughters took full charge, appointing directors in the several states and an executive committee at Washington. All went promptly to work. From all sources the amount received and deposited in the American Security & Trust Company, of Washington, D. C., as reported at a meeting of our committee, on the 5th of April, 1909, was $8,999.73, besides $4 50 on hand, but not yet deposited, aggregating over nine thousand dollars now in hand.

To build a monument worthy of our dead and which will represent at Arlington, the home of Lee, all the Confederates everywhere, we feel that we need $30,000 more. This sum can and will be subscribed by our friends at once, if they are properly solicited. Each local chapter of the daughters is therefore hereby earnestly requested to

1. Ask the local newspapers, which are always public spirited, to print this appeal in two (or more, if dailies) of their issues preceding the coming local Memorial Day, calling attention to the appeal.

2. Appoint a number of earnest and efficient young lady canvassers, each to be decorated, when soliciting, with appropriate insignia of authority, and instruct them to ask of every one, in streets, business houses and homes, to contribute 10 cents, informing each person that no more is asked, but that larger or smaller sums will not be refused, and the canvassers must politely insist on pinning upon each one who responds a piece of white ribbon, upon which is printed

KING'S CROSS ROAD ITEMS.

Kings X Roads, May 3, 1909. Our farmers suffered much damage from the wind and rain. W. E. Smith says he has six acres of land damaged $75 dollars. C. E. Case went to Fountain Wednesday.

W. E. Smith and family spent Saturday night and Sunday with Joe Brown.

Miss Irene Smith spent last Tuesday evening at Fountain.

Mrs. Maud Smith and Mrs. Annie Burnett went to Farmville Friday.

Misses Mollie and Mimie Langley spent some time with Mrs. W. C. Moore last week.

Miss Carrie Smith spent last Friday with Miss Irene Smith.

Willie Randolph and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with W. S. E. Smith.

W. C. Moore went to Farmville Wednesday.

A. C. Monk and Harry Lane Humphrey, of Farmville, spent sometime with W. S. E. Smith Tuesday evening.

Clean Case had a narrow escape Friday evening by a runaway mule. There was but little damage done.

Mrs. Annie Burnett and Miss Lanie Tyson spent last Wednesday with their sister, Mrs. W. E. Smith.

Marcellus Smith is preparing to erect a nice dwelling.

Mrs. Mattie J. Smith spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Rosa Williams, of Fountain, and attended the reception of Dr. Hardy Johnson.

J. F. Parker and family spent Sunday with W. C. Moore.

Mrs. Addie O. Corbett and Miss Jola Smith went to Farmville Monday.

ment."

3. Amounts thus collected, less necessary expenses, will be sent by check or express to Mr. Wallace Streater, treasurer, 3160 18th street, Washington, D. C., who will duly acknowledge as well as publish in the "Confederate Veteran" of Nashville, Tenn. This plan energetically carried out it is earnestly hoped will at once enable the organization to ask for designs and bids to be submitted to the U. D. C., at the next convention.

It will be gratifying indeed if the building by the Federal government of the monument it is about to erect over our unknown dead around northern prisons, shall be promptly followed by the consummation of our own plans for such a memorial at Arlington as shall be a source of pride to us and our posterity.

Should every chapter of the daughters in all the land, whether it is or is not otherwise observing memorial day, unitedly rise to this work as we confidently expect and in the space of one day raise the sum necessary to complete this monument, what a glorious spectacle of love and patriotism this will present.

By order of Mrs. Cornelia Branch Stone, President-General U. D. C., this 10th day of April, 1909.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., May 4, 1909. Glad to see Bud Joe on the street Monday.

Rev. J. R. Tingle went to Middleton last Friday.

Robert Worthington went to Plymouth Thursday.

At the town election Monday the following officers were elected for ensuing year: J. F. Barwick, mayor; Aldermen, Elias Turnage, D. G. Berry, W. B. Quinerly, Jesse Cannon and C. E. Spear. These are all splendid men and will make good officers. Mr. Barwick has been mayor two years already.

