TRIBUTE TO THE CONFEDERACY.

EXTRACTS FROM MR. E. L. STEWART'S SPEECH.

Delivered to the Bryan Grimes Camp on Memorial Day.

I would be peculiarly insensible to the traditions of my fathers; I would be sadly lacking in that element of pride and gratitude which should be inherently characteristic of every man born and bred in a Southern home, did I not experience a thrill of keenest joy, a sensation of exquisite pleasure, as I stand with uncovered head in the presence of this camp of Pitt county Veterans, among whom are numbered some of the sturdiest, the bravest, the best citizenship to be found within the borders of the Old North State. And as I look into your faces and note the stamp of truth and honor which appears there, I am all the more convinced of the correctness of my opinion and the wisdom of my judgment along this line.

Veterans of the Confederacy: You have been overpowered, outnumbered and defeated, but I declare to you today that on the pages of the world's literature, and in the annals of the world's history your name will ever stand out in bold, conspicuous outlines to tell to future generations the fame of the sons of the Confederacy. Like a song without words, sweet as a melody, inexpressible as the fleeting quiver of a dancing sunbeam, but real as true love will be that firm allegiance with which the future will cling to the past. For countless generations to come, with a heart that beats with a thrill of response, the young man will never cease to linger over those pages of history which tell of the men who made the fair fame of our beloved Southland immortal. With a knowledge that it is good to do so, the father of the future will never lose an opportunity to discuss with his sons and friends the noble daring, the unqualified bravery of his ancestors. And long, long after fables and myths have faded into antiquity and been forgotten, the mothers of our Southland will be telling their loved ones of the divine fire of unselfish devotion which illuminated and glorified the lives of those who loved and championed the cause of the Confederacy.

Remarkable evidence of almost phenomenal industrial development is seen on all sides, while the promulgation of religion and education among the illiterate classes is fast dispelling ignorance and vice, and placing these people in a position which will enable them to participate in this great movement.

Particularly is this true of North Carolina, which is no longer an isolated power with a destiny and problems peculiarly her own. But with natural advantages which have been developed in forty-four years of unequal growth, she presents her rightful claim to recognition as one of the foremost states of the Union.

Is it any source of wonder then that we are proud of this magnificent country of ours? Freedom has always been her policy. The government under which we live and move, and have our being is inherently a democratic institution, and liberty, both personal and universal, is the very essence of demo-

Forbes' School Closing.
The closing exercises of the school at Forbes' school house, taught by Misses Kern and Gibson, Monday night was unusually good, and preparation of the children for their various parts reflected great credit upon the teachers. Although the weather was very inclement there was a good crowd present and every one seemed to thoroughly enjoy each piece on the program.
Several well earned prizes were presented to the pupils excelling in music, for defining dictionary words, spelling, arithmetic and writing with appropriate and encouraging words from Profs. Ragsdale and Smith. The citizens have cause to be proud of this school.

And we will never cease to bless you for that most noble trait, that attribute which descends fresh from the hand of Almighty God straight into your hearts, and bids you smile with approval on our efforts to take up the work of reconstruction where you have been forced to abandon it.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.
Mrs. K. R. Tunstall and Mrs. M. A. Hill, of Kinston, are visiting Mrs. J. S. Tunstall.
Mrs. W. E. Tucker, of Grimesland, who has been visiting Mrs. H. C. Edwards, left Monday.
W. H. Dail, Sr., of Snow Hill, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Charles Laughinghouse and son, W. H. Dail, Jr., returned home today.
W. C. Baldwin, of Orange county, came here Monday to attend the memorial exercises and will spend some days in this section. He tells us that the only time he was ever in Greenville before was in the summer of 1862 when he was brought here with several sick soldiers and quartered in the old academy, and he never forgot the kind treatment he received from our people.

LOCAL BRIEFS.
The Sans Souci club will meet with Miss Helen Forbes Thursday afternoon at 4:30.
Do not overlook the opening of that big sale at Munford's tomorrow morning. See his page ad today.
The directors of The Home Building and Loan Association meet at the secretary's office at 5 o'clock this afternoon to elect officers.

