The following gentlemen will be our town officers for the coming year: R. G. Chapman, mayor; aldermen, L. L. Kittrell, A. G. Cox and J. K. Barnhill. These gentlemen have filled these offices one year and have given us an excellent administration, so we know that town affairs will be in safe hands for the coming year.

Postmaster Bryan spent Sunday with relatives near Stokes.

We call your special attention to the last statement of the Bank of Winterville, showing the excellent condition of the bank. It solicits your patronage and guarantees prompt service.

New hamburgs of all styles.

A. W. Ange & Co

To Our Friends and Customers: We desire to call your kind attention to our Handy Tobacco Trucks as the season is now almost at hand when you will need trucks for housing your tobacco. We have orders now for more than 1000 for future shipments and would, therefore, urge our customers to place their orders as early as possible which will insure getting them when wanted, otherwise owing to the great demand might be somewhat delayed.

B. & L. ANNUAL MEETING.

Board of Directors Unanimously Re-Elected.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of The Home Building and Loan Association was held Tuesday night in the mayor's office.

In the absence of both the president and vice-president, Mayor H. W. Whedbee presided over the meeting. In taking the chair he made some interesting statements regarding the work of the association. It is now just three years old, has 1677 shares in force and has loans aggregating $50,000 which has been invested in homes in Greenville. He said unhesitatingly that it is doing more for the town than any other institution here.

The only business before the meeting was the election of directors for the next year. Eleven of the present directors were unanimously re-elected, the one new member of the board being the last named, as follows: R. C. Flanagan, R. O. Jeffress, D. C. Moore, D. J. Whichard, C. T. Munford, B. W. Moseley, C. C. Vines, H. W. Whedbee, C. O'H. Laughinghouse, S. T. White, H. A. White and W. A. Bowen.

Opera House Friday and Saturday.

The success of the Ethel Morton Opera company which comes to the Masonic Temple opera house is largely due to Manager Courtney. A man of many years experience along theatrical lines, he has seemingly made use of all his knowledge and previous training in organizing his present company. The cast is a carefully selected one, headed by a star who has won her way by sheer force of merit. All the productions are carefully staged, and generously and tastefully provided with suitable scenery and costumes. In Mr. Dewey we find a producer of ability as well as reputation. The entire organization reflects credit on Manager Courtney, the man who achieved its completeness.

This has been the opinion of all who have previously seen its productions, and will be yours when you have the pleasure on May 7th and 8th. Those of you who want to laugh, will have your fill then. If there are any of you so joyous that more laughter is impossible (which we greatly doubt,) why for you there is a wealth of pretty music in store backed by various interesting plots. Sale of seats begins Thursday at Reflector Book Store.

At the Very Hour.

A correspondent relates a story concerning a gentleman who went out to India and obtained a post on a plantation, leaving his wife and family in England until he was in a position to send for them. One day when working on the plantation he rested for a short time with his hand on the handle of his spade. While he was standing in this way a bird alighted on his hand. Naturally he was very much surprised and as he moved his hand the bird flew away. He proceeded with his work and forgot the incident.

When the next mail from England arrived, however, it was painfully recalled to his memory. His wife had died unexpectedly, the death taking place not only on the same day, but at the very hour the bird perched upon his hand.—Birmingham, England, Mail.

ROCHDALE ITEMS

Rochdale, N. C., May 4, 1909.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McLawhorn went to Greenville Wednesday.

Miss Lou Crawford and Miss Carrie Belle Smith returned home Wednesday after spending several days visiting in Farmville and vicinity.

A. J. Flanagan, of Farmville, was in our section a short while Wednesday.

R. E. Willoughby went to Farmville Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Smith, of Marlton, were visiting in Smithtown Sunday evening.

R. M. Starkey and J. Robt. McArthur attended Sunday school at Smith's school house Sunday.

I. L. Norman, E. S. Norman, Jacob Wilson and Lill Blow Allen were visitors at Sunday school at Smith's school house Sunday evening.

Ivy Smith went to Greenville Monday to sell cotton.