While Mrs. G. W. Prescott was cooking dinner Monday, her baby girl 15 months old went too near the fire where her mother had been washing, and was badly, if not seriously, burned. The family have the sympathy of the community.

MALLISON-DAVIS.

On Wednesday April 28th, at 3:15 p. m. in the Christian church, Miss Arah C. Davis was married to Mr. Edward G. Mallison, of Washington, N. C., Rev. J. C. Caldwell, of Wilson, officiating. Miss Blanch Cannon played the wedding march. Miss Arah is one of the leading young ladies of Ayden. Mr. Mallison is in the hardware business at Washington, N. C. The bridal party left on the 4 o'clock train for their home at Washington, with the best wishes of their many friends in Ayden.

The Y. M. C. A. had the best meeting since its organization Sunday afternoon. You who stay away don't know what you are missing.

Postmaster Bryan, of Winterville, was here Monday.

Rev. C. M. Morton filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Rev. E. T. Phillips preached at May's Chapel Sunday.

J. R. Smith Co. have the largest sign in Ayden, advertising Selz Shoes for Ladies and Gentlemen.

James Blount, an old darkey who lived near here, noted for his honesty and uprightness, died Sunday.

Mrs. H. J. Corbett came home Monday from a visit to relatives.

Big Tobacco Crops For North Carolina.

It will be remembered that the largest crop of tobacco ever produced in North Carolina was the 1902-'03 crop, when the State was credited with a total production of about 143,000,000 pounds. It may be a matter of surprise to many to know that the crop of 1908-'09 will nearly, if not quite, reach the record-breaking crop of 1902-'03. The cause of this heavy crop is on account of the enormous acreage yield, and not on account of any considerable increase in acres planted. Next tobacco year will be a big one, provided the seasons are favorable, but we can scarcely look for another such year as the one now passing.—Southern Tobacco Journal.

Commissioner Lewis Qualifies.

Mr. B. M. Lewis, who in March was appointed a county commissioner to succeed the late Mr. A. V. Lang, but who was prevented from being here at the April meeting of the board because of sickness in his family, was here at the meeting Monday and qualified for the duties of his office.

FOURTEEN CENTS FOR PARSON.

Fee of New Jersey Bridal Couple Who Broke His Slumbers.

"Won't you come down long enough to marry us?" came a voice from the darkness when the Rev. James E. Adams, the Methodist Episcopal minister, at Mauricetown, poked his head out of a second-story window soon after midnight, in answer to a knock on the front door of the parsonage.

"Come around tomorrow. It's too late to marry you tonight," replied the parson.

"No, we are in a hurry, and have driven all the way from Millville to get you to perform the ceremony," said John H. Brandriff, son of Ephraim Brandriff, a Millville merchant, who had rapped at the door.

"Wait a minute," said the dominie.

He was soon dressed, and performed the ceremony, with his wife and daughter as witnesses. The bride was Miss Nettie Calkins, of Millville. Before the happy couple drove away they handed the Rev. Mr. Adams a pink envelope, which felt through the paper as if it contained it banknote.

The minister says he found inside a piece of heavy paper containing 14 cents, and on the paper was written: "This is all we can spare now. Will see you later."

The minister has framed the paper and coins, and it adorns the wall of his study. He has added the date and the names of the contracting parties.—Millville (N. J.) Dis. to N. Y. Times.

The Revival that Revives.

There was undoubtedly the best Monday night audience ever assembled in Greenville at the Christian church last night.

All were favorably impressed with Dr. Colyer's sermon. One man remarked today, "Dr. Colyer is the first evangelist I ever saw who did not have a light sermon. I did not think his first sermon could be improved upon, but every one gets better."

The pastor, Rev. Arnold, says he is delighted with what has been done and is highly pleased with the outlook for what is to follow.

Dr. Colyer has showed wonderful skill from the very beginning of the meeting, as to how to conduct a revival. His goodness and zeal overrides all opposition. He says that he has implicit confidence in the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation. He says he will continue to tell you tonight why he has so great faith in the gospel.