The Meeting.
The revival meeting at the Christian church last night showed marked progress. The audience was the largest of any yet on Monday night. The music was exceptionally good. The sermon was on "Christian Union" and was listened to with great earnestness. Dr. Colyer is a gifted and profound reasoner along lines of argument that interests the masses. The prayer of the Master, "That they all may be one," Jno. 17, fastens itself upon the heart of man when the truth of it is pressed home.

Interest grows more intense every day and many are being added to the church. Tonight will be one of interest to many, as the subject answers a question which is of interest to all "Can a Man be Saved Outside the Church." Tomorrow night will be the last service of the meeting. Dr. Colyer will close the revival with his famous lecture, "Out of Failure into Success." The whole town is invited to hear this lecture. It is new and inspiring. You will never regret the time spent in listening to it. There will be no charges made at this lecture. Only a free-will offering will be taken.

Got Him Wroug.
Mr. W. H. Hunter, who is here on a visit to his brother, dropped in on The Reflector with "pistols and coffee for two" because he was inadvertently recorded as haling from Carthage. He says he wants it understood that he is a citizen of Jonesboro, in the new and great county of Lee, a fact of which he is very proud.

Through to Morehead.
On or about June 10th the Norfolk & Southern railroad will run the train from Raleigh that now stops at Chocowinity on through to Morehead and Beaufort. This will give a convenient schedule to get to the seaside without any lay over.

TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1909.

Whatever Greenville goes at she does it right.

Mrs. Augusta Evans Wilson, a noted Southern authoress, died in Mobile Sunday at the age of 74. She wrote a number of interesting novels.

An Iowa drayman has fallen heir to an estate in New York worth $40,000,000. It is safe to predict that he will quit driving plugs and go to riding in automobiles.

Whether the Republicans get mad over it or not, they must admit that the president could not have made a better appointment than in his selection of Judge Connor.

Some man has suggested ex-President Roosevelt as Republican candidate for mayor of New York. The hunter had better hurry home and go to looking after it.

Now the scramble will come for Judge Connor's place on the Supreme court bench. Before he was even appointed Federal judge several were putting in for his present place.

James Boyle, convicted of kidnapping the Whitla boy in Pennsylvania, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for life and his wife for twenty-five years. The sentence was none too heavy for such a crime.

The fellow John C. Davis, who several years ago robbed so many people in Wilmington and gave princely gifts to a church there, and when caught up with was adjudged insane and confined in the asylum five or more years, has come to light again in Washington City where his similar stealings are said to foot up half a million dollars. His victims are mainly widows and orphans.

Owing to the length of it and having to give a report of all the memorial day exercises, The Reflector could not give the address of Mr. E. L. Stewart as much mention as its excellence entitled it to. It was a real gem and received unlimited praise from all whose good fortune it was to hear him. Those who did hear it we know will appreciate reading portions of it again, while those who could not hear it will be more than pleased to read it, and while we cannot print it in full The Reflector will give some extracts from it that all our readers may enjoy it.

At last the judgeship for Eastern North Carolina has been settled, President Taft on Monday appointing Judge H. G. Connor, of Wilson, as successor of the late Judge T. R. Purnell. Judge Connor has for ten years

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

been one of the associate justices of the Supreme court of North Carolina, and is one of ablest lawyers in the State. While The Reflector held to the first opinion that the appointment should go to a Republican and not to a Democrat, a better man for it than Judge Conner could not have been named. It is safe to say that with him on the bench the Eastern Federal court is not going to be the political tribunal it was under his predecessor.

Better Plant Hog and Hominy.

The better price paid last year for tobacco and this year for cotton will have a tendency to increase the acreage of both. Farmers should remember that the tobacco trust only pays fair prices when under fire or as a bait and that they always get more money for a small crop of cotton than for a big crop. The Polkton correspondent of the Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer says:

"Ten cent cotton is strengthening the nerve of our cotton farmers. Some are enlarging their acreage and hauling fertilizer again. Even one of our enterprising merchants, who was never known to farm before, is planting a crop. Dressed as a typical farmer, he goes to the field himself, and guides the plow, runs the planter, and rolls seed like an agricultural veteran."