C. D. Smith and Mark Smith went to Greenville Monday.

Mills Smith and two children were visiting at B. P. Willoughby's Thursday.

Miss Agnes Smith, of Smithtown, and David Smith, of Marlton, left Friday evening for Snow Hill and returned Sunday.

Eld. E. T. Philips, of Ayden, came Friday evening and stopped with C. E. McLawhorn and preached very good sermons Saturday and Sunday at May's chapel. Communion service was held Saturday night.

C. D. Smith went to Greenville Saturday.

Lloyd Smith went to Greenville Monday.

T. E. Little went to Greenville yesterday.

S. V. Joyner, Nolie Fulford, A. A. Joyner and Sam Joyner went to Greenville yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Cook, pastor of the Baptist church of Greenville, is expected to preach at Smith's school house Sunday evening. All who can come out to hear him and attend Sunday school.

The heavy rains Friday evening and night retarded farm work considerably in our section. Mrs. C. E. McLawhorn and Mrs. Mills Smith went to Farmville this morning to spend the day.

B. P. Willoughby and children were in our town this morning to get some tobacco plants. Some of the farmers have much resetting to do, and plants are scarce with some of them.

Electric Clock Service.

Lineman Riggan, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, was here yesterday and today installing an electric clock system. Clocks will be placed in Coward & Wooten's drug store, in W. L. Best's jewelry store and in Hotel Bertha, and these are controlled by a sub-master clock in the Western Union office in Reflector building. The clocks will all be set accurately every day at noon if there is the slightest variation in them, and our people can consult either of them with the assurance of getting correct time.

Preparing for Convention.

A committee of The King's Daughters is making a canvass to get homes in which to entertain the delegates to the State convention here the last week in this month. The ladies should meet with a cordial response, as Greenville must show her accustomed hospitality.

PRES. TAFT ON 20TH OF MAY.

His Time in Charlotte to be Fully Occupied—Everyone Will be Given An Opportunity to See Him.

Charlotte, N. C., May 4.—The central committee of the twentieth of May celebration, which is to be held in this city May 18, 19 and 20, has outlined the programme for President Taft, when he will be a guest of the city, as follows: Arrive in Charlotte at 10 o'clock on a special train, 10 a. m., salute of 21 guns by the Charlotte artillery upon his arrival at the Southern station.

Special committee to meet President and Mrs. Taft at the Southern station and escort them to the Selwyn hotel.

11 a. m. President and Mrs. Taft to receive reception committee and their wives at the Selwyn hotel.

12 m. Old soldiers to escort President and Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Stonewall Jackson to the reviewing stand on South Tryon street.

3 p. m. Luncheon at the Selwyn.

3:30 p. m. The president to address the public.

5:50 p. m. The president to specially address the students of Biddle University and the colored people generally at Biddle University.

6:30 p. m. Dinner at the Selwyn.

8:30 President and Mrs. Taft to receive the public in the large parlors of the Selwyn.

Leave Charlotte on special train after the public reception.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

Fayetteville, N. C., May 3.—A case believed to have no precedent in the annals of jurisprudence was placed on trial in the Superior court here today in which J. F. Bedsole asks $100,000 damages from the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad for mental anguish caused by being compelled to kill an excursionist named Alexson in self-defense on an Atlantic Coast Line train and for injuries received by being kicked in the face. The plaintiff avers that the conductor should have afforded protection.

We are told that at least 75 per cent of the negroes of Sanford own their own homes. Some of them also own houses for rent. They also have five churches and a good school that is well attended. Materially the race has made considerable progress here in the past few years. The honest, energetic worthy ones among them enjoy the confidence and have the good will of the white people. Some of this class have bank accounts and can get credit from our merchants.—Sanford Enterprise.

Reunion Memorial Day.

The annual reunion of Confederate soldiers in Pitt county will be held here on next Monday, memorial day. Every old soldier who can come should be in Greenville that day to enjoy the occasion. There will be an interesting program followed by a dinner. Mr. Edward L. Stewart, a talented young lawyer and orator of Washington, will deliver the address.