Mr. Bowles sang "Life and Light Forever" last night. He has promised to give us an appropriate solo tonight.

The Sunbeam chorus added much to the music last night.

Let us remember that the Hesperian quartette will be with us again next Saturday evening, Sunday and Sunday evening. It is useless to say that if there was to be no other attraction that the house will be crowded and if you wish to have the pleasure of hearing this quartette you must come early to each service.

Let it also be remembered that the services begin each evening at 7:45 and all the music program is over by 8:10.

TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1909.

Republicans put out a ticket in the city election in Raleigh, Monday, but it cut a puny figure.

The weather has been very unfavorable to peek-a-boo waists, but this is to remind them to be patient. Summer will be along after a while.

Greenville has a habit of showing herself when visitors come around this way. It does not take them long to see that this is a good town and is making things come to pass.

The meeting of the shareholders of The Home Building and Loan Association tonight is something of importance. An organization doing as much for the town as this deserves the interest of all citizens.

Women, horses and the stock market are said to have caused the downfall of a Minneapolis bank cashier, and he embezzled a large lump of the bank's funds to keep up with the push. That kind of a combination is likely to down a man.

If the nations of the earth would resolve to live in peace and wipe out their large standing armies, there would be no need of raising so much revenue. So much useless preparation for war looks like strutting around with a chip on the shoulder looking for somebody to knock off.

Pecans and Apples.

The High Point Enterprise has figured it out that "in twenty years an acre of land set with pecan trees will be worth $1,000 and yield an annual income of $85—therefore ten acres set to the same productive trees would yield an income of $850 annually. A small original investment at the end of twenty years would give the investor a nice income for the rest of his life and during the intervening years the crops which were grown on the ten acres would bring returns sufficient for a good living. The advantage of this investment lies in the fact that it would be better for the growth and development of the pecan trees to have the ground in which they were planted worked for growing crops, and their growth would be stimulated by the application of the fertilizer which would be applied to these same crops." It has been demonstrated that the soil and climate of this section is peculiarly adapted to pecan culture, and it has also been demonstrated that the people of this age do not care any too much about building or planting for posterity. They are a selfish race and want to enjoy the fruits of their own work. This is, perhaps, one of the explanations that they do not look kindly to the crop which requires twenty years for maturity. An apple orchard gets into business within five years and is not an experimental crop. Its profitableness has been prov-

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

ed and people who have land to set out in trees naturally turn to the apple. The truth of the matter is, however, that more of both apple and pecan trees ought to be planted.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Ex-Gov. Glenn's Work.

Says the Charlotte News: There are few men in the country doing more to stir interest in the work of home missions than ex-Gov. R. B. Glenn. At every point in his itinerary he is met with large audiences and reports of his speeches show that he has lost not one whit of his adro or eloquence.

Recently Mr. Glenn appeared in Atlanta and the Georgian has this to say of his work:

"We are gratified to note the enthusiasm which ex-Gov. R. B. Glenn seems to be arousing all over the South in home missions. Nothing like it has recently been known. On relinquishing the executive reins some time ago, this former chief magistrate of the Tar Heel state gave his services to the Home Mission board of the Southern Presbyterian church for an active campaign of one year. His gifts as an orator were well known. But we doubt if even the most intimate friend of ex-Gov. Glenn realized what it meant to the cause of evangelism for this distinguished layman to enter the list. In kindling the popular interest upon the great subject of missions he has been a consecrated brand of fire. And what the result will be no one can fore-shadow; for he has only commenced."

We were speaking about the general worthlessness of testimonials and endorsements today and this incident came to light. When the late Thomas G. Skinner represented the first district of North Carolina in congress a man whom we will call John Brown was an aspirant for an important position in the government service. He was told that he would have to have an endorsement from his congressman. Now Mr. Skinner happened to know that the gentleman's virtues were entirely negative, and that he was not qualified for the position which he wanted to fill. Taking the application, he wrote on the back of it: "I hereby endorse John Brown without recourse." And Brown does not understand to this day why he did not land the job.—Charlotte Observer.

