THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

STATE CONVENTION IN SESSION HERE.

Brilliant Reception to Delegates Tuesday Night—Interesting Reports at Today's Session.

Though not so many delegates to The King's Daughters convention as were expected arrived Tuesday evening, there was a good number, and those here were given a public reception from 9:30 to 11:30 at Carolina Club. The club parlors were appropriately decorated in the colors of The King's Daughters organization, white and purple. Many of our home people were present, and these with the visitors made a charming and brilliant assemblage. In the receiving line were the officers of Carolina Club and their wives, State officers of The King's Daughters, officers of Patient Circle of Greenville, ministers and their wives and several of the delegates.

The Musical Club of Greenville, Miss Olive Gaston accompanist, gave a select vocal program. Beside the choruses, there were two solos by Mrs. W. L. Hall and a duet by Mrs. Hall and Miss Helen Forbes.

By special request Mrs. James Burton Cherry gave two solos that were rendered in her usual charmingly sweet voice. Mrs. Clarence G. Burton, of Richmond, member of the Central Council and State secretary for Virginia, also favored the assembly with several delightful recitations.

Ices and cake were served, and the entire evening proved one of very great pleasure to all.

Other delegates arrived this morning and the attendance was quite large when the first session of the State convention opened at 10:45 o'clock in Jarvis Memorial Methodist church.

The president, Mrs. Burgwyn, called the convention to order, and the devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. B. Cook.

After an anthem by the Musical Club the address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. A. L. Blow. This was indeed a beautiful welcome, in language and expression, and fittingly voiced the sentiment of Patient Circle, the convention host, and the people of Greenville in greeting this loyal band of noble workers "In His Name."

The response to the welcome was by Mrs. C. J. Kelloway, of Wilmington, and most appropriate.

Mr. Charles James sang "The Door of Hope," and the regular order of business followed.

The president announced the following committees:

Credentials—Mrs. Richard Williams, Greenville; Mrs. F. S. Kelloway, Raleigh; Mrs. W. N. Everett, Rockingham.

Auditing—Mrs. Charles Laughinghouse and Mrs. Fordyce Harding, Greenville.

Resolutions—Mrs. G. A. Rose, Henderson; Mrs. A. A. Klutz, Chapel Hill; Mrs. F. D. Cannon, Salisbury; Mrs. C. H. Gattis, Raleigh; Mrs. J. S. Wesley, Durham.

The credentials committee made report of the circles represented. The auditing committee reported that all accounts were correct.

The roll call showed the following circles represented: Burden Bearers, of Chapel Hill; Patient, of Greenville; Whatsoever, of Henderson; St. Luke's, of Raleigh; Whatsoever, of Willington; Relief, of Salisbury; Little Workers, of Salisbury.

The report of the State secretary showed 23 circles in the State with a membership of 660.

The different officers made their annual reports, which showed that much progress had been made in the work over the State during the year.

The reports of the several circles were called for and read by the representatives. These gave interesting accounts of what the circles are doing and pledged to greater effort for the coming year.

Mrs. Clarence G. Burton, State secretary of the Virginia circles, was introduced to the convention and its privileges extended. She responded briefly and expressed her thanks for the honor.

Little Miss Flossie Harris, of Salisbury, the youngest delegate here, made a report for the children's society recently organized there, and it was so excellent that the convention gave her a rising vote of thanks.

At 12:30 an hour's adjournment was had for lunch in Carolina Club rooms.

The session this afternoon was devoted to further reports from the circles and a general discussion of ways and means to increase the membership and improve the work.

Tonight the twentieth anniversary of the North Carolina branch of the order will be celebrated.

Scotch People Here.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Robertson, of Edinburg, Scotland, arrived here Tuesday and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Joyner at Ingeltarre, two miles from town. After some correspondence Mr. Robertson came here direct from Scotland for the purpose of looking into conditions of this section with a view of locating a number of thrifty people of his country who are anxious to come to America. To hear him speak of the servitude and hardships of the people of Scotland it is no wonder they want to come to a country of better opportunities. He expresses himself as greatly pleased with what he has seen here so far.

We have tried to stress the industrial side of the school this year. I believe the work in sewing will be an agreeable surprise to the people. Much of the written work of the pupils is also very creditable, and I trust a good number of people will go to the school tomorrow and see the exhibit.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. A True North Carolinian.

One of our esteemed Democratic contemporaries recently referred to the fact that Gov. Aycock was a most estimable gentleman but a very poor politician. It may be that Gov. Aycock is a poor politician, yet he is the most popular man in North Carolina. An effort was made last spring to set aside his influence in the state. On the 24th of last June at the Charlotte convention when Gov. Aycock arose to speak, the attention was not given to him that was formerly given, and it was visible that his great influence before a North Carolina audience had been somewhat dimmed. But before that long convention had closed Gov. Aycock was the idol of the convention, and in the closing hours of the convention when he arose to speak, the convention arose almost as one man to hear his every word; and at the close of the convention he was stronger than ever and every man who went home from the convention who remained throughout its session, realized the greatness of this distinguished North Carolinian.

Gov. Aycock may not be great in seeking office because he does not display the zeal that some men do, and may not spend his hours in seeking and devising means by which to accomplish selfish purposes, but in the hearts of the people of the State no man is closer, and it comes not from an effort on his part, but from his remarkable record and the goodness and greatness that are in the man.—Ashboro Courier.

An exchange thus describes the town booster. "Who's the town booster? The citizen who praises his own town. The citizen who encourages local enterprises. The citizen who helps along home improvements. The citizen who patronizes the home merchants. The citizen who gets his job printing done by his local newspaper. That man's The Town Booster.—Snow Hill Standard-Laconic.

When you pull down the town in which is your home, your business, you are pulling down yourself, and when you build up your own town, you build up yourself and your neighbor.—McDowell Democrat.

Why RALSTON SHOES are non-wrinkling

As you have probably noticed, most shoes have a tendency to wrinkle and "bunch up" across the toes after the shoes have been worn a few times. This is the fault of the lasting (the process of pulling and stretching the leather over the wooden last.)

The RALSTON method has remedied this fault. Ralston vamps are first crimped (see illustration) then lasted. There are no bunches, no wrinkles, because every part of the vamp fits the last perfectly without straining the leather at any point. This adds to the wear of the shoe. It also explains the reason why Ralstons retain their smart appearance until worn out.

There are other unusual features of RALSTON SHOE construction which will appeal to you. Come in and look over our new styles.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Greenville Citizen Can Afford to Ignore

Danger Signal No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

Danger Signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy; or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here is proof in the statement of a nearby resident.

Wm. Murrill, Washington & Tarboro, Ste., Rocky Mount, N. C., says: Doan's Kidney Pills proved in my case to be a valuable remedy for kidney trouble; and I have no hesitation in recommending them to anyone afflicted with this complaint. I used them for backache and other annoyances arising from disordered kidneys and they brought me prompt relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