School Closings.

The graded schools of Farmville and Grifton both have closing exercises tomorrow night and Friday. Dr. B. F. Dixon will deliver the address at Farmville, and Prof. E. C. Brooks at Grifton.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

J. W. Bryan went to Norfolk today.

Mrs. J. W. Goodwin, of Philadelphia, who spent some days with her sister, Mrs. M. M. Nelson, left Tuesday evening.

A REGIMENT OF BIDDERS.

Here After Contracts—Home Company Gets Award for Buildings.

There have been almost an army of bidders here yesterday and today to go before the executive committee of the trustees of East Carolina Teachers' Training school and submit bids on the two new buildings to be erected, and for the equipment of all the buildings. Monday the bidders began arriving and every train brought numbers of them. There are building contractors, machinery men, furniture men, laundry men, electrical men, railroad men with an eye to getting the freights, and others, and they came from all sections of the country. Several car loads of furniture and other equipment were also shipped in to exhibit before the committee, and the school buildings have much the appearance of an exposition with the large display of different articles.

These have been busy days for the executive committee going over and comparing the various bids, and their work in this particular is not yet completed. All that has been given out so far is that the contracts for the two additional buildings was awarded to the Building & Lumber Co. of Greenville, the same company that erected the first four buildings. It speaks well for the home company to get these contracts.

We cannot give the full particulars of the bidding and the figures until the committee can make a report.

"According to Your Faith be it Unto You."

Dr. Colyer spoke last night from the above subject. He possessed his usual power and striking personality.

He showed beyond all contradiction that there was no life (eternal life) in any material thing, and that life was only in Christ.

He used four very forceful illustrations, "The Eternal Mill, The Eternal Fields, The Eternal Looms and Human Heart." The mill grinds what is put in the hopper; the field produces what is planted, the loom weaves what is put on the spindel, and the heart reflects what is hidden. "As a man thinketh in heart so is he."

There was another addition last night.

Mr. Bowles sang "Some Day" last night. The music is improving all the time and will continue to do so, looking toward the great climax when the Hesperian Quartette of A. C. College will be with us Sunday.

The children's service is growing, there were 70 Tuesday afternoon and we look for 100 this afternoon.

Salesman—We are desirous of securing the service of an expert salesman on a salary to begin with of $100 and expenses per month. No one except a hustler who can give good reference need apply. We offer right man a good contract. National Loan & Trust Company, Tifton, Ga. 5 10

Methodist Baraca Class.

Sunday morning was indeed a bright one for the Methodist Baraca class. In spite of the fact that new seats have been added each week, it seems that there is never an empty one at the close of the exercises. Last Sunday was a record breaker. There were 76 present of the 94 now on roll. Almost every Sunday is an increase over the preceding one and we are encouraged to believe that the "hundred mark" is bound to come.

Just think of it! In a month more summer resorts will be opening and the excursion season will begin.

Looks like we are to have a real quiet week on the judgeship matter. No new candidates have been reported going to Washington for inspection.

The girls should take warning how they jilt their fellows after being given a diamond ring. A Virginia judge has decided that a girl who refuses to marry a man must return her engagement ring.

Old Argument Against Railroads.

The stage fare from Huntsville to Glasgow—twenty-five miles—was $1.50. This stage carried the mail and it had to go. When the roads were so muddy horses could not pull the stage, a double yoke of oxen took their places. It was slow traveling, but they got through. The steamboat fare from Glasgow to St. Louis in the early '50's was $7. That included stateroom and meals, and if the boat was held up a week or two on a sandbar the accommodations went on without extra charge. The steamboat owners never believed the railroads could successfully compete with them. The way they looked at it people wouldn't be willing to travel 100 or 200 miles, tied down to one seat in a small car, when they might be enjoying the freedom of a big and handsomely furnished boat. "Then how are they going to find room for an orchestra and a dance," an old river captain wanted to know. "No place to eat or drink, no room to move about; just sit still all day long on a little wooden bench—why, it's downright foolishness."—Macon Republican.