Visiting Specialists

FROM THE

Cleveland Institute of Medicine and Surgery

Legally Chartered and Incorporated
CLEVELAND, OHIO

will pay their first visit to

GREENVILLE, N. C.

and will be at the

Bertha Hotel

Friday, May 7th.

Tell your Sick Friends

ONE DAY ONLY

9 A. M. TO 7:30 P. M.

FREE

This Institute, composed of a group of regularly graduated physicians and surgeons, licensed, legally chartered and incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio, sends at its own expense these eminent medical specialists in order to introduce the newest methods and discoveries in medicine and surgery, such as the system of treatment under X ray Violet ray, Finsen ray, Hydrotherapy, Etc., to give to those who call on the above date, consultation, examination advice and all medicines required to complete a cure, absolutely free. These specialists will diagnose your case and give you the benefit of their skill and medical knowledge.

There is in this case no experimenting or guess work at your expense. You will be told whether you can be cured or not. If your case is curable they will put you under treatment immediately; if incurable they will give you such advice as may prolong your life. Their treatment always gives quick relief, and ultimately positively cures. Being prepared to cope with each individual case the human system is thoroughly cleansed of the disease in a natural and direct manner, and improvement is noticed at once; even the worst cases are treated without any inconvenience to the patient or the pursuing of his or her daily vocation.

If you are improving under your family physician, do not come and take up their valuable time, as they absolutely refuse to treat any one who is under the care of the local physicians. They wish besides to give each patient plenty of time and their undivided attention, but can not listen to long stories not pertaining to your trouble. They have discarded the old methods and remedies used for ages by the medical world, and which it would be folly to depend upon any longer, for they are not known to cure, as thousands die, depending on them for relief. The following list of diseases only are taken under treatment, to-wit: Diseases of the Nervous System, Heart, Stomach, Lungs, Kidneys, Catarrh, (purulent or dry), Consumption, Epilepsy, Deafness, Diseases of Women, Tumors, Pseudo Cancers, Piles, of a Chronic Nature only. They treat Deafness by an entirely new method, and hearing in many cases is restored at once. Catarrh in all its varied forms, like other diseases if once taken under treatment, is cured permanently to remain so and to never return. It matters not whom you have seen, or with whom treated, do not fail to call, as a visit will cost you nothing, and may restore you to health, or even save or prolong your life, as thousands of persons will testify by unassailable testimonials in all parts of the country. If you suspect Kidney Trouble, bring a two ounce bottle of your Urine for chemical and microscopical analysis.

REMEMBER:—The free offer is during this visit only, and will not be repeated. Persons commencing treatment upon their future visits will be required to pay, but not one cent will be asked from those commencing treatment during this visit for any medicine necessary to effect a cure, irrespective of your position in life, or the number of those who come on above date. Whenever, or by whom wanted, a positive guarantee to cure will be given under their system of treatment. Those having long standing and complicated disease, who have failed to get well and become discouraged, are particularly invited to call.

NOTICE:—Married ladies without their HUSBANDS, and minors without their FATHERS, will positively not be admitted to consultation, unless accompanied by one of their local physicians. Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 7:30 P. M.

A Cheerful Introduction.

In one of the great houses in the west end of London there were a dinner and a reception. After awhile the maid was called, and the mistress said:

"Serve the dinner. There is no one else to come, except a relation of little importance!"

Five minutes afterward the maid announced in a loud tone:

"The relation of little importance!"—London Tit-Bits.

Just a Friendly Scratch.

Celia—Do you believe in reincarnation, dear?

Delia—No. Why?

Celia—I was just thinking what a nice, soft little white cat you would make.

Delia—If I came back as your cat I wouldn't be one long.

Celia—Why not, dear?

Delia—Because you would lead me such a dog's life.—New York Herald.

Becoming.

Mrs. Grampus (suggestively)—Don't you think, dear, that his season's hats are becoming? Mr. Grampus—Yes; they're becoming so expensive that I'm afraid we'll have to get along without one for you this time.—Pathfinder.