Of course land peculiarly adapted to cotton should be planted in cotton provided plenty of land is saved for growing hog and hominy. After enough cotton for the money crop—indeed before that—every farmer should raise enough hog and hominy to move his smoke-house and granary from the West to a place on his own farm.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The prohibition law is working very well indeed. All the nonsense we heard about the blind tigers deluging the country with liquor is a figment of a wet brain. The blind tigers do sell some liquor, of course, but nothing like the amount sold by the open saloon, and our children are no longer being educated with the price of blood.—Charity and Children.

Surprising, What Kodol Will Do

For you, when you need it. But the longer you neglect indigestion, the more you will suffer before Kodol can restore Good Digestion.

And, of course, indigestion if neglected long enough, brings on serious diseases in which Kodol cannot benefit you. Some of these there is no help for at all.

There are, in fact, very few ailments which cannot be traced directly to impure blood. And impure blood is always due to a disordered stomach.

Use Kodol and prevent Nervous Dyspepsia.

Kodol will effectually assist Nature to secure a complete restoration of good digestion. It does this by at once digesting all food in the stomach and keeping it digested, until the stomach is rested and can resume its own work. Kodol removes the cause—and the effect quickly removes itself.

When it is recalled that Apoplexy, Heart Disease, Cancer—and even Consumption—are due to poor digestion and poisons thus transmitted to the blood, and throughout the system—the importance of maintaining good digestion is at once realized.

We knew what Kodol would do before ever the first bottle was sold. If we did not know just what it will do, we would not guarantee it the way we do.

It is easy for you to prove Kodol—the next (or the first) time you have an attack of indigestion. And you will certainly be surprised at the results. It is perfectly harmless.

There can be no harm in trying something that may do you a great deal of good—when it costs you nothing if it doesn't.

Our Guarantee

Not Very Reliable.

The sages of the general store were discussing the veracity of old Si Perkins when Uncle Bill Abbott ambled in.

"What do you think about it, Uncle Bill?" they asked him. "Would you call Si Perkins a liar?"

"Waal," answered Uncle Bill slowly as he thoughtfully studied the ceiling, "I don't know as I'd go so far as to call him a liar exactly; but I do know this, much—when feedin' time comes, in order to get any response from his hogs he has to get somebody else to call 'em for him."—Everybody's.

The Man Who Was "Gone."

In a case which recently came up for hearing a certain witness was called. On the mention of his name a man rose up and said, "He's gone."

"Where is he gone?" said the judge. "It is his duty to be here."

"My lord," was the solemn reply, "I wadna care to commit myself as to whaur he's gone, but he's deid."—"Scottish Life and Humor," by W. Sinclair.

Not the Same.

"Excuse me," he said as he entered the public library at Pegantic, "but do you have any social registers here?"

"No, we hain't," said the librarian, with considerable hauteur. "This here buildin' is het up by steam, and we hain't got nothin' but radiators, and we don't allow no settin' around with your feet on to them neither. The nearest thing we got to a social registry in this town is the postoffice stove."—Lipincott's.

A Long Greek Word.

What is believed to be the longest word to be found in any dictionary, one that leaves even German and Dutch hopelessly out of it, may be turned up in Liddell and Scott's lexicon by those who can read Greek characters. Those who cannot may be content to know that this word, which begins "lepadotemachoselachogaleo," proceeds in like manner through seventy-eight syllables and counts 170 letters in all. Of course no ancient Greek ever used such a word as this in ordinary conversation. It is a comic word invented by Aristophanes for rythmical delivery in one of his plays and means a dish compounded of all sorts of fish, flesh, fowl and sauces, which are enumerated in the word. The most ingenious English translation of it yet suggested is "hash."