Tribulations of The Editor.

A lawyer charges a man $10 for ten minutes conversation. The man insists on paying it. A doctor charges $1 for a prescription, and the patient says: "Oh, pshaw! Is that enough?" An undertaker charges $100 for conducting a funeral, and he is just perfectly lovely with everybody inside and outside the family. A man buys a gold brick and apologizes for not having bitten before. An editor walks a mile in the hot sun to get facts of a death or a wedding or a social function and spend three hours

 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

writing it up and tells lies praising people until he hates himself. Then if he makes an insignificant omission or charges 5 cents straight for three extra copies he is a stingy, careless, good for nothing old cuss who never gets anything right and charges four times the price for city papers twice as large.—Marion, Ga. Record.

Just Plain Gamblers.

There is no occasion for surprise in the announcement that Patten, the king of wheat gamblers, has withdrawn, salting down his millions of ill-gotten gains and leaving the other fellow to look out for himself. It was ever thus. Patten did some big talking about the shortage of the supply, actual values and the like, and in all probability convinced some few who followed his lead and played the market that wheat was worth all it commanded. The great majority of the bulls, however, were just plain everyday gamblers like Patten who didn't care a tinker's dam about real values so long as they could make their deals spell profit. For this reason few tears will be shed over the announcement that many fortunes have been swept away by the decline of this week.—Salisbury Evening Post.

There are laws and laws. One would suppose that it would be perfectly legitimate to kill a sheep-killing dog, especially if the dog was caught in the commission of the crime. But in Sampson Superior court last week Judge W. R. Allen, easily one of the first lawyers in the State, held as a matter of law that one killing a sheep-killing dog is liable to indictment for cruelty to animals unless the dog had been previously outlawed by a magistrate, in accordance with the statutes made and provided.—Statesville Landmark.

Dr. Wiley, the expert chemist of the Agricultural Department at Washington, was examined the other day on his ideas of what is whiskey. He said in effect there was very little of it made—that almost all of it was made from extracts and was a violation of the pure food act. He exhibited a number of samples of which tests had been made and said its taste and smell would fool even experts—with the exception of himself and Mr. Roosevelt.—Greensboro Record.

THE BUTLER'S STORY.

By One Slight Stroke He Wins a Long Sought Raise of Wages.

"It certainly is singular," the butler said, "how it pays to look out for the little things.

"I had been trying for six months to get a raise from my employer, but nothing doing. I worked and served faithfully always and with discretion and good judgment, if I do say it, but no raise. Then came along a little bit of an incident that got me the lift of wages I wanted right away.

"I have always been accustomed to pay attention to the little personal peculiarities of my employer's guests so that I could show at the table or away from it attention to their fancies or their real wants, and this I knew entitled me to higher recognition in the way of pay, for all this, of course, was for my employer's benefit and good. As I couldn't tell him all these things, I had to rely on the general character of my service. There came an opportunity at last in which my careful attention to little things won out for me.

"We had among our guests at dinner one night a gentleman upon whom, as I chanced to know, my employer was particularly desirous to make a favorable impression, and from the moment that gentleman came into the house I had, as you might say, my eye on him. I was studying him, and well was my study rewarded, for presently I discovered about him a peculiarity my knowledge of which I knew at the proper time would save him from great discomfort.

"When in due time the guests were seated at the table and I had come to wait on them I served them, to be sure, with such dishes as they were to take a portion from, each with the dish at his left side, so that the person served could reach it most conveniently. But when I came to the gentleman of whom I have spoken I did not pass around him to hand the dish at his left side. No; I simply moved the dish from the left side of the gentleman I had just previously served across the interval to this gentleman's right side, and I continued to serve him at his right side throughout the dinner despite the scowls which my master repeatedly directed at me for so doing, and I knew what was coming to me later. When the guests had all gone he said to me: "James, how could you have made such a frightful mistake as you did all through the evening in serving Mr. Dickerton at his right side?"

"Sir," I said, "Mr. Dickerton is left handed."

"It never did need a beetle and wedge to get an idea into my master's head, and at that he said, with his face all a-beaming:

"James, you are a great man! And he raised my wages on the spot.

"My son," the butler concluded, "never neglect the big things; always watch out for them, but keep an eye always, too, on the little things. Many a fortune has turned on a needle's point."—New York Sun.

The Story of Mignon.

A real story lies back of Goethe's beautiful creation of Mignon, which has passed into so many songs and even into an opera. This story runs that in 1764 an Italian equilibrist named Caratta went to Gottingen with his troupe. In his company was a child, evidently of good family, who took her part with marked reluctance. The report soon spread that the child had been kidnapped by Caratta, but he fled and escaped all injury. The fate of the eleven-year-old Petronella, as she was called, caused a great sensation in Gottingen. Young poets of the town wrote on the theme, and Daniel Schiebler, one of the university students, collected these poems into a volume. Soon after Schiebler went to Leipzig, where he was thrown much with Goethe and told him the sad tale of little Petronella. A decade later, this Petronella became one of the most charming poetic creations—Goethe's "Mignon."

TRUTHFUL REPORT.

Greenville Reads Them With Uncommon Interest.

A Greenville citizen tells his experience in the following statement. No better evidence than this can be had. The truthful report of friends and neighbors is the best proof in the world. Read and be convinced.

John G. Latham, 807 Cotanch St., Greenville, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills in my case far surpassed any other kidney remedy I had previously used. For some time my kidneys were disordered, the secretions being too frequent and painful in passage. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was so much impressed that I procured a box at John I. Wooten's drug store. They seemed to go directly to the seat of my trouble and gave me relief in a short time. My kidneys were restored to their normal condition and I felt better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

A MINISTER'S STORY.

It Didn't Have the Intended Effect Upon the Congregation.

It is said that a New England minister once told the following story just before the collection was taken up:

"I have heard of a man, prosperous and well to do, who went to church one Sunday and put a cent—just a plain copper cent—in the collection box."

"On the way home he was overtaken by a sudden heavy shower and, having no umbrella, crawled into a hollow log by the roadside to keep himself dry until the downpour was over."

"Soon the log began to swell, and the water it got the more it swelled until the sides finally closed in on the prosperous citizen and held him in a grip like a vise."

"The rain ceased, but the unfortunate man was unable to move hand or foot. He shouted for help, but no one heard him. He was about to give up in despair when he suddenly thought of the cent he had dropped into the collection box that day, and it made him feel so mean and small that he crawled right out of the log without any further trouble."

"Now, if you expect to get caught in a shower and be obliged to take refuge in a hollow log on the way home, by all means put a cent in the contribution basket! If you don't anticipate a crisis of that sort—well, you will know what to do when the basket is passed."

The minister expected a shower of silver and bills to follow this story, but unfortunately just as the collection began a black cloud passed overhead, it suddenly began to sprinkle, and the pennies fairly rained into the contribution basket. Only one quarter, a solitary dime and a lone nickel were found among the coppers, and they got in before the shower began.

The congregation, it seems, had all left their umbrellas at home, and they were not taking any chances.—New York Times.

Got the Number.

Police Captain—You say that an automobile containing several persons sped along the street and struck down an old man? New Officer—Yis, sor. Police Captain—And that after chasing this auto for several blocks you finally succeeded in getting the number? New Officer—Yis, sor. Police Captain—Good! What was the number? New Officer—There wor just folve persons in th' car, sort—Circle Magazine.

Positive Reasons.

The Minister—Mackintosh, why don't you come to church now? Mackintosh—For three reasons, sir. Firstly, I d'na like yer theology; secondly, I d'na like yer singin', and, thirdly, it was in your kirk I first met my wife. —Dundee Advertiser.

Essentials of Oratory.

"I have my speech nearly completed."
"I suppose you have marshaled your arguments in a splendid manner."
"No; I haven't taken up that part of it. But I have selected my anecdotes."
—Washington Star.
